Here's the language:

It wouldn't be fair to conclude without highlighting the activism and support that the Ontario Chambers of Commerce for their work on last fall's campaign on small business. The title of the campaign was "Too Big to Ignore" and I would say that your activism and determination helped drive the Government decision making process around the business supports included in our plan.

Hi.

The OFHP section should include reference to the OCC's activism regarding the small business "too big to ignore" report, etc.

James can share lines from the Sault Ste Marie Chamber remarks that can be adjusted to craft this section.
