Good Afternoon:

Ontario's Fair Hydro Plan is now out and I must admit that while it was under development, I did little else. You may have noticed that Ontario is moving forward with a special on-reserve first nation delivery line credit. This will relieve individual on reserve households of about $85 per month in costs.

I'm now planning a trip to Ottawa for 17 March (Friday after next).

Looking to connect – I wouldn't mind coming to your office if that is most convenient.

Carys (cc'd) can help lock this down, if you are agreeable.

Many thanks, in advance.

Good Morning:

Wanted to touch base , as it appears that I will be in Ottawa for Friday 17 March. Wondering if it makes sense to huddle again on our favourite file - north-west transmission?

Many thanks, in advance.
