Com'r. of Crown Lands Office,
York, 1st December, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by His Majesty's Government for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Officeof the Surveyor General, or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

PETER ROBINSON.

It is, however, to be understood, that these Regulations shall not interfere with the Order in Council of 14th May, 1830, which applies exclusively to discharged Soldiers and Sailors, and in respect to whom, the period of residence is hereby appointed to be three years, instead of five, as prescribed by that Order.

WILLIAM THE FOURTH, by the Grace of GOD, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c. &c.

To all our loving and faithful Subjects in our Province of Upper Canada—

Greeting:

KNOW YE, that taking into our most serious consideration the merciful interposition of Divine Providence, and that it hath pleased Almighty God, to remove from our people the grievous calamity with which they have been lately afflicted: We have resolved, and by the advice of our Executive Council for our Province of Upper Canada, do hereby command, that a day of PUBLIC THANKSGIVING be observed throughout our said Province, on Thursday, the Fourteenth day of February next, so that all our people therein may humble themselves before Almighty God, and in the most devout and solemn manner send up their prayers, praises and thanksgivings to the Divine Majesty, for having removed the heavy Judgments which our manifold provocations have most justly deserved, and for beseeching God still to continue to us his mercies, favor and protection. And We do strictly charge and command, that the said day of Public Thanksgiving be reverently and devoutly observed by all our loving Subjects in our said Province of Upper Canada, as they tender the favor of Almighty God, and would avoid His wrath and indignation; and upon pain of such punishment as we may justly inflict on all such as contemn or neglect the performance of so religious and necessary a duty.

Com'r. of Crown Lands Office,
York, 1st December, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by His Majesty's Government for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Office of the Surveyor General, or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

VOL. VII. YORK UPPER CANADA, THURSDAY FEBRUARY 21, 1833. NO. 4.0

By Authority.

An Act relating to the Bailing and Committment, Removal and Trial of Prisoners in certain cases.

[Passed 15th February, 1833.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to define under what circumstances persons may be admitted to bail in cases of felony or misdemeanor, and to make better provision for taking examinations, informations, bailments and recognizances, and returning the same to the proper tribunals; and also, for obtaining the evidence of prisoners confined in any prison upon the limits thereof, without the necessity of suing out a writ of habeas corpus:—Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province;'" and by the authority of the same, That when any person shall be taken on a charge of Felony, or suspicion of Felony, before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, and the charge shall be supported by positive and credible evidence of the fact, or by such evidence as if not explained or contradicted shall in the opinion of the Justice or Justices raise a strong presumption of the guilt of the person charged, such person shall be committed to Prison by such Justice or Justices, in manner hereinafter mentioned; but if there shall be only one Justice present, and the whole evidence given before him shall be such as neither to raise a strong presumption of guilt nor to warrant the dismissal of the charge, such Justice shall order the person charged to be detained in custody until he or they shall be taken before two Justices, at the least; and where any person so taken, or any person in the first instance, taken before two Justices of the Peace, shall be charged with Felony, or on suspicion of Felony, and the evidence given in support of the charge shall, in their opinion, not be such as to raise a strong presumption of the guilt of the person charged, and to require his or her committal, or such evidence shall be adduced on behalf of the person charged, as shall in their opinion weaken the presumption of guilt, but there shall, notwithstanding, appear to them, in either of such cases, to be sufficient ground for Judicial inquiry into his or her guilt, the person charged shall be admitted to bail by such two Justices, in the manner hereinafter mentioned: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to require any Justice or Justices to hear evidence on behalf of any person or persons so charged as aforesaid, unless it shall appear to him or them to be meet, and conducive to the ends of Justice, to hear the same.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the two Justices of the Peace, before they shall admit the bail, and the Justice or Justices, before he or they shall commit to prison any person arrested for Felony, or on suspicion of Felony, shall take the examination of such person, and the information upon oath of those who shall know the facts and circumstances of the case, and the particular grounds of suspicion, in cases where direct proof is not adduced, and shall put the same into writing in the presence of the party accused, if he be in custody, who shall have full opportunity afforded him of cross-examining such witnesses, if he shall think proper so to do; and the two Justices shall thereupon certify such Bailment in writing, and every such Justice shall have authority to bind by Recognizance, all such persons as know, or declare any thing material touching any such Felony, or suspicion of Felony, to appear at the next Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery, or Sessions of the Peace at which the trial thereof is intended to be had, then and there to prosecute or give evidence against the party accused; and such Justice or Justices respectively, shall subscribe all such Examinations, Informations, Bailments and Recognizances, and deliver, or cause the same to be delivered, to the public Prosecutor, before, or at the opening of the said Court.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every Justice of the Peace before whom any person shall be taken on a charge of Misdemeanor, or suspicion thereof, shall take the examination of the party charged, and the information, upon oath, of those who shall know the facts and circumstances of the case, and shall put the same, or so much thereof as shall be material, into writing, before he shall commit to prison, or require Bail from the person so charged; and in every case of Bailment, shall certify the Bailment in writing, and shall have authority to bind all persons by Recognizance to appear to prosecute or give evidence, as in cases of Felony, and shall subscribe all Examinations, Informations, Bailments and Recognizances, and deliver, or cause the same to be delivered, to the public Prosecutor, or Clerk of the Court in which the trial is to be, before or at the opening of the Court, as in cases of Felony; and that no traverse, or other postponement of any trial to be thereupon had, shall be allowed, except upon special cause shewn to the satisfaction of the said Court, or by consent of His Majesty's Attorney or Solicitor General conducting the Prosecution thereof.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every Coroner, upon any Inquisition before him taken, whereby any person shall be indicted for Manslaughter or Murder, or as an accessory to Murder before the fact, shall, in presence of the party accused, if he can be apprehended, put in writing the evidence given to the Jury before him, or so much thereof as shall be material, giving the party accused full opportunity of cross-examination; and shall have authority to bind by Recognizance, all such persons as prove or declare any thing material touching the said Manslaughter or Murder, or the offence of being accessory to Murder, to appear at the next Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery at which the trial is to be, then and there to give evidence against the party charged; and every such Coroner shall certify and subscribe the same evidence, and all such Recognizances, and also the Inquisition before him taken, and shall deliver the same to the Court at which the trial is to be, before or at the opening of the Court next ensuing the taking the same.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any Justice or Coroner shall offend in any thing, contrary to the true intent and meaning of these provisions, the Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol delivery, or Sessions of the Peace respectively, holden within the District where any party accused shall be liable to be tried, shall, upon examination, and proof of the offence, in a summary way, set such fine upon every such Justice or Coroner, as the Court shall think meet.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when, and so often as any person shall be committed for trial by any Justice or Justices, or Coroner, as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for such Prisoner, his Counsel, Attorney or Agent, to notify the said committing Justice or Justices, or Coroner, that he will, so soon as Counsel can be heard, move His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, or one of the Judges thereof, for an order to the Justices of the Peace, or Coroner, for the District where such Prisoner shall be confined, to admit such Prisoner to bail, whereupon it shall be the duty of such committing Justice or Justices, or Coroner, to transmit to the Office of the Clerk of the Crown, close under the Hand and Seal of one of them, a certified copy of all the informations, examinations, and other evidences touching the offence wherewith such prisoner shall be charged, together with a copy of the Warrant of Commitment and Inquest, if any such there be, and that the packet containing the same shall be handed to the person applying therefor, in order to such transmission, and shall be certified on the outside thereof to contain the information, touching the case in question.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That upon any application to His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, or to any Judge thereof, the same order, touching the prisoner being bailed or continued in custody, shall be made as if the party were brought up upon a Habeas Corpus.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when, and so often as the attendance of any person confined in any Gaol or Prison in this Province, or upon the limits thereof, shall be required in any Court of Assize and Nisi Prius, or Oyer and Terminer, or General Gaol Delivery, it shall and may be lawful for the Court before whom such Prisoners shall be required to attend, in its discretion, to make an order upon the Sheriff, Gaoler, or other person having the custody of such Prisoner, to deliver such Prisoner to the person named in such order to receive him, which person shall thereupon instantly convey such prisoner to the place where the Court issuing such order shall be sitting, there to receive and obey such further order as to the said Court shall seem meet: Provided always, that no prisoner confined for any debt or damages in any Civil Suit, shall be thereby removed out of the District where he shall be confined.

THE following summary of the Rules established by HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Office of the Surveyor General, or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

VOL. VII. YORK UPPER CANADA, THURSDAY FEBRUARY 28, 1833. NO. 41.

By Authority.

An Act to reduce the number of cases in which Capital Punishment may be inflicted; to provide other punishment for offences which shall no longer be Capital, after the passing of this Act: to abolish the privilege called benefit of Clergy; and to make other alterations in certain Criminal Proceedings, before and after conviction.

[Passed 13th February, 1833.]

WHEREAS it is fit that it should be plainly declared, in the Statutes of this Province, for what crimes offenders shall be liable to be punished with death: And whereas it does not seem to be indispensible, for the security and well being of society, that the punishment of death should be inflicted in any other cases than those hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That if a person do compass or imagine the death of our Lord the King, or if a person do levy war against our Lord the King, in this Province, or be adherent to the King's enemies in this Province, giving to them aid and comfort, in this Province, or elsewhere, and thereof be provably attainted of open deed by people of his condition, such person so attainted shall be deemed guilty of Treason, and shall suffer death.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every person convicted of Murder, or of being an accessory before the fact to Murder, shall suffer death as a Felon.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every offence which, before the passing of this Act, would have amounted to Petit Treason, shall be deemed to be Murder only, and no greater or other offence; and all persons guilty in respect thereof, whether as principals or accessories, shall be dealt with, indicted, tried, and punished as principals and accessories in murder.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons whatsoever shall by force set at liberty or rescue, or attempt to rescue, or set at liberty, any person out of prison, who shall be committed for, or found guilty of Murder; or rescue, or attempt to rescue, any person convicted of Murder, going to Execution, or during Execution, every person so offending shall be deemed, taken, and adjudged to be guilty of Felony, and shall suffer death.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every person convicted of the crime of Rape, shall suffer death as a Felon.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person shall unlawfully carnally know, and abuse any Girl under the age of ten years, every such offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer death as a Felon.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every person convicted of the abominable crime of Buggery, committed either with mankind or with any animal, shall suffer death as a Felon.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person shall rob any other person of any chattel, money, or valuable security; or shall rob any person carrying or conveying, or having charge of His Majesty's Mail, in any part of this Province, of any letter or letters, packet or packets, bag or mail of letters, every such offender, being convicted thereof, shall suffer death as a Felon; and such offences shall and may be enquired of, tried and determined, either in the District in which the offence shall be committed, or in which the offender shall or may be apprehended.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every person convicted of Burglary, shall suffer death as a Felon.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no building, although within the same curtilage with the dwelling-house, and occupied therewith, shall be deemed to be part of such dwelling-house, for the purpose of Burglary, unless there shall be a communication between such building and dwelling-house, either immediate, or by means of a covered and enclosed passage leading from the one to the other.

XI. And be it furtheer enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person shall unlawfully and maliciously set fire to any Church or Chapel, or to any building commonly used for Religious Worship, or to any house, stable, coach-house, out-house, warehouse, office, shop, mill, malt-house, barn or granary; or to any building or erection used in carrying on any trade or manufacture, or any branch thereof, whether the same, or any of them respectively, shall then be in the possession of the offender, or in the possession of any other person, with intent thereby to injure or defraud any person, or any body Corporate, or Company of persons, every such offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer death as a Felon.

XII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every person convicted of being an accessory before the fact to any of the offences made Capital by this Act, shall suffer death, as in cases of Felony.

XIII. And whereas, for the preventing and suppressing of Riots and Tumults, and for the more speedy and effectual punishing the offenders therein, an Act was passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, in the first year of the Reign of King George the First, entitled "An Act for preventing tumults and riotous assemblies, and for the more speedy and effectual punishing the Rioters," whereby it is among other things enacted, that "if any "persons to the number of twelve, or more, "being unlawfully, riotously, and tumultuously assembled together, to the disturbance of "the public peace, at any time after the last "day of July, in the year of our Lord one "thousand seven hundred and fifteen, and "being required or commanded by any one "or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, or "by the Sheriff of the County, or his Under "Sheriff, or by the Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, "or other Head Officer, or Justice of the "Peace of any City, or Town Corporate, "when such Assembly shall be by Proclamation, to be made in the King's name, in the "form in the said Act directed, to disperse "themselves and peaceably to depart to their "habitations, or to their lawful business, shall, "to the number of twelve or more, (notwithstanding such Proclamation made) unlawfully, riotously, and tumultuously remain or "continue together by the space of one hour "after such command or request made by "Proclamation, that then such continuing "together to the number of twelve or more, "after such command or request made by "Proclamation, shall be adjudged Felony "without benefit of Clergy, and the offenders "therein shall be adjudged Felons, and shall "suffer death as in case of Felony, without "benefit of Clergy." And it is in the said Act further enacted, that "the order and form "of the Proclamation that shall be made by "the authority of the said Act shall be as "hereafter followeth, (that is to say):—That "the Justice of the Peace, or other person "authorised by the said Act to make the said "Proclamation, shall, among the said Rioters, "or as near to them as he can safely come, "with a loud voice command, or cause to be "commanded silence to be, while Proclamation is making; and after that, shall openly, "and with loud voice, make, or cause to be "made Proclamation in these words, or like "in effect:—

"Our Sovereign Lord the King chargeth and "commandeth all persons being assembled immediately to disperse themselves, "and peaceably to depart to their habitations or to their lawful business, upon "the pains contained in the Act made in "the first year of King George, for preventing tumults and riotous assemblies. "God save the King."

"And every such Justice, and Justices of the "Peace, Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Mayor, Bailiff, "and other Head Officer aforesaid, within "the limit of their respective Jurisdictions, "are by the said Act authorized, empowered, "and required, on notice or knowledge of any "such unlawful, riotous and tumultuous assembly, to resort to the place where such "unlawful, riotous and tumultuous assemblies shall be, of persons to the number of

"twelve or more, and there to make, or "cause to be made Proclamation in manner "aforesaid." And it is in the said Act further enacted, that "if such persons so unlawfully, "riotously and tumultuously assembled, or "twelve or more of them, after Proclamation "made in manner aforesaid, shall continue "together, and not disperse themselves within "one hour, that then it shall and may be "lawful to and for every Justice of the Peace, "Sheriff, or Under Sheriff of the County "where such Assemblies shall be, and also to "and for every High and Petty Constable, "and other Peace Officer within such County, "and also to and for every Mayor, Justice of "the Peace, Sheriff, Bailiff, and other Head "Officer, High or Petty Constable, and other "Peace Officer of any City or Town Cor"porate, where such Assembly shall be, and "to and for such other person and persons as "shall be commanded, to be assisting unto "any such Justice of the Peace, Sheriff or "Under Sheriff, Mayor, Bailiff, or other Head "Officer aforesaid, (who are hereby authorized "and empowered to command all His Majes"ty's Subjects of age and ability, to be as"sisting to them therein) to seize and appre"hend, and they are hereby required to seize "and apprehend, such persons so unlawfully, "riotously, and tumultuously continuing to"gether, after Proclamation made as aforesaid, "and forthwith to carry the persons so appre"hended before one or more of His Majesty's "Justices of the Peace of the County or place "where such persons shall be so apprehended, "in order to their being proceeded against for "such their offences, according to Law; and "that if the persons so unlawfully, riotously, "and tumultuously assembled, or any of them, "shall happen to be killed, maimed, or hurt, "in the dispersing, seizing or apprehending, "or endeavoring to disperse, seize or appre"hend them, by reason of their resisting the "persons so dispersing, seizing or apprehend"ing, or endeavoring to disperse, seize or "apprehend them, that then every such Justice "of the Peace, Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Mayor, "Bailiff, Head Officer, High or Petty Con"stable, or other Peace Officer, and all and "singular, persons being aiding and assisting "to them, or any of them, shall be free, dis"charged, and indemnified, as well against "the King's Majesty, His Heirs and Succes"sors, as against all and every other person "and persons, of, for, or concerning the kill"ing, maiming, or hurting of any such person "or persons, so unlawfully, riotously and "tumultuously assembled, that shall happen "to be killed, maimed or hurt, as aforesaid." And it is in the said Act further enacted, that "if any persons unlawfully, riotously and "tumultuously assembled together, to the "disturbance of the public Peace, shall un"lawfully, and with force, demolish or pull "down, or begin to demolish or pull down, "any Church or Chapel, or any building for "Religious Worship certified, and Registered "according to the Statute made in the first "year of the Reign of the late King William "and Queen Mary, entitled "An Act for "exempting their Majesty's Protestant Subjects "dissenting from the Church of England "from the Penalties of certain Laws;" or any "dwelling-house, barn, stable, or other out"house, that then every such demolishing or "pulling down, or beginning to demolish or "pull down, shall be adjudged Felony, without "benefit of Clergy, and the offenders therein "shall be adjudged Felons, and shall suffer "death as in case of Felony, without benefit "of Clergy." And it is in the said Act further enacted, that "if any person or per"sons do, or shall with force and arms, wil"fully and knowingly oppose, obstruct, or in "any manner wilfully and knowingly let, "hinder or hurt, any person or persons that "shall begin to proclaim, or go to proclaim, "according to the Proclamation thereby di"rected to be made, whereby such Proclama"tion shall not be made, that then every such "opposing, obstructing, letting, hindering or "hurting such person or persons so beginning "or going to make such Proclamation, as afore"said, shall be adjudged Felony without benefit "of Clergy, and the offenders therein shall be "adjudged Felons, and shall suffer death as in "case of Felony, without benefit of Clergy; "and that also every such person or persons "so being unlawfully, riotously and tumultu"ously assembled, to the number of twelve, "as aforesaid, or more, to whom Proclamation "should or ought to have been made, if the "same had not been hindered, as aforesaid, "shall likewise, in case they, or any of them "to the number of twelve, or more, shall "continue together, and not disperse them"selves within one hour after such let or "hindrance so made, having knowledge of "such let or hindrance so made, shall be "adjudged Felons, and shall suffer death as "in case of Felony, without benefit of Clergy." And it is in the said Act further enacted, that "no person or persons shall be prosecuted "by virtue of the said Act for any offence or "offences committed contrary to the same, "unless such prosecution be commenced within "twelve months after the offence committed."

Be it enacted, by and with the authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall affect or be construed to affect, or in any manner to repeal or vary any of the provisions in the said Act contained, but the same shall continue and remain, as if this Act had not been passed. Provided nevertheless, And it is hereby enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the provisions in the fourth clause of the said Act shall apply and extend to all Churches or Chapels, or Places for religious worship in this Province, notwithstanding the same, or any of them, shall not be certified or registered, as provided in the said Act.

