

Crown Employees Grievance Settlement Board

ANNUAL REPORT
2021-2022

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

This past fiscal year the GSB continued to function in a fiscally responsible manner despite the challenges of the global Covid-19 pandemic. We have been able to utilize video hearings for all matters, including hearings and mediations. There were no in-person hearings held in the fiscal year of 2021-2022. The continued high rate of mediated settlements was maintained this past year and the GSB saw a significant increase to its usual caseload.

The staff of the GSB must be recognized for their dedication and hard work through the pandemic. At times they were required to work in the office, and then as the environment changed, they had to transition to working remotely. The GSB functioned seamlessly through these transitions under the leadership of our Registrar, Christine Caillier.

I commend the arbitrators of the GSB for continuing to apply their skills, experience and objectivity in the era of video technology. The community also deserves to be recognized as the lawyers, representatives and the parties have demonstrated their commitment to a fair and balanced arbitration process despite not being in-person for more than two years.

We have learned lessons from the work performed during the pandemic. It is our collective responsibility to ensure those lessons are applied in a manner that continues the GSB's success in providing its mediation and arbitration services.

This past year we said goodbye to Caroline Goodwin, who retired after 37 years with the Ontario government. Caroline started with the Ministry of Labour in 1984 and was the GSB Registrar since 2003. Caroline was a dedicated and balanced leader in the public service who understood the importance of maintaining the confidence of the parties and the labour relations community. We will miss Caroline.

With Caroline's retirement, we welcomed Christine Caillier as the new Registrar. Christine has been with the GSB since 2001, and spent the last 18 years as the Deputy Registrar. I am confident that Christine will excel in this new role.

Our roster of arbitrators continues to be strong with new arbitrators being added and some long serving arbitrators departing. We welcomed Annie McKendy, Adam Beatty, and Johanne Cavé this past year. We have also said goodbye to Sheri Price, Michelle Flaherty, Richard Brown and Michael Watters. On behalf of the Governance Council, we are grateful for their service to the GSB.

We have challenges ahead. The pandemic is not over and we must be prepared for new developments should they arise. We must also start planning for the return to in person hearings. I look forward to working with the Governance Council as we navigate through these challenging times.

The Grievance Settlement Board (the "Board") was established by section 20 of the Crown Employees Collective Bargaining Act, 1972, S.O. 1972, c.67 and is continued by section 46 of the Crown Employees Collective Bargaining Act, 1993, S.O. 1993, c.38, as amended by S.O. 1995, c. 1, s. 11-70; 2001, c. 7, s. 16-18; 2001, c. 13, s. 13; 2002, c. 18, Sched. J, s. 2; 2006, c. 19, Sched. D, s. 6; 2006, c. 21, Sched. F, s. 136 \(1\); 2006, c. 35, Sched. C, s. 23; 2006, c. 35, Sched. D, s. 1-3; 2008, c. 14, s. 51; 2009, c. 34, Sched. J, s. 27; 2016, c. 37, Sched. 6; 2017, c. 8, Sched. 6; 2017, c. 14, Sched. 4, s. 11.

Section 47 (1) provides that: The Grievance Settlement Board shall be composed of the chair and one alternate chair. 2017, c. 8, Sched. 6, s. 2.

Section 47.1 (1) provides that: The chair of the Grievance Settlement Board shall establish and maintain a roster of mediator-arbitrators who may be selected for the purpose of determining matters before the Board. 2017, c. 8, Sched. 6, s. 2.

The Board exercises the powers and performs the duties conferred upon it by the Crown Employees Collective Bargaining Act, 1993 (CECBA). Subsection 7(3) of the CECBA provides that:

7. (3) Every collective agreement relating to Crown employees shall be deemed to provide for the final and binding settlement by arbitration by the Grievance Settlement Board, without stoppage of work, of all differences between the parties arising from the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the agreement including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable. 1993, c.38, s. 7 (3).

The Crown Employees' Grievance Settlement Board (GSB) is funded as a budget item of the Ministry of Labour, Immigration, Training and Skills Development (MLITSD). All costs directly related to dispute resolution are allocated to the parties and are recovered from them. The GSB staff provides services to the Public Service Grievance Board (PSGB), an agency of (MLITSD) (and prior to Feb 15, 2017, an agency of Treasury Board Secretariat). The PSGB resolves grievances filed by management/excluded Crown employees under Regulation 378/07 to the Public Service of Ontario Act, 2006. Expenditures made on behalf of the PSGB are recovered and refunded to the GSB.

The Chair of the Grievance Settlement Board is a part-time position appointed by Order-in-Council. The Registrar of the GSB is the most senior full-time civil servant at the GSB and reports to the Chair. The Registrar is directly responsible for all administrative matters. The Chair and the Registrar are jointly responsible for policy matters.

The GSB has entered into partnership agreements with its client group to fully implement the requirements of the CECBA. The partnership agreement provides for a Governance Council. As a result of the partnership agreement, some of the governance is determined by decisions made and minuted at the Governance Committee meetings, resulting in accountability to the client group with respect to some GSB administration and policy issues.

The GSB is an adjudicative agency and is viewed by its clientele to have independence and neutrality. The GSB's independence is preserved by its physical location, separate from government agencies other than the PSGB and by virtue of the fact that the GSB utilizes the services of mediators/arbitrators who are prominent and well respected in the private sector labour relations community. The obligation of the Board is to provide dispute resolution services and work with the parties to improve labour relations within the Ontario Public Service. The Board provides timely, concise decisions resulting in consistent advice and guidance to the parties in the settlement of specific disputes.

Arbitrators have developed in-depth knowledge about various workplaces, which has allowed them to be particularly effective in resolving workplace problems. The consensual appointment process, whereby the parties mutually agree upon which Arbitrator will mediate or arbitrate any particular grievance allows the parties to benefit from the particular skills and knowledge of individual Arbitrators.
