KPMG has also now provided permission to release their draft accounting opinion. We should consider sharing that with them.

Hey Cindy – I just forwarded you their plan for the report's release (Wed).

I'm talking to them this morning and I'll discuss the various issues and offer up KPMG again. Too bad they were a no show yesterday.

Hi Tim,

I'm at the Rate Mitigation Implementation Group meeting. Two questions for you:

KPMG is now available for a discussion with the FAO. Could you please make that offer to them.

Could you confirm the process to finalize the report and what info we have on timing. I understand that they will send the report 48 hours in advance but don't know if that is required or a courtesy. Also, I know you made the offer that we could review another draft.

Thanks
