
Eurasian Wild Boar Transition Assistance Program

Posted on November 2, 2021 by Betty Summerhayes, OMAFRA, Technology Transfer Specialist

The Eurasian Wild Boar Transition Assistance Initiative provides financial support to help producers transition out of production of Eurasian wild boar to other forms of production, such as heritage breeds of swine, other livestock or crop production.

Eligibility

To participate in the initiative, farmers need to:

- Have Eurasian wild boar inventory as of October 19, 2021
- Have a Farm Business Registration number for 2020 or 2021
- Have a valid Premises ID

How it works

Eligible farmers can apply using the application form. Applicants are required to provide the number of Eurasian wild boars and hybrids in their operation as of October 19, 2021.

Agricorp will contact all applicants after January 14, 2022, to provide information about their enrolment status and request addition information if applicable.

More information is available on the Agricorp website.
