Celebrating Innovations in Health Care Expo 2009

November 18, Toronto - The Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care (MOHLTC) is once again holding a Health Care Expo to recognize the hard work of Ontario's health care providers to showcase innovative initiatives. Two awards are being presented:

Minister's Awards of Excellence

Six grand prize bursaries of $10,000 will be awarded during the Expo

People's Choice Award

Each year, Expo attendees are invited to vote for their favorite innovation. The recipient is announced at the Expo and awarded a $10,000 prize.

Are you, or someone you know making a difference in Ontario's health care system? Register now and get recognized at Celebrating Innovations in Health Care Expo. The Expo will immediately follow HealthAchieve 2009. Deadline for Exhibitor Entries: September 30, 2009. For more information or to apply online and/or register, please visit www.health.gov.on.ca/innovations

Guide them online

ServiceOntario has advised that they are out of the English-language version of the A Guide to Programs and Services for Seniors in Ontario. The Guide continues to be available online and the Ontario Seniors'

Secretariat is reviewing options regarding reprinting/updating the content possibly next fiscal year.

Rotman School announces $675,00 in scholarship funding

Advanced Health Leadership Program

The Rotman School, in collaboration with the Ontario Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care and the LHINs, is once again offering The Advanced Health Leadership Program (AHLP). With difficult economic times limiting health investments for leadership development; the Rotman School has announced forty-five $15,000 full scholarships. In addition to scholarships, a limited number of bursaries are available to off-set travel and accommodation expenses for participants.

Designed for current and potential members of the executive teams of Health Service Providers, classes consist of community, acute care, long-term care, mental health, and government health care sectors. The program focuses on themes of leadership, management of change, emotional and political intelligence and integrative thinking and managerial tools.
