COURTS SERVICES DIVISION OVERVIEW

BACKGROUND

The period since 1990 has been one of significant change for the Ontario Court system. These changes were largely the result of the 1989 Courts of Justice Act amendments. Widely referred to as 'court reform', the new legislation had a profound impact on the way the courts were structured and managed. The Division is implementing a series of initiatives which emphasize greater use of technology, innovative service delivery options and better management of the court system.

FUNCTIONS

Courts Administration Division supports the operations of the court system of Ontario, managing more than 252 court offices across the Province, which link together litigants, counsel, police, crown attorneys and the public. The major core-business activities carried out by the division include:

- Courtroom support including the provision of courtroom clerks, registrars, court reporters, court interpreters, and jury system management;
- Court office services including counter service to the public and Bar, and maintenance of court records and files;
- Judicial support services to provincial and federally appointed judges, including the provision of secretarial services, court statistics, caseload management and technology support;
- Corporate services including program policy development, human resources and financial management;
- Enforcement of orders in criminal matters, including fines, restitution and licence suspensions.

MAJOR BUSINESS INITIATIVES

The Division has initiated a number of Business Plan projects. These include:

- Criminal Backlog Blitz: The Division is involved with the Criminal Law Division in blitz initiatives to reduce criminal case inventories. The Division is supporting the blitz initiative by providing staffing, facilities and management information resources (i.e. statistical information).
- Family Court Expansion: A federal initiative designed to make the court more convenient and less confusing for women, children and other court users by dealing with all family law matters, including property division, support, custody, access, adoption and child protection, in one court. In addition to the original pilot site in Hamilton, the court was expanded August 1, 1995 to Kingston, Napanee, Barrie and London. Planning of next phase of expansion is currently underway.

Civil Justice Reform: A broad review of the civil justice system in Ontario, conducted in partnership with the judiciary and the bar, aimed at providing a speedier, more streamlined and efficient court system. The final report was released in November, 1996.

This project is introducing several major improvements into the Civil Justice System, including judicial case management of civil cases, early referral of General Division civil cases (excluding Family cases) to mediation, streamlining courts processes and utilizing technology to facilitate electronic filing of court documents. An electronic filing of court documents pilot project involving the participation of over 100 law firms in the Toronto area was initiated in the summer of 1997.

- The Civil Enforcement Project is introducing alternative approaches for delivering civil enforcement services by capitalizing on private sector partnerships and other opportunities. For example, the ministry will soon enter into a partnership with Teranet Land Information Services Inc. which will result in Teranet maintaining and enhancing the ministry's writs databases.
- POA Transfer: This initiative involves transferring the responsibility for the administration and prosecution of Part I and Part II and the administration of Part III of the Provincial Offences Act from the province to the municipalities as part of the Ontario Government's Who Does What initiative.

Ontario Court of Justice

Analytical Summary

Note: Court hour analysis is based on data between 1994/95 and 1997/98 while the rest of the analysis is based on 1993/94 to 1997/98 data.

The caseload of both the Ontario Court (Provincial and General Divisions) was affected by the Investment Strategy and Bill C-42 initiatives.

Investment Strategy

With the emphasis on early disclosure and pretrial conferences the goal was to reduce the number of trials required in the Provincial Division (including the number of preliminary hearings) to 72% and to dispose of a maximum of 9% of all charges by trial.

Bill C-42

Bill C-42, the hybridization of certain offences under the Criminal Code gives the crown greater control over where cases are heard. Bill C-42 impacted General Division significantly as the new hybrid offences are now dealt with in the Ontario Court (Provincial Division) – Criminal, thereby reducing the number of new cases committed to the Ontario Court (General Division) Criminal.

