LONG-TERM DEBT MATURITY PROFILE*

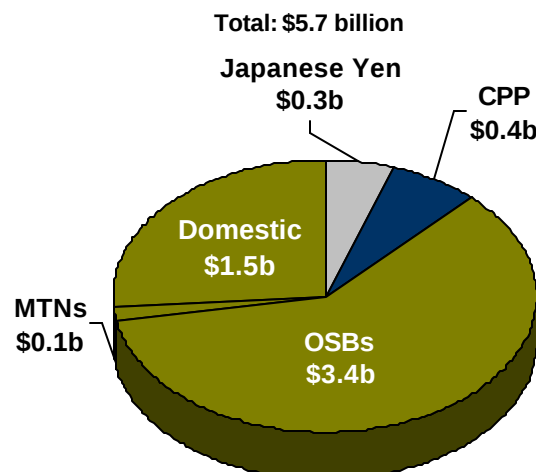

* Province of Ontario debt and Ontario Electricity Financial Corporation (OEFC) debt as of June 30, 2000. Does not include Province of Ontario and OEFC short-term debt and other liabilities. It is assumed that callable issues will be called at the earliest possible date.

The Province borrows on OEFC's behalf. In return, the OEFC issues debt to the Province.

PROVINCIAL LONG-TERM BORROWING

- As of June 30, 2000 the Province had borrowed $5.3 in the long-term public capital markets. This includes $3.4 billion raised through the 2000 Ontario Savings Bond campaign, a new record for provincial savings bond issues.
- As of June 30, 2000 the Province had borrowed $428 million for the Canada Pension Plan (CPP) to refinance CPP debt.
- The Province plans to raise an additional $4.6 billion in long-term financing in fiscal 2000-01, including $610 million from the Canada Pension Plan.
- The domestic market will remain the key source of financing for the Province.

PROVINCE OF ONTARIO DEBT MANAGEMENT POLICIES

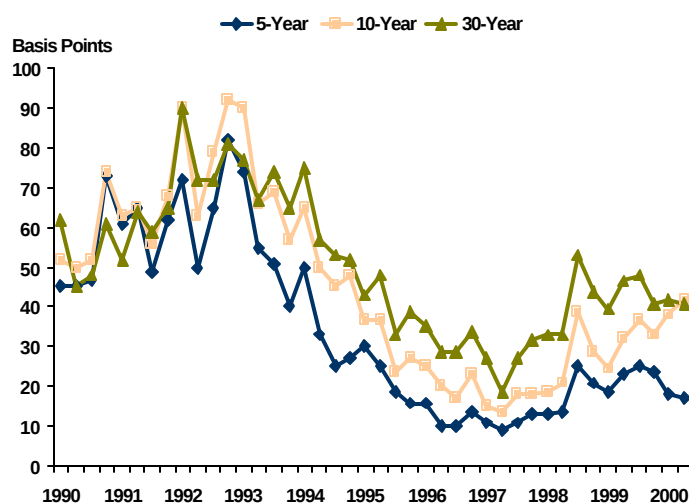

The Province adheres to prudent risk management policies to mitigate its exposure to financial market risks, while maintaining the needed flexibility in its borrowing program.

- The Province's exposure to unhedged foreign currency is limited to 5 per cent of Funded Debt and Trust Liabilities. As of June 30, 2000, the Province's foreign exchange exposure was 1.8 per cent of total Funded Debt and Trust Liabilities.
- Effective April 1, 2000, the measure of floating rate exposure was redefined to include fixed-rate debt maturing within a 12 month period. As of June 30, 2000, interest rate resetting risk (net of liquid reserves) was 12.2 per cent of Funded Debt and Trust Liabilities.
- The minimum credit rating of a non-government counterparty for long-term transactions is A- and for liquid reserve investments is R-1 (mid). Approximately 80 per cent of the Province's approved counterparties are rated AA- or better.
- New issue term selection is sensitive to the Province's maturity schedule.
- Liquid reserves are maintained at levels sufficient to ensure the Government can meet its short-term financial obligations.
