Community Mental Health Common Assessment Pilot Information Workshop

A workshop on the Community Mental Health Common Assessment Pilot will be held on January 8th and 9th in Sudbury at the Holiday Inn, 1696 Regent Street. The intent of the workshop is to provide health care organizations with the opportunity to understand how you may participate in the Community Mental Health Common Assessment Project (CMH CAP) NE LHIN pilot. The pilot will test the implementation approach across the NE LHIN for the common assessment. Specifically, this workshop is expected to help:

1. Clarify your expectations
2. Review the Common Assessment

3. Begin to address business process and change management
4. Understand roles required for the pilot

It is recommended that a maximum of three individuals per organization attend this workshop. This would include representation from the following areas: an executive lead, IT lead and a clinical lead.

To register, visit www.nelhin.on.ca. Registration closes on December 23, 2008.

Share your comments and suggestions for integration incentives

The NE LHIN continues to seek your input on the provision of integration incentives for health service providers within our region. Three options have been received by the NE LHIN Board of Directors. We are interested hearing from you with regards to these options, in addition to receiving your suggestions for additional potential options. For more information, and to provide your comments, visit www.nelhin.on.ca.
