Hi Keley,

Following up on my email from yesterday, please find attached for fact check 2 backgrounders that will accompany Monday's throne speech, and another document with selected bullets.

Please review these for accuracy and provide any factual edits to Alexandra Tomescu, Kirsten Evans, Caitlin Drake Smith and Maria Pontikis (copied above). If a passage is not accurate, please provide an alternate option and a rationale explaining the change. If the documents have placeholders that are relevant to you, please fill them in. I would also ask that you focus any edits strictly around points of accuracy, with minimal changes to the existing text.

We are working with a very tight window, so please return any edits to us by no later than end of day today.

Please note the backgrounders are also being reviewed by MOECC and MOF as appropriate.

Please treat the attached as highly confidential and share only as needed to complete the fact check.

We expect that there may be edits to these documents that could carry into the weekend, so I or a member of my team may reach out again for further follow-ups and clarifications. I would appreciate it if you could have appropriate staff standing by to support the fact check process.

Many thanks,

Alicia
