

CA20N
PM
2005
061
no. 11
c.2

The Premier
of Ontario

Legislative Building
Queen's Park
Toronto, Ontario
M7A 1A1

Le Premier ministre
de l'Ontario

Édifice de l'Assemblée législative
Queen's Park
Toronto (Ontario)
M7A 1A1

Sessional Paper No. 467
1st Session 38th Parliament
Tabled
For Deputy Clerk: devyn

May 6, 2005

RECEIVED

MAY 06 2005

CLERK OF JOURNALS AND PROCEDURAL RESEARCH

Memorandum To: Mr. Claude DesRosiers
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly

Re: Order-in-Council Appointments

I am attaching information on intended Order-in-Council appointments to agencies, boards and commissions which received Cabinet approval on May 4, 2005.

Yours truly,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Dalton McGuinty".

Dalton McGuinty
Premier

May 4, 2005

PART TIME APPOINTMENTS

MINISTRY OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Assessment Review Board

Peter Andrews
Ana Cristina Marques
Barbara Kowarsky
Romeo Levasseur
Nicoll Plumstead
Fausto Saponara
Donald Whitehurst
Nominated as members

Peter Andrews, of Toronto, is currently employed by Johnson Andrews and Associates Inc. as a Real Estate Consultant. He was previously employed by Sun Life Financial Realty Advisors Inc. as Vice-President of Business Development and Segregated Portfolio Management and by Prudential Portfolio Managers (Canada) Limited as Senior Vice-President of Real Estate. Mr. Andrews has been involved in the community with the PACT Restorative Youth Justice Program, Ryerson University School of Applied Geography and the Out of the Cold Program.

Ana Cristina Marques, of Woodbridge, is the co-owner of Dreamcoast Homes Inc. which redevelops infill sites and obsolete commercial/industrial properties into executive/midrange residences. She is also co-owner of Trio Roofing Systems Inc., a company which undertakes industrial, commercial and industrial roofing systems construction and renovation in Southern Ontario. Ms. Marques has been involved in the community with the General Arts and Science Department at Humber College and the Federation of Portuguese Canadian Business and Professionals Association.

Barbara Kowarsky, of Thornhill, holds Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Education degrees. In 2003, she retired from teaching secondary school. She was the Social Science/Business Programme Team Leader at Northview Heights Secondary School where she taught senior law. Ms. Kowarsky was a member of the Discipline Committee of the Registered Insurance Brokers of Ontario and a member, Vice-Chair and Interim Vice-Chair of the Ontario Film Review Board. She has been involved in the community with the Beth Tzedec Synagogue and the local Ratepayers and Block Parent programs.

Romeo Levasseur, of Pembroke, has been a Councillor for the City of Pembroke since 1985. He holds a Masters Degree in Education. Mr. Levasseur retired after 34 years as an educator, spending several years as a high school principal and his final year as a curriculum consultant. He has extensive experience in the municipal sector and has held positions on several Boards of Directors, both locally and provincially.

MINISTRY OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL - cont'd

Assessment Review Board - cont'd

Nicoll Plumstead, of North Bay, has been employed by H&R Block preparing income tax returns for the last 14 years. He also taught a basic course on income tax preparation to members of the public and an advanced level course to H&R Block staff. He was an elected official in Temagami for 12 years. Mr. Plumstead owned and operated a Tourist Lodge in Temagami from 1974 to 1981. He has been involved in the community with the Library Board, the Committee of Adjustment, the Non-Profit Housing Corporation and the Home for the Aged.

Fausto Saponara, of Toronto, is currently a Management Consultant. He was previously Vice-President of Corporate Management Business Development with the Ontario Hospital Association, Vice-President of Business Development with the Ontario Clean Water Agency and Vice-President and Chief Financial Officer with the Ontario Development Corporation. Mr. Saponara was also Director, Financial and Capital Management Branch with the Ministry of Environment and a Financial Manager, Toronto Provincial Court Offices with the Ministry of the Attorney General.

Donald Whitehurst, of Sault Ste. Marie, was a part-time SIU Investigator conducting investigations into issues addressed in the mandate governing the Special Investigations Unit under the Ontario Police Services Act. Mr. Whitehurst was a Liaison Officer with the Department of Foreign Affairs and an Commanding Officer RCMP (Inspector) in Northern Ontario. He has been a member of the Board of Sault Ste. Marie St. John Ambulance since 1998.

Deputy Judges Council

Fern Kwinter Kirshenbaum

James Moak

Nominated as members

Fern Kwinter Kirshenbaum, of Toronto, is an Officer and Director of Kwinmar Investors Inc. involved in real estate and cash investments. She was previously employed by the International Academy of Design and Technology as Faculty Chair of Fashion Merchandising Management, and concurrently Chaired the Faculty of Advertising Design for two years. Ms. Kirshenbaum also worked at Dylex Diversified, Fairweather as a National Advertising Manager. She has been involved in the community with the School Parent Council and is a founding member and current Chair of the Ontario Association of Special Program Schools.

