OEFC -- IESO CREDIT FACILITY AGREEMENT & THE PERMITTED LIENS

ISSUE

The Independent Electricity System Operator ("IESO") has requested OEFC to amend the existing credit facility agreements between OEFC and IESO (for $160M and $120M) to address the additional obligations the IESO is taking on under Ontario's Fair Hydro Plan.

CONTEXT

The Fair Hydro Plan will require the IESO and Ontario Power Generation (OPG) to work together to spread out the costs of Ontario's clean energy investments over a longer period of time, which ensures that the costs of these investments are allocated fairly among current and future ratepayers. This is being accomplished through refinancing a portion of the Global Adjustment (GA). The IESO and OPG are in a discussion to potentially grant the security/priority on IESO's assets to the OPG Trust for the period of the first four years of the GA deferral. The IESO will seek its Board approval on Nov 22, 2017 for the security agreement and this would be in conflict with OEFC's $160M and $120M credit facility agreements (the "OEFC Agreements") with the IESO without the requested amendments. Paragraph 4.7 – Negative Pledges – in both OEFC credit facility agreements does not allow IESO to grant such security/priority to the OPG Trust.

In order to address this issue, the IESO has requested OEFC to amend the definition of the "permitted liens" in both existing OEFC Agreements to include any liens related to the Fair Hydro Plan (FHP). Specifically, adding a clause in the existing OEFC Agreements that any lien related to OFHP will not be viewed as negative pledge by OEFC, so those liens can be used to secure the performance of IESO's obligations towards OPG. This would allow IESO to grant security to the OPG Trust during the first 4 years of implementing the GA deferral and also avoid the possibility that the Clean Energy Adjustment funds collected by IESO might be considered to be subject to a lien. The IESO does not want inadvertently to be in default.

To support IESO's role in the implementation and participation under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 ("OFHP Act") in July 2017, the IESO had reached out to the Capital Market Division – Operations of the OFA to make the same request to the credit facility agreements with OFA in October. The OFA staff have recommended providing the requested amendments and amended the $475M and $2B credit facility agreements between OFA and the IESO on November 6th, 2017 (the "OFA Agreements"), as suggested by the IESO. One of the amendments to the agreement is to amend the definition of the permitted liens to include any lien arising from the IESO's role and obligations under the OFHP.

RECOMMENDATION

- To support IESO's role in the implementation and participation under the OFHP Act and also to be consistent with the approach OFA implemented , OFA staff are of the view that the exisiting OEFC Agreements require amendments to the permitted liens and negative covenant language to make it the same as, or very similar to, the language in the OFA Agreements that were signed recently.
- Although the OEFC credit facility is not used for OFHP's purpose, it is IESO's position that it wants to make such change to the definition of the permitted liens to make sure that the IESO is not inadvertently in default of its security obligations to OPG Trust ~~is still required in order for IESO to~~and meets its role and obligation under the OFHP Act.

BACKGROUND

- Currently, under the existing credit facility agreement between OEFC and the IESO, the definition of the "permitted liens" does not include any lien arising from the IESO's role and obligations under the OFHP, including with respect to any amount received or receivable by the IESO (such as, without limitation, amounts received or receivable in respect of the Clean Energy Adjustment), or any other lien, whether arising from the action or inaction of IESO, that is created in connection with the OFHP.

- On November 6, 2017, OFA and IESO signed an updated OFA IESO credit facility agreement with respect to changes related to OFHP.

Thx. I will need a hard stop (final) on these OEFC docs no later than Nov 30 – the IESO intends to sign all agreements for the FH program including the security agreement by this date (at least this is what I know today).
If you cannot meet Nov 30, can we talk about some sort of OEFC to issue a waiver letter to not put the IESO offside on the existing OEFC credit facilities otherwise I may have a cross-default issue with TD bank.

John – the TD credit facility has "permitted lien" clause language similar to the OFA facilities' clauses specific for the fair hydro program.

John,

As discussed yesterday, it likely is best to add to the definition of "Permitted Liens" in the two OEFC facilities to address a) IESO granting security to the OPG Trust during the first 4 years of fair hydro program and b) the possibility that the Clean Energy Adjustment funds collected by IESO might be considered to be subject to a lien. The IESO does not want to be inadvertently in default.

Happy to discuss further. I am out of the office most of this week on IESO business matters but available by cell 289-795-9426, or if necessary you may connect with Victor.

Hi Sarah

As you can see from Rob's email the IESO has a facility with the OFA for almost a $1billion. This facility was given to the OPA and transferred when it merged with the IESO. The OFA financials for Dec 31, 2017 include the drawings to that date of $150M and this is the first time at least in a number of years that this facility has been drawn upon. There may be a question at ARMC as to why the facility was extended by the OFA as opposed to the OEFC.

Thanks

Hello Opal,

IESO is inquiring if they may prepay early (December 18), instead of their agreed upon date of December 20, for their most recent advancement. Anthony Martinello may be asking from a planning perspective regarding FHP asset sale to OPG. Section 2.5, does not allow for prepayment. Any exceptions maybe best suited for Trading (to calculate the make whole), Cash and Accounting to decide and conclude.
Your thoughts Opal?

FHP Revolving Credit Facility Agreement:

Section 2.5 Prepayments.

The IESO is not entitled to prepay any part of the Advances Outstanding or the interest accrued thereon without the prior written consent of the OFA."

Will

Just a question – will appreciate your reply.
I am discussing the first fair hydro purchase and resulting cash-flow timing with OPG.
Currently, the IESO's Repayment Date (see attached) is set for Dec 20th.
What are OFA comments if I were to ask OFA for this repayment date of Dec 20th 2017 to be changed to Dec 18th 2017?

Regards.

Each Borrowing Notice shall be irrevocable and binding on the IESO and shall specify (a) the requested date of the Advance; (b) the principal amount of the Advance, and (c) the Repayment Date of the Advance which shall not be earlier than 5 days and not later than 95 days after the date of the requested Advance. (3) Respecting the first Advance to be made under this Agreement (the "First Advance"), a specified portion thereof (the "Repayment Amount") shall be used to repay a portion of the IESO's outstanding indebtedness to the OFA under the credit agreement between the Parties dated January 1, 2005, as amended (the "Existing Credit Facility"). The amount of the Repayment Amount shall be detailed in the Borrowing Notice issued in respect of the First Advance. Concurrently with the First Advance, OFA shall provide to IESO an updated grid in respect of the grid note issued under the Existing Credit Facility evidencing the repayment of the Repayment Amount thereunder.

Section 3.3 Elections Regarding Advances.

(1) The IESO may elect to continue all or a portion of the principal amount of any Advance and any amount of interest on such Advance (together, the "Continued Advance") for a further period of at least 5 days and up to a maximum of 95 days beginning on the then current Repayment Date in accordance with Section 3.3(2).

(2) Each notice to continue an Advance for a further period (an "Election Notice") shall be provided by the IESO to the OFA at least two Business Days prior to the Repayment Date of the Advance (the "Current Repayment Date"), and in each case, not later than

10:00 a.m. (Toronto time). Each such Election Notice shall be given substantially in the form of Schedule 2 and shall be irrevocable and binding upon the IESO and shall specify: (a) the Current Repayment Date; (b) the new aggregate total amount of the proposed Continued Advance; (c) the amount of interest or principal, if any, to be paid or re-paid by the IESO with respect to such Advance on the Current Repayment Date; and (d) the new Repayment Date of the proposed Continued Advance, which shall be no earlier than 5 days and not later than 95 days after the current Repayment Date (the "New Repayment Date"). If the IESO fails to deliver an Election Notice to the OFA for any Advance as provided herein, such Advance shall be repayable on the applicable Repayment Date.

(3) An Election Notice with respect to a proposed Continued Advance may include a Borrowing Notice for a further Advance proposed to be made on the Current Repayment Date. The Repayment Date of such further Advance shall be the New Repayment Date of the Continued Advance that is specified in the Election Notice. Such Borrowing Notice shall be given substantially in the form of Schedule 2.

(4) The calculation of interest on a Continued Advance shall be determined in the same manner as an Advance under Section 3.4 and shall be recorded on the Grid Note in accordance with Section 3.2(2).

(5) Any portion of an Advance not continued for a further period in accordance with Section 3.3(2) shall be repayable on the applicable Repayment Date.

(6) The Credit Facility shall at all times rank pari passu with all other unsubordinated and unsecured Indebtedness of the IESO, subject to the existence of any Liens that secure Indebtedness, as permitted by subections 4.6 (a) through (e) hereof.

(7) All amounts owing in respect of the Advances shall be paid without exercising any right of set off or counterclaim by the IESO.

Section 3.4 Interest on Advances.

(1) The IESO shall pay interest on the unpaid principal amount of each Advance in accordance with this Section 3.4 from and including the date of such Advance until the principal amount of such Advance is repaid in full.

(2) Interest shall accrue on the principal amount of each Advance from and including the date of the Advance to but excluding the Repayment Date of such Advance, at an annual rate equal to the Province of Ontario's cost of funds for borrowings with a similar term as determined by the OFA plus 0.25 percent per annum, before as well as after the date such principal amount or interest thereon becomes due hereunder and both before and after Default and shall be payable on the Repayment Date for such Advance. Any amount of interest arising hereunder which is not paid when due shall bear interest at the same rate compounded monthly at which it accrued from the due date for payment until the date of actual payment. The amount of interest payable on an Advance will be calculated by the OFA by dividing the interest rate applicable to the Advance by 365 or 366, as the case may be, and multiplying the result by the principal amount of the Advance and further multiplying the result by the number of days in the period from the date of the Advance to the Repayment Date of the Advance.

(3) If the IESO elects to continue an Advance in accordance with Section 3.3(2), the OFA shall determine the interest rate applicable after the original Repayment Date of the Advance and endorse the said rate on the grid forming part of the Grid Note in respect of Advances held by it.

Section 3.5 Conditions Precedent

The obligation of the OFA to make the Advances to the IESO pursuant to Section 2.1 is subject to the following conditions being satisfied to the OFA's satisfaction at the time of making each Advance:

(c) The IESO agrees that any notice from the OFA to the Minister of Finance in relation to this section 5.7 (Intercept) may be relied upon by the Minister of Finance without further inquiry or verification by the Minister of Finance and, upon receipt of such notice, an amount equal to the amount that the IESO has failed to pay when due to the OFA on account of indebtedness under this Agreement shall be deducted from the Appropriated Funds and paid to the OFA.

(d) For further certainty, the OFA acknowledges and agrees that the Intercept as provided for herein and in the Intercept Letter shall not apply with respect to any funds appropriated by the Legislature for payment to the IESO through ministries other than the Ministry of Energy or through Ontario Climate Change Solutions Deployment Corporation.

(e) The parties agree that, with respect to the exercise of the Intercept generally, the terms of this section 5.7 shall be applied consistently with the terms set out in the Intercept Letter which shall apply in full. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the Intercept Letter and the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement, the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement shall prevail.

Just a question – will appreciate your reply.

I am discussing the first fair hydro purchase and resulting cash-flow timing with OPG.

Currently, the IESO's Repayment Date (see attached) is set for Dec 20th.

What are OFA comments if I were to ask OFA for this repayment date of Dec 20th 2017 to be changed to Dec 18th 2017?

Regards.

(2) The IESO shall make any payment required hereunder to be made by it to the OFA, to or to the order of the OFA, by wire transfer of immediately available funds in accordance with wire transfer instruction given by the OFA to the IESO from time to time, or in such other manner as the OFA may specify to the IESO from time to time. The IESO shall make each such payment in Canadian Dollars.

(2) For the purposes of disclosure pursuant to the Interest Act (Canada), the yearly rate of interest which is equivalent to a rate of interest payable under this Agreement for any period of less than a year may be determined by multiplying the rate of interest for such period by a fraction, the numerator of which is the actual number of days in a year commencing on and including the first day in such period and ending on but excluding the corresponding day in the next calendar year and the denominator of which is the actual number of days in such period.

(2) In the event that any such payments are limited or prohibited as provided in Section 2.8(1), the OFA shall have no further obligation to make any Advances available hereunder and the Advances Outstanding, together with all accrued interest and all other amounts owing hereunder, shall become immediately due and payable.

ADVANCES

Section 3.1 Advances.

The OFA agrees, on the terms and conditions of this Agreement, to make Advances to the IESO under the Credit Facility from time to time on any Business Day prior to September 23, 2022.

Section 3.2 Procedure for Advances.

(1) Subject to Section 3.3(5), each Advance shall be made subject to two Business Days' prior notice given not later than 10:00 a.m. (Toronto time) by the IESO to the OFA. Each notice of an Advance (a "Borrowing Notice") shall be substantially in the form of Schedule 1, other than a Borrowing Notice that is included in an Election Notice as permitted by Section 3.3(3). Each Borrowing Notice shall be irrevocable and binding on the IESO and shall specify (a) the requested date of the Advance; (b) the principal amount of the Advance, and (c) the Repayment Date of the Advance which shall not be earlier than 5 days and not later than 95 days after the date of the requested Advance. Each Borrowing Notice shall also certify the use of proceeds of the Advance which shall in any case be in accordance with Section 2.2. The OFA will make the principal amount of each Advance available to the IESO in accordance with Article 2.

(2) On or before the date of the first Advance hereunder, the IESO shall execute and deliver to the OFA a grid promissory note in respect of Advances substantially in the form of Schedule 3 (the "Grid Note"). The IESO authorizes the OFA to record on the Grid Note (a) the date and amount of each Advance or Continued Advance; (b) the applicable rate of interest for each Advance or Continued Advance; (c) the Repayment Date of each Advance or Continued Advance; (d) the date and amount of each payment of interest and each payment of principal or portion thereof in respect of each Advance or Continued Advance; and (e) Advances Outstanding. Such notations, in the absence of manifest error, shall be prima facie evidence of such Advances and repayments; provided that the failure of the OFA to record any amount, rate or date shall not affect the obligation of the IESO to pay the Advances Outstanding and all interest accrued thereon and any other amounts due under this Agreement.

(3) Respecting the first Advance to be made under this Agreement (the "First Advance"), a specified portion thereof (the "Repayment Amount") shall be used to repay a portion of the IESO's outstanding indebtedness to the OFA under the credit agreement between the Parties dated January 1, 2005, as amended (the "Existing Credit Facility"). The amount of the Repayment Amount shall be detailed in the Borrowing Notice issued in respect of the First Advance. Concurrently with the First Advance, OFA shall provide to IESO an updated grid in respect of the grid note issued under the Existing Credit Facility evidencing the repayment of the Repayment Amount thereunder.

Section 3.3 Elections Regarding Advances.

(1) The IESO may elect to continue all or a portion of the principal amount of any Advance and any amount of interest on such Advance (together, the "Continued Advance") for a further period of at least 5 days and up to a maximum of 95 days beginning on the then current Repayment Date in accordance with Section 3.3(2).

(2) Each notice to continue an Advance for a further period (an "Election Notice") shall be provided by the IESO to the OFA at least two Business Days prior to the Repayment Date of the Advance (the "Current Repayment Date"), and in each case, not later than

10:00 a.m. (Toronto time). Each such Election Notice shall be given substantially in the form of Schedule 2 and shall be irrevocable and binding upon the IESO and shall specify: (a) the Current Repayment Date; (b) the new aggregate total amount of the proposed Continued Advance; (c) the amount of interest or principal, if any, to be paid or re-paid by the IESO with respect to such Advance on the Current Repayment Date; and (d) the new Repayment Date of the proposed Continued Advance, which shall be no earlier than 5 days and not later than 95 days after the current Repayment Date (the "New Repayment Date"). If the IESO fails to deliver an Election Notice to the OFA for any Advance as provided herein, such Advance shall be repayable on the applicable Repayment Date.

(3) An Election Notice with respect to a proposed Continued Advance may include a Borrowing Notice for a further Advance proposed to be made on the Current Repayment Date. The Repayment Date of such further Advance shall be the New Repayment Date of the Continued Advance that is specified in the Election Notice. Such Borrowing Notice shall be given substantially in the form of Schedule 2.

(4) The calculation of interest on a Continued Advance shall be determined in the same manner as an Advance under Section 3.4 and shall be recorded on the Grid Note in accordance with Section 3.2(2).

(5) Any portion of an Advance not continued for a further period in accordance with Section 3.3(2) shall be repayable on the applicable Repayment Date.

(6) The Credit Facility shall at all times rank pari passu with all other unsubordinated and unsecured Indebtedness of the IESO, subject to the existence of any Liens that secure Indebtedness, as permitted by subections 4.6 (a) through (e) hereof.

(7) All amounts owing in respect of the Advances shall be paid without exercising any right of set off or counterclaim by the IESO.

Section 3.4 Interest on Advances.

(1) The IESO shall pay interest on the unpaid principal amount of each Advance in accordance with this Section 3.4 from and including the date of such Advance until the principal amount of such Advance is repaid in full.

(2) Interest shall accrue on the principal amount of each Advance from and including the date of the Advance to but excluding the Repayment Date of such Advance, at an annual rate equal to the Province of Ontario's cost of funds for borrowings with a similar term as determined by the OFA plus 0.25 percent per annum, before as well as after the date such principal amount or interest thereon becomes due hereunder and both before and after Default and shall be payable on the Repayment Date for such Advance. Any amount of interest arising hereunder which is not paid when due shall bear interest at the same rate compounded monthly at which it accrued from the due date for payment until the date of actual payment. The amount of interest payable on an Advance will be calculated by the OFA by dividing the interest rate applicable to the Advance by 365 or 366, as the case may be, and multiplying the result by the principal amount of the Advance and further multiplying the result by the number of days in the period from the date of the Advance to the Repayment Date of the Advance.

(3) If the IESO elects to continue an Advance in accordance with Section 3.3(2), the OFA shall determine the interest rate applicable after the original Repayment Date of the Advance and endorse the said rate on the grid forming part of the Grid Note in respect of Advances held by it.

Section 3.5 Conditions Precedent

The obligation of the OFA to make the Advances to the IESO pursuant to Section 2.1 is subject to the following conditions being satisfied to the OFA's satisfaction at the time of making each Advance:

(a) that the representations and warranties of the IESO contained in this Agreement are true and correct as at the date of making the Advance;

(b) that no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing;

(c) that there shall, in the reasonable opinion of the OFA, have been no material adverse change in the financial condition of the IESO or a Material Subsidiary; and

Section 5.7 Intercept

(a) The IESO hereby acknowledges that, in accordance with the terms of the letter agreement of even date herewith entered between the Ministry of Energy, the IESO and the OFA made pursuant to Section 23 of the Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993 (the "Intercept Letter"), the Minister of Finance is entitled to deduct only from those monies appropriated by the Legislature for payment through the Ministry of Energy to the IESO ("Appropriated Funds"), amounts equal to any amounts that the IESO fails to pay to the OFA on account of indebtedness under this Agreement. (c) The IESO agrees that any notice from the OFA to the Minister of Finance in relation to this section 5.7 (Intercept) may be relied upon by the Minister of Finance without further inquiry or verification by the Minister of Finance and, upon receipt of such notice, an amount equal to the amount that the IESO has failed to pay when due to the OFA on account of indebtedness under this Agreement shall be deducted from the Appropriated Funds and paid to the OFA.

(d) For further certainty, the OFA acknowledges and agrees that the Intercept as provided for herein and in the Intercept Letter shall not apply with respect to any funds appropriated by the Legislature for payment to the IESO through ministries other than the Ministry of Energy or through Ontario Climate Change Solutions Deployment Corporation.

(e) The parties agree that, with respect to the exercise of the Intercept generally, the terms of this section 5.7 shall be applied consistently with the terms set out in the Intercept Letter which shall apply in full. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a conflict or

Hi Ken/Mike/Carlos,

Hope your week is going well.

We received the attached request to review IESO's latest update to their treasury policy which will require Minister of Finance's approval. As applicable, if your teams can review and provide comments, if any, we can consolidate and get back to IESO before they go to their Board in mid-June. We're hoping to get back to IESO early/mid next week.

Please let me know.

Thank you,
Salman

Salman,

Attached is a preliminary draft of the Treasury Policy and Sch A for your review.

Two changes have been made:

1. Permitting Fair Hydro program borrowings – self explanatory rationale; and
2. Increase from $420 million to $500 million in Sch A's Cdn Banks max limit per counter party.

The key rationale for the requested increase from $420 million to $500 million per counterparty is as follows:

- The market price of electricity has increased between 2014 to 2016 by approximately 16%-19% which has continued to result in the IESO managing higher and higher cash-flows and therefore seeking risk appropriate investments in accordance with the Treasury Policy – a large limit will allow the IESO to have more flexibility while being efficient with its cash;

- Over the past few years and relevant today, the availability of short-term (generally 1 day to 7 days which is used a lot by the IESO, and including less than 30 days investment) products such as Treasury Bills, BAs and Term Deposits have been irregular and not reliable for the IESO to find. The IESO generally deals in large amounts (several hundreds of millions) and given the lack of short term products at the size the IESO needs, the Sch 1 banks have been generally offering Term Deposits for the IESO at very low interest rates because the Banks do not need the IESO monies. In fact, a few banks offer the IESO less than 10bps for Term Deposits – which is significantly lower than Bank of Canada overnight rate and BAs rates. Therefore, a Term Deposit with very low interest yield does not align with a resulting lower counterparty risk for the IESO; and

- The IESO's Transmission Rights balances have in general remained higher than $100 million on average over the last few years despite an IESO target of $20 million. This has resulted in the IESO managing higher cash-flows

- While the Fair Hydro program is likely to not impact the IESO's overall net cash balances (borrow / sell should generally align), the timing of these cash flows may be different at times and the IESO may hold more cash (short term basis) for a few days. The sales/service agreement with OPG Trust has not been completed, and I am just listing this as a contingency in case for some reason IESO holds larger cash balances before paying back the Fair Hydro loans.

Regards.

Thanks Anthony.

We are working on obtaining approvals to ensure the facility can be put in place. I assume we will follow the same process as for the $975m facility – I will touch base with our documentation team and get back to you – that being said, our priority at the moment is to secure certain approvals.

Can you update me on whether the IESO's $2B Fair Hydro credit facility is a go or no go – and if OFA will prepare the legal docs to start the process?

Hi Anthony,

I wanted to circle back with you on this email, particularly regarding possibly updating the IESO's Treasury Policy. Since it does require the Minister of Finance's approval, the OFA would be involved in obtaining that approval from the Minister. When you do have a markup, please do share it with us. Any details on what the changes would be accomplishing etc would also be helpful.

Salman

Salman,

As part of the Fair Hydro initiative, the IESO plans to ask government to permit FHP debt in an update to the O. Reg. 280/14.

In addition, IESO is likely to update its treasury policy (see attached – as approved by IESO Board and Min of Fin in 2015) to permit for the FHP draws/initiative.

I likely may also ask to increase the short term Cdn Sch I banks limits from $420million to $500million.

As part of the treasury policy update I wanted to give you/OFA a fyi and determine if you/OFA wish to comment back to me before I undertake the above changes.

Call me to discuss if easier.

Regards.

Hi Ken/Mike/Carlos,

Hope your week is going well.

We received the attached request to review IESO's latest update to their treasury policy which will require Minister of Finance's approval. As applicable, if your teams can review and provide comments, if any, we can consolidate and get back to IESO before they go to their Board in mid-June. We're hoping to get back to IESO early/mid next week.

Please let me know.

Thank you,
Salman

Salman,

Attached is a preliminary draft of the Treasury Policy and Sch A for your review.

Two changes have been made:

1. Permitting Fair Hydro program borrowings – self explanatory rationale; and
2. Increase from $420 million to $500 million in Sch A's Cdn Banks max limit per counter party.

The key rationale for the requested increase from $420 million to $500 million per counterparty is as follows:

- The market price of electricity has increased between 2014 to 2016 by approximately 16%-19% which has continued to result in the IESO managing higher and higher cash-flows and therefore seeking risk appropriate investments in accordance with the Treasury Policy – a large limit will allow the IESO to have more flexibility while being efficient with its cash;

- Over the past few years and relevant today, the availability of short-term (generally 1 day to 7 days which is used a lot by the IESO, and including less than 30 days investment) products such as Treasury Bills, BAs and Term Deposits have been irregular and not reliable for the IESO to find. The IESO generally deals in large amounts (several hundreds of millions) and given the lack of short term products at the size the IESO needs, the Sch 1 banks have been generally offering Term Deposits for the IESO at very low interest rates because the Banks do not need the IESO monies. In fact, a few banks offer the IESO less than 10bps for Term Deposits – which is significantly lower than Bank of Canada overnight rate and BAs rates. Therefore, a Term Deposit with very low interest yield does not align with a resulting lower counterparty risk for the IESO; and

- The IESO's Transmission Rights balances have in general remained higher than $100 million on average over the last few years despite an IESO target of $20 million. This has resulted in the IESO managing higher cash-flows

- While the Fair Hydro program is likely to not impact the IESO's overall net cash balances (borrow / sell should generally align), the timing of these cash flows may be different at times and the IESO may hold more cash (short term basis) for a few days. The sales/service agreement with OPG Trust has not been completed, and I am just listing this as a contingency in case for some reason IESO holds larger cash balances before paying back the Fair Hydro loans.

Regards.

We are working on obtaining approvals to ensure the facility can be put in place. I assume we will follow the same process as for the $975m facility – I will touch base with our documentation team and get back to you – that being said, our priority at the moment is to secure certain approvals.

Hi Anthony,

I wanted to circle back with you on this email, particularly regarding possibly updating the IESO's Treasury Policy. Since it does require the Minister of Finance's approval, the OFA would be involved in obtaining that approval from the Minister. When you do have a markup, please do share it with us. Any details on what the changes would be accomplishing etc would also be helpful.

Salman,

As part of the Fair Hydro initiative, the IESO plans to ask government to permit FHP debt in an update to the O. Reg. 280/14.

In addition, IESO is likely to update its treasury policy (see attached – as approved by IESO Board and Min of Fin in 2015) to permit for the FHP draws/initiative.

I likely may also ask to increase the short term Cdn Sch I banks limits from $420million to $500million.

As part of the treasury policy update I wanted to give you/OFA a fyi and determine if you/OFA wish to comment back to me before I undertake the above changes.

Call me to discuss if easier.

Regards.

Hi Lisa/Ryan,

Thank you very much for the responses and that's helpful!

I will go back to IESO to verify what's their rationale to for the request. But before I go back, I just want to make sure that I understand the concerns/suggestions from our side first.

The change we made for the OFA credit facility agreement was to allow IESO to take liens related to FHP in the event if IESO can't pay OFA back the loan, correct? What was the reason for this change? And wouldn't the same reason apply for the loans that IESO has with OEFC? And if IESO can't pay back the loans to OEFC, should they still be able to take any liens related to FHP, or not? But if they were able to do so under the OFA credit facility agreement, are there any reasons that they cannot do the same under the OEFC credit facility agreement?

I understand that the $120M and $160M credit facilities are not for FHP purposes, but I think this is a separate question from whether they can take liens related to FHP if IESO can't pay OEFC back the loans? Similarly, I believe the existing $475M IESO credit facility with OFA was not for the FHP purpose, but the agreement was amended by the amendment #10 to include the FHP lien clause in the actual agreement, right? So I am just a bit confused about this process and trying to find out whether we should apply a consistent approach for OEFC's credit facilities before I push this back to IESO.

Also, a separate question on the $160M credit facility agreement. Since it was amended to be used for FHP purpose previously, do we need to amend that now since a separate facility agreement was created specifically for FHP purposes? Or that amendment automatically expires when the $2B FHP credit facility was created, and for sure we don't need to update anything in the $160M credit facility agreement to that effect?

Thanks,
Gavin He

Subject: IESO / OEFC - $120MM and $160MM

Hi Gavin,

Thank you for your note. After reviewing your note and the attached agreements we had a few comments:

- We understand that the $160M credit facility agreement will not be used for FHP purposes, although an amendment was made earlier in 2017 to allow advances for the purposes of FHP.
- It is our assumption that the $160M credit facility agreement was amended in April, 2017, pursuant to Reg. 280/14 as a potential temporary option for FHP funding requirements until such time as a separate facility agreement was created specifically for FHP purposes (i.e. the $2B OFA-IESO credit facility)
- There is an existing $120M loan agreement, maturing June 30, 2020, which is not a credit facility, but a fixed term loan. No amendments were made here in relation to FHP, as it is non-revolving and used for capital purposes.
- Since the $160M credit facility agreement will not be used for FHP purposes, it is not clear to us why the change to definition of Permitted Liens is required, and how not making this change would prevent IESO from performing its obligations under the OFHP Act. Please clarify.
- Kindly confirm with Anthony why IESO believes these amendments are necessary in respect of the $160M credit facility and $120M loan agreement.

We look forward to hearing back from you. Happy to discuss further as always.

Ryan,

As discussed with Will today, I understand you will be co-ordinating the proposed 2 amendments to the existing IESO-OEFC credit facilities.

For starters, there are no expected changes being asked to the existing agreement's key business content (e.g. amounts, dates, interest, notices etc.), rather given that IESO-OFA have just finished two new agreements pertaining to the new fair hydro program, ….I suggest we just copy and paste the salient sections from these agreements that would now be relevant to the OEFC agreements for fair hydro namely;

1.DRAFT
The definition of "Permitted Liens" is amended by deleting the word "and" at the end of subsection (xx); replacing the "." at the end of subsection (xx) and replacing it with "; and" ; and adding the following subsection (xx):
"(xx) any Lien arising from the IESO's role and obligations under the OFHP, including with respect to any amount received or receivable by the IESO (such as, without limitation, amounts received or receivable in respect of the Clean Energy Adjustment), or any other lien, whether arising from the action or inaction of IESO, that is created in connection with the OFHP."

2.DRAFT
The OFA agreements had required an intercept provision, …..not sure if the same applies to OEFC if yes:

"Section 5.7 Intercept
(a) The IESO hereby acknowledges that, in accordance with the terms of the letter agreement of November 6th , 2017 herewith entered between the Ministry of Energy, the IESO and the OFA made pursuant to Section 23 of the Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993 (the "Intercept Letter"), the Minister of Finance is entitled to deduct only from those monies appropriated by the Legislature for payment through the Ministry of Energy to the IESO ("Appropriated Funds"), amounts equal to any amounts that the IESO fails to pay to the OFA on account of indebtedness under this Agreement. On the occurrence of an Event of Default relating to a failure by IESO to pay when due any amounts owing hereunder, subject to the OFA's compliance with any relevant provisions hereof and as set out in the Intercept Letter, the Minister of Finance is irrevocably authorized to deduct from the Appropriated Funds amounts equal to any amounts that the IESO has failed to pay to the OFA in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and to pay such amounts directly to the OFA ("Intercept").
(b) If, after following the process specified in the Intercept Letter (including, without limitation, allowing for a reasonable cure period on the terms specified therein), the OFA determines that it is necessary to request the Minister of Finance to exercise the Intercept, the OFA will give written notice to the Minister of Finance, with a copy to the Ministry of Energy, detailing the IESO's failure to pay when due any amounts owing hereunder and requesting the deduction from the Appropriated Funds of amounts equal to the amounts that the IESO has failed to pay to the OFA under this Agreement.
(c) The IESO agrees that any notice from the OFA to the Minister of Finance in relation to this section 5.7 (Intercept) may be relied upon by the Minister of Finance without further inquiry or verification by the Minister of Finance and, upon receipt of such notice, an amount equal to the amount that the IESO has failed to pay when due to the OFA on account of indebtedness under this Agreement shall be deducted from the Appropriated Funds and paid to the OFA.

(d) For further certainty, the OFA acknowledges and agrees that the Intercept as provided for herein and in the Intercept Letter shall not apply with respect to any funds appropriated by the Legislature for payment to the IESO through ministries other than the Ministry of Energy or through Ontario Climate Change Solutions Deployment Corporation.
The parties agree that, with respect to the exercise of the Intercept generally, the terms of this section 5.7 shall be applied consistently with the terms set out in the Intercept Letter which shall apply in full. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the Intercept Letter and the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement, the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement shall prevail."

If any… other relevant updates that make sense to do now……I do not anticipate any material ones.

We need your support to expedite the above in order to avoid delays in the Fair Hydro implementation.
Regards.

Hi Lisa/Sarah H.,

We touched based with IESO and they told us that the OEFC agreements do not contemplate a general grant of security by IESO over its assets as is currently under discussion with the OPG Trust relative to the implementation of the OFHP. The changes required to allow for such a grant would be to amend the permitted liens and negative covenant language in the OEFC agreements so as to make it the same as, or very similar to, the language in the two OFA Agreements that were signed recently.

We will get a policy direction soon and will draft a note for you to review once it's ready.

No, I don't think the OFA Lending Policy would apply to these OEFC loans. The OFA Lending Policy addresses lending activities to public bodies undertaken where the OFA is acting as an intermediary on behalf of the Province.

Hi John,

We've received no internal direction on the nature of changes IESO is looking for in relation to existing OEFC credit facility with the IESO and the FHP. I surmise it may have to do with adjusting the agreement to allow FHP permitted liens (which we would need internal approval to do) or similar changes, but do you know if IESO communicated requirements to Gadi or Ron?

Hi Lisa/Ryan,

Thank you very much for the responses and that's helpful!

I will go back to IESO to verify what's their rationale to for the request. But before I go back, I just want to make sure that I understand the concerns/suggestions from our side first.

The change we made for the OFA credit facility agreement was to allow IESO to take liens related to FHP in the event if IESO can't pay OFA back the loan, correct? What was the reason for this change? And wouldn't the same reason apply for the loans that IESO has with OEFC? And if IESO can't pay back the loans to OEFC, should they still be able to take any liens related to FHP, or not? But if they were able to do so under the OFA credit facility agreement, are there any reasons that they cannot do the same under the OEFC credit facility agreement?

I understand that the $120M and $160M credit facilities are not for FHP purposes, but I think this is a separate question from whether they can take liens related to FHP if IESO can't pay OEFC back the loans? Similarly, I believe the existing $475M IESO credit facility with OFA was not for the FHP purpose, but the agreement was amended by the amendment #10 to include the FHP lien clause in the actual agreement, right? So I am just a bit confused about this process and trying to find out whether we should apply a consistent approach for OEFC's credit facilities before I push this back to IESO.

Also, a separate question on the $160M credit facility agreement. Since it was amended to be used for FHP purpose previously, do we need to amend that now since a separate facility agreement was created specifically for FHP purposes? Or that amendment automatically expires when the $2B FHP credit facility was created, and for sure we don't need to update anything in the $160M credit facility agreement to that effect?

Thanks,
Gavin He

Subject: IESO / OEFC - $120MM and $160MM

Hi Gavin,

Thank you for your note. After reviewing your note and the attached agreements we had a few comments:

- We understand that the $160M credit facility agreement will not be used for FHP purposes, although an amendment was made earlier in 2017 to allow advances for the purposes of FHP.
- It is our assumption that the $160M credit facility agreement was amended in April, 2017, pursuant to Reg. 280/14 as a potential temporary option for FHP funding requirements until such time as a separate facility agreement was created specifically for FHP purposes (i.e. the $2B OFA-IESO credit facility)
- There is an existing $120M loan agreement, maturing June 30, 2020, which is not a credit facility, but a fixed term loan. No amendments were made here in relation to FHP, as it is non-revolving and used for capital purposes.
- Since the $160M credit facility agreement will not be used for FHP purposes, it is not clear to us why the change to definition of Permitted Liens is required, and how not making this change would prevent IESO from performing its obligations under the OFHP Act. Please clarify.
- Kindly confirm with Anthony why IESO believes these amendments are necessary in respect of the $160M credit facility and $120M loan agreement.

We look forward to hearing back from you. Happy to discuss further as always.

Ryan,

As discussed with Will today, I understand you will be co-ordinating the proposed 2 amendments to the existing IESO-OEFC credit facilities.

For starters, there are no expected changes being asked to the existing agreement's key business content (e.g. amounts, dates, interest, notices etc.), rather given that IESO-OFA have just finished two new agreements pertaining to the new fair hydro program, ….I suggest we just copy and paste the salient sections from these agreements that would now be relevant to the OEFC agreements for fair hydro namely;

The definition of "Permitted Liens" is amended by deleting the word "and" at the end of subsection (xx); replacing the "." at the end of subsection (xx) and replacing it with "; and" ; and adding the following subsection (xx):
"(xx) any Lien arising from the IESO's role and obligations under the OFHP, including with respect to any amount received or receivable by the IESO (such as, without limitation, amounts received or receivable in respect of the Clean Energy Adjustment), or any other lien, whether arising from the action or inaction of IESO, that is created in connection with the OFHP."

2.DRAFT

The OFA agreements had required an intercept provision, …..not sure if the same applies to OEFC if yes:

"Section 5.7 Intercept

(a) The IESO hereby acknowledges that, in accordance with the terms of the letter agreement of November 6th , 2017 herewith entered between the Ministry of Energy, the IESO and the OFA made pursuant to Section 23 of the Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993 (the "Intercept Letter"), the Minister of Finance is entitled to deduct only from those monies appropriated by the Legislature for payment through the Ministry of Energy to the IESO ("Appropriated Funds"), amounts equal to any amounts that the IESO fails to pay to the OFA on account of indebtedness under this Agreement. On the occurrence of an Event of Default relating to a failure by IESO to pay when due any amounts owing hereunder, subject to the OFA's compliance with any relevant provisions hereof and as set out in the Intercept Letter, the Minister of Finance is irrevocably authorized to deduct from the Appropriated Funds amounts equal to any amounts that the IESO has failed to pay to the OFA in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and to pay such amounts directly to the OFA ("Intercept").

(b) If, after following the process specified in the Intercept Letter (including, without limitation, allowing for a reasonable cure period on the terms specified therein), the OFA determines that it is necessary to request the Minister of Finance to exercise the Intercept, the OFA will give written notice to the Minister of Finance, with a copy to the Ministry of Energy, detailing the IESO's failure to pay when due any amounts owing hereunder and requesting the deduction from the Appropriated Funds of amounts equal to the amounts that the IESO has failed to pay to the OFA under this Agreement.

(c) The IESO agrees that any notice from the OFA to the Minister of Finance in relation to this section 5.7 (Intercept) may be relied upon by the Minister of Finance without further inquiry or verification by the Minister of Finance and, upon receipt of such notice, an amount equal to the amount that the IESO has failed to pay when due to the OFA on account of indebtedness under this Agreement shall be deducted from the Appropriated Funds and paid to the OFA.

(d) For further certainty, the OFA acknowledges and agrees that the Intercept as provided for herein and in the Intercept Letter shall not apply with respect to any funds appropriated by the Legislature for payment to the IESO through ministries other than the Ministry of Energy or through Ontario Climate Change Solutions Deployment Corporation.

The parties agree that, with respect to the exercise of the Intercept generally, the terms of this section 5.7 shall be applied consistently with the terms set out in the Intercept Letter which shall apply in full. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the Intercept Letter and the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement, the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement shall prevail."

If any… other relevant updates that make sense to do now……I do not anticipate any material ones.

We need your support to expedite the above in order to avoid delays in the Fair Hydro implementation.

Regards.

Hi Lisa/Sarah H.,

We touched based with IESO and they told us that the OEFC agreements do not contemplate a general grant of security by IESO over its assets as is currently under discussion with the OPG Trust relative to the implementation of the OFHP. The changes required to allow for such a grant would be to amend the permitted liens and negative covenant language in the OEFC agreements so as to make it the same as, or very similar to, the language in the two OFA Agreements that were signed recently.

We will get a policy direction soon and will draft a note for you to review once it's ready.

No, I don't think the OFA Lending Policy would apply to these OEFC loans. The OFA Lending Policy addresses lending activities to public bodies undertaken where the OFA is acting as an intermediary on behalf of the Province.

OEFC -- IESO CREDIT FACILITY AGREEMENT & THE PERMITTED LIENS

ISSUE

The IESO has requested OEFC to reopen the existing credit facility agreement between OEFC and IESO to make amendment to the definition of the permitted liens.

CONTEXT

To support IESO's role in the implementation and participation under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 ("OFHP Act"), OFA recently amended the credit facility agreement between OFA and the IESO. One of the amendments to the agreement is to amend the definition of the permitted liens to include any lien arising from the IESO's role and obligations under the OFHP.

The OFA credit facility agreement was amended due to additional roles IESO is taking on under Ontario's Fair Hydro Plan. To fufil its obligation, the IESO will need a general grant of security on any lien arising from the IESO's role and obligations under the OFHP. Therefore, the OFA credit facility agreement was amended to allow for such a general grant of security.

For the same reason, the IESO has requested OEFC to reopen the existing credit facility agreement between OEFC and IESO to make the similar amendment. Specifically, adding a clause in the OEFC credit facility agreement that any lien related to OFHP will not be viewed as negative pledge by OEFC, so those liens can be used to secure the performance of IESO's obligations to OEFC.

RECOMMENDATION

- To maintain a consistent approach with IESO's credit facilities, CEFD staff and IESO are of the view that the exisiting OEFC credit facility should amend the permitted liens and negative covenant language to make it the same as, or very similar to, the language in the two OFA Agreements that were signed recently.
- Although the OEFC credit facility is not used for OFHP's purpose, such change to the permitted liens is still required in order for IESO to meet its role and obligation under the OFHP Act.

BACKGROUND

- Currently, under the existing credit facility agreement between OEFC and the IESO, the definition of the "permitted liens" does not include any lien arising from the IESO's role and obligations under the OFHP, including with respect to any amount received or receivable by the IESO (such as, without limitation, amounts received or receivable in respect of the Clean Energy Adjustment), or any other lien, whether arising from the action or inaction of IESO, that is created in connection with the OFHP.
- On November 6, 2017, OFA and IESO signed an updated OFA IESO credit facility agreement with respect to changes related to OFHP. Below are the related changes made to the OFA credit facility:

  Excerpt from the excuted OFA IESO Amending Agreement #10:

  > The definition of "Permitted Liens" is amended by deleting the word "and" at the end of subsection (i); replacing the "." at the end of subsection (j) and replacing it with "; and" ; and adding the following subsection (k):
  > > "(k) any Lien arising from the IESO's role and obligations under the OFHP, including with respect to any amount received or receivable by the IESO (such as, without limitation, amounts received or receivable in respect of the Clean Energy Adjustment), or any other lien, whether arising from the action or inaction of IESO, that is created in connection with the OFHP."

Hi Will,

We never discussed with Anthony; it was an offline part of the conversation to which Anthony was not privy. When you sent your draft responses to me, I specifically noted, "…however, you can't send Anthony the following phrase: " In the unlikely event, IESO IESO exceeds $475 million under its existing credit facility, it agrees to reduce the $2 billion OFHP Credit Facility by the amount that it exceeds $475 million." That is our internal back up and he would not be aware of it. In the event we see IESO heading in the direction of exceeding $475M, then we bring it up."

This was not to be brought up with IESO until such possible time that IESO risked breaching the $475 million mark. Anthony indicated in the call that there was the other TD line of credit that they could use if funding needs started reaching the $475 million mark. Anthony, however, didn't 'guarantee' that would happen in the event the their funding needs exceeded $475M before the other facility was signed (as mentioned in his follow-up e-mail, which was what we were to confirm i.e. that Anthony had agreed to use the TD line). As part of our internal OFA contingency, we agreed that if we saw IESO heading in that direction, we could decrease the size $2B FHP facility to ensure the total borrowing didn't exceed $2.475B at any time.

We worked out an understanding on the phone re: 1) executing the amending agreement 1st to reduce the existing $975M credit facility to by $500M to $475 as quickly as possible first, before the new $2B FHP facility (that was because IESO's legal was bogged down and couldn't do both quickly) and 2) that IESO had a TD line of Credit that IESO could tap to bridge a funding gap if IESO saw itself exceeding the $475 million prior to the new $2B facility being signed. Given this understanding, from a relationship aspect with IESO, we don't pull out the 'big guns' (i.e. changing the proposed framework of the credit facilities), without first giving them the chance to live up to their agreed commitments.

Bear in mind that this is a high profile facility and you're not the only OFA employee having conversations with IESO. By introducing this surprise element to Anthony, he may start checking internally at IESO about the origins of this proposal, and this may be brought up to higher levels of the OFA through different channels. Had we kept this contingency internally, we could have briefed all parties in the OFA (up to and including our CEO), so that they would be aware of any developments and there would be no surprises.

I will e-mail Anthony to provide some context, and to clarify the nature of the e-mail that you sent to him.

Will,

As discussed, the IESO will work on completing amendment #10 followed then by the new FH $2B line.
The amendment #10 may take a few weeks to complete (mid-July), and then the new FH $2B line may need a few more additional weeks – likely end of July.

I am using the $975MM line today for FH (RPP) draws, and expect this will continue until the FH$2B line is up and running.

I would prefer to do both docs at the same time (i.e. signing on the same day both docs), but I understand that the OFA has been given direction to lower the $975MM to $475MM first.

Over the next few weeks in July I will be drawing on the $975MM again for the FH (RPP) amounts and I expect (but not 100% sure) that I should be under a total of $475MM.

Hi Will,

Please see below my changes.

You'll have to further change the first paragraph in 1., since IESO sent the comments on the amending agreement on Friday. Remember that #1 should only be circulated internally.

You'll be unable to send the #2 proposed e-mail, because IESO has also sent back the draft. You may be able to incorporate it into that information in your response to IESO when you provide our comments on the amending agreement, however, you can't send Anthony the following phrase: " In the unlikely event, IESO IESO exceeds $475 million under its existing credit facility, it agrees to reduce the $2 billion OFHP Credit Facility by the amount that it exceeds $475 million." That is our internal back up and he would not be aware of it. In the event we see IESO heading in the direction of exceeding $475M, then we bring it up.

Hello all,

IESO has not completed its review of the documents relating to the new OFHP Credit Facility Agreement and Amending Agreement 10 (existing IESO OFA Credit Facility) by July 1. As a result, the new and existing credit facilities will not be in place in time of the targeted set-up date of July 1. According to Anthony Martinello of IESO, their legal department has a number of competing issues and limited resources. Anthony, estimated that the Amending Agreement 10, would be completed mid-July and new credit facility would be completed by the end of July. IESO is currently drawing on the existing credit facility categorized as Regulated Price Plan (RPP) under the FHP related financing and does not plan to exceed $475 million.

IESO's request for a new FHP $2 billion Credit Facility was predicated on the reduction of the existing credit facility by $500 million dollars. This ~~term~~ information was included in the briefing ~~note~~ material ~~and~~ for the approval of the lending directive [and/or OIC?] [NTD: the information wasn't in the directive. Please confirm if it was Directive or OIC: I don't remember which one off hand] to assist the Ministry of Finance in its decision to approve the [order in council and directive NTD: confirm per previous comment] for the new $2B FHP Credit Facility. Accordingly, the total credit limit to be available under the combined facilities would be a total $2.475 billion ~~credit facility limit~~.

In order to ~~operate~~ proceed in a manner consistent with the FHP loan framework ~~approved~~ presented to ~~by~~ the Minister of Finance (i.e. an existing credit facility reduced to $475M plus a new $2B FHP credit facility, with a combined limit of $2.475 B) , IESO and OFA agreed that we will reduce the existing credit facility from $975 million down to $475 million before completing the new $2 billion credit facility. ~~This approach avoids violating the terms at which the OIC and lending was approved while facilitating each part of the process.~~

Reducing the $975M credit facility first mitigates~~, approach is based on~~ the ~~remote~~ possibility of IESO exceeding~~s~~ the $475 million ~~credit facility~~ revised borrowing limit requested by IESO on the existing credit facility, and ensures that the total $2.475B 'borrowing limit' for FHP purposes is not exceeded. Anthony has also noted that IESO has an existing credit facility with TD Bank. In the unlikely event of IESO exceeding borrowing requirements of $475 million between now and execution of the of the amending agreement , IESO indicated they would use their other credit facility at TD Bank instead to bridge the funding gap until such time as the new $2 billion credit facility is in place. It was also internally agreed that that in the event IESO does ~~Also, any amount~~ exceed~~ing~~ $475 million before the existing credit facility is reduced, the remedy ~~result~~ would be to reduce the $2 billion credit facility by the same amount.

Best regards,

Will

Hello Anthony,

Thank you for your email. We look forward to getting these agreements up and running. As discussed, IESO has a supplemental credit facility with TD bank. In the unlikely event, IESO exceeds $475 million under its existing credit facility, it agrees to reduce the $2 billion OFHP Credit Facility by the amount that it exceeds $475 million.

Best regards,

Will

Hello Anthony,

Will is currently away today, and I just wanted to follow up on the e-mail below.

We are fine reducing the minimum draw period from 7 to 5 days for the new $2B FHP facility.

Further, to clarify Will's e-mail below, from our conference call the week before last, you had mentioned that in the event that IESO's funding needs were to exceed the $475M before the current $975M facility is reduced, IESO had another line of credit with TD that it would be able to draw on to fund any potential gap before the $2B facility is up and running. I think some confusion may have been created in referencing IESO's agreement to reduce to the size of the $2B OFHP credit facility if IESO's funding needs exceed $475M before the new FHP facility is executed. This is not something we proposed to you on the call, but was part of OFA internal discussions on contingency options that might be available in the event that there were delays getting both the amending agreement and FHP facility in place. My apologies should there have been any misunderstanding.

We expect to have comments to you on the amending agreement tomorrow.

Best regards,

Sarah

Will,

As discussed, the IESO will work on completing amendment #10 followed then by the new FH $2B line.
The amendment #10 may take a few weeks to complete (mid-July), and then the new FH $2B line may need a few more additional weeks – likely end of July.

I am using the $975MM line today for FH (RPP) draws, and expect this will continue until the FH$2B line is up and running.

I would prefer to do both docs at the same time (i.e. signing on the same day both docs), but I understand that the OFA has been given direction to lower the $975MM to $475MM first.

Over the next few weeks in July I will be drawing on the $975MM again for the FH (RPP) amounts and I expect (but not 100% sure) that I should be under a total of $475MM.

Hi Mike,

As an update on IESO, according to John K "IESO has not provided any edits [to the Credit Facility Agreement] but seem to be indicating that they are getting close to being prepared to sign."

At the same time,"[OPG] Trust is looking for the IESO to give a 1st priority/security over all IESO assets including accounts receivables in favour of the Trust. This item is being discussed amongst all parties. If this proceeds, the IESO will have to amend/restructure its current credit facilities with TD Bank, OFA, and OEFC as all are unsecured pari-passu."

Will and I met with John K, Francisco, Sarah Neville, Lisa Stein and Toby from LSB to discuss this. The issues are as follows:

1 – Under the draft FHP draft facility, OFA ranks pari passu with all other unsubordinated debt and unsecured Indebtedness of IESO, subject to the existence of any Liens that secure Indebtedness. If the Trust has 1st priority/security over all IESO assets, this (as we currently understand OPG's request) renders the protection our Permitted Liens section moot, and also renders the Negative Pledge section moot since it states that

> The IESO will not, and will not permit any Material Subsidiary to, create, incur or assume any Lien, charging the interest of the IESO or any Material Subsidiary in any property, to secure any obligations (including any Indebtedness) unless, at or prior to the time such Lien is created, incurred or assumed, all amounts owing under this Agreement are secured equally and rateably with any and all such obligations secured or to be secured by such Lien, for so long as such obligations shall be secured

Based on my understanding, this would be a fundamental change in the OFA's approach if we permit the Trust to have 1st priority/security over all IESO assets.

2 – If IESO is close to execution, it would be important for the OFA not to give any undertaking to IESO that it would be willing to restructuring any existing facilities, and that any such change would be dependent at that time on analysis of the circumstances and any approvals.

3 – From a simplicity standpoint, the directive to exempt the intercept provision from the credit facility is still the most immediately simple option. However, within the next week it is thought that we should proceed with the tripartite letter PROVIDED that the OFA gives no undertaking to amend its credit facilities down the road. Our speculation is that IESO has some resistance to OPG taking 1st priority interest in all IESO assets and that it may be levering the inclusion of the intercept provision as a reason why OPG can't have a 1st priority claim in all IESO assets. There was also some discussion as to whether the intercept provision could be "secured" by OPG Trust – on the face we don't think so, but more analysis would need to be done as to the legislature appropriations status under the PPSA and the ability for OPG Trust take a security into legislature appropriations.

4- Also, according to Francisco, following the AG's report there is sensitivity around the pricing of the OPG Asset. Particularly if it is thought that the exclusion of the intercept provision from the agreement will add to credit rating agencies view that IESO's assets and cashflows will be unencumbered, it adds suasion to the argument for the Minister to sign an exempting directive.

John Kim will update Ron Kwan who will hopefully in turn brief Gadi. Time is of the essence, since the next IESO draw is on November 21, and the existing credit facility limit would be exceeded by the next draw.

Thanks,
Sarah

Hi Lisa, Toby,

I want to clarify that based on the approach we are moving forward with, the understanding of the OFA Lending Policy should be such that where there are no appropriation by Legislature, there is nothing contemplated by the OFA Lending Policy to intercept. Some of us in CEFD are a bit concerned about the wording 'carve-outs' and 'perhaps' below. I think Toby referred to 'carve-outs' to refer to exceptions to what is subject to the intercept. With the draft letter agreement, we are taking a position that there is nothing to intercept and that we are agreeing to put the intercept clause in as in the future there could be appropriations by Legislature for the IESO at which point, it would become necessary in the future which would be a prudent thing to have.

I was getting Ron in the loop as potentially ready to manage the process with OPG.

Let me know pls. if I am off base on any of the above.

On p. 3, item #6 under "Conditions Precedent", the OFA Lending Policy provides that the OFA must ensure that it has an "appropriate" intercept in place. While the intercept wording in the Policy itself does not provide flexibility (as noted by Toby), perhaps this provision allows for 'carve-outs' in situations where the operation of the intercept would not be appropriate (such as those outlined by John below)?

Hi,

I'm happy to organize a call among us, if there is a need for it.

In an earlier note when we were seeking the Intercept Exemption Directive, we had the following bullets as part of the rationale section:

- While the IESO settlements system for the electricity sector may facilitate the flow of appropriations of the Ministry of Energy for energy-related programs such as the Ontario Rebate for Electricity Consumers (OREC), the Rural or Remote Rate Protection Program (RRRP), the Ontario Electricity Support Program (OESP) etc., these payments are for the benefit of various electricity consumers.

- Intercepting these program specific payments, which are appropriated by the Legislature for the Ministry of Energy, under which the IESO may only be providing a conduit to local distribution companies under the IESO settlement system to provide benefits to ratepayers, in order to recover loan payments would not be in alignment with the wording or intent of the OFA's Lending Policy.

Would these not relate to the carve-outs that Toby is referring to? Let me know pls. if I am mis-interpreting things.

Hi –

I just spoke with Toby (I've copied him as an FYI) and he flagged that he doesn't know why IESO would need to share this with OPG in the first instance. The only issue/reason we could identify was that it may have something to do with the purchase by OPG of the "asset" (I'm using quotation marks because I don't know anything about this transaction or its structure other than how it is referred) from IESO and making sure that the "asset" is free of encumbrances. IESO may have reps or warranties in its dealings with OPG to this effect, and, I am guessing, but this may have been part of the rationale with respect to concerns that IESO had in earlier versions of the drafting in regard to definitions of "permitted liens" and ranking of debt. Our advice is to reach out to IESO and try to ascertain the reason for the request (John, as Anthony called you, perhaps you could call him back with this request?)

I understand that we have been treating this loan as confidential, and OFA can waive confidentiality and allow disclosure to OPG (if this route is agree to I would recommend that disclosure be made by IESO on a confidential basis) but the risk/caution is that adding more layers outside of the immediate parties to the intercept (which now includes MOE), will add further delay and complexity in what is essentially an administrative issue and as noted we are not plugged into the broader discussions going on between the other parties with respect to other components of the FHP process.

Moody's (Gavin MacFarlane) has verbally raised their concern to me that the new $2B facility should be in place this month – main concern is that the IESO may/is rapidly burning through the $975M capacity at about $200M-$250M/month. Also, the first sale to Financing Entity is not expected until October(ish).
I am currently at about $405M utilized.
Also, both the IESO Board of Directors and Moody's were expecting these new facilities to be in place this month – and so, any delay would need to be explained.
Appreciate your efforts to co-ordinate a timely approval.
Call me to discuss if needed.

Hi Anthony,

I am currently working on your request for the two facilities with the OFA.

I understand your main concern is your interactions with the ratings agencies, Moody's specifically. Is there a particular timeline that you have to meet? My estimation is that the required approvals can be obtained in the early part of next week or the week after. I know the week after is spilling into September.

I am happy to keep pushing for early next week but let me know if the first week of September works. I am confirming as some extraordinary steps are involved.

I am writing in relation to the Independent Electricity System Operator's (IESO) request to the Ontario Financing Authority (OFA) for a new revolving credit facility in an amount of up to $2 billion (the "New Credit Facility") to support the IESO's role in the implementation of and participation under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.

Under the OFA Lending Policy, the OFA requires an intercept provision in respect of loans made by the OFA to public bodies on an unsecured basis. The intercept provision allows the Minister of Finance to deduct from money appropriated by the Legislature for payment to the public body amounts equal to any amounts the public body fails to pay the OFA under a loan agreement. The OFA, IESO and the Ministry of Energy ("MOE") acknowledge and confirm that at this time there are no amounts appropriated by the Legislature for the IESO [Energy to confirm] and the intent of such intercept provision is that it would apply if and when amounts were to be appropriated for payment to the IESO in the future.

Prior to entering into a loan agreement with the IESO for the New Credit Facility (the "OFHP Credit Facility Agreement"), on an unsecured basis, the OFA requires the Ministry of Energy ("MOE") and the IESO to agree to the terms and conditions set out below in relation to the above OFA Lending Policy intercept provision requirement.

