The Representation Act, 1975

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:

1. The boundaries of every borough, city, county, improvement district, regional district, regional municipality, territorial district, town, township and village shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be the boundaries of such borough, city, county, improvement district, regional district, regional municipality, territorial district, town, township and village as defined by statute, by-law, proclamation or other lawful authority on the day upon which this Act comes into force.

2. The Legislative Assembly of Ontario shall consist of one hundred and twenty-five members.

3.—(1) Ontario shall, for the purpose of representation in the Assembly, be divided into the electoral districts as set out in the Schedule.

(2) One member shall be returned to the Assembly for each electoral district.

4. The boundaries of the electoral districts as set out in the Schedule shall not be affected by alterations in municipal boundaries made after the day upon which this Act comes into force.

5. Where a borough, city, county, improvement district, regional district, regional municipality, territorial district, town, township and village becomes incorporated and is not expressly included in an electoral district set out in the Schedule but is situated in part in two or more of such electoral districts, the electors entitled to vote in such municipality are entitled to vote in the electoral district in which they would have been entitled to vote if the borough, city, county, improvement district, regional district, regional municipality, territorial district, town, township, and village had not become incorporated.

6. Except as otherwise expressly set out in the Schedule, every augmentation or gore of a township shall for the purposes of this Act be considered as forming part of the electoral district in which the township is situated.

7. Every borough, city, county, improvement district, regional district, regional municipality, territorial district, town, township and village heretofore or hereafter incorporated, situate wholly within an electoral district as set out in the Schedule and not expressly included in any other electoral district in the Schedule, shall form part of the electoral district in which it is situate.

8. Every borough, city, county, improvement district, regional district, regional municipality, territorial district, town, township and village that by the provisions of any special Act passed before this Act comes into force forms or forms part of an electoral district shall, notwithstanding such provisions, form or form part of the electoral district or districts in which it is included in the Schedule.

9. The Representation Act, 1966 is repealed.

10. This Act comes into force and has effect on the day after the day upon which the present Legislature is dissolved or ended by the effluxion of time.

11. This Act may be cited as The Representation Act, 1975.