XIV. And whereas by a certain Act of the Parliament of Great Britain passed in the twelfth year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled "An Act for the better securing and preserving His Majesty's Dock Yards, Magazines, Ships, Ammunition and Stores," it is enacted, That "if any person or persons shall "within the Realm, or in any of the Islands, "Countries, Forts or Places thereunto belong"ing, wilfully and maliciously, set on fire, or "burn, or otherwise destroy, or cause to be set "on fire or burnt, or otherwise destroyed, or "aid, procure, abet or assist in the setting on "fire, or burning, or otherwise destroying, of "any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of "War, whether the said Ships or Vessels of "War, be on float or building, or begun to be "built, in any of His Majesty's Dock Yards, "or building or repairing by contract in any "private yard, for the use of His Majesty, or "any of His Majesty's Arsenals, Magazines, "Dock Yards, Rope Yards, Victualling Of"fices, or any of the buildings erected therein "or belonging thereto, or any timber or ma"terials there placed, for building, repairing "or fitting out of Ships or Vessels, or any of "His Majesty's Military, Naval, or Victualling "Stores, or other Ammunition of War, or any "place or places where any such Military, Na"val or Victualling Stores, or other Ammuni"tion of War is, are, or shall be kept, placed "or deposited, that then the person or persons, "guilty of any such offence being thereof con"victed, in due form of Law, shall be adjuged "guilty of Felony, and shall suffer death, as "in cases of Felony without benefit of Cler"gy."

And whereas also by a certain other Act of the Parliament of Great Britain passed in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of Queen Anne, entitled "An Act for punishing "Mutiny, Desertions, and false Musters, and "for better paying of the Army and Quarters, "and for satisfying divers Arrears, and for a "further continuance of the powers of the five "Commissioners for the examining and deter"mining the Accounts of the Army," it is enacted, That "if any Officer or Soldier in His "Majesty's Army, shall either upon land out "of England, or upon the sea hold corres"pondence with any rebels, or enemy of His "Majesty, or give them advice or intelligence, "either by letters, messages, signs, or tokens, "or any manner of way whatsoever, or shall "treat with such rebels or enemies, or enter "into any condition with them without His "Majesty's Licence, or Licence of the Gene"ral, Lieutenant General or Chief Comman"der, then every such person so offending "shall be deemed and adjudged to be guilty "of High Treason, and suffer such pains and "penalties as in case of High Treason." Be it therefore enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed or taken to affect, in any manner, the provisions of the above in part recited Acts, or either of them.

XV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so much of an Act of the Parliament of this Province passed in the thirty-sixth year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled "An Act for the better regula"tion of certain Coins current in this Pro"vince." And of an Act passed in the Parliament of this Province, in the thirty-eighth year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled "An Act to establish on a permanent "footing the boundary lines of the different "Townships of this Province." And of an Act passed in the Parliament of this Province, in the fortieth year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled "An Act for the "further introduction of the Criminal Law of "England in this Province, and for the more "effectual punishment of certain offenders." And of the several Acts of the Parliament of this Province passed for authorizing the issuing of Government Debentures, as provides that any offence in any of those Statutes respectively mentioned, shall be punishable with death, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed; And that such offences shall continue to be of the degree of Felony, and the persons convicted thereof shall be liable to the punishments, or any of them, which are by this Act provided in respect to felonies generally, which are not punishable with death.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person shall be indicted for any offence made capital by this, or any other Statute made or to be made, such person shall be liable to the same punishment, whether he, or she shall be convicted by verdict, or confession, or shall be outlawed, upon indictment; and this as well in the case of Accessories as of Principals.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person being arraigned upon any indictment for Treason, or Felony, shall plead thereto a plea of "Not Guilty," he shall by such plea without any further form be deemed to have put himself upon the county for trial—and that if any person being arraigned upon any indictment for Treason or Felony, shall stand mute of malice, or will not answer directly to the indictment, in every such case it shall be lawful for the Court, if it shall so think fit, to order the proper officer to enter a plea of "Not Guilty," on behalf of such person, and the plea so entered shall have the same force and effect, as if such person had actually pleaded the same.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person indicted for any Treason or Felony, shall challenge peremptorily a greater number of the men returned to be of the Jury than such person is entitled by Law so to challenge, in any of the said cases, every peremptory challenge beyond the number allowed by Law, in any of the said cases, shall be entirely void; and the trial of such person shall proceed as if no such challenge had been made.

XIX. And whereas in certain cases of High Treason, as the Law now stands, the sentence or judgment required by Law to be pronounced, or awarded against any persons convicted or adjudged guilty of the said crime, in such cases, is, that they should be drawn on a hurdle to the place of execution; and there be hanged by the neck, but not until they are dead, but that they should be taken down again, and that when they are yet alive their bowels should be taken out, and burnt before their faces; and that afterwards their heads should be severed from their bodies, and their bodies divided into four quarters, and their heads and quarters to be at the King's disposal—And whereas it is expedient in the said cases of High Treason to alter the sentence or judgment now required by Law—Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in all cases of High Treason in which, as the Law now stands, the sentence or judgment ordained by Law is as aforesaid, the sentence or judgment to be pronounced or awarded from and after the passing of this Act against any person convicted or adjudged guilty shall be, that such person shall be drawn on a hurdle to the place of execution, and be there hanged by the neck until such person be dead—and that afterwards the body of such person shall be dissected and anatomized.

XX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That whenever any person shall be convicted of Murder and executed therefor, the body of such murderer shall be delivered by the Sheriff, or his Deputy, and his officers, to a Surgeon for the purpose of being dissected and anatomized.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That sentence shall be pronounced in open Court immediately after the conviction of such murderer, and before the Court shall proceed to any other business, unless the Court shall see reasonable cause for postponing the same; in which sentence shall be expressed not only the usual judgment of death, but also the time appointed for the execution thereof, and the mark of infamy hereby directed for such offenders; in order to impress a just horror in the mind of the offender, and on the minds of such as shall be present of the heinous crime of murder.

XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that after such sentence pronounced as aforesaid, in case there shall appear reasonable cause, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Judge or Justice, before whom such criminal shall have been so tried, to stay the execution of the sentence, at the discretion of such Judge or Justice, regard being always had to the true intent and purpose of this Act.—Provided also, That it shall be in the power of any such Judge or Justice to appoint the body of any such criminal to be dissected and anatomized.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after such conviction, and judgment given thereupon, the Gaoler or Keeper to whom such criminal shall be delivered for safe custody, shall confine such prisoner to some cell or other proper and safe place within the prison, separate and apart from the other prisoners—And that no person or persons whatsoever except the Gaoler, or Keeper, or his Servant shall have access to any such prisoner, without license being first obtained for that purpose under the hand of such Judge or Justice before whom such offender shall have been tried, or under the hand of the Sheriff, his Deputy, or Under Sheriff. Provided always, That in case any such Judge or Justice shall see cause to respite the execution of such offender so condemned as aforesaid, such Judge or Justice may relax or release any or all of the restraints, or regulations hereinbefore or hereinafter directed to be observed by the Gaoler or Keeper of the prison where such prisoner shall be confined, by any license in writing signed by such Judge or Justice for that purpose, for and during the time of such stay of execution, any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That after sentence passed, as aforesaid, and until the execution thereof, such offender shall be fed with bread and water only, except in case of any violent sickness, or wound, in which case some known Physician, Surgeon or Apothecary may be admitted by the Gaoler or Keeper of the said Prison, to administer necessaries, the christian and surname of such Physician, Surgeon or Apothecary, and his place of abode being first entered in the books of such Prison or Gaol there to remain; and, in case such Gaoler or Prison Keeper shall offend against, or neglect to put in execution, any of the directions or regulations hereby enacted to be observed, such Gaoler or Prison Keeper shall for such offence forfeit his office, and be imprisoned for a time not exceeding three months, upon conviction thereof, by indictment.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, benefit of Clergy in this Province shall be abolished, and that the same may not in any case be prayed, and shall not in any case be allowed, any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding. And that in all cases of crimes made punishable by this Act with death, the effect of such provision shall be the same as in the case of any offence which, before the passing of this Act, was made punishable with death without benefit of Clergy. And that all persons who may hereafter be duly convicted of any offence not specified in this Act, and which before the passing thereof was punishable in this Province with death, with, or without benefit of Clergy, shall be liable to be banished, or to be transported beyond the seas for life, or for such term not less than seven years as the Court before which such person shall be convicted, shall adjudge, or shall be liable, in case such Court shall think fit, to be imprisoned only, or imprisoned and kept to hard labour, or in solitary confinement in the Common Gaol, or in any Penitentiary, or House of Correction, that may be provided for such purposes, for any term not exceeding fourteen years, except persons convicted of returning from transportation, or from banishment, with respect to whom the term of imprisonment, with or without hard labour, or by solitary confinement, may, if the Court shall think fit, be extended to the term of his, or her natural life—And that in case of manslaughter, the offender shall be liable to be fined or imprisoned, or both, in the discretion of the Court, Provided that such imprisonment shall not exceed twelve calendar months.—And provided that the offence of manslaughter shall be punishable by such fine, and imprisonment only, and not by all or any of the other descriptions of punishment in this clause before mentioned.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any Person shall be convicted, after the passing of this Act, of Forgery, or of uttering any forged deed, will, instrument, note, bill or writing, or of falsely personating any person or persons, which forgery, or which uttering, or which false personating was, before the passing of this Act, punishable with death, in this Province, the Court before which such person shall be convicted may, if they shall think fit, adjudge such person (unless in case of a female) to be set in the Pillory, once or oftener, or to be once or oftener publicly or privately whipped, at such time or times, and at such place or places, as they may direct, which punishment shall either be in addition to any other punishment which the Court according to Law, may award, or otherwise, as may to them appear proper.

An Act relating to the Bailing and Committment, Removal and Trial of Prisoners in certain cases.

[Passed 13th February, 1833.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to define under what circumstances persons may be admitted to bail in cases of felony or misdemeanor, and to make better provision for taking examinations, informations, bailments and recognizances, and returning the same to the proper tribunals; and also, for obtaining the evidence of prisoners confined in any prison upon the limits thereof, without the necessity of suing out a writ of habeas corpus:—Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province;'" and by the authority of the same, That when any person shall be taken on a charge of Felony, or suspicion of Felony, before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, and the charge shall be supported by positive and credible evidence of the fact, or by such evidence as if not explained or contradicted shall in the opinion of the Justice or Justices raise a strong presumption of the guilt of the person charged, such person shall be committed to Prison by such Justice or Justices, in manner hereinafter mentioned; but if there shall be only one Justice present, and the whole evidence given before him shall be such as neither to raise a strong presumption of guilt nor to warrant the dismissal of the charge, such Justice shall order the person charged to be detained in custody until he or they shall be taken before two Justices, at the least; and where any person so taken, or any person in the first instance, taken before two Justices of the Peace, shall be charged with Felony, or on suspicion of Felony, and the evidence given in support of the charge shall, in their opinion, not be such as to raise a strong presumption of the guilt of the person charged, and to require his or her committal, or such evidence shall be adduced on behalf of the person charged, as shall in their opinion weaken the presumption of guilt, but there shall, notwithstanding, appear to them, in either of such cases, to be sufficient ground for Judicial inquiry into his or her guilt, the person charged shall be admitted to bail by such two Justices, in the manner hereinafter mentioned; Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to require any Justice or Justices to hear evidence on behalf of any person or persons so charged as aforesaid, unless it shall appear to him or them to be meet, and conducive to the ends of Justice, to hear the same.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the two Justices of the Peace, before they shall admit the bail, and the Justice or Justices, before he or they shall commit to prison any person arrested for Felony, or on suspicion of Felony, shall take the examination of such person, and the information upon oath of those who shall know the facts and circumstances of the case, and the particular grounds of suspicion, in cases where direct proof is not adduced, and shall put the same into writing in the presence of the party accused, if he be in custody, who shall have full opportunity afforded him of cross-examining such witnesses, if he shall think proper so to do; and the two Justices shall thereupon certify such Bailment in writing, and every such Justice shall have authority to bind by Recognizance, all such persons as know, or declare any thing material touching any such Felony, or suspicion of Felony, to appear at the next Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery, or Sessions of the Peace at which the trial thereof is intended to be had, then and there to prosecute or give evidence against the party accused; and such Justice or Justices respectively, shall subscribe all such Examinations, Informations, Bailments and Recognizances, and deliver, or cause the same to be delivered, to the public Prosecutor, before, or at the opening of the said Court.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every Justice of the Peace before whom any person shall be taken on a charge of Misdemeanor, or suspicion thereof, shall take the examination of the party charged, and the information, upon oath, of those who shall know the facts and circumstances of the case, and shall put the same, or so much thereof as shall be material, into writing, before he shall commit to prison, or require Bail from the person so charged; and in every case of Bailment, shall certify the Bailment in writing, and shall have authority to bind all persons by Recognizance to appear to prosecute or give evidence, as in cases of Felony, and shall subscribe all Examinations, Informations, Bailments and Recognizances, and deliver, or cause the same to be delivered, to the public Prosecutor, or Clerk of the Court in which the trial is to be, before or at the opening of the Court, as in cases of Felony; and that no traverse, or other postponement of any trial to be thereupon had, shall be allowed, except upon special cause shewn to the satisfaction of the said Court, or by consent of His Majesty's Attorney or Solicitor General conducting the Prosecution thereof.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every Coroner, upon any Inquisition before him taken, whereby any person shall be indicted for Manslaughter or Murder, or as an accessory to Murder before the fact, shall, in presence of the party accused, if he can be apprehended, put in writing the evidence given to the Jury before him, or so much thereof as shall be material, giving the party accused full opportunity of cross-examination; and shall have authority to bind by Recognizance, all such persons as prove or declare any thing material touching the said Manslaughter or Murder, or the offence of being accessory to Murder, to appear at the next Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery at which the trial is to be, then and there to give evidence against the party charged; and every such Coroner shall certify and subscribe the same evidence, and all such Recognizances, and also the Inquisition before him taken, and shall deliver the same to the Court at which the trial is to be, before or at the opening of the Court next ensuing the taking the same.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any Justice or Coroner shall offend in any thing, contrary to the true intent and meaning of these provisions, the Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol delivery, or Sessions of the Peace respectively, holden within the District where any party accused shall be liable to be tried, shall, upon examination, and proof of the offence, in a summary way, set such fine upon every such Justice or Coroner, as the Court shall think meet.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when, and so often as any person shall be committed for trial by any Justice or Justices, or Coroner, as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for such Prisoner, his Counsel, Attorney or Agent, to notify the said committing Justice or Justices, or Coroner, that he will, so soon as Counsel can be heard, move His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, or one of the Judges thereof, for an order to the Justices of the Peace, or Coroner, for the District where such Prisoner shall be confined, to admit such Prisoner to bail, whereupon it shall be the duty of such committing Justice or Justices, or Coroner, to transmit to the Office of the Clerk of the Crown, close under the Hand and Seal of one of them, a certified copy of all the informations, examinations, and other evidences touching the offence wherewith such prisoner shall be charged, together with a copy of the Warrant of Commitment and Inquest, if any such there be, and that the packet containing the same shall be handed to the person applying therefor, in order to such transmission, and shall be certified on the outside thereof to contain the information, touching the case in question.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That upon any application to His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, or to any Judge thereof, the same order, touching the prisoner being bailed or continued in custody, shall be made as if the party were brought up upon a Habeas Corpus.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when, and so often as the attendance of any person confined in any Gaol or Prison in this Province, or upon the limits thereof, shall be required in any Court of Assize and Nisi Prius, or Oyer and Terminer, or General Gaol Delivery, it shall and may be lawful for the Court before whom such Prisoners shall be required to attend, in its discretion, to make an order upon the Sheriff, Gaoler, or other person having the custody of such Prisoner, to deliver such Prisoner to the person named in such order to receive him, which person shall thereupon instantly convey such prisoner to the place where the Court issuing such order shall be sitting, there to receive and obey such further order as to the said Court shall seem meet: Provided always, that no prisoner confined for any debt or damages in any Civil Suit, shall be thereby removed out of the District where he shall be confined. 40

CROWN OFFICE,
20th February, 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Court of Oyer and Terminer, General Gaol Delivery, and of Assize and Nisi Prius, in and for the Home District, will be held at the Town of York, on Tuesday the ninth day of April next, of which the Sheriff, Coroners, Magistrates, Gaoler, Constables, Bailiffs, and other Peace Officers, are commanded to take notice.

By Order of the Court.

CHARLES C. SMALL
41—i Clerk of the Crown.

Com'r. of Crown Lands Office,
York, 1st December, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Officeof the Surveyor General, or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

PETER ROBINSON.

By Authority.

An Act to make certain regulations relating to the Office of Sheriff in this Province, and to require the several Sheriffs of this Province to give Security for the due fulfilment of the duties of their Office.

[Passed 13th February, 1833]

WHEREAS from the tenure of the Office of Sheriff in this Province and the nature of the Security exacted for the due performance of its duties sufficient indemnity is not afforded against damages that may arise from the misprisions or defaults of Sheriffs: Be it therefore enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That the Sheriff of each and every District of this Province, shall on or before the first day of August next, after the passing of this Act, enter into a Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in the Penal sum of One thousand Pounds, together with two sureties to be approved of by the Inspector General of Public Accounts, in the sum of five hundred pounds each, with a condition that he shall well and faithfully account for and pay over all such Monies as he shall receive for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, which Bond and Condition shall be in the form given in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked A, or in words to the like effect.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Sheriff of each and every District of this Province, shall also on or before the same first day of August, provide either two or four sufficient persons, who together with himself shall enter into a Covenant under their Seals joint and several, according to the form given in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked B, or in words to the same effect, which Covenant shall be available to, and may be sued upon by any person suffering damages by the default or wilful misconduct of any such Sheriffs respectively.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That such Sureties shall not be accepted as sufficient unless a majority of the Justices of the Peace at a Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the District in which any such Sheriff is serving, shall ascertain and determine that they are good and sufficient, and unless a certificate shall be given in pursuance of such determination under the Hand and Seal of the Chairman of such Quarter Sessions, declaring that the Court are satisfied that the persons named in the Certificate are responsible persons to the full amount to which they are required to become Surety, which Certificate shall be produced and filed at the time of the delivering and filing of the said Covenant as hereinafter provided.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Bond to His Majesty required by this Act shall be deposited with the Inspector General of Public Accounts in this Province, and that the Covenant required by this Act shall be made in duplicate each part of which shall be marked duplicate, but shall be considered and received as original, one of which parts shall be filed in the Office of the Secretary of the Province, and the other part thereof shall be filed in the Office of the Clerk of the Peace of the District for which such Sheriff shall be appointed, for which filing the said Clerk of the Peace shall be entitled to demand and receive from the Sheriff the sum of Two shillings and Six pence and no more.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all and every person or persons shall be authorized to search and examine any such Covenant, and shall and may demand and have from any Clerk of the Peace of any District of this Province, a copy of such Covenant as may be filed as aforesaid in pursuance of this Act, and it shall and may be lawful for such Clerk of the Peace to demand and receive for every such search and examination One shilling and three pence, and for every such copy Five shillings and no more.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Sheriff of every District of this Province now appointed or hereafter to be appointed shall at or before the expiration of every period of four years from the date of the Bond and Covenant given by him and his Sureties according to this Act, renew his Bond and Covenant in the same sums respectively, either with the same or with other Sureties, whose sufficiency shall be certified in the manner hereinbefore provided—And all the provisions of this Act in respect to the Bond and the Covenant first required to be given shall apply to such renewed Bond and Covenant.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That at any time and at all times hereafter when the Office of Sheriff of any District of this Province shall become vacant, it shall not be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Person administering the Government of this Province to appoint any person to the said Office of Sheriff until such person shall have given and filed a Covenant with Securities, and shall also have given a Bond with Sureties in the same manner and to the same tenor and effect as are by this Act required from the several persons now holding commissions, and executing the said office of Sheriff.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no person shall hereafter be appointed to the Office of Sheriff in any District who shall not be possessed of real Estate in this Province, of the actual value of Seven hundred and fifty pounds, above incumbrances, and who shall not before he receives his commission file an Affidavit to that effect in the Office of the Secretary of this Province, which Affidavit shall be sworn before the Chairman of the Quarter Sessions of the District in open Sessions, who is hereby authorized and required to take the same.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person who shall have become an Obligor in any such Bond or Surety, in any such Covenant, shall die, or shall become resident out of this Province, or shall become insolvent, the person holding such Office of Sheriff for whom, the person so dying, leaving this Province or becoming insolvent, shall have become such Obligor or Surety, shall within four months after such death or departure, or after such insolvency shall be certified in the manner herein provided, give anew the like Bond and Security and in the same manner as hereinbefore required —Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to discharge all or any of the parties to such former Bond or Covenant from their liability, on account of any matter or thing which shall have been done or omitted before the renewal of the Security as herein directed.

X. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if during the period for which any such Covenant as aforesaid shall be given, the Sureties executing the same or any of them, shall apprehend that the Sheriff for whom such Surety was given is insolvent, and has not property to the amount of Seven hundred and fifty pounds over and above all incumbrances and debts, and shall transmit to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government of this Province, an Affidavit made by him or them to that effect, and sworn to, before a Commissioner for taking Affidavits in the Court of King's Bench, the Sheriff for whom the Security was given, shall be thereupon officially notified by the Secretary to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government of this Province, that he must forthwith furnish new Security in the manner pointed out by this Act, or must on Affidavit deny that he is insolvent, or that he is worth less than the sum of Seven hundred and fifty pounds, over and above all incumbrances and debts, and that if such requisition is not complied with within one month after the sitting of the then ensuing Quarter Sessions of the District, he shall for that cause be removed from Office.

XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when any new Surety or Sureties shall be given either at the expiration of any stated period, or by way of substitution for any other Surety within the period, the former Surety shall only be discharged as to defaults or misfeasances suffered or committed after the perfecting of such new Security, and not as to any previous defaults or misfeasances.

XII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That after the Covenant required to be entered into by this Act, shall have been sued upon by any person having or alleging a claim upon the parties to the same, by reason of the default or misfeasance of the Sheriff, it shall notwithstanding be in the power of any person, or of the same person, to bring an action upon the same Covenant for any other default or misfeasance, and such subsequent action shall not be barred by reason of any prior recovery, or of any Judgment for the defendant rendered in a former action, or of any other action being depending upon the same Covenant for any distinct cause of action.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons who shall or may have become such Surety, shall have paid, or shall be liable to pay any sum or sums equal to the sum for which he or they shall have become Security, the said Bond or Covenant shall as to such person or persons be taken and deemed to be discharged and satisfied as to any claim or demand thereon beyond the amount of such payment or liability, and such Sheriff shall within four months after such person or persons shall have become so discharged, give a new such Securities as are required by the provisions of this Act.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the amount of any damages so recovered which such Security has been obliged to pay is not equal to the amount for which he shall have become Security as aforesaid, then the Court shall after deducting such sums therefrom, render Judgment against such Security for any amount not exceeding the residue of the sum for which such Security shall have become responsible as aforesaid.

XV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if it shall be made appear by Affidavit, or other sufficient proof to the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of any District, that any such Covenant has been or may be discharged as aforesaid, or that the Securities therein mentioned or any or either of them have become insolvent, it shall and may be lawful for the said Quarter Sessions to give notice thereof to the Sheriff of such District, and such Sheriff shall and he is hereby required to give anew the like Covenant as hereinbefore required by the provisions of this Act, within four months after such notice.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That upon the issuing of any Writ of Execution upon any Judgment recovered on such Covenant, the Plaintiff in such suit or his Attorney shall by an indorsement on such Writ direct the Coroner to levy the amount thereof upon the goods and chattels of the Sheriff in the first place, and in default of goods and chattels of such Sheriff to satisfy the amount, then that the same or the residue thereof shall be made of the goods and chattels of the other Defendants in such suit, and so in like manner with any Writ which shall issue against the lands and tenements, in any Judgment upon such Covenant as is required by this Act.

An Act to provide for Partition of Real Estates.

[Royal Assent given by Message.]

WHEREAS in many cases much inconvenience is experienced from the want of some Court competent to order the Partition of Lands held in Joint Tenancy, Tenancy in Common, and Co-parcenary:—Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That all Joint Tenants, Tenants in Common, and Co-parceners of any Estate or Estates, in Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, within this Province, may be compelled to make or suffer Partition of such Estate or Estates in manner hereinafter prescribed, and that when such Estate or Estates is or may be situated in two or more Districts, the proceedings under this Act shall be heard before the Court of King's Bench, and where such Estate or Estates is or may be situated in one District only, the proceedings may be had before the District Court or Court of King's Bench.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any person being a Joint Tenant, Co-parcener, or Tenant in Common of any such Estate or Estates, or the Executor, Administrator, Guardian or Agent of any such person, may file his or her Petition in the Court of King's Bench or District Court, as the case may require, praying that Partition of such Estate or Estates may be made, which Petition shall set forth the nature of the Title or Claim of the Demandant, the Tract or Tracts of Land, the Tenements or Hereditaments, of which Partition is demanded; and also, the name and place of residence of each Joint Tenant, Co-parcener, and Tenant in Common, with such Demandant, if they shall be known to such Demandant, and if on examination it shall appear that the Demandant has a good and legal right and title to any part or proportion of such Estate or Estates, then the Court shall proceed at the Term in which such Petition may be filed, to order and direct a Partition to be had and made, in the manner prescribed by the provisions of this Act: Provided, it shall appear, that the notice required by this Act hath been sufficiently and legally given, and no sufficient reason shall appear why the prayer of the Petitioner should not be granted, otherwise the Court shall order and direct notice of such demand of Partition to be given, either by publication in one or more Newspapers printed in this Province, when the parties concerned reside out of this Province, or by personal notice to be served at least forty days before the ensuing Term, if the party or parties concerned reside within this Province: Provided always, that when the person or persons of whom Partition is demanded, reside out of this Province, and have an Agent or Attorney residing within this Province, personal notice of such demand or Partition shall be given to such Agent or Attorney, as is required in the case of Resident Proprietors.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if at the first or succeeding Term (in case a continuance hath been granted) after the filing of such Petition, it shall appear to the Court that due notice hath been given, and if no sufficient reason shall appear why Partition should not be made, the Court shall proceed to order such Partition, and shall issue their Writ, directed to the Sheriff of the District in which the Estate or Estates shall or may lie, or to the Sheriff of either of the Districts in which the Estate or Estates shall or may lie, in case such Estate or Estates is or are in more than one District, commanding him by the Oaths of three judicious and disinterested Freeholders of the vicinity, to be appointed by said Court and named in said Writ, who are not of kin to any of the said parties concerned, to cause to be set off and divided to the Demandant in said Petition, such part or proportion of such Estate or Estates as the Court shall have ordered and directed; and in making such Partition, it shall be the duty of said Freeholders to view and examine such Estate or Estates, to set apart the same in such Lot or Lots as will be most advantageous and equitable, having due regard to the improvements, situation and quality of the different parts of such Estate or Estates, and if the bounds or title of any tract or tracts, or any part thereof shall be controverted, it shall be the duty of the said Freeholders to separate the same from the uncontroverted part, and to make Partition of the Estate or Estates in such manner, that a due proportion of the controverted as well as the uncontroverted part may be allotted to the Demandant.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when the facts alleged in any Petition, for Partition hereafter to be preferred in consequence of this Act, are controverted by any of the Tenants in Common, Co-parceners, or Joint Tenants, the answer or objection to the Petition shall be made in writing, in the form of a Plea, to which the Petitioner may reply or demur, to the end that the matter in dispute may be reduced to an issue in Law or fact, and receive a determination by the Court or a Jury, in the manner other issues are determined; and in case the issue be determined in favor of the Petitioner, Judgment shall be entered by the Court, that Partition be made by disinterested Freeholders as aforesaid, and the Court shall proceed to appoint them accordingly: And also, that the Petitioner recover against the adverse party the costs attending the Trial, and Execution may issue for said costs in the form prescribed by Law, as in other cases; but if on such pleading it shall be determined that the Petitioner holds a less share or proportion in the common and undivided property than he has in his Petition alleged, the adverse party shall recover against the Petitioner his reasonable costs; but notwithstanding, Judgment may be rendered in favor of the Petitioner, to have an assignment of such parts of the Real Estate in severalty, as he in fact held in common and undivided.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if at any time after the filing of a Petition as aforesaid, and before a Writ shall have issued to the Sheriff, the person or persons, Joint Tenants, Co-parceners, or Tenants in Common, of whom Partition is demanded, shall appear by him or themselves, or by his or their Attorney, and shall pay their proportion of the costs which have occurred on such Partition, and shall consent to a Partition of such Estate or Estates, then Partition shall be made of such Estate or Estates, by such person or persons as said Joint Tenants, Co-parceners or Tenants in Common shall agree upon, and in case they do not agree upon any person or persons to make such Partition before the end of the Term, then a Writ shall issue to the Sheriff, as is hereinbefore provided.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when any Writ of Partition shall issue as aforesaid, if the Freeholders who are directed to make such Partition shall be of opinion that the Estate or Estates cannot be divided according to the demand of the Writ, without prejudice to, or spoiling the whole, the Freeholders shall then make and return to the Court a true valuation and appraisement of such Estate or Estates, whereupon, if the said Court shall approve the said return, and if any one or more of the parties shall elect to take the said Estate or Estates at the appraised value, the same shall be adjudged to him or them, he or they paying or securing to be paid to the other parties their proportion of the appraised value, according to their respective rights, and the Sheriff shall, according to the order of the Court, make and execute conveyances to the party or parties electing to take the same, subject nevertheless to a lien thereon in favor of the others of the said parties, until payment be made to them of their respective shares of the money as aforesaid; and in case the said parties shall not agree who shall take the said Lands and Tenements on the terms aforesaid, then the said Court shall or may, at the instance of the Demandant in the said Partition, make an order for the Sale of the said Lands and Tenements at Public Auction by the Sheriff, who shall have holden the said Inquisition, or his successors in office, after due and fair notice of the time and place of such Sale, by advertisements published and set up in the several Districts where the Lands lie, and also in such public Newspaper as shall be most likely to give fair and full notice of such sale to all parties concerned, and others, which public notice shall be given at least twenty days before the time of Sale, in cases where the Lands all lie in the same District, and at least sixty days when the Lands lie in different Districts; and the said Sheriff is hereby authorised, empowered and ordered to execute Deeds to the purchasers of the Lands and Tenements so as aforesaid sold, on receiving payment of the consideration money, or taking sufficient security therefor to the satisfaction of the Court, which money or security shall be brought into Court before or at the time of the said Sheriff's acknowledging the Deed, in open Court, to be distributed and paid by order of the said Court amongst the several parties entitled to receive the same, in lieu of their respective parts and proportion of the said Lands and Tenements, according to their just rights and proportions.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when any Writ of Partition shall issue, or when the parties interested shall agree on some person or persons to make Partition, it shall be the duty of the Inquest, or persons so agreed on, to make a true and accurate plan or map, and field book of such Lands as may be so divided, and to describe particularly the metes and bounds of all Tenements so divided and aparted, which plan or map, field book and description, the persons or inquest shall sign, and send under seal to the next Court having cognizance of the same, and after the division and return thereof shall be made to the Court, it shall be examined by the Court, and if found justly and accurately made, the Clerk shall record such return, which record shall be deemed valid and effectual in Law for the Partition of such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, and thereupon the party or parties shall have and hold the Shares or Parcels to them respectively allotted in severalty.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Court before whom any Partition shall be had, shall tax the costs and expences which may accrue on such proceedings, and shall issue Execution therefor against such Person or Persons, their Goods, Chattels, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, interested in such Partition, as shall not have paid their proportion of the costs and expences so taxed: Provided always nevertheless, that it shall be in the power of the Court in which any such proceeding for Partition is depending, to award a new Partition by another Jury, when it shall appear necessary for the ends of Justice, in the same manner and for the same causes as new trials are now granted by Law, but that no new Partition shall be granted when all the parties interested are resident within the Province, unless the same is applied for before the end of the Term next after that in which the former verdict has been rendered.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Guardians of all Minors are hereby respectively authorised and empowered on behalf of their Wards, to do and perform any act, matter or thing respecting the Partition of Land under this Act, and the same shall be deemed valid and effectual in Law, to every intent and purpose, as if the same had been done by such Minor after his arrival at full age.

X. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any Partner shall have a larger share set off than is such Partners true and real interest, or if any share set off should be more than equal in value to the proportion it was set off for, then and in every such case, upon complaint to the Court, which caused such Partition to be made, within three years of the making thereof, by any aggrieved Partner or Partners, who at the time of making such Partition were out of the Province, and not notified thereof agreeably to the Provisions of this Act, the said Court shall cause Partition thereof to be made anew, and in such new Partition, so much and no more shall be taken off from any, than as such shall shall be adjudged more than the proportion of the whole it was designed for, estimating such Lands or Real Estate as in the state they were in when first divided, and in case any improvements shall be made on the part that may by such new Partition be taken off as aforesaid, the Partner or his Assigns who made such improvements, shall have reasonable satisfaction made him by the Partner or Partners to whose share the same shall be added be the estimation of the Freeholders employed in making such new Partition, or the major part of them; and the same Court who ordered Partition, are also empowered to issue Execution for such satisfaction, and for costs in such new Partition, the same being first taxed and allowed by the said Court. 42

XIII. And whereas, for the preventing and suppressing of Riots and Tumults, and for the more speedy and effectual punishing the offenders therein, an Act was passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, in the first year of the Reign of King George the First, entitled "An Act for preventing tumults and riotous assemblies, and for the more speedy and effectual punishing the Rioters," whereby it is among other things enacted, that "if any persons to the number of twelve, or more, being unlawfully, riotously, and tumultuously assembled together, to the disturbance of the public peace, at any time after the last day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fifteen, and being required or commanded by any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, or by the Sheriff of the County, or his Under Sheriff, or by the Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Head Officer, or Justice of the Peace of any City, or Town Corporate, when such Assembly shall be by Proclamation, to be made in the King's name, in the

"form in the said Act directed, to disperse "themselves and peaceably to depart to their "habitations, or to their lawful business, shall, "to the number of twelve or more, (notwithstanding such Proclamation made) unlawfully, riotously, and tumultuously remain or "continue together by the space of one hour "after such command or request made by "Proclamation, that then such continuing "together to the number of twelve or more, "after such command or request made by "Proclamation shall be adjudged Felony "without benefit of Clergy, and the offenders "therein shall be adjudged Felons, and shall "suffer death as in case of Felony, without "benefit of Clergy." And it is in the said Act further enacted, that "the order and form "of the Proclamation that shall be made by "the authority of the said Act shall be as "hereafter followeth, (that is to say):—That "the Justice of the Peace, or other person "authorised by the said Act to make the said "Proclamation, shall, among the said Rioters, "or as near to them as he can safely come, "with a loud voice command, or cause to be "commanded silence to be, while Proclamation is making; and after that, shall openly, "and with loud voice, make, or cause to be "made Proclamation in these words, or like "in effect:—

"Our Sovereign Lord the King chargeth and "commandeth all persons being assembled immediately to disperse themselves, "and peaceably to depart to their habitations or to their lawful business, upon "the pains contained in the Act made in "the first year of King George, for pre-"venting tumults and riotous assemblies. "God save the King."

"And every such Justice, and Justices of the "Peace, Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Mayor, Bailiff, "and other Head Officer aforesaid, within "the limit of their respective Jurisdictions, "are by the said Act authorized, empowered, "and required, on notice or knowledge of any "such unlawful, riotous and tumultuous as-"sembly, to resort to the place where such "unlawful, riotous and tumultuous assem-"blies shall be, of persons to the number of "twelve or more, and there to make, or "cause to be made Proclamation in manner "aforesaid." And it is in the said Act further enacted, that "if such persons so unlawfully, "riotously and tumultuously assembled, or "twelve or more of them, after Proclamation "made in manner aforesaid, shall continue "together, and not disperse themselves within "one hour, that then it shall and may be "lawful to and for every Justice of the Peace, "Sheriff, or Under Sheriff of the County "where such Assemblies shall be, and also to "and for every High and Petty Constable, "and other Peace Officer within such County, "and also to and for every Mayor, Justice of "the Peace, Sheriff, Bailiff, and other Head "Officer, High or Petty Constable, and other "Peace Officer of any City or Town Cor-"porate, where such Assembly shall be, and "to and for such other person and persons as "shall be commanded, to be assisting unto "any such Justice of the Peace, Sheriff or "Under Sheriff, Mayor, Bailiff, or other Head "Officer aforesaid, (who are hereby authorized "and empowered to command all His Majes-"ty's Subjects of age and ability, to be as-"sisting to them therein) to seize and appre-"hend, and they are hereby required to seize "and apprehend, such persons so unlawfully, "riotously, and tumultuously continuing to-"gether, after Proclamation made as aforesaid, "and forthwith to carry the persons so appre-"hended before one or more of His Majesty's "Justices of the Peace of the County or place "where such persons shall be so apprehended, "in order to their being proceeded against for "such their offences, according to Law; and "that if the persons so unlawfully, riotously, "and tumultuously assembled, or any of them, "shall happen to be killed, maimed, or hurt, "in the dispersing, seizing or apprehending, "or endeavoring to disperse, seize or appre-"hend them, by reason of their resisting the

"persons so dispersing, seizing or apprehend-
"ing, or endeavoring to disperse, seize or
"apprehend them, that then every such Justice
"of the Peace, Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Mayor,
"Bailiff, Head Officer, High or Petty Con-
"stable, or other Peace Officer, and all and
"singular, persons being aiding and assisting
"to them, or any of them, shall be free, dis-
"charged, and indemnified, as well against
"the King's Majesty, His Heirs and Succes-
"sors, as against all and every other person
"and persons, of, for, or concerning the kill-
"ing, maiming, or hurting of any such person
"or persons, so unlawfully, riotously and
"tumultuously assembled, that shall happen
"to be killed, maimed or hurt, as aforesaid."
And it is in the said Act further enacted, that "if any persons unlawfully, riotously and
"tumultuously assembled together, to the "disturbance of the public Peace, shall un-
"lawfully, and with force, demolish or pull
"down, or begin to demolish or pull down,
"any Church or Chapel, or any building for "Religious Worship certified, and Registered
"according to the Statute made in the first "year of the Reign of the late King William
"and Queen Mary, entitled "*An Act for
"exempting their Majesty's Protestant Subjects
"dissenting from the Church of England
"from the Penalties of certain Laws*;" or any
"dwelling-house, barn, stable, or other out-
"house, that then every such demolishing or
"pulling down, or beginning to demolish or
"pull down, shall be adjudged Felony, without
"benefit of Clergy, and the offenders therein
"shall be adjudged Felons, and shall suffer
"death as in case of Felony, without benefit
"of Clergy." And it is in the said Act further enacted, that "if any person or per"sons do, or shall with force and arms, wil-
"fully and knowingly oppose, obstruct, or in "any manner wilfully and knowingly let,
"hinder or hurt, any person or persons that
"shall begin to proclaim, or go to proclaim,
"according to the Proclamation thereby di-
"rected to be made, whereby such Proclama-
"tion shall not be made, that then every such
"opposing, obstructing, letting, hindering or
"hurting such person or persons so beginning
"or going to make such Proclamation, as afore-
"said, shall be adjudged Felony without benefit
"of Clergy, and the offenders therein shall be "adjudged Felons, and shall suffer death as in "case of Felony, without benefit of Clergy;
"and that also every such person or persons
"so being unlawfully, riotously and tumultu-
"ously assembled, to the number of twelve,
"as aforesaid, or more, to whom Proclamation
"should or ought to have been made, if the "same had not been hindered, as aforesaid,
"shall likewise, in case they, or any of them
"to the number of twelve, or more, shall "continue together, and not disperse them"selves within one hour after such let or
"hindrance so made, having knowledge of "such let or hindrance so made, shall be "adjudged Felons, and shall suffer death as
"in case of Felony, without benefit of Clergy."
And it is in the said Act further enacted, that
"no person or persons shall be prosecuted
"by virtue of the said Act for any offence or
"offences committed contrary to the same,
"unless such prosecution be commenced within
"twelve months after the offence committed."

