Hi Deputy,

Should we pull already approved language from the deck?

I'm not sure we want to introduce new bullets that we would have to share with everyone for review at this point. I also don't think what Colin is asking for is actually doable.

Thanks,
Martin

Yes please. In the second bullet in the accounting section, would it be possible to add that KPMG, EY, and Deloitte reviewed the accounting structure and deemed that this was the acceptable accounting? It can be very, very high-level.

Hi Colin,

We shared the fact sheet with IESO and KPMG has pointed out is that the statement - the government consulted...would more accurately be the government and its agencies consulted.

Let us know if you plan on using the fact sheet and want us to get started on translation.

Thanks,
Martin

Hi Colin,

One edit from TBS on the fact sheet below.

We will also be sharing with the IESO for review and will let you know if they have any comments/edits.

Thanks,
Martin

- The IESO consulted US GAAP, which has the most developed guidance on rate-regulated accounting, is the appropriate guidance to reference in this scenario

Hi Colin,

Attached are some edits to the fact sheet, mainly to ensure consistency with other products. We have not yet shared this with TBS for review, but given that it includes a significant discussion of accounting we need to run this by them for review before it can be used.

I will do that this evening.

Thanks,
Martin

Hi Martin, just wondering how the fact sheet review is coming? We'd like to share it with PO for consideration today, if possible. Thanks.

Hi Martin,

We've put together a fact sheet that we may be handing out to media in conjunction with the tech briefing and Ministers' media avail. Would it be possible to have officials fact check our fact sheet?

Many thanks,
Colin
