Hi David, Nancy, Martha,

Please see attached latest version of the Small Business Strategy Deck. Given the timelines, we are sharing with DM/MO/CO concurrently.

FYI, I have just heard that MOF recommended some changes.

Thanks,
Mohsin

I have reached out to the team on my end and given my MO a head's up that PO will be looking for materials. The decision deck is with MRSB MO now and will endeavour to get you something ASAP.

Hi Melinda,

Can you share the deck for our review? If you don't want it to go to the PO, we will embargo.

As to timing of a MC, we will try to set something, but as Nancy said, PO is likely to have concerns about having a meeting without having the opportunity to review in advance. Quite frankly, I agree. There is just too much material to review and the MC is an opportunity to resolve concerns, not just run through the deck. (yes, I know you know this).

Po will ask for materials as the day begins. I think you can expect PO to reach out to your MO.

We will still work to find a time today, if you can work to get materials ready.

That is not going to work from our perspective. MO has been very clear on what they want to see and what they want to share. I haven't even shared the draft decision deck with them because it is missing the short deck they requested.

I think we can go forward with just the deck.

The team worked on it over the week-end, I have the decision deck but haven't seen the bridging doc we talked about late Friday afternoon.

We are still looking for PO availability. But it will also be important to get a deck in for review. PO needs to have an opportunity to review before the meeting can go ahead.
