I like to chart showing that even with the repayment of the global adjustment refinancing, residential electricity prices are still lower in prior LTEP.

Scott, this would be a good chart to include in FES.

Hi Steve,

Attached is a copy of our LTEP technical briefing deck. Slide 10 includes a chart comparing the electricity price outlook for residential consumers of the 2013 LTEP to the 2017 LTEP. Page 28 in 2017 LTEP has all the numbers underlying the charts.

Thanks,

Serge
