Korea: The Unfinished War

Land of the Morning Calm 1 of 4

On June 25, 1950, the forces of Kim Il Sung attacked and easily pushed back ill-prepared South Korean and American troops. Military commanders, civilians, and spies recount the tumultuous first days of the conflict, leading up to General Douglas MacArthur's brilliant aquatic assault on Inchon. Witnesses also recount atrocities committed on both sides. Repeated Monday at 10:00 pm.

9:00 p.m. Korea: The Unfinished War

Enter the Dragon 2 of 4

General Douglas MacArthur tried to carry his successful landing at Inchon straight to the Chinese border, only to face a devastating counterattack led by Chinese General Peng Duhai. Rather than admit a blunder, MacArthur demanded nuclear retaliation against China. Records reveal plans for an American base with nuclear capabilities in Labrador. Repeated Tuesday at 10:00 pm.

The world of teen culture: personal concerns, media, the arts, people currently catching the teenage eye, and outstanding teens – from activists to artists, entrepreneurs to e-heads.

1:00 p.m. The Edwardian Country House (CC) 1 of 6

At Manderston House on the Scottish border country, 19 volunteers shun the comforts of the modern world to find out what life was like in a pre-World War I Edwardian grand home. The cast includes the five members of the Olliff-Cooper family who enjoy the privileges of aristocrats, and a staff of 14 who cater to their whims. In the opener, the participants are introduced and their roles. E

2:00 p.m. The Edwardian Country House (CC) 2 of 6

The Olliff-Coopers find Edwardian etiquette stressful. In keeping with their role in society they plan an important dinner party. But trouble looms: the scullery maid refuses to carry out her duties; the chef, intent on making an authentic meal, makes a point of being difficult when he doesn't get what he needs; the staff is pushed to the limit, working 6 am to midnight. Repeated at 3:30 am. E

3:00 p.m. The Edwardian Country House (CC) 3 of 6

It's four weeks into the project, and the servants haven't had a day off. Fatigue is setting in. To make matters worse, Manderston House will host a charity fete, which will increase the staff's duties. E

4:00 p.m. The Edwardian Country House (CC) 4 of 6

Family relations suffer due to the constant presence of servants. Discord among the staff grows just before a shooting party: Sir John's solution is to impose more discipline. Ellen's arrival improves the atmosphere below stairs. Romance blooms. E

5:00 p.m. The Edwardian Country House (CC) 5 of 6

The tutor, Mr. Raj-Singh, feels caught between the social ranks of the family and the servants. Rob, the second footman is given a surprise birthday party. George V is crowned Emperor of India in 1911, and Sir John orders an Indian dinner for ten – just when the chef is ill. Miss Anson plans a fancy dress Empire Ball. E

6:00 p.m. The Edwardian Country House (CC) 6 of 6

In the final week, Sir John and Lady Anna throw a Servants' Ball on Guy Fawkes night – catered so that all the staff can attend. A cinematograph, an early form of movies, is a big hit at the party. As the cast return to 21st-century reality they reflect on how society has changed since Edwardian times. E
