Peter is still looking at this so may not be an issue. We will let you know if it is. Just wanted to flag the potential issue. We will revert this evening if there is an issue. It may just be a question of tracking where the various elements landed.

Peter has flagged what could be a significant concern with the transfer language. He has sent an email to Stephen at Blakes to inquire.

Hi Jennifer. Just to be clear, is the Ministry seeking further comments, or is this final?