These terms and conditions shall also apply to the IESO's existing $975 million credit facility, established in a credit agreement entered into between the OFA and the Ontario Power Authority dated January 1, 2005, as amended (the "Original Credit Facility Agreement").

- The OFA, the IESO, and MOE agree as follows in respect of any advances made by the OFA to the IESO pursuant to the OFHP Credit Facility Agreement or the Original Credit Facility Agreement (each a "Loan Agreement"; together, the "Loan Agreements"):
    - Pursuant to section 23 of the Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993, the IESO and MOE agree that in the event that the Legislature appropriates any funds for payment to the IESO for any purpose ("Appropriated Funds"), the Minister of Finance would be entitled to deduct from such Appropriated Funds amounts equal to any amounts that the IESO fails to pay to the OFA on account of indebtedness under a Loan Agreement (the "intercept provision").
    - Under the intercept provision, which shall be included in the Loan Agreements, the IESO also agrees that any notice from the OFA to the Minister of Finance in relation to its failure to pay under a Loan Agreement may be relied upon by the Minister of Finance without further inquiry or verification by the Minister of Finance.
    - Prior to recommending to the Minister of Finance that the intercept provision be exercised, the OFA will raise the issue with MOE and seek MOE's support in getting the IESO to pay the amounts owing within a reasonable cure period.

DRAFT

- Upon receipt of notice from the OFA that the IESO has failed to pay in accordance with the provisions of a Loan Agreement, MOE will provide the OFA with all information requested by the OFA respecting amounts appropriated by the Legislature for payments to the IESO, including the intended purpose and expected timing of such payments to be made by MOE. Upon request, MOE will provide similar information to the Minister of Finance.

- MOE acknowledges and agrees that, upon receipt of a direction from the Minister of Finance that an amount is to be deducted from money appropriated by the Legislature for payment to the IESO, MOE will take all necessary action required by it in order to effect such deduction and payment to the OFA in accordance with the Minister of Finance's direction.

This letter agreement may be executed in counterparts. Therefore, if you are in agreement with the above terms and conditions in relation to the Loan Agreements, kindly sign this letter agreement below in triplicate and send back two copies to my attention.

An update – IESO will be sharing the intercept letter with OPG, so hopefully this moves things along.

Could we get an assurance from your Legal, perhaps belatedly, to treat all items related to this confidentially and also to share with OPG counterparts on a confidential need to know basis?

On that basis, we are fine for IESO to proceed and discuss with OPG.

Thanks,

The IESO and OPG are currently negotiating terms for the fair hydro program and servicing – and OPG may consider this letter to impact their position on some aspects.

Moody's (Gavin MacFarlane) has verbally raised their concern to me that the new $2B facility should be in place this month – main concern is that the IESO may/is rapidly burning through the $975M capacity at about $200M-$250M/month. Also, the first sale to Financing Entity is not expected until October(ish).
I am currently at about $405M utilized.
Also, both the IESO Board of Directors and Moody's were expecting these new facilities to be in place this month – and so, any delay would need to be explained.
Appreciate your efforts to co-ordinate a timely approval.
Call me to discuss if needed.

Hi Anthony,

I am currently working on your request for the two facilities with the OFA.

I understand your main concern is your interactions with the ratings agencies, Moody's specifically. Is there a particular timeline that you have to meet? My estimation is that the required approvals can be obtained in the early part of next week or the week after. I know the week after is spilling into September.

I am happy to keep pushing for early next week but let me know if the first week of September works. I am confirming as some extraordinary steps are involved.

Yes, your understanding is correct. There are currently no "exceptions" to or specific "carve outs" from the intercept requirement in the Policy and I agree with Toby. I was trying to address the question you had raised in your earlier e-mail.

Hi Lisa, Toby,

I want to clarify that based on the approach we are moving forward with, the understanding of the OFA Lending Policy should be such that where there are no appropriation by Legislature, there is nothing contemplated by the OFA Lending Policy to intercept. Some of us in CEFD are a bit concerned about the wording 'carve-outs' and 'perhaps' below. I think Toby referred to 'carve-outs' to refer to exceptions to what is subject to the intercept. With the draft letter agreement, we are taking a position that there is nothing to intercept and that we are agreeing to put the intercept clause in as in the future there could be appropriations by Legislature for the IESO at which point, it would become necessary in the future which would be a prudent thing to have.

I was getting Ron in the loop as potentially ready to manage the process with OPG.

Let me know pls. if I am off base on any of the above.

On p. 3, item #6 under "Conditions Precedent", the OFA Lending Policy provides that the OFA must ensure that it has an "appropriate" intercept in place. While the intercept wording in the Policy itself does not provide flexibility (as noted by Toby), perhaps this provision allows for 'carve-outs' in situations where the operation of the intercept would not be appropriate (such as those outlined by John below)?

Hi,

I'm happy to organize a call among us, if there is a need for it.

In an earlier note when we were seeking the Intercept Exemption Directive, we had the following bullets as part of the rationale section:

- While the IESO settlements system for the electricity sector may facilitate the flow of appropriations of the Ministry of Energy for energy-related programs such as the Ontario Rebate for Electricity Consumers (OREC), the Rural or Remote Rate Protection Program (RRRP), the Ontario Electricity Support Program (OESP) etc., these payments are for the benefit of various electricity consumers.

- Intercepting these program specific payments, which are appropriated by the Legislature for the Ministry of Energy, under which the IESO may only be providing a conduit to local distribution companies under the IESO settlement system to provide benefits to ratepayers, in order to recover loan payments would not be in alignment with the wording or intent of the OFA's Lending Policy.

Would these not relate to the carve-outs that Toby is referring to? Let me know pls. if I am mis-interpreting things.

Although I am sympathetic to Anthony's concerns, I am not sure that the OFA lending policy leaves room for carve-outs for what is subject to the intercept.

Anthony had very cursory comments along two points – some concern expressed by Stikeman and Elliott about priority over payments and that they have some MOECC dealings related to Cap and Trade(?). I mentioned to him that the intent is not to cover anything other than appropriation for IESO's own operational funding and that happy to receive edits to cover such concerns.

Hi –

I just spoke with Toby (I've copied him as an FYI) and he flagged that he doesn't know why IESO would need to share this with OPG in the first instance. The only issue/reason we could identify was that it may have something to do with the purchase by OPG of the "asset" (I'm using quotation marks because I don't know anything about this transaction or its structure other than how it is referred) from IESO and making sure that the "asset" is free of encumbrances. IESO may have reps or warranties in its dealings with OPG to this effect, and, I am guessing, but this may have been part of the rationale with respect to concerns that IESO had in earlier versions of the drafting in regard to definitions of "permitted liens" and ranking of debt. Our advice is to reach out to IESO and try to ascertain the reason for the request (John, as Anthony called you, perhaps you could call him back with this request?)

I understand that we have been treating this loan as confidential, and OFA can waive confidentiality and allow disclosure to OPG (if this route is agree to I would recommend that disclosure be made by IESO on a confidential basis) but the risk/caution is that adding more layers outside of the immediate parties to the intercept (which now includes MOE), will add further delay and complexity in what is essentially an administrative issue and as noted we are not plugged into the broader discussions going on between the other parties with respect to other components of the FHP process.

Hi John,

Off the top of my head I don't see any legal issues from the OFA perspective, but I defer to Lisa because she is closer to the documentation than I am so will ask her to weigh in.

We should also consider giving Toby a heads up because I think MOF Legal's been more involved in the OPG side of things, I don't know where things stand on the other various moving parts that are not directly within the mandate of the OFA. I will give him a quick call.

Hi,

IESO came back this morning asking to share the intercept letter with OPG. I attach the internal discussion preceding John's Kim's response below.

Hi Anthony,

We had a quick internal discussion and we are not quite there on the need to share this with OPG and their lawyers. If you feel strongly about it then I will take it back to get that direction but would it be possible to manage any concerns via proposed edits to the draft letter agreement?

Thanks,

Moody's (Gavin MacFarlane) has verbally raised their concern to me that the new $2B facility should be in place this month – main concern is that the IESO may/is rapidly burning through the $975M capacity at about $200M-$250M/month. Also, the first sale to Financing Entity is not expected until

On p. 3, item #6 under "Conditions Precedent", the OFA Lending Policy provides that the OFA must ensure that it has an "appropriate" intercept in place. While the intercept wording in the Policy itself does not provide flexibility (as noted by Toby), perhaps this provision allows for 'carve-outs' in situations where the operation of the intercept would not be appropriate (such as those outlined by John below)?

Hi,

I'm happy to organize a call among us, if there is a need for it.

In an earlier note when we were seeking the Intercept Exemption Directive, we had the following bullets as part of the rationale section:

- While the IESO settlements system for the electricity sector may facilitate the flow of appropriations of the Ministry of Energy for energy-related programs such as the Ontario Rebate for Electricity Consumers (OREC), the Rural or Remote Rate Protection Program (RRRP), the Ontario Electricity Support Program (OESP) etc., these payments are for the benefit of various electricity consumers.

- Intercepting these program specific payments, which are appropriated by the Legislature for the Ministry of Energy, under which the IESO may only be providing a conduit to local distribution companies under the IESO settlement system to provide benefits to ratepayers, in order to recover loan payments would not be in alignment with the wording or intent of the OFA's Lending Policy.

Would these not relate to the carve-outs that Toby is referring to? Let me know pls. if I am mis-interpreting things.

Although I am sympathetic to Anthony's concerns, I am not sure that the OFA lending policy leaves room for carve-outs for what is subject to the intercept.

Anthony had very cursory comments along two points – some concern expressed by Stikeman and Elliott about priority over payments and that they have some MOECC dealings related to Cap and Trade(?). Hi –

I just spoke with Toby (I've copied him as an FYI) and he flagged that he doesn't know why IESO would need to share this with OPG in the first instance. The only issue/reason we could identify was that it may have something to do with the purchase by OPG of the "asset" (I'm using quotation marks because I don't know anything about this transaction or its structure other than how it is referred) from IESO and making sure that the "asset" is free of encumbrances. IESO may have reps or warranties in its dealings with OPG to this effect, and, I am guessing, but this may have been part of the rationale with respect to concerns that IESO had in earlier versions of the drafting in regard to definitions of "permitted liens" and ranking of debt. Our advice is to reach out to IESO and try to ascertain the reason for the request (John, as Anthony called you, perhaps you could call him back with this request?)

I understand that we have been treating this loan as confidential, and OFA can waive confidentiality and allow disclosure to OPG (if this route is agree to I would recommend that disclosure be made by IESO on a confidential basis) but the risk/caution is that adding more layers outside of the immediate parties to the intercept (which now includes MOE), will add further delay and complexity in what is essentially an administrative issue and as noted we are not plugged into the broader discussions going on between the other parties with respect to other components of the FHP process.

Off the top of my head I don't see any legal issues from the OFA perspective, but I defer to Lisa because she is closer to the documentation than I am so will ask her to weigh in.

We should also consider giving Toby a heads up because I think MOF Legal's been more involved in the OPG side of things, I don't know where things stand on the other various moving parts that are not directly within the mandate of the OFA. I will give him a quick call.

Thanks everyone for joining the chat on short notice and also to Francisco for helping out. And sorry, didn't mean to leave out Sarah H. in my email this morning.

One of the takeaways from the meeting for me was that we need to let IESO know within reasonable timeframe that amending the existing facilities at any point would require appropriate approvals, likely involving a Directive and that we cannot actively or passively acquiesce [not sure if this is the appropriate word] by not responding. That it would require appropriate approvals when IESO has reasonably concluded its discussion on the matter. I just sent that in an email response following a phone call and also wanted to flag that IESO is expecting the next draft on Wednesday so I think we are looking at that as when we will have a sense of where the two entities stand.

All said, we are working on the Directive option in parallel.

I agree with Lisa re intercept.

As a sidebar, not an OFA issue and way beyond my expertise, but is there any concern/discussion that the Trust, if given a first priority over ALL the asset of the IESO could potentially enforce a security interest and liquidate a significant entity responsible for overseeing the supply of electricity into Ontario? Is anyone weighing in on this question -IESO/MOE?

IESO has indicated the following and I will ask you to give it some thought:

"DRAFT - The Trust is looking for the IESO to give a 1st priority/security over all IESO assets including accounts receivables in favour of the Trust. This item is being discussed amongst all parties. If this proceeds, the IESO will have to amend/restructure its current credit facilities with TD Bank, OFA, and OEFC as all are unsecured pari-passu."

TD Bank has asked to review the $2B Fair Hydro credit facility executed between IESO and OFA.

TD wants to gain comfort (themselves) that the credit facility is going to support the IESO's fair hydro transactions during the next 4 years.

I have verbally assured them of the above, but they wish to review themselves.

Let me know if I may share and TD will treat the document as confidential.

Mr. Gadi Mayman
Chief Executive Officer
Ontario Financing Authority
1 Dundas Street West, Suite 1400
Toronto, Ontario, M7A 1Y7

Re: IESO Credit Requirements for the 2017 Fair Hydro Plan

Dear Mr. Mayman,

As you are aware the Ontario government has announced its intension to implement the proposed Fair Hydro Plan (FHP) to reduce electricity prices for eligible consumers in the province. Proposed legislation was introduced this month for the FHP. The Independent Electricity System Operator (IESO) is preparing to implement the FHP and has determined that in order to support the IESO's role in FHP implementation it will need greater credit liquidity than currently exists.

An existing credit facility between the IESO and the Ontario Financing Authority (OFA) is currently available for $975 million which includes support for the current Regulated Price Plan (RPP) program. The IESO proposes that a separate and additional credit facility be provided by either the OFA or Ontario Electricity Financial Corporation (OEFC) to support only the FHP credit needs. A separate facility for the FHP is preferable to ensure operational efficiency and interest tracking.

IESO's FHP Credit Requirements and Rationale

Below we have outlined the IESO's expected credit needs including the current OFA facility as follows:

	OFA:IESO Facility	New FHP facility
Current credit facilities	$975 million	$ -
Reduction due to FHP	($500 million)	$ -
Increase due to FHP	$ -	$2,000 million
Totals Credit Facilities	$475 million	$2,000 million

The above $500 million reduction in the current OFA facility is to eliminate duplicate credit needs and reflect the replacement of the current RPP by the new FHP. In addition, the IESO has had recent discussions with OFA staff to explain the rationale to support the overall $2,000 million FHP commitment.

We suggest the new FHP credit facility consider the following key provisions:

- 5 year term - to align with the FHP's initial period of deferral of electricity prices plus a contingency period (i.e. to September 30, 2022);
- interest charge - to be Province's cost of funds for borrowing with a similar term as determined by OFA / OEFC plus 0.25 percent per annum;
- Draws - to be based on minimum of 7 days to a maximum of 95 days, to minimize interest costs and permit efficient FHP asset transfers; and
- Existing $975 million OFA facility : draws to permit for FHP purposes until a new separate credit agreement for FHP purposes has been made available;

Upon your reply to this letter, the IESO will seek any necessary IESO Board of Directors' approval for the above credit facilities and we will provide such evidence for your records.

We appreciate your continued support and look forward to working with you. Please contact me should you need anything further.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Marshall

Hi Anna,

Heard back from Tom McKinlay at Energy Legal. It was an email issue as he is now back at MAG but still working on FHP for Energy. I touched base with him on the phone and he will circle back with his clients, as well as IESO counterparts.

Sounded like he sees it as the cleanest path forward. So fingers crossed.

Thanks,

John

Thanks John. Gadi is in NYC until Wednesday. Happy for Ron to escalate this to get the ball rolling. If you could let me know where things stand at the end of today, I'll include an update in my end of day email to Gadi.

Thanks, Anna

Hi Anna,

No update so far which isn't surprising. I think a bit of escalating might be helpful so I will chat with Ron today. You may want to give Gadi an update as well.

At least on the phone, IESO staff were receptive.

Hi All – As far as I am aware there were no developments on this today. I will be out of the office on Monday (back Tuesday), but Lisa will be back on Monday to handle this for Legal (although working from home so please reach her through email or messenger).

Have a good weekend everyone.

John – would you kindly send draft directly to Anthony (and Victor?) for their consideration?

Hi Sarah and Sarah,

Unfortunately, we haven't heard back from Energy Legal thus far. My suggestion, if OK with you, is that we share the draft with IESO staff as well.

I have some family obligations that came up for tomorrow so won't be in the office but will check my emails for this item.

Thanks,

Hi John – tweaked the acknowledgement to make it mutual as between all and to narrow the reference to appropriations so that it is clear it is not any MOE appropriation but only that destined for the IESO.

Hi Kelly,

I have read it over now. Should we have a short call about this. This is a significant project and does the Province/OFA/OEFC plan to hire a financial advisor to advise on aspects of it. Quite possibly there will be more than one advisory contract here as there seem to be capital markets, accounting, etc. issues involved here. Also, looking at the background information, I don't' know that it is necessarily clear who is going to the borrowing whether it's the Province or OEFC and which entity will provide the equity injection (Minister of Energy holds the shares in OPG). So we can't do a non-disclosure agreement in isolation. What information are we giving to the financial advisor and what are we asking them to do?

I think we need more context here and also if it is OEFC hiring the financial advisor, we should be speaking to Sarah Neville too. This is a project that Ronald Kwan's group is involved in.

Ok - looking at the info on page 2 - looks like the OEFC will be looking to "hire" the advisor regarding pricing/ financing the amounts shown in the paper. This advisor will be a member of the current bond syndicate. Mike wants a non - disclosure for this advisor. Given the structure and all the items mentioned in the paper, I would say it should be pretty broad.

Carlos is saying that there will be no financial compensation for the advisor. The benefit to it, is that it will gain insight into how the new structure works and experience with the spv which may be beneficial in obtaining work from the spv in the future. They won't provide for any compensation in the NDA itself.

Subject: RE: Message from "14-PRT06"

Hi

Mike is just asking for an agreement for the dealer he hires to advise on pricing/ financing issues. I believe they are talking to RBC, TD and BMO. This request is confined to that. He wants it done by Monday I've been told.

Hi Kelly,

I have read it over now. Should we have a short call about this. This is a significant project and does the Province/OFA/OEFC plan to hire a financial advisor to advise on aspects of it. Quite possibly there will be more than one advisory contract here as there seem to be capital markets, accounting, etc. issues involved here. Also, looking at the background information, I don't' know that it is necessarily clear who is going to the borrowing whether it's the Province or OEFC and which entity will provide the equity injection (Minister of Energy holds the shares in OPG). So we can't do a non-disclosure agreement in isolation. What information are we giving to the financial advisor and what are we asking them to do?

I think we need more context here and also if it is OEFC hiring the financial advisor, we should be speaking to Sarah Neville too. This is a project that Ronald Kwan's group is involved in.

In addition to the "non-disclosure" aspect, will there be a contract for OEFC to hire the advisor, ie. What the advisor will do, payment, etc. Sorry haven't read it yet.

Ok - looking at the info on page 2 - looks like the OEFC will be looking to "hire" the advisor regarding pricing/ financing the amounts shown in the paper. This advisor will be a member of the current bond syndicate. Mike wants a non - disclosure for this advisor. Given the structure and all the items mentioned in the paper, I would say it should be pretty broad.

Hi Opal and Sarah

Attached is a draft of the NDA. I discussed the 3 bullet points with Carlos and found the following:

- The advice is regarding the financing structure and alternatives for the spv given the legislation that eventually is drafted. On page 2 of the OPG White Paper, it indicates that all of the percentages shown are "indicative and will be highly dependent on the legislation"… this gives rise to the need for an advisor once the legislation is known.
- Carlos says the OFA will sign the NDA. Sarah - Do you want to send it to the appropriate lawyer in OFA legal?
- The banks/ dealers have the appropriate Chinese Walls in place to deal with conflicts of interest.

I agree with Sarah that the NDA itself should suffice in this instance.

Regards,

Kelly

Hi Opal,

Kelly is looking into the first 3 bullet points as the relate to the NDA.

The attached advisory agreement seems to be overkill for the what I understand to be a very narrow scope of advice being given. It seems to me that as long as we state the type of advice being provided in the NDA, with possibly a conflict of interest rep in the NDA, I think that would cover what is needed.

Please find attached a draft of a Non-Disclosure Agreement respecting obtaining advice from a financial adviser with respect to the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan.

Please note that this draft is preliminary, and we have a number of questions and concerns that are set out in the draft. We would like to point out that there is no agreement setting out the scope or nature of the services and the basis on which those services would be provided including the standard that is required from the adviser as well as conflict of interest requirements and other issues, and that the NDA does not replace such an agreement.

We have also attached a scan of an agreement that the OFA negotiated in 2004 to hire an adviser for a project relating to electricity finance as an example of such an agreement and the types of provisions that could be considered for inclusion in such an agreement.

Confidential and Privileged Legal Advice – April 1, 2017 – MOF LSB
Note regarding this NDA and the retention of an adviser:

We have a number of questions relating to this NDA, and issues that should be considered in retaining an adviser:

- We have not been able to confirm what the scope of the advice being sought is. If the advice is restricted to advising on market timing and potential demand for certain securities, this is more limited than broader advice relating to structuring the transaction;
- We think it should be clear who the adviser is working for, and how the advice will be presented to the Province. If the advice is going to be to the Ministry of Energy or the Minister of Finance, will be given through the OFA?;
- Are there potential conflicts of interest between the adviser's role as an adviser and as a potential underwriter or other business of the adviser?

In addition, it should be considered whether it is appropriate to have an adviser without an agreement for the services that the adviser would be providing. The NDA protects the Province with respect to the disclosure of the information to third parties, but it does not set out the role, responsibilities or other matters relating to conflicts or other duties of the adviser. Terms of such an agreement that may be considered in such a context include:

- Scope of engagement;
- Performance Warranty – setting out the standard to which the adviser is to carry out the work and provide advice;
- Copyright and IP provisions;
- Conflict of interest provisions – setting out the primary duties of the adviser and how they must conduct themselves with respect to any potential conflicts;
- Indemnities – setting out the adviser's indemnities to the OFA for certain risks.

Should the Supplier require the substitution or replacement of any of the individuals named in Schedule 1 (Proposal), it is understood and agreed that any proposed replacement must possess similar or greater qualifications than the individual named in Schedule 1 (Proposal). The Supplier shall not claim fees for any replacement individual greater than the Rates established under Schedule 1 (Proposal). (d) not to directly or indirectly use, collect, disclose or destroy any Personal Information for any purposes that are not authorized by OFA;

(e) to ensure the security and integrity of Personal Information and keep it in a physically secure and separate location safe from loss, alteration, destruction or intermingling with other records and databases and to implement, use and maintain the most appropriate products, tools, measures and procedures to do so;

(f) to restrict access to Personal Information to those of its employees who have a need to know it and who have been specifically authorized to have such access for the purpose of providing the Deliverables;

(g) to implement other specific security measures that in the reasonable opinion of OFA would improve the adequacy and effectiveness of the Supplier's measures to ensure the security and integrity of Personal Information and Records generally; and

(h) that any confidential information supplied to OFA or the Province may be disclosed by OFA or the Province where it is obligated to do so under FIPPA, by an order of a court or tribunal or pursuant to a legal proceeding.

5.08 The provisions of this Article shall survive any termination or expiry of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 6 – INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

6.01 OFA Intellectual Property
The Supplier agrees that all Intellectual Property and every other right, title and interest in and to all concepts, techniques, ideas, information and materials, however recorded, (including images and data) provided by OFA or the Province to the Supplier shall remain the sole property of OFA or the Province, as the case may be, at all times.

6.02 No Use of Insignia
The Supplier shall not use any insignia or logo of OFA or the Province.

6.03 Ownership of Intellectual Property
OFA on behalf of the Province shall be the sole owner of any Newly Created Intellectual Property. The Supplier irrevocably assigns to and in favour of OFA and OFA accepts every right, title and interest in and to all Newly Created Intellectual Property in the Deliverables, immediately following the creation thereof, for all time. OFA grants to the Province a perpetual, world-wide, non-exclusive, irrevocable, transferable, royalty-free, fully paid-up right and licence: (a) to use, execute, display, distribute, perform and reproduce, in any form, the Newly Created Intellectual Property in the Deliverables (b) to use, execute, make, have made, have used, display, distribute perform, reproduce and prepare, in any form, Derivative Work based on the Newly Created Intellectual Property in the Deliverables and (c) to practise and have practised any process or method (or both) associated with such Derivative Work;

To the extent that any of the Deliverables include, in whole or in part, the Supplier's Intellectual Property, the Supplier grants to OFA and the Province a licence to use that Supplier Intellectual Property in the manner contemplated in this Article, the total consideration for which shall be payment of the Rates on the terms and to the Supplier by OFA.

6.04 Presumption Governing Ownership

The presumption governing the Agreement shall be that OFA on behalf of the Province shall be the sole owner of any Intellectual Property in any form contained in any of the Deliverables. If the Supplier's Intellectual Property forms any part of the Deliverables, the Supplier shall notify OFA of such prior to the delivery of the particular Deliverable containing any such Supplier Intellectual Property. In the absence of any such notice the presumption shall remain that OFA is the sole owner of any Intellectual Property contained in the Deliverables.

6.05 Supplier's Grant of Licence

For those parts of the Deliverables that are Supplier Intellectual Property, the Supplier grants to OFA and the Province, a perpetual, world-wide, non-exclusive, irrevocable, transferable, royalty-free, fully paid-up right and licence: (a) to use, execute, display, distribute, perform and reproduce, in any form, copies of those Deliverables and to practice and have practised any process or method (or both) associated with such Deliverables; and (b) to use, execute, make, have made, have used, display, distribute, perform, reproduce and prepare, in any form, Derivative Work based on those Deliverables and to practise and have practised any process or method (or both) associated with such Derivative Work; and (c) authorize other Persons including agents, contractors or sub-contractors to do any of the former on behalf of OFA or the Province, provided that the OFA and the Province shall be entitled to use and authorize other Persons to use the Supplier Intellectual Property for the purposes of the Province only and not for resale or other commercial exploitation thereof.

6.06 No Restrictive Material in Deliverables

The Supplier waives, and shall not incorporate into any Deliverables anything that would restrict the right of OFA or the Province to modify, further develop or otherwise use the Deliverables in any way that OFA or the Province deems necessary, or that would prevent OFA or the Province from entering into any contract with any contractor other than the Supplier for the modification, further development of or other use of the Deliverables. However, to the extent that any of the Deliverables constitutes any professional opinion, judgement or financial advice of the Supplier, the preceding sentence will not restrict or prevent the Supplier from addressing such opinions, judgements and financial advice solely to the OFA and the Province or from including customary assumptions, qualifications and limitations respecting reliance by parties other than the Indemnified Parties in such Deliverables.

6.07 Supplier Representation and Warranty Regarding Third-Party Intellectual Property

The Supplier represents and warrants that the provision of the Deliverables shall not infringe or induce the infringement of any Third-Party Intellectual Property rights. The Supplier further represents and warrants that it has obtained assurances with respect to any Third-Party Intellectual Property that any rights of integrity or any other moral rights associated therewith have been waived.

6.08 Moral Rights

The Supplier shall obtain waivers of all rights of integrity and any other moral rights in relation to the Deliverables from its employees, volunteers, agents and subcontractors and from any other party in the position to assert such rights in relation to any of the Deliverables, which waivers may be invoked without restriction by any person authorized by OFA or the Province to use the Deliverables.

6.09 Copyright Notice

The Supplier shall place a copyright notice in the following form on all recorded Deliverables it provides to OFA:

"© Queen's Printer for Ontario, 2004"

6.10 Further Assurances Regarding Copyright

At the request of OFA, at any time or from time to time, the Supplier shall execute and agrees to cause anyone in the position to assert rights of integrity or any other moral right (including its employees, volunteers, agents and subcontractors) to execute a written assignment of copyright and waiver of moral rights in the applicable Deliverable to the OFA in the forms set out in Schedule 2. The Supplier shall assist OFA in preparing any Canadian copyright registration that OFA considers appropriate. The Supplier will obtain or execute any other document reasonably required by OFA to protect the Intellectual Property of OFA.

6.11 OFA May Prescribe Further Compliance
OFA reserves the right to prescribe the specific manner in which the Supplier shall perform its obligations relating to this Article.

6.12 The provisions of this Article shall survive any termination or expiry of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 7 – CONFLICT OF INTEREST

7.01 The Supplier acknowledges it owes the OFA and the Province of Ontario a duty to promote the interests of OFA and the Province of Ontario in carrying out the Services. The overriding obligation the Supplier is to avoid actual or perceived conflicts between its private interests and those of OFA and the Province (including OFA and OEFC).

7.02 The Supplier shall not, in its provision of the Deliverables, engage in any activity, business or undertaking, whether as Supplier or otherwise, that could create a conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest. Included in the prohibitions on the Supplier are the following:

(a) engaging in any activity, business or undertaking that may conflict or be perceived as conflicting with the performance by the Supplier of the duties and obligations under this Agreement;

(b) directly or indirectly benefiting from any activity related to this Agreement otherwise than as specifically contemplated by this Agreement;

(c) circumstances where the supplier's other commitments, relationships or financial interests (i) could or could be seen to exercise an improper influence over the objective, unbiased and impartial exercise of its independent judgement; or (ii) could or could be seen to compromise, impair or be incompatible with the effective performance of its contractual obligations;

7.03 If required by the OFA for the purpose of complying with section 7.02 , the Supplier agrees to:

(a) file with the OFA a Plan to Prevent Conflict of Interest in respect of any particular actual or potential conflict of interest;

(b) file and cause its partners, directors, officers or employees who are providing the Services under this Agreement to file with the OFA declarations disclosing their interests in a manner equivalent to that set out in Section 13 of O.Reg 435/97 and their personal relationships (if any) with the firms and named individuals employed by or affiliated with OPG or any OEB licensed wholesale or retail electricity market participant in Ontario; and

(c) cause its partners, directors, officers or employees who are providing the Deliverables under this Agreement to execute confidentiality undertakings and provide copies to the OFA.

Upon the occurrence of any change in circumstance that renders any certificate or information filed or provided by the Supplier either incorrect or incomplete, the Supplier shall forthwith notify the OFA as set out in this Article of the change in circumstance in detail.

7.04 If any activities or prior activities of the Supplier could constitute an actual or potential conflict of interest in respect of this Agreement, the Supplier shall without delay make full, true and plain disclosure to the OFA of all relevant information about the particular activity, business or undertaking in question to the satisfaction of the OFA or its agent and abide by the decision of the OFA.

7.05 Upon any disclosure made by a Supplier or any other person in relation to the activities of the Supplier, of any activity, business or undertaking that could create a conflict of interest in respect of this Agreement, the OFA may, in its sole discretion:

(a) require that the Supplier:
  (i) deliver further and detailed particulars of the activity, business or undertaking;
  (ii) elect between the continuation of the Agreement and the continuation of the activity, business or undertaking concerned; and/or

(iii) institute measures which in the opinion of the OFA eliminate, resolve, isolate, diminish or nullify any perceived conflict of interest;

(b) terminate the Agreement effective upon written notice to such effect, and/or

(c) take such other steps as may be necessary to address the conflict including the institution of proceedings.

Where the OFA recommends that the Supplier take certain action, or refrain from taking certain action, the Supplier shall abide by the recommendation. The Supplier's failure to do so may result in the termination of the Supplier's Agreement in the sole discretion of the OFA.

7.06 Information disclosed by the Supplier to the OFA as contemplated under section 7.05 is confidential and shall not be disclosed to any person, except:

(a) on the consent of all parties;
(b) as required by law or by the order of a tribunal or court;
(c) such persons, if any, as the Supplier or the OFA may consult in respect of the conflict of interest; or
(d) in any proceedings between the OFA and the Supplier for breach of obligations under Article 7.

ARTICLE 8 – INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

8.01 Supplier Indemnity
The Supplier hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Indemnified Parties from and against any and all liability, loss, costs, damages and expenses (including legal, expert and consultant fees), causes of action, actions, claims, demands, lawsuits or other proceedings, (collectively, "Claims"), by whomever made, sustained, brought or prosecuted, including for third party bodily injury (including death), personal injury and property damage arising from the negligence, errors, omissions or wilful misconduct of the Supplier, its subcontractors or their respective directors, partners, officers, agents, employees or independent contractors in the course of performance of the Supplier's obligations under, or otherwise in connection with, the Agreement. The Supplier acknowledges that OFA holds the benefit of the indemnity in trust for itself and the Province and that OFA can enforce such indemnity on behalf of the Province. The Supplier also acknowledges and agrees that the Province can enforce such indemnity directly against the Supplier.

8.02 Supplier's Insurance
The Supplier shall maintain errors & omissions liability insurance (external coverage and/or self-insured coverage), insuring liability for errors and omissions in the performance or failure to perform the services contemplated in this agreement, in the amount not less than $5,000,000 per claim and in the annual aggregate.

8.03 Supplier Participation in Proceedings
The Supplier shall, at its expense, to the extent requested by OFA or the Province participate in or conduct the defence of any Claim against any Indemnified Parties referred to in this Article and any negotiations for their settlement. OFA or the Province may elect to participate in or conduct the defence of any such Claim by notifying the Supplier in writing of such election without prejudice to any other rights or remedies of OFA or the Province under the Agreement, at law or in equity. Each party participating in the defence shall do so by actively participating with the other's counsel. No settlement shall be entered into by the Supplier unless it has obtained the prior written approval of OFA or the Province, as the case may be. If the Supplier is requested by OFA or the Province to participate in or conduct the defence of any such Claim, OFA or the Province agrees to co-operate with and assist the Supplier to the fullest extent possible in the Claim and any related settlement negotiations. If OFA or the Province conducts the defence of any such Claim, the Supplier agrees to co-operate with and assist OFA or the Province to the fullest extent possible in the Claim and any related settlement negotiations; provided that no settlement of such Claim shall be entered into by any Indemnified Party unless it has obtained the prior written consent of the Supplier, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld.

8.04 The provisions of this Article survive the termination or expiry of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 9 – TERMINATION, EXPIRY AND EXTENSION

9.01 Immediate Termination of Agreement
OFA may immediately terminate the Agreement upon giving notice to the Supplier where:

(a) the Supplier is adjudged bankrupt, is insolvent, makes a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors or a receiver, liquidator or similar official is appointed on account of the Supplier's insolvency;

(b) the Supplier breaches any provision in Article 5 (Confidentiality and FIPPA) of the Agreement;

(c) the Supplier breaches any provision in Article 7 (Conflict of Interest) of the Agreement;

(d) the Supplier, prior to or after executing the Agreement, makes a material misrepresentation or omission or provides materially inaccurate information to OFA;

(e) the Supplier undergoes a change in control which, in the sole opinion of OFA, adversely affects the Supplier's ability to satisfy some or all of its obligations under the Agreement;

(f) the Supplier subcontracts for the provision of part or all of the Deliverables or assigns the Agreement without first obtaining the written approval of OFA; or

and the above rights of termination are in addition to all other rights of termination available at law, or events of termination by operation of law.

9.02 Dispute Resolution by Rectification Notice
Subject to section 9.01, where the Supplier fails to comply with any of its obligations under the Agreement, OFA may issue a rectification notice to the Supplier setting out the manner and timeframe for rectification. Within seven (7) Business Days of receipt of that notice the Supplier shall either (a) comply with that rectification notice; or (b) provide a rectification plan satisfactory to OFA. If the Supplier fails to either comply with that rectification notice or provide a satisfactory rectification plan, OFA may immediately terminate the Agreement. Where the Supplier has been given a prior rectification notice, the same subsequent type of non-compliance by the Supplier shall allow OFA to immediately terminate the Agreement.

9.03 Termination on Notice
OFA reserves the right to terminate the Agreement, without cause, upon five (5) days written notice with or without cause.

9.04 Termination for Non-Appropriation
If this Agreement extends into a Fiscal Year subsequent to its execution, continuation of the Agreement is conditional upon an appropriation of moneys by the Legislature of Ontario (the "Legislature") sufficient to satisfy payments due under the Agreement. In the event that such moneys are not available as a result of: (i) non-appropriation by the Legislature for the Fiscal Year in which payment becomes due; and (ii) the payment being neither charged nor chargeable to an appropriation of the Legislature for a previous Fiscal Year, the OFA may terminate the Agreement upon giving notice to the Supplier and such termination shall be effective on the date of the beginning of the first Fiscal Year for which funds have not been appropriated.

9.05 Supplier's Obligations on Termination
The Supplier shall, in addition to its other obligations under the Agreement and at law:

(a) provide OFA with a report detailing (i) the current state of the provision of Deliverables by the Supplier at the date of termination; and (ii) any other information requested by OFA pertaining to the provision of the Deliverables and performance of the Agreement;

(b) execute such documentation as may be required by OFA to give effect to the termination of the Agreement;

(c) comply with any other instructions provided by OFA, including but not limited to instructions for facilitating the transfer of its obligations to another Person; and

(d) return or destroy Confidential Information under secure conditions, as requested by the OFA and provide a certificate of an officer of the Supplier confirming that all Confidential Information has been returned or destroyed, subject to the right to retain one copy as set out in Section 5.02.

9.06 Supplier's Payment Upon Termination
OFA shall only be responsible for the payment of the Deliverables provided under the Agreement up to and including the effective date of any termination. Termination shall not relieve the Supplier of its warranties and other responsibilities relating to the Deliverables performed or money paid. In addition to its other rights of hold back or set off, OFA may hold back payment or set off against any payments owed if the Supplier fails to comply with its obligations on termination.

9.07 Termination in Addition to Other Rights
The express rights of termination in the Agreement are in addition to and shall in no way limit any rights or remedies of OFA under the Agreement, at law or in equity

9.08 Expiry of Agreement
The Agreement shall expire at the end of the Term.

9.09 The provisions of this Article survive the termination or expiry of the Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have executed the Agreement effective as of the date first above written.

Thanks, Kelly.

I am forwarding this to Sarah Neville as well, as the OFA is the party to the agreement, so OFA Legal needs to review this as well.

Hi Toby

I made a few small additions/ changes to the attached draft based on what I learned from Carlos. We are told that the OFA will sign it (Mike). It is fairly straightforward. Page 2 of the OPG white paper outlines a structure, but the ultimate draft of the legislation will impact it and advice will be needed once what is in the legislation is clearer. Advice needed is regarding financing alternatives/ structure for the spv. In addition, the banks/ advisor have their own Chinese Walls in place to deal with potential conflicts of interest.

Please confirm if the changes are ok.

Thanks,

Kelly

Subject: NDA Agreement

Please find attached a draft of a Non-Disclosure Agreement respecting obtaining advice from a financial adviser with respect to the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan.

Please note that this draft is preliminary, and we have a number of questions and concerns that are set out in the draft. We would like to point out that there is no agreement setting out the scope or nature of the services and the basis on which those services would be provided including the standard that is required from the adviser as well as conflict of interest requirements and other issues, and that the NDA does not replace such an agreement.

We have also attached a scan of an agreement that the OFA negotiated in 2004 to hire an adviser for a project relating to electricity finance as an example of such an agreement and the types of provisions that could be considered for inclusion in such an agreement.

Confidential and Privileged Legal Advice – April 1, 2017 – MOF LSB
Note regarding this NDA and the retention of an adviser:

We have a number of questions relating to this NDA, and issues that should be considered in retaining an adviser:

- We have not been able to confirm what the scope of the advice being sought is. If the advice is restricted to advising on market timing and potential demand for certain securities, this is more limited than broader advice relating to structuring the transaction;
- We think it should be clear who the adviser is working for, and how the advice will be presented to the Province. If the advice is going to be to the Ministry of Energy or the Minister of Finance, will be given through the OFA?;
- Are there potential conflicts of interest between the adviser's role as an adviser and as a potential underwriter or other business of the adviser?

In addition, it should be considered whether it is appropriate to have an adviser without an agreement for the services that the adviser would be providing. The NDA protects the Province with respect to the disclosure of the information to third parties, but it does not set out the role, responsibilities or other matters relating to conflicts or other duties of the adviser. Terms of such an agreement that may be considered in such a context include:

- Scope of engagement;
- Performance Warranty – setting out the standard to which the adviser is to carry out the work and provide advice;
- Copyright and IP provisions;
- Conflict of interest provisions – setting out the primary duties of the adviser and how they must conduct themselves with respect to any potential conflicts;
- Indemnities – setting out the adviser's indemnities to the OFA for certain risks.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Ontario Financing Authority (OFA) is a Provincial Crown agency established by the Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993 (CIPA). The initiatives in the OFA's 2017–20 Business Plan will focus on achieving the objectives set out in CIPA and the objectives set out in the OFA's mandate letter from the Minister of Finance, dated October 1, 2016 over a three year planning horizon, as well as reporting on results of the previous year's Business Plan. Initiatives for the 2017–20 Plan include:

1. Executing the Province's borrowing program through development and implementation of the annual Financing, Debt & Electricity Management Plan. The Plan will provide critical details on the borrowing program, including term structure and diversification objectives, as well as investor relations, liquidity, floating rate, foreign exchange and credit risk strategies, and also outline major risks and risk mitigation strategies.

2. Managing the Province's debt, investments, Ontario Nuclear Funds Agreement (ONFA) and financial risk, and contributing to the development of the Province's fiscal plan and outlook by working to generate savings from liquid reserve investment activities within prudent risk exposure limits, as well as centralized/segregated investment funds for various public bodies. This also involves managing ONFA-related investments, working together with Ontario Power Generation Inc. (OPG), to ensure interest rate, foreign exchange and credit exposures are within approved policy limits, as well as contributing to the Province's annual Budget, Fall Statement and quarterly finances.

3. Managing key financial relationships by building and maintaining connections with investors in both existing and new markets, as well as relationships with banks, financial service providers and investment dealers. This includes providing Investor Relations information products and updates on the OFA website. Maintaining close relationships and ongoing dialogue with credit rating agencies to keep them informed of the Province's financial status, priorities, and initiatives, and complete regulatory filings with the U.S. Securities & Exchange Commission (SEC) and any other applicable securities regulators.

4. Providing cash management and banking services on a centralized basis to all ministries and settlement, payment, financial and reporting, loan administration, information technology and client services to the Treasury Program by implementing effective treasury solutions for the Province and client agencies. Ensuring that the Province has sufficient cash available at all times to meet its financial obligations, and continuing to work with the other ministries to advise on banking and cash management components of government initiatives as well as on changes to accounting standards and their impact on the Province's debt and interest on debt.

5. Advising on and implementing corporate and electricity finance projects and policies by providing analysis and advice on cost-effective borrowing, investing and risk management by public bodies and other financing proposals, and on business cases for business supports. This includes providing advice on transactions that may affect the indebtedness or contingent liabilities of Ontario, including provincial guarantees. In addition, undertaking policy and financial analysis, modelling support and implementation, as required, for electricity financings, policies and initiatives, including ONFA, which could have fiscal, financial and/or economic implications for the Province and/or Ontario Electricity Financial Corporation (OEFC).

6. Ensuring the successful activation of OFA's decentralized Business Continuity Plan (BCP) by reviewing and updating the Corporate BCP Framework and Business Unit plans, as well as conducting corporate-wide BCP test exercises.

OVERVIEW OF 2016–17 RESULTS (TO DATE)

The Ontario Financing Authority (OFA) accomplished the following in support of the overall strategic directions outlined in the 2016–19 Business Plan[1]:

1. Execute the Province's borrowing program

- As of January 31, 2017, the OFA had completed $20.3 billion (85 per cent) of its $23.8 billion (as per the 2016 Fall Economic Statement) long-term borrowing requirement for 2016–17. Approximately 82 per cent of long-term borrowing was completed in the Canadian dollar market.
- The 2016–17 Ontario Savings Bond (OSB) campaign raised $127 million.
- The objectives set out in the 2016–17 Financing, Debt & Electricity Management Plan, approved by the OFA Board, are on track and expected to be successfully completed by fiscal year end.
- Sufficient liquidity has been available over the fiscal year to ensure the Province has been able to meet all of its financial commitments and payment obligations, largely reflecting the long-term borrowing program being consistently ahead of pace.
- Successfully executed five carve-out deals[2] to-date for the 2016–17 fiscal year (as of January 31, 2017). Held in-depth discussions with individual carve-out investors.
- On January 26, 2017, the Province successfully priced an $800 million re-opening of its January 2023 Global Green Bond. The six year bond will help fund twelve green infrastructure projects, with an emphasis on clean transportation and energy efficiency and conservation. The transaction represents the third and largest ever Green Bond offering from the Province of Ontario.
- Provided expertise in accounting for Green Bonds, and set up financial accounting and reporting for these investment vehicles that met the requirements outlined by the investor community. Developed and released a second Green Bond newsletter on December 12, 2016, updating investors on the second Green Bond's use of proceeds, project selection process, as well as, providing project updates on the eight projects selected.
- Analyzed the scope and impact of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (MiFID) II and the Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive (BRRD) on the Province and implemented required documentation changes to ensure the Province's continued, uninterrupted access to European capital markets.

2. Manage the Province's debt, investments, ONFA and financial risk, and contribute to the development of the Province's fiscal plan and outlook

- As of January 24, 2017, through the timing of debt issues and related hedging, the cost of regular borrowing for the Province based on the traditional methodology translated to a percentile ranking of 58th percentile against a statistical distribution of benchmark interest rates. As such the percentile ranking for regular borrowings is outside the designated target band of 45 to 55 percentile. The OFA has introduced a more accurate and comprehensive performance measurement methodology based on the tenor of individual debt issues. Applying this methodology, the cost of regular borrowing for the Province for the same date translated to a percentile ranking of 53rd percentile, falling within the target band of 45 to 55 percentile. The cost of strategic foreign borrowing as of January 24, 2017 translated into a percentile ranking of 54th percentile falling within the designated target band for strategic foreign borrowings of 50 to 75 percentile. The new methodology is yet to be extended to cover strategic foreign borrowings. There were no borrowings on behalf of OEFC.

[2] In order to accommodate large bond purchases by a single buyer, a large order procedure was implemented on October 14, 2011. The "carve-out" procedure allows for a portion of a bond issue to be sold to a single buyer.

- The money market performance was $ $21.6 million or thirteen basis points (bps) better than the benchmark as of December 31, 2016. The performance is eleven bps better than the upper limit of the target band which is plus or minus two bps of the benchmark.
- The interest-on-debt (IOD) expense for 2016–17 is currently forecast at $11,375 million, $381 million lower than forecast in the 2016 Budget, primarily as a result of lower than forecast interest rates.
- Funds were managed on a discretionary basis on behalf of the Pension Benefits Guarantee Fund, Deposit Insurance Corporation of Ontario, Ontario Trillium Foundation, Infrastructure Ontario, and a commitment fund for the Ontario Capital Growth Corporation.
- Funds were managed on a non-discretionary basis on behalf of the Ontario Immigrant Investor Corporation and Northern Ontario Heritage Fund.
- With OPG, the Used Fuel and Decommissioning Segregated Funds' investments were managed under ONFA. The Funds have grown from $16.9 billion at January 1, 2015 to about $19.2 billion at September 30, 2016. As of November 30, 2016, the rate of return for the Used Fuel Fund for one year was 6.88 per cent compared to the market benchmark of 6.89 per cent and a target rate of return of 5.04 per cent. The rate of return for the Decommissioning Fund for one year was 6.79 per cent compared to the market benchmark of 7.07 per cent and a target rate of return of 5.15 per cent.
- Contributed to the Province's annual Budget and quarterly finances, including the electricity sector outlook and assets; advised on the potential implications of initiatives on interest on debt, borrowing objectives, credit ratings and financial markets' reactions.
- As part of the Pooled Asset Management Working Group, provided technical investment management expertise on the modelling, design and implementation of a pooled asset management entity for institutions in Ontario's broader public sector. In February 2015, a final report was presented to the Minister of Finance. The OFA has continued to assist the Ministry of Finance (MOF) in implementing the Investment Management Corporation of Ontario (IMCO).
- Administered borrowing authority obtained under the Financial Administration Act (FAA) which is required to carry out the Province's borrowing program. Effected changes to the FAA to better align the foreign currency conversion of debt maturities to be refinanced with the methodology used in calculating the Province's annual borrowing requirement.

3. Manage key financial relationships

- Held road shows, investor meetings and conference calls to meet with investors in Canada, the United States, Europe and Asia, and hosted meetings at the OFA offices. Held 139 investor meetings and events as of December 31, 2016, including meetings with 10 new accounts. Provided keynote speakers and panelists at industry conferences in Toronto and New York City. Promoted Toronto as a global financial centre.
- Continued development of the OFA website to improve functionality, add additional information for investors and provide full mobile accessibility. As part of Ontario's Open Data Directive, the OFA published an Open Data Inventory List on its website, which includes all of the datasets the OFA creates, collects and/or manages. The website continues to be an important tool for communicating with investors and the public, receiving 34,792 visitors during the 2016 calendar year. Three CEO's Corner updates were posted over this time. The OFA email alert list had 363 subscribers as of December 31, 2016.
- Maintained close relationships and held ongoing discussions with credit rating agencies and the banks which underwrite and distribute the Province's bonds in Canada and around the world to keep them apprised of government priorities and initiatives, the 2016 Budget, the 2015–2016 Public Accounts, the 2016 Ontario Economic Outlook and Fiscal Review (Fall Statement), the secondary offering of Hydro One upon its public announcement and other quarterly finance releases.
- Managed increasingly more rigorous regulatory and disclosure requirements, and maintained close relationships with the regulatory bodies in the global capital markets.
- Monitored credit exposures to banks with which the OFA has relationships. Executed 10 collateralized swap agreements with bank counterparties and are working toward executing additional agreements in order to mitigate credit risk with bank counterparties.

- Conducted comprehensive reviews of potential rule changes affecting the Province domestically and internationally such as the Market Abuse Directive (MAR) in the European Economic Area (EEA) and fee-based changes with Canada's primary central securities depository (CDS), consulting securities regulators and other capital market participants, as appropriate.
- Monitored and fully complied with international withholding tax requirements in respect of its financial agreements under FATCA and OECD Common Reporting Standard for Entity Tax Residency.

4. Provide cash management and banking services as well as settlement, payment services, loan administration and financial and reporting services and client services

- Provided centralized banking services to the Province by strategically managing banking relationships, as well as providing efficient centralized cash management services to the Province, minimizing interest on debt.
- Continued to provide cash management services to five client agencies and crown corporations, including the Pension Benefits Guarantee Fund, Ontario Capital Growth Corporation and the Deposit Insurance Corporation of Ontario.
- Managed the complex cash flows and settlement requirements associated with the secondary offering of Hydro One ensuring that these very large and time sensitive transactions were completed on a timely and accurate basis.

- The Integrity Commissioner has graduated the OFA from having to submit the travel expenses of the Board, the CEO and his direct reports and the top five employees in a fiscal year, for review by his office. The graduation is a testament to the timeliness and accuracy exhibited by the OFA in providing this information to the Office of the Commissioner over the past few years.
- As next steps in providing feedback to the Public Sector Accounting Board (PSAB) with regards to its new standard on Financial Instruments, the OFA has retained Deloitte Inc. to consult with other provinces and provide feedback to PSAB on provincial concerns with the proposed standard.
- Continued to provide accurate agency financial statements, as well as reported provincial debt, derivatives and investments in accordance with strict legislated timelines. As in past years, the OFA's 2015–16 Financial Statements received an unqualified opinion from the Office of the Auditor General. MANDATE AND GOVERNING LEGISLATION

The Ontario Financing Authority (OFA) is a Provincial Crown agency established by the Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993 (CIPA). CIPA sets out the objectives of the OFA. The OFA:

- conducts borrowing and investment for the Province of Ontario and manages the Provincial debt;
- provides cash management and other financial services for the Province;
- advises ministries, Crown agencies, and other public bodies on financial matters; and
- assists Crown agencies and other public bodies to borrow and invest money through external sources or through the OFA.

The OFA also provides a broad range of financial services to Ontario Electricity Financial Corporation (OEFC) and Ontario Infrastructure and Lands Corporation (Infrastructure Ontario or OILC).

The FAA also sets out certain financial powers which OFA employees exercise on behalf of the Minister of Finance to carry out the Province's borrowing, manage the Province's debt and invest its liquid reserves.

OVERVIEW OF CURRENT AND FUTURE PROGRAM AND ACTIVITIES AND IMPLEMENTATION PLAN: 2017–20

Activities will focus on supporting the following strategic directions:

1. Execute the Province's borrowing program

Overview

The OFA endeavours to ensure that borrowing by the Province and OEFC is cost-effective. Total long-term public borrowing is forecast at $23.3 billion in 2017–18 and $28.7 billion in 2018–19. This year's objectives may be challenging to implement due to the state of the global economy/market and the resource constraints within which the OFA is operating. Furthermore, borrowing blackouts can limit the amount of time in which the OFA can access the market. This may require borrowing in excess of $3 billion per month when these blackouts are not in effect in order to complete the annual borrowing requirement. Other challenges include:

- continued high amount of borrowing required for the Province, including the amount that will have to be undertaken outside Canada;
- competition in the markets from other large domestic and international borrowers;
- evolving regulatory requirements such as Basel III, Dodd-Frank and EMIR that continue to make hedging of foreign debt more expensive and a challenge to execute in the size required by the Province;
- potential challenges for Ontario's credit rating. A downgrade may result in borrowing costs increasing; and
- management of downgrading or failure of counterparties, and continued implementation of collateralized swaps to mitigate credit risk.

Implementation Plan

- Develop the annual Financing, Debt & Electricity Management Plans for OFA Board approval and transmission to the Minister. These plans provide detail on the borrowing program, including term structure and diversification objectives, as well as investor relations, liquidity, floating rate, foreign exchange and credit risk strategies, and also outline major risks and risk mitigation strategies.
- Meet the Province's funding requirements, anticipated to average about $25 billion annually for the business plan period, in a cost-effective and prudent manner.
- Manage the Ontario Savings Bond campaign.
- Continue to monitor the Green Bond market to identify future issuance opportunities under its Green Bond Program.

2. Manage the Province's debt, investments, ONFA and financial risk, and contribute to the development of the Province's fiscal plan and outlook

Overview

The OFA manages the debt and liquid reserve portfolios, as well as centralized/segregated investment funds, for various public bodies, and jointly manages the Ontario Nuclear Funds with OPG. Financial risks associated with capital market activities are mitigated by adhering to prudent risk management policies which minimize financial risk by ensuring exposures and losses remain within approved limits. Risk management policies and program exposure limits are approved by the OFA Board of Directors. The OFA also contributes interest on debt, borrowing and debt management objectives, and electricity sector fiscal impact projections to the Budget, Fall Statement and other quarterly financial updates.

Implementation Plan

- Generate savings from liquid reserve investment activities within prudent risk exposure limits, as well as centralized/segregated investment funds, for various public bodies. Manage ONFA-related investments, working together with OPG.
- Ensure interest rate, foreign exchange and credit exposures are within approved policy limits.
- Contribute to the Province's annual Budget, Fall Statement and quarterly finances, including the electricity sector outlook; advise on the potential impact of initiatives on interest on debt, borrowing objectives, credit ratings and financial markets' reactions. Continue playing an important role in the development of the Province's annual Budget and quarterly statements through the provision of timely and accurate financial information, and preparation of the Borrowing and Debt Management section of the Budget and Fall Statement.
- Continue with the implementation of the new methodology based on assessing individual debt issues by tenor, to measure the performance of the borrowing program.
- Continue to implement applicable changes as per financial and regulatory reform requirements including evolving effects from Basel III, EMIR and Dodd-Frank. These regulations are expected to continue to make the OFA's hedging process more complex. Hedging may also continue to become more expensive if proposals such as financial transaction taxes or mark-to-market derivatives taxes are legislated and implemented in Europe or the United States.

3. Manage key financial relationships

Overview

The OFA ensures investors and the financial community in Canada and abroad receive financial updates on a timely basis to make informed decisions about Province of Ontario debt securities. Investor Relations activities support borrowing program objectives by maintaining and broadening the Province's investor base. The OFA also ensures credit rating agencies understand government policies, budget, and fiscal performance, properly reflecting these factors in their reports and rating decisions.

The OFA manages the government's relationships with financial institutions, primarily the major Canadian and global banks, their investment dealer subsidiaries, and custodial and fiscal agents. This involves the acquisition and oversight of cost-effective products and services for the Province and certain Crown corporations.

Implementation Plan

- Support the Province's borrowing program by building and maintaining relationships with investors in existing and new markets. Provide Investor Relations information products, including updates to the OFA website, on a timely basis.
- Maintain close relationships and ongoing dialogue with credit rating agencies to keep them informed of the Province's financial status, priorities, and initiatives.
- Manage Ontario's relationships with banks, financial service providers and investment dealers.
- Complete regulatory filings with the U.S. Securities & Exchange Commission (SEC), United Kingdom Listing Authority (UKLA), Luxembourg Stock Exchange (LuxSE), Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) and any other applicable securities regulator. Conduct due diligence conference calls, as required, with the dealers and underwriters of the Province's debt securities offerings and their legal counsel.

4. Provide services related to cash management, banking, settlement, payment and financial and reporting

Overview

The OFA provides centralized banking and cash management services to the Province. The effective provision of these services allows for the efficient delivery of provincial services and contributes towards minimizing interest on debt expenditures. The OFA is responsible for settlements, payments and accounting/reporting functions associated with the Province's and OEFC's debt management programs, as well as agency financial reporting.

Implementation Plan

- Identify and implement effective treasury solutions for the Province and client agencies.
- Ensure that the Province has sufficient cash available at all times to meet its financial obligations.