Be it enacted, by and with the authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall affect or be construed to affect, or in any manner to repeal or vary any of the provisions in the said Act contained, but the same shall continue and remain, as if this Act had not been passed. Provided nevertheless, And it is hereby enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the provisions in the fourth clause of the said Act shall apply and extend to all Churches or Chapels, or Places for religious worship in this Province, notwithstanding the same, or any of them, shall not be certified or registered, as provided in the said Act.

XIV. And whereas by a certain Act of the Parliament of Great Britain passed in the twelfth year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled "An Act for the better securing and preserving His Majesty's Dock Yards, Magazines, Ships, Ammunition and Stores," it is enacted, That "if any person or persons shall "within the Realm, or in any of the Islands, "Countries, Forts or Places thereunto belong-"ing, wilfully and maliciously, set on fire, or "burn, or otherwise destroy, or cause to be set "on fire or burnt, or otherwise destroyed, or "aid, procure, abet or assist in the setting on "fire, or burning, or otherwise destroying, of "any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of "War, whether the said Ships or Vessels of "War, be on float or building, or begun to be "built, in any of His Majesty's Dock Yards, "or building or repairing by contract in any "private yard, for the use of His Majesty, or "any of His Majesty's Arsenals, Magazines, "Dock Yards, Rope Yards, Victualling Of-"fices, or any of the buildings erected therein "or belonging thereto, or any timber or ma-"terials there placed, for building, repairing "or fitting out of Ships or Vessels, or any of "His Majesty's Military, Naval, or Victualling "Stores, or other Ammunition of War, or any "place or places where any such Military, Na-"val or Victualling Stores, or other Ammuni-"tion of War is, are, or shall be kept, placed "or deposited, that then the person or persons, "guilty of any such offence being thereof con-"victed, in due form of Law, shall be adjuged "guilty of Felony, and shall suffer death, as "in cases of Felony without benefit of Cler-"gy."

And whereas also by a certain other Act of the Parliament of Great Britain passed in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of Queen Anne, entitled "An Act for punishing "Mutiny, Desertions, and false Musters, and "for better paying of the Army and Quarters, "and for mutifying divers Arrears, and for a "further continuance of the powers of the five "Commissioners for the examining and deter-"mining the Accounts of the Army," it is enac-ted, That "if any Officer or Soldier in His "Majesty's Army, shall either upon land out "of England, or upon the sea hold corres-"pondence with any rebels, or enemy of His "Majesty, or give them advice or intelligence, "either by letters, messages, signs, or tokens, "or any manner of way whatsoever, or shall "treat with such rebels or enemies, or enter "into any condition with them without His "Majesty's Licence, or Licence of the Gene-"ral, Lieutenant General or Chief Comman-"der, then every such person so offending "shall be deemed and adjudged to be guilty "of High Treason, and suffer such pains and "penalties as in case of High Treason." Be it therefore enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed or taken to affect, in any manner, the provisions of the above in part recited Acts, or either of them.

XV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so much of an Act of the Parliament of this Province passed in the thirty-sixth year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled "An Act for the better regula-"tion of certain Coins current in this Pro-"vince." And of an Act passed in the Parliament of this Province, in the thirty-eighth year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled "An Act to establish on a permanent "footing the boundary lines of the different "Townships of this Province." And of an Act passed in the Parliament of this Province, in the fortieth year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled "An Act for the "further introduction of the Criminal Law of "England in this Province, and for the more "effectual punishment of certain offenders." And of the several Acts of the Parliament of this Province passed for authorizing the issuing of Government Debentures, as provides that any offence in any of those Statutes respectively mentioned, shall be punishable with death, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed; And that such offences shall continue to be of the degree of Felony, and the persons convicted thereof shall be liable to the punish-ments, or any of them, which are by this Act provided in respect to felonies generally, which are not punishable with death.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person shall be indicted for any offence made capital by this, or any other Statute made or to be made, such person shall be liable to the same punishment, whether he, or she shall be convicted by ver-dict, or confession, or shall be outlawed, upon indictment; and this as well in the case of Accessories as of Principals.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person being arraigned upon any indictment for Treason, or Felony, shall plead thereto a plea of "Not Guilty," he shall by such plea without any further form be deemed to have put himself upon the county for trial—and that if any person being arraigned upon any indictment for Treason or Felony, shall stand mute of malice, or will not answer directly to the in-dictment, in every such case it shall be lawful for the Court, if it shall so think fit, to order the proper officer to enter a plea of "Not Guilty," on behalf of such person, and the plea so entered shall have the same force and effect, as if such person had actually pleaded the same.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person indicted for any Treason or Felony, shall challenge peremptorily a greater number of the men re-turned to be of the Jury than such person is entitled by Law so to challenge, in any of the said cases, every peremptory challenge beyond the number allowed by Law, in any of the said cases, shall be entirely void; and the trial of such person shall proceed as if no such chal-lenge had been made.

XIX. And whereas in certain cases of High Treason, as the Law now stands, the sentence or judgment required by Law to be pronoun-ced, or awarded against any persons convict-ed or adjudged guilty of the said crime, in such cases, is, that they should be drawn on a hur-dle to the place of execution; and there be hanged by the neck, but not until they are dead, but that they should be taken down a-gain, and that when they are yet alive their bowels should be taken out, and burnt before their faces; and that afterwards their heads should be severed from their bodies, and their bodies divided into four quarters, and their heads and quarters to be at the King's dispo-sal—And whereas it is expedient in the said cases of High Treason to alter the sentence or judgment now required by Law—Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in all cases of High Treason in which, as the Law now stands, the sentence or judg-ment ordained by Law is as aforesaid, the sen-tence or judgment to be pronounced or awar-ded from and after the passing of this Act against any person convicted or adjudged guil-ty shall be, that such person shall be drawn on a hurdle to the place of execution, and be there hanged by the neck until such person be dead—and that afterwards the body of such person shall be dissected and anatomized.

XX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That whenever any person shall be convicted of Murder and executed therefor, the body of such murderer shall be delivered by the Sheriff, or his Deputy, and his officers, to a Surgeon for the purpose of being dissect-ed and anatomized.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That sentence shall be pro-nounced in open Court immediately after the conviction of such murderer, and before the Court shall proceed to any other business, un-less the Court shall see reasonable cause for postponing the same; in which sentence shall be expressed not only the usual judgment of death, but also the time appointed for the ex-ecution thereof, and the mark of infamy hereby directed for such offenders; in order to impress a just horror in the mind of the offender, and on the minds of such as shall be present of the heinous crime of murder.

XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that after such sen-tence pronounced as aforesaid, in case there shall appear reasonable cause, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Judge or Justice, before whom such criminal shall have been so tried, to stay the execution of the sentence, at the discretion of such Judge or Justice, regard being always had to the true intent and pur-pose of this Act.—Provided also, That it shall be in the power of any such Judge or Justice to appoint the body of any such criminal to be dissected and anatomized.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after such conviction, and judgment given thereupon, the Gaoler or Keeper to whom such criminal shall be delivered for safe custody, shall con-fine such prisoner to some cell or other proper and safe place within the prison, separate and apart from the other prisoners—And that no person or persons whatsoever except the Gaol-er, or Keeper, or his Servant shall have access to any such prisoner, without license being first obtained for that purpose under the hand of such Judge or Justice before whom such offen-der shall have been tried, or under the hand of the Sheriff, his Deputy, or Under Sheriff. Provided always, That in case any such Judge or Justice shall see cause to respite the execu-tion of such offender so condemned as afore-said, such Judge or Justice may relax or re-lease any or all of the restraints, or regula-tions hereinbefore or hereinafter directed to be observed by the Gaoler or Keeper of the pri-son where such prisoner shall be confined, by any license in writing signed by such Judge or Justice for that purpose, for and during the time of such stay of execution, any thing here-inbefore contained to the contrary thereof not-withstanding.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That after sentence passed, as aforesaid, and until the execution thereof, such offender shall be fed with bread and wa-ter only, except in case of any violent sickness, or wound, in which case some known Physi-cian, Surgeon or Apothecary may be admitted by the Gaoler or Keeper of the said Prison, to administer necessaries, the christian and sur-name of such Physician, Surgeon or Apothe-cary, and his place of abode being first enter-ed in the books of such Prison or Gaol there to remain; and, in case such Gaoler or Pri-son Keeper shall offend against, or neglect to put in execution, any of the directions or re-gulations hereby enacted to be observed, such Gaoler or Prison Keeper shall for such offence forfeit his office, and be imprisoned for a time not exceeding three months, upon conviction thereof, by indictment.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, benefit of Clergy in this Province shall be abolished, and that the same may not in any case be prayed, and shall not in any case be allowed, any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding. And that in all cases of crimes made punishable by this Act with death, the effect of such provi-sion shall be the same as in the case of any offence which, before the passing of this Act, was made punishable with death without be-nefit of Clergy. And that all persons who may hereafter be duly convicted of any offence not specified in this Act, and which before the passing thereof was punishable in this Pro-vince with death, with, or without benefit of Clergy, shall be liable to be banished, or to be transported beyond the seas for life, or for such term not less than seven years as the Court before which such person shall be convicted, shall adjudge, or shall be liable, in case such Court shall think fit, to be imprisoned only, or imprisoned and kept to hard labour, or in solitary confinement in the Common Gaol, or in any Penitentiary, or House of Correction, that may be provided for such purposes, for any term not exceeding fourteen years, except persons convicted of returning from transpor-tation, or from banishment, with respect to whom the term of imprisonment, with or with-out hard labour, or by solitary confinement, may, if the Court shall think fit, be extended to the term of his, or her natural life—And that in case of manslaughter, the offender shall be liable to be fined or imprisoned, or both, in the discretion of the Court, Provided that such imprisonment shall not exceed twelve calendar months,—And provided that the of-fence of manslaughter shall be punishable by such fine, and imprisonment only, and not by all or any of the other descriptions of punish-ment in this clause before mentioned.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any Person shall be convicted, after the passing of this Act, of Forgery, or of uttering any forged deed, will, instrument, note, bill or writing, or of falsely personating any person or persons, which for-gery, or which uttering, or which false person-ating was, before the passing of this Act, pu-nishable with death, in this Province, the Court before which such person shall be con-victed may, if they shall think fit, adjudge such person (unless in case of a female) to be set in the Pillory, once or oftener, or to be once or oftener publicly or privately whipped, at such time or times, and at such place or places, as they may direct, which punishment shall either be in addition to any other punish-ment which the Court according to Law, may award, or otherwise, as may to them appear proper. 41

An Act relating to the Bailing and Commitment, Removal and Trial of Prisoners in certain cases.

WHEREAS it is expedient to define un-der what circumstances persons may be admitted to bail in cases of felony or misde-meanor, and to make better provision for tak-ing examinations, informations, bailments and recognizances, and returning the same to the proper tribunals; and also, for obtaining the evidence of prisoners confined in any prison upon the limits thereof, without the necessity of suing out a writ of habeas corpus:—Be it there-fore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the au-thority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal cer-tain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province;'" and by the authority of the same, That when any person shall be taken on a charge of Felony, or suspicion of Felony, before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, and the charge shall be supported by positive and credible evidence of the fact, or by such evi-dence as if not explained or contradicted shall in the opinion of the Justice or Justices raise a strong presumption of the guilt of the person charged, such person shall be commit-ted to Prison by such Justice or Justices, in manner hereinafter mentioned; but if there shall be only one Justice present, and the whole evidence given before him shall be such as neither to raise a strong presumption of guilt nor to warrant the dismissal of the charge, such Justice shall order the person charged to be detained in custody until he or they shall be taken before two Justices, at the least; and where any person so taken, or any person in the first instance, taken before two Justices of the Peace, shall be charged with Felony, or on suspicion of Felony, and the evidence given in support of the charge shall, in their opinion, not be such as to raise a strong pre-sumption of the guilt of the person charged, and to require his or her committal, or such evidence shall be adduced on behalf of the person charged, as shall in their opinion weaken the presumption of guilt, but there shall, notwithstanding, appear to them, in either of such cases, to be sufficient ground for Ju-dicial inquiry into his or her guilt, the person charged shall be admitted to bail by such two Justices, in the manner hereinafter mentioned: Provided always, that nothing herein con-tained shall be construed to require any Jus-tice or Justices to hear evidence on behalf of any person or persons so charged as aforesaid, unless it shall appear to him or them to be meet, and conducive to the ends of Justice, to hear the same.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the two Justices of the Peace, before they shall admit the bail, and the Jus-tice or Justices, before he or they shall commit to prison any person arrested for Felony, or on suspicion of Felony, shall take the ex-amination of such person, and the informations upon oath of those who shall know the facts and circumstances of the case, and the par-ticular grounds of suspicion, in cases where direct proof is not adduced, and shall put the same into writing in the presence of the party accused, if he be in custody, who shall have full opportunity afforded him of cross-ex-amining such witnesses, if he shall think proper so to do; and the two Justices shall thereupon certify such Bailment in writing, and every such Justice shall have authority to bind by Recognizance, all such persons as know, or declare any thing material touching any such Felony, or suspicion of Felony, to appear at the next Court of Oyer and Ter-miner and General Gaol Delivery, or Sessions of the Peace at which the trial thereof is in-tended to be had, then and there to prosecute or give evidence against the party accused; and such Justice or Justices respectively, shall subscribe all such Examinations, Informations, Bailments and Recognizances, and deliver, or cause the same to be delivered, to the public Prosecutor, before, or at the opening of the said Court.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every Justice of the Peace before whom any person shall be taken on a charge of Misdemeanor, or suspicion thereof, shall take the examination of the party charged, and the information, upon oath, of those who shall know the facts and circum-stances of the case, and shall put the same, or so much thereof as shall be material, into writing, before he shall commit to prison, or require Bail from the person so charged; and in every case of Bailment, shall certify the Bailment in writing, and shall have authority to bind all persons by Recognizance to appear to prosecute or give evidence, as in cases of Felony, and shall subscribe all Examinations, Informations, Bailments and Recognizances, and deliver, or cause the same to be delivered, to the public Prosecutor, or Clerk of the Court in which the trial is to be, before or at the opening of the Court, as in cases of Felony; and that no traverse, or other post-ponement of any trial to be thereupon had, shall be allowed, except upon special cause shewn to the satisfaction of the said Court, or by consent of His Majesty's Attorney or Solicitor General conducting the Prosecution thereof.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every Coroner, upon any Inquisition before him taken, whereby any person shall be indicted for Manslaughter or Murder, or as an accessary to Murder before the fact, shall, in presence of the party accused, if he can be apprehended, put in writing the evidence given to the Jury before him, or so much thereof as shall be material, giving the party accused full opportunity of cross-examination; and shall have authority to bind by Recognizance, all such persons as prove or declare any thing material touching the said Manslaughter or Murder, or the of-fence of being accessary to Murder, to appear at the next Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery at which the trial is to be, then and there to give evidence against the party charged; and every such Coroner shall certify and subscribe the same evidence, and all such Recognizances, and also the In-quisition before him taken, and shall deliver the same to the Court at which the trial is to be, before or at the opening of the Court next ensuing the taking the same.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any Justice or Coroner shall offend in any thing, contrary to the true intent and meaning of these provisions, the Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol de-livery, or Sessions of the Peace respectively, holden within the District where any party accused shall be liable to be tried, shall, upon examination, and proof of the offence, in a summary way, set such fine upon every such Justice or Coroner, as the Court shall think meet.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when, and so often as any person shall be committed for trial by any Justice or Justices, or Coroner, as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for such Prisoner, his Counsel, Attorney or Agent, to notify the said committing Justice or Justices, or Coroner, that he will, so soon as Counsel can be heard, move His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, or one of the Judges thereof, for an order to the Justices of the Peace, or Coroner, for the District where such Prisoner shall be confined, to admit such Prisoner to bail, whereupon it shall be the duty of such committing Justice or Justices, or Coroner, to transmit to the Office of the Clerk of the Crown, close under the Hand and Seal of one of them, a certified copy of all the informations, examinations, and other evidences touching the offence wherewith such prisoner shall be charged, together with a copy of the Warrant of Commitment and Inquest, if any such there be, and that the packet containing the same shall be handed to the person applying therefor, in order to such transmission, and shall be certified on the outside thereof to contain the information, touching the case in question.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That upon any application to His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, or to any Judge thereof, the same order, touching the prisoner being bailed or continued in custody, shall be made as if the party were brought up upon a Habeas Corpus.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when, and so often as the attendance of any person confined in any Gaol or Prison in this Province, or upon the limits thereof, shall be required in any Court of Assize and Nisi Prius, or Oyer and Terminer, or General Gaol Delivery, it shall and may be lawful for the Court before whom such Prisoners shall be required to attend, in its discretion, to make an order upon the Sheriff, Gaoler, or other person having the custody of such Prisoner, to deliver such Prisoner to the person named in such order to receive him, which person shall thereupon instantly convey such prisoner to the place where the Court issuing such order shall be sitting, there to receive and obey such further order as to the said Court shall seem meet: Provided always, that no prisoner confined for any debt or damages in any Civil Suit, shall be thereby removed out of the District where he shall be confined. 40

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Court of Oyer and Terminer, General Gaol Delivery, and of Assize and Nisi Prius, in and for the Home District, will be held at the Town of York, on Tuesday the ninth day of April next, of which the Sheriff, Coroners, Magistrates, Gaoler, Constables, Bailiffs, and other Peace Officers, are commanded to take notice.

By Order of the Court.

CHARLES C. SMALL
41—i Clerk of the Crown.

Com'r. of Crown Lands Office, York, 1st December, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Officeof the Surveyor General. or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

By Authority.

An Act to make certain regulations relating to the Office of Sheriff in this Province, and to require the several Sheriffs of this Province to give Security for the due fulfilment of the duties of their Office.

