RADIO NEWS SUMMARY (7:30 A.M. EDITION)

March 1, 2017

AM 640 (Toronto)

- 1) A special weather statement remains in effect because of heavy rain today.
- 2) According to the Toronto Star, the TTC will be taking all streetcars off Queen Street for the summer to accommodate multiple construction projects.
- 3) Despite protests from students and parents, Our Lady of Peace Catholic School in Maple is closing. The school board voted last night to shut the school as of June even though it is 97-per-cent full.
- 4) Premier Kathleen Wynne is expected to slash hydro rates by 25-per-cent this year. The Toronto Star says cabinet ministers will finalize the move today.
- 5) Donald Trump addressed Congress for the first time as U.S. President last night. He talked about repealing and replacing Obamacare and said he wants to plunge a trillion dollars into upgrading America's crumbling infrastructure.