- Continue to work on the replacement of the Public Bodies Financing System with a new, internally developed/externally sourced system capable of handling all loans issued by the OFA and the Province. Progress is expected to proceed according to schedule and it is anticipated that the new system will be operational in 2017–18.
- Continue to work with the Ontario Pension Board, MOF Income Security and Pension Policy Division and TBS on the first phase of regularizing the management of various pension plans whose assets reside in the Consolidated Revenue Fund. The first phase is aimed at transferring the regulated portion of the assets of the Judges' Pension Plan to the IMCO generating annualized savings estimated to be $15 million.
- Work with the Office of the Provincial Controller and OPG to develop options to address the potential under PSAB for Public Accounts consolidation adjustment impacts from OPG and Hydro One results under the International Financial Reporting Standards.
- Provide timely and reliable net debt and total debt estimates for the 2017 Annual Budget and the Province's quarterly reports during the fiscal year including the Fall Economic Statement.
- Continue to provide timely and accurate financial reporting for the Province on debt, derivatives and investments. Continue to provide timely and accurate agency financial statements that pass scrutiny of the OFA Board and the Office of the Auditor General.

- Continue to work with the Office of the Provincial Controller on providing value-added feedback on Chapter 2 of the Annual Report of the Auditor General of Ontario that deals with Ontario's Public Accounts.
- Continue to monitor and assess any new accounting developments of the International Accounting Standards Board, the Financial Accounting Standards Board in the U.S., the Accounting Standards Board and the PSAB of the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada that affect reporting for the Province and its agencies.

Risk Identification, Assessment, Mitigation Strategies

The following section identifies potential risks that could impact the entire organization in its ability to successfully deliver its programs and activities on behalf of the Province.

Risk Element or Classification	Identification of Risk / Risk Description	Likelihood and Rationale	Impact and Rationale	Overall Assessment of Risk Element	Mitigation Strategy
Risk Category: STRATEGIC RISK AREA: Strategic: Risks related to implementing (or not implementing) new policies or changes to existing policies (e.g., misalignment of agency policies with those of the OPS). The risk that strategies and policies will fail to achieve required/targeted results. The risk of failing to provide value for money or cost-effectiveness. This can include existing policies that may be affected by changes in external factors including the economy, technology and political environment.
Strategic/ Policy Risk Primary Accountability: Capital Markets Division	Strategies and policies fail to achieve required results. Prime examples are failing to meet the borrowing requirements and failures in implementing core risk management strategies.	LOW Past experience indicates that the likelihood of major strategic failures is relatively low as they cannot always be eliminated. There are elements of borrowing and risk management which are outside the Province's control which can negatively impact required results. For example, financial conditions could result in higher interest costs or interest rate risk than anticipated or refinancing risk in future years may be much higher than desired if investor demand for longer term bonds is substantially reduced.	EXTREMELY HIGH The financial consequences of strategic failures in borrowing or risk management strategies and associated policies can be extremely high, and the annual Financing, Debt & Electricity Management Plan outlines strategies which attempt to address the challenges, including contingencies for unexpected events. In addition, management monitors major market and policy developments throughout the year very closely and will develop and implement new strategies and policies if conditions warrant. Even though the likelihood of major strategic failures is low, the impact remains extremely high resulting in an overall high risk assessment.	HIGH	Strategic plans and policies to mitigate strategic and policy risk are initially developed and implemented in a thorough manner as outlined in the OFA's annual Financing, Debt & Electricity Management Plan ("the Plan"). This includes an analysis of risk factors and contingency plans. The Plan is approved by the respective Boards (OFA and OEFC) and receives input from Board members. Market conditions and policy developments are monitored on a continual basis throughout the year to identify new and emerging developments which could impact strategic and/or policy risks. Existing control strategies are modified as required to mitigate adverse developments. Procedures are in place to ensure that staff are aware of relevant policies. Policy violations are rare, and a robust control framework exists to identify violations quickly. Most violations would not have a large enough impact to threaten achieving required strategic results.
Meeting stakeholder expectations	The risk that the OFA may fail to meet stakeholder expectations, including those of the Province and other public bodies.	MEDIUM There is a medium likelihood of failure to meet stakeholder expectations and performance	EXTREMELY HIGH Given that the impact of not meeting stakeholder expectations can be extremely high, combined with a	HIGH	An analysis of risk factors and contingencies is included in the OFA's annual Financing, Debt & Electricity Management Plan. This analysis is revisited throughout the year.

Risk Element or Classification	Identification of Risk / Risk Description	Likelihood and Rationale	Impact and Rationale	Overall Assessment of Risk Element	Mitigation Strategy
Primary Accountability: Capital Markets Division	Stakeholder expectations include strategic/policy risk factors as well as the risk of failing to meet performance benchmarks.	benchmarks. Market factors tend to be relatively unpredictable and many factors are out of OFA's control. The current environment of expanding service requirements and constrained resources adds some risk; however, it is expected to be minimal. Based on past experience, it is expected that most stakeholder expectations will be met.	medium likelihood the net result is a high risk assessment. The impact of a one percentage point increase in yields was estimated to be $350 million for 2016–17. Although the OFA has been able to extend the borrowing term in recent years, interest rate risk will remain elevated for several years. Continuous communication with the Deputy Minister and Minister ensures that expectations for the Province are clearly understood. Commitments are made after thorough and careful analysis to ensure that resources and expertise are in place to meet those expectations. Close and continuous communication and meetings with relevant public bodies (e.g. Agencies) who use our services ensures that expectations and service requirements are clearly understood. In addition, formal service level agreements (e.g. investment management agreements) have been developed which clearly outline the services and benchmark performance standards.		Given the relatively unpredictable nature of market factors, ongoing monitoring of market and policy factors provides a level of risk mitigation. Continuous dialogue with stakeholders and regular reporting are also useful in keeping abreast of both expectations and performance. Emerging issues which may affect expectations are identified and are regularly reported to the Deputy/Chair as well as the Board (OFA and OEFC). This provides greater assurance that expectations will be met or managed through approved mitigation strategies. Meeting performance benchmarks for the Province and other public bodies also depends on adequate resources being available to maximize performance. This includes information systems services, and most importantly, staff. A highly educated and experienced workforce provides a higher likelihood that stakeholder expectations will be met. The OFA works to attract and retain highly qualified staff.
Public image Primary Accountability: Capital Markets Division	The risk that the OFA may damage its reputation with stakeholders and third party service providers.	LOW The likelihood of reputational risk to the OFA is low. There are extensive policies to govern staff conduct including, with respect to conflicts of interest, procurement and workplace harassment. In addition,	HIGH The impact of image problems can be high which combined with a low likelihood results in an overall medium risk assessment.	MEDIUM	Public image risk is mitigated through a host of strategies: i) a strong policy framework to provide greater information to staff to make them aware of potential public image problems; ii) strong internal controls to reduce the risk of policy violations and adverse information releases; iii) public communication protocols to reduce the risk of incorrect and damaging information releases; iv) an procedures are in place to ensure that staff are aware of all policies. There are also regular reporting requirements and internal controls to reduce the potential for policy violations. Dealings with the press are handled through official MOF communication staff and investor and other stakeholder information is handled with extreme care. Accordingly, the likelihood of reputational risk problems with stakeholders and service providers is low, although mistakes can happen and there are certain factors which the OFA cannot control.			investor relations program which is responsive to investor needs and responds to investor requests for information promptly; v) ongoing dialogue with dealers to keep abreast of information in the marketplace relating to both Ontario and the OFA; and vi) a management structure and culture which promotes security of information and extreme care in disclosing information in a public forum. Strategies iii-v involve constant communication with external stakeholders. This feedback loop provides the OFA with a method of assessing the organization's public image. The OFA has a comprehensive procurement policy that ensures that its suppliers and service providers are selected in a fair manner. When appropriate, the OFA requires that service providers obtain security clearance. OFA contracts with service providers address confidentiality and contract precedents generally require approval before a contractor may use its association with the OFA for any purpose. All substantive contracts that Capital Markets enters into in the name of the OFA must be reviewed by the OFA Legal Branch. All substantive contracts that Capital Markets enters into in the name of the Province, must be reviewed by MOF Legal.

Quality of relationship with stakeholders Primary Accountability: Capital Markets Division	The risk that the OFA's stakeholder relationships are poorly managed.	LOW The likelihood of failure managing OFA's stakeholder relationships is low as the OFA strives to deal with all of its stakeholders in a fair, transparent and responsive manner.	HIGH The quality of the business relationships with stakeholders that the OFA is engaged in such as investors, credit rating agencies, dealers and employees can have a high impact on the success and cost of OFA activities. However, the likelihood of failure in these activities is	MEDIUM	The OFA provides relevant, non-confidential information to investors in a fair and transparent manner, including information pertaining to the Budget and quarterly finances. Confidential information is handled in a manner consistent with laws and regulations, such as the Public Services Ontario Act, 2006 and the Securities Act, 1990. The annual Investor Relations Plan is developed each year with the goal of providing updates to investors, both domestic and international, on a regular basis through outreach and information products. Requests for information or meetings from investors are responded to relatively low which results in an overall medium risk assessment.		very promptly. The quality of the Province's relationships with stakeholders is constantly monitored. Should the strategies in the annual Investor Relations Plan fail to achieve the desired relationship levels, the OFA can choose to engage additional financial dealers or more senior Ministry of Finance representatives to participate in its investor outreach activities. Dealers are utilized in a fair and objective manner for bond issues. A syndicate evaluation is used to rank domestic dealers objectively, and commissions for domestic bond issues are based on this annual evaluation. Dealers thus know the OFA's service priorities and understand their bond issue allocations for the year. International issues also utilize dealers based on their level of service and strengths they bring to particular markets and issuance opportunities. The OFA continuously communicates with its dealers and also has regular meetings with them, and thus relationship issues tend to be dealt with quickly. Given the high importance of Ontario's credit ratings to its borrowing program, the OFA has very well established relationships with the credit ratings agencies. The OFA has regular meetings with the agencies, responds promptly to requests for information, and facilitates participation of more specialized or senior government officials as required.

Risk Category: ACCOUNTABILITY / GOVERNANCE Governance/ Accountability/ Organizational Risk: Risk that the organizational structure, accountabilities or responsibilities are not defined, designed, communicated or implemented to meet the organization's objectives, and/or that culture and management commitments do not support the formal structures. Risk of conflict of interest for board members. Inadequate ethics / codes of conduct. Inadequate definitions of roles and responsibilities. Risk of failure to comply with administrative requirements, such as directives. Legal/ Contractual Compliance Risk: Risk related to the potential cost of complying with a contractual agreement, or of litigation (including established policy and procedure) against the agency or government. Risk that a government initiative or action will contravene a contract, Memorandum of Understanding or policy. The costs/risks related to changing legislation could include lawsuits, settlements, fines, penalties and legal fees. Risk of failure to comply with administrative requirements such as directives.

The Deputy Minister of Finance is, pursuant to CIPA, the Chair of the OFA Board, which establishes a clear governance framework for OFA management and accountability to the Minister of Finance. The OFA uses secure communication procedures with internal and external parties; it also undertakes effective oversight of service providers, reconciliation processes, stringent disclosure policies, staff learning and development, and timely filing of regulatory reports.
Risk and issue management Primary Accountability: Risk Control Division Secondary Accountability: Finance and Treasury Division	The risk that the OFA may not effectively manage and mitigate financial risks including fraud risk.	LOW A review process established at the OFA that includes daily compliance monitoring, division of responsibilities, and a highly-developed and rehearsed response plan for emergencies results in a low likelihood.	HIGH The OFA is a major participant in capital markets and has extensive dealings with banks on behalf of the Ontario government. As a result, the potential impact for errors and omissions having a high dollar value is high. The mitigation strategies employed by the OFA reduce the overall assessed risk to Medium.	MEDIUM	Financial risks associated with the OFA capital market activities are managed through the OFA risk management framework, which includes policies that are updated, reviewed by the Ontario Internal Audit Division and approved by the Board on an annual basis. Compliance with policies is monitored through a daily reporting cycle including where applicable on a real time basis, and credit risks are also monitored in real time. Fraud: Division of responsibilities between divisions to create a separate front, middle and back office for capital markets transactions and appropriate separation of duties and signing authorizations within divisions reduce risk of fraud. All staff is encouraged to report any wrongdoing at all times and senior management is asked to confirm quarterly whether they are aware of any wrongdoing. Issues management: In addition to a monthly Capital Markets update letter, the CEO also reports on any issues or concerns quarterly to the Board and has regular meetings with the Chair. Division Heads/Directors report quarterly to the Board on their area's progress in achieving the objectives identified under the Annual Business Plan. The OFA's financial statements are prepared and presented on a quarterly basis to the ARMC and the Board. They are also shared with senior staff of the Office of the Auditor General. The OFA provides the interest-on-debt, debt and derivative information that is presented in the Public Accounts of the Province. The numbers and the process including the underlying internal controls are audited annually by the Office of the Auditor General. Up to now, no material issues have been identified as part of this audit. OFA prepares issues notes, and feeds into the Ministry's communications branch for issues management and to address contentious issues. The Ontario Internal Audit Division develops a three year audit plan for the OFA that is updated annually. Audits under this plan, as well as special reviews as and when required provide an overall comfort level. The ARMC conducts in camera sessions with internal audit, staff of the Office of the Auditor General and the OFA's Chief Financial and Risk Officer at each quarterly meeting during which they are free to candidly raise any concerns about overall risk and issues management issues at the OFA.

Risk Element or Classification	Identification of Risk / Risk Description	Likelihood and Rationale	Impact and Rationale	Overall Assessment of Risk Element	Mitigation Strategy
					To avoid financial risk resulting from an inability to function during an emergency, the OFA has a highly-developed and rehearsed response plan for emergencies, addressing key risks such as fire, terrorist attack, pandemic or other threat. The work of the OFA can be carried out with all staff working from home. The OFA also maintains a collocate site at a remote location that houses a continuously available, mirrored IT infrastructure. Staff are subject to randomly declared, OFA-wide, work-from-home drills at least annually. OIAD reviews and comments on business continuity test results.
Statutory requirements are met Primary Accountability: Legal Division	Risk of non-compliance with statutory requirements	LOW The likelihood of non-compliance is considered low because OFA staff have experience and awareness regarding legal compliance in relation to the performance of their jobs. While regulation in some areas (such as in capital markets and the banking and payment card industry) is complex and continues to evolve, program areas have ready access to legal advice.	HIGH Impact is considered high since failure to comply with a statutory requirement could negatively affect the reputation of the OFA and the Government. Also, violations relating to capital markets operations could have serious financial implications. Combined with a low likelihood, the resulting overall risk assessment is medium.	MEDIUM	Currently, the OFA and Ministry of Finance Legal Branches advise of statutory requirements and changes affecting OFA operations and also are available to advise on steps to effectively address any non-compliance. Information on legal requirements relating to Public Servants is distributed to staff using the Policy and Procedure Management system. Non-compliance with laws, regulations and directives is reported to the Legal Director, who reports it to the CEO and the Board of Directors. CEO/Board direct remedial action (which may include learning and development). Education is encouraged and Divisions budget for necessary learning.
Reliability of financial systems Primary Accountability: Finance and Treasury Division	The risk that the OFA's financial information and reporting system is not reliable or fails to meet quality standards.	LOW The review process that the OFA has established including audits by the Internal Audit Division and the Office of Auditor General of Ontario ensures that the likelihood of occurrence is low.	HIGH While the impact of less than reliable financial information is indeed high, the low likelihood of this happening results in an overall medium risk assessment.	MEDIUM	The OFA has well-established processes and procedures for monitoring and reporting on its financial performance to its ARMC and Board of Directors and to the ministry as well as the Office of the Treasury Board. OFA financials are prepared on a quarterly basis for discussion, and shared with the staff of the Office of the Auditor General and approval by the ARMC and Board of Directors. In addition the OFA financials are audited annually by the Office of the Auditor General who has provided unqualified opinions on all past financials. Staff of the Office of the Auditor General also audit, on an annual basis, the OFA's work on the Province's debt and interest on debt. This annual audit includes reviewing the underlying systems and internal controls. Up to now, no material issues have been identified and the OFA has implemented all recommendations arising from this audit. Changes to accounting pronouncements are also addressed during the quarterly discussions with the ARMC and the Office of the Auditor General. Annual budgets and audited financials are submitted to the Ministry as per TBS requirements. A further level of assurance exists as a result of the work carried out by the Ontario Internal Audit Division (OIAD). OIAD develops a 3 year audit plan with consultation from Division heads and all finding and recommendations are presented to the Audit and Risk Management Committee of the OFA Board. The OFA's progress in implementing recommendations are also presented on a quarterly basis to the same committee.

Risk Element or Classification	Identification of Risk / Risk Description	Likelihood and Rationale	Impact and Rationale	Overall Assessment of Risk Element	Mitigation Strategy
Debt and Risk Management Risk Category: OPERATIONAL RISK AREA: Program Caseload/ Utilization: Change in demand for services or entitlements or increased claims/case load that can be deferred. Assumes no policy or legislative changes.
An economic slowdown straining the fiscal plan, thus affecting the borrowing program.	Fiscal strain stemming from a significant economic slowdown would likely result in higher borrowing requirements. This could be experienced as much larger borrowing requirements over a fairly short time horizon or consistently	MEDIUM The possibility of a major downturn in economic activity or longer term slow economic growth is given a medium likelihood due the historical frequency of such events. The impact of a one percentage point change in real GDP was estimated to be $845 million for 2014-15. The world economy is currently highly reliant on U.S. economic growth and would be at risk if that fades. Given that Ontario's borrowing requirements are already quite large, the impact would likely be high, meaning that interest costs could increase appreciably. One result could be a reduced average term of borrowing to reduce borrowing costs or respond to reduced demand for longer term debt which would increase refinancing and floating rate risk. There could also be pressure to increase foreign exchange or counterparty credit exposures in order to reduce costs. The overall assessment of this risk is high.		The OFA undertakes its borrowing strategically to reduce the effects of forecasted events. The OFA can also engage third party experts to provide advice on how to reduce any adverse events that may have an impact on the borrowing program.
Financial market risk Primary Accountability: Risk Control Division	Higher-than- forecast borrowing requirement and/or interest rates, resulting in higher annual interest-on-debt (IOD) charges. Financial loss attributable to changes in interest rates, credit spreads, foreign exchange and liquidity risk.	MEDIUM Higher-than- forecast borrowing requirement and/or interest rates is given a medium likelihood due the historical frequency of interest rate changes, and the current medium-term forecast of provincial borrowing requirements.	HIGH The size of the province's annual borrowing requirement creates a high degree of sensitivity to market conditions, especially interest rates. IOD has generally produced cost savings compared to budget forecasts due to cost effective debt management, as well as interest rates that have been trending down for about 35 years. This experience may not be expected to continue, so financial market risk is assessed as being high. In the 2016 Budget, it was estimated that a one percentage point increase in interest	HIGH	Sound and effective risk management infrastructure, including policies, procedures, risk management reporting, and Information Technology (IT) systems. 			rates would have impacted IOD by approximately $350 million for 2016–17.		of 35 per cent. Maximum loss policy on IOD of three per cent of budgeted IOD. The OFA has reduced the sensitivity of IOD to interest rates by extending the term of recent borrowings. It also maintains exposure to foreign currency at levels far below the five per cent limit. While the policy limit for net interest rate resetting exposure is 35 per cent, the annual debt management plan sets out ranges that are usually considerably lower thus further limiting the risk.
Inability to complete the borrowing program due to market breakdown or loss of faith in the Province's ability to repay debt Primary Accountability: Capital Markets Division	Unable to achieve the borrowing program target of a particular fiscal year.	LOW The likelihood of not completing the borrowing program is low and would be based on a major market disruption or a major adverse credit situation at the Province. Both events are considered to have a low likelihood.	EXTREMELY HIGH The consequences of a major market disruption or a major adverse credit situation at the Province would obviously be extremely high, and thus overall risk is high.	HIGH	The OFA continually monitors demand for its bonds and has a strong relationship with its financial dealers. The OFA is aware, through external forecasts, Ministry of Finance advice, and its own analysis of bond markets, of the faith investors place in its bond offerings. The Capital Markets Division employs financial strategies, to reduce the effects of forecasted events. The OFA can also engage third party experts to provide advice on how to reduce any adverse events that may have an impact on the borrowing program. The OFA has very well established relationships with the credit ratings agencies. The OFA has regular meetings with the agencies, responds promptly to request for information, and facilitates participation of more specialized or senior government officials as required.

Risk of credit rating downgrade Primary Accountability: Risk Control Division	Risk that a credit rating downgrade from a major credit rating agency results in increased costs to borrowing program and/or reduced market access.	MEDIUM The likelihood of a credit rating downgrade is medium. The OFA has regular meetings with the agencies, and is regularly advised of rating agency concerns.	HIGH A credit rating downgrade, could reduce the pool of investors able to buy Government of Ontario bonds. As a worst-case, investors might be forced to sell, creating competition for our primary distribution, therefore resulting in a high impact for the Province. Note: This risk is assessed as high. The best mitigating strategy, reducing the size of the provincial deficit, is not a variable that is under the control of the OFA.	HIGH	Maintain close relationships and ongoing dialogue with credit rating agencies to keep them informed of the Province's financial status priorities, and initiatives. Diversify funding sources. Increase investor relations activities. Ensure that decision-makers at Queen's Park continue to be mindful of the serious consequences of the Province not meeting or beating its deficit targets.
Credit Risk Primary Accountability: Risk Control Division	Risk that a counterparty does not meet, or defaults, on its obligations to the Province.	LOW The size of Ontario's borrowing program requires the OFA to be open to borrowing opportunities in a variety of currencies. As the OFA has opted to keep currency risk at very low levels, this requires that hedging transactions be entered into with bank counterparties, creating credit risk. A bank default is considered to be a low probability event.	HIGH A bank default would be a high impact event, leading to an overall medium assessment.	MEDIUM	Ensure compliance with a sound and effective credit risk management infrastructure, including: an overarching credit risk policy that is reviewed and approved by the OFA Board on an annual basis, transacting with highly rated counterparties, limiting credit exposure concentration, and ongoing monitoring of key indicators of credit and market conditions. The Province will continue to enter into collateralized swap agreements with more of its swap counterparties to limit its credit risk. Such agreements allow the Province to cap its credit risk by requiring counterparties to post collateral when marked-to-market exposures exceed specific thresholds.

Monthly meetings, and as needed, with OPG to monitor and report on financial performance and updated projections versus plan, as well as monitoring of policy, accounting and regulatory issues that may have fiscal implications upon consolidation of OPG and Hydro One in Public Accounts.
Operational, including systems, internal control and reputation risks Primary Accountability: Strategic Corporate Services Division	Risk from inadequate or failed internal processes and IT systems or from external events. The possibility that internal controls may not safeguard assets or prevent errors or fraud. The risk that negative publicity about the OFA's business practices may lead to financial or reputation costs or litigation.	LOW The likelihood of this risk is deemed low. The OFA makes extensive use of information technology as an offset to staffing constraints. This dependence gives rise to the risk that IT systems may be poorly specified, operate incorrectly, or that the use of combinations of systems may have unintended consequences.	HIGH The financial impact of such risks could be compounded by harm to the OFA's reputation, therefore its impact is deemed high. This risk, reduced by the mitigating strategy, is assessed as medium.	MEDIUM	Maintain state-of-the-art IT systems, conduct daily back up, frequent update and testing of BCP involving remote desktop and co-locate. Appropriate documentation and timely reporting; update financial controls based on best practices; continued involvement of Internal Audit in developing new functions and reviewing existing financial policies; ensure oversight of service providers. As part of its annual audit, the Office of the Auditor General issues recommendations on areas where they feel internal controls can be tightened. Monitor print media to identify OFA-specific issues to protect OFA's reputation. Centralized external communication strategy. Early involvement of legal counsel.

Consistent internal monitoring ensures a medium impact for a low overall risk assessment.		Continue to comply with selection criteria and contract management requirements in OFA procurement policy
Low investment returns or inadequate investment controls on nuclear funds. Primary Accountability: Capital Markets Division	If funds are not properly invested or general financial market returns are low or negative, substantial contributions could be required by one or both of the Province and OPG. In addition, the Province's reputation may be damaged if controls or investment policies deviate from industry best practices.	MEDIUM Prolonged poorer than targeted performance of the nuclear funds over the medium-term is given a medium likelihood. The nuclear funds have a very long time horizon and would be expected to have poor returns over some time periods but are required to earn real returns in excess of 3.25 per cent in the long run. The funds have exceeded the 3.25 per cent annualised real return benchmark on average since their inception in 2003, but there is some risk that cumulative average annualised returns may be inadequate in future or that the costs of decommissioning and used fuel disposal could well exceed current projections. Returns will be driven to a large extent by asset allocation and general investment returns in financial markets -- e.g., prolonged poor performance in equity returns or a general decline in the financial markets could be a driver of poor performance.	HIGH The financial impact of poor performance could be quite substantial and is rated high given the size of the funds, and could result in substantial unexpected contributions from one or both of the Province and OPG. The overall risk assessment is high. Given the current size of the funds, a one percentage point decline in annual performance would equate to $170 million in reduced value for the funds, which could affect future funding requirements. Such loss, however, will not translate dollar-to-dollar on the Province's annual statement of operations at consolidation, as the Province's revenue recognition related to the nuclear funds is based on historical cost, not fair value, and some of the impact is also mitigated by OPG's regulatory accounts for the funds related to the Bruce stations, under the Province's current accounting standards.	HIGH	The funds are diversified across asset classes and managers to reduce overall risk. Further diversification is being achieved as the funds move into alternative investments. The funds are also long-lived, and can be adjusted and returns recover over the long term, which result in the recovery of past Provincial contributions to cover investment return shortfalls, if any. In addition, a Statement of Investment Policies and Procedures (SIPP) and Statement of Investment Risk Policies (SIRP) are in place which outline basic policies which to a large extent address many of the risk factors. An extensive asset-liability study is undertaken every five years to attempt to optimize the asset allocation to meet the funds objectives to meet the cost requirements. Significant progress has been made in developing a comprehensive risk management framework which is expected to be implemented in 2017. In addition, the funds are closely monitored up to the respective Board levels by both the OFA and OPG including, for the OFA, by the ONFA IC. Unfortunately, the risk of sub-par returns cannot be entirely eliminated as it will be largely driven by the future market developments. Decommissioning and waste disposal costs and liability risk surprises are largely mitigated by the quinquennial ONFA Reference Plan update. The contribution schedules can be adjusted following a reference plan update to allow for

The funds are audited on a regular basis which reduces the potential for fraud or other control problems. Staff monitor the funds very closely and are looking for irregularities. In addition, the funds are monitored up to the respective Board levels by both the OFA and OPG. The internal auditors of both OPG and the OFA are also proactive in examining control issues. The funds rely largely on external managers, and efforts are made to select highly professional managers who follow investment industry best practices.
Default on Loans to Public Bodies Primary Accountability: Corporate & Electricity Finance Division	Risk of default by public bodies on OFA loans	LOW Although the OFA has restructured or provided a loan deferral in the past, this has been relatively rare, so an "unlikely" scenario (less than 20 per cent probability) is reasonable, and its likelihood is rated as low.	LOW Impact of a default may be "noticeable" and public, but loan write-downs to public bodies that are consolidated on the Province's financial statements would likely not create a fiscal impact, and, therefore, its impact is deemed low resulting in an overall low risk assessment.	LOW	Prior due diligence and analysis of debt repayment ability of public bodies on OFA loans. Ensure grant intercept mechanisms continue to be included in loan agreements. Early detection through loan monitoring by line ministry and restructuring of loan repayment terms.
Default on Guarantees under the Aboriginal Loan Guarantee Program (ALGP) Primary Accountability: Corporate & Electricity Finance Division	In the event of a call on an ALGP guarantee arising from a default on the underlying loan, the fiscal impact would be recorded in the fiscal year in which the claim was paid.	LOW Debt service reserve account, ongoing monitoring, bank account controls are in place to mitigate risk of default.	LOW Any default would have a negative fiscal impact on the Province in the year in which the Province paid a claim pursuant to the guarantee. As guarantees are limited to a maximum of $50 million (unless Treasury Board approves an exception), and the average is smaller, the impact is small in the Provincial context. However, there may be a reputational impact for the Province/OFA as well.	LOW	Ongoing monitoring of approved loan guarantees, including project performance and compliance with loan and guarantee agreements.

Risk Element or Classification	Identification of Risk / Risk Description	Likelihood and Rationale	Impact and Rationale	Overall Assessment of Risk Element	Mitigation Strategy
Increased borrowing to fund loans to public bodies Primary Accountability: Corporate & Electricity Finance Division	Risk of unexpected loans that were not included in the OFA Annual Borrowing and On-Lending Plan.	LOW Over the past five years, only one unanticipated non-school board loan caused the OFA to breach its loan contingency reserve. An "unlikely" rating of less than 20 per cent probability of occurrence is, therefore, prudent, resulting in a low likelihood.	LOW In the overall borrowing plan, any unexpected loans would likely not have a "noticeable" effect, as most incremental borrowing is not material in the context of the whole borrowing program and therefore can usually be accommodated. This results in a low impact and a low overall risk assessment.	LOW	Ensure there exists an unassigned contingency equal to 10 per cent of forecasted loans to public bodies. Push off less urgent loans for execution in the following fiscal year. For OLG and LCBO, request business updates from Regulatory Agency Oversight Division (RAOD) to identify potential borrowing requirements (e.g. for site expansion); include estimates in Borrowing and On-lending Plan. Where a policy decision is taken requiring the OFA to provide funding for a strategic project, facilitate private sector financing, especially if interest cost savings are only deemed to be minimal.
Government cost constraints Primary Accountability: Finance and Treasury Division	Cost constraints may limit the OFA's ability to provide services in a timely manner.	MEDIUM While good budgeting process and budget to actual comparison exists, the OFA is not insulated against budgetary constraints. The likelihood is deemed medium.	HIGH If budgetary constraints are severe enough the delivery of core services will be impacted justifying a high impact and high overall risk assessment.	HIGH	Timely budget preparation in accordance with PRRT requirements. The budget preparation process is aimed at allocating resources according to priorities. Detailed planning and monitoring to meet priorities within cost constrained environment. Comparison on a quarterly basis between budget and actual to ensure that priorities are being met within approved expenditures. Effective financial management on a year by year basis that ensures minimal variances between budget and actual. The OFA also retains its surplus which can act as a source of funds to meet non salary related expenses upon approval from the Ministry of Finance.
Risk Category: WORKFORCE RISK AREA: Workforce: Operational Workforce Risks.

Risk Element or Classification	Identification of Risk / Risk Description	Likelihood and Rationale	Impact and Rationale	Overall Assessment of Risk Element	Mitigation Strategy
Employee Fraud Primary Accountability: Finance and Treasury Division	Risk that losses will be incurred because an employee is dishonest.	LOW The likelihood is low due to stringent internal controls and systems that cannot be easily circumvented.	MEDIUM The impact is deemed to be medium resulting in an overall low risk assessment.	LOW	Continue to communicate code of values and measures for disclosing wrongdoing to OFA staff. Strong system of internal controls, including segregation of duties, which are regularly reviewed by internal auditors as well as the Office of the Auditor General. While no material issues have been identified to date from these audits that essentially cover the full fiscal year, all audit recommendations have been implemented. Detailed and timely exception reporting with managerial oversight.
Human Resource Risk Primary Accountability: Each Hiring Division, with support from the Strategic Corporate Services Division	Risk that highly trained and specialized staff will not be available due to resignations, retirements, turnover, inability to hire, lack of skills, illness, etc.	MEDIUM The likelihood is deemed medium. The issue has gained traction due to the disparity between pay scales in other agencies and pension funds compared to their OFA counterparts. As a result, overall, the pool of applicants to positions at the OFA has diminished over the past few years. Although most positions have adequate backup and succession planning, there are some areas within the OFA that are tightly staffed and some positions are highly specialized which creates vulnerability. In addition, compensation constraints have limited the ability to adequately replace staff externally at comparable experience and skill levels.	EXTREMELY HIGH The impact is deemed extremely high resulting in an overall high risk assessment.	HIGH	Hire qualified staff; develop and implement staff retention strategies with assistance from the OFA Board and Human Resources Committee, provide support and training, where feasible provide competitive salary and benefits, foster a good and efficient working environment, set out performance plans and monitor, recognize and value achievements, good communications and teamwork, and implement employee engagement strategies. Offer results-based pay for performance, and a comprehensive and flexible benefits package. Maintain unique compensation structure for A/XOFA positions. At the end of 2016, consistent with OPS compensation, salary increases occurred for certain OFA employees, and the OPS has announced a restructuring of its non-bargaining and management compensation to be implemented over a four-year period. It is too early to tell whether these changes are sufficient to reverse the recent trend of disappointing responses to positions advertised externally and an inability to attract qualified candidates for positions in the A/XOFA classification and others including those requiring accounting designations and specialized formal education in financial engineering and information technology or investment and corporate finance experience.

Risk Category: INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY & INFRASTRUCTURE RISK AREA: Information and Information Technology (I & IT): The risk that information produced or used (e.g., performance data) is incomplete, out-of-date, inaccurate, irrelevant or inadequately protected from inappropriate disclosure. Risk that information or other technology (e.g., architecture, hardware, software) does not support business requirements, and/or does not support availability, access, integrity, relevance and security of data. Includes business continuity risk. Risk related to information or technology (e.g. upgrading or replacing of IT systems, etc.) Should include privacy and security risks.
Privacy and security Primary Accountability: Strategic Corporate Services Division	Risk related to the agency's handling of sensitive/ confidential information on behalf of the government Potential compromise of confidential information or personal data through identity theft, or unauthorized electronic or physical access of information	LOW The risk is considered low, as management ensures that staff are cognizant of the importance of information security. Critical production systems are routinely run out of the DR Site in order to verify the system operates properly in the BCP environment. Furthermore, SCSD maintains the technical infrastructure to support the OFA decentralized recovery plan. This includes mobile devices and remote access services. Periodic drills are held to ensure that staff are able to use the OFA's BCP infrastructure in a productive manner.
Procurement Primary Accountability: Strategic Corporate Services Division	The procurement process has intensified in the past year causing significant project delays. The workload required to manage the process has not been offset with additional resources, annual budgeting has been impacted as projects timelines are difficult to determine and the organization is challenged to keep pace with changes in technology.	MEDIUM The likelihood is deemed medium. The OFA operates within the government procurement framework, adapted to its own unique requirements. The requirement to adhere to complex public sector procurement rules, as set out in the OFA's Procurement Policy has the potential of slowing down urgently needed IT infrastructure, creating a degree of risk. Some streamlining of the process has been carried out, reducing the assessed risk to medium.	MEDIUM The impact is deemed medium, resulting in a medium overall risk assessment	MEDIUM	Standardized approval forms and RFX (Request for Information, Proposal or Quotation) precedent templates streamline the procurement process. Establishing Service Level Agreements within the organization to ensure consistent timelines for document review and approvals will help ensure project deadlines are achieved. When project and procurement plans are hindered by lengthy standard procurement process, priorities will be revisited. In some circumstances, CEO approval of an exemption or a different process may be requested, if available.

Economic Conditions

The economic outlook for Ontario as described below is based on the average private sector view as of January 2017. As with all projections, there are positive and negative risks to the outlook. The most significant immediate risks to the outlook are rising interest rates and uncertainty regarding future U.S. economic policy. For business planning purposes, the OFA recognizes that it may confront increased demands to provide financing and other services.

Ontario's economy continues to grow in an uncertain global economic environment. Ontario real GDP increased 2.5 per cent in 2015. Private-sector forecasters, on average, estimate Ontario real GDP will grow by 2.6 per cent in 2016, 2.3 per cent in 2017, 2.2 per cent in 2018 and 2.0 per cent in 2019. The economic outlook is influenced by external factors, such as U.S. economic growth, oil prices and the Canadian dollar. Steady growth in the U.S. economy, along with the ongoing impacts of a more competitive Canadian dollar and low oil prices, continues to support Ontario's economic growth. Ontario's economy is expected to strengthen as growth broadens across major sectors of the economy, including household spending and exports. The recent increase in interest rates and the uncertainty tied to U.S. trade policy represents a downside risk to the Ontario economic outlook.

The United States is Ontario's largest trading partner, accounting for 80 per cent of the Province's international merchandise exports in 2015. Economic growth in the U.S. strengthened to 2.6 per cent in 2015 after rising by 2.4 per cent in 2014. According to the January 2017 Blue Chip consensus outlook, the U.S. economy is expected to grow by 1.6 per cent in 2016, 2.3 per cent in 2017 and 2.4 per cent in 2018.

The price of WTI (West Texas Intermediate) crude oil fell by over 70 per cent from its June 2014 peak of $108 US per barrel to below $30 US per barrel in early 2016, a reflection of strong supply and weaker global demand. WTI oil prices averaged $43 US per barrel in 2016, down from $49 US per barrel in 2015.The recent agreement between the Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) and other oil producers to reduce output has led to a rise in the price of oil. The current private-sector forecast average for the WTI price of oil is $54 US in 2017 – well below levels recorded over the 2010-14 period.

Sharply lower oil prices and diverging monetary policy between Canada and the United States contributed to a depreciation of the Canadian dollar to an average of 78.2 cents US in 2015, down from 90.5 cents US in 2014. The Canadian dollar declined further in 2016, averaging 75.4 cents US. On average, private-sector forecasters expect the Canadian dollar will average 74.5 cents US in 2017.

Ontario`s housing market continued to strengthen in 2016 alongside solid increases in the number of households and incomes. Sales of existing homes and resale prices rose 9.4 per cent and 15 per cent, respectively in 2016. Ontario housing starts also increased in 2016. Private-sector economists expect a soft landing in the Ontario housing market. Home resales and prices are projected to stabilize over the next few years as gradually rising interest rates, historically high valuations and mortgage debt temper healthy demographic-related demand.

There are risks surrounding the housing market outlook. Home price gains in Ontario have outstripped incomes in recent years, fuelling mortgage debt accumulation. As a result, affordability in Ontario's housing market has eroded. Despite historically low mortgage rates, monthly carrying costs are elevated relative to long-term trends. High levels of debt combined with elevated resale prices leave Ontario households potentially vulnerable in the event of an adverse economic shock.

Financial Markets

Moderate economic growth and headline inflation still operating below the 2 per cent target has prompted the Bank of Canada to hold the target overnight rate at 0.5 per cent since mid-2015. For the most part, private-sector economists do not expect the Bank of Canada to raise rates until mid-2018.

In the United States, the Federal Reserve raised rates at its December 2016 meeting, citing a strengthening labour market and rising inflation. It is expected that the Fed will continue to raise rates, though at a gradual pace. On the other hand, monetary policy in the European Union remains highly accommodative. In January, the European Central Bank announced that interest rates will remain unchanged and are expected to stay "at present or lower levels for an extended period of time, and well past the horizon of the net asset purchases."

In Canada, while long-term interest rates are expected to remain at historically low levels, they are projected to gradually rise over the next few years. The expected onset of interest rate hikes by the U.S. Federal Reserve combined with the result of the recent U.S. election has already put upward pressure on Canadian bond yields.

According to private-sector forecasters, the Canadian three-month Treasury bill rate is expected to rise gradually from an average of 0.5 per cent in 2016 to 0.6 per cent in 2017, and 0.9 per cent in 2018. According to the January 2017 Blue Chip consensus outlook, the three-month U.S. Treasury bill rate is expected to average 0.9 per cent in 2017, before rising to 1.6 per cent in 2018.

The 10-year Government of Canada bond rate averaged 1.3 per cent in 2016. According to private-sector forecasters, the 10-year Government of Canada bond rate is projected to rise, averaging 1.9 per cent in 2017 and 2.4 per cent in 2018. According to the Blue Chip consensus outlook, the yield on 10-year U.S. government notes is expected to average 2.7 per cent in 2017 and 3.1 per cent in 2018, up from 1.8 per cent in 2016.

Government Initiatives

Government policy developments and financial performance in Ontario's electricity sector, including OPG, Hydro One and municipal electricity utilities, may affect borrowing requirements through the cash flows to OEFC. In particular, the Province’s ongoing effort to broaden ownership of Hydro One will result in large cashflow impacts for OEFC.

The OFA will continue to monitor the Green Bond market to identify future issuance opportunities under its Green Bond Program. The OFA will lead the implementation of the Trillium Trust, for dedicated net revenue gains from qualifying asset sales to help fund infrastructure investments across Ontario. The OFA will also provide financial support to the Ministry of Environment and Climate Change in respect of the government’s Cap and Trade program, as well as in the establishment of a Greenhouse Gas Reduction Account and a climate change agency.

The OFA will also provide financial analysis and advice in support of the Province’s commitment to unlock the value of designated assets, and will continue to work with Infrastructure Ontario and other areas of government on optimizing certain holdings in the Province’s real estate portfolio, in particular, the sale of OPG headquarter properties, as well as Seaton and Lakeview lands.

Regulatory Compliance

The OFA will ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Province in its debt securities offerings related documents, periodic published reports (including the Ontario Budget, the quarterly finances, the Public Accounts of the Province of Ontario and the annual fall Economic Outlook and Fiscal Review) and other disclosures filed or submitted under applicable securities legislation, rules and regulations in the United States, the United Kingdom, Luxembourg, Australia, Switzerland and Singapore is filed on time and otherwise in accordance with those requirements. Regulatory requirements will be monitored continually to ensure the Province has ongoing access to these markets.

PERFORMANCE MEASURES

1. Execute the Province's borrowing program

Objective	Performance Measure	Target
a. Complete the borrowing program while ensuring that the Province always has adequate liquidity.	Sufficient liquidity on hand at all times to ensure the Province can meet its financial obligations. Ensure borrowing is completed with minimal negative impact on the Province's reputation in the financial markets.	Borrowing program completed and cash requirements met on a timely basis.
b. Manage the borrowing program in a sound and cost-effective manner.	The performance measurement of the timing of the long-term fixed-rate borrowing program is expressed as a percentile ranking of the all-in borrowing cost against a statistical distribution of benchmark interest rates observed throughout the year.	Achieve a percentile ranking of 45 to 55 for regular borrowings and 50 to 75 for strategic foreign borrowings. All results are validated by the Ontario Internal Audit Division.
c. Ontario Savings Bonds (OSB) Program	Fund borrowing requirements at cost-effective rates for a broadly based retail program which allows individual investors in Ontario to participate in providing funding to the Province. OSBs reduce other borrowing requirements which, in turn, reduces pressure on new issue spreads.	Ensure the program is cost-effective in the context of a retail borrowing program. Maintain and review Service Level Agreement between OFA and Fiscal Agent on an annual basis.

2. Manage the Province's debt, investments, ONFA and financial risk, and contribute to the development of the Province's fiscal plan and outlook

a. Manage outstanding debt in a sound and cost-effective manner.	Dollar savings of debt management transactions on a realized and mark-to-market basis. This methodology utilizes a risk-budgeting approach adopted by some large pension plan investment managers.	Achieve first quartile performance relative to a risk budget. Results are validated by the Ontario Internal Audit Division.
b. Preservation of capital on money market investments. Manage liquid reserves in a sound	Credit losses on liquid reserves and investment portfolio of funds managed for other government bodies. and cost-effective manner.	instruments compared to an average 61-day portfolio benchmark. This benchmarking process is consistent with private sector industry practice. Maintain liquid reserve levels within a pre-determined range and provide an explanation to the Board of any deviations from that range.	Results are validated by the Ontario Internal Audit Division.
c. With OPG, prudently manage the Used Fuel and Decommissioning Segregated Funds' investments.	Ensure investment management is consistent with ONFA objectives.	Manage, monitor, and analyze the performance of the funds and the performance of investment managers. Continue refinement of investment strategies, risk management, policies and procedures. Meet the real return objective of 3.25 per cent, and exceed the market benchmark over the life of the funds.
d. Prudently manage funds for government bodies through the centralized/ segregated fund initiative.	Reduce investment costs. Ensure public bodies' funds are managed consistently with investment industry best practices.	Establish and continue to efficiently manage segregated funds with government public bodies that meet client requirements.
e. Minimize financial risk by ensuring risk exposures and program losses remain within approved exposure and loss limits.	Foreign exchange exposure. Net interest rate resetting exposure. Interest on debt losses as a percent of budgeted interest on debt. Credit exposures relative to approved policy limits.	Foreign exchange exposure not to be above five per cent of total debt. The 2016–17 Financing, Debt and Electricity Management Plan had an approved range of 0 per cent to 2.5 per cent in Foreign Exchange Exposure. Currently, the exposure of 0.3 per cent of debt. The 2017–18 Financing, Debt and Electricity Management Plan will have a recommended range subject to Board of Directors approval later in the year. Net interest rate resetting exposure not to be above 35 per cent of total debt. The 2016–17 Financing, Debt and Electricity Management Plan had an approved range of 10.4 per cent to 14.4 per cent in Ontario's

		Gross Floating Rate exposure, with a target of 12.4 per cent. Interest Rate Resetting Exposure is expected to be 11.2 per cent as of March 31, 2017, with an expected range of 9.2 per cent to 13.2 per cent. A new range and target for Floating Rate and Interest Rate Resetting Exposure will be approved in the 2017–18 Financing, Debt and Electricity Management Plan. IOD losses not to exceed three per cent of budgeted Interest on Debt. Credit exposures to be kept within approved policy limits.
f. Use risk control policies to ensure programs are managed in a prudent and cost-effective manner.	Risk management policies are kept current with industry best practices. Exposure limits established in the policies are reasonable and prudent. Exposures are monitored and reported in a timely and accurate manner.	Policies for market risk, credit risk, use of derivatives and other financial instruments and risk management reporting are to be reviewed annually, and amendments or decisions not to amend are to be approved by the Board of Directors. Review limits on net interest rate resetting, foreign exchange and credit exposures, and credit concentration. Calculate and report exposures daily. Perform monthly stress testing on the Province's market and credit exposures.
g. Measure and report performance of the Province's borrowing, debt management, and investment programs.	Timeliness and accuracy of performance measurement and reporting.	Report on borrowing and debt management performance daily, and on the money market program performance monthly.

Objective	Performance Measure	Target

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Ontario Financing Authority (OFA) is a Provincial Crown agency established by the Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993 (CIPA). The initiatives in the OFA's 2017–20 Business Plan will focus on achieving the objectives set out in CIPA and the objectives set out in the OFA's mandate letter from the Minister of Finance, dated October 1, 2016 over a three year planning horizon, as well as reporting on results of the previous year's Business Plan. Initiatives for the 2017–20 Plan include:

1. Executing the Province's borrowing program through development and implementation of the annual Financing, Debt & Electricity Management Plan. The Plan will provide critical details on the borrowing program, including term structure and diversification objectives, as well as investor relations, liquidity, floating rate, foreign exchange and credit risk strategies, and also outline major risks and risk mitigation strategies.

2. Managing the Province's debt, investments, Ontario Nuclear Funds Agreement (ONFA) and financial risk, and contributing to the development of the Province's fiscal plan and outlook by working to generate savings from liquid reserve investment activities within prudent risk exposure limits, as well as centralized/segregated investment funds for various public bodies. This also involves managing ONFA-related investments, working together with Ontario Power Generation Inc. (OPG), to ensure interest rate, foreign exchange and credit exposures are within approved policy limits, as well as contributing to the Province's annual Budget, Fall Statement and quarterly finances.

3. Managing key financial relationships by building and maintaining connections with investors in both existing and new markets, as well as relationships with banks, financial service providers and investment dealers. This includes providing Investor Relations information products and updates on the OFA website. Maintaining close relationships and ongoing dialogue with credit rating agencies to keep them informed of the Province's financial status, priorities, and initiatives, and complete regulatory filings with the U.S. Securities & Exchange Commission (SEC) and any other applicable securities regulators.

4. Providing cash management and banking services on a centralized basis to all ministries and settlement, payment, financial and reporting, loan administration, information technology and client services to the Treasury Program by implementing effective treasury solutions for the Province and client agencies. Ensuring that the Province has sufficient cash available at all times to meet its financial obligations, and continuing to work with the other ministries to advise on banking and cash management components of government initiatives as well as on changes to accounting standards and their impact on the Province's debt and interest on debt.

5. Advising on and implementing corporate and electricity finance projects and policies by providing analysis and advice on cost-effective borrowing, investing and risk management by public bodies and other financing proposals, and on business cases for business supports. This includes providing advice on transactions that may affect the indebtedness or contingent liabilities of Ontario, including provincial guarantees. In addition, undertaking policy and financial analysis, modelling support and implementation, as required, for electricity financings, policies and initiatives, including ONFA, which could have fiscal, financial and/or economic implications for the Province and/or Ontario Electricity Financial Corporation (OEFC).

6. Ensuring the successful activation of OFA's decentralized Business Continuity Plan (BCP) by reviewing and updating the Corporate BCP Framework and Business Unit plans, as well as conducting corporate-wide BCP test exercises.

OVERVIEW OF 2016–17 RESULTS (TO DATE)

The Ontario Financing Authority (OFA) accomplished the following in support of the overall strategic directions outlined in the 2016–19 Business Plan[1]:

1. Execute the Province's borrowing program

- As of January 31, 2017, the OFA had completed $20.3 billion (85 per cent) of its $23.8 billion (as per the 2016 Fall Economic Statement) long-term borrowing requirement for 2016–17. Approximately 82 per cent of long-term borrowing was completed in the Canadian dollar market.
- The 2016–17 Ontario Savings Bond (OSB) campaign raised $127 million.
- The objectives set out in the 2016–17 Financing, Debt & Electricity Management Plan, approved by the OFA Board, are on track and expected to be successfully completed by fiscal year end.
- Sufficient liquidity has been available over the fiscal year to ensure the Province has been able to meet all of its financial commitments and payment obligations, largely reflecting the long-term borrowing program being consistently ahead of pace.
- Successfully executed five carve-out deals[2] to-date for the 2016–17 fiscal year (as of January 31, 2017). Held in-depth discussions with individual carve-out investors.
- On January 26, 2017, the Province successfully priced an $800 million re-opening of its January 2023 Global Green Bond. The six year bond will help fund twelve green infrastructure projects, with an emphasis on clean transportation and energy efficiency and conservation. The transaction represents the third and largest ever Green Bond offering from the Province of Ontario.
- Provided expertise in accounting for Green Bonds, and set up financial accounting and reporting for these investment vehicles that met the requirements outlined by the investor community. Developed and released a second Green Bond newsletter on December 12, 2016, updating investors on the second Green Bond's use of proceeds, project selection process, as well as, providing project updates on the eight projects selected.
- Analyzed the scope and impact of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (MiFID) II and the Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive (BRRD) on the Province and implemented required documentation changes to ensure the Province's continued, uninterrupted access to European capital markets.

2. Manage the Province's debt, investments, ONFA and financial risk, and contribute to the development of the Province's fiscal plan and outlook

- As of January 24, 2017, through the timing of debt issues and related hedging, the cost of regular borrowing for the Province based on the traditional methodology translated to a percentile ranking of 58th percentile against a statistical distribution of benchmark interest rates. As such the percentile ranking for regular borrowings is outside the designated target band of 45 to 55 percentile. The OFA has introduced a more accurate and comprehensive performance measurement methodology based on the tenor of individual debt issues. Applying this methodology, the cost of regular borrowing for the Province for the same date translated to a percentile ranking of 53rd percentile, falling within the target band of 45 to 55 percentile. The cost of strategic foreign borrowing as of January 24, 2017 translated into a percentile ranking of 54th percentile falling within the designated target band for strategic foreign borrowings of 50 to 75 percentile. The new methodology is yet to be extended to cover strategic foreign borrowings. There were no borrowings on behalf of OEFC.

[2] In order to accommodate large bond purchases by a single buyer, a large order procedure was implemented on October 14, 2011. The "carve-out" procedure allows for a portion of a bond issue to be sold to a single buyer.

- The money market performance was $ $21.6 million or thirteen basis points (bps) better than the benchmark as of December 31, 2016. The performance is eleven bps better than the upper limit of the target band which is plus or minus two bps of the benchmark.
- The interest-on-debt (IOD) expense for 2016–17 is currently forecast at $11,375 million, $381 million lower than forecast in the 2016 Budget, primarily as a result of lower than forecast interest rates.
- Funds were managed on a discretionary basis on behalf of the Pension Benefits Guarantee Fund, Deposit Insurance Corporation of Ontario, Ontario Trillium Foundation, Infrastructure Ontario, and a commitment fund for the Ontario Capital Growth Corporation.
- Funds were managed on a non-discretionary basis on behalf of the Ontario Immigrant Investor Corporation and Northern Ontario Heritage Fund.
- With OPG, the Used Fuel and Decommissioning Segregated Funds' investments were managed under ONFA. The Funds have grown from $16.9 billion at January 1, 2015 to about $19.2 billion at September 30, 2016. As of November 30, 2016, the rate of return for the Used Fuel Fund for one year was 6.88 per cent compared to the market benchmark of 6.89 per cent and a target rate of return of 5.04 per cent. MANDATE AND GOVERNING LEGISLATION

The Ontario Financing Authority (OFA) is a Provincial Crown agency established by the Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993 (CIPA). CIPA sets out the objectives of the OFA. The OFA:

- conducts borrowing and investment for the Province of Ontario and manages the Provincial debt;
- provides cash management and other financial services for the Province;
- advises ministries, Crown agencies, and other public bodies on financial matters; and
- assists Crown agencies and other public bodies to borrow and invest money through external sources or through the OFA.

The OFA also provides a broad range of financial services to Ontario Electricity Financial Corporation (OEFC) and Ontario Infrastructure and Lands Corporation (Infrastructure Ontario or OILC).

The FAA also sets out certain financial powers which OFA employees exercise on behalf of the Minister of Finance to carry out the Province's borrowing, manage the Province's debt and invest its liquid reserves.

OVERVIEW OF CURRENT AND FUTURE PROGRAM AND ACTIVITIES AND IMPLEMENTATION PLAN: 2017–20

Activities will focus on supporting the following strategic directions:

1. Execute the Province's borrowing program

Overview

The OFA endeavours to ensure that borrowing by the Province and OEFC is cost-effective. Total long-term public borrowing is forecast at $23.3 billion in 2017–18 and $28.7 billion in 2018–19. This year's objectives may be challenging to implement due to the state of the global economy/market and the resource constraints within which the OFA is operating. Furthermore, borrowing blackouts can limit the amount of time in which the OFA can access the market. This may require borrowing in excess of $3 billion per month when these blackouts are not in effect in order to complete the annual borrowing requirement. Other challenges include:

- continued high amount of borrowing required for the Province, including the amount that will have to be undertaken outside Canada;
- competition in the markets from other large domestic and international borrowers;
- evolving regulatory requirements such as Basel III, Dodd-Frank and EMIR that continue to make hedging of foreign debt more expensive and a challenge to execute in the size required by the Province;
- potential challenges for Ontario's credit rating. A downgrade may result in borrowing costs increasing; and
- management of downgrading or failure of counterparties, and continued implementation of collateralized swaps to mitigate credit risk.

Implementation Plan

- Develop the annual Financing, Debt & Electricity Management Plans for OFA Board approval and transmission to the Minister. These plans provide detail on the borrowing program, including term structure and diversification objectives, as well as investor relations, liquidity, floating rate, foreign exchange and credit risk strategies, and also outline major risks and risk mitigation strategies.
- Meet the Province's funding requirements, anticipated to average about $25 billion annually for the business plan period, in a cost-effective and prudent manner.
- Manage the Ontario Savings Bond campaign.
- Continue to monitor the Green Bond market to identify future issuance opportunities under its Green Bond Program.

2. Manage the Province's debt, investments, ONFA and financial risk, and contribute to the development of the Province's fiscal plan and outlook

Overview

The OFA manages the debt and liquid reserve portfolios, as well as centralized/segregated investment funds, for various public bodies, and jointly manages the Ontario Nuclear Funds with OPG. Financial risks associated with capital market activities are mitigated by adhering to prudent risk management policies which minimize financial risk by ensuring exposures and losses remain within approved limits. Risk management policies and program exposure limits are approved by the OFA Board of Directors. The OFA also contributes interest on debt, borrowing and debt management objectives, and electricity sector fiscal impact projections to the Budget, Fall Statement and other quarterly financial updates.

Implementation Plan

- Generate savings from liquid reserve investment activities within prudent risk exposure limits, as well as centralized/segregated investment funds, for various public bodies. Manage ONFA-related investments, working together with OPG.
- Ensure interest rate, foreign exchange and credit exposures are within approved policy limits.
- Contribute to the Province's annual Budget, Fall Statement and quarterly finances, including the electricity sector outlook; advise on the potential impact of initiatives on interest on debt, borrowing objectives, credit ratings and financial markets' reactions. Continue playing an important role in the development of the Province's annual Budget and quarterly statements through the provision of timely and accurate financial information, and preparation of the Borrowing and Debt Management section of the Budget and Fall Statement.
- Continue with the implementation of the new methodology based on assessing individual debt issues by tenor, to measure the performance of the borrowing program.
- Continue to implement applicable changes as per financial and regulatory reform requirements including evolving effects from Basel III, EMIR and Dodd-Frank. These regulations are expected to continue to make the OFA's hedging process more complex. Hedging may also continue to become more expensive if proposals such as financial transaction taxes or mark-to-market derivatives taxes are legislated and implemented in Europe or the United States.

3. Manage key financial relationships

Overview

The OFA ensures investors and the financial community in Canada and abroad receive financial updates on a timely basis to make informed decisions about Province of Ontario debt securities. Investor Relations activities support borrowing program objectives by maintaining and broadening the Province's investor base. The OFA also ensures credit rating agencies understand government policies, budget, and fiscal performance, properly reflecting these factors in their reports and rating decisions.

The OFA manages the government's relationships with financial institutions, primarily the major Canadian and global banks, their investment dealer subsidiaries, and custodial and fiscal agents. This involves the acquisition and oversight of cost-effective products and services for the Province and certain Crown corporations.

Implementation Plan

- Support the Province's borrowing program by building and maintaining relationships with investors in existing and new markets. Provide Investor Relations information products, including updates to the OFA website, on a timely basis.

- Implement and maintain collateralized swap agreements with bank counterparties to limit potential financial losses as a result of a credit event.
- Manage changes in financial and regulatory reform, liaising with regulators and legal counsel, as required.