[Passed 13th February, 1833]

WHEREAS from the tenure of the Office of Sheriff in this Province and the nature of the Security exacted for the due performance of its duties sufficient indemnity is not afforded against damages that may arise from the misprisions or defaults of Sheriffs: Be it therefore enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That the Sheriff of each and every District of this Province, shall on or before the first day of August next, after the passing of this Act, enter into a Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in the Penal sum of One thousand Pounds, together with two sureties to be approved of by the Inspector General of Public Accounts, in the sum of five hundred pounds each, with a condition that he shall well and faithfully account for and pay over all such Monies as he shall receive for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, which Bond and Condition shall be in the form given in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked A, or in words to the like effect.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Sheriff of each and every District of this Province, shall also on or before the same first day of August, provide either two or four sufficient persons, who together with himself shall enter into a Covenant under their Seals joint and several, according to the form given in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked B, or in words to the same effect, which Covenant shall be available to, and may be sued upon by any person suffering damages by the default or wilful misconduct of any such Sheriffs respectively.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That such Sureties shall not be accepted as sufficient unless a majority of the Justices of the Peace at a Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the District in which any such Sheriff is serving, shall ascertain and determine that they are good and sufficient, and unless a certificate shall be given in pursuance of such determination under the Hand and Seal of the Chairman of such Quarter Sessions, declaring that the Court are satisfied that the persons named in the Certificate are responsible persons to the full amount to which they are required to become Surety, which Certificate shall be produced and filed at the time of the delivering and filing of the said Covenant as hereinafter provided.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Bond to His Majesty required by this Act shall be deposited with the Inspector General of Public Accounts in this Province, and that the Covenant required by this Act shall be made in duplicate each part of which shall be marked duplicate, but shall be considered and received as original, one of which parts shall be filed in the Office of the Secretary of the Province, and the other part thereof shall be filed in the Office of the Clerk of the Peace of the District for which such Sheriff shall be appointed, for which filing the said Clerk of the Peace shall be entitled to demand and receive from the Sheriff the sum of Two shillings and Six pence and no more.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all and every person or persons shall be authorized to search and examine any such Covenant, and shall and may demand and have from any Clerk of the Peace of any District of this Province, a copy of such Covenant as may be filed as aforesaid in pursuance of this Act, and it shall and may be lawful for such Clerk of the Peace to demand and receive for every such search and examination One shilling and three pence, and for every such copy Five shillings and no more.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Sheriff of every District of this Province now appointed or hereafter to be appointed shall at or before the expiration of every period of four years from the date of the Bond and Covenant given by him and his Sureties according to this Act, renew his Bond and Covenant in the same sums respectively, either with the same or with other Sureties, whose sufficiency shall be certified in the manner hereinbefore provided—And all the provisions of this Act in respect to the Bond and the Covenant first required to be given shall apply to such renewed Bond and Covenant.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That at any time and at all times hereafter when the Office of Sheriff of any District of this Province shall become vacant, it shall not be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Person administering the Government of this Province to appoint any person to the said Office of Sheriff until such person shall have given and filed a Covenant with Securities, and shall also have given a Bond with Sureties in the same manner and to the same tenor and effect as are by this Act required from the several persons now holding commissions, and executing the said office of Sheriff.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no person shall hereafter be appointed to the Office of Sheriff in any District who shall not be possessed of real Estate in this Province, of the actual value of Seven hundred and fifty pounds, above incumbrances, and who shall not before he receives his commission file an Affidavit to that effect in the Office of the Secretary of this Province, which Affidavit shall be sworn before the Chairman of the Quarter Sessions of the District in open Sessions, who is hereby authorized and required to take the same.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person who shall have become an Obligor in any such Bond or Surety, in any such Covenant, shall die, or shall become resident out of this Province, or shall become insolvent, the person holding such Office of Sheriff for whom, the person so dying, leaving this Province or becoming insolvent, shall have become such Obligor or Surety, shall within four months after such death or departure, or after such insolvency shall be certified in the manner herein provided, give anew the like Bond and Security and in the same manner as hereinbefore required —Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to discharge all or any of the parties to such former Bond or Covenant from their liability, on account of any matter or thing which shall have been done or omitted before the renewal of the Security as herein directed.

X. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if during the period

for which any such Covenant as aforesaid shall be given, the Sureties executing the same or any of them, shall apprehend that the Sheriff for whom such Surety was given is insolvent, and has not property to the amount of Seven hundred and fifty pounds over and above all incumbrances and debts, and shall transmit to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government of this Province, an Affidavit made by him or them to that effect, and sworn to, before a Commissioner for taking Affidavits in the Court of King's Bench, the Sheriff for whom the Security was given, shall be thereupon officially notified by the Secretary to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government of this Province, that he must forthwith furnish new Security in the manner pointed out by this Act, or must on Affidavit deny that he is insolvent, or that he is worth less than the sum of Seven hundred and fifty pounds, over and above all incumbrances and debts, and that if such requisition is not complied with within one month after the sitting of the then ensuing Quarter Sessions of the District, he shall for that cause be removed from Office.

XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when any new Surety or Sureties shall be given either at the expiration of any stated period, or by way of substitution for any other Surety within the period, the former Surety shall only be discharged as to defaults or misfeasances suffered or committed after the perfecting of such new Security, and not as to any previous defaults or misfeasances.

XII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That after the Covenant required to be entered into by this Act, shall have been sued upon by any person having or alleging a claim upon the parties to the same, by reason of the default or misfeasance of the Sheriff, it shall notwithstanding be in the power of any person, or of the same person, to bring an action upon the same Covenant for any other default or misfeasance, and such subsequent action shall not be barred by reason of any prior recovery, or of any Judgment for the defendant rendered in a former action, or of any other action being depending upon the same Covenant for any distinct cause of action.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons who shall or may have become such Surety, shall have paid, or shall be liable to pay any sum or sums equal to the sum for which he or they shall have become Security, the said Bond or Covenant shall as to such person or persons be taken and deemed to be discharged and satisfied as to any claim or demand thereon beyond the amount of such payment or liability, and such Sheriff shall within four months after such person or persons shall have become so discharged, give a new such Securities as are required by the provisions of this Act.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the amount of any damages so recovered which such Security has been obliged to pay is not equal to the amount for which he shall have become Security as aforesaid, then the Court shall after deducting such sums therefrom, render Judgment against such Security for any amount not exceeding the residue of the sum for which such Security shall have become responsible as aforesaid.

XV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if it shall be made appear by Affidavit, or other sufficient proof to the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of any District, that any such Covenant has been or may be discharged as aforesaid, or that the Securities therein mentioned or any or either of them have become insolvent, it shall and may be lawful for the said Quarter Sessions to give notice thereof to the Sheriff of such District, and such Sheriff shall and he is hereby required to give anew the like Covenant as hereinbefore required by the provisions of this Act, within four months after such notice.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That upon the issuing of any Writ of Execution upon any Judgment recovered on such Covenant, the Plaintiff in such suit or his Attorney shall by an indorsement on such Writ direct the Coroner to levy the amount thereof upon the goods and chattels of the Sheriff in the first place, and in default of goods and chattels of such Sheriff to satisfy the amount, then that the same or the residue thereof shall be made of the goods and chattels of the other Defendants in such suit, and so in like manner with any Writ which shall issue against the lands and tenements, in any Judgment upon such Covenant as is required by this Act.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That upon application for, or granting of, by any of the Courts of this Province, any rule or rules upon any Sheriff for the return of any Writ or Writs, or for the performance of any other duty or matter relating to the said office of Sheriff, such Sheriff shall be liable to, and pay to the party making such application or obtaining such rule or rules, all taxable costs thereon, unless the Court shall otherwise order: Provided always, that if such application shall be made, or any such rule granted, previous to the day next after which such return should have been made, or such duty or matter performed, the Sheriff against whom such application shall be made or such rule granted, shall not be liable for any costs or charges which may arise or occur upon the same: And provided also, that if upon such application for a rule or rules it shall appear to the said Judge or Judges of the said Courts respectively, that the same is frivolous or vexatious, the said Judge or Judges of the said Courts respectively, may, upon discharging such application, order that all taxable costs and expenses for opposing the same be paid to the said Sheriff.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no Sheriff shall be entitled to any fees on any Writ placed in his hands fifteen days before the return day mentioned therein, if he does not return the same to the Attorney from whom he received it, within four days after the return thereof, or enclose the same by Post within that time to the Attorney, unless delayed by an order in writing from the Party, his Attorney or Agent, placing the same in his hands.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any Sheriff now appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, shall neglect or omit to give and perfect such Security as this Act requires, within the period limited by this Act, in any case, then upon such neglect or omission being officially notified in writing to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person Administering the Government of this Province, either by the Inspector General, the Secretary of the Province, or the Chairman of the Quarter Sessions of the Peace in the District in which such Sheriff shall be serving: and they are hereby required officially to notify the same: such Sheriff shall for that cause be removed from his office, and a new Commission shall issue, with as little delay as possible, for supplying the vacancy: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person Administering the Government of this Province, from re-appointing any person to the said office, upon his duly fulfilling the provisions of this Act.

XX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the covenant to be entered into with the Sheriffs of the several Districts respectively, shall specify the following sums as the extent to which the several parties thereto shall be considered as covenanting to afford indemnity, that is to say:—The Sheriff of the Home District, One Thousand Pounds; two Sureties, Five Hundred Pounds each, or four Sureties, Two Hundred and Fifty Pounds each. [Royal Assent given by Message.]

WHEREAS in many cases much inconvenience is experienced from the want of some Court competent to order the Partition of Lands held in Joint Tenancy, Tenancy in Common, and Co-parcenary: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That all Joint Tenants, Tenants in Common, and Co-parceners of any Estate or Estates, in Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, within this Province, may be compelled to make or suffer Partition of such Estate or Estates in manner hereinafter prescribed, and that when such Estate or Estates is or may be situated in two or more Districts, the proceedings under this Act shall be heard before the Court of King's Bench, and where such Estate or Estates is or may be situated in one District only, the proceedings may be had before the District Court or Court of King's Bench.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any person being a Joint Tenant, Co-parcener, or Tenant in Common of any such Estate or Estates, or the Executor, Administrator, Guardian or Agent of any such person, may file his or her Petition in the Court of King's Bench or District Court, as the case may require, praying that Partition of such Estate or Estates may be made, which Petition shall set forth the nature of the Title or Claim of the Demandant, the Tract or Tracts of Land, the Tenements or Hereditaments, of which Partition is demanded; and also, the name and place of residence of each Joint Tenant, Co-parcener, and Tenant in Common, with such Demandant, if they shall be known to such Demandant, and if on examination it shall appear that the Demandant has a good and legal right and title to any part or proportion of such Estate or Estates, then the Court shall proceed at the Term in which such Petition may be filed, to order and direct a Partition to be had and made, in the manner prescribed by the provisions of this Act: Provided, it shall appear, that the notice required by this Act hath been sufficiently and legally given, and no sufficient reason shall appear why the prayer of the Petitioner should not be granted, otherwise the Court shall order and direct notice of such demand of Partition to be given, either by publication in one or more Newspapers printed in this Province, when the parties concerned reside out of this Province, or by personal notice to be served at least forty days before the ensuing Term, if the party or parties concerned reside within this Province: Provided always, that when the person or persons of whom Partition is demanded, reside out of this Province, and have an Agent or Attorney residing within this Province, personal notice of such demand or Partition shall be given to such Agent or Attorney, as is required in the case of Resident Proprietors.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if at the first or succeeding Term (in case a continuance hath been granted) after the filing of such Petition, it shall appear to the Court that due notice hath been given, and if no sufficient reason shall appear why Partition should not be made, the Court shall proceed to order such Partition, and shall issue their Writ, directed to the Sheriff of the District in which the Estate or Estates shall or may lie, or to the Sheriff of either of the Districts in which the Estate or Estates shall or may lie, in case such Estate or Estates is or are in more than one District, commanding him by the Oaths of three judicious and disinterested Freeholders of the vicinity, to be appointed by said Court and named in said Writ, who are not of kin to any of the said parties concerned, to cause to be set off and divided to the Demandant in said Petition, such part or proportion of such Estate or Estates as the Court shall have ordered and directed; and in making such Partition, it shall be the duty of said Freeholders to view and examine such Estate or Estates, to set apart the same in such Lot or Lots as will be most advantageous and equitable, having due regard to the improvements, situation and quality of the different parts of such Estate or Estates, and if the bounds or title of any tract or tracts, or any part thereof shall be controverted, it shall be the duty of the said Freeholders to separate the same from the uncontroverted part, and to make Partition of the Estate or Estates in such manner, that a due proportion of the controverted as well as the uncontroverted part may be allotted to the Demandant.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when the facts alleged in any Petition, for Partition hereafter to be preferred in consequence of this Act, are controverted by any of the Tenants in Common, Co-parceners, or Joint Tenants, the answer or objection to the Petition shall be made in writing, in the form of a Plea, to which the Petitioner may reply or demur, to the end that the matter in dispute may be reduced to an issue in Law or fact, and receive a determination by the Court or a Jury, in the manner other issues are determined; and in case the issue be determined in favor of the Petitioner, Judgment shall be entered by the Court, that Partition be made by disinterested Freeholders as aforesaid, and the Court shall proceed to appoint them accordingly: And also, that the Petitioner recover against the adverse party the costs attending the Trial, and Execution may issue for said costs in the form prescribed by Law, as in other cases; but if on such pleading it shall be determined that the Petitioner holds a less share or proportion in the common and undivided property than he has in his Petition alleged, the adverse party shall recover against the Petitioner his reasonable costs; but notwithstanding, Judgment may be rendered in favor of the Petitioner, to have an assignment of such parts of the Real Estate in severalty, as he in fact held in common and undivided.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if at any time after the filing of a Petition as aforesaid, and before a Writ shall have issued to the Sheriff, the person or persons, Joint Tenants, Co-parceners, or Tenants in Common, of whom Partition is demanded, shall appear by him or themselves, or by his or their Attorney, and shall pay their proportion of the costs which have occurred on such Partition, and shall consent to a Partition of such Estate or Estates, then Partition shall be made of such Estate or Estates, by such person or persons as said Joint Tenants, Co-parceners or Tenants in Common shall agree upon, and in case they do not agree upon any person or persons to make such Partition before the end of the Term, then a Writ shall issue to the Sheriff, as is hereinbefore provided.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when any Writ of Partition shall issue as aforesaid, if the Freeholders who are directed to make such Partition shall be of opinion that the Estate or Estates cannot be divided according to the demand of the Writ, without prejudice to, or spoiling the whole, the Freeholders shall then make and return to the Court a true valuation and appraisement of such Estate or Estates, whereupon, if the said Court shall approve the said return, and if any one or more of the parties shall elect to take the said Estate or Estates at the appraised value, the same shall be adjudged to him or them, he or they paying or securing to be paid to the other parties their proportion of the appraised value, according to their respective rights, and the Sheriff shall, according to the order of the Court, make and execute conveyances to the party or parties electing to take the same, subject nevertheless to a lien thereon in favor of the others of the said parties, until payment be made to them of their respective shares of the money as aforesaid; and in case the said parties shall not agree who shall take the said Lands and Tenements on the terms aforesaid, then the said Court shall or may, at the instance of the Demandant in the said Partition, make an order for the Sale of the said Lands and Tenements at Public Auction by the Sheriff, who shall have holden the said Inquisition, or his successors in office, after due and fair notice of the time and place of such Sale, by advertisements published and set up in the several Districts where the Lands lie, and also in such public Newspaper as shall be most likely to give fair and full notice of such sale to all parties concerned, and others, which public notice shall be given at least twenty days before the time of Sale, in cases where the Lands all lie in the same District, and at least sixty days when the Lands lie in different Districts; and the said Sheriff is hereby authorised, empowered and ordered to execute Deeds to the purchasers of the Lands and Tenements so as aforesaid sold, on receiving payment of the consideration money, or taking sufficient security therefor to the satisfaction of the Court, which money or security shall be brought into Court before or at the time of the said Sheriff's acknowledging the Deed, in open Court, to be distributed and paid by order of the said Court amongst the several parties entitled to receive the same, in lieu of their respective parts and proportion of the said Lands and Tenements, according to their just rights and proportions.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when any Writ of Partition shall issue, or when the parties interested shall agree on some person or persons to make Partition, it shall be the duty of the Inquest, or persons so agreed on, to make a true and accurate plan or map, and field book of such Lands as may be so divided, and to describe particularly the metes and bounds of all Tenements so divided and sparted, which plan or map, field book and description, the persons or inquest shall sign, and send under seal to the next Court having cognizance of the same, and after the division and return thereof shall be made to the Court, it shall be examined by the Court, and if found justly and accurately made, the Clerk shall record such return, which record shall be deemed valid and effectual in Law for the Partition of such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, and thereupon the party or parties shall have and hold the Shares or Parcels to them respectively allotted in severalty.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Court before whom any Partition shall be had, shall tax the costs and expences which may accrue on such proceedings, and shall issue Execution therefor against such Person or Persons, their Goods, Chattels, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, interested in such Partition, as shall not have paid their proportion of the costs and expences so taxed: Provided always nevertheless, that it shall be in the power of the Court in which any such proceeding for Partition is depending, to award a new Partition by another Jury, when it shall appear necessary for the ends of Justice, in the same manner and for the same causes as new trials are now grantable by Law, but that no new Partition shall be granted when all the parties interested are resident within the Province, unless the same is applied for before the end of the Term next after that in which the former verdict has been rendered.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Guardians of all Minors are hereby respectively authorised and empowered on behalf of their Wards, to do and perform any act, matter or thing respecting the Partition of Land under this Act, and the same shall be deemed valid and effectual in Law, to every intent and purpose, as if the same had been done by such Minor after his arrival at full age.

X. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any Partner shall have a larger share set off than is such Partners true and real interest, or if any share set off should be more than equal in value to the proportion it was set off for, then and in every such case, upon complaint to the Court, which caused such Partition to be made, within three years of the making thereof, by any aggrieved Partner or Partners, who at the time of making such Partition were out of the Province, and not notified thereof agreeably to the Provisions of this Act, the said Court shall cause Partition thereof to be made anew, and in such new Partition, so much and no more shall be taken off from any, than as such shall shall be adjudged more than the proportion of the whole it was designed for, estimating such Lands or Real Estate as in the state they were in when first divided, and in case any improvements shall be made on the part that may by such new Partition be taken off as aforesaid, the Partner or his Assigns who made such improvements, shall have reasonable satisfaction made him by the Partner or Partners to whose share the same shall be added be the estimation of the Freeholders employed in making such new Partition, or the major part of them; and the same Court who ordered Partition, are also empowered to issue Execution for such satisfaction, and for costs in such new Partition, the same being first taxed and allowed by the said Court. 42

XV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so much of an Act of the Parliament of this Province passed in the thirty-sixth year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled "An Act for the better regula-"tion of certain Coins current in this Pro-"vince." And of an Act passed in the Parliament of this Province, in the thirty-eighth year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled "An Act to establish on a permanent "footing the boundary lines of the different "Townships of this Province." And of an Act passed in the Parliament of this Province, in the fortieth year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled "An Act for the "further introduction of the Criminal Law of "England in this Province, and for the more "effectual punishment of certain offenders." And of the several Acts of the Parliament of this Province passed for authorizing the issuing of Government Debentures, as provides that any offence in any of those Statutes respectively mentioned, shall be punishable with death, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed; And that such offences shall continue to be of the degree of Felony, and the persons convicted thereof shall be liable to the punish-ments, or any of them, which are by this Act provided in respect to felonies generally, which are not punishable with death.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person shall be indicted for any offence made capital by this, or any other Statute made or to be made, such person shall be liable to the same punishment, whether he, or she shall be convicted by ver-dict, or confession, or shall be outlawed, upon indictment; and this as well in the case of Accessories as of Principals.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person being arraigned upon any indictment for Treason, or Felony, shall plead thereto a plea of "Not Guilty," he shall by such plea without any further form be deemed to have put himself upon the county for trial—and that if any person being arraigned upon any indictment for Treason or Felony, shall stand mute of malice, or will not answer directly to the in-dictment, in every such case it shall be lawful for the Court, if it shall so think fit, to order the proper officer to enter a plea of "Not Guilty," on behalf of such person, and the plea so entered shall have the same force and effect, as if such person had actually pleaded the same.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person indicted for any Treason or Felony, shall challenge peremptorily a greater number of the men re-turned to be of the Jury than such person is entitled by Law so to challenge, in any of the said cases, every peremptory challenge beyond the number allowed by Law, in any of the said cases, shall be entirely void; and the trial of such person shall proceed as if no such chal-lenge had been made.

