

Crown Employees Grievance Settlement Board

ANNUAL REPORT
2022-2023

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

Over the last fiscal year, the GSB maintained its focus on providing effective dispute resolution services for the workplace parties. All hearings, including mediations, continue to be held by video. This has not impacted the GSB's high rate of mediated settlements. As shown in this Report, the percentage of grievances resolved by settlement or withdrawal at the GSB increased from last year and is in line with the rates experienced pre-pandemic.

The Board has seen an increase in the number of grievances that have been filed. I am confident that the workplace parties will continue with their successful efforts to find appropriate settlements, where possible, to mitigate the number of hearing dates required. The unique skill and knowledge of our experienced arbitrators will have an important role in this endeavour.

This past fiscal year we welcomed Colin Johnston and Kelly Waddingham to our roster. Both are experienced arbitrators who have been well received by the parties. We also bid farewell to Owen Gray who had served on the roster for more than thirty years. Owen's contribution to the Board's jurisprudence is significant, and on behalf of the Governance Council, I express our appreciation for his long service and dedication to the GSB.

The staff are to be commended for their work on the new website, which is part of the GSB's electronic service delivery plan. This presents a more modern looking website, available across multiple platforms, that is also compliant with the GSB's AODA obligations.

Looking forward, the increased grievance activity will impact the GSB's scheduling of hearings and caseload. We will have the capacity to handle the demands of the parties as our arbitrators and staff are committed to the needs of the parties. While no in-person hearings were held in the last fiscal year, the staff are prepared in the event the parties decide to return to the Board's offices.

We look forward to the challenges ahead.

1. GSB MANDATE

The Grievance Settlement Board (the "Board") was established by section 20 of the Crown Employees Collective Bargaining Act, 1972, S.O. 1972, c.67 and is continued by section 46 of the Crown Employees Collective Bargaining Act, 1993, S.O. 1993, c.38, as amended by S.O. 1995, c. 1, s. 11-70; 2001, c. 7, s. 16-18; 2001, c. 13, s. 13; 2002, c. 18, Sched. J, s. 2; 2006, c. 19, Sched. D, s. 6; 2006, c. 21, Sched. F, s. 136 (1); 2006, c. 35, Sched. C, s. 23; 2006, c. 35, Sched. D, s. 1-3; 2008, c. 14, s. 51; 2009, c. 34, Sched. J, s. 27; 2016, c. 37, Sched. 6; 2017, c. 8, Sched. 6; 2017, c. 14, Sched. 4, s. 11.

Section 47 (1) provides that: The Grievance Settlement Board shall be composed of the chair and one alternate chair. 2017, c. 8, Sched. 6, s. 2.

Section 47.1 (1) provides that: The chair of the Grievance Settlement Board shall establish and maintain a roster of mediator-arbitrators who may be selected for the purpose of determining matters before the Board. 2017, c. 8, Sched. 6, s. 2.

The Board exercises the powers and performs the duties conferred upon it by the Crown Employees Collective Bargaining Act, 1993 (CECBA). Subsection 7(3) of the CECBA provides that:

7. (3) Every collective agreement relating to Crown employees shall be deemed to provide for the final and binding settlement by arbitration by the Grievance Settlement Board, without stoppage of work, of all differences between the parties arising from the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the agreement including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable. 1993, c.38, s. 7 (3).

The Crown Employees' Grievance Settlement Board (GSB) is funded as a budget item of the Ministry of Labour, Immigration, Training and Skills Development (MLITSD). All costs directly related to dispute resolution are allocated to the parties and are recovered from them. The GSB staff provides services to the Public Service Grievance Board (PSGB), an agency of (MLITSD) (and prior to Feb 15, 2017, an agency of Treasury Board Secretariat). The PSGB resolves grievances filed by management/excluded Crown employees under Regulation 378/07 to the Public Service of Ontario Act, 2006. Expenditures made on behalf of the PSGB are recovered and refunded to the GSB.

The Chair of the Grievance Settlement Board is a part-time position appointed by Order-in-Council. The Registrar of the GSB is the most senior full-time civil servant at the GSB and reports to the Chair. The Registrar is directly responsible for all administrative matters. The Chair and the Registrar are jointly responsible for policy matters.

The GSB has entered into partnership agreements with its client group to fully implement the requirements of the CECBA. The partnership agreement provides for a Governance Council. As a result of the partnership agreement, some of the governance is determined by decisions made and minuted at the Governance Committee meetings, resulting in accountability to the client group with respect to some GSB administration and policy issues.

The GSB is an adjudicative agency and is viewed by its clientele to have independence and neutrality. The GSB's independence is preserved by its physical location, separate from government agencies other than the PSGB and by virtue of the fact that the GSB utilizes the services of mediators/arbitrators who are prominent and well respected in the private sector labour relations community. The obligation of the Board is to provide dispute resolution services and work with the parties to improve labour relations within the Ontario Public Service. The Board provides timely, concise decisions resulting in consistent advice and guidance to the parties in the settlement of specific disputes.

Mediation continues to be the manner in which the large majority of grievances are resolved. Different workplaces have developed their own protocols and practices for mediation. Arbitrators have developed in-depth knowledge about various workplaces, which has allowed them to be particularly effective in resolving workplace problems. The consensual appointment process, whereby the parties mutually agree upon which Arbitrator will mediate or arbitrate any particular grievance allows the parties to benefit from the particular skills and knowledge of individual Arbitrators.
