INTRODUCTION

This is the eighth Annual Report under the Lobbyists Registration Act, 1998, S.O. 1998, c.27 (the “Act”) covering the twelve-month period, April 1st, 2006 to March 31st, 2007.

The Act recognizes that lobbying is a legitimate activity. It provides lobbyists with free and open access to government while safeguarding the integrity of public office holders and protecting them from undue influence. The lobbyists registration system provides the public, public office holders and lobbyists with the opportunity and means to know who is talking to whom in government about what.

All persons who meet any of the definitions of lobbyist under the Act must register their activities on the lobbyist registry, which is accessible through the Lobbyists Registration Office website <http://lobbyist.oico.on.ca>. This site is the principal means of disseminating information relevant to public office holders, the public and lobbyists with respect to those working to influence government activities.

Lobbyists are required to file registration forms and have a choice to file manually or electronically, through the LRO website. As of the date of this Annual Report, 100% of the registrations are filed electronically.

Users can search the registry to produce their own reports and obtain copies of a lobbyist’s registration form, free of charge, either through their own computers or through the facilities available at the Lobbyists Registration Office.

Any person who contravenes the Ontario Lobbyists Registration Act is liable on summary conviction to a fine of up to $25,000, a penalty which is consistent with the provisions of other provincial statutes for serious provincial offences.

There have been no charges laid under the Lobbyists Registration Act since its proclamation on January 15, 1999.
