Michael Palin's Hemingway Adventure

3 of 4 (CC) (R)

Key West was one of the few places in Hemingway's homeland that the author actually chose to live in. Michael attends Hemingway birthday celebrations, takes a tour of his house, and visits some of the places and people Hemingway ran into down there. Shine, an 83-year-old boxer, gives Michael a few lessons and he gathers strength for the earsplitting finals of the Hemingway Look-Alike contest. In Uganda Hemingway was involved in two near fatal air crashes. Michael travels on to Venice in time for the Carnival, and tries his hand at duck hunting.

Michael Palin's Hemingway Adventure

4 of 4 (CC)

Michael goes marlin fishing off Cuba. Back on dry land he visits a couple of Hemingway hangouts. He meets Gregorio Fuentes, who captained Hemingway's boat and, at 102, can claim to be a true Old Man. The Hemingway house outside Havana is more of a shrine than anywhere Michael has yet been. He has to negotiate to step onto another Hemingway shrine, his boat, the Pilar. Back in America Michael heads for a dude ranch to learn how to be a cowboy. In Ketchum, Idaho, he enters the house where Hemingway ended it all in 1961 and pays his last respects. Michael Palin's Hemingway Adventure

4 of 4 (CC) (R)

Michael goes marlin fishing off Cuba. Back on dry land he visits a couple of Hemingway hangouts. He meets Gregorio Fuentes, who captained Hemingway's boat and, at 102, can claim to be a true Old Man. The Hemingway house outside Havana is more of a shrine than anywhere Michael has yet been. He has to negotiate to step onto another Hemingway shrine, his boat, the Pilar. Back in America Michael heads for a dude ranch to learn how to be a cowboy. In Ketchum, Idaho, he enters the house where Hemingway ended it all in 1961 and pays his last respects.

Hermitage-niks: A Passion for the Hermitage
A Glimmer in the Ege (CC)
Art is an embellishment of life, but it can also be an indispensable counterweight for the darker side of existence. Given the catastrophes that Russia has gone through in the last century, art is no a superfluous luxury. Staff at the Hermitage do not work for money (their jobs are badly paid), but for that other thing. Art handler Vadim, attendant Valentina and curator Juna tell us about their most beloved artworks and explain the cherished concept Hermitage-nik. Repeated Sunday at 2:45 am.

Hermitage-niks: A Passion for the Hermitage
Guardian Angels (CC)
Alexandra (82), icon curator, has spent her entire life rescuing icons from destruction. Just as icons come alive for Alexandra, Rembrandt's Danae comes alive for other Hermitage-niks. This painting of unworldly beauty was severely damaged in 1985 by a lunatic. It was a most traumatic experience for the Hermitage employees, who speak of Danae as if she were a dear friend. Repeated Sunday at 3:25 am.

Hermitage-niks: A Passion for the Hermitage

A Glimmer in the Eye (CC) (R)

Art is an embellishment of life, but it can also be an indispensable counterweight for the darker side of existence. Given the catastrophes that Russia has gone through in the last century, art is no a superfluous luxury. Staff at the Hermitage do not work for money (their jobs are badly paid), but for that other thing. Art handler Vadim, attendant Valentina and curator Juna tell us about their most beloved artworks and explain the cherished concept Hermitage-nik.

Hermitage-niks: A Passion for the Hermitage

Guardian Angels (CC) (R)

Alexandra (82), icon curator, has spent her entire life rescuing icons from destruction. Just as icons come alive for Alexandra, Rembrandt's Danae comes alive for other Hermitage-niks. This painting of unworldly beauty was severely damaged in 1985 by a lunatic. It was a most traumatic experience for the Hermitage employees, who speak of Danae as if she were a dear friend.
