We were asked to fact check a sentence added to the SFT NR. We have one edit in red below. Please let us know if you have any concerns.

Keley

Delivering electricity cost relief through legislation to rebate an amount equal to the provincial portion of the HST on electricity bills — a saving of about $130 annually for the typical Ontario household; eligible rural ratepayers would receive additional relief, resulting in average savings of about $45 a month or $540 a year. Eligible Small businesses would also benefit from the rebate and larger eligible businesses would also benefit from the plan through the expansion of the Industrial Conservation Initiative.
