Hi Team,

Attached is the ministry's six-month communications plan (roadmap to next Spring) that officials are aiming to share with Cabinet Office on Friday of this week. Hoping each of you can take a look and provide me with any feedback/additions/etc. you have by tomorrow afternoon around 3 p.m. That way I can make your adjustments, so it can go home with Atel tomorrow night for his review.

For your reference, my changes are in red. If you have any thoughts, can you please send them in the body of an email with the respective slide number included, so I can make edits directly to the deck? I think this approach makes the most sense to help curb any version control issues.

Should you have any questions, please let me know. Thanks for your co-operation!

James
