31/03/2008	19:00	Time Team	Chenies Manor	Henry VIII was a visitor to Chenies, as was his daughter, Elizabeth I. Records show the manor was made quite palatial to cope with royal favour. The present-day structure is quite modest. The team discovers that the present building is the rear – not the front – of the original, grander building.	CC	E
31/03/2008	20:00	The Agenda with Steve Paikin		Newsmakers and experts offer in-depth analysis and intelligent debate on issues of concern in the rapidly changing world around us.
31/03/2008	21:00	Midsomer Murders	A Tale of Two Hamlets	The villages of Upper Warden, at the top of the hill, and Lower Warden, at foot of the hill, have been rivals for centuries. Now the Smythe-Websters of Upper Warden Manor are dying off – with murderous assistance.	CC	14+
31/03/2008	22:00	In Search of Shakespeare	A Time of Revolution 1 of 4	Historian Michael Wood traces the early days of William Shakespeare, looking at the great playwright's education, his father's shady business deals, and a dark secret that ruined the family. In Worcester Cathedral, Wood untangles the riddle of Shakespeare's shotgun marriage, which left him a teenage father whose career prospects looked decidedly slim!	CC	E
