RADIO NEWS SUMMARY (7:30 A.M. EDITION)

September 13, 2016

CFRA (Ottawa)

- 1) An 8 per cent hydro rebate was the keystone announcement of the Throne speech delivered in the legislature on Monday. The average household is expected to save $130 a year while rural residences could save more than $500 a year.
- 2) Osgoode councillor George Darouze says the hydro rebate does not properly address the issue. He has written an open letter to the Premier saying rural customers are paying 30 per cent more for the same service as urban residents.
- 3) A dozen sites are now in the running as potential new locations for the Ottawa Hospital's Civic Campus.
- 4) The U.S. Pentagon has confirmed the death of an ISIL spokesperson and senior leader.
- 5) Ottawa residents are being told to brace for a warm autumn.