4. Provide services related to cash management, banking, settlement, payment and financial and reporting

Overview

The OFA provides centralized banking and cash management services to the Province. The effective provision of these services allows for the efficient delivery of provincial services and contributes towards minimizing interest on debt expenditures. Implementation Plan

- Continue to work with American Express and TD Merchant Services, the Province's card acquirer, to explore options for the continued acceptance of American Express cards via the acquirer's existing systems for Visa and MasterCard. The new arrangement would enable Amex cards to be used to obtain Provincial goods and services in a way that mitigates risk and increases efficiency for the Province.
- After the completion of a successful pilot, continue to work with the Ministry of Community and Social Services on the rollout of a reloadable payment card for unbanked benefit recipients under the Ontario Disability Support Program.

Progress is expected to proceed according to schedule and it is anticipated that the new system will be operational in 2017–18.
- Continue to work with the Ontario Pension Board, MOF Income Security and Pension Policy Division and TBS on the first phase of regularizing the management of various pension plans whose assets reside in the Consolidated Revenue Fund. The first phase is aimed at transferring the regulated portion of the assets of the Judges' Pension Plan to the IMCO generating annualized savings estimated to be $15 million.
- Work with the Office of the Provincial Controller and OPG to develop options to address the potential under PSAB for Public Accounts consolidation adjustment impacts from OPG and Hydro One results under the International Financial Reporting Standards.
- Provide timely and reliable net debt and total debt estimates for the 2017 Annual Budget and the Province's quarterly reports during the fiscal year including the Fall Economic Statement.

Risk Identification, Assessment, Mitigation Strategies
The following section identifies potential risks that could impact the entire organization in its ability to successfully deliver its programs and activities on behalf of the Province.

Risk Element or Classification	Identification of Risk / Risk Description	Likelihood and Rationale	Impact and Rationale	Overall Assessment of Risk Element	Mitigation Strategy
Risk Category: STRATEGIC RISK AREA: Strategic: Risks related to implementing (or not implementing) new policies or changes to existing policies (e.g., misalignment of agency policies with those of the OPS). The risk that strategies and policies will fail to achieve required/targeted results. The risk of failing to provide value for money or cost-effectiveness. This can include existing policies that may be affected by changes in external factors including the economy, technology and political environment.
Strategic/ Policy Risk Primary Accountability: Capital Markets Division	Strategies and policies fail to achieve required results. Prime examples are failing to meet the borrowing requirements and failures in implementing core risk management strategies.	LOW Past experience indicates that the likelihood of major strategic failures is relatively low as they cannot always be eliminated. There are elements of borrowing and risk management which are outside the Province's control which can negatively impact required results. For example, financial conditions could result in higher interest costs or interest rate risk than anticipated or refinancing risk in future years may be much higher than desired if investor demand for longer term bonds is substantially reduced.	EXTREMELY HIGH The financial consequences of strategic failures in borrowing or risk management strategies and associated policies can be extremely high, and the annual Financing, Debt & Electricity Management Plan outlines strategies which attempt to address the challenges, including contingencies for unexpected events. In addition, management monitors major market and policy developments throughout the year very closely and will develop and implement new strategies and policies if conditions warrant. Even though the likelihood of major strategic failures is low, the impact remains extremely high resulting in an overall high risk assessment.	HIGH	Strategic plans and policies to mitigate strategic and policy risk are initially developed and implemented in a thorough manner as outlined in the OFA's annual Financing, Debt & Electricity Management Plan ("the Plan"). This includes an analysis of risk factors and contingency plans. The Plan is approved by the respective Boards (OFA and OEFC) and receives input from Board members. Market conditions and policy developments are monitored on a continual basis throughout the year to identify new and emerging developments which could impact strategic and/or policy risks. Existing control strategies are modified as required to mitigate adverse developments. Procedures are in place to ensure that staff are aware of relevant policies. Policy violations are rare, and a robust control framework exists to identify violations quickly. Most violations would not have a large enough impact to threaten achieving required strategic results.

The impact of a one percentage point increase in yields was estimated to be $350 million for 2016–17. Although the OFA has been able to extend the borrowing term in recent years, interest rate risk will remain elevated for several years. Continuous communication with the Deputy Minister and Minister ensures that expectations for the Province are clearly understood. Commitments are made after thorough and careful analysis to ensure that resources and expertise are in place to meet those expectations. Close and continuous communication and meetings with relevant public bodies (e.g. Agencies) who use our services ensures that expectations and service requirements are clearly understood. In addition, formal service level agreements (e.g. investment management agreements) have been developed which clearly outline the services and benchmark performance standards.		Given the relatively unpredictable nature of market factors, ongoing monitoring of market and policy factors provides a level of risk mitigation. Continuous dialogue with stakeholders and regular reporting are also useful in keeping abreast of both expectations and performance. Emerging issues which may affect expectations are identified and are regularly reported to the Deputy/Chair as well as the Board (OFA and OEFC). This provides greater assurance that expectations will be met or managed through approved mitigation strategies. Meeting performance benchmarks for the Province and other public bodies also depends on adequate resources being available to maximize performance. This includes information systems services, and most importantly, staff. A highly educated and experienced workforce provides a higher likelihood that stakeholder expectations will be met. The OFA works to attract and retain highly qualified staff.
Public image Primary Accountability: Capital Markets Division	The risk that the OFA may damage its reputation with stakeholders and third party service providers. In addition,	HIGH The impact of image problems can be high which combined with a low likelihood results in an overall medium risk assessment. Strategies iii-v involve constant communication with external stakeholders. This feedback loop provides the OFA with a method of assessing the organization's public image. The OFA has a comprehensive procurement policy that ensures that its suppliers and service providers are selected in a fair manner. When appropriate, the OFA requires that service providers obtain security clearance. OFA contracts with service providers address confidentiality and contract precedents generally require approval before a contractor may use its association with the OFA for any purpose. All substantive contracts that Capital Markets enters into in the name of the OFA must be reviewed by the OFA Legal Branch. All substantive contracts that Capital Markets enters into in the name of the Province, must be reviewed by MOF Legal.
Quality of relationship with stakeholders Primary Accountability: Capital Markets Division	The risk that the OFA's stakeholder relationships are poorly managed.	LOW The likelihood of failure managing OFA's stakeholder relationships is low as the OFA strives to deal with all of its stakeholders in a fair, transparent and responsive manner. Should the strategies in the annual Investor Relations Plan fail to achieve the desired relationship levels, the OFA can choose to engage additional financial dealers or more senior Ministry of Finance representatives to participate in its investor outreach activities. Dealers are utilized in a fair and objective manner for bond issues. A syndicate evaluation is used to rank domestic dealers objectively, and commissions for domestic bond issues are based on this annual evaluation. Dealers thus know the OFA's service priorities and understand their bond issue allocations for the year. International issues also utilize dealers based on their level of service and strengths they bring to particular markets and issuance opportunities. The OFA continuously communicates with its dealers and also has regular meetings with them, and thus relationship issues tend to be dealt with quickly. Given the high importance of Ontario's credit ratings to its borrowing program, the OFA has very well established relationships with the credit ratings agencies. The OFA has regular meetings with the agencies, responds promptly to requests for information, and facilitates participation of more specialized or senior government officials as required.

Issues management: In addition to a monthly Capital Markets update letter, the CEO also reports on any issues or concerns quarterly to the Board and has regular meetings with the Chair. Division Heads/Directors report quarterly to the Board on their area's progress in achieving the objectives identified under the Annual Business Plan. The OFA's financial statements are prepared and presented on a quarterly basis to the ARMC and the Board. They are also shared with senior staff of the Office of the Auditor General. The OFA provides the interest-on-debt, debt and derivative information that is presented in the Public Accounts of the Province. The numbers and the process including the underlying internal controls are audited annually by the Office of the Auditor General. Up to now, no material issues have been identified as part of this audit. OFA prepares issues notes, and feeds into the Ministry's communications branch for issues management and to address contentious issues. The Ontario Internal Audit Division develops a three year audit plan for the OFA that is updated annually. Audits under this plan, as well as special reviews as and when required provide an overall comfort level. The ARMC conducts in camera sessions with internal audit, staff of the Office of the Auditor General and the OFA's Chief Financial and Risk Officer at each quarterly meeting during which they are free to candidly raise any concerns about overall risk and issues management issues at the OFA.

					To avoid financial risk resulting from an inability to function during an emergency, the OFA has a highly-developed and rehearsed response plan for emergencies, addressing key risks such as fire, terrorist attack, pandemic or other threat. The work of the OFA can be carried out with all staff working from home. The OFA also maintains a collocate site at a remote location that houses a continuously available, mirrored IT infrastructure. Staff are subject to randomly declared, OFA-wide, work-from-home drills at least annually. OIAD reviews and comments on business continuity test results.
Statutory requirements are met Primary Accountability: Legal Division	Risk of non-compliance with statutory requirements	LOW The likelihood of non-compliance is considered low because OFA staff have experience and awareness regarding legal compliance in relation to the performance of their jobs. While regulation in some areas (such as in capital markets and the banking and payment card industry) is complex and continues to evolve, program areas have ready access to legal advice.	HIGH Impact is considered high since failure to comply with a statutory requirement could negatively affect the reputation of the OFA and the Government. Also, violations relating to capital markets operations could have serious financial implications. Combined with a low likelihood, the resulting overall risk assessment is medium.	MEDIUM	Currently, the OFA and Ministry of Finance Legal Branches advise of statutory requirements and changes affecting OFA operations and also are available to advise on steps to effectively address any non-compliance. Information on legal requirements relating to Public Servants is distributed to staff using the Policy and Procedure Management system. Non-compliance with laws, regulations and directives is reported to the Legal Director, who reports it to the CEO and the Board of Directors. CEO/Board direct remedial action (which may include learning and development). Education is encouraged and Divisions budget for necessary learning.
Reliability of financial systems Primary Accountability: Finance and Treasury Division	The risk that the OFA's financial information and reporting system is not reliable or fails to meet quality standards.	LOW The review process that the OFA has established including audits by the Internal Audit Division and the Office of Auditor General of Ontario ensures that the likelihood of occurrence is low. MEDIUM	The OFA has well-established processes and procedures for monitoring and reporting on its financial performance to its ARMC and Board of Directors and to the ministry as well as the Office of the Treasury Board. OFA financials are prepared on a quarterly basis for discussion, and shared with the staff of the Office of the Auditor General and approval by the ARMC and Board of Directors. Staff of the Office of the Auditor General also audit, on an annual basis, the OFA's work on the Province's debt and interest on debt. This annual audit includes reviewing the underlying systems and internal controls. Up to now, no material issues have been identified and the OFA has implemented all recommendations arising from this audit. Changes to accounting pronouncements are also addressed during the quarterly discussions with the ARMC and the Office of the Auditor General. Annual budgets and audited financials are submitted to the Ministry as per TBS requirements. A further level of assurance exists as a result of the work carried out by the Ontario Internal Audit Division (OIAD). OIAD develops a 3 year audit plan with consultation from Division heads and all finding and recommendations are presented to the Audit and Risk Management Committee of the OFA Board. The impact of a one percentage point change in real GDP was estimated to be $845 million for 2014-15. The world economy is currently highly reliant on U.S. economic growth and would be at risk if that fades. Given that Ontario's borrowing requirements are already quite large, the impact would likely be high, meaning that interest costs could increase appreciably. One result could be a reduced average term of borrowing to reduce borrowing costs or respond to reduced demand for longer term debt which would increase refinancing and floating rate risk. There could also be pressure to increase foreign exchange or counterparty credit exposures in order to reduce costs. The overall assessment of this risk is high.		The OFA undertakes its borrowing strategically to reduce the effects of forecasted events. The OFA can also engage third party experts to provide advice on how to reduce any adverse events that may have an impact on the borrowing program.

MEDIUM Higher-than- forecast borrowing requirement and/or interest rates is given a medium likelihood due the historical frequency of interest rate changes, and the current medium-term forecast of provincial borrowing requirements.	HIGH The size of the province's annual borrowing requirement creates a high degree of sensitivity to market conditions, especially interest rates. IOD has generally produced cost savings compared to budget forecasts due to cost effective debt management, as well as interest rates that have been trending down for about 35 years. The OFA has reduced the sensitivity of IOD to interest rates by extending the term of recent borrowings. It also maintains exposure to foreign currency at levels far below the five per cent limit. While the policy limit for net interest rate resetting exposure is 35 per cent, the annual debt management plan sets out ranges that are usually considerably lower thus further limiting the risk.
Inability to complete the borrowing program due to market breakdown or loss of faith in the Province's ability to repay debt Primary Accountability: Capital Markets Division	Unable to achieve the borrowing program target of a particular fiscal year. Risk of credit rating downgrade Primary Accountability: Risk Control Division	Risk that a credit rating downgrade from a major credit rating agency results in increased costs to borrowing program and/or reduced market access.	MEDIUM The likelihood of a credit rating downgrade is medium. The OFA has regular meetings with the agencies, and is regularly advised of rating agency concerns.	HIGH A credit rating downgrade, could reduce the pool of investors able to buy Government of Ontario bonds. As a worst-case, investors might be forced to sell, creating competition for our primary distribution, therefore resulting in a high impact for the Province. Note: This risk is assessed as high. The best mitigating strategy, reducing the size of the provincial deficit, is not a variable that is under the control of the OFA.	HIGH	Maintain close relationships and ongoing dialogue with credit rating agencies to keep them informed of the Province's financial status priorities, and initiatives. Diversify funding sources. Increase investor relations activities. Ensure that decision-makers at Queen's Park continue to be mindful of the serious consequences of the Province not meeting or beating its deficit targets.
Credit Risk Primary Accountability: Risk Control Division	Risk that a counterparty does not meet, or defaults, on its obligations to the Province.	LOW The size of Ontario's borrowing program requires the OFA to be open to borrowing opportunities in a variety of currencies. As the OFA has opted to keep currency risk at very low levels, this requires that hedging transactions be entered into with bank counterparties, creating credit risk. A bank default is considered to be a low probability event.	HIGH A bank default would be a high impact event, leading to an overall medium assessment.	MEDIUM	Ensure compliance with a sound and effective credit risk management infrastructure, including: an overarching credit risk policy that is reviewed and approved by the OFA Board on an annual basis, transacting with highly rated counterparties, limiting credit exposure concentration, and ongoing monitoring of key indicators of credit and market conditions. The Province will continue to enter into collateralized swap agreements with more of its swap counterparties to limit its credit risk. Such agreements allow the Province to cap its credit risk by requiring counterparties to post collateral when marked-to-market exposures exceed specific thresholds.

The possibility that internal controls may not safeguard assets or prevent errors or fraud. The risk that negative publicity about the OFA's business practices may lead to financial or reputation costs or litigation.	LOW The likelihood of this risk is deemed low. This dependence gives rise to the risk that IT systems may be poorly specified, operate incorrectly, or that the use of combinations of systems may have unintended consequences. Low investment returns or inadequate investment controls on nuclear funds. Primary Accountability: Capital Markets Division	If funds are not properly invested or general financial market returns are low or negative, substantial contributions could be required by one or both of the Province and OPG. In addition, the Province's reputation may be damaged if controls or investment policies deviate from industry best practices.	MEDIUM Prolonged poorer than targeted performance of the nuclear funds over the medium-term is given a medium likelihood. The nuclear funds have a very long time horizon and would be expected to have poor returns over some time periods but are required to earn real returns in excess of 3.25 per cent in the long run. The funds have exceeded the 3.25 per cent annualised real return benchmark on average since their inception in 2003, but there is some risk that cumulative average annualised returns may be inadequate in future or that the costs of decommissioning and used fuel disposal could well exceed current projections. Returns will be driven to a large extent by asset allocation and general investment returns in financial markets -- e.g., prolonged poor performance in equity returns or a general decline in the financial markets could be a driver of poor performance.	HIGH The financial impact of poor performance could be quite substantial and is rated high given the size of the funds, and could result in substantial unexpected contributions from one or both of the Province and OPG. The overall risk assessment is high. Given the current size of the funds, a one percentage point decline in annual performance would equate to $170 million in reduced value for the funds, which could affect future funding requirements. Such loss, however, will not translate dollar-to-dollar on the Province's annual statement of operations at consolidation, as the Province's revenue recognition related to the nuclear funds is based on historical cost, not fair value, and some of the impact is also mitigated by OPG's regulatory accounts for the funds related to the Bruce stations, under the Province's current accounting standards.	HIGH	The funds are diversified across asset classes and managers to reduce overall risk. Further diversification is being achieved as the funds move into alternative investments. The funds are also long-lived, and can be adjusted and returns recover over the long term, which result in the recovery of past Provincial contributions to cover investment return shortfalls, if any. In addition, a Statement of Investment Policies and Procedures (SIPP) and Statement of Investment Risk Policies (SIRP) are in place which outline basic policies which to a large extent address many of the risk factors. An extensive asset-liability study is undertaken every five years to attempt to optimize the asset allocation to meet the funds objectives to meet the cost requirements. Significant progress has been made in developing a comprehensive risk management framework which is expected to be implemented in 2017. In addition, the funds are closely monitored up to the respective Board levels by both the OFA and OPG including, for the OFA, by the ONFA IC. Unfortunately, the risk of sub-par returns cannot be entirely eliminated as it will be largely driven by the future market developments. Decommissioning and waste disposal costs and liability risk surprises are largely mitigated by the quinquennial ONFA Reference Plan update. The contribution schedules can be adjusted following a reference plan update to allow for

The funds are audited on a regular basis which reduces the potential for fraud or other control problems. Staff monitor the funds very closely and are looking for irregularities. In addition, the funds are monitored up to the respective Board levels by both the OFA and OPG. The internal auditors of both OPG and the OFA are also proactive in examining control issues. The funds rely largely on external managers, and efforts are made to select highly professional managers who follow investment industry best practices.
Default on Loans to Public Bodies Primary Accountability: Corporate & Electricity Finance Division	Risk of default by public bodies on OFA loans	LOW Although the OFA has restructured or provided a loan deferral in the past, this has been relatively rare, so an "unlikely" scenario (less than 20 per cent probability) is reasonable, and its likelihood is rated as low.	LOW Impact of a default may be "noticeable" and public, but loan write-downs to public bodies that are consolidated on the Province's financial statements would likely not create a fiscal impact, and, therefore, its impact is deemed low resulting in an overall low risk assessment.	LOW	Prior due diligence and analysis of debt repayment ability of public bodies on OFA loans. Ensure grant intercept mechanisms continue to be included in loan agreements. LOW Over the past five years, only one unanticipated non-school board loan caused the OFA to breach its loan contingency reserve. An "unlikely" rating of less than 20 per cent probability of occurrence is, therefore, prudent, resulting in a low likelihood.	LOW In the overall borrowing plan, any unexpected loans would likely not have a "noticeable" effect, as most incremental borrowing is not material in the context of the whole borrowing program and therefore can usually be accommodated. This results in a low impact and a low overall risk assessment.	LOW	Ensure there exists an unassigned contingency equal to 10 per cent of forecasted loans to public bodies. Push off less urgent loans for execution in the following fiscal year. For OLG and LCBO, request business updates from Regulatory Agency Oversight Division (RAOD) to identify potential borrowing requirements (e.g. for site expansion); include estimates in Borrowing and On-lending Plan. Where a policy decision is taken requiring the OFA to provide funding for a strategic project, facilitate private sector financing, especially if interest cost savings are only deemed to be minimal.
Government cost constraints Primary Accountability: Finance and Treasury Division	Cost constraints may limit the OFA's ability to provide services in a timely manner.	MEDIUM While good budgeting process and budget to actual comparison exists, the OFA is not insulated against budgetary constraints. The likelihood is deemed medium.	HIGH If budgetary constraints are severe enough the delivery of core services will be impacted justifying a high impact and high overall risk assessment.	HIGH	Timely budget preparation in accordance with PRRT requirements. The budget preparation process is aimed at allocating resources according to priorities. Detailed planning and monitoring to meet priorities within cost constrained environment. Comparison on a quarterly basis between budget and actual to ensure that priorities are being met within approved expenditures. Effective financial management on a year by year basis that ensures minimal variances between budget and actual. The OFA also retains its surplus which can act as a source of funds to meet non salary related expenses upon approval from the Ministry of Finance.
Risk Category: WORKFORCE RISK AREA: Workforce: Operational Workforce Risks.

Employee Fraud Primary Accountability: Finance and Treasury Division	Risk that losses will be incurred because an employee is dishonest.	LOW The likelihood is low due to stringent internal controls and systems that cannot be easily circumvented.	MEDIUM The impact is deemed to be medium resulting in an overall low risk assessment.	LOW	Continue to communicate code of values and measures for disclosing wrongdoing to OFA staff. Strong system of internal controls, including segregation of duties, which are regularly reviewed by internal auditors as well as the Office of the Auditor General. While no material issues have been identified to date from these audits that essentially cover the full fiscal year, all audit recommendations have been implemented. Detailed and timely exception reporting with managerial oversight.
Human Resource Risk Primary Accountability: Each Hiring Division, with support from the Strategic Corporate Services Division	Risk that highly trained and specialized staff will not be available due to resignations, retirements, turnover, inability to hire, lack of skills, illness, etc.	MEDIUM The likelihood is deemed medium. The issue has gained traction due to the disparity between pay scales in other agencies and pension funds compared to their OFA counterparts. As a result, overall, the pool of applicants to positions at the OFA has diminished over the past few years. Although most positions have adequate backup and succession planning, there are some areas within the OFA that are tightly staffed and some positions are highly specialized which creates vulnerability. In addition, compensation constraints have limited the ability to adequately replace staff externally at comparable experience and skill levels.	EXTREMELY HIGH The impact is deemed extremely high resulting in an overall high risk assessment.	HIGH	Hire qualified staff; develop and implement staff retention strategies with assistance from the OFA Board and Human Resources Committee, provide support and training, where feasible provide competitive salary and benefits, foster a good and efficient working environment, set out performance plans and monitor, recognize and value achievements, good communications and teamwork, and implement employee engagement strategies. Offer results-based pay for performance, and a comprehensive and flexible benefits package. Maintain unique compensation structure for A/XOFA positions. At the end of 2016, consistent with OPS compensation, salary increases occurred for certain OFA employees, and the OPS has announced a restructuring of its non-bargaining and management compensation to be implemented over a four-year period. It is too early to tell whether these changes are sufficient to reverse the recent trend of disappointing responses to positions advertised externally and an inability to attract qualified candidates for positions in the A/XOFA classification and others including those requiring accounting designations and specialized formal education in financial engineering and information technology or investment and corporate finance experience.

Risk Category: INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY & INFRASTRUCTURE RISK AREA: Information and Information Technology (I & IT): The risk that information produced or used (e.g., performance data) is incomplete, out-of-date, inaccurate, irrelevant or inadequately protected from inappropriate disclosure. Risk that information or other technology (e.g., architecture, hardware, software) does not support business requirements, and/or does not support availability, access, integrity, relevance and security of data. Includes business continuity risk. Risk related to information or technology (e.g. upgrading or replacing of IT systems, etc.) Should include privacy and security risks.
Privacy and security Primary Accountability: Strategic Corporate Services Division	Risk related to the agency's handling of sensitive/ confidential information on behalf of the government Potential compromise of confidential information or personal data through identity theft, or unauthorized electronic or physical access of information	LOW The risk is considered low, as management ensures that staff are cognizant of the importance of information security. Security of electronic and hard copy information is provided by enterprise IT perimeter security solutions, key card locked main doors, safes, and security cameras. Third Party Security Assessment audits are completed on a regular basis, including audits of electronic and physical security. Security policies are also in place and all staff are required to comply. New staff who work on the government's Budget are provided with training on the importance of budget security.

Primary Accountability: Strategic Corporate Services Division	support business requirements (disaster recovery & business continuity planning)	Continuity Plan (BCP) which is regularly tested.	even for one day, would be severe, therefore its impact is deemed high. As a result, the OFA maintains a twin of its IT infrastructure in a separate disaster recovery location (DR Site), which reduces the overall assessed risk to medium.		Critical production systems are routinely run out of the DR Site in order to verify the system operates properly in the BCP environment. Furthermore, SCSD maintains the technical infrastructure to support the OFA decentralized recovery plan. This includes mobile devices and remote access services. Periodic drills are held to ensure that staff are able to use the OFA's BCP infrastructure in a productive manner.
Procurement Primary Accountability: Strategic Corporate Services Division	The procurement process has intensified in the past year causing significant project delays. The workload required to manage the process has not been offset with additional resources, annual budgeting has been impacted as projects timelines are difficult to determine and the organization is challenged to keep pace with changes in technology.	MEDIUM The likelihood is deemed medium. The OFA operates within the government procurement framework, adapted to its own unique requirements. The requirement to adhere to complex public sector procurement rules, as set out in the OFA's Procurement Policy has the potential of slowing down urgently needed IT infrastructure, creating a degree of risk. Some streamlining of the process has been carried out, reducing the assessed risk to medium.	MEDIUM The impact is deemed medium, resulting in a medium overall risk assessment	MEDIUM	Standardized approval forms and RFX (Request for Information, Proposal or Quotation) precedent templates streamline the procurement process. Establishing Service Level Agreements within the organization to ensure consistent timelines for document review and approvals will help ensure project deadlines are achieved. When project and procurement plans are hindered by lengthy standard procurement process, priorities will be revisited. In some circumstances, CEO approval of an exemption or a different process may be requested, if available.

ENVIRONMENTAL SCAN

Economic Conditions

The economic outlook for Ontario as described below is based on the average private sector view as of January 2017. As with all projections, there are positive and negative risks to the outlook. The most significant immediate risks to the outlook are rising interest rates and uncertainty regarding future U.S. economic policy. For business planning purposes, the OFA recognizes that it may confront increased demands to provide financing and other services.

Ontario's economy continues to grow in an uncertain global economic environment. Ontario real GDP increased 2.5 per cent in 2015. Private-sector forecasters, on average, estimate Ontario real GDP will grow by 2.6 per cent in 2016, 2.3 per cent in 2017, 2.2 per cent in 2018 and 2.0 per cent in 2019. The economic outlook is influenced by external factors, such as U.S. economic growth, oil prices and the Canadian dollar. Steady growth in the U.S. economy, along with the ongoing impacts of a more competitive Canadian dollar and low oil prices, continues to support Ontario's economic growth. Ontario's economy is expected to strengthen as growth broadens across major sectors of the economy, including household spending and exports. The recent increase in interest rates and the uncertainty tied to U.S. trade policy represents a downside risk to the Ontario economic outlook.

The United States is Ontario's largest trading partner, accounting for 80 per cent of the Province's international merchandise exports in 2015. Economic growth in the U.S. strengthened to 2.6 per cent in 2015 after rising by 2.4 per cent in 2014. According to the January 2017 Blue Chip consensus outlook, the U.S. economy is expected to grow by 1.6 per cent in 2016, 2.3 per cent in 2017 and 2.4 per cent in 2018.

The price of WTI (West Texas Intermediate) crude oil fell by over 70 per cent from its June 2014 peak of $108 US per barrel to below $30 US per barrel in early 2016, a reflection of strong supply and weaker global demand. WTI oil prices averaged $43 US per barrel in 2016, down from $49 US per barrel in 2015.The recent agreement between the Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) and other oil producers to reduce output has led to a rise in the price of oil. The current private-sector forecast average for the WTI price of oil is $54 US in 2017 – well below levels recorded over the 2010-14 period.

Sharply lower oil prices and diverging monetary policy between Canada and the United States contributed to a depreciation of the Canadian dollar to an average of 78.2 cents US in 2015, down from 90.5 cents US in 2014. The Canadian dollar declined further in 2016, averaging 75.4 cents US. On average, private-sector forecasters expect the Canadian dollar will average 74.5 cents US in 2017.

Ontario`s housing market continued to strengthen in 2016 alongside solid increases in the number of households and incomes. Sales of existing homes and resale prices rose 9.4 per cent and 15 per cent, respectively in 2016. Ontario housing starts also increased in 2016. Private-sector economists expect a soft landing in the Ontario housing market. Home resales and prices are projected to stabilize over the next few years as gradually rising interest rates, historically high valuations and mortgage debt temper healthy demographic-related demand.

There are risks surrounding the housing market outlook. Home price gains in Ontario have outstripped incomes in recent years, fuelling mortgage debt accumulation. As a result, affordability in Ontario's housing market has eroded. Despite historically low mortgage rates, monthly carrying costs are elevated relative to long-term trends. High levels of debt combined with elevated resale prices leave Ontario households potentially vulnerable in the event of an adverse economic shock.

Financial Markets

Moderate economic growth and headline inflation still operating below the 2 per cent target has prompted the Bank of Canada to hold the target overnight rate at 0.5 per cent since mid-2015. For the most part, private-sector economists do not expect the Bank of Canada to raise rates until mid-2018.

In the United States, the Federal Reserve raised rates at its December 2016 meeting, citing a strengthening labour market and rising inflation. It is expected that the Fed will continue to raise rates, though at a gradual pace. On the other hand, monetary policy in the European Union remains highly accommodative. In January, the European Central Bank announced that interest rates will remain unchanged and are expected to stay "at present or lower levels for an extended period of time, and well past the horizon of the net asset purchases."

In Canada, while long-term interest rates are expected to remain at historically low levels, they are projected to gradually rise over the next few years. The expected onset of interest rate hikes by the U.S. Federal Reserve combined with the result of the recent U.S. election has already put upward pressure on Canadian bond yields.

According to private-sector forecasters, the Canadian three-month Treasury bill rate is expected to rise gradually from an average of 0.5 per cent in 2016 to 0.6 per cent in 2017, and 0.9 per cent in 2018. According to the January 2017 Blue Chip consensus outlook, the three-month U.S. Treasury bill rate is expected to average 0.9 per cent in 2017, before rising to 1.6 per cent in 2018.

The 10-year Government of Canada bond rate averaged 1.3 per cent in 2016. According to private-sector forecasters, the 10-year Government of Canada bond rate is projected to rise, averaging 1.9 per cent in 2017 and 2.4 per cent in 2018. According to the Blue Chip consensus outlook, the yield on 10-year U.S. government notes is expected to average 2.7 per cent in 2017 and 3.1 per cent in 2018, up from 1.8 per cent in 2016.

Government Initiatives

Government policy developments and financial performance in Ontario's electricity sector, including OPG, Hydro One and municipal electricity utilities, may affect borrowing requirements through the cash flows to OEFC. In particular, the Province’s ongoing effort to broaden ownership of Hydro One will result in large cashflow impacts for OEFC.

The OFA will continue to monitor the Green Bond market to identify future issuance opportunities under its Green Bond Program. The OFA will lead the implementation of the Trillium Trust, for dedicated net revenue gains from qualifying asset sales to help fund infrastructure investments across Ontario. The OFA will also provide financial support to the Ministry of Environment and Climate Change in respect of the government’s Cap and Trade program, as well as in the establishment of a Greenhouse Gas Reduction Account and a climate change agency.

The OFA will also provide financial analysis and advice in support of the Province’s commitment to unlock the value of designated assets, and will continue to work with Infrastructure Ontario and other areas of government on optimizing certain holdings in the Province’s real estate portfolio, in particular, the sale of OPG headquarter properties, as well as Seaton and Lakeview lands.

Regulatory Compliance

The OFA will ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Province in its debt securities offerings related documents, periodic published reports (including the Ontario Budget, the quarterly finances, the Public Accounts of the Province of Ontario and the annual fall Economic Outlook and Fiscal Review) and other disclosures filed or submitted under applicable securities legislation, rules and regulations in the United States, the United Kingdom, Luxembourg, Australia, Switzerland and Singapore is filed on time and otherwise in accordance with those requirements. Regulatory requirements will be monitored continually to ensure the Province has ongoing access to these markets.

PERFORMANCE MEASURES

1. Execute the Province's borrowing program

Objective	Performance Measure	Target
a. Complete the borrowing program while ensuring that the Province always has adequate liquidity.	Sufficient liquidity on hand at all times to ensure the Province can meet its financial obligations. Ensure borrowing is completed with minimal negative impact on the Province's reputation in the financial markets.	Borrowing program completed and cash requirements met on a timely basis.
b. Manage the borrowing program in a sound and cost-effective manner.	The performance measurement of the timing of the long-term fixed-rate borrowing program is expressed as a percentile ranking of the all-in borrowing cost against a statistical distribution of benchmark interest rates observed throughout the year.	Achieve a percentile ranking of 45 to 55 for regular borrowings and 50 to 75 for strategic foreign borrowings. All results are validated by the Ontario Internal Audit Division.
c. Ontario Savings Bonds (OSB) Program	Fund borrowing requirements at cost-effective rates for a broadly based retail program which allows individual investors in Ontario to participate in providing funding to the Province. OSBs reduce other borrowing requirements which, in turn, reduces pressure on new issue spreads.	Ensure the program is cost-effective in the context of a retail borrowing program. Maintain and review Service Level Agreement between OFA and Fiscal Agent on an annual basis.

2. Manage the Province's debt, investments, ONFA and financial risk, and contribute to the development of the Province's fiscal plan and outlook

Maintain liquid reserve levels within a pre-determined range and provide an explanation to the Board of any deviations from that range.	Results are validated by the Ontario Internal Audit Division.
c. With OPG, prudently manage the Used Fuel and Decommissioning Segregated Funds' investments.	Ensure investment management is consistent with ONFA objectives.	Manage, monitor, and analyze the performance of the funds and the performance of investment managers. Continue refinement of investment strategies, risk management, policies and procedures. Meet the real return objective of 3.25 per cent, and exceed the market benchmark over the life of the funds.

Interest on debt losses as a percent of budgeted interest on debt. Credit exposures relative to approved policy limits.	Foreign exchange exposure not to be above five per cent of total debt. The 2016–17 Financing, Debt and Electricity Management Plan had an approved range of 0 per cent to 2.5 per cent in Foreign Exchange Exposure. Currently, the exposure of 0.3 per cent of debt. The 2017–18 Financing, Debt and Electricity Management Plan will have a recommended range subject to Board of Directors approval later in the year. Net interest rate resetting exposure not to be above 35 per cent of total debt. The 2016–17 Financing, Debt and Electricity Management Plan had an approved range of 10.4 per cent to 14.4 per cent in Ontario's Interest Rate Resetting Exposure is expected to be 11.2 per cent as of March 31, 2017, with an expected range of 9.2 per cent to 13.2 per cent. A new range and target for Floating Rate and Interest Rate Resetting Exposure will be approved in the 2017–18 Financing, Debt and Electricity Management Plan. IOD losses not to exceed three per cent of budgeted Interest on Debt. Credit exposures to be kept within approved policy limits.

f. Use risk control policies to ensure programs are managed in a prudent and cost-effective manner.	Risk management policies are kept current with industry best practices. Exposure limits established in the policies are reasonable and prudent. Exposures are monitored and reported in a timely and accurate manner.	Policies for market risk, credit risk, use of derivatives and other financial instruments and risk management reporting are to be reviewed annually, and amendments or decisions not to amend are to be approved by the Board of Directors. HUMAN RESOURCES

Staff allocation for 2016–17 is 166 positions, or full-time equivalents (FTEs), excluding leaves of absences. Between 2007–08 and 2016–17, the borrowing program is projected to increase by 32 per cent, from $18.0 billion to $23.8 billion, and the Province's net debt is projected to increase by 103 per cent, from $156.6 billion to $317.9 billion. The OFA's operating costs (forecasted) increased by 20 per cent, from $22.5 million to $27.1 million, and FTEs dropped by three per cent, from 172 to 166.

The OFA continually reviews its recruitment and retention strategies to ensure it is able to attract and retain qualified staff. Some of the initiatives that have been implemented include supporting flexible work arrangements, and implementing diversity, inclusion and accessibility strategies. Approximately 85 per cent of the OFA is on the government compensation plan, which is controlled centrally. All but five positions are excluded from collective bargaining.

The OFA will continue to work with the Human Resources and Governance Committee of the OFA Board and the Ministry of Finance Human Resources Branch to develop further initiatives to promote staff retention and skills development. The OFA will also continue to work with the OPS Recruitment Centre to enhance the OFA's ability to attract qualified candidates. This will ensure the OFA can meet its current and future business priorities. Initiatives may include providing opportunities for staff to participate in learning and development courses, job shadowing, secondments, and special projects to the extent feasible to enable continuous learning and enhance succession planning.

STRATEGIC CORPORATE SERVICES

Strategic Corporate Services Division (SCSD) is accountable for delivering robust Information Technology, Strategic Human Resources Management, Records and Information Management, Procurement and Policy Management, Facilities Management and Physical and Cyber Security Services. Enhancements to each of these areas drives efficiency, auditability and consistency throughout the organization. SCSD ensures the OFA's and OEFC's core business objectives are supported by reliable, dedicated, customized and integrated technology infrastructure, business applications, administrative process and access to external real-time data sources.

A major focus of SCSD is to support the OFA's core operational business processes. By actively assessing and adjusting the underlying functions that enable the day-to-day business needs, SCSD is able to provide streamlined solutions that increase the safety and wellbeing of the staff, further the OPS Diversity and Inclusion commitments, and provide transparency into procurement and human resource activities.

In addition, reliable and secure information technology is essential to the OFA's ability to deliver its mandate. To that end, SCSD strives to ensure that business applications and related services are not down more than four times a year for a period greater than 30 minutes for each occurrence during normal business hours. The OFA's financial business functions are powerfully supported by SCSD's technology infrastructure, providing availability, integrity, security, and capacity via high-performance, highly-redundant systems at a competitive cost. SCSD can effectively deliver and maintain state-of-the-art financial systems and services because of OFA's internal management of information technology.

The following initiatives will be carried out over the next three years to support the OFA's strategic direction and objectives:

Initiative	Duration	Contribution to key OFA activities
Automate and enhance structured, processes across the organization such as Asset and Inventory Management.	2017–18	Address the organization's increased focus on procurement practices.
Increase the effective management and delivery of IT projects through centralized, standardized processes and controls.	2017–18	Continue to enhance delivery and effectiveness of resources in project management efforts. Support OFA objectives in the delivery of technical initiatives.
Expand core systems to track new government initiatives, allow for greater flexibility in hedge portfolio group splitting, strengthen bond and swap pricing modules and Implement applicable changes as per financial and regulatory reform requirements.	2017–19	Support a large borrowing program and the corresponding large volume of associated hedging activity; provide flexibility to support the commodities hedging program conducted by the OFA for Metrolinx; and the continuation of new government initiatives, including Ontario Green Bonds, and the Trillium Trust.

INITIATIVES INVOLVING THIRD PARTIES

There are no third parties, other than the provincial government, with which the OFA is partnering or with which it has a funding relationship for the purpose of delivering OFA programs. Moreover, the OFA does not provide transfer payments (grants, subsidies, assistance to persons; the business sector; non-commercial institutions; and other government bodies) to third parties.

IMPLEMENTATION PLAN

For 2017–20, the OFA intends to implement its business plan using existing resources and allocations.

COMMUNICATION PLAN

Business Plan

The OFA Business Plan serves as an internal tool for management and staff in the development of program plans and, through the regular reporting of the status of initiatives to the Board of Directors, it serves as a performance measurement tool. The plan also communicates the OFA's business objectives to the Minister of Finance and the Ministry.

Other Communications

The OFA has a number of external stakeholders, including institutional and retail investors, investment dealers, banks, and credit rating agencies. In 2017–20, the OFA will communicate with stakeholders using various methods including:

1. Websites (including expense information): www.ofina.on.ca; www.ontariosavingsbonds.com; www.ofina.on.ca/algp;
2. Budget and quarterly updates: develop borrowing and debt management components;
3. Fact sheets, investor relations presentations, and other investor material (available on the website);
4. Annual Report (as required by the Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993);
5. Regulatory filings;
6. Business Plan; and
7. Memorandum of Understanding (MOU).

Other methods of communication to be used throughout the year are investor relations meetings and regular discussions with credit rating agencies. In addition, the OFA is responsible for the development of communications vehicles for OEFC and will continue to maintain the OEFC website, www.oefc.on.ca, and to produce the OEFC annual report.

Hi Will,

I believe business decisions regarding next steps are required before we can amend this agreement. I understand that the OFA may not be reducing the existing line by the amount previously contemplated? Alternatively, additional terms re: re-payment may be required. Please provide instructions as to the further amendments that are required, or provide me with a revised draft for review. Happy to discuss further.

Hello Lisa,

I'm follow-up to make sure this is still on your radar. I know you're working hard on the new directive and was busy with the intercept provision and credit facility last week. As you know the directive is the priority right now.

Thanks,

Will

Hi Lisa,

1. I don't recall having OFA Legal sign-off on this. "Simple Markup" view has no data on the grid note.
   Perhaps changes in the FHP Credit Facility will incur more changes to the Amending Agreement 10?

2. I was able to confirm Anthony's outstanding grid note balance. Anthony will have the signatory sign the Grid Note effectively acknowledging the outstanding balance. I will change the "as of August 8" date to the signature date once we know the signature date. The numbers are also supported by the Rollover Notices provided on July 21. Please review and comment on the Grid Note.

Thanks,

Will

Hi Lisa,

The plan is still to reduce the existing facility to $475 million, but existing facility will be used for draws until such time that the new facility is in place. We informed Anthony that we would look to re-allocate loans from the existing facility to the new credit facility when the new facility is executed. We are confirming with the various OFA areas (Settlements, Risk, Accounting, Cash) regarding the operational requirements, but the idea is that there will be no impact from a cash flow standpoint (i.e. no actual transfer of funds for IESO to repay loans under one facility, and therefore no need for the OFA to transfer funds under the new facility. Ken K. and I have discussed this, but am cc'ing him so he is aware that I have communicated this direction.

We will need to have a call with IESO to identify which loans would be transferred from one facility to another; it would be beneficial for you and Victor to be on this call so the particulars regarding what legal approach may be taken can be considered (i.e. incorporate provisions into the amending agreement, I am thinking).

Thanks,
Sarah

Hi Ken,

Thanks for clarifying the approach on this matter.

Based on this, we will not be seeking a security interest in the Regulatory Asset and will be seeking a directive ASAP for an exemption from inclusion of the intercept provision in the $2B FHP facility. We will inform IESO that current $975 million facility will be used for funding draws until such time as we are able execute the new $2B FHP facility.

Thanks,
Sarah

Subject: RE: Policy questions re OFHP Credit Facility Agreement

Hi Sarah

Thanks for clear detailed email with good questions, however, instead of responding to each of the questions, I am going back to my earlier premise that none of the loans currently on the OFA loan book have any kind of security attached to them. A good example is the current line of credit extended to the IESO for $975 million. Given this I am very reluctant to impose a security requirement the proposed $2 billion facility to the IESO from the Province.

I understand that the security requirement which is part of the OFA lending policy can waived with ministerial approval, I suggest that it be obtained as soon as possible. If there are delays in obtaining this approval, especially since the minister will be on vacation from the end of this week onwards, I also suggest, if possible the previous facility of $975 million continue until the new facility is in place. This will allow IESO to fund any regulatory assets created in the intervening period.

I have discussed my proposed approach with Gadi, who is supportive.

Thanks

Ken k

Subject: RE: Policy questions re OFHP Credit Facility Agreement

Hi Ken,

Yesterday we held an internal meeting to discuss issues identified by Lisa and Toby regarding inclusion of an intercept provision in the new $2B FHP Credit Facility, as well the factors that the OFA needs to consider on whether or not to seek a security interest in the Regulatory Asset. We will need to obtain further information from IESO to inform the OFA's final determination on these matters, and also require your input on certain items below.

Security Interest - Background

In reference to Bruno's comments and your comments below, if the OFA were to take a security interest in the Regulatory Asset, any security interest would only be applicable while the IESO was the holder of the asset, and only while it is being held by the IESO with money borrowed from the OFA.

The steps of the transaction would be:

1 – The IESO makes payments to electricity producers at the contracted rate, but charges consumers a rate that is set by the FHP, which leaves a shortfall that must be made up;
2 – The IESO borrows money from the OFA to finance the shortfall – it is at this stage that the OFA would consider taking a security interest in the asset, up to the amount that the OFA lends to the IESO;
3 – The IESO bundles the right to charge consumers for the shortfall in the future through the GA into the Regulatory Asset, which is sold to the OPG SPV, which sale can be of the asset free and clear of any security interest;

4 – The IESO repays the OFA for the loan.

Steps 3 and 4 can happen simultaneously. If it is deemed to be something that the OFA would like to do, the security interest would only apply while the IESO holds the assets that it creates using the OFA loan to finance the purchase of electricity that it does not charge for. Once the asset is sold to the OPG SPV, the loan can be repaid and the security interest that the OFA had in the asset can be discharged.

Intercept Provision - Background

Regarding the inclusion of the intercept provision, the OFA Lending Policy (attached, see p. 4 "Security" section), stipulates the OFA must include an intercept provision, unless the OFA either receives an exemption from the OFA Board OR receives direction from the Minister, Cabinet or Treasury Board.

The intercept provision provides that in the event of non-payment by IESO to the OFA under the Credit Facility, the Minister may take funds appropriated by the Legislature for IESO, and may instead use the funds to repay the OFA (in the amount that IESO has defaulted under the facility).

Question for Ken: Are you aware of how we might determine if the Legislature has appropriated funds for IESO? If the amounts are minimal, there would seem token benefit to include the intercept provision in the new FHP credit facility agreement

Draft E-mail to IESO

We would like to ensure that we obtain from IESO all the information that would be required to make a risk assessment as to whether an intercept provision and/or a security interest by the OFA in the Regulatory Asset would be required.

Request for Ken: We are drafting an e-mail to send to IESO today (below) to request information that is pertinent for an analysis regarding these matters. We would appreciate if you could please review the draft and amend it to include all key questions that would be required to make a risk assessment.

"Dear Anthony,

My apologies for the delay in providing the next turn of the FHP Credit Facility Agreement. We became aware of a potential requirement under the OFA's lending policy which needs to be considered internally for inclusion in the agreement, for which we require additional information. Would you kindly provide answers to the following questions?

- Does IESO have other financial obligations (such as but not limited to swap agreements, other financial obligations etc.) that could become due and adversely impact IESO's ability to pay its debts when they become due?
- Does IESO have any other financial obligations or security interests that could attach to the Regulator Asset/Special Purpose Vehicle?
- [Include additional questions]

I also want to make you aware that due to the internal assessment that must be made in respect of the OFA's lending policy, we will likely not be able to execute the new FHP facility prior to IESO's next funding request (for which IESO will be providing notice on August 17th, for funding on August 21st). Accordingly, the August FHP draw will be made under the existing $975 million credit facility. At the time we execute the new $2B facility, we would be able to transfer (by incorporating into the agreements the required provisions or by another agreed mechanism) any amount of loans exceeding $475 million (being the reduced facility limit under the draft amending agreement) under the existing facility to the new facility.

Best regards,"

In reference to the last sentence above in the draft e-mail to IESO, the intended financing structure for IESO credit facilities is to (i) execute a new $2B FHP facility and (ii) simultaneously reduce the existing $975 million facility by $500 million to $475 million. This would create a total aggregated limit of $2.475 billion. Ideally these 2 agreements would have been executed simultaneously prior to the August draw from IESO (since IESO's August draw will likely bring the balance of the existing credit facility to approx. $500M, exceeding the intended revised limit of $475 million).

Question for Ken: When we do execute both agreements, are there any obstacles from an operational perspective (settlement, cash, accounting, risk) with transferring any 'excess loan amount' from the existing credit facility to the new FHP credit facility? We would be looking to re-allocate certain loans from the existing facility to the new facility, without any cash flow impact. From a legal perspective we expect this should be fine, as we can work out the legal particulars with IESO.

General Note re: Timing Impact of Intercept Provision

Regardless of whether the OFA decides to include or exclude the intercept provision, the execution of the FHP facility will take longer than expected, likely taking an additional number of weeks.

If the decision is made not to include the intercept provision, a directive will need to be obtained from the Minister to this effect, potentially taking a few weeks.

If it is a determined an intercept provision is required, then this will likely even take longer than getting a directive from the Minister. In this case, the OFA would need to go back to the Ministry of Energy to effect the following: (I)Ministry of Energy will need to agree with IESO on acceptance of the inclusion of intercept provision in the FHP credit facility agreement and (ii) the OFA and Ministry of Energy will require an MOU whereby the parties agree on the inclusion of a the intercept provision in the FHP credit facility agreement.

Thanks

Totally agree with Bruno, the province should not be taking a security intent in the reg asset, that would make the sale to the SPV or trust rather difficult.

It would also create issues in terms of the SPV's ability to obtain an appropriate credit rating as well as issue debt in the capital markets.

Hi Sarah

Apologies for delay. I perceive differing levels of comfort with the issue of security so I'm OK with discussing the questions raised this afternoon. I am concerned whether we have people on the call that can answer all the questions.

But I have a basic question with respect to the issue of the Province taking a security interest in the asset and differences with this loan from others. Under the OFHP, the sale of the asset ultimately allows for payments to electricity generators. If the Province has a security interest in the asset, can we envisage a potential situation wherein the IESO would be repaying the OFA loan rather than paying generators, which would be problematic for OFHP?

I had discussed with Ron. In regard to Toby's last question, Ron was wondering if there might be a provision on use of proceeds from IESO's sale of the regulatory asset.
Ron had also asked whether OPCD had opined on any accounting issues, and whether OIC or Minister's directive gave any particular direction on this issue. In regard to the latter, I have checked. Minister's directive and OIC were fairly high level noting specific terms and conditions to be set out in the Agreement.

Thank you Sarah. I should add that under the OFA Lending Policy, the intercept provision (and accompanying MOU, etc.) must be included in OFA loan agreements except where otherwise directed by the Minister of Finance, Treasury Board, or Cabinet. As such, if it is determined that the intercept provisions are not required/relevant in this case, Ministerial direction will be required. We can discuss further this afternoon.

Hello Bruno and John,

In advance of our internal call this afternoon, Lisa and Toby have prepared the following e-mail below to consider whether the OFA should consider taking a security interest in the Regulatory Asset as security for $2B credit facility, as well as the inclusion of the intercept provision. Ken Kandeepan expressed the following view yesterday:

> "…[the $2B Facility] is unsecured but so is every loan issued by the OFA to a public body so not sure why the risk associated with this loan is greater or for that matter lower than the loans currently in the OFA's loan book.
> As such, this should be treated exactly like all the other loans. Note that the IESO is fully consolidated with that of the Province so loans issued by the OFA to IESO will be a wash upon consolidation."

In light of this, could you please advise if there are there any additional considerations regarding the FHP structure that would could necessitate the inclusion of an intercept provision in the $2B facility and/or the OFA taking a security interest in the Regulatory Asset?

I am including Ken and Mike Manning in this e-mail, should they have any additional input or insight on this matter.

Thank you,
Sarah

Hi Sarah H. and Will,

Based on the e-mails to date, I understand that OFA staff held a conference call yesterday and based the OFA Lending Policy and past practices, may have concluded that it is appropriate for the loan to the IESO in relation to the OFHP to be unsecured, as per other OFA loans to public bodies. However, as neither Toby (from MOF Legal) nor I were part of the aforementioned call, we wanted to clarify that this loan is NOT necessarily the same as other OFA unsecured loans to public bodies, and as such, the protection provided by the "intercept" provisions of the standard OFA loan agreements have limited application in this particular case (which is likely the reason why these provisions were not included in the original drafts). Our understanding is that, although the intercept provisions are intended to allow the Minister of Finance to deduct from money appropriated by the Legislature for payment to the Borrower amounts equal to any amounts that a Borrower fails to pay to the OFA on account of indebtedness under the loan agreement, in the case of the IESO as Borrower, these amounts are likely to be minimal.

Before proceeding, we would like to ensure that the nature of the loan, the impact of intercept provisions, and the insolvency and operational risks, have all been considered. Toby has succinctly summarized the questions which still need to be addressed during our call this afternoon in the e-mail which I have forwarded below.

Subject: RE: Policy question re OFHP Credit Facility Agreement

Lisa,

I have attempted to summarize my questions/issues in the below. Let me know if you have anything to add or have any edits.

The concerns I have with the IESO loan, and that should be considered are related to what could happen to the Regulatory Asset (the "Asset") if there are any credit or liquidity issues at the IESO. Because the Asset is something that it is possible to take security in, and that is an intangible that may be subject to a floating charge (ie, as a result of a GSA or from a financing agreement) I thought it would be prudent to consider whether the OFA should take a security interest in the Asset as security for the loan.

I am not familiar with the types of financial arrangements or other obligations that the IESO may be a party to, either as a result of its market operations or otherwise, but it may be possible that the IESO has entered into such arrangements, such as swaps or other derivatives agreements, loans or other financing arrangements for which security could be given.

I am not aware of what financial guarantees or other arrangements may be in place such that the Province may have guaranteed the IESO's obligations, but I don't believe that there are any. My understanding is that the IESO is consolidated with the Province's books, but that the IESO is not a crown agent, and the Province is not liable for the IESO's obligations to third parties. However, I am not sure about the underlying facts without more input from ENERGY and the IESO.

In light of these questions it may be worthwhile to consider some related issues:

- How does the proposed IESO loan compare to other OFA loans made to public bodies, such that it is appropriate to use the same requirements?
    - Size of loan – it is my understanding that there are not many loans that approach the size of the $2 billion loan that is proposed to the IESO.
    - Are the obligations of the IESO the obligations of the Province, and how does this compare to other public body loans?
    - What other financial obligations could the IESO have (such as swap agreements, other financial obligations) that could become due or create credit risk?
    - If in many public body loans, there is an intercept and an MOU with the appropriate ministry to create some security, does that make sense in this context? Are there significant transfers to the IESO?
    - Note that the OFA loan to the ROM was secured by pledges and an intercept, and that other Provincial loans to public bodies or other groups may be secured.
- Does the Province/OFA understand the financial obligations of the IESO such that it is confident that no other security interest could attach to the Asset?
- Given that the debt is specifically for the purpose of creating the Asset which will be "warehoused" at the IESO, once the Asset is sold to the financing entity, how will the Province ensure that the proceeds can only be used to repay the loan?

Hi,

Attached is a somewhat cleaned up version of July 11 calculation (plus pdf version) of the available authority assuming capitalized interest is not included for now. I hid rows and columns pretty much.

Still cannot figure out how current Fanshawe balance makes sense to TAS as of March 31 adjusted for activity since March 31. My attempt is in the last sheet of the workbook. Note that TAS was out to PBFS by spread amounts (see attached acctng rec) at year end it seems so I expected the same. Not the case. I do not think this is of immediate consequence though.

For Bonnie's purpose I think the remaining authority is not materially impacted by this.

I think we are good to provide the. 1,377,594,955.57 figure as the remaining authority as of July 11. It will not be materially off even if capitalized interest is to be included.

Let me know you thoughts. Then hopefully it can be forwarded to Bonnie.

Regards,

Andrea

Hello Sarah and Andrea,

For your reference, please find attached a copy of my check for the Borrowing Authority Allocated amounts. For construction loans, the capitalized interest was not included in the BA Allocated amount. You'll find my review, along with notes, in the rightmost area of the spreadsheet. We can further discuss when you're able.

In addition, through my checks, I noticed that the original agreement between the OFA and OCC referenced "OIC 1420/2008" as the OIC that authorizes OCC to borrow the funds. I was wondering if you're familiar with this OIC and if you had a copy of it by any chance.

Thanks,

Daki

Hello Sarah and Andrea,

In regards to our discussion the other day, please see below for further information on the items highlighted red in the most recently shared Excel file.

1. Fanshawe College's Construction Loan Calculation
    - The difference between the outstanding BA Allocated amount (as at July 11, 2017) vs the "TAS 3/31/2017" amount is due to the principal payments made and the way in which capitalized interest is calculated for the advances drawn. I double-checked the calculations on OLMS, and if you would like, Andrea, I can show you the way in which capitalized interest is calculated for these agreements.
2. IESO
    - As per Risa's email, the two entries is a product for how OLMS, currently, cannot have two projects assigned to a line of credit entry. I was told the entries would be corrected soon so that both sum to $975M.
3. Ottawa Convention Centre Corporation
    - I'm still looking into this to get further details. I'll keep you posted.

As well, I mentioned how there's a correction needed for Confederation College's construction loan. In that particular agreement, there is another facility for a second project. That facility is a non-revolving, term loan set at a max of $1,050,000. This means we should have an Adjusted BA Allocated amount of $11,650,000 shown instead of the current $10,600,000. For the other agreements, I'm planning to look them over to ensure this isn't the case with the others.

If there is anything else I missed, please let me know. We'll see what Sarah and Malle advise for the capitalized interest.

Thanks,

Daki

Hi Daki,

Thanks for following up. I think it is also a good idea to have a chat on this. We too are a little unclear on a couple of points, since Documentation is not familiar with the loan activity under these agreements

Would you be available at about 1:30 p.m. today to discuss, or sometime tomorrow? I am including Andrea Dalgarno, as she has been working with this spreadsheet to get a sense of the loan activity.

Thanks,
Sarah

Hello Sarah,

Mara informed me that Documentation would like to have the attached file confirmed by our group. I'll review the document, but I was hoping to ask a few questions for what you need.

- Which date do we want these dollar values to reflect? Do we want these dollar values to still reflect the "as at May 5" date?
- For the Repaid and Capitalized Interest columns, shall we connect and discuss what kind of entries you're looking for here?

I'm available to discuss over the phone or I don't mind coming up to your floor either. Please let me know when a good time would be.

Hello,

Great to hear that there are no issues operationally to transfer the balance from the existing credit facility to the new credit facility when we are ready. From a preparation perspective what would your respective areas require to facilitate the balance transfer given the uniqueness of this transaction?

Thanks,

Will

Sarah,

Similarly, accounting does not see any insurmountable obstacles. Accounting would just need to create a new TAS account for the new credit facility.

