Andrew,

I believe that I am available on August 31. I will have Rosemarie hold the date. Attached is the presentation that I left with you. After our meeting I discussed the path forward with our team, and we thought perhaps a joint meeting with Climate and Energy to provide an overview of our EV strategy, and actions underway, including a review of the free overnight charging proposal might be a good next step. Perhaps we could do that meeting followed by the Cabinet discussion. Let me know your thoughts.

Jeff

Hi.

Thanks for the conversation. Wondering if you could share that EV deck electronically, please?

Also, apparently Cabinet is keen to hear about what EV items could be and might have a time-slot on 31 August. Are you around that morning if we are able to secure a Cabinet meeting time?

Many thanks, in advance.

Andrew
