The 2022 Ontario Economic Outlook and Fiscal Review – Ontario's Plan to Build: A Progress Update provides new information about the government's economic and fiscal outlook, relative to the 2022 Budget. The government is highlighting exactly how its flexible and responsible plan is positioning the province to be ready to manage uncertainty and risk as the world faces emerging economic challenges.

Ontario's Plan to Build: A Progress Update includes:

- the government's first-ever progress report on its plan to build Ontario
- new targeted measures that advance its plan to build the economy, address the province's labour shortage and help families and businesses keep costs down
- initiatives that will help grow the economy by getting shovels in the ground to build key infrastructure projects and investments in skills training for Ontario workers and newcomers.