Thanks.

Hi Sarah,

From a Settlements perspective there is no issue, however since Capital Markets inputs these loans they will have to investigate if this is doable with Vivek, therefore I am copying Carlos, Selena, Jim and Craig.

Thanks,

Risa Thau

Carlos, Selena, Jim and Craig,

If you need any help with this issue I'd be happy to participate.

Thanks, Risa

Subject: OFA-IESO Credit Facilities

Hello,

We are currently in the process of working on a new $2B OFA-IESO Credit Facility to provide funding in respect of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan. Under this framework, the existing $975 million OFA-IESO Credit Facility is to be reduced to $475 million. Due to a required Ministerial approval, the new $2B facility will not be executed until mid-September (estimate).

Once the new $2B facility is in place, the OFA would be looking to re-allocate certain loans (TBD) from the existing $975M credit facility to the new $2B facility, in order to bring the existing facility under the new intended $475 million limit. Effectively, under the legal agreements, it would be transferring certain loans from the existing facility to the new facility. The intention is that there will be no movement of funds and therefore no cash impact (that is, IESO does not repay the existing loans, and the OFA does not fund the new loans).

Would you please confirm if there are any obstacles from an operational perspective (settlement, cash, accounting, risk) with transferring any 'excess loan amount' from the existing credit facility to the new FHP credit facility?

Thanks,

Sarah

I went through this quickly and I don't have any comments; I believe that the actual transfer of funds to OPG for the equity injection will be governed by a SLA between OFA and the Ministry of Energy and we of course need to review that carefully. However, I would like you take a quick look and let me know if you have any comments.

Thanks

Thanks Ken – Are you aware how the potential timing issue with appropriations is handled on the credit side? OPG seemed to think that the OFA had some process in place so that even though only 1 year of appropriations is approved at a time there is always coverage post March 31, 2017 in the event the budget is delayed but OPG needs to borrow. I was just hoping to incorporate something similar on the ENE side so that we don't run into any issues.

OPG provided a draft Master Subscription Agreement based on the term sheet. I will run this by legal as well but please feel free to provide comments/edits.

Hi Kaitlin

My apologies for the delay in responding, just going through my emails from last week, I am ok with the term sheet, you had however, raised a comment re the appropriations. Note that since the OFA will simply be a service provided in this arrangement, i.e.,
We will not be able to provide cash management services including the transfer of the funds from the Province to OPG for the equity injection until the appropriations are approved.

Thanks

Hi all – just following up on the equity injection term sheet. I'm going to send this to ENE legal now so that they can start to digest given that the next step will be preparation of the Master Subscription Agreement. I'm assuming there aren't any major concerns but if there are items you'd like to modify if you could pass those along this week I'd appreciate it. Please note that there is a question embedded in the document regarding appropriations that I'm hoping one of you will have insight on.

At the meeting with OPG a few weeks back you had mentioned that there would likely need to be some sort of Service Level Agreement between OFA and ENE – is there a similar agreement you already have in place that we could work from?

Thanks,
Kaitlin

Hi everyone,

As a follow up to today's meeting there are a couple items I think can move forward at this point.

1. Equity Injection Mechanics (draft term sheet attached)
    a. If comfortable, OPG would draft Master Subscription agreement, OFA/ENE would develop service level agreement for cash management services and ENE legal would move forward with amendment to OPG articles to facilitate new class of shares

2. Performance Fee Recommendation (OPG recommended approach attached)
    a. If comfortable, OPG would assist ENE in developing regulation language

My proposed next steps, subject to your agreement, would be to share these documents with ENE legal today and then table them at a Thursday morning meeting with ENE DMO/MO (along with an updated "business issues" note, which I'll send around for everyone's input in the next day or so). After that meeting I would send the same materials /update to MOF DMO along with any new updates received at that meeting.

Could you please confirm you have no further comments and that you agree with this approach and also that there's no other materials/terms that you think need to move up through approvals at this point in time?

Thanks in advance,
Kaitlin

MASTER SHARE SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT made as of ■, 2017.

AMONG:

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN IN RIGHT OF ONTARIO, as represented by the Minister of Energy

(the "Minister")

- and -

ONTARIO POWER GENERATION INC., a corporation established under the laws of the Province of Ontario

("OPG")

- and -

ONTARIO FINANCING AUTHORITY, a [ ]

(the "OFA")

Background

1. The Government of Ontario enacted the Ontario Fair Hydro Act, 2017 (the "Act") to implement its Fair Hydro Plan (the "FHP"). The Act's purpose is, among other things, to ensure that clean energy costs and clean energy benefits are fairly allocated among present and future specified consumers.

2. The Act and the regulations promulgated under the Act (the "Regulations") creates certain assets related to the deferral of electricity charges (the "Assets"), which Assets will be acquired from the Independent Electricity System Operator ("IESO") by the special purpose financing entity established by OPG to implement the financing plan to fund the deferral under the Act (the "Fair Hydro Trust") [NTD: use "Financing Entity"??].

3. The Fair Hydro Trust will acquire the Assets monthly from IESO and finance them in accordance with the financing plan, which includes both senior debt (minimum of 51%) from external sources and subordinated debt (up to 49%) from OPG.

4. The Minister has agreed to fund up to 44% of the total funding requirement for the Assets through equity injections in OPG and OPG has agreed to use the equity injections solely for funding the Fair Hydro Trust's subordinated debt (the "Equity Injection Plan").

5. For purposes of the Equity Injection Plan, OPG [will amend] [has amended] its articles to create a new class of non-voting, redeemable shares (the "Class A Shares"). The Minister will subscribe for Class A Shares monthly in accordance with the process set forth in this Agreement and OPG will in turn invest these amounts in subordinated debt of the Fair Hydro Trust.

6. OPG will be entitled from time to time to redeem or buy back outstanding Class A Shares in connection with repayment of the Fair Hydro Trust subordinated debt or other purposes as may be approved by the OPG board of directors.

7. The Minister and the OFA have entered into a service level agreement (the "SLA") which provides the OFA with authority to provide cash management services to facilitate the share purchases on an ongoing basis on behalf of the Minister.

8. The parties desire to set out in this Agreement the process and mechanisms by which the equity injections and share purchases will occur and their respective roles and responsibilities in the Equity Injection Plan.

NOW THEREFORE the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Confirmation of Equity Injection and Use of Funds

1.1 The Minister commits to fund up to 44% of the total financing required by the Fair Hydro Trust, to acquire Assets from the IESO under the Act and Regulations, by way of equity subscriptions in OPG.

1.2 OPG agrees to use the equity received from the Minister solely to lend as subordinated debt to the Fair Hydro Trust to fund the Fair Hydro Trust's obligations under the [Master Sale and Servicing Agreement][NTD: confirm name] between the IESO and the Fair Hydro Trust, and the Act and Regulations.

2. Monthly Share Subscription Process

2.1 The Minister, through the OFA, will subscribe for and purchase Class A Shares from OPG monthly, in an amount, and for a value, as determined by OPG in accordance with paragraph 2.2 below.

2.2 Each month, coincident with the asset acquisition to be made by the Fair Hydro Trust from the IESO under the [Master Sale and Servicing Agreement], OPG will provide notice to the Minister and the OFA of the amount of equity injection required and the corresponding number of shares to be issued by OPG and subscribed by the Minister. This notice will be in the form of the Share Subscription attached as Exhibit A. OPG will also provide reasonable supporting information for the values and amounts set out in the Share Subscription, in the form of the Subscription Supporting Information attached as Exhibit B.

2.3 For purposes of providing the reasonable supporting information required under paragraph 2.2 above, OPG agrees:

(i) that the value of the monthly equity injection/share subscription amount will reflect the monthly funding requirements of the Fair Hydro Trust acquisitions under the [Master Sale and Servicing Agreement],; and

(ii) Class A Shares will be issued to the Minister at a value per share equal to their book value as determined from OPG's last approved quarterly financial statements. [NTD: do we need any more specificity here?]

2.4 Within [five] Business Days of receipt of the notice and supporting information described in paragraph 2.2, the OFA will deliver the executed Share Subscription to OPG and wire transfer, in immediately available funds, the required equity funds in accordance with the payment instructions set out in Exhibit D or as may be otherwise provided by OPG from time to time. For purposes of this Agreement, "Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday, a Sunday or a day on which banking institutions in Toronto, Ontario are authorized or obligated by law, regulation or executive order to be closed.

2.5 OPG will issue a receipt to the Minister and the OFA, in the form of Exhibit C attached, confirming receipt of the equity amount and certifying as to the update of OPG's corporate share register with issue of the shares in the name of the Minister.

2.6 The first equity injection/share subscription will occur [August x 2017] (the "Initial Equity Injection"). Equity injections will continue monthly so long as the Fair Hydro Trust is purchasing assets and incurring debt obligations, including subordinated debt in favour of OPG, pursuant to the Act and Regulations.

3. Equity Requirement Forecasts and Approvals

3.1 OPG will prepare and submit forecasts of equity requirements for the applicable business planning period as part of its business plan submissions to the Shareholder in accordance with the Memorandum of Agreement between the Minister and OPG effective July 17, 2015 (the "MOA") as amended, restated or replaced from time to time. For clarity, OPG will submit annually, as part of its business plan submissions, the FHP equity requirements forecast for the upcoming 3 years.

3.2 OPG's equity requirement forecast submissions will include all reasonable supporting information and documentation. [NTD: any more specificity required?]

3.3 The OFA and the Minister confirm that OPG's equity requirement forecasts submitted with OPG's business plans will not require concurrence by the Shareholder as set out in the MOA.

3.4 In accordance with the submissions made under paragraph 3.1 above, the Minister will update the appropriations for the upcoming 3 year cycle through the PRRT process, including 3 year rolling estimates along with supporting information as provided by OPG through its business planning process.[NTD: clarify that purpose of this clause is to confirm Energy will seek out and obtain required appropriations]

4. Share Redemption Process

5.1 The Minister and OPG agree to set out the required process for any future redemption by OPG of outstanding Class A Shares in an appendix to this Agreement and attach it as Exhibit E. Exhibit E will be finalized before the first share redemption [and in any case no later than [90] Business Days before the effective date of such redemption].[NTD: confirm if need timeframe]

Subject: OFHP - Outstanding business issues

Hi all,

ENE MO asked for a quick note on 4 of the outstanding business issues that are being worked through and are hoping to see something tomorrow morning.

I've pulled together a high level explanation of each of the items and next steps/timing (to the extent I know).

Would greatly appreciate if you guys could take a look and provide any edits/comments today/early tomorrow if possible. I'm also not too involved in a few of these discussions so if there's others within OFA you think should review feel free to pass along.

Thanks in advance,
Kaitlin

Outstanding Business Issues – Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Briefing Note

PURPOSE
Provide an overview of a few of the key remaining outstanding business issues that OPG and the Province are working through

BUSINESS ISSUES

1. Provincial Support Agreement Term Sheet (~~Service and~~ Performance and Payment Guarantees)
   - As part of the OFHP, the IESO will create and sell a regulatory asset to the OPG financing entity
   - In order to provide assurances to those with claims against the Financing Entity (eg. Holders of debt), and support credit ratings, the Province is providing both a Service Guarantee and a Performance Guarantee to ensure that the obligations of the IESO are carried out including obligations related to collecting and remitting clean energy adjustments.
   - Next Steps:
     - OPG and OFA and working towards the development of a term sheet
     - Timing: Guarantees are required to support rating agency review which is expected by the end of July

2. Payments in Lieu of Taxes (PILs) Exemption
   - The Province would like to minimize to the extent possible , the PILs payable by the OPG financing vehicle, as those costs will be recovered from ratepayers
   - The Province is considering regulation changes to exempt the income arising as a consequence of the Fair Hydro Plan from PILs
   - As part of the OFHP, the financing entity will raise debt and acquire "investment assets" from the IESO. Given the unique nature of the investment assets, there are no specific rules which govern the manner which investment assets should be treated for tax purposes, and further analysis is required to ensure the cost of the investment assets are appropriately recognized as a deduction or offset in computing the income of the financing entity
   - Next Steps:
     - The Ministries of Finance, OFA and OPG are working together to determine required regulation changes
     - Timing: [Next steps for a decision / when is a decision required / when would these regulation changes occur]

3. Fair Hydro Plan - Master Subscription Agreement Term Sheet (Equity Injection Process)

- OPG will require equity injections on a monthly basis in order to maintain its capital structure, and will require flexibility in order to issue shares as needed by the Province
- The Ministry of Energy received appropriation for $1.1B through PRRT to support equity injections for the 2017-18 period, and will continue to provide multi-year forecasts each year through PRRT
- Next Steps:
    - The Ministry of Energy, OFA and OPG are working through the short term mechanics of this process which will ultimately feed into a Master Subscription Agreement. A draft term sheet is underway.
    - Timing: OPG will require the ability to issue equity in July, so mechanics and agreements should be finalized in June

4. Management Fees

- OPG will be providing all required services to the Trust as part of the OFHP, including planning, strategy, financing, deal execution etc.
- The legislation allows OPG to establish and charge a management fee for those services in accordance with the regulations which are currently in development
- OPG and OEB are currently working together on a management fee structure that balances the interests of minimizing costs and satisfying accounting consolidation requirements
- Next Steps:
    - OPG and OEB will bring forward a recommended framework for developing management fees
    - Timing: For incorporation into regulations being brought forward in June

5. IESO – Increased Credit Facilities

- The OPG financing entity has the right to purchase the regulatory asset from IESO but does not have to purchase it.
- IESO is working with the OFA to increase the credit facilities in the event that the OPG financing entity does not purchase the regulatory asset
- Next Steps:
    - OFA is …..

Hi,

I consulted Ken Kandeepan with respect to the appropriateness of including the IESO-OFA FHP related OIC in the reporting and he agrees it should be included.

The attached is the final report provided to Accounting for use in the financial statements as at Dec 31, 2017. I believe they pick up the total OIC amount which will jump by 2 billion and the date range which will be pushed to 2047 on the far end as a result of the addition of the FHP related OIC.

Regards,

Andrea

Hi,

I have tentatively updated a report of OFA OIC amounts we provide to Accounting quarterly for financial reporting purposes to include the OIC that supports the $2 billion dollar Credit Facility Agreement between the OFA and IESO related to the Fair Hydro Plan.

As this is a significant addition, I would like to give interested parties the opportunity to consider the appropriateness of its inclusion.

Accounting should be able to provide you further details with respect to the nature of the reporting which is based on this input should it be needed.

Please let me know as soon as possible should there be an issue with its inclusion

Regards,

Andrea

Hi San,

Sarah asked me to address this request

The only changes are as follows:

OIC 1883/06 - $800,000,000 - the amended maturity date is June 1, 2041 (previously November 1, 2032).

OIC 2144/07 - $2,000,000,000 - the amended maturity date is June 1, 2041 (previously December 1, 2037).

and the changes have been made to the OFA Summary attached.

These updates take into account the amendment to the maturity dates incorporated in OIC 844/2008 (attached for your reference).

Other than that:

I can confirm that the total OIC amounts remains unchanged as of March 31, 2017. I can also confirm that there have been no additional OICs. I cannot however, comment on any loans or transactions undertaken under the OICs. Documentation does not keep track of this. If needed, I believe that Corporate Finance keeps track of this information. As such the supporting documentation provided is comprised of copies of the OIC's in question.

Andrea

Ontario

Order in Council
Décret

On the recommendation of the undersigned, the Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, by and with the advice and concurrence of the Executive Council of Ontario, orders that:

Sur la recommandation de la personne soussignée, la lieutenante-gouverneure de l'Ontario, sur l'avis et avec le consentement du Conseil exécutif de l'Ontario, décrète ce qui suit :

WHEREAS pursuant to subsection 22(1) of the Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993 (the "Act"), the Minister of Finance may purchase securities of or make loans to corporations established under subsection 2(1) of the Act in such amounts, at such times and on such terms and conditions as the Lieutenant Governor in Council considers expedient;

AND WHEREAS the Ontario Financing Authority (the "OFA") is a corporation established under subsection 2(1) of the Act;

AND WHEREAS pursuant to subsection 6(3) of the Act, the power of a corporation established under subsection 2(1) of the Act to borrow and issue securities, among other things, may only be exercised under the authority of a by-law that has been approved by the Minister of Finance;

AND WHEREAS the OFA wishes to borrow up to Two Billion Dollars in lawful money of Canada from the Minister of Finance and has been authorized to do so by a borrowing by-law approved in accordance with the Act;

THEREFORE:

Pursuant to subsection 22 (1) of the Act, the Minister of Finance is authorized to lend a maximum of Two Billion Dollars in lawful money of Canada to the OFA on the following terms and conditions:

(a) the loan may be advanced in such amounts and at such time or times as required by the OFA;

(b) repayment of advances made under the loan plus accrued interest may be made in whole or in part at any time provided that the loan plus any accrued interest shall be fully repaid by December 31, 2047;

(c) each advance (an "Advance") made under the loan hereby authorized shall bear interest at a rate which is determined as follows:

(i) from the date of the Advance to (but excluding) the date of repayment the Advance shall bear interest at a per annum rate equivalent to the yield earned on ninety day Province of Ontario treasury bills on the date before the Advance Date as determined by the Province, provided that if an Advance is outstanding for longer than ninety days, the interest rate shall be reset on the last day of each ninety day period (the "Reset Date") to the yield earned on ninety day Province of Ontario treasury bills immediately preceding the Reset Date for such ninety day period as determined by the Province;

(ii) in the event that moneys included in an Advance are used by the OFA for the purpose of funding loans to third parties (a "Third Party Loan"), the rate of interest payable by the OFA to the Province on the portion of the Advance so used shall be adjusted effective as of the date that the portion of the Advance is used to fund the Third Party Loan so that the per annum rate of interest payable by the OFA on such moneys is equivalent to the per annum rate of interest payable to the OFA under the Third Party Loan less an amount as may be determined by the Minister of Finance in respect of such Third Party Loan or a class of such Third Party Loans, until but excluding the date on which the Third Party Loan is repaid, at which time the interest rate set out in subparagraph (i) shall again be applicable to that portion of the Advance; and

(iii) in the event that moneys described in subparagraph (ii), once repaid, are subsequently used to fund loans to third parties, subparagraph (ii) shall again be applicable in determining the interest rate payable to the Province on that portion of the Advance used to fund such loan, and so on, until the Advance shall be repaid to the Province in full;

(iv) despite subparagraphs (ii) and (iii), in the event that no interest is payable to the OFA under a Third Party Loan, no interest shall be payable by the OFA on the portion of the Advance so used and to the extent that the terms of a Third Party Loan provide for the deferral of the payment of accrued interest for a period, the interest payment terms of an Advance or portion thereof shall also be deferred for a similar period.

(d) interest for any period of less than one year shall be payable for the actual number of days included in such period, computed on the basis of a 365-day year;

(e) despite paragraph (b) of this Order, interest on any portion of an Advance made to the OFA under the loan that is used by the OFA to fund a Third Party Loan shall accrue on the basis stated above but shall become payable only to the extent the OFA receives payment of interest under the relevant Third Party Loan;

(f) despite paragraph (b) of this Order, any portion of the principal of an Advance made to the OFA under the loan that is used by the OFA to fund a Third Party Loan shall become payable only to the extent the OFA receives repayment of principal under the relevant Third Party Loan; and

(g) the loan hereby authorized shall be evidenced by a promissory note.

ATTENDU QUE l'Office ontarien de financement (l'« OOF ») est une personne morale créée en vertu du paragraphe 2 (1) de la Loi;

ATTENDU QUE, conformément au paragraphe 6 (3) de la Loi, le pouvoir qu'ont les personnes morales créées en vertu du paragraphe 2 (1) de la Loi de contracter des emprunts et d'émettre des valeurs mobilières, entre autres, ne peut être exercé qu'aux termes d'un règlement administratif approuvé par le ministre des Finances;

ATTENDU QUE l'OOF souhaite emprunter jusqu'à concurrence de deux milliards de dollars en monnaie légale du Canada du ministre des Finances et qu'il a été autorisé à le faire par un règlement administratif d'emprunt approuvé conformément à la Loi;

PAR CONSÉQUENT :

c) chaque avance (« avance ») faite au titre du prêt autorisé par les présentes portera intérêt au taux est fixé comme suit :

d) l'intérêt payable relativement à toute période de moins d'un an sera calculé en fonction du nombre de jours réellement compris dans cette période, par rapport à une année comptant 365 jours;

e) par dérogation à l'alinéa a) ci-dessus, l'intérêt sur toute partie d'une avance consentie à l'OOF dans le cadre du prêt que cette dernière utilise pour financer un prêt à un tiers est calculé comme il est indiqué ci-dessus, mais cet intérêt devient payable uniquement dans la mesure où l'OOF reçoit un paiement d'intérêts au titre du prêt à un tiers;

f) par dérogation à l'alinéa b) ci-dessus, toute partie du capital d'une avance consentie à l'OOF dans le cadre du prêt que cette dernière utilise pour financer un prêt à un tiers devient payable uniquement dans la mesure où l'OOF reçoit un remboursement du capital au titre du prêt à un tiers

g) le prêt autorisé en vertu des présentes sera attesté par un billet à ordre.

HI Opal,

Before I left on Thursday evening, you had mentioned that you thought the OIC should be in the amount of $3 billion and not $3.5 billion. I was wondering if on Friday you had reached out to CEFD to discuss this?

The package is due tomorrow, so we would need to sort this out today.

Thanks,
Sarah

Minister _____ Date _____

s. 1 Proposal and Context

- Approval is being sought for an OIC under section 22 of Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993 ("CIPA"), which will authorize the Minister of Finance to provide loan(s) to the OFA in an amount of up to $3.5 billion. Under the proposed OIC, loan(s) could be advanced during the period ~~This authorization will be valid~~ between the effective date of the OIC and June 30, 2053.

- Subsection 22(1) of CIPA authorizes the Minister of Finance to make loans to the OFA in the amounts, times and on the terms and conditions authorized by Lieutenant Governor in Council ("LGIC"). Subsection 22(2) provides a statutory appropriation for loans made by the Minister to the OFA under subsection 22(1).

- This proposed OIC is required to allow the OFA to provide loans to the IESO and will help to fulfil the commitments under the proposed Fair Hydro Act, 2017. The timing of this OIC is critical to ensure borrowing authority for the OFA is available as it will be required to provide financing arrangements upon the enactment of the proposed Fair Hydro ~~Plan~~ Act, 2017. [NTD: This is the name of the proposed Act – do we sometimes want to refer to the Fair Hydro Plan versus the Act?]

s. 2 Approach and Intended Outcomes

- Under CIPA, ~~T~~the OFA provides financing to public bodies ~~government entities~~ as directed by the Minister of Finance. The OFA obtains the funds it needs for its lending program by borrowing from the Province. ~~For the OFA to on-lend, the OFA borrows from the Province.~~ This OIC would authorize the Minister of Finance under section 22 of CIPA to provide loans to the OFA.

- As per subsection 3(1) of CIPA, the Minister of Finance is responsible for the administration of CIPA with respect to the OFA.

- This proposed OIC is required to assist in fulfilling the commitments under the proposed Fair Hydro Act, 2017.

- It is expected that as part of the implementation of the proposed arrangements, the Minister of Finance will direct ~~T~~the OFA ~~will be required~~ to provide a revolving credit facility for ~~market~~ short term financing and liquidity purposes [NTD: is it for market liquidity purposes? Isn't it to cover any shortfall?] related to the on-going Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017. In particular, the OFA will be lending to the Independent Electricity System Operator ("IESO"). The IESO is a public body for the purposes of CIPA.

- A key element of the proposed Fair Hydro Plan Act results in the IESO ~~to incurring a~~incurring a funding shortfall. This funding shortfall arises because the IESO will not collect enough Global Adjustment amounts to fund the IESO's contractual obligations to electricity producers and service providers in the current period, but instead defer some of those amounts to be collected in the future. The Fair Hydro Plan allows the IESO to sell the right ~~[due to the deferral of collecting Global Adjustment amounts?]…[explain more accurately]. and The IESO unilaterally will selling that right~~ to recover ~~that~~those deferred amounts ~~shortfall~~ from specified consumers in the future ~~shortfall as an~~ (the "regulatory asset"). It is anticipated that the regulatory asset will be purchased by ~~to~~ the financing entity to be established by OPG ("OPG ~~Trust~~SPV") [NTD: My understanding is that it is expected to be a trust, but it is not certain yet and no benefit to narrowing here]. The proposed legislation does not require ~~compel~~ the OPG ~~Trust~~ SPV to purchase any portion of the regulatory asset. As a result, IESO requires short-term financing in place in the event ~~if~~ that ~~for some reason~~ the OPG ~~Trust~~SPV, at any time, does ~~chooses~~ not ~~to~~ purchase a portion of the regulatory asset ~~deferred Global Adjustment amounts~~ under the proposed Fair Hydro ~~Plan~~ Act, 2017.~~.~~ This short-term financing may also be required before the OPG SPV is operating and before it has its own financing in place to purchase the regulatory asset.~~-~~

- IESO has ~~currently~~ requested that the OFA provide a revolving credit facility of up to $2 billion to support its role in the Fair Hydro Act ~~Plan~~, 2017 implementation. The $2 billion request from IESO is based on current data which could change in order to maintain the Fair Hydro ~~Plan~~ Act, 2017 and it is proposed that the OIC authorization be~~is~~ $3.5 billion ~~is~~ to ensure there is sufficient contingency in place once the implementation begins..

- For the OFA to accommodate this request, the OFA requires additional borrowing authority from the Minister of Finance to ensure that it has sufficient funds to lend~~can only on-lend funds borrowed from the Minister of Finance, which are authorized under an OIC,~~ hence this request for an OIC.

- The Minister of Finance will be required to provide a Directive to the OFA to direct it to make loans to the IESO in an amount not to exceed ~~for any loans made as a result of this OIC and will subject to the of~~ $3.5 billion. ~~set by this OIC.~~

s. 3 Direction and Urgency

Note appendices here, or ERASE, e.g.
See Appendix X, Variance Memo

- As announced on March 2, 2017 and highlighted as a commitment in Budget 2017, the Province intends to implement the Fair Hydro Plan which would reduce electricity bills by 25 per cent on average for eligible households.
- The ability for the OFA to have the requisite borrowing and ~~on-~~lending capacity is instrumental in implementing the proposed Fair Hydro Plan.
- Subject to the approval of the Legislature of the Fair Hydro Act, 2017, t~~T~~he Fair Hydro Plan ~~Act are~~is expected to track for Cabinet approval by end of June 2017. [What is tracking to Cabinet? Not the legislation because it has already been approved by Cabinet? Is it regulations? What else?] It is expected that this OIC also be approved concurrently as it is a crucial component of the successfully implementing the Fair Hydro Plan.
- The related Cabinet Minute XXXXX is tracking for June 27, 2017 date. [can we get a copy?]

s. 4 Impact Assessment and Costs

- With this OIC, the Minister of Finance will be authorized to lend to the OFA. Subject to the terms and conditions of a Directive from the Minister of Finance, loans from the Minister of Finance to the OFA are expected to be at the Province's Cost of Funds.
- Loans advanced will result in increased borrowing in the debt markets by the Province.
- Loans are expected to be repaid and therefore, no fiscal impact is expected.

s. 5 Implementation

- If the OIC is approved and signed, the Minister of Finance will have authorization to provide a loan to the OFA. A Directive from the Minister will be required that will provide direction on how the OFA can use the proceeds of the loan.

s. 6 Delivery and Results Tracking

- As described in section 2 above, the requirement for this OIC is a result of the Province's proposed Fair Hydro Act, 2017 ~~Plan~~ and is required to ensure the timely implementation and support for the success of the Fair Hydro Plan.

s.7 Stakeholder Consultations

- As described in section 2 above, the requirement for this OIC is a result of the Province's proposed Fair Hydro Plan. The related Cabinet note for the initiative should be referred to. [Can we get a copy of this related note?]

MEMORANDUM TO: The Honourable Charles Sousa
Minister of Finance

FROM: Scott Thompson
Deputy Minister of Finance

SUBJECT: Approval of an Order in Council under section 22 of the Capital Investment Plan Act~~related to the proposed Fair Hydro Act~~

Attached for your approval and signature is an Order in Council ("OIC") under section 22 of the Capital Investment Plan Act ("CIPA") for the purpose of authorizing the Minister of Finance ~~obtaining authorization~~ to make loan(s) to the Ontario Financing Authority ("OFA"). The proceeds from these loans would~~will~~ allow the OFA to on-lend to the Independent Electricity Systems Operator ("IESO") in connection with the implementation of~~as required under~~ the Province's proposed Fair Hydro Act, 2017.

Formatted: Font: Italic

Under the mechanism in the proposed Fair Hydro Act, 2017, the IESO would incur a funding shortfall because the IESO will not collect enough Global Adjustment amounts to fund the IESO's contractual obligations to electricity producers and service providers in the current period, but instead defer some of those amounts to be collected in the future. The IESO has requested a revolving credit facility to cover any such funding shortfalls if the financing entity to be established by OPG ("OPG SPV"), at any time, chooses not to purchase a portion of the regulatory asset which would consist of the right to recover the funding shortfall from specified consumers in future as set out in the Fair Hydro Act, 2017.

The OFA obtains the funding it needs to carry out its lending program by borrowing from the Province. This proposed OIC authorizes the Minister of Finance to lend up to Canadian $3.5 billion to the OFA. In addition, in order for the OFA to make the loan to the IESO, a direction from the Minister of Finance under CIPA will be required in future.

~~Under the mechanism in the proposed Fair Hydro Act, the IESO requires a revolving credit facility to cover clean energy costs if for some reason the Trust, at any time, chooses not to purchase a portion of the deferred Global Adjustment amounts. For the OFA to lend to the IESO, the OFA must be able to borrow from the Minister of Finance to on-lend. This proposed OIC authorizes the Minister of Finance to lend up to Canadian $3.5 billion to the OFA.~~

Décret

On the recommendation of the undersigned, the Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, by and with the advice and concurrence of the Executive Council of Ontario, orders that:

Sur la recommandation de la personne soussignée, la lieutenante-gouverneure de l'Ontario, sur l'avis et avec le consentement du Conseil exécutif de l'Ontario, décrète ce qui suit :

WHEREAS pursuant to subsection 22(1) of the Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993 (the "Act"), the Minister of Finance may purchase securities of or make loans to corporations established under subsection 2(1) of the Act in such amounts, at such times and on such terms and conditions as the Lieutenant Governor in Council considers expedient;

AND WHEREAS the Ontario Financing Authority (the "OFA") is a corporation established under subsection 2(1) of the Act;

AND WHEREAS pursuant to subsection 6(3) of the Act, the power of a corporation established under subsection 2(1) of the Act to borrow and issue securities, among other things, may only be exercised under the authority of a by-law that has been approved by the Minister of Finance;

AND WHEREAS the OFA wishes to borrow up to Three Billion Five Hundred Million Dollars in lawful money of Canada from the Minister of Finance and has been authorized to do so by a borrowing by-law approved in accordance with the Act;

THEREFORE:

Pursuant to subsection 22 (1) of the Act, the Minister of Finance is authorized to lend a maximum of Three Billion Five Hundred Million Dollars in lawful money of Canada to the OFA on the following terms and conditions:

(a) the loan may be advanced in such amounts and at such time or times as required by the OFA;

(b) repayment of advances made under the loan plus accrued interest may be made in whole or in part at any time provided that the loan plus any accrued interest shall be fully repaid by June 30, 2053;

(c) each advance (an “Advance”) made under the loan hereby authorized shall bear interest at a rate which is determined as follows:

(i) from the date of the Advance to (but excluding) the date of repayment the Advance shall bear interest at a per annum rate equivalent to the yield earned on ninety day Province of Ontario treasury bills on the date before the Advance Date as determined by the Province, provided that if an Advance is outstanding for longer than ninety days, the interest rate shall be reset on the last day of each ninety day period (the “Reset Date”) to the yield earned on ninety day Province of Ontario treasury bills immediately preceding the Reset Date for such ninety day period as determined by the Province;

(ii) in the event that moneys included in an Advance are used by the OFA for the purpose of funding loans to third parties (a “Third Party Loan”), the rate of interest payable by the OFA to the Province on the portion of the Advance so used shall be adjusted effective as of the date that the portion of the Advance is used to fund the Third Party Loan so that the per annum rate of interest payable by the OFA on such moneys is equivalent to the per annum rate of interest payable to the OFA under the Third Party Loan less an amount as may be determined by the Minister of Finance in respect of such Third Party Loan or a class of such Third Party Loans, until but excluding the date on which the Third Party Loan is repaid, at which time the interest rate set out in subparagraph (i) shall again be applicable to that portion of the Advance; and

(iii) in the event that moneys described in subparagraph (ii), once repaid, are subsequently used to fund loans to third parties, subparagraph (ii) shall again be applicable in determining the interest rate payable to the Province on that portion of the Advance used to fund such loan, and so on, until the Advance shall be repaid to the Province in full;

(iv) despite subparagraphs (ii) and (iii), in the event that no interest is payable to the OFA under a Third Party Loan, no interest shall be payable by the OFA on the portion of the Advance so used and to the extent that the terms of a Third Party Loan provide for the deferral of the payment of accrued interest for a period, the interest payment terms of an Advance or portion thereof shall also be deferred for a similar period.

(d) interest for any period of less than one year shall be payable for the actual number of days included in such period, computed on the basis of a 365-day year;

(e) despite paragraph (b) of this Order, interest on any portion of an Advance made to the OFA under the loan that is used by the OFA to fund a Third Party Loan shall accrue on the basis stated above but shall become payable only to the extent the OFA receives payment of interest under the relevant Third Party Loan;

(f) despite paragraph (b) of this Order, any portion of the principal of an Advance made to the OFA under the loan that is used by the OFA to fund a Third Party Loan shall become payable only to the extent the OFA receives repayment of principal under the relevant Third Party Loan; and

(g) the loan hereby authorized shall be evidenced by a promissory note.

ATTENDU QUE le ministre des Finances peut, en vertu du paragraphe 22 (1) de la Loi de 1993 sur le plan d'investissement (la « Loi »), acheter des valeurs mobilières des personnes morales créées en vertu du paragraphe 2 (1) de la Loi ou leur consentir des prêts selon les montants, aux moments et aux conditions que le lieutenant-gouverneur en conseil estime opportuns;

ATTENDU QUE l'Office ontarien de financement (l'« OOF ») est une personne morale créée en vertu du paragraphe 2 (1) de la Loi;

ATTENDU QUE, conformément au paragraphe 6 (3) de la Loi, le pouvoir qu'ont les personnes morales créées en vertu du paragraphe 2 (1) de la Loi de contracter des emprunts et d'émettre des valeurs mobilières, entre autres, ne peut être exercé qu'aux termes d'un règlement administratif approuvé par le ministre des Finances;

ATTENDU QUE l'OOF souhaite emprunter jusqu'à concurrence de trois milliards cinq cent millions de dollars en monnaie légale du Canada du ministre des Finances et qu'il a été autorisé à le faire par un règlement administratif d'emprunt approuvé conformément à la Loi;

PAR CONSÉQUENT :

en vertu du paragraphe 22 (1) de la Loi, le ministre des Finances est autorisé à prêter un montant maximal de trois milliards cinq cent millions de dollars en monnaie légale du Canada à l'OOF, aux conditions suivantes :

a) le prêt peut être consenti selon les montants et aux moments qui conviennent à l'OOF;

b) le remboursement des avances consenties au titre du prêt, plus les intérêts courus, peut à tout moment être effectué en totalité ou en partie, pourvu que le prêt et les intérêts courus soient entièrement remboursés au plus tard le 30 juin 2053;

c) chaque avance (« avance ») faite au titre du prêt autorisé par les présentes portera intérêt au taux est fixé comme suit :

(i) de la date où elle a été faite jusqu'à la date (non comprise) de son remboursement, l'avance portera intérêt à un taux annuel équivalant au rendement gagné sur des bons du Trésor de la province de l'Ontario de quatre-vingt-dix jours à la date précédant la date de l'avance fixée par la province, pourvu que ce taux d'intérêt soit rajusté le dernier jour de chaque période de quatre-vingt-dix jours (« date de rajustement ») selon le rendement gagné sur de tels bons du Trésor immédiatement avant la date de rajustement pour une période de quatre-vingt-dix jours décidée par la province, si l'avance est impayée pendant plus de quatre-vingt-dix jours;

(ii) dans l'éventualité où l'OOF se servirait de sommes comprises dans une avance pour financer des prêts à des tiers, le taux d'intérêt à payer par l'OOF à la province sur la partie de l'avance ainsi utilisée sera rajusté à la date à laquelle la partie de l'avance sera utilisée pour le financement du prêt à un tiers de façon que le taux d'intérêt annuel à payer par l'OOF sur de telles sommes soit équivalent à ce

dernier taux moins un montant que pourra fixer le ministre des Finances à l'égard d'un tel prêt ou d'une telle catégorie de prêt, jusqu'à la date (non comprise) à laquelle le prêt à un tiers sera remboursé, date à laquelle le taux d'intérêt établi au sous-alinéa (i) s'appliquera de nouveau à cette partie de l'avance;

(iii) dans l'éventualité où les sommes décrites au sous-alinéa (ii), une fois remboursées, seraient ultérieurement utilisées pour le financement de prêts à des tiers, le sous-alinéa (ii) s'appliquera de nouveau dans l'établissement du taux d'intérêt à payer à la province sur la partie de l'avance utilisée à cette fin, et ainsi de suite, jusqu'à ce que l'avance ait été remboursée intégralement à la province;

(iv) malgré les sous-alinéas (ii) et (iii), dans l'éventualité où aucun intérêt ne serait payable à l'OOF au titre d'un prêt à un tiers, aucun intérêt ne sera à payer par l'OOF sur la partie de l'avance ainsi utilisée et dans la mesure où les conditions du prêt à un tiers prévoient le report du paiement d'intérêts courus pour une période, le paiement d'intérêts au titre d'une avance ou d'une partie d'une avance sera également reporté pour une période d'égale durée;

d) l'intérêt payable relativement à toute période de moins d'un an sera calculé en fonction du nombre de jours réellement compris dans cette période, par rapport à une année comptant 365 jours;

e) par dérogation à l'alinéa a) ci-dessus, l'intérêt sur toute partie d'une avance consentie à l'OOF dans le cadre du prêt que cette dernière utilise pour financer un prêt à un tiers est calculé comme il est indiqué ci-dessus, mais cet intérêt devient payable uniquement dans la mesure où l'OOF reçoit un paiement d'intérêts au titre du prêt à un tiers;

f) par dérogation à l'alinéa b) ci-dessus, toute partie du capital d'une avance consentie à l'OOF dans le cadre du prêt que cette dernière utilise pour financer un prêt à un tiers devient payable uniquement dans la mesure où l'OOF reçoit un remboursement du capital au titre du prêt à un tiers

g) le prêt autorisé en vertu des présentes sera attesté par un billet à ordre.

Subject: FW: OIC s22 CIPA - OFA-IESO

Hi All,

As you may be aware The Fair Hydro Act was passed today. As a result we updated language in the materials. E.g., ~~proposed~~ Ontario Fair Hydro Act, 2017. No content changes. I think these updates affected the first three attached documents but not the 4th , i.e., the OIC.

Thanks
Bruno

Hi Patrick

Apologies, regarding the French translation. 1) I had updated using my high school French and 2) in the translation I had missed updating the change in date from June to December 31, 2017. I have revised in attached "4 – CIPA s.22…" , but of course, this should be reviewed.

Thanks

Hi Patrick,

As the OIC package was going through our OFA approvals, we have now been directed that the OIC amount should be $2.0 billion, with an expiry date of June 30, 2047, to line up with the IESO request and the term of the FHP.

I'll recirculate the updated LRC package once I get a finalized version in place. Could we update the OIC to reflect this as I know it may take some time.

Let us know.

Thank you,
Salman

s. 1 Proposal and Context

- Approval is being sought for an OIC under section 22 of Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993 ("CIPA"), which will authorize the Minister of Finance to provide loan(s) to the Ontario Financing Authority ("OFA") in an amount of up to $2.0 billion. Under the proposed OIC, repayment of advances made under the loan plus accrued interest may be made in whole or in part at any time provided that the loan plus any accrued interest shall be fully repaid by December 31, 2047.

- Subsection 22(1) of CIPA authorizes the Minister of Finance to make loans to the OFA in the amounts, times and on the terms and conditions authorized by Lieutenant Governor in Council ("LGIC"). Subsection 22(2) provides a statutory appropriation for loans made by the Minister to the OFA under subsection 22(1).

- Existing OICs authorize the Minister of Finance to provide loans to the OFA, and in turn the OFA has provided loans and credit facilities to colleges, school boards and other public bodies such as Infrastructure Ontario, IESO, Ontario Lottery and Gaming Corporation and Liquor Control Board of Ontario.

- This proposed OIC is required to increase the authority of the Minister of Finance to lend to the OFA which will provide the OFA with the capacity to provide additional loans to the Independent Electricity System Operator ("IESO").
    - This will help the IESO to fulfil the commitments under the Fair Hydro Act, 2017 as the IESO will have to finance short to medium term funding shortfalls in the implementation of the Fair Hydro Plan.
    - The timing of this OIC is critical to ensure that borrowing authority for the OFA is available to provide the IESO its requested financing arrangements under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.

s. 2 Approach and Intended Outcomes

- Under CIPA, the OFA provides financing to public bodies as directed by the Minister of Finance. The OFA obtains the funds it needs for its lending program by borrowing from the Province. This OIC would authorize the Minister of Finance under section 22 of CIPA to provide additional loans to the OFA.

- As per subsection 3(1) of CIPA, the Minister of Finance is responsible for the administration of CIPA with respect to the OFA.

- This proposed OIC is required to assist in fulfilling the commitments under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.

- It is expected that as part of the implementation, the Minister of Finance will direct the OFA to provide a revolving credit facility for short term financing related to the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017. In particular, the OFA would be directed to provide a credit facility to the Independent Electricity System Operator ("IESO"). The IESO is a public body for the purposes of CIPA.

- Under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017, the IESO will incur a monthly funding shortfall in the early years of the plan, as a portion of the Global Adjustment charge to ratepayers will be deferred to the future. During this period, Global Adjustment amounts collected from ratepayers will, therefore, be insufficient to fund the IESO's contractual obligations to electricity producers and service providers.

- The Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 gives the IESO the right to recover those deferred amounts from specified consumers in the future (the "regulatory asset") and the ability to sell the regulatory asset to a financing entity.
    - It is anticipated that the regulatory asset will be purchased by the financing entity to be established by OPG ("OPG SPV", an OPG special purpose vehicle or trust).
    - The cash received from selling the regulatory asset will be used by the IESO to fund the current Global Adjustment shortfall.

- There is expected to be initial and potential ongoing IESO cash flow requirement timing differences. The OPG SPV is not anticipated to be established and able to borrow to finance the purchase of the regulatory asset from the IESO until later in 2017 (planned for later in summer 2017; however, exact timing is subject to actual implementation). Even once the SPV is set up to borrow, there is expected to be timing differences between the IESO's monthly settlement process when it has to pay generators and when the SPV purchases the asset from IESO. Also, under the legislation, OPG's SPV is not required to purchase any portion of the regulatory asset.

- As a result, IESO requires short-term financing to be in place for initial and expected monthly timing differences, or in the event that the OPG SPV, at any time, does not purchase a portion of the regulatory asset.

- IESO has requested that the OFA provide a revolving credit facility of $2.0 billion to support its role in the implementation of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.

- It is proposed that the OIC authorizes the OFA to borrow an additional $2.0 billion, which would be in addition to existing authority for the Minister of Finance to provide loans to the OFA, to ensure that there is sufficient borrowing authority in place for the OFA to meet the IESO requested requirements.

- If approved, the Minister of Finance will subsequently provide a Directive to the OFA to direct it to provide credit facilities to the IESO.
    - The OFA currently provides a credit facility to the IESO of $975 million.
    - The IESO has requested that the existing credit facility be reduced to $475 million, and a new credit facility be provided of $2.0 billion, for a total amount of $2.475 billion.

s. 3 Direction and Urgency

- The Province passed legislation on May 31, 2017 to implement the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017, which will reduce electricity bills by 25 per cent on average for eligible households.
- The ability for the OFA to have the requisite borrowing and lending capacity is instrumental in supporting implementation of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.
- Ministry of Energy proposed regulations under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 are expected to track for Cabinet approval by end of June 2017. It is expected that this OIC also be submitted for approval concurrently as it supports a crucial component of the successfully implementation of the Fair Hydro Plan.
- A related Cabinet Minute from the Ministry of Energy is tracking for June 27, 2017 date.

s. 4 Impact Assessment and Costs

- With this OIC, the Minister of Finance will be authorized to lend an additional amount of $2.0 billion to the OFA. Subject to the terms and conditions of a Directive from the Minister of Finance, loans from the Minister of Finance to the OFA are expected to be at the Province's cost of funds.

- Loans advanced will result in increased borrowing in the debt markets by the Province.
- Loans are expected to be repaid and, therefore, no fiscal impact is expected.

s. 5 Implementation

- If the OIC is approved and signed, the Minister of Finance will have authorization to provide a loan to the OFA. A Directive from the Minister may provide direction to the OFA on how it can use the proceeds of the loan.

s. 6 Delivery and Results Tracking

- As described in section 2 above, the requirement for this OIC is a result of the Province's Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 and is required to ensure the timely implementation and support for the success of the Fair Hydro Plan. Upon approval, the Minister of Finance will have authorization to provide a loan to the OFA with a directive on how the loan can be used.

s.7 Stakeholder Consultations

- As described in section 2 above, the requirement for this OIC is a result of the Province's Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017. The related Cabinet note for the initiative should be referred to.

MEMORANDUM TO: Scott Thompson
Deputy Minister of Finance

FROM: Gadi Mayman
Chief Executive Officer

SUBJECT: Approval of an Order in Council under section 22 of the *Capital Investment Plan Act

Attached for the Minister's review and consideration is a submission for an Order in Council ("OIC") under section 22 of the Capital Investment Plan Act ("CIPA") for the purpose of authorizing the Minister of Finance to make loan(s) to the Ontario Financing Authority ("OFA"). The proceeds from these loans would allow the OFA to lend to the Independent Electricity Systems Operator ("IESO") in connection with the implementation of the Province's Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017, subject to the approval of the Legislature.

IESO has requested that the OFA provide a revolving credit facility of $2.0 billion to support its role in the implementation of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.

Under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017, the IESO will incur a monthly funding shortfall in the early years of the plan, as a portion of the Global Adjustment charge to ratepayers will be deferred to the future. During this period, Global Adjustment amounts collected from ratepayers will be insufficient to fund the IESO's contractual obligations to electricity producers and service providers. The Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 gives the IESO the right to recover those deferred amounts from specified consumers in the future (the "regulatory asset") and the ability to sell the regulatory asset to a financing entity. It is anticipated that the regulatory asset would be purchased by the financing entity to be established by OPG ("OPG SPV"), an OPG special purpose vehicle or trust. The cash received from selling the regulatory asset would be used by the IESO to fund the current Global Adjustment shortfall.

There is expected to be initial and ongoing IESO cash flow requirement timing differences. The OPG SPV is not anticipated to be established and able to borrow to finance the purchase of the regulatory asset from the IESO until later in 2017 (planned for later in summer 2017; however, exact timing is subject to actual implementation). Even once the SPV is set up to borrow, there is expected to be timing differences between the IESO's monthly settlement process when it has to pay generators and when the SPV purchases the asset from IESO. Also, under the proposed legislation, OPG's SPV is not required to purchase any portion of the regulatory asset.

As a result, IESO requires short-term financing to be in place for initial and expected monthly timing differences, or in the event that the OPG SPV, at any time, does not purchase a portion of the regulatory asset.

The OFA obtains the funding it needs to carry out its lending programs by borrowing from the Province. This proposed OIC authorizes the Minister of Finance to lend up to an additional Canadian $2.0 billion to the OFA. In addition, in order for the OFA to provide the IESO its requested credit facility, a direction from the Minister of Finance to the OFA under CIPA will also be required, which the OFA will seek following an approval of the OIC.

Attached for your signature is a memorandum from you to the Minister requesting that the Minister recommend the OIC. This OIC is on track to be considered at LRC on June 27, 2017 together with proposed Ministry of Energy submission for regulations related to the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.

Order in Council
Décret

On the recommendation of the undersigned, the Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, by and with the advice and concurrence of the Executive Council of Ontario, orders that:

Sur la recommandation de la personne soussignée, la lieutenante-gouverneure de l'Ontario, sur l'avis et avec le consentement du Conseil exécutif de l'Ontario, décrète ce qui suit :

WHEREAS pursuant to subsection 22(1) of the Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993 (the "Act"), the Minister of Finance may purchase securities of or make loans to corporations established under subsection 2(1) of the Act in such amounts, at such times and on such terms and conditions as the Lieutenant Governor in Council considers expedient;

AND WHEREAS the Ontario Financing Authority (the "OFA") is a corporation established under subsection 2(1) of the Act;

AND WHEREAS pursuant to subsection 6(3) of the Act, the power of a corporation established under subsection 2(1) of the Act to borrow and issue securities, among other things, may only be exercised under the authority of a by-law that has been approved by the Minister of Finance;

AND WHEREAS the OFA wishes to borrow up to Two Billion Dollars in lawful money of Canada from the Minister of Finance and has been authorized to do so by a borrowing by-law approved in accordance with the Act;

THEREFORE:

Pursuant to subsection 22 (1) of the Act, the Minister of Finance is authorized to lend a maximum of Two Billion Dollars in lawful money of Canada to the OFA on the following terms and conditions:

(a) the loan may be advanced in such amounts and at such time or times as required by the OFA;

(b) repayment of advances made under the loan plus accrued interest may be made in whole or in part at any time provided that the loan plus any accrued interest shall be fully repaid by December 31, 2047;

(c) each advance (an “Advance”) made under the loan hereby authorized shall bear interest at a rate which is determined as follows:

(i) from the date of the Advance to (but excluding) the date of repayment the Advance shall bear interest at a per annum rate equivalent to the yield earned on ninety day Province of Ontario treasury bills on the date before the Advance Date as determined by the Province, provided that if an Advance is outstanding for longer than ninety days, the interest rate shall be reset on the last day of each ninety day period (the “Reset Date”) to the yield earned on ninety day Province of Ontario treasury bills immediately preceding the Reset Date for such ninety day period as determined by the Province;

(ii) in the event that moneys included in an Advance are used by the OFA for the purpose of funding loans to third parties (a “Third Party Loan”), the rate of interest payable by the OFA to the Province on the portion of the Advance so used shall be adjusted effective as of the date that the portion of the Advance is used to fund the Third Party Loan so that the per annum rate of interest payable by the OFA on such moneys is equivalent to the per annum rate of interest payable to the OFA under the Third Party Loan less an amount as may be determined by the Minister of Finance in respect of such Third Party Loan or a class of such Third Party Loans, until but excluding the date on which the Third Party Loan is repaid, at which time the interest rate set out in subparagraph (i) shall again be applicable to that portion of the Advance; and

(iii) in the event that moneys described in subparagraph (ii), once repaid, are subsequently used to fund loans to third parties, subparagraph (ii) shall again be applicable in determining the interest rate payable to the Province on that portion of the Advance used to fund such loan, and so on, until the Advance shall be repaid to the Province in full;

(iv) despite subparagraphs (ii) and (iii), in the event that no interest is payable to the OFA under a Third Party Loan, no interest shall be payable by the OFA on the portion of the Advance so used and to the extent that the terms of a Third Party Loan provide for the deferral of the payment of accrued interest for a period, the interest payment terms of an Advance or portion thereof shall also be deferred for a similar period.

(d) interest for any period of less than one year shall be payable for the actual number of days included in such period, computed on the basis of a 365-day year;

(e) despite paragraph (b) of this Order, interest on any portion of an Advance made to the OFA under the loan that is used by the OFA to fund a Third Party Loan shall accrue on the basis stated above but shall become payable only to the extent the OFA receives payment of interest under the relevant Third Party Loan;

(f) despite paragraph (b) of this Order, any portion of the principal of an Advance made to the OFA under the loan that is used by the OFA to fund a Third Party Loan shall become payable only to the extent the OFA receives repayment of principal under the relevant Third Party Loan; and

(g) the loan hereby authorized shall be evidenced by a promissory note.

ATTENDU QUE le ministre des Finances peut, en vertu du paragraphe 22 (1) de la Loi de 1993 sur le plan d'investissement (la « Loi »), acheter des valeurs mobilières des personnes morales créées en vertu du paragraphe 2 (1) de la Loi ou leur consentir des prêts selon les montants, aux moments et aux conditions que le lieutenant-gouverneur en conseil estime opportuns;

ATTENDU QUE l'Office ontarien de financement (l'« OOF ») est une personne morale créée en vertu du paragraphe 2 (1) de la Loi;

ATTENDU QUE, conformément au paragraphe 6 (3) de la Loi, le pouvoir qu'ont les personnes morales créées en vertu du paragraphe 2 (1) de la Loi de contracter des emprunts et d'émettre des valeurs mobilières, entre autres, ne peut être exercé qu'aux termes d'un règlement administratif approuvé par le ministre des Finances;

ATTENDU QUE l'OOF souhaite emprunter jusqu'à concurrence de deux milliards de dollars en monnaie légale du Canada du ministre des Finances et qu'il a été autorisé à le faire par un règlement administratif d'emprunt approuvé conformément à la Loi;

PAR CONSÉQUENT :

en vertu du paragraphe 22 (1) de la Loi, le ministre des Finances est autorisé à prêter un montant maximal de deux milliards de dollars en monnaie légale du Canada à l'OOF, aux conditions suivantes :

a) le prêt peut être consenti selon les montants et aux moments qui conviennent à l'OOF;

b) le remboursement des avances consenties au titre du prêt, plus les intérêts courus, peut à tout moment être effectué en totalité ou en partie, pourvu que le prêt et les intérêts courus soient entièrement remboursés au plus tard le 31 décembre 2047;

c) chaque avance (« avance ») faite au titre du prêt autorisé par les présentes portera intérêt au taux est fixé comme suit :

(i) de la date où elle a été faite jusqu'à la date (non comprise) de son remboursement, l'avance portera intérêt à un taux annuel équivalant au rendement gagné sur des bons du Trésor de la province de l'Ontario de quatre-vingt-dix jours à la date précédant la date de l'avance fixée par la province, pourvu que ce taux d'intérêt soit rajusté le dernier jour de chaque période de quatre-vingt-dix jours (« date de rajustement ») selon le rendement gagné sur de tels bons du Trésor immédiatement avant la date de rajustement pour une période de quatre-vingt-dix jours décidée par la province, si l'avance est impayée pendant plus de quatre-vingt-dix jours;

(ii) dans l'éventualité où l'OOF se servirait de sommes comprises dans une avance pour financer des prêts à des tiers, le taux d'intérêt à payer par l'OOF à la province sur la partie de l'avance ainsi utilisée sera rajusté à la date à laquelle la partie de l'avance sera utilisée pour le financement du prêt à un tiers de façon que le taux d'intérêt annuel à payer par l'OOF sur de telles sommes soit équivalent à ce

dernier taux moins un montant que pourra fixer le ministre des Finances à l'égard d'un tel prêt ou d'une telle catégorie de prêt, jusqu'à la date (non comprise) à laquelle le prêt à un tiers sera remboursé, date à laquelle le taux d'intérêt établi au sous-alinéa (i) s'appliquera de nouveau à cette partie de l'avance;

(iii) dans l'éventualité où les sommes décrites au sous-alinéa (ii), une fois remboursées, seraient ultérieurement utilisées pour le financement de prêts à des tiers, le sous-alinéa (ii) s'appliquera de nouveau dans l'établissement du taux d'intérêt à payer à la province sur la partie de l'avance utilisée à cette fin, et ainsi de suite, jusqu'à ce que l'avance ait été remboursée intégralement à la province;

(iv) malgré les sous-alinéas (ii) et (iii), dans l'éventualité où aucun intérêt ne serait payable à l'OOF au titre d'un prêt à un tiers, aucun intérêt ne sera à payer par l'OOF sur la partie de l'avance ainsi utilisée et dans la mesure où les conditions du prêt à un tiers prévoient le report du paiement d'intérêts courus pour une période, le paiement d'intérêts au titre d'une avance ou d'une partie d'une avance sera également reporté pour une période d'égale durée;

d) l'intérêt payable relativement à toute période de moins d'un an sera calculé en fonction du nombre de jours réellement compris dans cette période, par rapport à une année comptant 365 jours;

e) par dérogation à l'alinéa a) ci-dessus, l'intérêt sur toute partie d'une avance consentie à l'OOF dans le cadre du prêt que cette dernière utilise pour financer un prêt à un tiers est calculé comme il est indiqué ci-dessus, mais cet intérêt devient payable uniquement dans la mesure où l'OOF reçoit un paiement d'intérêts au titre du prêt à un tiers;

Hi again – the TBS DM has agreed with the staff recommendation here that it would be best if this request went to the Minister of Finance rather than the President of TB, since it primarily covers financing activities and since it fits in with/overlaps with some of the other activities that MOF and the OFA are more directly involved in.

I know this is coming somewhat late so wanted to check in with you both to make sure you're comfortable with that approach before I suggest to Harkamal that she and her clients direct their request to MOF. Happy to stay involved or help out, or discuss if you have concerns.

Thanks,

Paul

Hi – as discussed with Malle just now, attached are the latest materials that we received through energy legal, and a note to the TBS client that summarizes a discussion I had this morning with Harkamal about this.

James, I spoke to counsel at Energy about the proposed revisions to the boilerplate indemnity agreements. I told her that some minor clarifications to the existing text likely wouldn't raise concerns here, but that even minor changes might add some time to the approvals process on our end.

