Here are my notes (slightly amended from the hard copy version I gave Hilary this morning).

They refer to:

- * Scenarios for Lower Electricity System Emissions - IESO, August 14, 2017
- * 2017 LTEP Fuels and Electricity Outlooks - Energy, August 2017
- * Delivering Fairness and Choice - Energy, August 18, 2017

Happy to discuss.

Martin,

I have read the Ministry and the IESO decks that Hilary gave me and am at Chapter 5 of the draft report. As I only have hard copies, I suggest that I summarize my major comments with page references and forward them to you and Serge on Monday. Would that be useful?

Moving rooms today was not a problem. I had a productive day.

Enjoy the weekend,

Paul

Hi Paul,

Thanks for coming in today. Sorry for having to shuffle you around between boardrooms, we are organizing office space for you for next week. We'll work out all of those details on Monday and get back to you then about coming in the rest of the week, so we won't need you on site on Monday.

Have a great weekend.

Martin