James Moak, of Newington, has a College Degree in Business and Law. He has been self-employed as a paralegal (litigation oriented) since 1987. Mr. Moak was a Manager of Operations and Sales from 1980 to 1987. He has been involved in the community in the areas of recreation and athletics.

MINISTRY OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL - cont'd

Justices of the Peace Review Council

Kathleen M. Bryant
Nominated as a member

Kathleen M. Bryant, of Ignace, is a full-time presiding Justice of the Peace in the Northeast Region. Under the legislation, one member of the Council must be a Justice of the Peace. Ms. Bryant has been recommended by the Associate Chief Justice - Coordinator of Justices of the Peace for the Ontario Court of Justice.

Ontario Human Rights Commission

Ghulam Abbas Sajan
Bhagat Taggar
Fernand Lalonde
Nominated as members

Ghulam Abbas Sajan, of Thornhill, was a Senior Management Auditor, Internal Audit Division of the Management Board Secretariat from 1975 to 1999. He is a retired member of the Chartered Association of Certified Accountants. Mr. Sajan is Co-Chair of "Mosaic" which is an interfaith group involved in community activities. He is a director of the Association of Progressive Muslims of Ontario and is a member of the Markham Race Relations Committee.

Bhagat Taggar, of Toronto, is a retired electrical engineer. He is currently a part-time Professor at Centennial College. Mr. Taggar is a former Section Head at Ontario Hydro and former Manager at Siemen's Electric Canada. He is currently Chair of the Joint Council of Canadian Communities and a former President of the Canadian Council of South Asians.

Fernand Lalonde, of Ottawa, retired from the federal public service in 2001 after 35 years of service. He is currently providing consulting services in union-management relations, dispute resolution services including arbitration, mediation, facilitation and fact-finding. From 1995 to 2001, Mr. Lalonde was General Secretary of the National Joint Council of the Public Service of Canada. His community activities include work with the Ottawa Hospital Foundation. He is a former President of the Canadian Public Personnel Management Association.

MINISTRY OF CONSUMER AND BUSINESS SERVICES

Licence Appeal Tribunal

Esrick Quintyn
Nominated as a member

Esrick Quintyn, of Oshawa, is currently Commissioner of Oshawa Transit where he oversees the distribution and supply of the Oshawa Transit System. He also oversees the management and daily administration of the bus service and addresses employee grievances and contract negotiations. Mr. Quintyn previously worked at the Ontario Review Board for ten years. He has been involved in the community with the Heart and Stroke Foundation and the Durham Family Court Legal Clinic.

Ontario Film Review Board

Janet Robinson
Nominated as Chair

Janet Robinson, of Scarborough, has been a member of the Ontario Film Review Board since 1999. She was appointed Vice-Chair in 2003. She is currently employed by Oncidium Health Group as a contract Occupational Health Nurse. She has been employed by the Toronto Star and Royal York Hotel providing first aid to employees and guests. Ms. Robinson has been involved in the community with the Heart and Stroke Foundation and Neighbourhood Watch.

MINISTRY OF COMMUNITY, SAFETY AND CORRECTIONAL SERVICES

Meaford Police Services

James Oliver
Nominated as a member

James Oliver, of Meaford, worked for Dehavilland Aircraft of Canada as a Wood Worker Mechanic for ten years and as an Aircraft Planner for 12 years. Mr. Oliver also worked at the Ontario Government Driver Examination Branch for seven years. He volunteered with the Meaford Parks & Cemetery Board, serving as Chair for three years.

MINISTRY OF FINANCE

Financial Services Tribunal

Elizabeth Jean Shilton
Nominated as a member

Elizabeth Jean Shilton, of Toronto, is a lawyer currently working as a consultant with Gabian Consulting. From 1983 to 2005 she was a founding partner in the law firm of Cavalluzzo Hayes Shilton McIntyre & Cornish, where her practice focussed on pension and benefits, education, labour and employment law and on the litigation of equality issues before labour and other administrative tribunals as well as before the courts. Ms. Shilton is a Board member of Parents for Youth: Helping and Supporting Parents and a member of the Executive of the Ontario Bar Association Pension and Benefits Subsection.

MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND LONG-TERM CARE

Board of Health for the Grey Bruce Health Unit

Catherine June Van Bastelaar
Nominated as a member

Catherine June Van Bastelaar, of Port Elgin, holds a Master of Education degree from the University of Western Ontario. Before her retirement in August 2002, she held various positions with the Bruce County Board of Education including Elementary and Secondary School Teacher, Elementary School Principal and Curriculum Supervisor. Her past community involvement includes serving as a member and Chair of the Port Elgin United Church Board, member of the Medical Building Fundraising Committee and member of the Doctor Recruitment Committee, Saugeen Shores.