The changes that OPG is proposing are more substantive in nature and in a number of cases seem like they would result in the province assuming more than a reasonable amount of risk. Energy legal agrees with this and it sounds like energy is going to push back pretty hard with OPG. They also understand that we'll need them to provide a rationale for any substantive deviations from the original draft agreements.

It sounds like Energy is hoping to finalize the agreements today or tomorrow and proceed with approvals on their end. They hope to get us a minister-signed request by early next week, but will share the materials that they send up the line in the interim.

I also flagged the appropriations issue and they are going to consider it further. I didn't note the section 22 option because, as discussed, it's not clear if MOF would be comfortable with it. Our branch is going to discuss this file with MOF legal today, and we understand they are also talking to the OFA today.

Thanks for this Paul.

We received comments back from OPG and IESO on the Business case as well as on the indemnity agreements. I've attached the updated business case that includes changes to reflect your comments as well as OPG and IESO's comments. Please let us know if you have any further concerns.

On the indemnity agreements, we are working through the proposed changes that both IESO and OPG have proposed to them. The IESO indemnity agreement changes that the IESO has proposed appear to be okay, and I've just made some further edits/comments that I am in the process of clarifying with IESO. Could you please take a look at the attached and let us know if there are any concerns from your end on the changes?

The OPG changes to its indemnity agreement are much more substantial and we are working through them still, however, I am wondering whether you can take a look and let us know if you or your policy clients have any significant concerns as well in the interests of time. The changes seem to be more for clarity, but given that they differ from the standard template language just wanted to make sure TBS is comfortable. Both clean and tracked versions of the OPG indemnity agreement are attached.

If it is easier and would be quicker to have a call to discuss, I would be happy to set something up.

Thank you,

Thanks very much Paul – we've asked OPG/IESO to provide us with specifics on the risks as they would be in the best position to advise on these. I am hoping to receive their input by tomorrow and will send to you accordingly.

On the timing of the security offerings, I am assuming you are asking about the security offerings to be made to the investors with respect to the special purpose entity. We don't have a certain date but generally I believe we are looking at some time in Fall 2017 (Tim/Kaitlin, please correct me if I am wrong on this).

If you have further questions, please let us know.

Hi Harkamal – we're still reviewing whether this might go to MOF instead of TBS, but in the interim had some questions from the information set out in the business case:

Can some examples of the risks associated with securities offerings (generally, typically)be provided, and on how Energy might mitigate those risks risk?

Also, can Energy provide info on timing of securities offerings (when expecting to be in the market)?

I'll have some more technical feedback that I'll likely get to you tomorrow.

Hi Paul,

As discussed, I've attached our draft s.28 approval materials as well as the indemnity agreements for the IESO and OPG. We are also consulting further with OPG and IESO on providing input on the risks to them if the indemnities are not provided so there may be further changes to these materials based on comments from OPG/IESO. These materials are drafts for TBS legal/policy review and input before we finalize. Once we've addressed TBS' comments we will submit the finalized documents for formal s.28 approval.

As mentioned, we require the section 28 approval by June 1, 2017, so if there is anything we can do to assist with speeding things up, please let us know as we recognize these are tight timelines.

Also, I understand that this is to go to TBS for approval (this goes back to our conversation earlier, whether Finance or TBS needs to approve). Please let us know if you hear otherwise.

If you require anything else from us please let us know. I've copied our program area clients on this email as well.

Many thanks,

Harkamal

CONFIDENTIAL DRAFT

INDEMNITY AGREEMENT

THIS INDEMNITY AGREEMENT effective as of this day of June, 2017.

BETWEEN: Ontario Power Generation Inc.
(hereinafter the "Corporation")

OF THE FIRST PART,

Her Majesty the Queen in Right of the Province of Ontario as Represented by the Minister of Energy

(hereinafter called the "Province")

OF THE SECOND PART

WHEREAS the Corporation and/or one or more of its subsidiaries may or, in certain circumstances is or will be required to, carry out certain activities with respect to (i) the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act"), (ii) the regulations made pursuant to the Act, and/or (iii) the agreements (A) relating to any financing entity (as defined in the Act) and/or any debt issued by any such financing entity and/or (B) to which any such financing entity is a party (the Act, such regulations and agreements, collectively the "Fair Hydro Plan").

AND WHEREAS the Corporation, its subsidiaries and each of their respective directors, officers and employees may face risk of liability due to or as a result of the Fair Hydro Plan.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the sum of $1.00 now paid by the Corporation to the Province and other good and valuable consideration (the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged), the Province hereby agrees:

1. To indemnify, defend and save harmless the Corporation, each of the Corporation's subsidiaries and each of their respective directors, officers, and employees (collectively the "Protected Persons" and individually, a "Protected Person") from and against all losses, costs, damages, charges, expenses, demands, liabilities, taxes, fines, penalties, statutory payments, judgments and/or settlement amounts directly or indirectly suffered, sustained or incurred by any Protected Person, including any special, indirect, incidental, punitive, exemplary and/or consequential damages and/or loss of profits and damages in respect of economic loss and/or loss of opportunity, and all legal and other professional fees and out-of-pocket expenses (collectively, "Losses"), in relation to any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative and/or other claim, demand, action, suit, application, litigation, charge, complaint, prosecution, assessment, reassessment, investigation (formal or informal), hearing and/or other proceeding of any nature or kind whatsoever (any of the foregoing being a "Claim") arising, directly or indirectly, as a result of the Corporation's, any of the Corporation's subsidiaries and/or any such other Protected Person's activities, acts and/or omissions in the implementation of, or otherwise relating to, the Fair Hydro Plan (including, without limitation, where a Protected Person is acting, at the request of the Corporation, in a different capacity than as a director, officer or employee of the Corporation or a subsidiary of the Corporation).

2. This indemnity does not apply with respect to Losses of a Protected Person:

    (a) for which coverage is provided under an insurance policy but only to the extent that a Protected Person is actually paid under such insurance policy for those Losses; or

    (b) for which other indemnities are already provided to a Protected Person but only to the extent that the Protected Person is actually so indemnified for those Losses by such indemnities; or

    (c) if and to the extent that a court of competent jurisdiction in a final, non-appealable judgment determines that the Claim associated with such Losses resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Protected Person claiming such indemnity; for greater certainty, and notwithstanding Section 2(d), the Province agrees that it does not intend that any failure by a Protected Person to conduct such reasonable investigation as necessary to provide the Corporation, a subsidiary of the Corporation or a financing entity, as applicable, with reasonable grounds for believing any prospectus, registration statement, offering document or any other document filed by, or on behalf of, a financing entity under applicable securities laws contained no misrepresentation shall constitute "gross negligence" or "wilful misconduct" for purposes of this Section 2(c) or otherwise disentitle a Protected Person from indemnification hereunder; or

    (d) to the extent arising from any circumstances in which a Protected Person did not have reasonable grounds for believing that the Protected Person's conduct was lawful in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that enforces a monetary penalty.

3. In order to be entitled to indemnification hereunder in respect of any Losses, the Protected Person shall:

    (a) as soon as practicable, deliver to the Province (through the Director of the Legal Services Branch of the Ministry of Energy) a notice setting forth in reasonable detail the particulars of any Claim;

    (b) upon written request of the Province, furnish to the Province copies of any document, or provide to the Province any information, that relates to the Claims that is in the possession or under the control of the Protected Person (except to the extent that provision of same would cause the Protected Party to lose its entitlement to claim privilege with respect to same);

DRAFT

(c) take all reasonable steps, at the expense of the Province, necessary to secure and preserve the rights of the Protected Person in respect of the Claim; and

(d) promptly take all reasonable steps to obtain indemnification to the fullest extent possible under insurance policies, or under indemnities provided by the Corporation, that are referred to in subsections 2(a) or (b) above.

A failure to give prompt notice as provided in this section 3 shall not affect the rights or obligations of any party to this indemnity unless and only to the extent that such failure to provide such prompt notice has actually prejudiced the Province.

4. The Province shall have the right to participate in or, where the Province has confirmed in writing to the applicable Protected Person(s) that all Losses in respect of a Claim will be fully indemnified under this indemnity agreement, assume control of the negotiation, settlement or defence of the Claim and in no event shall a Protected Person negotiate, settle, compromise or pay the Claim without the prior written consent of the Province, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. If the Province elects to so participate in or assume control of the negotiation, settlement or defence of the Claim, the applicable Protected Person(s) shall co-operate fully with the Province in connection with the same, and each applicable Protected Person shall agree to be represented by legal counsel chosen by the Province, unless, in the opinion of such legal counsel, there would arise a conflict of interest preventing such legal counsel from representing the applicable Protected Person. Where it is such legal counsel's opinion that a conflict of interest prevents that legal counsel representing a Protected Person, the Protected Person will be entitled, after consultation with the Province and acting reasonably, to obtain legal counsel of the Protected Person's choice, and the fees and expenses of the Protected Person's counsel incurred in the Protected Person's representation shall be Losses to which this indemnity extends. The Province shall not agree to any settlement of a Claim on behalf of a Protected Person without the Protected Person's written consent unless (i) the terms of such settlement require only the payment of money (by persons or entities other than the Protected Person) and include an unconditional, full release of the Protected Person, and do not require a Protected Person to admit any wrongdoing or take or refrain from taking any action and (ii) the Province has fully indemnified the Protected Person with respect to, and held the Protected Person harmless from and against, all Losses incurred by or on behalf of the Protected Person in connection with the Claim.

5. The Province shall reimburse or advance the funds necessary for the payment of Losses incurred in connection with any Claim, including without limitation, the investigation, monitoring, defence and appeal thereof, in advance of the final disposition of such Claim, within thirty (30) days of any request in writing by a Protected Person to the Province for such reimbursement or advance, accompanied by reasonable details and supporting documentation with respect to the Losses in respect of which such reimbursement or advance is requested. The Protected Person shall repay forthwith any advances that are ultimately in excess of amounts necessary for payment of any such Losses or for which it is judicially determined that the Protected Person is not entitled to indemnification hereunder.

DRAFT

6. The Province hereby waives any claim it, as the shareholder of the Corporation, could otherwise make against a Protected Person, whether now or in the future, relating in any way to the Corporation's, any of the Corporation's subsidiaries and/or any such other Protected Person's activities, acts and/or omissions in the implementation of, or otherwise relating to, the Fair Hydro Plan (including, without limitation, where a Protected Person is acting, at the request of the Corporation, in a different capacity than as a director, officer or employee of the Corporation or a subsidiary of the Corporation).

7. The Province represents and warrants to each Protected Person as follows and acknowledges that each Protected Person is relying on the following representations and warranties in connection with any and all of its activities, acts and/or omissions in the implementation of, or otherwise relating to, the Fair Hydro Plan (including where a Protected Person is acting, at the request of the Corporation, in a different capacity than as a director, officer or employee of the Corporation or a subsidiary of the Corporation):

    (a) the Province has all necessary power, authority and capacity to enter into this indemnity agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;

    (b) all necessary actions have been taken by the Province or on the Province's part to authorize its execution and delivery of this indemnity agreement and the performance of its obligations hereunder, and without limiting the foregoing, the Province has received all necessary approvals under the Financial Administration Act (Ontario) (including approval of the Minister of Finance pursuant to Section 28 of the Financial Administration Act (Ontario)) and under the Act required for it to enter into this indemnity agreement and perform its obligations hereunder;

    (c) this indemnity agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Province and is a legal, valid and binding obligation of it enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as that enforcement may be limited by the provisions of the Proceedings Against the Crown Act (Ontario), subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws now or hereinafter in effect relating to creditors' rights generally, to the application of equitable principles and except that equitable remedies may be granted only in the discretion of a court of competent jurisdiction, to section 11.3 of the Financial Administration Act (Ontario) and to section 43 of the Financial Administration Act (Ontario).

8. It is the intention of the Province to constitute the Corporation as trustee for the Protected Parties that are not party to this indemnity agreement of the covenants, waivers, representations, warranties and obligations of the Province under this indemnity agreement and the Corporation agrees to accept such trust and to hold and enforce such covenants, representations, warranties and obligations on behalf of such Protected Parties.

9. This indemnity agreement shall be interpreted and governed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein.

DRAFT

10. The provisions of this indemnity agreement and the benefit of all covenants, waivers, representations, warranties and other obligations herein contained shall enure to the benefit of the Protected Persons and the Protected Persons' heirs, administrators, executors and assigns as applicable.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties have executed this indemnity as of the day and year first above written.

The Province shall not agree to any settlement of a Claim on behalf of a Protected Person without the Protected Person's written consent unless (i) the terms of such settlement require only the payment of money (by persons or entities other than the Protected Person) and include an unconditional, full release of the Protected Person, and do not require a Protected Person to admit any wrongdoing or take or refrain from taking any action and (ii) the Province has fully indemnified the Protected Person with respect to, and held the Protected Person harmless from and against, all Losses incurred by or on behalf of the Protected Person in connection with the Claim.

5. ~~For greater clarity, with respect to directors, officers and employees of the Corporation this indemnity shall only apply to Claim(s) that are referable to the period during which a director, officer or employee of the Corporation is actually a director, officer or employee (respectively) of the Corporation, and of which notice is received by the Province either during the period of time that the director, officer, or employee is a director officer, employee of the Corporation or after he or she ceases to be a director, officer, employee of the Corporation.~~ The Province shall reimburse or advance the funds necessary for the payment of Losses incurred in connection with any Claim, including without limitation, the investigation, monitoring, defence and appeal thereof, in advance of the final disposition of such Claim, within thirty (30) days of any request in writing by a Protected Person to the Province for such reimbursement or advance, accompanied by reasonable details and supporting documentation with respect to the Losses in respect of which such reimbursement or advance is requested. The Protected Person shall repay forthwith any advances that are ultimately in excess of amounts necessary for payment of any such Losses or for which it is judicially determined that the Protected Person is not entitled to indemnification hereunder.

6. The Province hereby waives any claim it, as the shareholder of the Corporation, could otherwise make against a Protected Person, whether now or in the future, relating in any way to the Corporation's, any of the Corporation's subsidiaries and/or any such other Protected Person's activities, acts and/or omissions in the implementation of, or otherwise relating to, the Fair Hydro Plan (including, without limitation, where a Protected Person is acting, at the request of the Corporation, in a different capacity than as a director, officer or employee of the Corporation or a subsidiary of the Corporation).

7. The Province represents and warrants to each Protected Person as follows and acknowledges that each Protected Person is relying on the following representations and warranties in connection with any and all of its activities, acts and/or omissions in the implementation of, or otherwise relating to, the Fair Hydro Plan (including where a Protected Person is acting, at the request of the Corporation, in a different capacity than as a director, officer or employee of the Corporation or a subsidiary of the Corporation):

   (a) the Province has all necessary power, authority and capacity to enter into this indemnity agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;

   (b) all necessary actions have been taken by the Province or on the Province's part to authorize its execution and delivery of this indemnity agreement and the performance of its obligations hereunder, and without limiting the foregoing, the Province has received all necessary approvals under the Financial Administration Act (Ontario) (including approval of the Minister of Finance pursuant to Section 28 of the Financial Administration Act (Ontario)) and under the Act required for it to enter into this indemnity agreement and perform its obligations hereunder;

(c) this indemnity agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Province and is a legal, valid and binding obligation of it enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as that enforcement may be limited by the provisions of the Proceedings Against the Crown Act (Ontario), subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws now or hereinafter in effect relating to creditors' rights generally, to the application of equitable principles and except that equitable remedies may be granted only in the discretion of a court of competent jurisdiction, to section 11.3 of the Financial Administration Act (Ontario) and to section 43 of the Financial Administration Act (Ontario).

8. It is the intention of the Province to constitute the Corporation as trustee for the Protected Parties that are not party to this indemnity agreement of the covenants, waivers, representations, warranties and obligations of the Province under this indemnity agreement and the Corporation agrees to accept such trust and to hold and enforce such covenants, representations, warranties and obligations on behalf of such Protected Parties.

9. ~~6.~~ This indemnity agreement shall be interpreted and governed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein.

10. ~~7.~~ The provisions of this indemnity agreement and the benefit of all covenants, waivers, representations, warranties and other obligations herein contained shall enure to the benefit of the Protected Persons and the Protected Persons' heirs, administrators, executors and assigns as applicable.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties have executed this indemnity as of the day and year first above written.

Request for Approval
Pursuant to Section 28 of the Financial Administration Act (Ontario)

1. MINISTRY REQUEST

On March 2, 2017, the Premier announced Ontario's Fair Hydro Plan (the "ONFHP"), under which the government proposes to take steps to lower electricity bills on an after-tax basis by 25 per cent for a typical residential customer relative to what those bills would otherwise have been without the ONFHP. This proposed 25 per cent rate relief measure would be inclusive of the 8 per cent rebate that is already in effect under the Ontario Rebate for Electricity Consumers Act, 2016 and the savings that are anticipated to result from the proposed shifting of the Ontario Electricity Support Program ("OESP") and the Rural or Remote Rate Protection program ("RRRP") costs from ratepayers to provincial revenues. Changes to the Global Adjustment ("GA") are also proposed to be a component of the 25 per cent rate relief under the ONFHP.

On May 11, 2017 t~~T~~he Government introduced Bill 132, which, if passed would ~~is proposing to enact introduce~~ legislation to enable the implementation of the ONFHP (the "Proposed Legislation"). If the Proposed Legislation is passed, the implementation of the ONFHP will require the participation of the Ontario Power Generation ("OPG") and the Independent Electricity System Operator ("IESO") among other government entities. Both the OPG and the IESO have each requested an indemnity covering their respective corporations, subsidiaries (in the case of OPG), agents (in the case of IESO), directors, officers and employees in relation to their respective roles in carrying out the implementation of the ONFHP if the Proposed Legislation is passed.

Commented [PMK1]: This seems out of date now.

Commented [HM2]: I've updated

The Ministry is seeking the approval pursuant to section 28 of the Financial Administration Act (Ontario) to provide these indemnities, in the forms attached as Appendix "A" and Appendix "B" (collectively the "Indemnities" and individually the "Indemnity"), on behalf of the Crown to the OPG and IESO, respectively.

Timing:

Approval is sought by June 1, 2017. The Indemnities are required in conjunction with the coming into force of the Proposed Legislation, if passed.

2. RECOMMENDATION

Approve the giving of the Indemnities to OPG and IESO on the condition that such Indemnities shall only come into effect at the date upon which the proposed legislation is passed.

3. BACKGROUND

~~OPG – Role in Implementation of ONFHP~~

OPG – Role in Implementation of Ontario's Fair Hydro Plan (ONFHP)

OPG will play a central role in the implementation of the ONFHP, particularly with respect to the implementation of the GA refinancing component of the ONFHP. As part of the ONFHP, it was announced that a portion of the GA would be refinanced in order to fairly allocate costs across present and future generations of electricity consumers with respect to investments made to decarbonize (i.e., phase-out coal) and modernize Ontario's electricity system (i.e., build and maintain a reliable electricity system). This would result in a deferred GA amount that a special purpose entity created by OPG (i.e. a financing entity) is expected to finance. Risks associated with carrying out this role would fall outside of the scope of OPG's usual business/operations risks and would arise solely due to the OPG's role in implementation of the ONFHP. Examples of these risks include, without limitation:

- liability as a promoter under Canadian securities laws (or the equivalent, if any, under other applicable securities laws);
- secondary market liability under Canadian and/or other applicable securities laws;
- liability the signatories to the prospectuses will have (i.e., the individuals signing the prospectus); and
- liability of OPG as the Financial Services Manager under any of the transaction agreements (e.g., the Financial Services Management Agreement, the Administration Agreement, the MSSA, the Master Trust Indenture and any Supplemental Indentures).

As a result, pre-existing indemnities and protections do not adequately protect OPG, its subsidiaries and each of their respective directors, officers and employees as explained further below.

Providing the requested Indemnity to OPG would help facilitate OPG undertaking its role with respect to the implementation of the ONFHP.

~~The OPG will play a central role in the implementation of the ONFHP, particularly with respect to the implementation of the GA refinancing component of the ONFHP.~~

~~As part of ONFHP, it was announced that a portion of the GA would be refinanced in order to fairly allocate costs across present and future generations of electricity consumers with respect to investments made to decarbonize (i.e., phase-out coal) and modernize Ontario's electricity system (i.e., build and maintain a reliable electricity system). This would result in a deferred GA amount that OPG is expected to fund from a special purpose entity that OPG creates (i.e. a financing entity). It is likely that risks associated with carrying out this role would fall outside of the scope of OPG's usual business/operations risks and would arise solely due to the OPG's role in implementation of the ONFHP. This is particularly true with respect to any securities offerings of OPG's financing entity. Products are expected to be offered into the Canadian and U.S. Markets. As a result, pre-existing indemnities and protections do not adequately protect OPG, its directors, officers and employees.~~

~~Providing the requested Indemnity to OPG would help facilitate OPG undertaking its role with respect to the implementation of the ONFHP.~~

IESO – Role in Implementation of ONFHP

The Proposed Legislation, if passed would impose certain obligations and requirements on IESO to carry out various activities in relation to the implementation of the ONFHP such as the deferral of costs related to the GA, the creation of a regulatory asset in relation to the GA financing component of the ONFHP, the conveyance of that asset to OPG's financing entity and providing a servicing role in recovering OPG's funding costs from future ratepayers. IESO may also be required to play a role in potential securities offerings of OPG's financing entity. If so, this may come with heightened exposure to liability for the IESO, particularly for offerings into the US market.~~.~~ IESO has expressed concern that all of this drives an increased risk of liability to the IESO, its directors, officers and employees, which is over and above typical operations risks and arises solely due to the ONFHP.

Providing the requested Indemnity would help facilitate the IESO's undertaking of the activities requested by the Minister in order to facilitate the implementation of the ONFHP.

4. ANALYSIS SUPPORTING RECOMMENDATION

(a) Why the Indemnities are being sought?

(i) Indemnities are required to facilitate IESO and OPG in carrying out their respective roles in implementing the ONFHP Commented [HM3]: OPG/IESO input required on this regarding the specific risks they are concerned about.

~~The provision of the Indemnities to the IESO, OPG and their respective directors, officers and employees is required in order to facilitate the carrying out of implementation of the ONFHP in the event that the Proposed Legislation is passed. Both OPG and the IESO are anticipated to carry out activities that fall outside the scope of their typical business activities and corporate mandate. This creates the risk that such activities could be perceived as not being carried out in "good faith" or in the best interest of the corporation thereby exposing OPG and/or the IESO to increased liability (statutory protections from liability only extend to "good faith acts". This is further described in section (ii) below). If the indemnities are not provided, this could impact the OPG and IESO directors' willingness to undertake such activities jeopardizing the successful implementation of the ONFHP. Both the IESO and OPG have specifically asked for these Indemnities in order to allow them to carry out their roles in implementing the ONFHP.~~

~~Providing OPG and the IESO with the requested Indemnities will provide them with assurance against liability in order to allow them to comprehensively carry out their respective roles in the successful implementation of the ONFHP.~~

~~To the extent that a claim would be covered under any other indemnity provided to OPG or IESO by the Province, or provided by OPG or IESO to their directors, officers and employees, these Indemnities would not apply. Language to address any possible duplication is included in the attached Indemnities.~~

The provision of the Indemnities to the IESO, OPG, OPG's subsidiaries, and each of their respective directors, officers and employees, as well as IESO's agents is required in order to facilitate the carrying out of implementation of the ONFHP in the event that the Proposed Legislation is passed. Both OPG and the IESO are anticipated to carry out activities that fall outside the scope of their typical business activities and corporate mandate which existing indemnities would address. This creates the risk that such activities could be perceived as not being carried out in "good faith" or in the best interest of the corporation thereby exposing OPG and/or the IESO to increased liability (statutory protections from liability only extend to "good faith acts". In addition the statutory protections do not indemnify for costs relating to defending a claim. This is further described in section (ii) below). Examples of specific risks to OPG include, without limitation:

- liability as a promoter under Canadian securities laws (or the equivalent, if any, under other applicable securities laws);
- secondary market liability under Canadian and/or other applicable securities laws;
- liability that the signatories to the prospectuses will have (i.e., the individuals signing the prospectus); and
- liability of OPG as the Financial Services Manager under any of the transaction agreements (e.g., the Financial Services Management Agreement, the Administration Agreement, the MSSA, the Master Trust Indenture and any Supplemental Indentures).

Examples of specific risks to the IESO include without limitation,

- liability for its role in potential securities offerings of OPG's financing entity. This may come with heightened exposure to liability for the IESO, particularly for offerings into the U.S. market. It is not clear whether the statutory protections would apply federally or in the U.S. context. If they would not extend to a U.S. claim, for example, it would support the need for a separate indemnity for the IESO.

If the indemnities are not provided, this could impact OPG and the IESO's willingness to undertake such activities jeopardizing the successful implementation of the ONFHP.

Both the IESO and OPG have specifically asked for these Indemnities in order to allow them to carry out their roles in implementing the ONFHP. Providing OPG and the IESO with the requested Indemnities will provide them with assurance against liability in order to allow them to comprehensively carry out their respective roles in the successful implementation of the ONFHP.

To the extent that a claim would be covered under any other indemnity provided to OPG or IESO by the Province, or provided by OPG and IESO to any of its subsidiaries (in the case of OPG), agents (in the case of the IESO), directors, officers and employees, these Indemnities would not apply. Language to address any possible duplication is included in the attached Indemnities.

Existing indemnities previously provided by the Province to OPG have been limited to specific directives provided to OPG by the Province (e.g., in connection with the Bruce Lease). Accordingly, the scope of the existing indemnities provided by the Province would not cover the ONFHP. The IESO does not have any other indemnity from the Province.

(ii) Statutory Immunity does not preclude a person from bringing an action or other civil proceeding

Subsection 19(1) of the Electricity Act, 1998 provides IESO directors, officers and employees with the following protection from liability:

> "No action or other civil proceeding shall be commenced against a director, officer, employee or agent of the IESO or a member of a committee or panel established by the board of directors of the IESO for any act done in good faith in the exercise or performance or the intended exercise or performance of a power or duty under any Act, the regulations under any Act, the IESO's licence, the IESO's by-laws or the market rules, or for any neglect or default in the exercise or performance in good faith of such a power or duty."

The Electricity Act, 1998 does not contain a similar statutory immunity for OPG's directors, officers, employees or agents. However, under subsection 39(2) of the Proposed Legislation, a statutory immunity is provided to the OPG's employees. This provision states:

> "No action or other civil proceeding shall be commenced against any employee of the Province or Ontario Power Generation Inc. for any act done in good faith in the exercise or performance or the intended exercise or performance of a power or duty under [the Proposed Legislation], the regulations or for any alleged neglect or default in the exercise or performance in good faith of such a power or duty."

Subsection 39(2) of the Proposed Legislation provides that nothing in subsection 39(1) limits the effect of subsection 19(1) of the Electricity Act, 1998.

The statutory immunities provided under the Electricity Act, 1998 and the Proposed Legislation prohibits/would prohibit an action or other civil proceeding from being commenced against the enumerated protected persons under the respective provisions for any act done in good faith in the exercise or performance of their duties. Nothing precludes a person from bringing an action or other civil proceeding against these persons causing them to incur costs in defending the claim (for example, arguing that the act was not carried out in "good faith").

The immunity from suit provisions outlined above, are qualified by the words "for any act done in good faith in the exercise or performance or intended exercise or performance of a power or duty under this Act…" This is a question of fact that needs to be considered by a court of competent jurisdiction. As such, statutory immunity would not necessarily be a bar to litigation and does not ensure that the IESO and OPG's employees, officer or directors (as applicable) would not become embroiled in litigation.

In the case of OPG, there is no similar statutory immunity explicitly provided for its directors or officers, or each of its subsidiaries, their directors, officers, or employees so the risk of litigation is greater for these individuals in the even the Proposed Legislation is passed.

For the reasons mentioned above, the Indemnities requested under this application would ensure that if a claim is brought against ~~OPG or IESO's directors, officers, and employees~~the protected persons as a result of carrying out their roles in implementing the ONFHP (despite the statutory immunities provided or that will be provided if the Proposed Legislation is passed), they are protected for any costs, losses etc. subject to the limitations provided for in the Indemnities.

(b) Description of the risk and any risk mitigants.

The ONFHP is a novel program, the first of its kind in Canada. Because the work to be undertaken by OPG and IESO in carrying out their roles in implementing the ONFHP will fall outside of the usual operations/business risk that these corporation's face, there is a risk that these corporations may be subject to increased liability specifically due to their roles with the ONFHP. This risk arises in part because of the kind of market that OPG, and IESO indirectly, are to participate in, and the steps that investors could take to protect their investments.

The risk to the Province of giving the Indemnities is undeterminable at this time, but any such risk may be mitigated by the following factors:

1) In the case of the IESO, the existence of a statutory immunity under subsection 19(1) of the Electricity Act, 1998 may mitigate against a liability arising against its directors, officers and employees, but as mentioned, does not eliminate such risk.

2) In the case of OPG, the proposed statutory immunity under subsection 39(1) of the Proposed Legislation may mitigate against a liability arising against its employees, but as mentioned, does not eliminate such risk.

3) The Indemnities is limited ~~specifically~~ to claims arising in relation to IESO and OPG's respective role in implementing the ONFHP in the event that the Proposed Legislation is passed.

4) The Indemnities do not apply with respect to claims for which coverage is provided and paid under insurance, for which indemnity is already provided and paid to the OPG or IESO or its respective directors, officers or employees, or is brought about by the dishonesty, gross negligence or willful misconduct of the ~~director~~protected persons.

A contingent liability table is attached as Appendix "C"

(c) Scope of liability in the Indemnities

The Province would agree to indemnify and hold harmless the IESO and OPG as well as their respective directors, officers and employees from any claims, liabilities, costs or losses that might arise to the corporation, him or her (respectively) as a result of their direct roles in carrying out activities related to the implementation of the ONFHP.

The Indemnities would not apply with respect to ~~c~~lossesl~~aim~~s:

(a) for which coverage is provided under an insurance policy ~~or claims fund~~ to the extent that the protected person is actually s~~o indemnified or covered~~paid under such policy ~~or fund~~for those losses; or

(b) for which other indemnities are already provided to the protected person but only to the extent that the Protected Person is actually so indemnified for those losses by such indemnities;

(c) ~~brought about or contributed to by~~is the result of the~~a~~ Protected Person's dishonesty, gross negligence or willful misconduct, but only such ~~if a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the Protected Person establishes that there was~~ dishonesty, gross negligence or willful misconduct on the Protected Person's part ~~which was material to the cause of action as adjudicated~~has been established by a final and non-appealable judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the Protected Person;~~;~~ or

(d) to the extent arising from any circumstances in which a Protected Person did not have reasonable grounds for believing that the Protected Person's conduct was lawful in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that enforces a monetary penalty.

Commented [PMK4]: Why is the carve out limited to 'gross' negligence vs just negligence?

Commented [HM5]: Gross negligence is used to be consistent with the OBCA requirement.

Commented [PMK6]: Small point, but I think this should say 'protected person' since people other than directors would be covered.

Commented [HM7]: I've changed the reference accordingly.

Draft

OPG's indemnity, with respect to clause (c) above, further provides that the Province agrees that it does not intend that any failure by a Protected Person to conduct a reasonable investigation with respect to advising the OPG about misrepresentations in any prospectus, registration statement or other securities/offering document, shall constitute "gross negligence" or "wilful misconduct" for this purposes of clause (c) above and does not disentitle the protected person from the Indemnity. This language has been included at the request of OPG in order to provide additional clarity to limit the OPG's liability with respect to carrying out any investigation of securities/offering documents.

The Indemnities would not apply with respect to ~~claims~~ losses for which coverage is provided and paid under insurance, or which are covered by another indemnity~~-~~under which the protected person is already so indemnified~~already provided~~;~~,~~ for claims brought about by the dishonesty, gross negligence or willful misconduct of the persons protected under the Indemnities;~~,~~ or for claims arising from circumstances where the ~~corporation, director, officer or employee~~protected persons did not have grounds for believing that their conduct was lawful in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that enforces a monetary penalty.

(d) Effect of failure to obtain section 28 approval

If the requested Indemnities are not provided, this could impact the OPG and IESO directors' willingness to fully undertake their roles in implementing the ONFHP thereby jeopardizing the successful implementation of this plan in the event the Proposed Legislation is passed. For example, IESO directors may not be willing to carry out certain activities that would fall outside of the scope of its typical business activities and mandate if they view these as creating a risk of liability. Providing the Indemnities, would give OPG and IESO, along with their directors, officers and employees to more confidently carry out their role in implementing the ONFHP.

BETWEEN: The Independent Electricity System Operator
(hereinafter the "Corporation")

OF THE FIRST PART,

Her Majesty the Queen in Right of the Province of Ontario as Represented by the Minister of Energy

(hereinafter called the "Province"),

OF THE SECOND PART

WHEREAS the Corporation is required to carry out certain activities with respect to the implementation of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act (the "Act").

AND WHEREAS the Corporation, and its directors, officers and employees, may, as a result of the Corporation's role in the implementation of the Act, face ~~risk~~risks of liability which ~~extends~~extend beyond the typical operations risk of the Corporation ~~and which may arise solely due to the Corporation's role in the implementation of the Act~~.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the sum of $1.00 now paid by the Corporation to the Province (the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged), the Province hereby agrees:

1. to indemnify and save harmless the Corporation and each of its directors, officers, ~~and employees~~employees or agents of the Corporation or a member of a committee or panel established by the directors of the Corporation (collectively the "Protected Persons" and individually, a "Protected Person") from and against all losses, costs, charges, expenses, claims, demands and liabilities directly or indirectly suffered, sustained or incurred by ~~the~~a Protected ~~Persons~~Person arising ~~specifically~~ as a result of, or in connection with, the ~~Protected Persons' direct~~IESO's role in carrying out activities related to the implementation of the Act (collectively, "Claims" and individually, a "Claim"), [IESO note: we request that the indemnity not be limited to actions arising specifically as a result of a Persons' "direct" role. We request that the indemnity be broad enough to include actions that arise due to the IESO's role in implementing the Act. We prefer to not have to argue, if the indemnity is ever called on, whether something was "specifically" as a result of, or related to a "direct" role.]

~~2. This indemnity does not apply with respect to Claims:~~

2. A Protected Person shall not be entitled to be indemnified in respect of a Claim, or a portion thereof:

(a) for which coverage is provided under an insurance policy or claims fund to the extent that ~~a~~ payment has been made thereunder to such Protected Person~~ is actually so indemnified or covered under such policy;~~ or~~ fund; or~~

(b) for which other indemnities are already provided to a Protected Person to the extent that ~~the~~ payment has been made to such Protected Person ~~is actually so indemnified by~~under such indemnities; or

(c) ~~brought about or contributed to by a~~is the result of such Protected Person's dishonesty, gross negligence or willful misconduct, but only if ~~a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the Protected Person establishes that there was~~such dishonesty, gross negligence or willful misconduct on the Protected Person's part has been established by a final and non-appealable judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the Protected Person.

(d) To the extent arising from any circumstances in which a Protected Person did not have reasonable grounds for believing that the Protected Person's conduct was lawful in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that enforces a monetary penalty.

Commented [A1]: I've re-inserted this provision. This provision is part of the standard Indemnity Template that we typically use. We would like to include in order to ensure consistency with the OPG indemnity.

3. Each Protected Person shall:

~~(a)~~ upon becoming aware of a Claim for which ~~was material to the cause of action as adjudicated; or~~

~~4. In order to be entitled to~~ such Protected Person may seek indemnification hereunder~~ in respect of any notice of a Claim that the Protected Person receives, the Protected Person must:~~

~~(f)~~(a) ~~immediately and without delay~~, as soon as practicable deliver to the Province (through the Director of the Legal Services Branch of the Ministry of Energy) a notice setting forth in reasonable detail the particulars of the Claim~~(s)~~;

Commented [A2]: Change made to be consistent with OPG edits to its indemnity.

~~(g)~~(b) upon written request of the Province, acting reasonably, furnish to the Province copies of any document, or provide to the Province any information that relates to the Claims~~(s)~~ that is in the possession or under the control of the Protected Person;

~~(h)~~(c) take all reasonable steps necessary to secure and preserve the rights of the Protected Person in respect of the Claim; and

~~(i)~~(d) promptly take all ~~necessary~~ reasonable steps to obtain indemnification or coverage to the fullest extent possible under insurance policies or claims funds, or under indemnities provided by the Corporation, that are referred to in subsections 2(a) or (b) above.

A failure ~~to give prompt notice as provided in this section 3 shall not affect the rights or obligations~~on the part of a Protected Person to take any ~~party to this indemnity, and only~~of the actions provided in this section 3 shall not affect the rights of such Protected Person except to the extent that, as a result of such failure, ~~the party which was entitled to receive such notice~~~~Ontario~~ the Province was actually prejudiced. A failure on the part of a Protected Person to take any of the actions provided in this section 3 shall not affect the rights of any other Protected Person.

4. The Province shall have the right to participate in or assume control of the negotiation, settlement or defence of the Claim(s) and in no event shall a Protected Person negotiate, settle, compromise or pay the Claim(s) without the prior written consent of the Province. If the Province elects to participate in or assume control of the negotiation, settlement or defence of the Claim(s), ~~the~~each Protected Person shall co-operate fully with the Province in connection with the same, and ~~the~~each Protected Person shall agree to be represented by legal counsel chosen by the Province, unless, in the opinion of such legal counsel, there would arise a conflict of interest preventing such legal counsel from representing ~~the~~such Protected Person. Where it is such legal counsel's opinion that a conflict of interest prevents that legal counsel representing the Protected Person, the Protected Person will be entitled, after consultation with the Province and acting reasonably, to obtain legal counsel of the Protected Person's choice, and the fees and expenses of the Protected Person's counsel incurred in the Protected Person's representation shall be costs to which this indemnity extends.

5. For greater clarity, with respect to directors, officers and employees of the Corporation this indemnity shall only apply to Claim(s) that are referable to the period during which a director, officer or employee of the Corporation is actually a director, officer or employee (respectively) of the Corporation~~, and of which notice is received by the Province either during the period of time that the director, officer, or employee is a director officer, employee of the Corporation or after he or she ceases to be a director, officer, employee of the Corporation.~~.

6. This indemnity shall be interpreted and governed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein.

7. The provisions of this agreement and the benefit of all covenants herein contained shall enure to the benefit of the Protected Persons and the Protected Persons' heirs, administrators, executors and assigns as applicable.

Ontario Passes Legislation to Lower Electricity Bills by 25 Per Cent[news.ontario.ca]

May 31, 2017

Meaningful Savings for All Residential Households Coming this Summer

Ontario passed legislation today that will lower electricity bills by 25 per cent on average for all residential customers to provide significant rate relief and ensure greater fairness.

The Fair Hydro Act, 2017 reduces electricity bills for all residential consumers and as many as half a million small businesses and farms, starting this summer. Lower-income Ontarians and those living in eligible rural and northern communities will receive even greater reductions, as much as 40 to 50 per cent. As part of this plan, rate increases will be held to the rate of inflation for four years.

These measures include the eight per cent rebate introduced in January[news.ontario.ca] and build on previously announced initiatives to deliver broad-based rate relief on all electricity bills. Taken together, these changes are delivering the largest reduction to electricity rates in Ontario's history. To facilitate these immediate savings, the legislation:

- Enables the Independent Electricity System Operator (IESO) and Ontario Power Generation (OPG) to work together to spread out the costs of Ontario's clean energy investments over a longer period of time, which ensures that the costs of these investments are allocated fairly among current and future ratepayers. This will be accomplished through refinancing a portion of the Global Adjustment (GA), resulting in significant and immediate rate reductions.
- Modifies and broadens the Ontario Electricity Support Program (OESP) to expand benefits and ensure it is funded by government instead of ratepayers, reducing bills for all.
- Enhances the Rural or Remote Rate Protection (RRRP) program to provide distribution charge relief to a total of approximately 800,000 customers and shift costs from ratepayers to provincial revenues. The enhancement will benefit customers served by local distribution companies (LDCs) with the highest distribution rates. These savings will begin July 1, 2017.
- Provides on-reserve First Nations households serviced by licensed distributors with a 100 per cent credit of the delivery line on their monthly electricity bills, starting July 1, 2017.

Reducing electricity costs is part of Ontario's plan to create jobs, grow our economy and help people in their everyday lives.

QUICK FACTS

- Ontario’s Fair Hydro Plan will improve energy sector efficiency and modernize the province’s electricity market, building on the collaboration of IESO and OEB.

- In April 2017, the Industrial Conservation Initiative (ICI) was expanded to include electricity consumers in the manufacturing and greenhouse sectors with an average monthly peak demand of greater than 500 kW and less than 1 MW.

- On May 1, 2017, the Ontario Energy Board (OEB) reduced electricity rates across the province, including a portion of the Fair Hydro Plan. The OEB will have 15 days after the legislation comes into force to update rates to reflect the full benefit of the Fair Hydro Plan – delivering the 25 per cent on average reduction for all households and half a million small business and farms. Royal Assent could be scheduled as early as June 1, 2017.

- The province has expanded the OESP, providing 50 per cent more support in the form of monthly credits for people with low incomes and increasing eligibility, effective May 1, 2017.

- The province is also establishing an Affordability Fund that will be accessible to electricity distributors for customers who do not qualify for low-income conservation programs and who are unable to undertake energy efficiency improvements without financial assistance. This program is set to launch this summer.

QUOTES

"The savings coming this summer will help make life more affordable, including additional relief for the most vulnerable. The Fair Hydro Plan significantly lowers rates now for all Ontario families that pay an electricity bill and will bring fairer rates in the future."

Hi Will

I am little confused here, yes its unsecured but so is every loan issued by the OFA to a public body so not sure why the risk associated with this loan is greater or for that matter lower than the loans currently in the OFA's loan book.

As such, this should be treated exactly like all the other loans. Note that the IESO is fully consolidated with that of the Province so loans issued by the OFA to IESO will be a wash upon consolidation.

Thanks and I am cc'ing Siva and John the former is responsible for the OFA and the latter for the implementation of the Fair Hydro plan.

Subject: Policy question re OFHP Credit Facility Agreement
Importance: High

Hi Bruno and John,

I have some additional information pertaining to the structure of the OFA loan to IESO re: OFHP. While this information adds context, it doesn't address the policy question of whether an unsecured loan is appropriate (based on the extent of the insolvency risk) for this regulatory asset.

The current draft FHP Credit Facility Agreement is consistent with the OFA Lending Policy (last revised and approved April 16, 2010 – status TBC), which provides that except where otherwise directed by the Minister of Finance, Treasury Board or Cabinet, the OFA will generally lend on an unsecured basis (apart from the intercept provision) in respect of loans made by the OFA to public bodies (IESO is a public body for the purposes of CIPA). As such, the structure of this loan is consistent with the Policy (subject to my note below re: intercept provision). In my review of the supporting policy documentation, including the LRC minute, I didn't see any reference to a secured lending structure and I don't believe that there is any direction requiring this to be a secured loan. That being said, I query whether OFA CEFD staff are comfortable with this approach (see below).

In terms of the intercept provisions, which are required pursuant to s. 23 of CIPA, I have asked Toby from MOF Legal if they are aware of any agreement between the Ministry of Energy and the IESO agreeing that the Minister of Finance is entitled to deduct from money appropriated by the Legislature for payment to the IESO amounts equal to any amounts that the IESO fails to pay to the OFA on account of indebtedness under this loan agreement (as required by CIPA)? Are you aware of any such agreement? However, even if there were such an agreement in place, it is unclear to whether adding intercept provisions to the credit facility agreement, will provide further comfort. I plan to discuss this matter further with MOF Legal.

Based on the foregoing (and pending any additional information that Toby may obtain from his discussions with the Ministry of Energy), I defer the following question to CEFD staff:

> Are you comfortable with the current structure of this loan as an unsecured loan (and the risk that this may entail)? This decision ultimately needs to be made by business/policy people.
> - If yes, the next draft of the agreement will be available in the next day or so to send to IESO for review. I will work with MOF Legal to draft/leverage intercept provisions to mitigate this risk (as far as possible, based on the foregoing). We are also working on the permitted liens, pari passu and negative pledge provisions of the draft agreement, as previously discussed.
> - If no, additional Ministerial/TB direction, and a new legal agreement (likely with the assistance of external legal counsel) will be required. This will take additional time.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you would like to discuss further.

Thank you,

Lisa

Hello Bruno and John,

In advance of our internal call this afternoon, Lisa and Toby have prepared the following e-mail below to consider whether the OFA should consider taking a security interest in the Regulatory Asset as security for $2B credit facility, as well as the inclusion of the intercept provision. Ken Kandeepan expressed the following view yesterday:

> "…[the $2B Facility] is unsecured but so is every loan issued by the OFA to a public body so not sure why the risk associated with this loan is greater or for that matter lower than the loans currently in the OFA's loan book.
> As such, this should be treated exactly like all the other loans. Note that the IESO is fully consolidated with that of the Province so loans issued by the OFA to IESO will be a wash upon consolidation."

In light of this, could you please advise if there are there any additional considerations regarding the FHP structure that would could necessitate the inclusion of an intercept provision in the $2B facility and/or the OFA taking a security interest in the Regulatory Asset?

I am including Ken and Mike Manning in this e-mail, should they have any additional input or insight on this matter.

Thank you,
Sarah

Hi Sarah H. and Will,

Based on the e-mails to date, I understand that OFA staff held a conference call yesterday and based the OFA Lending Policy and past practices, may have concluded that it is appropriate for the loan to the IESO in relation to the OFHP to be unsecured, as per other OFA loans to public bodies. However, as neither Toby (from MOF Legal) nor I were part of the aforementioned call, we wanted to clarify that this loan is NOT necessarily the same as other OFA unsecured loans to public bodies, and as such, the protection provided by the "intercept" provisions of the standard OFA loan agreements have limited application in this particular case (which is likely the reason why these provisions were not included in the original drafts). Our understanding is that, although the intercept provisions are intended to allow the Minister of Finance to deduct from money appropriated by the Legislature for payment to the Borrower amounts equal to any amounts that a Borrower fails to pay to the OFA on account of indebtedness under the loan agreement, in the case of the IESO as Borrower, these amounts are likely to be minimal.

Before proceeding, we would like to ensure that the nature of the loan, the impact of intercept provisions, and the insolvency and operational risks, have all been considered. Toby has succinctly summarized the questions which still need to be addressed during our call this afternoon in the e-mail which I have forwarded below.

Subject: RE: Policy question re OFHP Credit Facility Agreement

Lisa,

I have attempted to summarize my questions/issues in the below. Let me know if you have anything to add or have any edits.

The concerns I have with the IESO loan, and that should be considered are related to what could happen to the Regulatory Asset (the "Asset") if there are any credit or liquidity issues at the IESO. Because the Asset is something that it is possible to take security in, and that is an intangible that may be subject to a floating charge (ie, as a result of a GSA or from a financing agreement) I thought it would be prudent to consider whether the OFA should take a security interest in the Asset as security for the loan.

I am not familiar with the types of financial arrangements or other obligations that the IESO may be a party to, either as a result of its market operations or otherwise, but it may be possible that the IESO has entered into such arrangements, such as swaps or other derivatives agreements, loans or other financing arrangements for which security could be given.

I am not aware of what financial guarantees or other arrangements may be in place such that the Province may have guaranteed the IESO's obligations, but I don't believe that there are any. My understanding is that the IESO is consolidated with the Province's books, but that the IESO is not a crown agent, and the Province is not liable for the IESO's obligations to third parties. However, I am not sure about the underlying facts without more input from ENERGY and the IESO.

In light of these questions it may be worthwhile to consider some related issues:

- How does the proposed IESO loan compare to other OFA loans made to public bodies, such that it is appropriate to use the same requirements?

    - Size of loan – it is my understanding that there are not many loans that approach the size of the $2 billion loan that is proposed to the IESO.
    - Are the obligations of the IESO the obligations of the Province, and how does this compare to other public body loans?
    - What other financial obligations could the IESO have (such as swap agreements, other financial obligations) that could become due or create credit risk?
    - If in many public body loans, there is an intercept and an MOU with the appropriate ministry to create some security, does that make sense in this context? Are there significant transfers to the IESO?
    - Note that the OFA loan to the ROM was secured by pledges and an intercept, and that other Provincial loans to public bodies or other groups may be secured.
- Does the Province/OFA understand the financial obligations of the IESO such that it is confident that no other security interest could attach to the Asset?
- Given that the debt is specifically for the purpose of creating the Asset which will be "warehoused" at the IESO, once the Asset is sold to the financing entity, how will the Province ensure that the proceeds can only be used to repay the loan?

Subject: Post-Budget Commentaries by Moody's and DBRS

Attached are the commentaries that DBRS and Moody's have just issued on Ontario following the release of the 2018 Ontario Budget.

DBRS expects the ratings to remain stable in the near term, however, the outlook for the medium to longer term appear less certain. "Without a concerted effort to rebuild flexibility in the credit profile, the Province's ratings appear increasingly likely to come under pressure during the next recession if past policy actions are any indication of the future policy response."

Moody's states that "the return to deficit is credit negative as it raises the likelihood that the province faces a structural deficit in addition to increasing our forecast of the debt burden to accommodate the associated new borrowing." Moody's notes that the rise in debt will also coincide with a period in which interest rates are expected to rise, both of which will impact the province's interest expense. They now expect interest expenses to exceed 9% of revenues in 2019/20, up from the recent low of 8.5% in 2016/17.

As noted previously, Fitch had expressed concern following the Minister's remarks at the Economic Club on March 8th. They indicated that "a return to deficit borrowing during a period of economic growth would be inconsistent with Fitch's current rating expectations". We should be prepared for a rating action from them, whether it's an outlook change from stable, or something more significant, following the release of the Budget.

We will be meeting or speaking to all of the rating agencies over the next few weeks.

In a pre-election budget released 28 March, the Province of Ontario (Aa2 stable) proposes returning to deficits beginning in 2018/19, after posting its first balanced budget in a decade in 2017/18. The 2018 budget forecasts a deficit of CAD6.7 billion for 2018/19 (4.4% of revenue), and marginally smaller deficits in 2019/20 and 2020/21 (4.2% and 4.0%, respectively). The return to deficit is credit negative as it raises the likelihood that the province faces a structural deficit in addition to increasing our forecast of the debt burden to accommodate the associated new borrowing.

The return to deficits is largely driven by proposed new spending initiatives. Total spending is expected to increase 6.0% in 2018/19, after rising 5.5% in 2017/18. These are the highest consecutive years of spending growth since 2010/11 when the province was undertaking stimulus to combat the global financial crisis (see Exhibit 1).

Ontario proposes increasing spending significantly more than revenue growth in 2018/19 followed by roughly equal growth rates in revenues and expenses in outer years

While spending growth will slow to the pace of revenue growth in 2019/20, many of the new initiatives proposed by the province could face pressures to expand in scope. For example, the 2018 budget expands coverage of its pharmacare plan to include people aged 65 and over, which could cost nearly CAD1 billion over three years. Other new initiatives include CAD2.2 billion over three years for free preschool for children aged 2.5 years until they start kindergarten. Overall, spending on health and long-term care is expected to increase 5.1% and education 4.4% in 2018/19.

Not included in the above expenditure plans is capital spending. The province plans to spend CAD182 billion over the 10-year period 2018/19-2017/28 on infrastructure, which is a 16.7% increase over the CAD156 billion the province was forecasting to spend over 10 years in the 2017 budget. Over half of the capital plan will be spent on public transit and highway infrastructure.

With little new tax measures introduced in the budget (measuring CAD510 million in 2018/19), revenue growth in 2018/19 is expected to be 1.6% after a strong 6.7% increase in 2017/18. The province anticipates economic growth will drive revenue growth over the budget horizon. The province forecasts nominal GDP growth will average 4.0% over the years 2018-2021, just slightly above revenue growth forecasts in 2019/20 and 2020/21. Noticeably, however, the province is forecasting real economic growth to moderate over the medium-term. After posting an expected 2.7% growth in 2017, real GDP will moderate to 2.2% in 2018 and decline further to 1.7% in 2021. We previously indicated that Ontario would be one of the provinces most at risk from lower economic growth should NAFTA fail to be renegotiated. The province also lists NAFTA and the potential to disrupt trade patterns as a risk to its economic forecasts.

The province will require additional borrowings compared to previous plans to fund the new round of deficits and capital spending. Its borrowing forecast for 2018/19 is largely in line with last year's at CAD31.7 billion, but this also reflects CAD11.5 billion pre-borrowed in 2017/18. Over the three year period 2018/19-2020/21, the province will require borrowings of CAD109.7 billion, including refinancing requirements, CAD13 billion higher than the three year period 2017/18-2019/20 forecasted in 2017 budget. As a result, we have revised our debt forecasts upwards to around 237% of revenue through 2019/20.

The rise in debt will also coincide with a period in which interest rates are expected to rise, both of which will impact the province's interest expense. We now expect interest expenses to exceed 9% of revenues in 2019/20, up from the recent low of 8.5% in 2016/17.

Insight beyond the rating.

Ontario's 2018 Budget: Billions for the Ballot

DBRS Limited (DBRS) is commenting on the Province of Ontario's (Ontario or the Province; rated AA (low) with a Stable trend by DBRS) 2018 budget, released on March 28, 2018.

After almost a decade of reiterating its commitment to a balanced budget and reducing the Province's debt-to-gross domestic product (GDP) ratio, the Province has introduced a plan that will see it ramp up spending ahead of the June 2018 provincial election, voluntarily pushing itself back into protracted deficit spending and halting the improvement in debt ratios.

The direction of fiscal policy adopted by the Province is distinctly negative for the Province's credit profile. Rather than shifting to a neutral or conservative fiscal policy stance and rebuilding budget and balance sheet flexibility, the Province has made a deliberate decision to pursue expansionary fiscal policy potentially near the peak of the economic cycle.

The budget proposes deficits in the range of $6.5 billion to $6.7 billion in each of the next three years. The plan to return to balance — aptly termed a "recovery plan" — sees the Province gradually reducing the deficit during a subsequent mandate with a target to balance the budget in 2024–25. In total, the budget projects about $32.0 billion in deficit spending and about $90.0 billion in debt-financed capital investment over the next six years. It demonstrates in the clearest terms that the Province is not committed to disciplined, countercyclical fiscal policy. The policy reversal also undermines the credibility of the government's future fiscal policy commitments, including its plan to return to balance.

With no willingness to balance the budget at the peak of the business cycle and by systematically expanding government, a return to protracted deficit spending appears all but certain. With interest rates set to rise, economic growth expected to moderate and program spending entrenched, eliminating the budget deficit will prove challenging in the coming years.

Ontario's credit profile stabilized in recent years and was beginning to show modest signs of improvement. Progress will now likely stall or reverse. While DBRS expects the ratings to remain stable in the near term, the outlook for the medium to longer term appear less certain. Without a concerted effort to rebuild flexibility in the credit profile, the Province's ratings appear increasingly likely to come under pressure during the next recession if past policy actions are any indication of the future policy response.

Budget 2018 Take-Aways

- Ontario Liberals are no longer committed to balanced budgets or prudent, countercyclical fiscal policy.
- Credibility of Ontario's future fiscal policy commitments has been undermined by the dramatic fiscal policy reversal.
- Ontario has proposed $20.3 billion in new program spending over the next three years. The budget includes modest tax increases, with the bulk of new spending being debt-financed.
- Deficits are pegged at between $6.5 billion and $6.7 billion in each of the next three years.
- The "responsible fiscal recovery plan" — to a self-imposed problem — begins in 2021–22 and targets a balanced budget in 2024–25.
- Between 2007–08 and 2017–18, DBRS-adjusted debt will have risen by nearly $200 billion. The plan suggests debt will rise by a further $40 billion over the next three years.
- DBRS-adjusted debt-to-GDP appears likely to remain near current levels (42.0% to 43.0%) over the next three years, providing the economic expansion continues. Debt appears certain to remain permanently above pre-recession levels (26.0%) over the longer term.
- Political uncertainty: Current polling suggests a change in government may be possible with the June 7, 2018, election. If this were to occur, the fiscal plan could change significantly.
- Economic risks: Rising trade protectionism/isolationism, BREXIT, China's economic transition, household indebtedness, rising interest rates and U.S. fiscal policy all pose potential risks to the Ontario economy.

Budget Outlook

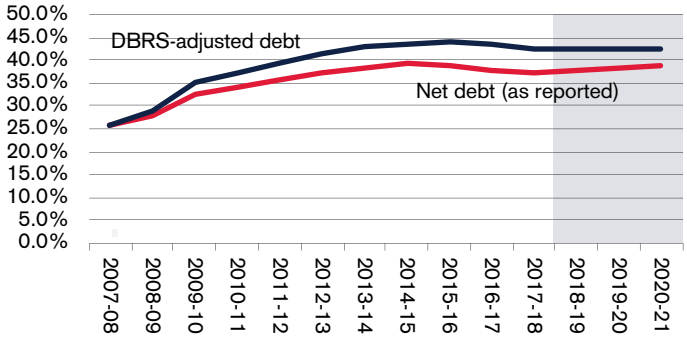
The Province's 2018 budget will not be passed ahead of the June 2018 general provincial election, but it does set out the incumbent Liberal's priorities if elected for another mandate.

Thematically, the focus of the budget is new spending measures consistent with the government's vision for creating fairness and opportunity. The budget includes more $20.3 billion in new spending over the next three years. There are no major economic or tax policy announcements.

The budget projects a deficit of $6.7 billion in 2018–19 or 0.8% of GDP, though, as in past years the budget does incorporate a general budgetary reserve ($700 million) and explicit expense contingencies ($1.6 billion). On a DBRS-adjusted basis (post-capex), this equates to a deficit of about $13.0 billion, or about 1.4% of GDP.

