

If you have trouble viewing this e-mail from the Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, you can VIEW IT ONLINE.

To ensure continued delivery to your inbox, please add our email address public.affairs@camh.ca to your address book or safe sender list.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

Suits Me Fine Fashion Show

Thursday, May 3, 2018

1:30 to 2:15 p.m.

100 Stokes Street

Fashion icon Jeanne Beker hosts the 14th annual highlight event, featuring CAMH clients modelling their favourite gently used outfits from the Suits Me Fine Boutique. Admission is free!

[\[+\] Stop by or donate to Suits Me Fine](#)

IFFSA Toronto

May 10 – 20, 2018

CAMH is an official community partner of this year's BMO International Film Festival of South Asia (IFFSA). Debuting at the festival are four short films focused on South Asian mental health, created as part of The Roshni Project.

[\[+\] Search movie times and locations](#)

ReelAbilities Film Festival | Toronto

May 30 – June 4, 2018

CAMH is proud to partner with the ReelAbilities for the screening of "Being Rachel", a documentary about youth with developmental disabilities. Catch it at 7:30 p.m. on May 31 at Innis Town Hall Theatre (U of T).

[\[+\] Explore the festival's films and venues](#)

FASHION SHOW

NEW CAMH WEBSITE LAUNCHING IN MAY

CAMH is thrilled to announce a new, user-centered version of its flagship website, launching on May 7. CAMH.ca is being redesigned to provide a seamless, responsive experience that better meets the digital needs of all its end users.

[+] Visit CAMH.ca for a final look before the exciting change

NEW FASD STUDY

A new study by CAMH Senior Scientist Dr. Lana Popova suggests two to three per cent of children in the Greater Toronto Area have fetal alcohol spectrum disorder (FASD). This is twice as high as the previous estimate of one per cent in the general population in Canada.

[+] Explore this research further

AN HISTORIC ANNOUNCEMENT MADE AT CAMH

Ontario Premier Kathleen Wynne came to CAMH on March 21 to announce a $2.1 billion investment in mental health services over four years. Premier Wynne told a packed audience that with recent efforts to reduce the stigma of mental illness, the time was right to make such a major investment.

[+] Find the full release and a breakdown of spending here

YOUTH HAVE A VOICE IN PROJECTS AIMED AT THEM

Based in the Margaret and Wallace McCain Centre for Child, Youth & Family Mental Health, Youth Engagement Facilitators play a role in designing CAMH research projects, ensuring the project speaks to their generation and presenting findings at international conferences – all in the name of making sure young people have a voice.

[\[+\] Learn more about the youth perspective](#)

CAMH@20

To commemorate CAMH's 20th anniversary, we asked staff who have been here from the beginning to reflect on the journey so far, the road ahead, and some of their proudest moments.

[\[>\] See what they had to say](#)

CAMH PODCAST EP. 6: BRAIN STIMULATION

A discussion with three leading CAMH scientists on the ways brain stimulation is being used for patients with treatment-resistant depression as well as dementia.

[\[+\] Listen to this episode and others](#)

BLOG: ELECTROCONVULSIVE THERAPY (ECT)

If you thought ECT was an outmoded historical relic from the past, think again. CAMH Senior Medical Advisor Dr. David Goldbloom considers the past, present and future of ECT, and some of the popular culture depictions that have vilified the procedure.

[+] Read his blog post in full

Know someone who might like this newsletter? Forward it to a friend.

Subscribe to the CAMH Connexions newsletter.

You are receiving this newsletter because you signed up on our website or by email.
Not interested anymore? Unsubscribe instantly.

© 2013 Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, 1001 Queen St. West, Toronto, Ontario M6J 1H4