Aboriginal Midwife Requested Assessments

New: Aboriginal Midwife requested assessments effective July 1, 2022

To: All Physicians

Category: Physician Services

Written by: Provider Services Branch; OHIP, Pharmaceuticals and Devices Division

Date issued: June 15, 2022

Bulletin Number: 220604

Background

The Ministry of Health (ministry) is making changes to the Physician Schedule of Benefits (Schedule) to help improve equitable access to care for clients of Aboriginal Midwives. Changes will permit Aboriginal Midwives to make direct referrals to physicians, including specialists, and to directly order prenatal ultrasounds.

The term "Aboriginal Midwife" refers to midwives practicing under the exemption in the Regulated Health Professions Act (1991), whereby they are not required to be members of the College of Midwives of Ontario (CMO). This exemption recognizes and supports the autonomy of Indigenous midwives to provide traditional midwifery services to Indigenous persons or members of an Indigenous community.

As of July 1, 2022, the direct referral process for clients to physicians, including specialists will be consistent for all practicing midwives in Ontario. Physicians will be eligible for payment by the Ontario Health Insurance Plan (OHIP) for an assessment requested by a midwife registered with the College of Midwives of Ontario (registered midwife) or an Aboriginal Midwife. These changes will promote continuity of care within a culturally appropriate context for clients.

Claims Payment for Physicians

Effective July 1, 2022, physicians can claim existing fee codes in the Schedule when providing Aboriginal Midwife requested assessments.

The following list of fee codes have been updated to allow payment when an assessment is requested by either a registered midwife or an Aboriginal Midwife.