Exhibit 2: Debt Burden

Net Debt and DBRS-Adjusted Debt as a Share of GDP



Sources: Province of Ontario and DBRS.

Total revenue is set to rise modestly (+1.5%). Underlying tax (+4.3) and transfer (+2.7%) revenue growth are moderately strong, but are being offset by declines in government business enterprises' net income and other own-source revenue, both of which are related to policy actions that bumped up revenue in the prior year (e.g., one-time gains from Hydro One share sale, elimination of electricity debt retirement charge, etc.). The budget includes only modest tax policy changes, the most significant of which are changes to the personal income tax rate structure and surtax, which will provide about $500 million in incremental revenue in 2018–19 and between $700 and $800 million in the outer years. There is no concerted effort to increase taxes to pay for the new spending commitments.

Total expense is set to rise strongly (+6.0%) in 2018–19, which follows a similarly strong increase the year before (+5.5%). These are the fastest spending increases since the peak of the financial crisis (2009–10). The 2018 budget outlines $20.3 billion in major, new spending initiatives over three years. These include:

- Increased funding for hospitals/health care (+$1.3 billion);
- Improved services and access to mental health and addictions services (+$1.2 billion);
- Improved affordability/access to childcare, including free preschool for children two and a half and older (+$2.2 billion);
- Social assistance and income security reform (+$2.3 billion);
- Increased support for individuals with development disabilities (+$1.8 billion);
- Free prescription drugs (extension of OHIP+) for senior citizens (+$1.0 billion);
- Senior's healthy home program (+$0.7 billion);
- New drug and dental program for individuals without workplace coverage (+$0.8 billion); and
- More funding for economic development and similar activities (+$0.9 billion).

The new program spending is translating into significant growth in ministry budgets: Health and Long-Term Care (+5.1%), Education (+4.4%), Advanced Education and Skills Development (+5.9%) and Community and Social Services (+7.5%), as well as interest on debt (+4.8%).

Capital spending is set to rise strongly (+22.6%) in 2018–19, with growth in both grants and capital investment. Capital investment by the Province (not included in expense) is budgeted to rise by nearly $3.0 billion to $16.1 billion, which follows a similar-sized increase in the prior year.

The Province has projected deficits in the range of $6.5 billion to $6.7 billion for the 2018–19 to 2020–21 period. These estimates include contingencies and budget reserves. While spending growth is substantial in 2018–19, the Province projects moderation in both revenue and spending growth in subsequent years, with revenue and expense growth ranging between 3.0% and 4.0% annually.

The Province has outlined a plan to return to balance (responsible fiscal recovery plan) with the deficit gradually falling after 2020–21 and the budget eventually being balanced in 2024–25. Given the recent policy reversal and that deficit reduction is set to coincide with the 2022 general election, DBRS questions the credibility of the targets.

While the policy announcements are concerning, DBRS does note that Ontario has exceeded its deficit targets in recent years. The budget incorporates contingencies and the Province has over-estimated debt servicing costs in the past. Moreover, new in-year spending has often been offset by better-than-expected revenue and capital investment tends to be less than budgeted. Ultimately, this has translated into debt often being lower than forecast.

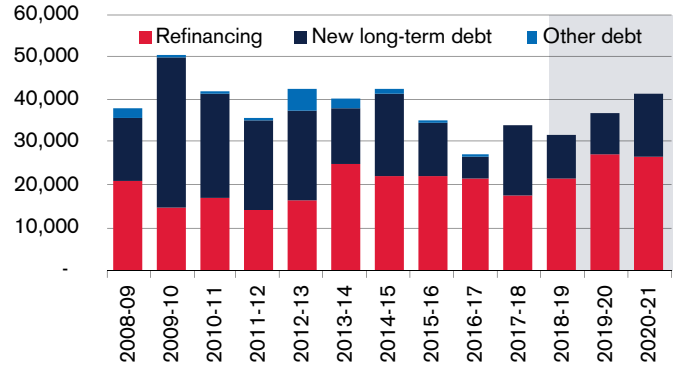
Debt Outlook

The budget suggests the Province's DBRS-adjusted debt burden will remain near current levels (42.0% to 43.0% of GDP) over the next three years. This halts the downward trend in the debt burden that began in 2016–17.

Ontario projects net debt, as reported in financial statements, will rise $16.8 billion (+5.5%) to $325.0 billion in 2018–19, or increase modestly to 37.6% of GDP. The Province announced last year that it would reduce the net debt-to-GDP ratio to 35.0% by 2023–24 and to pre-recession levels in 2030s. The debt reduction goal has now been abandoned, less than a year later.

Exhibit 3: Borrowing Program

Historical Financing Activity and Borrowing Program ($ Millions)



Source: Province of Ontario.

The Province's borrowing requirement for 2018–19 is $31.7 billion, after accounting for $11.5 billion in pre-borrowing completed in 2017–18. This includes $21.5 billion for refinancing, $14.2 billion for capital requirements and the remainder is for various other cash requirements, including the deficit. Over the medium term, the borrowing plan will remain elevated with rising refinancing requirements and persistent deficit spending.

Economic Outlook

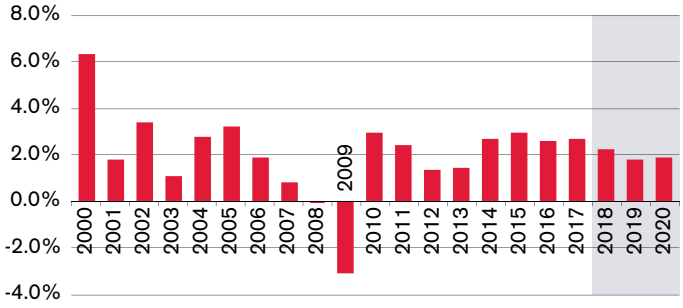
Ontario's economy has continued its broad-based expansion with real GDP growth estimated at 2.7% in 2017.

The Province expects economic expansion to continue over the medium term with household consumption, business investment and government spending driving growth. The labour market is forecast to tighten further over the medium term with unemployment tracking to 5.4% over the next two years. While residential investment has been a significant contributor to growth in recent years, the Province now expects residential investment to moderate, due in part to past policy measures, rising interest rates and the changes in Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions mortgage rules.

Economic growth is projected to be 2.2% in 2018 and average 1.9% over the medium term.

Exhibit 4: Economic Growth

Real GDP Growth (%)



Sources: Statistics Canada/Haver Analytics and Province of Ontario.

The economic outlook continues to be supported by a strong U.S. economy, though the Province does face a number of significant economic risks, including U.S. trade and fiscal policy, rising interest rates, Brexit, elevated sovereign indebtedness and China's economic transition.

Qualified Financial Statements

Ontario's budget presentation is broadly consistent with that of its audited public accounts. The Auditor General has, however, qualified the financial statements in each of the last two years and has indicated that she is likely to add a further qualification in 2017–18 if the Province accounts for the Fair Hydro Plan as is currently proposed.

The 2016–17 Audit Report indicated that the deficit was understated by $1.4 billion and that net debt was understated by $12.4 billion (equivalent to 1.6% of nominal GDP). The 2018 Budget does not provide disaggregated balance sheet data, but given the performance of the underlying pension plans in recent years and the budget projection for other net assets, the reported net pension asset appears likely to rise. With Ontario Fair Hydro Trust expected to borrow about $2.0 billion annually over the coming years, the Auditor General would likely argue that the deficit is understated by more than $3.0 billion in 2018–19 and that the net debt is likely understated by between $15.0 and $20.0 billion (1.7% to 2.3% of GDP).

In rating Canadian provinces, DBRS uses an adjusted measure for debt based on the liabilities reported by the Province. For Ontario, DBRS-adjusted debt includes a portion of the Fair Hydro-related borrowings and does not include the value of the net pension asset. For more detail on DBRS's calculation of debt, refer to the methodology, Rating Canadian Provincial Governments, available at www.dbrs.com.

June 2018 Provincial Election

The next provincial general election is scheduled for June 7, 2018. Current polls suggest a change in government may be possible, as is the possibility of a minority government. Neither of the opposition parties has yet to release a comprehensive election platform. It is not clear how fiscal policy would evolve under a different government.

The opposition parties have criticized government for the qualified audit opinion and the financing structure used for the Fair Hydro Plan. A change in government could lead to a change in the structure of the Fair Hydro financing or the accounting of the net pension asset. If this were to occur, the reported deficit would likely deteriorate further and net debt would step up. Depending on how a restructuring occurred, DBRS could adjust the DBRS-adjusted debt and deficit measures.

Ontario's Fiscal Transparency and Accountability Act requires the government release a pre-election report on the state of the Province's finances. The report, released concurrent with the 2018 budget, outlines the economic assumptions used to develop the Province's fiscal plan, an estimate of revenue and expenses and the Province's debt-to-GDP ratio. The report will be reviewed by the Auditor General for reasonableness. DBRS expects the Auditor General will issue a negative opinion on the report.

Preliminary Assessment

This commentary reflects a preliminary assessment of the Province's budget. DBRS will conduct a formal, in-depth review of the Province in the coming weeks and will publish a rating update at the conclusion of that process.

Methodology and Data: Budgeted and actual amounts for 2013–14 to 2016–17 are taken from Ontario's public accounts. The budgeted reserve has been included in program expense. Budgeted amounts for 2017–18 are taken from the 2017 Budget and the actual amounts for 2017–18 are taken from the 2018 Budget. Budget GDP growth is taken from provincial budgets and the associated actuals are the first GDP estimate (expenditure basis) produced by Statistics Canada. The actual GDP growth for 2017 is the Province's projection in the 2018 Budget. The DBRS-adjusted figures are taken from rating reports, with the actual figure being the estimate/actual taken from the subsequent year's report.

Announcement: Moody's calls Ontario's planned return to deficits credit negative

Global Credit Research - 29 Mar 2018

Toronto, March 29, 2018 -- Moody's Investors Service notes in a recent report that the planned return to deficits by the Province of Ontario (Aa2 stable) is credit negative. As outlined in the province's recently released 2018 Budget, the forecasted deficit in 2018/19 will reach CAD6.7 billion, equivalent to 4.4% of revenue. This comes after the province recorded a balanced budget in 2017/18, its first since 2007/08. The three year budget horizon forecasts continued deficits with only modest annual improvements.

Moody's notes that the planned return to deficits is credit negative as it will raise borrowing requirements, adding to Ontario's already elevated debt burden, and raises the likelihood that the province is facing a structural deficit.

"The return to deficits is in sharp contrast to past messages the province had provided on maintaining balanced budgets once they were achieved in 2017/18 after a lengthy period of consecutive deficits," noted Michael Yake, Moody's Vice President / Senior Analyst. "Additionally, the deficits are driven primarily by planned new spending initiatives. The inability to accommodate new spending within a framework of maintaining or quickly returning to balanced budgets, at a time when the province's economy is performing well, suggests the province is facing a structural deficit."

After rising 5.5% in 2017/18, spending is forecast to rise 6.0% in 2018/19, which Moody's notes represents the two strongest consecutive years of spending growth since 2010/11 when the province was stimulating the economy after the 2009 financial crisis. Among the new spending initiatives proposed by the province are an expansion to its recently introduced pharmacare program and free preschool for children, initiatives that Moody's says could face future pressure to increase in scope.

The province also increased its 10 year spending plan on capital infrastructure, rising to CAD182 billion from a previous level of CAD156 billion.

Revenue growth is expected to be a modest 1.6% in 2018/19 after increasing 6.7% in 2017/18. Over the budget horizon, revenue growth should trend slightly below nominal GDP growth, which is expected to average 4.0% over the period 2018-2021.

To finance the new series of deficits as well as the increased capital plan, the province will increase its borrowing program from previous forecasts. Moody's forecasts that the province's debt burden, which is measured as net direct and indirect debt as a share of revenue, will remain around 237% through 2019/20.

The increase in debt will also lead to higher interest expense which Moody's forecasts will exceed 9% in 2019/20.

As part of its normal monitoring process, Moody's will evaluate the 2018/19 budget's assumptions, its potential for upside and downside risks and likely impacts on the province's debt burden and liquidity profile.

- Conducts borrowing, investment and financial risk management for the Province of Ontario;
- Manages the Provincial debt;
- Provides financial and centralized cash management services for the Province;
- Advises ministries, Crown agencies and other public bodies on financial policies and projects;
- Assists Crown agencies and other public bodies to borrow and invest money;
- Lends to certain public bodies at the direction of the Province;
- Invests on behalf of some public bodies;
- With Ontario Power Generation Inc. (OPG), manages the investment activities of OPG's Used Fuel Segregated Fund and Decommissioning Segregated Fund; and
- Carries out the day-to-day operations of Ontario Electricity Financial Corporation (OEFC) and provides a broad range of financial services to Ontario Infrastructure and Lands Corporation (Infrastructure Ontario).

OEFC

Since April 1, 1999, pursuant to a directive from the Minister of Finance, the OFA has conducted borrowing and related debt and risk management activities, cash management, banking, accounting, financial reporting, forecasting and other related activities on a cost-recovery basis for the OEFC.

The OFA is also responsible for the corporate governance of OEFC.

Corporate Governance & Organizational Structure

- Corporate governance at the OFA involves processes that permit the effective supervision and management of the OFA's activities by the Minister of Finance, Board of Directors and Senior Management.

- The Province regularly accesses borrowing opportunities in currencies other than Canadian dollars to relieve pressure on the domestic bond market. This helps reduce Ontario's overall borrowing costs and ensures that the Province will continue to have access to capital if domestic market conditions become more challenging.

Credit Ratings

- The OFA maintains close relationships and ongoing dialogue with credit rating agencies throughout the year to keep them apprised of the government's financial status, policies and initiatives, and to ensure these are accurately reflected in the agencies' ratings and reports.
- Rating Agencies typically release their reports on the Province following the release of the Ontario Budget.
- A downgrade to the Province's credit ratings would result in higher interest rates on Ontario debt. Lower ratings could also lessen the number of investors able to buy Ontario bonds, or lower the amount of Ontario debt that each investor is allowed, by their internal limits, to hold.
- Ontario currently maintains a double A rating with three of the four agencies:

Rating Agencies	Long-term Rating	Short-term Rating	Outlook
Moody's	Aa2 (N)	P-1	negative
FitchRatings	AA-	F1+	stable
DBRS	AA (low)	R-1 (mid)	stable
Standard & Poor's	A+	A-1	stable

Key Debt Ratios

Rating agencies use a number of key debt ratios when assessing Ontario's rating:

- Deficit-to-Revenue
- After-Capital Deficit-to-Revenue
- Net Debt-to-GDP
- Net Debt-to-Revenue
- Interest on Debt-to-Revenue

Measuring Debt

- Definitions of debt:
  - Net Debt is the Accumulated Deficit plus Net Investments in Capital Assets
  - Accumulated Deficit is the sum of all deficits and surpluses since Confederation
  - Total Debt is the full amount of outstanding debt the government has on its books
- Financial markets use Net Debt as their primary measure because it represents the Province's future revenue requirements to pay for past transactions and events.
- Accumulated Deficit and Net Debt were equal until 2001–02 when the accounting treatment changed to allow amortization of capital assets.
- Borrowing creates an obligation that has to be repaid in the future, which allows for lower taxes and sustained services today at the expense of lower services and/or higher taxes in the future.

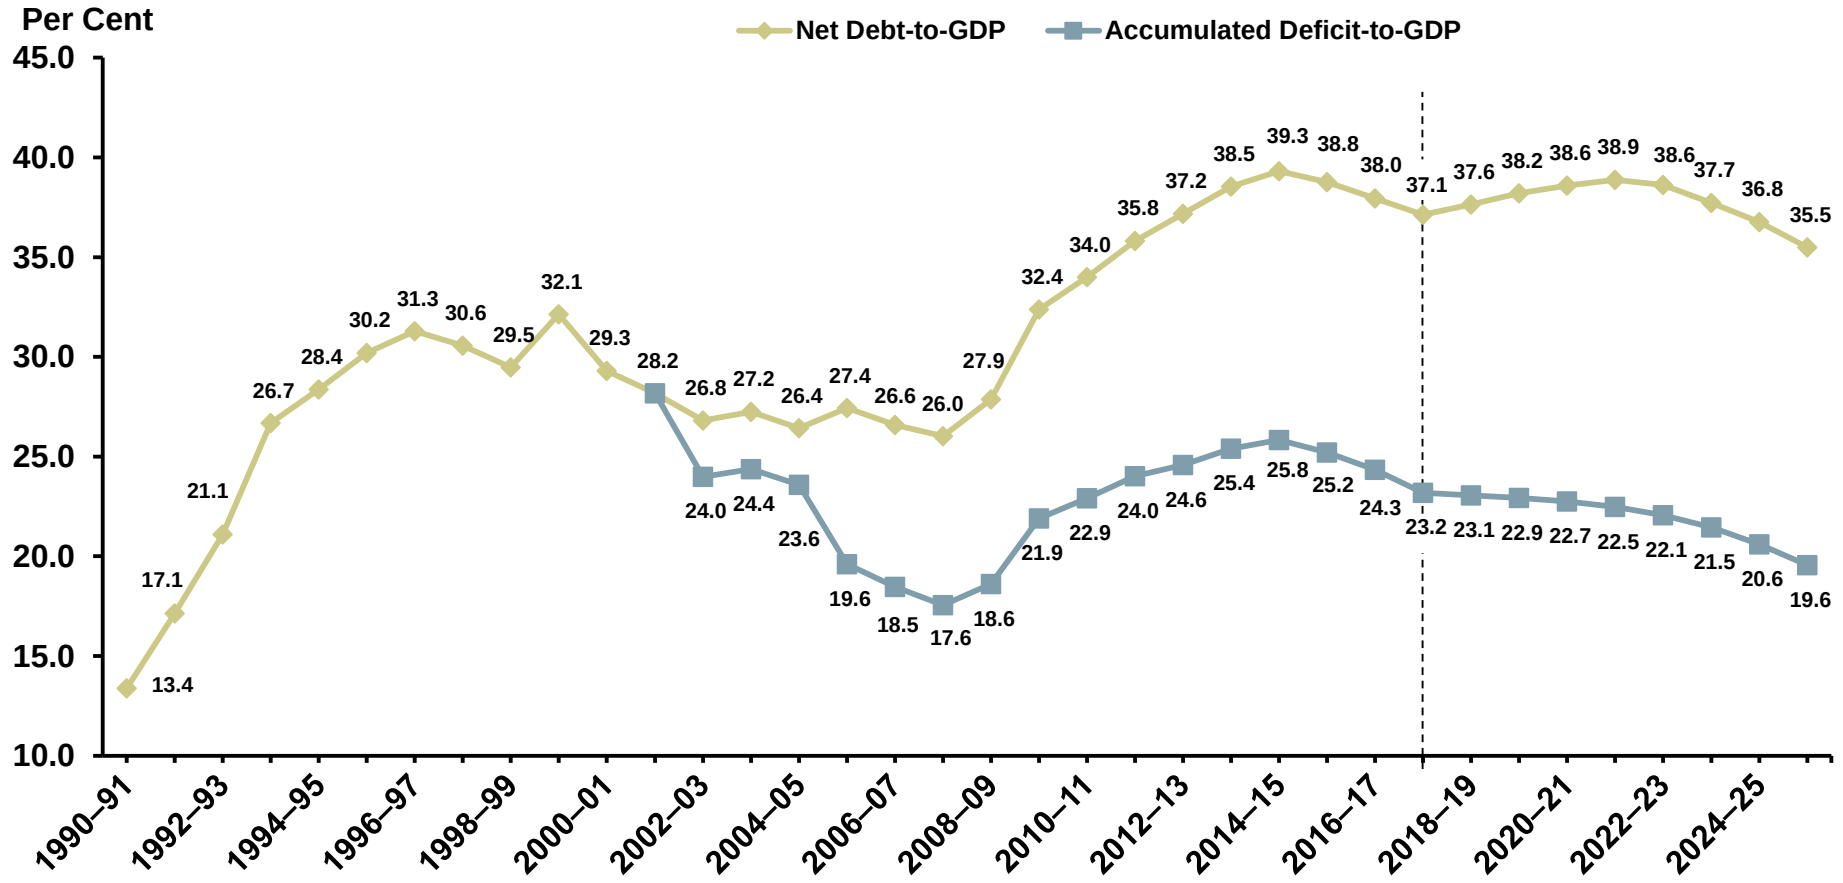
Net Debt-to-GDP and Accumulated Deficit-to-GDP

- Ontario's net debt-to-GDP ratio peaked in 2014–15 at 39.3 per cent and is now forecast at 37.1 per cent in 2017–18, below the forecast of 37.5 per cent for 2017–18 contained in the 2017 Budget.
- The net debt-to-GDP ratio is forecast to remain below the 2014–15 peak and resume a downward trend in 2022–23.



Note: Net Debt has been restated to include broader public sector net debt, starting in 2005–06.

Weighted-Average Term of Borrowing

- Maintaining a long average term of the Province's debt portfolio ensures low interest rates remain locked in for a longer period. This reduces refinancing risks and helps offset the impact of expected higher interest rates on the Province's future interest on debt costs.
- Going back to the beginning of fiscal 2010–11, Ontario has issued $71.3 billion of bonds with terms longer than 30 years to lock in low interest rates.

Risk Exposure and Management

Risk Exposures

- Market Risk: risk of loss due to changes in interest and foreign exchange rates
- Credit Risk: risk of loss due to default of issuers, dealers, or derivatives counterparties
- Operational Risk: risk of loss due to failed models, systems, processes, people, etc.

Risk Management

- Monitor and manage debt maturity profile to limit refinancing risk
- Maintain a high level of liquid reserves and short term borrowing capacity
- Enforce strict credit limits for financial and investment counterparties
- Have collateralized swap agreements in place for most swap counterparties

Liquidity and Short-Term Borrowing Capacity

- The OFA manages the Province's liquid reserve portfolio (cash and short-term investments) to optimize investment returns and to ensure that sufficient funds are available to meet cash requirements.
- Starting in 2019–20, the Province will have large cash outflows on single days, rather than having debt maturities spread more evenly through the year. In anticipation of the need for cash reserves to meet these requirements for large outflows on a single day, the Province began building larger cash reserves in 2017–18.

Ontario Electricity Financial Corporation

OEFC is one of five successor corporations to the former Ontario Hydro established by the Electricity Act, 1998 as part of the restructuring of the former Ontario Hydro. OEFC is the legal continuation of the former Ontario Hydro.

- OEFC is an agent of the Crown and is classified by Management Board of Cabinet as a board-governed provincial agency.
- OEFC has no staff of its own and retains the services of the OFA to carry out its daily operations on a cost-recovery basis. In addition, the Office of Tax, Benefits and Local Finance of the Ministry of Finance collects certain payments on behalf of OEFC (e.g., PILs, GRC, and, for amounts owing for the period to March 31, 2018, DRC revenues).

OEFC Mandate:

- Managing its debt, financial risks and liabilities, including the debt and certain other liabilities of the former Ontario Hydro;
- Managing the former Ontario Hydro's non-utility generator (NUG) contracts;
- Receiving all payments and administering other assets, liabilities, rights and obligations of the Corporation that were not transferred to another of the former Ontario Hydro successor corporations and disposing of any of these items as it deems appropriate or as directed by the Minister of Finance;
- Providing financial assistance to the successor corporations of Ontario Hydro;
- Entering into financial and other agreements relating to the supply and demand management of electricity in Ontario; and
- Performing any additional objects specified by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

Ontario Nuclear Funds Agreement

- In March 2002, the Province and OPG signed the Ontario Nuclear Funds Agreement (ONFA).
- ONFA's objective is to ensure sufficient funds are available to pay for the future costs of decommissioning nuclear stations and disposing of nuclear waste and used fuel.
- ONFA came into force in July 2003 with the creation of two segregated funds, the Decommissioning Segregated Fund and the Used Fuel Segregated Fund, which are jointly managed by OPG and OFA, on behalf of the Province.
  - The combined market value of the funds was $4.9 billion when they were formally established in 2003. As of December 31, 2017, the combined market value of the segregated funds had grown to over $21 billion.

As of December 31, 2017	Market Value ($ Millions)	Combined Market Value ($ Millions)
Used Fuel Segregated Fund	$12,087	$21,186
Decommissioning Segregated Fund	$9,099

- The OFA has responsibility for implementing certain portions of the Province's role under ONFA. This involves:
  - Due diligence on ONFA Reference Plan (which is subject to Provincial approval by the Minister of Finance) on cost and liability estimates and related submissions from OPG.
  - Due diligence and approval on ONFA Annual Budgets, and subsequent review of disbursement requests from OPG, that require approval by the Province under ONFA.
  - Due diligence on OPG's financial guarantee to the Canadian Nuclear Safety Commission (CNSC), as well as on any direct provincial guarantee to the CNSC when required to support of OPG's financial guarantee to the CNSC.
  - Determining and implementing investment management strategies and monitoring investment performance together with OPG.
  - Policy analysis and advice on and monitoring of regulatory and technological changes that may affect OPG's and the Province's liabilities with respect to the of nuclear decommissioning and waste management.

Loans and Investments for Public Bodies

Loans

- The OFA is able to provide loans to Ontario public bodies such as colleges, school boards and hospitals, as well as provincial corporations, boards and commissions that are consolidated on the Province's financial statements.
- The OFA provided new loans to a number of public bodies in 2017–18, totalling $2,427 million.
- The outstanding balance of the loans to public bodies at March 31, 2018 was $5,742.6 million, a net decrease of $260 million from $6,002.8 million at March 31, 2017.

Investments

- The OFA also invests on behalf of certain public bodies to help increase their returns by streamlining investment processes and reducing investment costs.
- In 2017–18, the OFA continued to provide investment services to a number of public bodies, including Infrastructure Ontario, the Pension Benefits Guarantee Fund, Ontario Trillium Foundation, Ontario Capital Growth Corporation and the Deposit Insurance Corporation of Ontario. As of March 31, 2018, total funds managed were approximately $2.2 billion.

BORROWING PROGRAM

CURRENT STATUS

The Province completed its annual borrowing program of $33.9 billion in 2017–18, including $11.5 billion pre-borrowed for 2018–19. Ontario's borrowing program remains the largest of the Canadian provinces, and was approximately 42% of the total borrowing programs for all provinces combined in 2017–18.

As outlined in the 2018 Budget, the Province's total long-term public borrowing requirement for fiscal 2018–19 is currently forecast to be $31.7 billion. As of April 27, 2018, the Province has completed $7.5 billion of its 2018–19 borrowing requirement. The total long term borrowing for 2019–20 and 2020–21 is forecast at $36.7 billion and $41.3 billion, respectively (Chart 1). The projected increase in borrowing requirements is due to planned deficits, refinancing of maturing debt and continued large investments in capital assets.

The Province has sufficient borrowing authority available to complete this fiscal year's borrowing program and begin funding for 2019–20.

BACKGROUND

Historically, the OFA has demonstrated a preference for domestic funding over international funding due to its greater cost-effectiveness, normally longer duration, relative ease of execution, and reduced swap counterparty credit exposure and accounting risk.

The Province however, regularly accesses borrowing opportunities in currencies other than Canadian dollars to relieve pressure on the domestic bond market and diversify its investor base. This helps reduce Ontario's overall borrowing costs and ensures that the Province will continue to have access to capital if domestic market conditions become more challenging.

In 2017–18, the proportion of domestic funding was about 62% and reflected very favourable borrowing opportunities in international markets. This was roughly in line with the target announced in the 2017 Ontario Economic Outlook and Fiscal Review to complete approximately two-thirds of total borrowing in the Canadian dollar market. Given the continued strong demand expected in the domestic market, the Province will maintain its Canadian dollar borrowing target of at least two-thirds of total borrowing in 2018–19.

Diversification of borrowing will be required to complete the program, and the Province will strive to stay ahead of pace to provide flexibility for times when access will be curtailed.

Borrowing Authority

The Province has three sources of borrowing authority: the Financial Administration Act ("FAA"), the Ontario Loan Act ("Loan Act") and the Electricity Act, 1998 ("Electricity Act").

Source of Borrowing Authority	Borrowing Authority Available (As of April 27, 2018)
Financial Administration Act	$11.0 billion
Loan Act	$17.3 billion
Electricity Act	$1.1 billion

The FAA authority is primarily used for the purpose of refinancing maturing debt. The Loan Act authority is used to finance new debt, including anticipated deficit, if any, and investments in capital assets and cash requirements.

An Order-in-Council ("OIC") is an order, recommended by the Minister of Finance, concurred by the Chair of Cabinet, and approved and ordered by the Lieutenant Governor in Council that authorizes the Province to borrow up to a specific amount authorized under the OIC.

- An FAA refinancing OIC totaling approximately $17.5 billion was approved on March 27, 2018.

- The Loan Act, 2017 for $6 billion received Royal Assent on May 17, 2017. Approval of one OIC under the Loan Act for long-term borrowing was received on October 18, 2017.

- Long-term borrowing is comprised of debt issuances with a maturity date usually greater than three years. Short-term borrowing includes debt issuance with a term of three years or less and is used to help manage the Province's liquid reserves.

Pursuant to section 68 of the Electricity Act and section 20 of the FAA, the Province borrows on behalf of OEFC and on-lends the proceeds to OEFC. The Province is able to provide an all-in lower cost of financing than if OEFC borrowed in its own name with a provincial guarantee.

OICs under the FAA, Loan Act and Electricity Act are routine business and are required to obtain the borrowing authority pursuant to these Acts. Without these OICs, the Province cannot issue any debt in the capital markets and would not be able to fulfill its borrowing requirements. Any significant delays in obtaining the requested OICs could result in insufficient borrowing authority and could jeopardize the Province's ability to fund health care, education, social programs and infrastructure projects and affect its ability to service existing debt and fund operating deficits.

PROVINCIAL DEBT

CURRENT STATUS

Total debt, which represents all borrowing without offsetting financial assets, is projected to be $348.8 billion as at March 31, 2018, compared to $333.1 billion as at March 31, 2017. Ontario's net debt is the difference between total liabilities and total financial assets. Ontario's net debt is projected to be $308.2 billion as at March 31, 2018. Net debt is the most commonly used measure by the investors in our bonds and other capital market participants, as it includes both financial liabilities and assets.

Debt Portfolio and Long-Term Average of Debt Portfolio

The global decline in interest rates over the past 25 years is already showing signs of modestly reversing. Maintaining a long average term of the Province's debt portfolio ensures low interest rates remain locked in for a longer period. This reduces refinancing risks and helps offset the impact of expected higher interest rates on the Province's future interest on debt costs.

Since the beginning of fiscal year 2010–11, Ontario has issued $71.3 billion of bonds with terms of longer than 30 years to lock in low interest rates. As a result, the average term of Ontario's debt portfolio has been extended, from 9.7 years in 2009–10 to 10.7 years, as of March 31, 2018 (Chart 1).

Net Debt-to-GDP

The Province's net debt-to-GDP ratio is forecast to be 37.6 per cent at the end of fiscal 2018–19, compared to the 37.3 per cent forecast in the 2017 Budget and the 38.5 per cent forecast in the 2016 Budget. Ontario's net debt-to-GDP ratio peaked in 2014–15 at 39.3 per cent and is forecast to remain below the 2014–15 peak and resume its downward trend in 2022–23 (Chart 2).

Investments in capital infrastructure have contributed over $99 billion to the increase of tangible capital assets, and thus net debt over the last 13 years. The government commenced recording of tangible capital assets in 2002–03. Over the budget outlook, net investments in capital assets will contribute over $32 billion to the total increase in net debt of $51.9 billion.

Interest on Debt

Interest on debt (IOD) is Ontario's fourth largest budgeted expenditure, after Health, Education and Children's and Social Services. Ontario's IOD for the year 2018–19 is projected to be $12,543 million, $578 million higher than interim IOD of $11,965 million in 2017–18.

The Province's exposure to interest rate fluctuations, both positive and negative, is significant. In 2018–19, a one percentage point change in interest rates would result in a change of $300 million in IOD costs for the Province.

BACKGROUND

The three commonly used indicators of a government's financial and debt position are net debt, total debt, and accumulated deficit. Credit rating agencies and investors place the greatest emphasis on net debt.

Net debt is the difference between the Province's total liabilities and financial assets. Ontario's net debt has been forecast to increase from $301.6 billion as at March 31, 2017 to $308.2 billion as at March 31, 2018. It is projected to increase to $325.0 billion as at March 31, 2019 and to $342.8 billion as at March 31, 2020. The increase in net debt primarily reflects the increase in net tangible capital assets of the Province in 2017–18, partially offset by the projected surplus and, thereafter, increases in projected deficits and net tangible capital assets. Financial markets use net debt as their primary measure as it represents the Province's future revenue requirements to pay for past transactions and events.

Total debt is the sum of the Province's total borrowings including Ontario Electricity Financial Corporation and agencies. Ontario's total debt increased from $333.1 billion as at March 31, 2017 to $348.8 billion projected as at March 31, 2018. This increase was mainly due to deficits and the government's capital investments. Canadian dollar denominated debt represents 83 per cent of the Province's total debt as at March 31, 2018.

Accumulated deficit represents the sum of all deficits and surpluses. Accumulated deficit is projected to be $192.4 billion as of March 31, 2018, compared to a projection of $193.5 billion in the 2017 Budget. The projected difference of $115.8 billion between net debt and accumulated deficit is mainly due to the Province's high level of investment in infrastructure.

CREDIT RATINGS

CURRENT STATUS

The OFA maintains close relationships and ongoing dialogue with credit rating agencies throughout the year to keep them apprised of the government's financial status, policies and initiatives, and to ensure these are accurately reflected in the agencies' ratings and reports. Ontario currently maintains a double-A rating with three of its four credit rating agencies.

Table 1: Ontario's Current Long-term and Short-term Ratings

Agency	Long-Term Rating	Short-Term Rating	Most Recent Review
Moody's	Aa2 (N)	P-1	Negative Outlook April 17, 2018
DBRS	AA (low)	R-1 (mid)	Confirmed April 24, 2018
Fitch	AA-	F1+	Confirmed June 20, 2017
S&P	A+	A-1	Long-term rating confirmed; short-term rating lowered June 15, 2017

Credit rating agencies will be monitoring the fiscal plans of the government very closely. If deficits persist, the Province is likely at risk of being downgraded by credit rating agencies. The last downgrade from S&P was on July 6, 2015, after the 2015 Budget was released on April 23, 2015. S&P had cited high deficits and a high debt burden versus domestic and international peers.

A downgrade to the Province's credit ratings would result in higher interest rates on Ontario debt. For 2018–19, the impact of a one percentage point change in interest rates on interest on debt is approximately $300 million.

BACKGROUND

Moody's notes that spending pressure will challenge the province's ability to achieve and maintain a balanced budgets. Financing to fund deficits and capital spending will continue to push the debt burden higher. Interest expense as a share of revenues is already the highest among the provinces and is expected to increase as interest rates rise.

Fitch noted that a return to deficit borrowing during a period of economic growth would be inconsistent with Fitch's current rating expectations. According to Fitch, the Stable Outlook at the current rating level assumes a continued focus on tabling balanced budgets and gradually lowering the burden of debt.

S&P notes that the province's very strong and diversified economy, strong financial management, very predictable and well-balanced institutional framework, and low contingent liabilities support the province's current rating. The ratings also reflect S&P's view of the province's weak budgetary performances and very high debt burden.

DBRS expects the ratings to remain stable in the near term, however, the outlook for the medium to longer term appear less certain. A downgrade could occur if debt were to rise sharply because of a downturn in the economy or a change in the government's fiscal policies.

Both S&P and Moody's have indicated that the maintenance of liquid reserves in proportion to financing needs, including both short-term and long-term debt maturities, is an important factor in maintaining Ontario's credit rating.

VALUE FOR MONEY AUDIT

CURRENT STATUS

From January to late March 2018, the OFA and the Office of the Auditor General of Ontario (OAGO) have been working together to prepare the groundwork for the Value-For-Money (VFM) audit on Borrowing and Debt Management to begin in May and likely end in September 2018.

The auditors have met with both senior management and individual staff, and have been briefed on the strategy and planning that goes into the borrowing and debt management activities and execution. A manager has been appointed to act as the audit coordinator to ensure that all information requests by the OAGA have been met in a timely manner.

In late March, the auditors concluded their preliminary field work. In early May they will return to the OFA to brief and obtain consensus with OFA senior management on what the actual audit scope and objectives will entail. From May to August, the field work will be done in earnest. In August and September, the OAG will inform the OFA of its findings and recommendations that will be published in the AG's Annual Report in 2018.The process also includes an opportunity for the OFA to respond to the findings and its responses will included in the published report.

BACKGROUND

On December 11, 2017, the Auditor General informed the Ministry of Finance Deputy Minister that the OFA's Borrowing and Debt Management Program would be subject to a VFM audit for the 2017–18 Fiscal year.

A VFM audit is part of the AG's mandate where government programs, agencies, and certain public-sector organizations are audited to see if their administrators have spent money with due regard for economy and efficiency and have satisfactory procedures for measuring and reporting on effectiveness. VFM audits are conducted along the assurance standards of CPA Canada.

The AG's VFM findings are published annually in the AG's Annual Report, typically in Chapter 3 of her report. VFM findings are high profile and in many cases generate larger media coverage than financial statement audits performed by the AG.

FINANCIAL ADMINISTRATION ACT – SECTION 28

BACKGROUND

Section 28 (s.28) of the FAA has been in force since 1991, and states that despite any other Act, a ministry or public entity shall not enter into any financial arrangement, financial commitment, guarantee, indemnity, or similar transaction that would increase, directly or indirectly, the indebtedness or contingent liabilities of Ontario, or seek the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council to enter into any such transaction, without the prior written approval of the Minister of Finance.

Currently the powers of the Minister under FAA section 28 are shared by the Minister of Finance and the President of Treasury Board as a result of OIC 216/2015 as amended by OIC 223/2016. These shared powers include the following:

- The approval of individual transactions s.28(1.1).
- The approval of a class of transactions s.28(1.2).
- The exemption of an individual transaction s.28(1.3).
- The exemption by regulation of a class of transactions s.28(1.4).
- The declaration that s.28 (2) does not apply; i.e., despite failure to comply with s.28 the transaction remains enforceable.

The Minister of Finance deals with requests from ministries and provincial agencies respecting financing, investing, and financial risk management activities, including borrowing by Crown agencies, guaranteeing of such borrowing, banking and financial services, Alternative Financing Projects (AFPs), custodial services and hedging contracts.

In addition, the Minister of Finance is responsible for responding to requests for section 28 approvals of contingent liabilities and financings contained in all agreements and transactions entered into by Ministry of Finance divisions and agencies.

The President of Treasury Board deals with section 28 approval requests from ministries and provincial agencies (other than the Ministry of Finance and its agencies) of all other contingent liabilities contained in non-financing related agreements and transactions, including contractual indemnities, government contribution agreements, real estate leases, and contracts for services required to meet day-to-day operations.

It is a ministry's or public entity's responsibility to identify which of their proposed transactions require s.28 approval under the FAA and submit the request to the appropriate Minister prior to entering into the transaction or seeking Cabinet approval for the transaction.

Submissions supporting requests for Section 28 approval should include a signed Minister's request letter as well as a business case for the transaction that would include:

- The description, business and legal rationale for assuming each specific contingent liability or increase in indebtedness;
- A quantification of the maximum dollar amount of the contingent liability or indebtedness, and if it is not possible to quantify, an explanation as to why that is the case;

- Any financial models developed in support of the project;
- An estimate of the duration of the contingent liability or indebtedness, the risk exposure and the likelihood of it materializing;
- A description of the measures taken to manage risk and minimize losses;
- A description of alternatives considered to the contingent liabilities or indebtedness;
- An explanation of how the responsible ministry proposes to pay for any contingent liabilities that may arise; and
- A description of the benefit to Ontario of taking on the contingent liability.

RISK MANAGEMENT

CURRENT STATUS

Coming out of the financial crisis in 2008–09, the Province began a strategy of creating large, liquid 10 and 30-year benchmark domestic bond issues in 2009–10 in response to investor demand. This strategy has been very successful and continues to lower Ontario's borrowing costs and enhance the Province's access to capital.

However, as a result of these large bond issues, the Province will have large cash outflows on single days commencing in 2019–20, rather than having maturities spread more evenly through the year. In anticipation of the need for cash reserves to meet these requirements for large outflows on a single day, the Province began building larger cash reserves in 2017–18. As of March 31, 2018, the Province's average unrestricted liquid reserve was $30.1 billion (Chart 1). Debt maturities are estimated at $21.5 billion for 2018–19.

Today, the OFA maintains a high level of liquid reserves and short term borrowing capacity.

BACKGROUND

Market risk is the risk of loss due to changes in interest and foreign exchange rates. The OFA monitors and manages the debt maturity profile to limit refinancing risk. Term selection for new borrowing will be aimed for a smooth maturity schedule to diversify the interest resetting risk of refinancing debt maturities (Table 1).

Liquidity Risk is the risk that liquid reserves will not be sufficient to meet the Province's cash requirements. This risk is controlled through the management of operational cash flows, liquid reserve levels and the short-term borrowing program. The Province's Treasury bill and U.S. Commercial Paper programs have authorized limits of $33.0 billion and $15.0 billion, respectively.

Operational Risk is risk of loss due to failed models, systems, processes, people or external events.

Credit Risk is the risk of loss due to default of bond issuers or counterparties of derivatives or other financial transactions. Strict credit limits are enforced for financial and investment counterparties. The Province also has collateralized swap agreements in place for most swap counterparties.

INTEREST ON DEBT (IOD)

CURRENT STATUS

Interest on debt (IOD) is Ontario's fourth largest budgeted expenditure, after Health, Education and Children's and Social Services. Ontario's IOD is projected to be $12,543 million in 2018–19, $13,066 million in 2019–20 and $13,849 million in 2020–21.

IOD Savings and Affordability

The interim forecast for IOD expense in 2017-18 is $11,965 million, which is $281 million lower than the forecast in the 2017 Budget. The 2017–18 savings continue a trend that has been in place for a number of years through a combination of lower deficits and borrowing requirements than Budget forecasts, lower-than-forecast interest rates and prudent and cost-effective debt management. It will be very challenging, however, to continue to generate such savings as the global decline in interest rates over the past 25 years has begun to reverse.

Historically low interest rates, and the resulting savings on IOD, have reduced the ratio of IOD to the Province's revenue in spite of a rising debt burden. Ontario's net debt has risen from $156.6 billion in fiscal 2007-08, before the financial crisis and global recession, to $308.2 billion at the end of fiscal 2017–18. However, over that period, the IOD-to-Revenue ratio, a key measure of debt affordability, has dropped from 8.4 cents of interest costs for every revenue dollar to 8.0 cents, as shown in Chart 1.

IOD Forecast and Sensitivity

As outlined in the 2018 Budget, the IOD forecast over the outlook period to 2025-26 is highlighted in Table 1.

Note: Numbers may not add due to rounding.

Any revisions to either the projected deficits or the investments in infrastructure may impact the amount of future debt required to be issued, and in turn, the IOD expense forecast.

The IOD forecast is also sensitive to changes in interest rate forecasts. Forecasts of interest rates and spreads are subject to risks arising from unforeseen economic conditions or other events. For 2018-19, the impact of a one percentage point change in interest rates would result in a change of approximately $300 million in IOD costs for the Province.

BACKGROUND

To forecast IOD, the OFA uses inputs primarily consisting of existing debt, expected future borrowing requirements, and interest and foreign exchange rate forecasts.

For existing debt, interest expense is based on the actual terms of each debt issue outstanding. Interest expense forecasts for debt projected to be issued in 2018–19 and 2019–20 are based on the private sector forecast of Government of Canada interest rates provided in the 2018 Ontario Budget, together with assumptions on the number of basis points (hundredths of a percentage point) that investors require above the Government of Canada rates to purchase the Province's debt (this is called the "spread").

Very few private sector forecasters provide interest rate projections beyond two years. As a prudent assumption for debt to be issued in 2020–21 and beyond, interest expense forecasts are based on the average rates of Ontario debt over the past 20 years. The OFA used to look back 10 years for this model, and then 15 years, but given the historically low interest rate environment since the onset of the global recession a decade ago, it was determined to be sensible to extend this period to 20 years.

ONTARIO'S GREEN BOND PROGRAM

CURRENT STATUS

Ontario is currently the largest issuer of Canadian dollar Green Bonds, with four outstanding green issues totaling $3.05 billion (Table 1).

On January 25, the Province successfully launched its fourth Green Bond issue of $1.0 billion. This is not only the largest Green Bond offering from the Province of Ontario, but also the largest issue to be priced in the Canadian dollar Green Bond market. With this transaction, Ontario added eight new investors (that had never purchased Ontario bonds) and expanded its Canadian dollar investor base by eleven names (investors that had never purchased Ontario bonds in Canadian dollars).

BACKGROUND

The Province's Green Bond program commenced in 2014. As the first Canadian province to issue Green Bonds, Ontario is leading the way to establish and develop a Canadian dollar Green Bond market with investor participation from around the world. Ontario's Green Bonds capitalize on the Province's ability to raise funds at low interest rates and serve as an important tool to help Ontario finance transit and other environmentally friendly projects across the Province.

Ontario has a mature Green Bond program and expects Green Bonds to continue having an important role in the Province's annual borrowing.

Ontario strives to be a leader in its transparency and impact reporting efforts with the publication of its annual newsletter.

Use and Management of Proceeds

Green Bond proceeds are paid into the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Ontario. An amount equal to the net proceeds of each Green Bond issue is recorded in a designated account in the Province of Ontario's financial records. These designated accounts are used to track the use and allocation of funds to eligible projects.

Green Bond projects are expected to be funded within one year from the date of issue.

Green Bond Projects

Ontario's Green Bond Framework specifies five categories of eligible projects:

- Clean Transportation (e.g. public transportation)
- Energy Efficiency and Conservation (e.g. building efficiency improvement)
- Clean Energy and Technology (e.g. smart grid infrastructure and energy storage)
- Forestry, Agriculture and Land Management (e.g. sustainable forest management)
- Climate Adaptation and Resilience (e.g. flood protection and storm water management)

A total of 16 different projects have received or will receive funding from Ontario's four Green Bond issues. The projects selected as eligible to receive funding from the Green Bonds have an emphasis on clean transportation and energy efficiency and conservation (Table 2).

ONTARIO SAVINGS BONDS (OSB)

CURRENT STATUS

A new campaign is taking place from June 1–21, 2018 with the following range of products: 3-year variable, 5-year step-up, 3-year fixed, and 10-year fixed. The interest rates for the new series of OSBs are generally announced on the first day of sales.

The 2017 campaign raised approximately $64 million. It is difficult to predict the size of this year's campaign. Increased competition by banks for retail money may be offset by the safety provided by government bonds.

The Federal government, British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba have discontinued their savings bond program (Table 1). The Province may review the Ontario Savings Bond Program next year.

BACKGROUND

OSBs were introduced in 1995 and are 100 per cent backed by the Province of Ontario. Since then, approximately $44 billion in OSBs have been sold with about $1.1 billion currently outstanding (amount as of February 28, 2018). The bonds are usually on sale during the first three weeks of June.

The bonds are available for purchase through dealers, banks and credit unions. The 2017 distribution of sales across the various agents was consistent with prior years with dealers accounting for 85 per cent of total sales and banks for 15 per cent of total sales.

Total sales per campaign for the OSBs are as follows:

2017	$ 64 million

CURRENT STATUS

The Province and Ontario Power Generation (OPG) signed the Ontario Nuclear Funds Agreement (ONFA) in March 2002, effective as of April 1, 1999. The Ontario Financing Authority (OFA) manages the implementation of ONFA on behalf of the Province.

The main objective of ONFA is to ensure sufficient funds are available to pay for the future costs of nuclear waste management and nuclear station decommissioning for OPG's current nuclear stations, including the Bruce stations leased to Bruce Power.

ONFA came into force in July 2003 with the creation of two segregated funds, which are jointly managed by OPG and OFA, on behalf of the Province:

- The Decommissioning Segregated Fund (DSF) is to pay for the permanent shut down of nuclear stations, including security and monitoring, used fuel storage during decommissioning, dismantling of stations and site restoration, and storage of low and intermediate level waste.
- The Used Fuel Segregated Fund (UFSF) is to cover costs of dry storage and used fuel after station decommissioning, as well as long-term disposal costs. The UFSF includes the federally mandated "Ontario NFWA Trust" amounts (under the federal Nuclear Fuel Waste Act).

The combined market value of the funds was $4.9 billion when they were formally established in 2003. As of December 31, 2017, the combined market value of the segregated funds had grown to over $21 billion, consisting of about $9.1 billion in the DSF (including a "due to the Province" of about $1.9 billion) and about $12.1 billion in the UFSF (including a "due to the Province" of about $2.5 billion). Net of the "due (to) from Province" amounts, OPG recognises a net value for the ONFA funds of about $16.7 billion on its balance sheet (Table 1).

Role of the Minister of Finance:

ONFA was signed by the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Finance has responsibility for ONFA, including the following:

- Approving Reference Plans submitted by OPG for cost and liability estimates for plant decommissioning and waste management at least once every five years. The current Reference Plan is effective January 1, 2017.
- Entering into agreements to satisfy the Canadian Nuclear Safety Commission (CNSC) financial guarantee requirements related to OPG's nuclear facilities. This includes providing the CNSC with access (in certain circumstances) to the ONFA segregated funds, or if required, providing a direct provincial guarantee.
- Approving any amendments to ONFA.

BACKGROUND

As part of the April 1, 1999, financial restructuring of the old Ontario Hydro, OPG began to set aside cash in segregated funds and recognize on its financial statements the present value of the incurred nuclear waste management and decommissioning obligations.

In light of the recognition of these obligations, the Province and OPG entered into the ONFA in March 2002. The agreement came into force on July 24, 2003, with an effective date of April 1, 1999.

ONFA has three main goals:

- To ensure sufficient funds are available to pay for costs of nuclear station decommissioning and long-term nuclear waste management (including used fuel and low and intermediate level waste after station shut down),
- To limit OPG's financial exposure to unforeseen increases in the cost of managing used fuel, and
- To permit OPG to satisfy the CNSC's financial guarantee requirements.

Notes: "Due (to) from Province" amounts reflect the funds position at a certain point in time only and have fluctuated over time as presented in the table. The "Due to Province" amounts are reflected in this way on OPG's financial statements under accounting standards, primarily because of ONFA.

Under ONFA, if there are amounts left in the funds after all the liabilities have been dealt with (projected to be many decades away, up to the 22nd century), then those amounts go to the Province. Under ONFA, the Province provides a rate of return guarantee on a portion of the UFSF. If the actual rate of return on that portion of the UFSF, then OPG records that amount as "Due to Province".

ABORIGINAL LOAN GUARANTEE PROGRAM (ALGP)

CURRENT STATUS

The ALGP is a discretionary, non-entitlement, application-based program that provides loan guarantees to eligible applicants to support Aboriginal equity participation in the renewable energy sector and regulated transmission projects.

The program, as approved by Treasury Board, can provide a loan guarantee of up to 75 per cent of an Aboriginal community's investment in a renewable energy generation or transmission project, to a maximum of $50 million per project. Treasury Board approval of these parameters also allows the OFA to come forward for approvals above $50 million on a case-by-case basis. The total approved program envelope is $650 million.

Nine loan guarantees have been approved to-date, for a total of approximately $250 million. There are active applications for requested loan guarantees totalling over $300 million.

In conjunction with its third party due diligence service providers, the OFA administers the program, performs due diligence on the applications, seeks the necessary approvals from Cabinet (Order in Council) and the Minister of Finance (approval of the conditional offer of the guarantee and execution of the guarantee agreement), and negotiates the final legal agreements.

BACKGROUND

The ALGP was launched in 2009 to facilitate Aboriginal participation in renewable energy infrastructure projects. Eligible investments under the ALGP include key investments in transmission, wind, solar and hydroelectric projects across the province.

Loan guarantee offers are made on a case-by-case basis at the discretion of the Minister of Finance and Cabinet under the authority of section 22 of the Financial Administration Act and are disclosed as Contingent Liabilities in Volume 1 of the Public Accounts.

To be eligible for a loan guarantee under the program, projects are required to have:

- Agreements in place to purchase energy in the case of generation projects and regulatory approvals in the case of transmission projects
- Experienced proponents and project partners with track records in construction and operation
- Completion of the OFA's due diligence process
- A corporation that is wholly-owned by the Aboriginal Community which will be the applicant to the program and will take on all aspects of the project, such as signing contracts and entering into partnership agreements

If eligible, applicants could receive ALGP guarantees for up to 75 per cent of the Aboriginal community's equity in a project, to a maximum of $50 million, no earlier than at the point of financial close for the project, after regulatory approvals are in place and at the same time, or after, all other financing is put in place.

FINANCING PUBLIC BODIES

CURRENT STATUS

The OFA is able to provide loans to Ontario public bodies such as colleges, school boards and hospitals, as well as provincial corporations, boards and commissions that are consolidated on the Province's financial statements.

Under this framework, the OFA provided new loans to a number of public bodies in 2017–18, including Ontario colleges and crown corporations totalling $2.4 billion. As at March 31, 2018, the OFA had a total outstanding loan portfolio worth $5.7 billion, for a conservatively estimated saving of nearly $30 million in annual interest costs. Cumulative interest savings since inception of the program in 2007 are in excess of $260 million.

It is estimated that the OFA may provide a further $500 million in long-term loans to public bodies in 2018–19.

BACKGROUND

Higher financing costs of consolidated public bodies, increased demand for financing and the lack of expertise within public bodies led to the establishment of a provincial loan program for public bodies.

Under this framework, the Province, through the OFA, provides short and long-term financing to provincial public bodies. Most of the OFA loans are long-term. The cost of long-term debt of consolidated public bodies is conservatively estimated to be 25 to 75 basis points higher than the Province's cost of funds.

Through this program, the Interest on Debt cost associated with capital projects is transferred to some of the responsible organizations.

Key Framework Components

The key decisions in establishing the framework revolved around what type of financing to provide, which consolidated sectors to lend to and what interest rate to charge.

1. Long-Term Financing: The framework focuses on long-term financing and generally leaves administratively intensive short-term financing to financial institutions, except where the Minister of Finance determines there is a significant benefit to the public body or to the Province.

2. Consolidated Sectors: The OFA provides financing to sectors where their financial results are consolidated on the Province's balance sheet, including school boards, colleges, hospitals and other public bodies that borrow as crown agents. However, the OFA will generally not lend directly to the electricity sector (except for certain purposes of the Independent Electricity System Operator formerly under the mandate of the Ontario Power Authority prior to their merger), unless otherwise directed by Cabinet, Treasury Board or the Minister of Finance.

3. Province's Total Cost of Funds or a Proxy Commercial Rate: The OFA provides financing at either the Province's total cost of funds or a proxy commercial rate, depending on the nature of the activity and debt repayment capacity of the public body. In some cases the rate charged to the borrower will be similar to the rate that would be charged on the loan by a commercial lender which would reflect the relative risk associated with the loan. The OFA will generally retain the spread, which includes the administrative costs of managing these loans.

GOVERNMENT ASSETS AND INVESTMENTS

The Ontario Financing Authority (OFA) provides financial analysis and advice to the government, ministries and agencies on government assets and investments.

Contributions from Provincially-owned assets can help meet fiscal plan targets or generate additional cash for reinvestment.

As the owner of these assets, the government has a responsibility to ensure that governance of these assets is sound and that optimal contribution to the fiscal plan is pursued.

Three main categories of options are available for potentially increasing the value that an asset delivers to the Province:

- Hold;
- Retain and Improve; and
- Divest.

The Province has a number of significant assets that do or can provide fiscal contributions, such as the following:

- Ownership interests in Government Business Enterprises (GBEs):
    - Ontario Power Generation Inc. (OPG),
    - Liquor Control Board of Ontario (LCBO) (with the Ontario Cannabis Retail Corporation (OCRC) as an LCBO subsidiary),
    - Ontario Lottery and Gaming Corporation (OLG), and
    - Hydro One Limited (Hydro One).
- In 2016–17, the Province reported net income from GBEs of about $5.6 billion, per 2016–17 Public Accounts of Ontario.
- The Province is the sole owner of OPG, LCBO (including OCRC), and OLG, and holds about 47 per cent ownership in Hydro One which is publicly traded on the Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX).

There are a number of other smaller organizations owned by the Province, which provide smaller amounts of revenue, or none in some cases, but which may still hold fiscal opportunities to improve performance or have opportunities to realise value.

The OFA also provides financial analysis and advice on government investments, such as venture capital investments and business supports, including loans and loan guarantees.

BACKGROUND

Options to Optimise Value:

1. Hold: For assets delivering core public services, where performance is excellent and/or non-organic improvement or divesting is not feasible today.

2. Retain and Improve: For assets delivering core public services, where transformation and/or growth would unlock fiscal or policy value. This could include
    - Improving governance and oversight,
    - Modernizing the operating model, through restructuring or outsourcing, and
    - Improving performance by pursuing opportunities for efficiency.

3. Divest: For non-core assets where divesting would allow for the capture of full value or where the government cannot improve performance without significant risk or where changes in society do not justify or require the existence or operation of the asset.

Subject: Prom Notes

Hi Sarah and Malle,

As we have been working on the documents and OIC for the new OFA-IESO FHP credit facility, I was looking at the existing OFA OIC 675/97 (see page 10 of the attached .pdf) which underpins the existing 975M OFA-IESO credit facility as well as various other OFA loans. While there are no active IESO advances under this loan, there are other active OFA loans to third parties under this OIC.

Accompanying the 675/97 (on p. 14 of the attached .pdf) is a form of prom note issued by the OFA to the Minister of Finance on any loans the OFA borrows from the Minister in relation to that OIC. I am trying to locate the executed prom note for this OIC675/97. We have looked in the Documentation safe and it is not in there.