XIX. And whereas in certain cases of High Treason, as the Law now stands, the sentence or judgment required by Law to be pronoun-ced, or awarded against any persons convict-ed or adjudged guilty of the said crime, in such cases, is, that they should be drawn on a hur-dle to the place of execution; and there be hanged by the neck, but not until they are dead, but that they should be taken down a-gain, and that when they are yet alive their bowels should be taken out, and burnt before their faces; and that afterwards their heads should be severed from their bodies, and their bodies divided into four quarters, and their heads and quarters to be at the King's disposal—And whereas it is expedient in the said cases of High Treason to alter the sentence or judgment now required by Law—Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in all cases of High Treason in which, as the Law now stands, the sentence or judg-ment ordained by Law is as aforesaid, the sen-tence or judgment to be pronounced or awar-ded from and after the passing of this Act against any person convicted or adjudged guil-ty shall be, that such person shall be drawn on a hurdle to the place of execution, and be there hanged by the neck until such person be dead—and that afterwards the body of such person shall be dissected and anatomized.

XX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That whenever any person shall be convicted of Murder and executed therefor, the body of such murderer shall be delivered by the Sheriff, or his Deputy, and his officers, to a Surgeon for the purpose of being dissect-ed and anatomized.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That sentence shall be pro-nounced in open Court immediately after the conviction of such murderer, and before the Court shall proceed to any other business, un-less the Court shall see reasonable cause for postponing the same; in which sentence shall be expressed not only the usual judgment of death, but also the time appointed for the ex-ecution thereof, and the mark of infamy hereby directed for such offenders; in order to impress a just horror in the mind of the offender, and on the minds of such as shall be present of the heinous crime of murder.

XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that after such sen-tence pronounced as aforesaid, in case there shall appear reasonable cause, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Judge or Justice, before whom such criminal shall have been so tried, to stay the execution of the sentence, at the discretion of such Judge or Justice, regard being always had to the true intent and pur-pose of this Act.—Provided also, That it shall be in the power of any such Judge or Justice to appoint the body of any such criminal to be dissected and anatomized.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after such conviction, and judgment given thereupon, the Gaoler or Keeper to whom such criminal shall be delivered for safe custody, shall con-fine such prisoner to some cell or other proper and safe place within the prison, separate and apart from the other prisoners—And that no person or persons whatsoever except the Gaol-er, or Keeper, or his Servant shall have access to any such prisoner, without license being first obtained for that purpose under the hand of such Judge or Justice before whom such offen-der shall have been tried, or under the hand of the Sheriff, his Deputy, or Under Sheriff. Provided always, That in case any such Judge or Justice shall see cause to respite the execu-tion of such offender so condemned as afore-said, such Judge or Justice may relax or re-lease any or all of the restraints, or regula-tions hereinbefore or hereinafter directed to be observed by the Gaoler or Keeper of the pri-son where such prisoner shall be confined, by any license in writing signed by such Judge or Justice for that purpose, for and during the time of such stay of execution, any thing here-inbefore contained to the contrary thereof not-withstanding.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That after sentence passed, as aforesaid, and until the execution thereof, such offender shall be fed with bread and wa-ter only, except in case of any violent sickness, or wound, in which case some known Physi-cian, Surgeon or Apothecary may be admitted by the Gaoler or Keeper of the said Prison, to administer necessaries, the christian and sur-name of such Physician, Surgeon or Apothe-cary, and his place of abode being first enter-ed in the books of such Prison or Gaol there to remain; and, in case such Gaoler or Pri-son Keeper shall offend against, or neglect to put in execution, any of the directions or re-gulations hereby enacted to be observed, such Gaoler or Prison Keeper shall for such offence forfeit his office, and be imprisoned for a time not exceeding three months, upon conviction thereof, by indictment.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, benefit of Clergy in this Province shall be abolished, and that the same may not in any case be prayed, and shall not in any case be allowed, any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding. And that in all cases of crimes made punishable by this Act with death, the effect of such provi-sion shall be the same as in the case of any offence which, before the passing of this Act, was made punishable with death without be-nefit of Clergy. And that all persons who may hereafter be duly convicted of any offence not specified in this Act, and which before the passing thereof was punishable in this Pro-vince with death, with, or without benefit of Clergy, shall be liable to be banished, or to be transported beyond the seas for life, or for such term not less than seven years as the Court before which such person shall be convicted, shall adjudge, or shall be liable, in case such Court shall think fit, to be imprisoned only, or imprisoned and kept to hard labour, or in solitary confinement in the Common Gaol, or in any Penitentiary, or House of Correction, that may be provided for such purposes, for any term not exceeding fourteen years, except persons convicted of returning from transpor-tation, or from banishment, with respect to whom the term of imprisonment, with or with-out hard labour, or by solitary confinement, may, if the Court shall think fit, be extended to the term of his, or her natural life—And that in case of manslaughter, the offender shall be liable to be fined or imprisoned, or both, in the discretion of the Court, Provided that such imprisonment shall not exceed twelve calendar months,—And provided that the of-fence of manslaughter shall be punishable by such fine, and imprisonment only, and not by all or any of the other descriptions of punish-ment in this clause before mentioned.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any Person shall be convicted, after the passing of this Act, of Forgery, or of uttering any forged deed, will, instrument, note, bill or writing, or of falsely personating any person or persons, which for-gery, or which uttering, or which false person-ating was, before the passing of this Act, pu-nishable with death, in this Province, the Court before which such person shall be con-victed may, if they shall think fit, adjudge such person (unless in case of a female) to be set in the Pillory, once or oftener, or to be once or oftener publicly or privately whipped, at such time or times, and at such place or places, as they may direct, which punishment shall either be in addition to any other punish-ment which the Court according to Law, may award, or otherwise, as may to them appear proper. 41

An Act to provide for the apprehending of Fugitive Offenders from Foreign Countries, and delivering them up to Justice.

[Passed 13th February, 1833.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide by Law for the apprehending and de-livering up of Felons and other Malefactors, who having committed Crimes in Foreign Countries have sought, or may hereafter seek, an asylum in this Province:—Be it therefore enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Ma-jesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Go-vernment of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That the Go-vernor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Ad-ministering the Government of this Province, shall have power, and he is hereby authorized at his discretion, and by and with the advice of the Executive Council, on requisition being made by the Government of any Country, or its Ministers or Officers, authorized to make the same, within the jurisdiction of which Country the crimes hereinafter mentioned shall be charged to have been committed, to deliver up to Justice any person who may have fled to this Province, or who shall seek refuge therein, being charged with Murder, Forgery, Larce-ny or other crime, committed without the juris-diction of this Province, which crimes if com-mitted within this Province would by the Laws thereof be punishable by death, corporal pun-ishment, by Pillory or Whipping, or by Con-finement at Hard Labour, to the end that such person may be transported out of this Province to the place where such crime shall have been charged to have been committed: Provided always, that this shall only be done upon such evidence of criminality as, according to the Laws of this Province, would, in the opinion of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government, and of the Executive Council, warrant the apprehen-sion and commitment for trial of such fugi-tive from Justice, or person so charged, if the offence had been committed within this Pro-vince.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That for preventing the escape of any person so charged, before any order for his apprehension can be obtained from the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Pro-vince, it shall be lawful for any Judge, or for any Justice of the Peace in this Province, act-ing within his jurisdiction, to issue his Warrant for the apprehension and for the commitment of any such person charged as aforesaid, in order that he may be detained in secure cus-tody until application can be made to the Go-vernor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Admi-nistering the Government, under the provisions of this Act, and until an order can be made thereon; which Warrant shall nevertheless only be granted upon such evidence on oath, as shall satisfy such Judge or Justice that the person accused stands charged with some crime of the description hereinbefore specified, or that there is good ground to suspect him to have been guilty thereof.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act con-tained shall be construed to affect the provi-sions of a certain Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the Thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled "An Act to authorize the apprehend-ing of Felons and others escaping from any of His Majesty's Provinces, and Governments in North America into this Province," or to make it incumbent upon the Governor and Council of this Province to deliver up any person charged, if for any reason they shall deem it inexpedient so to do, or to prevent the dis-charge of any person upon Habeas Corpus who, having been committed under this Act, shall be detained in custody beyond the time that may be reasonably required under the cir-cumstances of the case, for carrying the pro-visions of this Act into effect. 43

NOTICE.

CROWN OFFICE,
20th February, 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Court of Oyer and Terminer, General Gaol Delivery, and of Assize and Nisi Prius, in and for the Home District, will be held at the Town of York, on Tuesday the ninth day of April next, of which the Sheriff, Coroners, Magistrates, Gaoler, Constables, Bailiffs, and other Peace Officers, are commanded to take notice.

By Order of the Court.

CHARLES C. SMALL
41—i Clerk of the Crown.

Com'r. of Crown Lands Office,
York, 1st December, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Office of the Surveyor General, or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

PETER ROBINSON.

WHEREAS in many cases much inconvenience is experienced from the want of some Court competent to order the Partition of Lands held in Joint Tenancy, Tenancy in Common, and Co-parcenary:—Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That all Joint Tenants, Tenants in Common, and Co-parceners of any Estate or Estates, in Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, within this Province, may be compelled to make or suffer Partition of such Estate or Estates in manner hereinafter prescribed, and that when such Estate or Estates is or may be situated in two or more Districts, the proceedings under this Act shall be heard before the Court of King's Bench, and where such Estate or Estates is or may be situated in one District only, the proceedings may be had before the District Court or Court of King's Bench.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any person being a Joint Tenant, Co-parcener, or Tenant in Common of any such Estate or Estates, or the Executor, Administrator, Guardian or Agent of any such person, may file his or her Petition in the Court of King's Bench or District Court, as the case may require, praying that Partition of such Estate or Estates may be made, which Petition shall set forth the nature of the Title or Claim of the Demandant, the Tract or Tracts of Land, the Tenements or Hereditaments, of which Partition is demanded; and also, the name and place of residence of each Joint Tenant, Co-parcener, and Tenant in Common, with such Demandant, if they shall be known to such Demandant, and if on examination it shall appear that the Demandant has a good and legal right and title to any part or proportion of such Estate or Estates, then the Court shall proceed at the Term in which such Petition may be filed, to order and direct a Partition to be had and made, in the manner prescribed by the provisions of this Act: Provided, it shall appear, that the notice required by this Act hath been sufficiently and legally given, and no sufficient reason shall appear why the prayer of the Petitioner should not be granted, otherwise the Court shall order and direct notice of such demand of Partition to be given, either by publication in one or more Newspapers printed in this Province, when the parties concerned reside out of this Province, or by personal notice to be served at least forty days before the ensuing Term, if the party or parties concerned reside within this Province: Provided always, that when the person or persons of whom Partition is demanded, reside out of this Province, and have an Agent or Attorney residing within this Province, personal notice of such demand or Partition shall be given to such Agent or Attorney, as is required in the case of Resident Proprietors.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if at the first or succeeding Term (in case a continuance hath been granted) after the filing of such Petition, it shall appear to the Court that due notice hath been given, and if no sufficient reason shall appear why Partition should not be made, the Court shall proceed to order such Partition, and shall issue their Writ, directed to the Sheriff of the District in which the Estate or Estates shall or may lie, or to the Sheriff of either of the Districts in which the Estate or Estates shall or may lie, in case such Estate or Estates is or are in more than one District, commanding him by the Oaths of three judicious and disinterested Freeholders of the vicinity, to be appointed by said Court and named in said Writ, who are not of kin to any of the said parties concerned, to cause to be set off and divided to the Demandant in said Petition, such part or proportion of such Estate or Estates as the Court shall have ordered and directed; and in making such Partition, it shall be the duty of said Freeholders to view and examine such Estate or Estates, to set apart the same in such Lot or Lots as will be most advantageous and equitable, having due regard to the improvements, situation and quality of the different parts of such Estate or Estates, and if the bounds or title of any tract or tracts, or any part thereof shall be controverted, it shall be the duty of the said Freeholders to separate the same from the uncontroverted part, and to make Partition of the Estate or Estates in such manner, that a due proportion of the controverted as well as the uncontroverted part may be allotted to the Demandant.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when the facts alleged in any Petition, for Partition hereafter to be preferred in consequence of this Act, are controverted by any of the Tenants in Common, Co-parceners, or Joint Tenants, the answer or objection to the Petition shall be made in writing, in the form of a Plea, to which the Petitioner may reply or demur, to the end that the matter in dispute may be reduced to an issue in Law or fact, and receive a determination by the Court or a Jury, in the manner other issues are determined; and in case the issue be determined in favor of the Petitioner, Judgment shall be entered by the Court, that Partition be made by disinterested Freeholders as aforesaid, and the Court shall proceed to appoint them accordingly: And also, that the Petitioner recover against the adverse party the costs attending the Trial, and Execution may issue for said costs in the form prescribed by Law, as in other cases; but if on such pleading it shall be determined that the Petitioner holds a less share or proportion in the common and undivided property than he has in his Petition alleged, the adverse party shall recover against the Petitioner his reasonable costs; but notwithstanding, Judgment may be rendered in favor of the Petitioner, to have an assignment of such parts of the Real Estate in severalty, as he in fact held in common and undivided.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if at any time after the filing of a Petition as aforesaid, and before a Writ shall have issued to the Sheriff, the person or persons, Joint Tenants, Co-parceners, or Tenants in Common, of whom Partition is demanded, shall appear by him or themselves, or by his or their Attorney, and shall pay their proportion of the costs which have occurred on such Partition, and shall consent to a Partition of such Estate or Estates, then Partition shall be made of such Estate or Estates, by such person or persons as said Joint Tenants, Co-parceners or Tenants in Common shall agree upon, and in case they do not agree upon any person or persons to make such Partition before the end of the Term, then a Writ shall issue to the Sheriff, as is hereinbefore provided.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when any Writ of Partition shall issue as aforesaid, if the Freeholders who are directed to make such Partition shall be of opinion that the Estate or Estates cannot be divided according to the demand of the Writ, without prejudice to, or spoiling the whole, the Freeholders shall then make and return to the Court a true valuation and appraisement of such Estate or Estates, whereupon, if the said Court shall approve the said return, and if any one or more of the parties shall elect to take the said Estate or Estates at the appraised value, the same shall be adjudged to him or them, he or they paying or securing to be paid to the other parties their proportion of the appraised value, according to their respective rights, and the Sheriff shall, according to the order of the Court, make and execute conveyances to the party or parties electing to take the same, subject nevertheless to a lien thereon in favor of the others of the said parties, until payment be made to them of their respective shares of the money as aforesaid; and in case the said parties shall not agree who shall take the said Lands and Tenements on the terms aforesaid, then the said Court shall or may, at the instance of the Demandant in the said Partition, make an order for the Sale of the said Lands and Tenements at Public Auction by the Sheriff, who shall have holden the said Inquisition, or his successors in office, after due and fair notice of the time and place of such Sale, by advertisements published and set up in the several Districts where the Lands lie, and also in such public Newspaper as shall be most likely to give fair and full notice of such sale to all parties concerned, and others, which public notice shall be given at least twenty days before the time of Sale, in cases where the Lands all lie in the same District, and at least sixty days when the Lands lie in different Districts; and the said Sheriff is hereby authorised, empowered and ordered to execute Deeds to the purchasers of the Lands and Tenements so as aforesaid sold, on receiving payment of the consideration money, or taking sufficient security therefor to the satisfaction of the Court, which money or security shall be brought into Court before or at the time of the said Sheriff's acknowledging the Deed, in open Court, to be distributed and paid by order of the said Court amongst the several parties entitled to receive the same, in lieu of their respective parts and proportion of the said Lands and Tenements, according to their just rights and proportions.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when any Writ of Partition shall issue, or when the parties interested shall agree on some person or persons to make Partition, it shall be the duty of the Inquest, or persons so agreed on, to make a true and accurate plan or map, and field book of such Lands as may be so divided, and to describe particularly the metes and bounds of all Tenements so divided and aparted, which plan or map, field book and description, the persons or inquest shall sign, and send under seal to the next Court having cognizance of the same, and after the division and return thereof shall be made to the Court, it shall be examined by the Court, and if found justly and accurately made, the Clerk shall record such return, which record shall be deemed valid and effectual in Law for the Partition of such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, and thereupon the party or parties shall have and hold the Shares or Parcels to them respectively allotted in severalty.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Court before whom any Partition shall be had, shall tax the costs and expences which may accrue on such proceedings, and shall issue Execution therefor against such Person or Persons, their Goods, Chattels, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, interested in such Partition, as shall not have paid their proportion of the costs and expences so taxed: Provided always nevertheless, that it shall be in the power of the Court in which any such proceeding for Partition is depending, to award a new Partition by another Jury, when it shall appear necessary for the ends of Justice, in the same manner and for the same causes as new trials are now grantable by Law, but that no new Partition shall be granted when all the parties interested are resident within the Province, unless the same is applied for before the end of the Term next after that in which the former verdict has been rendered.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Guardians of all Minors are hereby respectively authorised and empowered on behalf of their Wards, to do and perform any act, matter or thing respecting the Partition of Land under this Act, and the same shall be deemed valid and effectual in Law, to every intent and purpose, as if the same had been done by such Minor after his arrival at full age.

An Act to provide for the apprehending of Fugitive Offenders from Foreign Countries, and delivering them up to Justice.

[Passed 13th February, 1833.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide by Law for the apprehending and delivering up of Felons and other Malefactors, who having committed Crimes in Foreign Countries have sought, or may hereafter seek, an asylum in this Province:—Be it therefore enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province, shall have power, and he is hereby authorized at his discretion, and by and with the advice of the Executive Council, on requisition being made by the Government of any Country, or

CROWN OFFICE,
20th February, 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Court of Oyer and Terminer, General Gaol Delivery, and of Assize and Nisi Prius, in and for the Home District, will be held at the Town of York, on Tuesday the ninth day of April next, of which the Sheriff, Coroners, Magistrates, Gaoler, Constables, Bailiffs, and other Peace Officers, are commanded to take notice.

By Order of the Court.

CHARLES C. SMALL
41—i Clerk of the Crown.

Com'r. of Crown Lands Office,
York, 1st December, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by His MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Officeof the Surveyor General, or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

PETER ROBINSON.

Com'r. of Crown Lands Office,
York, 1st December, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by His MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Officeof the Surveyor General. or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

To our beloved and faithful Legislative Councillors of our Province of Upper Canada, and to our Knights, Citizens and Burgesses of our said Province; to our Provincial Parliament at our Town of York, on the Twenty-first day of March, instant, to be commenced, held, called and elected, and to every of you—

GREETING:

WHEREAS on the thirteenth day of February last, we thought fit to prorogue our Provincial Parliament to the Twenty-first day of March, instant, at which time at our Town of York you were held and constrained to appear.

