Hi Andrew,

Following up on our discussion last night. On further reflection, from a con law perspective, option 1 is stronger and also avoids some drafting issues. We have identified in the attached the other provision we can point to regarding the CPI commitment (below option 2). In this regard, we would recommend option 1.

Leg Counsel has advised they can make this change so that amendments at committee will not be required.

Please let us know if there are any concerns.

Thanks,
Martin
