Hi Phil,

Heads up – FAO is expected to release a report on Tuesday on Darlington costs. Energy's review of the draft report indicates it is a fairly balanced report. Energy expects to have a note to share with CO/PO later this afternoon.

Cheers,

Karen

Hi Karen,

Yes, we understand they will release it next Tuesday and that we will receive a copy of the report on Monday.

Staff had previously reviewed a draft of the report and provided comments on it. We feel it is a fair and balanced report.

I hope to have a note that I can share on it later this afternoon.

Thanks,
Martin

Hi Martin,

We are hearing that the FAO may release a report next week on costs related to Darlington. Does the ministry have any information on this report that you could share with CO/PO?

Happy to have a call on this if that would be easier.

Cheers,
Karen
