Francesca's comments for committee later today.

- Very positive about OESP and RRRP, and the benefits they have made
- Sharing data about arrears for customers they have helped – showing a significant decrease in arrears this year compared to last year
- Looking forward, says what happens in 4 years is “up to you”. Calls for a “sustainable, affordable and ethical electricity system” led by collaboration instead of “gotcha politics and scoring talking points”

I am climbing in my car...man when I call in these....lol

Attached is what I wish to say, but the data – that's the cool stuff

I was in my office at 6 am crunching the numbers

PLEASE do not use them until I've had time to share them with the committee

I told you'd we'd be able to track the changes on a very ground level

I'll pop you an email when I get parked and let you know I'm around.
