Hi-

Just received the attached release from Energy, which is going out today. There is a reference to a few files that might touch OTB, including the Fair Hydro Plan, so I wanted to flag it with you and your teams for a review. Please let me know if you spot any red flags asap. We're moving it to the MO at 11:00 a.m.

PS Apologies for yet another urgent News Release review. I suspect it's going to be like this until the House rises June 1.

Hey Erin,

Can you have a quick look at the attached burden reduction news release from your client's perspective? I don't think there is anything that impacts your people, but wanted to double check.

Camille is connecting with her clients, but doesn't look like this impacts her people much.

Once we've done our check, we'll provide to the MO as FYI.

Note – the plan is for this to be released 'today' – no time given, so would like to report back soon.

Thanks!
Sarah
