Please find attached a copy of the placemat you can use for your meeting with the PO. Ryan will run up copies to your office that you can use (we've printed them on more legible print set).

Changes from what you saw yesterday are as follows:

- n Added in the high income surtax range of potential revenue – its listed on the far left, under the purple table. We don't build anything in as part of that starting point outlook. You can see that its also listed as a tool on the far right. The tool is not yet built in as part of the balanced scenario.
- n We've changed, edited, and updated a few of the labels in the various tables – all cosmetic changes, nothing material or fiscal. Just making ensure everything is consistent across the placemat.