Council of the Ontario College of Pharmacists

John Maynard
Nominated as a member

John Maynard, of Port Rowan, holds a Diploma in Hospital Administration from the University of British Columbia and Vancouver General Hospital and completed the Program for Health Systems Management at Harvard University in 1978. He currently is President of John K. Maynard Health Care Consulting. He has been an Administrator of acute care hospitals in B.C. and Ontario and President of the Ontario Home Nursing Association. His past community involvement includes Board member of Port Rowan Medical Clinic, Board member of Guelph Hospice and Vice-Chair of Stonehenge Therapeutic Community in Guelph.

MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND LONG-TERM CARE - cont'd

Council of the Royal College of Dental Surgeons of Ontario

Abdul Wahid
Nominated as a member

Abdul Wahid, of Toronto, is a Certified General Accountant employed with Nor-Don Collection Network Inc. in the position of Assistant Controller. He has been working in the accounting field since 1986, and over the course of his career, has held a number of progressively responsible positions with a number of companies. He received his Chartered Accountant designation from the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Bangladesh in 1986 and is Chair of The Institute of Chartered Accountants of Bangladesh North American Chapter. Mr. Wahid is also actively involved in the Bangladesh Canadian Political Action Committee as General Secretary and the Bangladesh Community Service as Director.

MINISTRY OF LABOUR

Workplace Safety and Insurance Board

John Kenneth Deane
Nominated as a member

John Kenneth Deane, of Toronto, is currently President and Chief Executive Officer at St. Joseph's Health Centre in Toronto. He was President and Chief Executive Officer of Hotel-Dieu Grace Hospital, Vice-President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer with Grand River Hospital and Vice-President and Chief Financial Officer with North York General Hospital. Mr. Deane has been involved in the community with the Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care - Agency Implementation Task Force and the Catholic Health Association of Ontario.

MINISTRY OF TRAINING, COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

Ontario College of Art & Design Board of Governors

Gordon Stromberg
Michael Haddad
Rosalyn Morrison
Margaret Priest
Sarah Quinton
Daniel Donovan
Nominated as members

Gordon Stromberg, of Toronto, retired in 2000 after a long career with Shoppers Drug Mart. At the time of his retirement he was Senior Vice-President, Advertising and Promotion. He has served on the boards of the Ontario Science Centre and the Koffler Centre of the Arts. Mr. Stromberg also belongs to five different art groups including an alumni life drawing class at the Ontario College of Art & Design. He graduated from the College in 1961.

MINISTRY OF TRAINING, COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES - cont'd

Ontario College of Art & Design Board of Governors - cont'd

Michael Haddad, of Toronto, is a lawyer in private practice. His practice includes many clients with arts and education related legal issues. Mr. Haddad is a member of the Board of Management, Old Cabbagetown BIA and serves as Chair of the Education Committee at Saint James' Cathedral. He is also an ongoing supporter of several arts organizations including the Art Gallery of Ontario, the Royal Ontario Museum, the Art Gallery of Windsor and the Toronto Symphony. Mr. Haddad is a Patron of the Canadian Opera Company.

Rosalyn Morrison, of Toronto, is Executive Director of the Ontario Crafts Council. She is a design graduate of the Ontario College of Art and Design and has worked with organizations including the Textile Museum of Canada, the Ontario Arts Council and the Association of Cultural Executives. Her research and curatorial work include the exhibitions Canadian Glassworks 1970-1990 presented at the Ontario Crafts Council and The Passage of Light at the Canadian Embassy in Washington, DC. Ms. Morrison developed and taught the Glass History course at Sheridan College's School of Crafts and Design. In 1992, she founded the Institute for Contemporary Canadian Craft.

Margaret Priest, of Toronto, is an artist and graduate of the Royal College of Art in London. She is now retired but holds the rank of Professor Emeritus from the University of Guelph after having been a full Professor of Fine Art at the University from 1999 to 2000 and an Associate Professor from 1983 to 1999. She has been the recipient of several teaching awards and was Coordinator of the Master of Fine Arts degree program in Studio Art at the University of Guelph. Ms. Priest has taught and been a visiting lecturer at numerous other universities, schools of architecture and art colleges in Canada, the U.K. and the U.S.A. Her work is in numerous public collections including the Tate Gallery, the Art Gallery of Ontario, the Canadian Centre for Architecture and the Dallas Museum of Art.

Sarah Quinton, of Toronto, is Curator of Contemporary Art and Exhibitions Manager at the Textile Museum of Canada. She has served as a member of the Toronto Arts Council Visual and Media Arts Committee and as a Harbourfront Craft Studio Advisor. She also served on the Sheridan College Advisory Committee. Ms. Quinton has a Masters in Fine Art from the Tyler School of Art at Temple University and a Bachelors of Fine Art from the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design.

Daniel Donovan, of Toronto, is a priest and Professor Emeritus at St. Michael's College, University of Toronto where he continues to teach. From 1971 to 2002 he was Professor of Theology and Christianity and Culture at St. Michael's College. He is an art collector and has put together and donated, to St. Michael's College, a major collection of contemporary Canadian Art.