Hi Andrew,

Attached is a draft of the OEB comfort letter which is still being reviewed by staff. We are going to go back to the OEB and ask what the minimum information required in the letter. The attached doesn't work as a Minister's letter and has too much detail. We are inclined to suggest a high level letter that outlines government policy intent (we can attach the technical deck) and directs the OEB to staff for details on forecasts, etc. We are also going to confirm with the OEB that a letter is needed at all.

We just wanted to keep you up to date.

Happy to discuss.