General Division

Criminal Code only

Added

- Indictments added decreased by 56%
- Criminal court hours decreased by 9% (61,175 to 55,529 hours)

Disposed and Pending

- Indictments disposed decreased by 54%
- Indictments pending decreased by 48%

Pre-Trials

- Pre-trials held decreased by 44%

Civil

Proceedings Commenced

- Proceedings commenced decreased by 6.2%
- Of all proceedings commenced, only Motor Vehicle Act and Landlord and Tenant Act applications showed an increase of 72% and 25%, respectively. Amendments to both acts were partially responsible for this increase.
- Construction Liens Act applications decreased by 27%

Civil Trial List Activity

Added, Disposed and Pending

- Cases added to the trial list decreased by 31%
- Number of trials decreased by 26%
- Cases disposed decreased by 27%
- Pending caseload decreased by 54%

Pre-Trials

- Civil pre-trials decreased by 21%

Small Claims

New claims filed decreased over 31%, despite a 9% increase between 1995/96 and 1996/97. Claims filed fell dramatically between 1996/97 and 1997/98 by almost 19%. This may be partially due to an increase in filing fees in Small claims courts.

Provincial Division

Criminal Code

Received, Disposed and Pending

- Charges received and disposed decreased by 1.4% and 3%, respectively, while the pending increased by 12.2%.
- Criminal court hours increased by 8%.

- Pending caseload increased by about 5%

POA

The transfer of the responsibility for administration of provincial offences in 1993 to municipalities significantly decreased the number of charges received and disposed. Despite the overall decrease in POA activity, Highway Traffic Act, Liquor License Act/Liquor Control Act and Other Provincial Statutes all have seen an increase since 1996/97.

- Provincial Offences Act court hours decreased by 6% (54,563 to 51,345)

Family

Client Representation

Clients indicating representation at the time of filing increased in percentage distribution from March 1994 to 1998. In 1994, the percentage of clients indicating representation at time of filing was 42%. This increased to 64% by March 1998. At the General Division Family Court (formerly UFC), client representation is 34% as of March 1998. In 1997 this percentage was 23.5%. Changes to the legal aid rules may be responsible for the reversal of representation.

Total Received

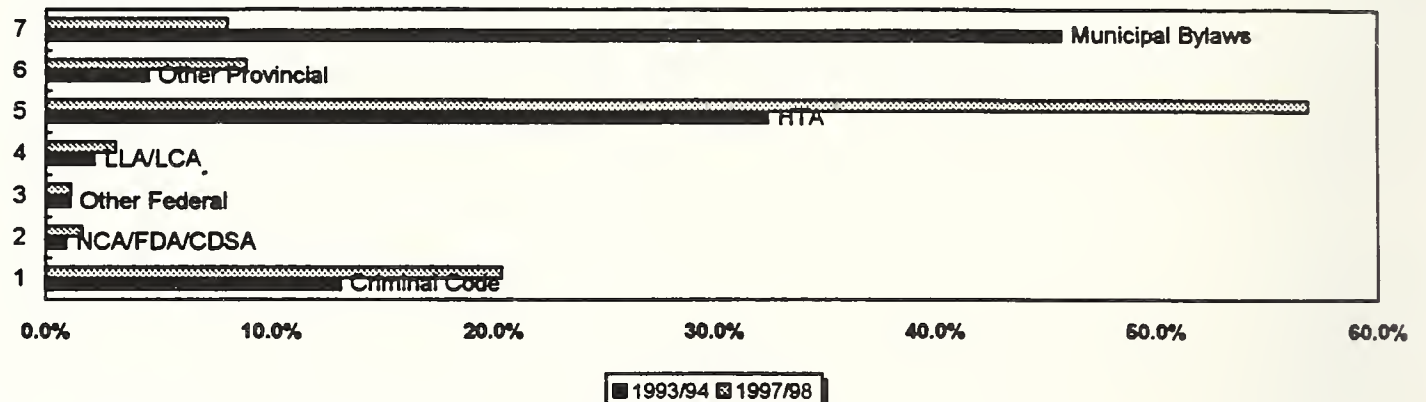

- Matters received increased by 1.6%
- However, Child and Family Services Act Applications increased matters by 15%.
- Family courts hours increased by 4% (33,518 to 34,949 hours); this rise was mitigated, in part, by the transfer of cases to the General Division Family Court.
