THE POLITICS OF ENERGY PANEL

This year's OEA ENERGY CONFERENCE 17 covers a variety of topics that will be discussed and debated by industry experts and leaders in innovation. Stay connected to learn more about the conference panels and of course, don't forget to register!

The Politics of Energy Panel:

Energy continues to be a hot topic in government, and this year in particular has been an interesting one with the Fair Hydro Plan, LTEP, cap-and-trade, and utility privatization all keeping the politicians and pundits quite busy. The fall legislation session has just begun, and we're pleased to have some of our province's finest political minds to tell us about the role the energy file is playing at Queen's Park these days.

Speakers:

Bob Delaney , Parliamentary Assisant to the Minister of Energy, MPP Mississauga-Streetsville

Todd Smith , Member Prince Edward-Hastings, PC Energy Critic

Peter Tabuns , Member, NDP - Toronto-Danforth

Moderator:

Ashley Csanady , Reporter and Web Producer at National Post

Time: 4:35 PM

Location: Vanity Fair Ballroom, 2nd floor, Omni King Edward Hotel