NOW KNOW YE, that we taking into our Royal consideration the ease and convenience of our loving Subjects, have thought fit, by and with the advice of our Executive Council, to relieve you and each of you of your attendance at the time aforesaid, hereby convoking, and by these Presents enjoining you and each of you, that on Thursday, the Second day of May, next ensuing, you meet us in our Provincial Parliament at our Town of York, there to take into consideration the state and welfare of our said Province of Upper Canada, and therein to do as may seem necessary, and herein fail not.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of our said Province to be hereunto affixed—WITNESS our trusty and well beloved SIR JOHN COLBORNE, K. C. By Command of His Excellency,

AN ACT to dispense with the necessity of taking certain Oaths, and making certain Declarations in the cases therein mentioned; and also to render it unnecessary to receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper as a qualification for Offices, or for other temporal purposes.

[Passed 18th February, 1833.]

WHEREAS it is inexpedient to impose upon persons admitted to Offices in this Province, or persons called to the Bar, or admitted as Attornies, or becoming Officers or Members of any Corporation, the necessity of taking certain oaths and making certain declarations which have been heretofore usually required in such cases: Be it therefore enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall not be necessary for any person appointed or to be appointed to any Office in this Province, Civil or Military, or who is or may be a Mayor, or other Officer or Member of any Corporation therein, or for any person admitted, called or received, or hereafter to be admitted, called or received, as a Barrister or Attorney, to make any declaration or subscription, or to take or subscribe any other oath than the oath following, that is to say:—

"I, A. B. do sincerely promise and swear that I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to His Majesty King William, (or the Reigning Sovereign for the time being,) as lawful Sovereign of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of this Province dependant on, and belonging to the said Kingdom, and that I will defend Him to the utmost of my power against all traitorous conspiracies or attempts whatsoever which shall be made against His Person, Crown or Dignity; and that I will do my utmost endeavour to disclose and make known to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, all treasons or traitorous conspiracies and attempts which I shall know to be against Him or any of them; and all this I do swear without any equivocation, mental evasion or secret reservation, and renouncing all pardons and dispensations from any person or power whatsoever to the contrary.—So help me God."

And also, such oath for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, or for the due exercise of his profession or calling as hath been heretofore required, or shall be hereafter required in any Act to be passed in that behalf.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Oath of Allegiance herein prescribed and set forth shall, in case of a Queen succeeding to the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, be taken in the following words, that is to say:—

"I, A. B., do sincerely promise and swear, that I will be faithful, and bear true Allegiance to her Majesty Queen ——— (the Queen who shall be then Reigning), as Lawful Sovereign of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of this Province dependant on, and belonging to the said Kingdom; and that I will defend Her to the utmost of my power against all Traitorous Conspiracies or attempts whatsoever which shall be made against Her Person, Crown and Dignity; and that I will do my utmost endeavour to disclose and make known to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, all Treasons and Traitorous Conspiracies and attempts which I shall know to be against Her, or any of them; and all this I do swear without any equivocation, mental evasion or secret reservation, and renouncing all pardons and dispensations from any person or power whatsoever to the contrary—So help me God."

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Oath of Allegiance herein prescribed and set forth, together with the Oath of Office, or Oath for the due exercise of any profession or calling respectively, shall be, and is hereby required to be taken within the same period, and in the same manner, and subject to the like disabilities and penalties for the ommission thereof, as is now by Law provided with respect to the Oaths heretofore required to be taken in any case respectively.

IV. And whereas it is expedient to dispense with the necessity of taking the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, according to the Rites or Usage of the Church of England, for the purpose of qualifying any person to hold Office in this Province, or for any other temporal purpose, privilege or advantage whatsoever: Be it therefore further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That notwithstanding any thing contained in any Law or Statue to the contrary, it shall not be necessary, from and after the passing of this Act, for any person within this Province, for any such purpose as aforesaid, to take or receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper according to the Rites or Usage of the Church of England, or to deliver a Certificate, or make proof of his having received the said Sacrament in manner aforesaid; and that no person shall hereafter, within this Province, be subject to any penalty, forfeiture, incapacity or disability whatsoever, for or by reason of any neglect or omission to take or receive the said Sacrament. 45

AN ACT to Facilitate legal Remedies against Corporations.

[Passed 13th February, 1833.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to facilitate legal proceedings against Corporations:—Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That all Writs and Process at Law hereafter to be issued against any Body or Bodies Corporate, in the commencement of any Action, and all papers and proceedings, before final Judgment in any such Action, may be served on the President, Presiding Officer, Cashier, Secretary, or Treasurer thereof, in the same manner as upon any individual Defendant in his natural capacity, or on such other person, or in such manner, as the Court in which the Action shall be brought may direct.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when any Writ or Process against a Body Corporate, in the commencement of a Suit, shall be returned duly served, and the service thereof duly proved as in other cases, the Plaintiff may enter an appearance for the Defendant of course, and that the Plaintiff in any Suit against a Body Corporate, in which an appearance shall be entered as aforesaid, or to which the Defendant shall appear, may after such appearance proceed in like manner as in cases of Actions against natural persons, or in such other manner as the Court by general rule shall direct.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be in force for two years, and from thence to the end of the next ensuing Session of Parliament, and no longer. 44

An Act to establish Boards of Health, and to guard against the introduction of Malignant, Contagious and Infectious Diseases, in this Province.

[Passed 13th February, 1833.]

TO guard against the introduction of Malignant, Contagious and infectious diseases, and for the preservation of the public health of the Province:—Be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province, by and with the advice and consent of His Majesty's Executive Council, from time to time, to appoint three or more persons in each and every town in this Province, and in such other places as may be deemed necessary, to act as health officers within the limits of the town or place for which they shall be so appointed.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for such health-officers, or any two of them, as often as they shall think necessary, in the day time to enter into and upon the premises of the persons resident within the limits of the town or place for which they shall have been so appointed, and to examine the same; and if upon such examination it shall be found that the said premises are in an unclean or filthy state, or that any matter or thing exists thereon, which in their opinion may endanger the public health, it shall and may be lawful for such health officers, or any two of them, to order and direct the proprietor or occupant of such premises to cleanse the same, and to remove whatsoever shall or may be found thereon, which, in the opinion of the said health officers, or any two of them, may endanger the public health; and in case the proprietor or occupier of any such premises, shall neglect or refuse to obey the orders and directions of such Health Officers, or any two of them, it shall and may be lawful for the said Health Officers, or any two of them, to call to their assistance all Constables and Peace Officers, and such other persons as they may think fit, and to enter on the said Premises and cleanse the same, and remove therefrom, and destroy whatsoever in their opinion it may be necessary to remove or destroy, for the preservation of the public health.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province, by and with the advice and consent of His Majesty's Executive Council, to make and declare such rules and regulations concerning the entry and departure of any Boats or Vessels at the different Ports or other places within this Province, and the landing or receiving Passengers and Cargoes on board the same, as shall be thought best calculated to preserve the public health.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons shall wilfully disobey or resist any lawful order of the Health Officers duly appointed under and by virtue of this Act, or any two of them, or shall wilfully violate any rule or regulation made and declared by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Executive Council, in pursuance of the power in him vested by this Act, or shall wilfully resist or obstruct the said Health Officers in the execution of their duties, such person or persons, on being convicted of such wilful disobedience or violation of such rules and regulations, or of resistance to the said Health Officers, before two or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the District where such offender or offenders reside, shall forfeit and pay a fine not less than Twenty Shillings, nor more than Twenty Pounds, which said fine shall and may be levied and collected by seizure and sale of such offender or offenders Goods and Chattels, under and by virtue of a Warrant issued under the Hand and Seal of the Justices before whom such offender or offenders shall or may have been convicted, and shall be paid into the hands of His Majesty's Receiver General, to and for the public uses of this Province, and be accounted for through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as His Majesty shall be pleased to direct.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be and continue in force for one year, and from thence to the end of the then next ensuing Session of the Provincial Parliament, and no longer. 44

An Act to provide for the apprehending of Fugitive Offenders from Foreign Countries, and delivering them up to Justice.

[Passed 13th February, 1833.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide by Law for the apprehending and delivering up of Felons and other Malefactors, who having committed Crimes in Foreign Countries have sought, or may hereafter seek, an asylum in this Province:—Be it therefore enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provisions for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province, shall have power, and he is hereby authorized at his discretion, and by and with the advice of the Executive Council, on requisition being made by the Government of any Country, or its Ministers or Officers, authorized to make the same, within the jurisdiction of which Country the crimes hereinafter mentioned shall be charged to have been committed, to deliver up to Justice any person who may have fled to this Province, or who shall seek refuge therein, being charged with Murder, Forgery, Larceny or other crime, committed without the jurisdiction of this Province, which crimes if committed within this Province would by the Laws thereof be punishable by death, corporal punishment, by Pillory or Whipping, or by Confinement at Hard Labour, to the end that such person may be transported out of this Province to the place where such crime shall have been charged to have been committed: Provided always, that this shall only be done upon such evidence of criminality as, according to the Laws of this Province, would, in the opinion of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government, and of the Executive Council, warrant the apprehension and commitment for trial of such fugitive from Justice, or person so charged, if the offence had been committed within this Province.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That for preventing the escape of any person so charged, before any order for his apprehension can be obtained from the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province, it shall be lawful for any Judge, or for any Justice of the Peace in this Province, acting within his jurisdiction, to issue his Warrant for the apprehension and for the commitment of any such person charged as aforesaid, in order that he may be detained in secure custody until application can be made to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government, under the provisions of this Act, and until an order can be made thereon; which Warrant shall nevertheless only be granted upon such evidence on oath, as shall satisfy such Judge or Justice that the person accused stands charged with some crime of the description hereinbefore specified, or that there is good ground to suspect him to have been guilty thereof.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to affect the provisions of a certain Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the Thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled "An Act to authorize the apprehending of Felons and others escaping from any of His Majesty's Provinces, and Governments in North America into this Province," or to make it incumbent upon the Governor and Council of this Province to deliver up any person charged, if for any reason they shall deem it inexpedient so to do, or to prevent the discharge of any person upon Habeas Corpus who, having been committed under this Act, shall be detained in custody beyond the time that may be reasonably required under the circumstances of the case, for carrying the provisions of this Act into effect. 45

Com'r. of Crown Lands Office,
York, 1st December, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by His Majesty's Government for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Office of the Surveyor General, or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

AN ACT to dispense with the necessity of taking certain Oaths, and making certain Declarations in the cases therein mentioned; and also to render it unnecessary to receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper as a qualification for Offices, or for other temporal purposes.

[Passed 13th February, 1833.]

WHEREAS it is inexpedient to impose upon persons admitted to Offices in this Province, or persons called to the Bar, or admitted as Attornies, or becoming Officers or Members of any Corporation, the necessity of taking certain oaths and making certain declarations which have been heretofore usually required in such cases: Be it therefore enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall not be necessary for any person appointed or to be appointed to any Office in this Province, Civil or Military, or who is or may be a Mayor, or other Officer or Member of any Corporation therein, or for any person admitted, called or received, or hereafter to be admitted, called or received, as a Barrister or Attorney, to make any declaration or subscription, or to take or subscribe any other oath than the oath following, that is to say:—

"I, A. B. do sincerely promise and swear that I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to His Majesty King William, (or the Reigning Sovereign for the time being,) as lawful Sovereign of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of this Province dependant on, and belonging to the said Kingdom, and that I will defend Him to the utmost of my power against all traitorous conspiracies or attempts whatsoever which shall be made against His Person, Crown or Dignity; and that I will do my utmost endeavour to disclose and make known to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, all treasons or traitorous conspiracies and attempts which I shall know to be against Him or any of them; and all this I do swear without any equivocation, mental evasion or secret reservation, and renouncing all pardons and dispensations from any person or power whatsoever to the contrary.—So help me God."

And also, such oath for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, or for the due exercise of his profession or calling as hath been heretofore required, or shall be hereafter required in any Act to be passed in that behalf.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Oath of Allegiance herein prescribed and set forth shall, in case of a Queen succeeding to the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, be taken in the following words, that is to say:—

"I, A. B., do sincerely promise and swear, that I will be faithful, and bear true Allegiance to her Majesty Queen ——— (the Queen who shall be then Reigning), as Lawful Sovereign of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of this Province dependant on, and belonging to the said Kingdom; and that I will defend Her to the utmost of my power against all Traitorous Conspiracies or attempts whatsoever which shall be made against Her Person, Crown and Dignity; and that I will do my utmost endeavour to disclose and make known to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, all Treasons and Traitorous Conspiracies and attempts which I shall know to be against Her, or any of them: and all this I do swear without any equivocation, mental evasion or secret reservation, and renouncing all pardons and dispensations from any person or power whatsoever to the contrary—So help me God."

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Oath of Allegiance herein prescribed and set forth, together with the Oath of Office, or Oath for the due exercise of any profession or calling respectively, shall be, and is hereby required to be taken within the same period, and in the same manner, and subject to the like disabilities and penalties for the commission thereof, as is now by Law provided with respect to the Oaths heretofore required to be taken in any case respectively.

IV. And whereas it is expedient to dispense with the necessity of taking the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, according to the Rites or Usage of the Church of England, for the purpose of qualifying any person to hold Office in this Province, or for any other temporal purpose, privelage or advantage whatsoever: Be it therefore further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That notwithstanding any thing contained in any Law or Statue to the contrary, it shall not be necessary, from and after the passing of this Act, for any person within this Province, for any such purpose as aforesaid, to take or receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper according to the Rites or Usage of the Church of England, or to deliver a Certificate, or make proof of his having received the said Sacrament in manner aforesaid; and that no person shall hereafter, within this Province, be subject to any penalty, forfeiture, incapacity or disability whatsoever, for or by reason of any neglect or omission to take or receive the said Sacrament. 45

[Passed 13th February, 1833.]

WHEREAS the Law now in force authorising the Magistrates in the Town of York, to raise by assessment a sum not exceeding one Hundred Pounds, for Police purposes, as therein mentioned, is found, from the great increase of the said Town, insufficient:—Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Magistrates of the Home District, or the major part of them, in Quarter Session assembled, in the month of April in each and every year, to raise by assessment from the persons rated upon any assessment for property in the said Town, a sum not exceeding Four Pence in the Pound, on the amount for which each person shall be assessed in the said Town, in any one year, for purchasing and keeping in repair Fire Engines, Ladders, Buckets, and other Utensils, for the extinguishing of Fires, and for making any other necessary improvements in the said Town, exclusive of the sum such persons may be rated for, in and upon any other assessment of this Province; and in order to carry the said assessment into effect it shall be the duty if the Clerk of the Peace, for the Home District to select from the general assessment of the said District, a list or assessment of the rateable property that each and every person owns or possesses in the said Town, ready to be laid before the Magistrates in Quarter Sessions assembled for the said District, in April in each and every year.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so much of the second clause of an Act passed in the fifty-seventh year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled "An Act to establish a Police in the Towns of York, Sandwich, and Amherstburg, as relates to the levying an Assessment in the Town of York, be and the same is hereby repealed. 47—n

Com'r. of Crown Lands Office, York, 1st December, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by His MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Officeof the Surveyor General, or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the best payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the present Orders in Council relating to Settlement Duties are cancelled from this date; but that no Patent shall be permitted to issue to individuals who may receive Location Tickets, till it shall be ascertained by the Surveyor General, or the Commissioner of Crown Lands, that a resident Settler has been established on some part of the Grant. It is, however, to be understood, that these Regulations shall not interfere with the Order in Council of 14th May, 1830, which applies exclusively to discharged Soldiers and Sailors, and in respect to whom, the period of residence is hereby appointed to be three years, instead of five, as prescribed by that Order.

By order of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

JOHN LEIKIE,
2 Acting C. E. C.

Com'r. of Crown Lands Office,
York, 1st December, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by His MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Office of the Surveyor General, or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

Com'r. of Crown Lands Office,
York, 1st December, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Office of the Surveyor General, or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

York, 1*st December*, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by His MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

Th Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Officeof the Surveyor General, or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

Com'r. of Crown Lands Office,
York, 1st December, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Officeof the Surveyor General, or in that of his Deputies.

The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

Com'r. of Crown Lands Office,
York, 1st December, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Office of the Surveyor General, or in that of his Deputies.

The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

Com'r. of Crown Lands Office,
York, 1st December, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Officeof the Surveyor General, or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

IN conformity to Instructions recently received from His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies, the following arrangements for disposing of the Waste Lands of the Crown in Upper Canada, are made known for the information of Emigrants and others.

Except in the case of U. E. Loyalists, and other persons entitled by the existing Regulations of the Government to Free Grants, no person can obtain any of the Waste Lands of the Crown otherwise than by purchasing at the Public Sales, made from time to time under the direction of the Commissioner of Crown Lands.

These sales will be made on the first and third Tuesday of each month, and will either be continued through the following day, or not, as circumstances may appear to the Agent to require.

They will be held at the following places:—

At Bytown—for the District of Bathurst.
Belleville—for the Midland District.
Peterborough—for the District of Newcastle.
York—for the Home District.
Hamilton—for the District of Gore.
London—for the District of London.
Chatham—for the Western District.

Besides these general periodical Sales, there may be occasional Sales by Auction in other Districts, of such Town Lots, or other Lots of Land, as may remain to be disposed of; and of these Sales ample notice will be given.

The conditions of every Sale by Public Auction will be as follows:—One-fourth of the Purchase money to be paid down; and the remainder in three equal Annual Instalments, with Interest at six per Cent on each Instalment, payable with the Instalment.

The Lands will be put up at an upset price, of which notice will be given at the time of Sale, and in the previous advertisements which will be published of the Lands intended to be put up at each Sale; and in case no offer shall be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale, in a similar manner by Auction.

A Patent for the Lands will be issued free of charge upon the payment in full of the Purchase Money and Interest.

The regular periodical Sales will be held for the first time as follows: In Peterborough, York, and Hamilton, on the third Tuesday in June next; and in Bytown, Belleville, London, and Chatham, on the first Tuesday in July next; and they will continue to be held at all those places on the first and third Tuesday in each month, until after the first Tuesdays in November next: when such other arrangements as may be made by the Government will be announced.

In the Bathurst District,—Mr John McNaughton, D. S. Bytown.
Eastern District—James Pringle, Esq. Cornwall.
Newcastle District,—Alexander McDonell, Esquire, Peterborough.
London District,—Roswell Mount, Esquire, Delaware.
Western District,—Henry John Jones Esquire, Chatham.

The Commissioner for Crown Lands, acting also as Agent for the Sale of Clergy Reserves, requests it to be noticed, that such Clergy Reserves as have not been hitherto occupied by authority, or Leased by the Government, will be disposed of, by Public Auction only, either at the periodical Sales of Crown Lands, or at occasional Sales to be duly advertised; and that the terms of payment for Clergy Reserves will continue to be as follows:—Ten per cent to be paid at the time of Sale, and the remainder in nine Annual Instalments of ten per cent each, with Interest on each Instalment, to be paid with the Instalment.

Such Clergy Reserves as have been leased, or occupied by the authority of the Government, must be applied for by letter to the Commissioner of Crown Lands, and when disposed of, will be sold by private Sale on the same terms of payment as those disposed of by Public Auction.

