Hello everyone;

First of all, thanks so much for your participation at today's Strategic Planning session. It was a great exchange of information and we got some fantastic feedback to take back to the Minister's office. I hope all of you came away with something that will help you in your own corner of the Document as we move forward.

Please find attached a number of documents we committed to provide at the meeting this morning:

1. Draft Table of Contents – please provide feedback on this by end of day Monday .
2. List of all briefing topics and input from across MOF/TBS
3. Two Scaleable investment summaries – powerpoint and word document with additional background.

I've also attached this week's version of the 2017 Document "Week at a Glance" update.

Have a great weekend, and I continue to appreciate your support and collaboration.
