

RADIO NEWS SUMMARY (5:30 P.M. EDITION)

June 22, 2017

CBC (Toronto)
1	The Ontario Energy Board has approved an energy rate decrease that will begin July 1st as a part of the province's Fair Hydro Plan.
2	A Toronto legal clinic is launching a constitutional challenge against the province's Safe Streets Act, arguing that it violates the rights of people who beg for money.
3	The SIU are laying additional sexual assault charges against a York Region police officer who is already in jail in connection to another sexual assault charge.
4	Toronto police have executed a dozen search warrants against illegal pot shops in the city.
5	A Toronto tenant based advocacy group is raising awareness among high rise tenants about the fire code.
6	The University of Toronto is holding a black graduation ceremony today. Some have criticized the event as it leads to segregation while the organizers say the event is about community building.

▪ Corporate Issues ▪ Cabinet Office ▪

▪ call (416) 314-5734 or (416) 314-5735 Sun-Fri 5am-10pm ▪ call Rob DiGiovanni at (416) 451-1288 at all other times ▪