Hi Mike,

The ECO flagged for us that their Annual Conservation Report will be released on April 10th and provided the final chapters to Ministry and IESO to review (email below) .

Staff are reviewing previously prepared materials to see if they need updating. The ECO has offered Ministries a chance to prepare an official response that would be posted on their website, which we are currently working on.

I'm going to have to send the chapters in multiple batches due to size, so apologies in advance for all the emails.

Thanks,
Hillary

Please find attached a confidential preview copy of the ECO's Making Connections: Straight Talk About Electricity in Ontario. I will send in 3 batches due to file size. Minor layout changes are still being made – however, the content is essentially final. This report will be released on Tuesday, April 10.

Confidential Preview

This draft is being provided to all prescribed ministries covered in the report on a confidential basis as an opportunity to preview the final report prior to public release. This draft must be kept strictly confidential. The ECO prohibits any ministry from disclosing the content of the report to any person outside of the ministry. You may distribute the draft electronically to individuals within the ministry as appropriate; however, all individuals must be reminded of the obligation for confidentiality.

Invitation to Provide a Formal Written Response

Ministries are also being invited to provide a formal written response to the report, which the ECO will publish on our website in an online appendix to the report.

A written ministry response is entirely voluntary. If, however, your ministry does wish to provide a formal comment on our report, please provide your ministry's written response to us in electronic format, preferably in both official languages (English and French). There is no limit on word count. Given the late timing, it is understandable if the Ministry is not able to provide a response by release date, in this event, we will post responses as soon as possible after they are received. If your ministry does not intend to provide a formal comment, please let me know.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. Thanks very much for your assistance at all stages as we prepared this report.

- Mike
