Thanks - Cindy is deep in the weeds with this item

There have been several developments since this version of the note, and there will be several more soon I'm sure.

I assume you saw this, sarah

Two comments – I cant imagine anyone other than cindy wading through this – its written in a very technical way, so a good analytical background piece, but I would question whether it would be a good piece to put in front of a DM or other decision maker?

And a teeny comment - it still has my name on the bottom, but I don't think there's anything of iiu in here at this point, so not sure that needs to remain – I don't really care either way, just sayin'

Cindy,
Please find attached an updated version of the accounting note. Copying Bharat and Helen as well, just to keep them in the loop as this item progresses.