All application from Emigrants, or respecting Emigration, not immediately connected with the Sale of Public Lands, are to be addressed, to Anthony B. Hawke, Esquire, at York, he being specially appointed by the Government to act in that Department.

Com'r. of Crown Lands Office, York, 1st December, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada :—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered ; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection ; which plans may be inspected in the Officeof the Surveyor General. or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest ; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

To our beloved and faithful Legislative Councillors of our Province of Upper Canada, and to our Knights, Citizens and Burgesses of our said Province; to our Provincial Parliament at our Town of York, on the Eighth day of June, next, to be commenced, held, called and elected, and to every of you—

GREETING:

WHEREAS by our Proclamation bearing date the thirtieth day of April last, we thought fit to prorogue our Provincial Parliament to the Eighth day of June next, at which time at our Town of York you were held and constrained to appear.

NOW KNOW YE, that we taking into our Royal consideration the ease and convenience of our loving Subjects, have thought fit, by and with the advice of our Executive Council, to relieve you and each of you of your attendance at the time aforesaid, hereby convoking, and by these Presents enjoining you and each of you, that on Tuesday, the Sixteenth day of July, next ensuing, you meet us in our Provincial Parliament at our Town of York, there to take into consideration the state and welfare of our said Province of Upper Canada, and therein to do as may seem necessary, and herein fail not.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of our said Province to be hereunto affixed—WITNESS our trusty and well beloved SIR JOHN COLBORNE, K. C. B., Lieutenant Governor of our said Province, and Major General commanding our Forces therein at York, this thirty-first day of May, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty-three, and in the Third year of our Reign. J. C.

By Command of His Excellency.
S. P. JARVIS, Clk. Crown in Chancery.
D. CAMERON, Secretary.

IN conformity to Instructions recently received from His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies, the following arrangements for disposing of the Waste Lands of the Crown in Upper Canada, are made known for the information of Emigrants and others.

Except in the case of U. E. Loyalists, and other persons entitled by the existing Regulations of the Government to Free Grants, no person can obtain any of the Waste Lands of the Crown otherwise than by purchasing at the Public Sales, made from time to time under the direction of the Commissioner of Crown Lands.

These sales will be made on the first and third Tuesday of each month, and will either be continued through the following day, or not, as circumstances may appear to the Agent to require.

They will be held at the following places:—

At Bytown—for the District of Bathurst.
Belleville—for the Midland District.
Peterborough—for the District of Newcastle.
York—for the Home District.
Hamilton—for the District of Gore.
London—for the District of London.
Chatham—for the Western District.

Besides these general periodical Sales, there may be occasional Sales by Auction in other Districts, of such Town Lots, or other Lots of Land, as may remain to be disposed of; and of these Sales ample notice will be given.

The conditions of every Sale by Public Auction will be as follows:—One-fourth of the Purchase money to be paid down; and the remainder in three equal Annual Instalments, with Interest at six per Cent on each Instalment, payable with the Instalment.

The Lands will be put up at an upset price, of which notice will be given at the time of Sale, and in the previous advertisements which will be published of the Lands intended to be put up at each Sale; and in case no offer shall be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale, in a similar manner by Auction.

A Patent for the Lands will be issued free of charge upon the payment in full of the Purchase Money and Interest.

The regular periodical Sales will be held for the first time as follows: In Peterborough, York, and Hamilton, on the third Tuesday in June next; and in Bytown, Belleville, London, and Chatham, on the first Tuesday in July next; and they will continue to be held at all those places on the first and third Tuesday in each month, until after the first Tuesdays in November next: when such other arrangements as may be made by the Government will be announced.

Information can be obtained respecting the Lands to be disposed of in the several Districts, by applying to the following Gentlemen, Agents for the Commissioner of Crown Lands—viz:

In the Bathurst District,—Mr John McNaughton, D. S. Bytown.
Eastern District—James Pringle, Esq. Cornwall.
Newcastle District,—Alexander McDonell, Esquire, Peterborough.
London District,—Roswell Mount, Esqtire, Delaware.
Western District,—Henry John Jones Esquire, Chatham.

The Commissioner for Crown Lands, acting also as Agent for the Sale of Clergy Reserves, requests it to be noticed, that such Clergy Reserves as have not been hitherto occupied by authority, or Leased by the Government, will be disposed of, by Public Auction only, either at the periodical Sales of Crown Lands, or at occasional Sales to be duly advertised; and that the terms of payment for Clergy Reserves will continue to be as follows:—Ten per cent to be paid at the time of Sale, and the remainder in nine Annual Instalments of ten per cent each, with Interest on each Instalment, to be paid with the Instalment.

Such Clergy Reserves as have been leased, or occupied by the authority of the Government, must be applied for by letter to the Commissioner of Crown Lands, and when disposed of, will be sold by private Sale on the same terms of payment as those disposed of by Public Auction.

All application from Emigrants, or respecting Emigration, not immediately connected with the Sale of Public Lands, are to be addressed, to Anthony B. Hawke, Esquire, at York, he being specially appointed by the Government to act in that Department.

Com'r. of Crown Lands Office,
York, 1st December, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by His Majesty's Government for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Office of the Surveyor General, or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

IN conformity to Instructions recently received from His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies, the following arrangements for disposing of the Waste Lands of the Crown in Upper Canada, are made known for the information of Emigrants and others.

Except in the case of U. E. Loyalists, and other persons entitled by the existing Regulations of the Government to Free Grants, no person can obtain any of the Waste Lands of the Crown otherwise than by purchasing at the Public Sales, made from time to time under the direction of the Commissioner of Crown Lands.

These sales will be made on the first and third Tuesday of each month, and will either be continued through the following day, or not, as circumstances may appear to the Agent to require.

They will be held at the following places:—

At Bytown—for the District of Bathurst.
Belleville—for the Midland District.
Peterborough—for the District of Newcastle.
York—for the Home District.
Hamilton—for the District of Gore.
London—for the District of London.
Chatham—for the Western District.

Besides these general periodical Sales, there may be occasional Sales by Auction in other Districts, of such Town Lots, or other Lots of Land, as may remain to be disposed of; and of these Sales ample notice will be given.

The conditions of every Sale by Public Auction will be as follows:—One-fourth of the Purchase money to be paid down; and the remainder in three equal Annual Instalments, with Interest at six per Cent on each Instalment, payable with the Instalment.

The Lands will be put up at an upset price, of which notice will be given at the time of Sale, and in the previous advertisements which will be published of the Lands intended to be put up at each Sale; and in case no offer shall be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale, in a similar manner by Auction.

A Patent for the Lands will be issued free of charge upon the payment in full of the Purchase Money and Interest.

The regular periodical Sales will be held for the first time as follows: In Peterborough, York, and Hamilton, on the third Tuesday in June next; and in Bytown, Belleville, London, and Chatham, on the first Tuesday in July next; and they will continue to be held at all those places on the first and third Tuesday in each month, until after the first Tuesdays in November next: when such other arrangements as may be made by the Government will be announced.

Western District,—Henry John Jones Esquire, Chatham.

The Commissioner for Crown Lands, acting also as Agent for the Sale of Clergy Reserves, requests it to be noticed, that such Clergy Reserves as have not been hitherto occupied by authority, or Leased by the Government, will be disposed of, by Public Auction only, either at the periodical Sales of Crown Lands, or at occasional Sales to be duly advertised; and that the terms of payment for Clergy Reserves will continue to be as follows:—Ten per cent to be paid at the time of Sale, and the remainder in nine Annual Instalments of ten per cent each, with Interest on each Instalment, to be paid with the Instalment.

Such Clergy Reserves as have been leased, or occupied by the authority of the Government, must be applied for by letter to the Commissioner of Crown Lands, and when disposed of, will be sold by private Sale on the same terms of payment as those disposed of by Public Auction.

All application from Emigrants, or respecting Emigration, not immediately connected with the Sale of Public Lands, are to be addressed, to Anthony B. Hawke, Esquire, at York, he being specially appointed by the Government to act in that Department.

Com'r. of Crown Lands Office,
York, 1st December, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by His Majesty's Government for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Officeof the Surveyor General, or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of those classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

IN conformity to Instructions recently received from His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies, the following arrangements for disposing of the Waste Lands of the Crown in Upper Canada, are made known for the information of Emigrants and others.

Except in the case of U. E. Loyalists, and other persons entitled by the existing Regulations of the Government to Free Grants, no person can obtain any of the Waste Lands of the Crown otherwise than by purchasing at the Public Sales, made from time to time under the direction of the Commissioner of Crown Lands.

These sales will be made on the first and third Tuesday of each month, and will either be continued through the following day, or not, as circumstances may appear to the Agent to require.

They will be held at the following places:—

At Bytown—for the District of Bathurst.
Belleville—for the Midland District.
Peterborough—for the District of Newcastle.
York—for the Home District.
Hamilton—for the District of Gore.
London—for the District of London.
Chatham—for the Western Dstrict.

Besides these general periodical Sales, there may be occasional Sales by Auction in other Districts, of such Town Lots, or other Lots of Land, as may remain to be disposed of; and of these Sales ample notice will be given.

The conditions of every Sale by Public Auction will be as follows:—One-fourth of the Purchase money to be paid down; and the remainder in three equal Annual Instalments, with Interest at six per Cent on each Instalment, payable with the Instalment.

The Lands will be put up at an upset price, of which notice will be given at the time of Sale, and in the previous advertisements which will be published of the Lands intended to be put up at each Sale; and in case no offer shall be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale, in a similar manner by Auction.

A Patent for the Lands will be issued free of charge upon the payment in full of the Purchase Money and Interest.

The regular periodical Sales will be held for the first time as follows: In Peterborough, York, and Hamilton, on the third Tuesday in June next; and in Bytown, Belleville, London, and Chatham, on the first Tuesday in July next; and they will continue to be held at all those places on the first and third Tuesday in each month, until after the first Tuesdays in November next: when such other arrangements as may be made by the Government will be announced.

Districts, by applying to the following Gentlemen, Agents for the Commissioner of Crown Lands—viz:

Eastern District—James Pringle, Esq. Cornwall.
Newcastle District,—Alexander McDonell, Esquire, Peterborough.
London District,—Roswell Mount, Esquire, Delaware.
Western District,—Henry John Jones Esquire, Chatham.

The Commissioner for Crown Lands, acting also as Agent for the Sale of Clergy Reserves, requests it to be noticed, that such Clergy Reserves as have not been hitherto occupied by authority, or Leased by the Government, will be disposed of, by Public Auction only, either at the periodical Sales of Crown Lands, or at occasional Sales to be duly advertised; and that the terms of payment for Clergy Reserves will continue to be as follows:—Ten per cent to be paid at the time of Sale, and the remainder in nine Annual Instalments of ten per cent each, with Interest on each Instalment, to be paid with the Instalment.

Such Clergy Reserves as have been leased, or occupied by the authority of the Government, must be applied for by letter to the Commissioner of Crown Lands, and when disposed of, will be sold by private Sale on the same terms of payment as those disposed of by Public Auction.

All application from Emigrants, or respecting Emigration, not immediately connected with the Sale of Public Lands, are to be addressed, to Anthony B. Hawke, Esquire, at York, he being specially appointed by the Government to act in that Department.

York, 1st December, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by His Majesty's Government for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Office of the Surveyor General, or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Besides these general periodical Sales, there may be occasional Sales by Auction in other Districts, of such Town Lots, or other Lots of Land, as may remain to be disposed of; and of these Sales ample notice will be given.

The conditions of every Sale by Public Auction will be as follows:—One-fourth of the Purchase money to be paid down; and the remainder in three equal Annual Instalments, with Interest at six per Cent on each Instalment, payable with the Instalment.

The Lands will be put up at an upset price, of which notice will be given at the time of Sale, and in the previous advertisements which will be published of the Lands intended to be put up at each Sale; and in case no offer shall be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale, in a similar manner by Auction.

A Patent for the Lands will be issued free of charge upon the payment in full of the Purchase Money and Interest.

The regular periodical Sales will be held for the first time as follows: In Peterborough, York, and Hamilton, on the third Tuesday in June next; and in Bytown, Belleville, London, and Chatham, on the first Tuesday in July next; and they will continue to be held at all those places on the first and third Tuesday in each month, until after the first Tuesdays in November next: when such other arrangements as may be made by the Government will be announced.

Information can be obtained respecting the Lands to be disposed of in the several

Districts, by applying to the following Gentlemen, Agents for the Commissioner of Crown Lands—viz:

In the Bathurst District,—Mr John McNaughton, D. S. Bytown.
Eastern District—James Pringle, Esq. Cornwall.
Newcastle District,—Alexander McDonell, Esquire, Peterborough.
London District,—Roswell Mount Esquire, Delaware.
Western District,—Henry John Jones Esquire, Chatham.

The Commissioner for Crown Lands, acting also as Agent for the Sale of Clergy Reserves, requests it to be noticed, that such Clergy Reserves as have not been hitherto occupied by authority, or Leased by the Government, will be disposed of, by Public Auction only, either at the periodical Sales of Crown Lands, or at occasional Sales to be duly advertised; and that the terms of payment for Clergy Reserves will continue to be as follows:—Ten per cent to be paid at the time of Sale, and the remainder in nine Annual Instalments of ten per cent each, with Interest on each Instalment, to be paid with the Instalment.

Such Clergy Reserves as have been leased, or occupied by the authority of the Government, must be applied for by letter to the Commissioner of Crown Lands, and when disposed of, will be sold by private Sale on the same terms of payment as those disposed of by Public Auction.

All application from Emigrants, or respecting Emigration, not immediately connected with the Sale of Public Lands, are to be addressed, to Anthony B. Hawke, Esquire, at York, he being specially appointed by the Government to act in that Department.

Com'r. of Crown Lands Office,
York, 1st December, 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by His Majesty's Government for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Officeof the Surveyor General, or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.

IN conformity to Instructions recently received from His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies, the following arrangements for disposing of the Waste Lands of the Crown in Upper Canada, are made known for the information of Emigrants and others.

Except in the case of U. E. Loyalists, and other persons entitled by the existing Regulations of the Government to Free Grants, no person can obtain any of the Waste Lands of the Crown otherwise than by purchasing at the Public Sales, made from time to time under the direction of the Commissioner of Crown Lands.

These sales will be made on the first and third Tuesday of each month, and will either be continued through the following day, or not, as circumstances may appear to the Agent to require.

They will be held at the following places:—

At Bytown—for the District of Bathurst.
Belleville—for the Midland District.
Peterborough—for the District of Newcastle.
York—for the Home District.
Hamilton—for the District of Gore.
London—for the District of London.
Chatham—for the Western Dstrict.

Besides these general periodical Sales, there may be occasional Sales by Auction in other Districts, of such Town Lots, or other Lots of Land, as may remain to be disposed of; and of these Sales ample notice will be given.

The conditions of every Sale by Public Auction will be as follows:—One-fourth of the Purchase money to be paid down; and the remainder in three equal Annual Instalments, with Interest at six per Cent on each Instalment, payable with the Instalment.

The Lands will be put up at an upset price, of which notice will be given at the time of Sale, and in the previous advertisements which will be published of the Lands intended to be put up at each Sale; and in case no offer shall be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale, in a similar manner by Auction.

A Patent for the Lands will be issued free of charge upon the payment in full of the Purchase Money and Interest.

The regular periodical Sales will be held for the first time as follows: In Peterborough, York, and Hamilton, on the third Tuesday in June next; and in Bytown, Belleville, London, and Chatham, on the first Tuesday in July next; and they will continue to be held at all those places on the first and third Tuesday in each month, until after the first Tuesdays in November next: when such other arrangements as may be made by the Government will be announced.

Eastern District—James Pringle, Esq. Cornwall.
Newcastle District,—Alexander McDonell, Esquire, Peterborough.
London District,—Roswell Mount Esquire, Delaware.
Western District,—Henry John Jones Esquire, Chatham.

The Commissioner for Crown Lands, acting also as Agent for the Sale of Clergy Reserves, requests it to be noticed, that such Clergy Reserves as have not been hitherto occupied by authority, or Leased by the Government, will be disposed of, by Public Auction only, either at the periodical Sales of Crown Lands, or at occasional Sales to be duly advertised; and that the terms of payment for Clergy Reserves will continue to be as follows:—Ten per cent to be paid at the time of Sale, and the remainder in nine Annual Instalments of ten per cent each, with Interest on each Instalment, to be paid with the Instalment.

Such Clergy Reserves as have been leased, or occupied by the authority of the Government, must be applied for by letter to the Commissioner of Crown Lands, and when disposed of, will be sold by private Sale on the same terms of payment as those disposed of by Public Auction.

All application from Emigrants, or respecting Emigration, not immediately connected with the Sale of Public Lands, are to be addressed, to Anthony B. Hawke, Esquire, at York, he being specially appointed by the Government to act in that Department.

Except in the case of U. E. Loyalists, and other persons entitled by the existing Regulations of the Government to Free Grants, no person can obtain any of the Waste Lands of the Crown otherwise than by purchasing at the Public Sales, made from time to time under the direction of the Commissioner of Crown Lands.

The conditions of every Sale by Public Auction will be as follows:—One-fourth of the Purchase money to be paid down; and the remainder in three equal Annual Instalments, with Interest at six per Cent on each Instalment, payable with the Instalment.

The Lands will be put up at an upset price, of which notice will be given at the time of Sale, and in the previous advertisements which will be published of the Lands intended to be put up at each Sale; and in case no offer shall be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale, in a similar manner by Auction.

Com'r. of Crown Lands Office, York, 1*st December,* 1831.

THE following summary of the Rules established by HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT for regulating the disposal of Lands, is published for the information of persons desirous of settling in Upper Canada:—

Once in every year, or oftener, the Commissioner of Crown Lands will draw up his report of the Land which it may be expedient to offer for sale by Public Auction within the ensuing year, and the upset price per Acre at which he would recommend it to be offered; the Land so offered having been previously surveyed and valued.

The Land will be laid out in Lots of one hundred Acres each, and plans prepared for public inspection; which plans may be inspected in the Officeof the Surveyor General, or in that of his Deputies. The Commissioner of Crown Lands will give public notice in the Upper Canada Gazette, and such Newspapers as may be circulating in the Province, of the time and place for the sale of Land in each District, and of the upset price at which the Lands are proposed to be offered.—The Lots will be sold to the highest bidder, and if no offer be made at the upset price, the Land will be reserved for future sale in a similar manner by Auction.

The purchase money will be required to be paid down at the time of sale, or by four instalments with interest; the first instalment at the time of the sale, and the second, third and fourth instalments at the interval of a year.

Any further conditions respecting these sales, will be found in the printed Advertisements giving notice of them.

To indigent Settlers who may be unable to avail themselves of these opportunities of purchase, Lands will be assigned by private sale, in certain specified Townships, at an estimated value, and the first payment will be accepted at the end of three years, without interest, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal instalments, interest to commence after three years from the purchase.

Free Grants are not made to any but U. E. Loyalists, or such persons as have served His Majesty in the Navy or Regular Army. Persons of either of these classes will forward their applications for Land, accompanied by official documents in support of their claims, as heretofore, to the Civil Secretary of the Lieutenant Governor, and will receive answers to them on applying to the Clerk of the Executive Council, and their Location Tickets from the Surveyor General.
