
Ontario Small Flock Highly Pathogenic Avian Influenza (HPAI) Update Wednesday March 30th at 6:30 pm EST

Posted on March 30, 2022 by Betty Summerhayes, OMAFRA, Technology Transfer Specialist

There will be an Ontario Small Flock Poultry HPAI update on Wednesday, March 30th at 6:30pm EST. The Zoom link is below.

This will be a joint update with the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs, (OMAFRA), Canadian Food Inspection Agency, (CFIA), and Canadian Wildlife Health Cooperative, (CWHC).

Poultry Industry Council (PIC), will be hosting this meeting on their Zoom platform and will post the recording on their website.

The rough agenda: (this may change before the event)

- HPAI Ontario update- CFIA
- What happens if I'm in the Zone?- CFIA
- HPAI status in the world, North America – OMAFRA
- Why the concern with wild birds?- CWHC
- How do I protect my birds and my neighbour's birds?- All
- Q&A's

This webinar is in response to an expressed need by the Ontario Small Flock Stakeholders for an update on this evolving situation with the HPAI H5N1 that we are finding in birds on Ontario.

A previous webinar was held on March 10th, 2022 and is available at the PIC website at: <https://www.poultryindustrycouncil.ca/resources/biosecurity-and-disease> Please distribute as you see fit, anyone associated with small flocks or supporting small flocks in Ontario is encouraged to attend.
