I really like this! It will do a great job setting the stage, should that be where we find ourselves.

Made a few suggested edits, mostly cosmetic.

Subject: Economic Club | Ottawa 24 February

Hi.

Arguably more difficult than if this was the day-after major announcement, here is a draft of the Economic Club of Canada remarks for Friday should we still be pre-announcement.

Perhaps making virtue of necessity, I like the construction of this in that it defines the problem in a way that I'm not sure we have in the past. Creating the "burning platform" for the significant action ahead.

Your thoughts and edits are most welcome, but they will be required before end of day, Monday – tomorrow [holiday be damned!] – as I wish to get a final copy to Minister for his review.

Many thanks, in advance.
