Hello Mr. Orsini,

My name is Tanya Gracie and I am the Policy Lead at PPF working on the Agents of Parliament project. Things are well underway with the project and we are busy conducting and scheduling interviews. We are wondering if you would be available for a 1-hour phone interview next week with myself and Alan Freeman, who we have working with us on this project? The interview covers four main areas related to the current and evolving role of agents of parliament – power and the legislative framework, accountability, relationships and the appointment process.

Attached is a copy of the background paper, to provide some additional context for the project.

I look forward to hearing from you about your interest in being interviewed and your availability.

Best regards,

Tanya
