Mr Sousa

I am wondering if any other retired teachers have come to you with the same concern I expressed to Mr. Pettapiece.

I'm hoping the government will re-look at the restrictions of the pension plan. In my case, I'm divorced from my ex wife (beneficiary on my pension) and have since remarried. I don't understand why I can't have my present wife as beneficiary. To make matters worse, my ex wife is receiving a very good salary from her place of employment and has her own pension plan. My present wife has no pension plan because of the nature of her work.

Thank you for your consideration. I look forward to your reply.

Sincerely

Robert McKay