Would you have any record of this prom note having been executed?

Thanks,
Sarah

Order in Council
Décret

Corp. Finance
Borrowing Bylaw
for the OFA

On the recommendation of the undersigned, the Lieutenant Governor, by and with the advice and concurrence of the Executive Council, orders that:

Sur la recommandation du soussigné, le lieutenant-gouverneur, sur l'avis et avec le consentement du Conseil des ministres, décrète ce qui suit :

WHEREAS pursuant to subsection 22(1) of the Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993 (the "Act"), the Minister of Finance may purchase securities of or make loans to corporations established under subsection 2(1) of the Act in such amounts, at such times and on such terms and conditions as the Lieutenant Governor in Council considers expedient;

AND WHEREAS the Ontario Financing Authority (the "OFA") is a corporation established under subsection 2(1) of the Act;

AND WHEREAS pursuant to subsection 6(3) of the Act, the power of a corporation to borrow and issue securities, among other things, may only be exercised under the authority of a by-law that has been approved by the Minister of Finance;

AND WHEREAS the OFA wishes to borrow Six Hundred and Fifty-six Million Dollars from the Minister of Finance and has been authorized to do so by a borrowing by-law in accordance with the Act and approved by the Minister of Finance;

THEREFORE:

Pursuant to subsection 22 (1) of the Act, the Minister of Finance is authorized to lend a maximum of Six Hundred and Fifty-six Million Dollars in lawful money of Canada to the OFA on the following terms and conditions:

(a) the loan may be advanced in such amounts and at such time or times as required by the OFA;

(b) repayment of advances made under the loan plus accrued interest may be made in whole or in part at any time provided that the loan plus accrued interest shall be fully repaid by August 31, 2029;

(c) the OFA shall be entitled to use the loan as a revolving credit facility allowing for successive advances of moneys repaid under the loan, provided that the maximum principal amount of the loan outstanding at any time shall not exceed Six Hundred and Fifty-six Million Dollars;

(d) each advance (an "Advance") made under the loan hereby authorized shall bear interest at a rate which is determined as follows:

(i) from the date of advance to (but excluding) the date of repayment, the Advance shall bear interest at a per annum rate equivalent to the interest rate paid on ninety day Province of Ontario treasury bills (determined as at the auction date immediately preceding the date of the Advance), provided that if an Advance is outstanding for longer than ninety days, the interest rate shall be reset on the last day of each ninety day period (the "Reset Date") to the interest rate paid on ninety day Province of Ontario treasury bills as at the auction date immediately preceding the Reset Date for such ninety day period;

(ii) in the event that moneys included in an Advance are subsequently loaned by the OFA to third parties for the purposes contemplated in the Act, (a "Third Party Loan") the rate of interest payable by the OFA to the Province on the portion of the Advance so loaned may be adjusted at the option of the OFA effective as of the date of the Third Party Loan so that the per annum rate of interest payable by the OFA on such moneys is equivalent to either:

(A) the per annum rate of interest payable to the OFA under the Third Party Loan, or

(B) the per annum rate of interest payable to the OFA under the Third Party Loan less 25 basis points, until but excluding the date on which the Third Party Loan is repaid, at which time the interest rate set out in subparagraph (i) shall again be applicable to that portion of the Advance; and

(iii) in the event that moneys described in subparagraph (ii), once repaid, are subsequently loaned to third parties again, subparagraph (ii) shall again be applicable in determining the interest rate payable to the Province on that portion of the Advance included in any subsequent loan, and so on, until the Advance shall be repaid to the Province in full;

(e) interest for any period of less than one year shall be payable for the actual number of days included in such period, computed on the basis of a 365-day year;

(f) the loan hereby authorized shall be evidenced by a promissory note in a form acceptable to the Minister of Finance.

ONTARIO FINANCING AUTHORITY

Issue:

An Order in Council (OIC) authorizing the Ontario Financing Authority (OFA) to borrow up to $656 million from the Province.

Comments:

- The OIC for $656 million will fund the OFA's lending requirements for the 1999/2000 fiscal year.

- The $656 million will be loaned to meet Government committments to Ontario Housing Corporation, Ontario Northland Transportation Commission and other public bodies as per attached schedule showing the projected use of funds for these organizations as well as the previous fiscal year advances.

- The OFA lends funds to public bodies, as an intermediary of the Province subject to the conditions and restrictions of the OFA Lending Policy.

- The OFA Lending Policy requires that the OFA Board approve an annual borrowing plan for the OFA that identifies;

  (i) the OFA's borrowing requirements for the year from the Province and any other sources; and

  (ii) the projects or purposes for which the borrowed funds will be used, including loans to public bodies for specific projects and contingencies.

- All necessary OFA Board and Management Board approvals must be in place before the OFA will execute this borrowing authority and on-lend funds to any government agency.

- Interest will be paid by the OFA to the Province under one of the following rates:

  - the Provincial 90-day Treasury Bill rate,
  - the rates charged by OFA on the corresponding loans by the OFA to government agencies, or
  - less 25 basis points on the said loans.

  This flexibility will allow the OFA to match the terms of the loan from the Province to the terms of the loans made by the OFA to government agencies.

RECOMMENDATION:

- Approval of the OIC authorizing a loan up to $656 million to the OFA.

1999-00 REVIEW OF OFA LENDING POLICY: FOR OFA LENDING UNDERTAKEN as an INTERMEDIARY of the PROVINCE

Issue

- Review of the OFA Lending Policy for lending activities undertaken where the OFA is acting as an intermediary of the Province.

Recommendation

- It is recommended that the OFA Board make no changes to the current OFA Lending Policy for the year 1999-00. No amendments are required to the Lending Policy since it still accurately reflects the lending activities of the OFA, and no change is anticipated in those lending activities.

Background

- Under the current Lending Policy, the OFA:

  (i) does not lend to public bodies, other than as an intermediary of the Province, without the prior approval of the OFA Board;

  (ii) advances loans to Crown Agencies and Other Public Bodies where the Province supports the provision of Provincial financing and it is advantageous to the Province for the OFA to provide the loan; and

  (iii) does not receive a fee from the Province or earn a profit for lending activities where it is acting as an intermediary on behalf of the Province.

- The Lending Policy requires that an annual borrowing plan for the OFA be provided to the OFA Board for approval along with a report outlining the status of all loans outstanding.

- Where Cabinet, Management Board of Cabinet or the Minister of Finance requests the OFA to advance a loan to a public body or authorizes the public body to borrow from the OFA, no further OFA Board approval is required.

- Where the Province has approved Provincial financing to a public body without specifying the role of the OFA, the OFA will advance the loan if:

  – the CEO of the OFA and the Director of Corporate Finance or a committee of the OFA Board or the Board has authorized the OFA to advance the loan; and

- there is sufficient allocation for the loan in the annual borrowing plan.

- The OFA will adhere to the lending terms and conditions outlined in the Lending Policy unless otherwise requested by Cabinet, Management Board of Cabinet or the Minister of Finance.

On the recommendation of the undersigned, the Lieutenant Governor, by and with the advice and concurrence of the Executive Council, orders that:

Sur la recommandation du soussigné, le lieutenant-gouverneur, sur l'avis et avec le consentement du Conseil des ministres, décrète ce qui suit :

WHEREAS pursuant to subsection 22(1) of the Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993 (the "Act"), the Minister of Finance may purchase securities of or make loans to corporations established under subsection 2(1) of the Act in such amounts, at such times and on such terms and conditions as the Lieutenant Governor in Council considers expedient;

AND WHEREAS the Ontario Financing Authority (the "OFA") is a corporation established under subsection 2(1) of the Act;

AND WHEREAS pursuant to subsection 6(3) of the Act, the power of a corporation to borrow and issue securities, among other things, may only be exercised under the authority of a by-law that has been approved by the Minister of Finance;

AND WHEREAS the OFA wishes to borrow Two Billion One Hundred and Sixty Million Dollars from the Minister of Finance and has been authorized to do so by a borrowing by-law approved in accordance with the Act;

THEREFORE:

Pursuant to subsection 22 (1) of the Act, the Minister of Finance is authorized to lend a maximum of Two Billion One Hundred and Sixty Million Dollars in lawful money of Canada to the OFA on the following terms and conditions:

(a) the loan may be advanced in such amounts and at such time or times as required by the OFA;

(c) the OFA shall be entitled to use the loan as a revolving credit facility allowing for successive advances of moneys repaid under the loan; provided that the maximum principal amount of the loan outstanding at any time shall not exceed Two Billion One Hundred and Sixty Million Dollars;

(d) each advance (an "Advance") made under the loan hereby authorized shall bear interest at a rate which is determined as follows:

(i) from the date of advance to (but excluding) the date of repayment the Advance shall bear interest at a per annum rate equivalent to the yield earned on ninety day Province of Ontario treasury bills (determined as at the auction date immediately preceding the date of the Advance), provided that if an Advance is outstanding for longer than ninety days, the interest rate shall be reset on the last day of each ninety day period (the "Reset Date") to the yield earned on ninety day Province of Ontario treasury bills as at the auction date immediately preceding the Reset Date for such ninety day period;

(ii) in the event that moneys included in an Advance are subsequently loaned by the OFA to third parties for the purposes contemplated in the Act, (a "Third Party Loan") the rate of interest payable by the OFA to the Province on the portion of the Advance so loaned may be adjusted at the option of the OFA effective as of the date of the Third Party Loan so that the per annum rate of interest payable by the OFA on such moneys is equivalent to either:

(A) the per annum rate of interest payable to the OFA under the Third Party Loan, or

(B) the per annum rate of interest payable to the OFA under the Third Party Loan less 25 basis points,

until but excluding the date on which the Third Party Loan is repaid, at which time the interest rate set out in subparagraph (i) shall again be applicable to that portion of the Advance; and

(iii) in the event that moneys described in subparagraph (ii), once repaid, are subsequently loaned to third parties again, subparagraph (ii) shall again be applicable in determining the interest rate payable to the Province on that portion of the Advance included in any subsequent loan, and so on, until the Advance shall be repaid to the Province in full;

(e) interest for any period of less than one year shall be payable for the actual number of days included in such period, computed on the basis of a 365-day year;

Dear Jonathan,

Many thanks for your message.

Please find attached for your reference a note the OFA prepared in 2012 in connection with Ontario's change in listings from the Main Market of the London Stock Exchange to the Euro MTF Market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange. If possible, we would ask that it please not be widely distributed and hope that it will prove useful with your research. Some of the listing costs have increased marginally since 2012 and would need to be updated.

Kind regards,
JF

Hi Opal,

I've been tasked with investigating Alberta's listing authorities and was hoping you could provide some colour.

I believe Ontario switched from UKLA to Luxembourg Euro MTF in 2013. Could you describe your reasoning behind making the change and any positive/negative of Lux compared to UKLA?

Thanks.

PROPOSAL TO CHANGE THE LISTING OF THE PROVINCE'S GLOBAL BONDS FROM THE MAIN MARKET OF THE LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE TO THE EURO MTF MARKET OF THE LUXEMBOURG STOCK EXCHANGE

ISSUE

The listing application process for the Province's Global Bonds to be admitted to the Official List of the United Kingdom Listing Authority (UKLA) and London Stock Exchange (LSE) has become increasingly costly, onerous and uncertain.

BACKGROUND

- The Province's Global Bonds are registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) in the United States and are not listed on any stock exchange in North America.

- Prior to 2005, the Province listed its Global Bonds on the Main Market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, an EU-regulated market. The Province has outstanding bonds listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange.

- The Province has been listing all of its Global Bonds on the Main Market of the LSE since 2005. The Main Market of the LSE is also an EU-regulated market as defined in European Directive 2004-39-EC.

- The change from the Main Market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange to the Main Market of the LSE occurred at a time of regulatory uncertainty where Luxembourg authorities were perceived to be less responsive than UK authorities in implementing new EU requirements by capital market participants. These concerns no longer exist today.

- Between 2005 and 2007, the Province strived to list its Global Bonds on the Main Market of the LSE by the closing date. This approach proved challenging in terms of satisfying UKLA documentation requirements and an alternate approach was adopted in 2007.

- Since 2007, the Province's duty to its underwriters is to use all "reasonable efforts" to list its Global Bonds on the Main Market of the LSE as soon as possible after the closing date. The timing of the listing application process with the UKLA varies greatly, ranging from under two months to over five months.

CURRENT STATUS

- A number of retail issuances in the UK by other issuers have had inadequate investor disclosure which has resulted in increased scrutiny on the part of UK financial services regulators including the UKLA.

- Over the past two years approximately, the time period related to the listing application process with the UKLA has consistently exceeded reasonable expectations, taking over five months in certain cases (e.g. Global G57).

- We have been advised by the Province's U.S. counsel, some of the Province's underwriters and counsel for other provinces that other sovereign and corporate issuers are experiencing difficulty with the UKLA listing application process.

- The Province's U.S. counsel (UK Office) has entertained discussions with the UKLA on the Province's behalf to express concerns with the listing application process and the delays encountered, specifically:

    - There is often no legal basis to 50% of the comments received from UKLA readers;

    - UKLA readers are not bound by previous readers' comments or previously approved documentation which makes the process highly subjective as there is a different reader each time;

    - UKLA readers have contradicted each other and demonstrated a propensity for inconsistent interpretation of the rules, including EU directives and UKLA requirements;

    - In order to satisfy individual UKLA readers, the Province's UKLA prospectus documentation is often amended and revised several times which contributes to an unnecessarily slow listing application process; and

    - As of July 1, 2012, the Province has had to comply with amended regulatory requirements in connection with prospectus rules in the European market for its Global Bonds. The Province now provides information in a different format (compared to its SEC filings) as required by the regulatory authorities in the EU.

- Costs and resources allocated to the listing application process have risen significantly as UKLA prospectus documentation must be re-drafted and re-reviewed by Documentation staff, Ministry of Finance legal counsel and the Province's U.S. counsel until the UKLA reader is satisfied.

ANALYSIS

- It is not a legal requirement for the Province to list its Global Bonds on the Main Market of the LSE or any centralized exchange in the European market unless it intends to offers the bonds to the public (i.e. to retail investors).

- The Province's Global Bonds are not public offerings to retail investors and UKLA prospectus documentation is prepared solely to procure the listing. The Province's Global Bonds are sold to institutional investors, including insurance companies, pension funds and investment funds in the U.S., European and Asian markets.

- The Province's Global Bond underwriters have advised that is it important for the Province to maintain a listing as some investors require that the bonds be listed in order to buy them.

- The Province is relinquishing some control over the consistency of its disclosure documents filed with the SEC in order to comply with individual UKLA readers' preferences.

- Major European stock exchanges present issuers with two different listing options: 1) EU-regulated markets, and 2) exchange-regulated markets, also called Multilateral Trading Facilities (MTF's) which are a category of markets recognized by EU legislation under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (MiFID).

- EU-regulated markets are subject to additional requirements including the Prospectus and Transparency Directives and are typically geared toward protecting retail level investors. MTF markets are subject to listing rules set by the stock exchanges and are bound by less costly and less stringent requirements while catering to sophisticated institutional investors. The requirements of the Prospectus and Transparency Directives do not apply, though certain provisions of the Directives may apply by virtue of the listing rules of the relevant exchange.

- The Province's underwriters and legal counsel for the underwriters have advised that it does not matter to investors whether the listing takes place on an EU-regulated market or an exchange-regulated market (MTF).

- Some issuers have opted to shift away from the UKLA process and mind-set as a result of the increased difficulty in dealing with the UKLA in recent years.

- The Euro MTF market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange presents a viable and less costly listing alternative to the Main Market of the LSE for the Province. The listing application process on the Euro MTF market is expected to take approximately two weeks.

Listing Costs (per issue)	Main Market of the LSE	Euro MTF Market
LSE Listing fee	£4,200	€600
UKLA Vetting Fee	£2,500	–
UKLA Application Fee	£225	€625
News Announcement Fee	£150	–
Web Fee	£100	–
Maintenance Fee	–	€570 annually for each outstanding Global Bond (5yr deal = €2,850)
Total Fixed Costs	£7,175	€4,075
Canadian Dollar Equivalent	$11,418	$5,242
Legal Fees (listing only)	Approx. USD $25K-$50K	Est. USD $15,000

- The Euro MTF market was created in 2005 and is not an EU-regulated market. It is supervised by the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier (CSSF) in Luxembourg and the rules and regulations of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange.

- Other prominent sovereign issuers have chosen the Euro MTF market including the Government of Canada, Export Development Canada (EDC), Canada Housing Trust, the Province of Nova Scotia, Brazil, Mexico, etc.

- Euro MTF listings are eligible to the Eurosystem operation (ECB) for collateral purposes.

  Note: In order for the Global Bonds to be ECB collateral-eligible, they must be denominated in EUR (no other currency is permitted since the Province is not domiciled in the European Economic Area (EEA)).

RECOMMENDATIONS

- Following discussions with the Province's traders, underwriters and legal counsel for the underwriters, it is recommended that the Province consider listing its future Global Bonds on the Euro MTF market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange.

- In this way, the Province will continue to accommodate all investors wishing for the Global Bonds to be listed while simultaneously improving the timeliness of the listing application process and reducing costs.

- The transition from the Main Market of the LSE to the Euro MTF market will not affect investors or the outstanding Global Bonds on the Main Market of the LSE.

- The transition will involve primarily amendments to the current language found in the Province's Global Bond documentation and familiarization with a new process which is expected to be faster and simpler than the UKLA listing application process.

Attachments: CIPA OIC s.22 May 2017 (v.2) - ENG and FRE.DOCX

Hi Mike,

I originally sent this e-mail below to Linda and she thought it looked fine, but she thought I should also run it by you.

As part of putting in place the new credit facility between IESO and the OFA, a new OIC is required for the OFA to borrow from the Province, so the Province may in turn make loans to IESO. As matter of prudence, I am asking is for you to review the rates that the OFA pays to the Province in the OIC are still appropriate. The OIC package must go to the DMO today.

In short, the rates included in the OIC are effectively the same as the existing OIC underpinning the $975 million credit facility between the OFA and IESO. Specifically, section(c)(ii) of the OIC says if the OFA uses the borrowed monies to fund 3rd party loans, then the rate will be equivalent to rate of interest payable to the OFA under 3rd party loan less an amount as may be determined by the Minister of Finance in respect of such Third Party Loan or a class of such Third Party Loans.

The OIC also contains a more general borrowing rate. That is, Section (c)(i) says if the OFA simply borrows funds from the Minister (which have not been loaned to a third party), the OFA pays the rate equal to the 90 day ONT T-Bill yield. However, for the purposes of this OIC, it is unlikely that this section would ever be used.

Again, both rates above are consistent with existing OICs.

Please let me if these rates look okay.

Thanks,
Sarah

Subject: Question - OIC for new IESO Credit Facility

Hi Linda,

As a matter of prudence, I just wanted to check with you on one aspect of the draft OIC for OFA to make loans to IESO under the proposed credit facility in relation to the Fair Hydro Plan. The OIC package will be delivered today to the DMO, but I wanted to confirm with you that the rates that under the Section (c) of the attached OIC are still appropriate (perhaps it is I should be asking Mike?, but since this is IESO related, I wanted to check with you first).

Section (c) deals with the rates the OFA pays to the Minister for any funds it borrows, and is essentially the same as the OFA's existing OIC from 1999. Section (c)(i) says if the OFA simply borrows funds from the Minister (which have not been loaned to a third party), the OFA pays the rate equal to the 90 day ONT T-Bill yield. Section(c)(ii) says that if the OFA uses the borrowed monies to fund 3rd party loans, then the rate will be equivalent to rate of interest payable to the OFA under 3rd party loan less an amount as may be determined by the Minister of Finance in respect of such Third Party Loan or a class of such Third Party Loans.

Please let me know your thoughts.

Sarah

(ii) in the event that moneys included in an Advance are used by the OFA for the purpose of funding loans to third parties (a “Third Party Loan”), the rate of interest payable by the OFA to the Province on the portion of the Advance so used shall be adjusted effective as of the date that the portion of the Advance is used to fund the Third Party Loan so that the per annum rate of interest payable by the OFA on such moneys is equivalent to the per annum rate of interest payable to the OFA under the Third Party Loan less an amount as may be determined by the Minister of Finance in respect of such Third Party Loan or a class of such Third Party Loans, until but excluding the date on which the Third Party Loan is repaid, at which time the interest rate set out in subparagraph (i) shall again be applicable to that portion of the Advance; and

(iii) in the event that moneys described in subparagraph (ii), once repaid, are subsequently used to fund loans to third parties, subparagraph (ii) shall again be applicable in determining the interest rate payable to the Province on that portion of the Advance used to fund such loan, and so on, until the Advance shall be repaid to the Province in full;

(iv) despite subparagraphs (ii) and (iii), in the event that no interest is payable to the OFA under a Third Party Loan, no interest shall be payable by the OFA on the portion of the Advance so used and to the extent that the terms of a Third Party Loan provide for the deferral of the payment of accrued interest for a period, the interest payment terms of an Advance or portion thereof shall also be deferred for a similar period.

(d) interest for any period of less than one year shall be payable for the actual number of days included in such period, computed on the basis of a 365-day year;

(e) despite paragraph (b) of this Order, interest on any portion of an Advance made to the OFA under the loan that is used by the OFA to fund a Third Party Loan shall accrue on the basis stated above but shall become payable only to the extent the OFA receives payment of interest under the relevant Third Party Loan;

(f) despite paragraph (b) of this Order, any portion of the principal of an Advance made to the OFA under the loan that is used by the OFA to fund a Third Party Loan shall become payable only to the extent the OFA receives repayment of principal under the relevant Third Party Loan; and

(g) the loan hereby authorized shall be evidenced by a promissory note.

d) l'intérêt payable relativement à toute période de moins d'un an sera calculé en fonction du nombre de jours réellement compris dans cette période, par rapport à une année comptant 365 jours;

e) par dérogation à l'alinéa a) ci-dessus, l'intérêt sur toute partie d'une avance consentie à l'OOF dans le cadre du prêt que cette dernière utilise pour financer un prêt à un tiers est calculé comme il est indiqué ci-dessus, mais cet intérêt devient payable uniquement dans la mesure où l'OOF reçoit un paiement d'intérêts au titre du prêt à un tiers;

f) par dérogation à l'alinéa b) ci-dessus, toute partie du capital d'une avance consentie à l'OOF dans le cadre du prêt que cette dernière utilise pour financer un prêt à un tiers devient payable uniquement dans la mesure où l'OOF reçoit un remboursement du capital au titre du prêt à un tiers

RECITALS

Pursuant to Subsection 5(3) of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act"), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may by order, authorize the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province, to agree to guarantee or indemnify certain debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an Investment Interest.

Pursuant to an Order in Council dated as of ■ (the "OIC"), the Lieutenant Governor in Council has, among other things, authorized the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of Ontario, to enter into one or more agreements to guarantee or indemnify the debts, obligations secured or undertakings of one or more financing entities established or caused to be established pursuant to Subsection 22(2) of the Act by the FSM and that may incur Funding Obligations in connection with one or more Investment Interests.

Pursuant to a Declaration of Trust dated as of ■, 2017, the FSM [established] the Financing Entity as a "financing entity"[1] (as defined in the Act) for the purposes contemplated in the Act.

The trustee of the Financing Entity in its capacity as Financing Entity Trustee and the Indenture Trustee are parties to the Trust Indenture and propose to create and issue series of notes, bonds and other securities as contemplated therein, and to provide security over the assets and undertaking of the Financing Entity in respect of such notes, bonds and securities, as well as other Obligations Secured.

The Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province, have determined to provide protections and assurances to the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, in respect of Obligations Secured that constitute Approved Obligations, in order to address concerns that would arise from a change or adverse determination of law, subject in each case to the satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions at the time the Approved Obligation is incurred or amended. This Agreement sets out the terms and conditions of such protections and assurances.

OPG and the Province will concurrently enter into the Process Agreement, under which OPG will agree to perform certain related activities and to provide certain assurances on which the Province will rely, including for the purposes of determining whether the Adherence [1] Note to Draft: Consideration is being given by MOE to possible changes to the Regulation to accommodate the proposed use of a "trust", as a "financing entity".

Conditions have been satisfied in connection with the incurrence or amendment of an Approved Obligation and ensuring that the Province's assumption right may be exercised without impediment on the terms and conditions contemplated in this Agreement.

All things necessary to make this Agreement a valid and legally binding agreement of the Province, the Financing Entity Trustee, the FSM and the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with the Act, the OIC and the Trust Indenture, have been done.

AGREEMENT OF THE PARTIES

In consideration of the respective agreements herein contained, the parties hereto covenant and agree as follows:

1.08 Severability

Each of the provisions contained in this Agreement is distinct and severable and a declaration of invalidity or unenforceability of any such provision or part thereof by a court of competent jurisdiction will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision hereof. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the parties waive any provision of law which renders any provision of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable in any respect. The parties will engage in good faith negotiations to replace any provision which is declared invalid or unenforceable with a valid and enforceable provision, the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid or unenforceable provision which it replaces.

1.09 Governing Law

THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO AND THE FEDERAL LAWS OF CANADA APPLICABLE THEREIN, AND THE OBLIGATIONS, RIGHTS AND REMEDIES OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SUCH LAWS.

1.15 Waiver, Amendment

Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, no amendment or waiver of this Agreement will be binding unless executed in writing by the party to be bound thereby. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement will constitute a waiver of any other provision nor will any waiver of any provision of this Agreement constitute a continuing waiver unless otherwise expressly provided. A party's failure or delay in exercising any right under this Agreement will not operate as a waiver of that right. A single or partial exercise of any right will not preclude a party from any other or further exercise of that right or the exercise of any other right.

1.16 Interest Act

For the purpose of disclosure pursuant to the Interest Act (Canada), the yearly rate of interest to which any rate of interest payable under this Agreement that is calculated on any basis other than a full calendar year is equivalent may be determined by multiplying such rate by a fraction, the numerator of which is the actual number of days in the calendar year in which such yearly rate of interest is to be ascertained and the denominator of which is the number of days comprising such other basis. The parties further agree that for the purposes of the Interest Act (Canada), (a) the principle of deemed reinvestment of interest shall not apply to any interest calculation under this Agreement, and (b) the rates of interest stipulated in this Agreement are intended to be nominal rates and not effective rates or yields.

1.18 References to Acts of the Financing Entity Trustee

For greater certainty, where any reference is made in this Agreement, or in any other instrument executed pursuant hereto or contemplated hereby to which the Financing Entity or the Financing Entity Trustee, as trustee of the Financing Entity, is party, to an act to be performed by, an appointment to be made by, an obligation or liability of, an asset or right of, a discharge or release to be provided by, a suit or proceeding to be taken by or against, or a covenant, representation or warranty (other than relating to the constitution or existence of the Financing Entity) by or with respect to (i) the Financing Entity or (ii) the Financing Entity Trustee, such reference shall be construed and applied for all purposes as if it referred to an act to be performed by, an appointment to be made by, an obligation or liability of, an asset or right of, a discharge or release to be provided by, a suit or proceeding to be taken by or against or a covenant, representation or warranty (other than relating to the constitution or existence of the Financing Entity) by or with respect to, the Financing Entity Trustee as trustee of the Financing Entity.

1.19 Judgment Currency

(a) If for the purpose of obtaining judgment in any court or for any other purposes (other than conversions specifically provided for in the agreement under which an Approved Obligation arises), it is necessary to convert any amount due under this Agreement from the currency in which it is due (the "Original Currency") into another currency (the "Second Currency"), the rate of exchange applied shall be that at which, in accordance with normal banking procedures, the purchaser could purchase, in the New York foreign exchange market, the Original Currency with the Second Currency on the date on which judgment is given. The obligation of the Province in respect of any Original Currency due from it to the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement shall, notwithstanding any judgment or payment in such other currency, be discharged only to the extent that, on the Business Day following receipt of any sum so paid or adjudged to be due under this Agreement in the Second Currency, the Indenture Trustee may, in accordance with normal banking procedures, purchase in the New York foreign exchange market the Original Currency with the amount of the Second Currency so paid or so adjudged to be due; and if the amount of the Original Currency so purchased is less than the amount originally due in the Original Currency, the Financing Entity shall indemnify the Indenture Trustee against such loss.

(b) The term "rate of exchange" in this Section 1.18 means the spot rate at which the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with normal practice, is able on the relevant date to purchase the Original Currency with the Second Currency and includes any premium and costs of exchange payable in connection with such purchase.

ARTICLE II
AGREEMENT TO PERFORM APPROVED OBLIGATIONS

2.01 Limited Guarantee

(a) Upon the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Indenture Trustee may provide a written demand, in the form attached as Exhibit A (a "Payment Demand") to the Province requiring the Province to pay the Approved Obligations owing from time to time by the Financing Entity to the Indenture Trustee as and when they become due and payable, without Acceleration. A Payment Demand will not be valid with respect to an Approved Obligation until the amount claimed becomes due and payable in respect of the Approved Obligation (without Acceleration) in accordance with the Trust Indenture and has not otherwise been paid by the Financing Entity.

(b) Following receipt of a valid Payment Demand under Subsection 2.01(a), the Province shall pay the amounts owing by the Financing Entity to the Indenture Trustee, on behalf of the applicable Beneficiaries, in respect of each Approved Obligation[2], in each case as and when the Approved Obligation becomes due and payable in accordance with its terms and on its scheduled, specified or determined payment date, as determined without regard to any Acceleration or rights of Acceleration arising under the Approved Obligation, in each case by the Province depositing or causing the deposit of the applicable payment amount into the Collection Account (the "Limited Guarantee"). For greater certainty, the Limited Guarantee will not apply to any amount or obligation of the Financing Entity that is not or does not arise under an Approved Obligation, including (i) any amounts that are or become payable as a result of the exercise of an option of the Financing Entity following a Protection Event, and [(ii) amounts required to be deposited by or on behalf of the Financing Entity into any Capital Account, Finance Reserve Account or a Supplemental Reserve Account.][3]

[2] Note: Under Subsection 5(3) of the Act, the Province can guarantee only obligations "associated with an investment interest". The guarantee in Section 2.01 of the draft agreement guarantees "Approved Obligations" which in turn relies on the definition of Primary Obligations. The connection between a Primary Obligation and an "investment interest" is therefore crucial. Unfortunately, the nexus is not straightforward. Blakes is considering how to more precisely connect these concepts.

[3] Note: OFA to confirm whether the Limited Guarantee will extend to require the Province to fill sinking fund and collateral accounts during the period when the Province is required to make payments. If not, then we will need to consider the impact on ratepayers and the potential impact on the CEA calculations, which will have been based originally on these deposits being made during particular reference periods.

(c) Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, the Province's obligation to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee shall be irrevocable, absolute and unconditional.

(d) Any amount payable by the Province under the Limited Guarantee in respect of an Approved Obligation that is not paid when required herein shall bear interest from the applicable due date until paid in full at the rate or rates expressed to be payable on the Approved Obligation.

(e) The right to deliver a Payment Demand and thereupon enforce the Limited Guarantee shall constitute the only remedy available to the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement. Under no circumstances shall the Province be obligated to pay or indemnify the Indenture Trustee or any Beneficiary for consequential, special or punitive damages, or for economic loss or loss of profits.

2.02 Gross-up

[All amounts payable by the Province under this Agreement shall be made free and clear of and without deduction for or on account of any present or future taxes, charges, fees, levies, duties or withholdings of any kind. If the Province is obliged to deduct or withhold an amount in respect of any such taxes, charges, fees, levies, duties or withholdings, then in such event the Province shall deposit into the Collection Account such additional amount as is necessary to ensure that the Indenture Trustee receives (on an after-tax basis, after payment of any and all income taxes on such additional amounts) an amount equal to the full amount otherwise due and payable in respect of the related Approved Obligation, net of any such taxes, charges, fees, levies, duties or withholdings.][4]

2.03 Absence of Set-off

The Province acknowledges and agrees that each payment to be made by the Province hereunder in respect of an Approved Obligation shall be made as required in whole, without application of any right of set-off and without regard to any equities as between or among any of the Province, the Beneficiaries and/or the Indenture Trustee.

2.04 Payment into Collection Account in Satisfaction

Notwithstanding the priority of payment requirements set forth in the Trust Indenture and any legal rule concerning the imputation of payments, the Indenture Trustee shall apply the full amount paid by the Province into the Collection Account in respect of an Approved Obligation to pay the corresponding amount due and payable to the applicable Beneficiaries under the Approved Obligation.[5] Upon a payment having been made by or on behalf of the Province into [4] Province to advise on extension of a tax gross up. We assume this is necessary, although we have not discussed it specifically and it may be that we delete this provision on the basis that the determination of a tax gross up (and the Province's liability for it) will be based on the inclusion of that concept in the Trust Indenture itself.

[5] Note: This will need to operate in tandem with the Trust Indenture waterfall. The idea is that the Approved Obligations may not necessarily follow the sequence of the "payment waterfall" included in the Trust Indenture, and so amounts from the Province would need to operate independently. To be discussed with Torys.

the Collection Account in respect of an Approved Obligation, the amount so paid shall for all purposes be considered to have been applied to pay the applicable Beneficiaries and thereby reduce the amount due and payable under the Approved Obligation, whereupon an affected Beneficiary shall have no continuing rights, interests or entitlements (including rights as a secured party) in respect of the Approved Obligation to the extent so paid[6].

2.05 Certain Waivers

The Province hereby waives:

(a) any requirement, and any right to require, that any power be exercised or any action be taken against the Financing Entity or any Collateral for any of the Approved Obligations;

(b) all notices which may be required by applicable law to preserve any rights against the Province hereunder, including any notice of default, demand, dishonour, presentment and protest;

(c) diligence; and

(d) any defence based upon, arising out of or in any way related to any claim that any election of remedies by the Beneficiaries impaired, reduced, released or extinguished any rights that the Province might otherwise have had against the Financing Entity or any other surety.

The Province agrees that each such waiver is made with full knowledge of its significance and consequences and if any such waiver is determined to be contrary to any applicable law or public policy, such waiver shall be effective only to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

2.06 Additional Security

This Agreement shall be in addition to and without prejudice to any other security by whomsoever given, held at any time by the Indenture Trustee or for the benefit of any of the Beneficiaries.

2.07 Continuing Liability of the Province

The Approved Obligations shall be deemed not to have been paid, observed or performed, and the liability of the Province hereunder in respect thereof shall continue and not be discharged, to the extent that any payment, observance or performance thereof by the Financing Entity, or out of the proceeds of any Collateral, is recovered from or reimbursed by or for the account of any of the Beneficiaries for any reason, including a preference or fraudulent transfer or by virtue of any subordination (whether present or future or contractual or otherwise) of the [6] Note: Consider if Beneficiary rights under Obligations Secured can in fact be affected in this way under an agreement to which a Beneficiary is not directly a party. To achieve a binding relationship, a corresponding provision should appear in the Trust Indenture, to the effect that the Beneficiaries will be deemed to be bound by the Indenture Trustee insofar as the Beneficiaries rights against the financing entity are to be affected.

Approved Obligations, whether such recovery or payment over is effected by any judgment, decree or order of any court or Governmental Authority, by any plan of reorganization or by settlement or compromise by any of the Beneficiaries (whether or not consented to by the Financing Entity or the Province) of any claim for any such recovery or payment over.

2.08 Continuance of the Limited Guarantee

Subject to Section 2.07, the Limited Guarantee shall continue in full force and effect until the indefeasible payment, observance and performance in full of the Approved Obligations.

2.09 Modifications of Approved Obligations

The Province expressly authorizes the Indenture Trustee, at any time and from time to time, without notice and without affecting the liability of the Province hereunder, but subject to compliance with the requirements of the Program Agreements and this Agreement, to:

(a) accept new, additional or replacement instruments, documents, agreements or security in connection with all or any part of the Approved Obligations;

(b) accept partial payments on the Approved Obligations; and

(c) waive, release, reconvey, terminate, abandon, subordinate, exchange, substitute, transfer, compound, compromise, liquidate and enforce all or any part of the Approved Obligations and any security or guarantee therefor, and apply any such security and direct the order or manner of sale thereof as the Indenture Trustee (for the benefit of the Beneficiaries) in its discretion may determine, provided, however, that the Indenture Trustee shall not permit any change, modification, alteration, amendment, supplement, extension, renewal, compromise, novation, replacement, suspension or waiver of the terms of all or any part of the Approved Obligations or any Collateral therefor expect with the prior written consent of the Province having first been obtained.

ARTICLE III
THE INDENTURE TRUSTEE

3.01 The Indenture Trustee

This Agreement is made in favour of the Indenture Trustee in its capacity as trustee under the Trust Indenture. Accordingly, in the event of a new trustee being appointed under the Trust Indenture, such new trustee shall thereupon become and be the Indenture Trustee hereunder, but nevertheless, the Indenture Trustee shall forthwith assign, transfer and make over to the new trustee hereunder this Agreement. All provisions of the Trust Indenture for the protection of the Indenture Trustee or for facilitating the administration of the trusts or otherwise relating to the Indenture Trustee solely as to its holding of the rights thereunder shall apply mutatis mutandis to this Agreement and the Indenture Trustee's duties hereunder.

3.02 Acceptance of Trusts

The Indenture Trustee hereby accepts the trusts hereof and agrees to carry out and discharge the same unless and until a new trustee shall be appointed as contemplated in Section 3.01.

ARTICLE IV
APPROVED OBLIGATIONS

4.01 Approval Process

A Primary Obligation shall constitute an Approved Obligation if (a) the Adherence Conditions applicable thereto have been satisfied; or (b) the Province has specifically approved in writing the particular terms, conditions and documentation for the Primary Obligation.

4.02 Adherence Conditions

The following shall be the Adherence Conditions applicable in relation to a Primary Obligation:

(a) the Primary Obligation is contemplated under the Trust Indenture as an Obligation Secured;

(b) if the Primary Obligation is a [borrowing][7], at the time the Primary Obligation is incurred or amended, the maximum aggregate payment amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments[8] under the Primary Obligation, together with all other outstanding amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments under Approved Obligations,[9] do not exceed the Protection Agreement Maximum;

(c) the FSM delivers a notice to the Indenture Trustee, with a copy to the Province, not less than ■ Business Days and not more than ■ Business Days prior to the incurrence or any amendment of the Primary Obligation, setting out the Protection Agreement Maximum;

(d) the FSM delivers a certificate signed by the Chief Financial Officer and the Treasurer of OPG (or their respective designees, provided that such designees are executive officers of OPG) and addressed to the Province and the Indenture Trustee, not less than ■ Business Days and not more than ■ Business Days prior to the incurrence or any amendment of the Primary Obligation, setting out the following with respect to the Primary Obligation:

[7] Under consideration. Need to ensure that non-conventional instruments (capital rather than debt) are caught in the maximum test.

[8] Note: The concept of "repayments" under the OFHPA take account of contemplated refinancings. There is some risk that an anticipated refinancing would not manifest as contemplated, in which case the amount financed (and subject to the Limited Guarantee) could exceed the Protection Agreement Maximum and result in a balloon payment obligation.

[9] Note: If certain financing entity obligations are guaranteed under a one-off agreement, the interaction between the one-off guaranteed amount and Approved Obligations that are looked at to determine if incurrence of a new Primary Obligation is within the Protection Agreement Maximum will need to be considered.

i. if the Primary Obligation is a [borrowing], confirmation that, at the time the Primary Obligation is incurred or amended, the maximum aggregate payment amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments under the Primary Obligation, together with all other outstanding amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments under Approved Obligations, do not and will not exceed the Protection Agreement Maximum; and

ii. confirmation that the FSM has delivered to the Province a certificate in accordance with the Process Agreement confirming, among other things, that the transaction documents in respect of the Primary Obligation are in substantially the form of the documentation reviewed by the Province; and

(e) the Province has not provided notice to the Indenture Trustee that a Breach Event has occurred and that the Limited Guarantee does not apply to any further Primary Obligations that are incurred.[10]

4.03 Evidence of Satisfaction

A closing certificate signed by at least two executive officers of OPG in connection with an incurrence or amendment of a Primary Obligation shall be determinative as to whether the applicable Adherence Conditions with respect thereto have been satisfied, notwithstanding that such certificate may include inaccuracies, be incomplete or otherwise be defect or deficient, and such closing certificate may be relied upon by any addressee as conclusive evidence of same.

ARTICLE V
RIGHTS OF THE PROVINCE

5.01 Assignment and Subrogation

Upon paying an amount in respect of an Approved Obligation

(a) to or at the direction of the Indenture Trustee in satisfaction of the Limited Guarantee; or

(b) as a result of assuming the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured under Article VI, the Province (in addition to and without prejudice to any rights it otherwise has in law or equity) shall be subrogated and entitled to all of the applicable Beneficiary's rights and interests under and in respect of the Approved Obligation to the extent of such payment, including (a) the right and entitlement to be paid and receive distributions of such amount by the Financing Entity in accordance with and in the priority applicable to the Approved [10] NTD: Carve-out for re-financings of Approved Obligations already in existence is under consideration.

Obligation applicable in respect of the payment under the Trust Indenture, (b) the benefits of the related Collateral and (c) all proceeds therefrom. The Province shall have and be entitled to enforce all rights and interests (including as a secured party under the Trust Indenture) under such Approved Obligation as an absolute assignee of the applicable Beneficiary, with effect from and after the time of such payment, without any further requirement for notice to or acceptance by the Financing Entity of such absolute assignment and without any reduction, set-off or counterclaim on account of any amounts that may, at or after the time of payment, be or become owing by the Beneficiary to the Financing Entity and unaffected by any other rights or equities that arise thereafter as between the Beneficiary and the Financing Entity. The Indenture Trustee shall recognize the Province as being entitled to all of the rights, interests and entitlements of the Beneficiary (including, if applicable, as a Noteholder) in respect and to the extent of the Approved Obligation so paid, determined as of the time of payment, for all purposes under the Trust Indenture, and the Province shall be treated as a Specified Creditor in respect thereof for all purposes under the Trust Indenture and any other agreement under which the Approved Obligation arises.

5.02 Priorities

For greater certainty, the rights, interests and entitlements of the Province as an assignee and subrogee of and with respect to an Approved Obligation shall rank equally with the rights, interests and entitlements of a Beneficiary for whom a Limited Guarantee payment is made in respect of, and to the extent of the payment made to satisfy, the Approved Obligation and the Province shall not be subject to postponement or subordination with respect thereto except to the extent of the priorities established in relation to the Approved Obligation under the Trust Indenture.

5.03 Voting Rights under "Outstanding Notes"

Notwithstanding the last three sentences of the definition of "Outstanding" in the Trust Indenture[11]:

(a) Notes in connection with Approved Obligations in respect of which the Province has rights and interest pursuant to Section 5.01 shall be regarded as "Outstanding" within the meaning of the Trust Indenture; and

(b) in determining whether Noteholders of the requisite principal amount of Notes that are Outstanding (as defined in the Trust Indenture) have taken any Action under the Trust Indenture, and for the purposes of Article X of the Trust Indenture, the Province shall be deemed to have the amount of Outstanding (as defined in the Trust Indenture) Notes in proportion to its interest in such Notes based on the amounts that the Province has paid in respect of Approved Obligations under this Agreement.

[11] Note: This concept should be reflected in the Trust Indenture to be effective. Additional scenarios where the Province's rights as an affiliate of OPG may differ from what is expected are to be identified in the underlying Program Agreements.

5.04 Province May Perform Other Program Agreement Covenants.

If the Financing Entity fails to perform any covenant under any Program Agreement, the Province may (but, except as expressly provided for under this Agreement, shall not be obligated to) perform such covenant on behalf of the Financing Entity. If the Province performs such a covenant on behalf of the Financing Entity, all sums expended or advanced by the Province in so performing the covenant will bear interest at the rate of interest determined by the Province to reflect market terms and conditions for a borrowing made by the Province at the relevant time from the date of expenditure until repayment by the Financing Entity [and will (together with such interest) be paid by the Financing Entity upon demand and will until paid form part of the Obligations Secured and constitute a Finance Amount.[12]

ARTICLE VIL
NOTICE OF ASSUMPTION OF OBLIGATIONS SECURED

6.01 Delivery of Assumption Notice

The Province may provide notice (in the form of Exhibit B) to the Indenture Trustee that, in accordance with the terms of the Process Agreement, the Province has elected to assume the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured, as obligor and debtor (the "Assumption Notice"). The Assumption Notice shall specify the date on which the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured will be effective (the "Assumption Closing Date").

6.02 Cooperation to Implement the Assignment and Assumption

The Indenture Trustee, the FSM, the Financing Entity and the Province will cooperate and use [commercially reasonable efforts] to complete the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province, by the Assumption Closing Date.[13]

6.03 Effect of Assumption

On the date that the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province becomes effective (the "Assumption Effective Date"), the Province shall no longer be required to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee.

6.04 Interim Period

Until the effective time of the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province on the Assumption Effective Date, the Province shall continue to perform and be obligated under the Limited Guarantee.

[12] Note: General Regulation must be revised such that "Finance Amount" picks up guarantor amounts. Under consideration by MOE.

[13] Note: Further details regarding obtaining of third party consents and rating agency approvals to be considered.

(a) The Indenture Trustee shall not execute instruments to release Collateral from the Security Interest of the Trust Indenture, or convey the Indenture Trustee's interest (which is held by the Indenture Trustee for the benefit of the Specified Creditors) in the same, unless and until the rights and interests of the Province under Section 5.01 or otherwise as an assignee of any of the Obligations Secured or as a

8.03 Termination Notice

On the occurrence of a Suspension Event, the Province may provide to the Indenture Trustee, the FSM and the Financing Entity a notice in the form of Exhibit D (a "Termination Notice").

8.04 No Impact on Adherence

CHANGE OF LAW PROCESS AGREEMENT

Dated as of [■], 2017

This CHANGE OF LAW PROCESS AGREEMENT, between Her Majesty the Queen in Right of Ontario, as represented by the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance (the "Province"), and Ontario Power Generation Inc. ("OPG"), is made and entered into as of [■], 2017.

RECITALS

OPG is appointed as the Financial Services Manager under Section 18 of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act").

Pursuant to Section 22(2) of the Act, OPG, in its capacity as the Financial Services Manager (the "FSM"), may establish or cause to be established one or more financing entities (as defined in the Act), which may incur Funding Obligations in accordance with the Act.

Pursuant to a Declaration of Trust dated as of ■, 2017, the FSM [established] the Financing Entity as a "financing entity" (as defined in the Act) for the purposes contemplated in the Act.

Concurrent with this Agreement, the Province, the FSM, the Financing Entity and the Indenture Trustee will enter into the Change of Law Protection Agreement under which the Province will agree to provide protections and assurances to the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, in respect of Obligations Secured that constitute Approved Obligations, in order to address concerns that would arise from a change or adverse determination of law, subject in each case to the satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions at the time the Approved Obligation is incurred or amended.

This Agreement sets out the obligations OPG has agreed to perform and assurances OPG has agreed to provide and on which the Province will rely in entering into and implementing the Change of Law Protection Agreement, including for the purposes of determining whether the Adherence Conditions have been satisfied in connection with the incurrence or amendment of an Approved Obligation, maintaining information related to the Program Agreement and the Approved Obligations, and ensuring that the Province's assumption rights pursuant to Article VI of the Change of Law Protection Agreement may be exercised without impediment on the terms and conditions contemplated in this Agreement and the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

All things necessary to make this Agreement a valid and legally binding agreement of OPG, and of the Province in accordance with the Act and the OIC, have been done.

Hi Victor,

Thank you for the update. When you send the soft copy signatures, would it be possible to include the signatures within the agreements?

You were probably going to include the following signed soft copies anyway but out of caution I have listed them below:

- Resolution of the Board of Directors
- Incumbency Certificate
- Intercept Letter
- $2 B Grid Note
- $475 MM Grid Note

Hardcopy of the Intercept Letter and $2B Grid Note – overnight delivery is fine.

Per s. 16 AA #10 - Anthony and I discussed on Friday that $475MM Grid note would be signed today but held by IESO until November 21. After the borrowing notice and election notices are actioned, OFA will produce the grid notes to evidence payment and advancements. IESO will then send the new $475MM prom note to OFA. Once received OFA will send the $975MM cancelled prom note to IESO.

Thanks,

Will

Hardcopy of Intercept Letter to follow as you prefer – overnight or pickup? We also need to make arrangements re delivery of the $2Bn Grid Note.

Per s.16 of AA#10, the other Note for $475MM is to be delivered following the Effective Time in exchange for the return by OFA of the Nov 30 2016 Note for $975MM.

I believe that an establishment of an SPA (if allowed) should be considered by the newly established entity. This would be a lot simpler than establishing IMAs and drafting SIPPs. Moreover, it will serve the purpose of segregating (accounting sense) carbon tax money from the CRF.

SPECIAL PURPOSE ACCOUNT GUIDELINE

This Guideline is to be read in conjunction with the Special Purpose Account Policy (link)

Key Definitions of Special Purpose Account (SPA)

- A Special Purpose Account (SPA) is an account authorized by the Ministry of Finance, within the Consolidated Revenue Fund (CRF), and represents money received or collected by Ontario for a special purpose.[1]

TYPES OF SPECIAL PURPOSE ACCOUNT

Externally Restricted Assets and Revenues

A Special Purpose Account should be considered for assets and revenue, which are externally restricted by the provider of the funds in an agreement or legislation if the following conditions are met:

1. Specific restrictions are placed on the Government on how the funds and proceeds are to be used;
2. There are specific requirements that funds/assets, disbursements, and revenue are to be managed and reported separately from general government assets, expenditures and revenues (still within the Consolidated Revenue Fund); and
3. Annual financial statements must be prepared to account for all expenditures, revenues, assets and liabilities separate from the Public Accounts.

Where significant amounts of money are provided by persons, organizations or other governments, this can result in resource requirements within the Government of Ontario to manage the SPA. Management Board of Cabinet, must approve these resource requirements.

Private Voluntary

Where a person or organization external to the Government of Ontario voluntarily pays money to Ontario on the condition that Ontario use the money for a specified ongoing purpose (e.g. a payment to establish a scholarship program), a special purpose account should be considered where the conditions listed above (page 1) are met.

As there is some confusion between Special Purpose Accounts and Trusts it should be noted that the term “trust” is quite often incorrectly applied to assets earmarked as a result of government policy decisions when no trust liability exists and is more properly defined as funds provided for a special purpose. A trust is defined as property that has been conveyed or assigned to a trustee to be administered by agreement or statute. To meet this definition the property must be provided to fulfill a particular objective of the donor of the property conveyed or assigned[2]. A trust establishes a right to or in property held for the benefit of another. A trust may be written or implied. However if a trust meets the criteria listed above then a special purpose account should be considered.

External Public Sector

Where a statute and/or written agreement with another jurisdiction requires money to be paid to Ontario for a specified purpose (e.g. fine surcharges for Criminal Code (Canada) offences), and the conditions listed above (page 1) are met a special purpose account should be considered

Most funds provided from another level of government or another jurisdiction do not meet the three conditions described above and therefore do not qualify for a special purpose account. The funds should be deposited to the CRF and accounted for in the regular manner using the book of record. Even if some of these conditions are met, financial management of the funds should allow for meeting the requirements in legislation and/or agreement without resort to a special purpose account.

Internally Restricted Assets and Revenues

The primary difference between Internal and Program Service Delivery SPA proposal relates to whether the focus of the proposal is a special purpose account for a cash flow:

1. from one external party and/or an appropriation to another external party (internal SPA) or
2. from an external party and/or an appropriation to fund government program delivery (program service delivery SPA).

Internal Ontario Government

When approved by the Minister of Finance, a statute of Ontario can deem money that would otherwise constitute general revenues of Ontario to have been received by Ontario for a special purpose. This could entail a specific revenue source e.g. fee, licence, charge, or recovery that needs to be designated and segregated for a specific purpose. This would include programs like:

- Compensation of victims of crimes funded by recoveries from sale of criminal assets, surcharges under the Provincial Offences Act, and proceeds from illegal activities, donations, and
- Rescuing Children Form Sexual Exploitation fund by recoveries of earnings made from such activity.

The administration of these programs is usually within the government and is funded from the revenues generated and/or interest earned (where approved by the Minister of Finance under section 7(2) of the Financial Administration Act).

[2] Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, Public Sector Accounting Handbook, PS 1300.40

This could also apply to funds received under law from one party, which is owed to another party, with the government receiving the monies owed and paying them to the third party to ensure payment. This type of arrangement should be considered for set up as a special purpose account.

Program Service Delivery Using Revenue

A current or proposed program requires monies, that would generally be deemed revenues of Ontario, be placed in a special purpose account by statute to provide a more effective, efficient and economical form of service delivery (e.g. fishing or hunting license fees or fees and charges collected by provincial parks). This is similar to a net funding or revolving fund arrangement allowing the program greater flexibility to respond to stakeholders and operate in a more business like fashion. This could include monies allocated from a government appropriation for that program to a SPA.

ESTABLISHING A SPECIAL PURPOSE ACCOUNT

If the purpose of any special purpose account changes from the original approval and/or statute, the Ministry must request MBC and MOF to approve the wind down of the old account and the establishment of a new special purpose account following the steps outlined below depending on the type of account. This request must also detail what is to happen to monies in the old account e.g. return to contributors or transfer to the new account.

Significant SPAs should be setup in their own appropriation (vote/item) using an internal recovery account or a natural account that will sufficiently track revenues (inflows and interest) and expenses. Smaller SPAs can be set up within an appropriation (vote/item) however this should only be done when a Ministry is able to accurately account for and attribute expenses and revenue to the SPA. In either case the SPA must be able to be managed and reported in an effective and efficient manner.

Externally Restricted Assets and Revenues

Where significant amounts of money are provided by persons, organizations or other governments this can result in resource requirements within the Government of Ontario to manage the SPA. Management Board of Cabinet must approve these resource requirements.

Private Voluntary

The statutory authority in this case will generally be section 7 of the Financial Administration Act and a new specific statute will not be required. This does not preclude legislation from being enacted, however the cost/benefit of such an action should be considered. Minimally there should be an agreement setting out the purpose, undertakings, restrictions, reporting and wind down provisions. Consideration should be given to an OIC and/or a regulation.

A submission to the Financial Analysis Branch (FAB) of the Ministry of Finance for approval of a special purpose account should cover the following areas:

1. A description of the nature and special purpose of the item for which the SPA is requested, making reference to s.7 (1) of the FAA, or if applicable, detailing the plans for legislation and attaching a draft.
2. Describe the payment (amount(s) and timing) that will/be or has been made to the CRF by the payer.
3. Attach to the submission any draft agreements, OICs or regulations that the Ministry deems necessary to support the special purpose account.
4. If interest is to be paid on the balance in a special purpose account, an order in council must be made under subsection 7(2) of the FAA. Details must be provided supporting the need to pay interest and specifying at what rate, times and manner the interest is to be paid.
5. A business case should be submitted. The level of detail required is predicated on the evaluated dollar amount of the assets to be provided to the Government, the impact on the government's and ministry's plans and resources, and the risks involved. Generally the following areas should be covered: (see Developing a Business Case Guideline for details).
    a. Background
    b. Policy Issues
    c. Program Delivery/Service
    d. Inter-Jurisdiction Analysis (where required)
    e. Performance Measures (where appropriate)
    f. Accountability/Governance
    g. Human Resources
    h. Information Technology
    i. Accommodation
    j. Cost/Benefit
    k. Impact Analysis
    l. Risk Analysis
    m. Communications
    n. Intra/Inter Government Impacts
6. FAB will review the documentation submitted by the Ministry and provide feedback and advice where necessary. This could result in amended documents.
7. When FAB is satisfied with the documentation a recommendation will be made to the Minister of Finance for approval.
8. Where interest is to be paid FAB will request Cabinet to approve an OIC. In order to determine the applicable interest rate and timing of interest payments, FAB will consult with OFA Corporate Finance Division.
9. If resources are required to manage the SPA, FAB will hold it recommendation until Management Board of Cabinet, has approved the resources. FAB will proceed to recommend when approval has been received from Management Board to establish the SPA.

10. FAB will maintain a database of SPAs and trusts to allow for monitoring and accounting purposes.

External Public Sector

Federal Government Program Transfers would generally not be set up as SPAs. However specific contributions or transfers with conditions imposed, such as those listed above (page 1), should be established as a SPA. This can be done by Federal statute, regulation or agreement. The vehicle used should be determined by an evaluation of cost/benefits, amount of the contribution and risks involved. It is also important to evaluate the long-term impact of federal contributions that are matched with provincial and/or private contributions. The Province has been left with full responsibility to deliver programs when the Federal or private contributors have pulled out their funding. Arrangements with municipalities and with other governments should be guided by the same principles.

A MBC Submission to Management Board and Inter-Governmental Affairs is required before proceeding with a submission to the Ministry of Finance (see MBC Submission Guideline for detailed requirements). Ministries should provide a copy of their MBC Submission to the Ministry of Finance at the time it is submitted to MBS.

After approval of the arrangement between governments by MBC and Inter-Governmental Affairs and any necessary resources, a submission to the Financial Analysis Branch FAB of the Ministry of Finance for approval of a Special Purpose Account should cover the following areas (most of this information can be copied from the MBC Submission):

1. A description of the nature and special purpose of the item for which the SPA is requested, making reference to s.7 (1) of the FAA, or if applicable, detailing the plans for legislation and attaching a draft. Legislation from the other jurisdiction(s) should also be included.
2. Describe the payment (amount(s) and timing) that will/be or has been made to the CRF by the Government(s) concerned including any other contributors.
3. Attach to the submission any draft agreements, OICs or regulations that the Ministry deems necessary to support the special purpose account.
4. It is unlikely that interest would be paid on funds received from another jurisdiction. However, if justified, e.g. funds originally came from a third party that demanded interest or there was a clear fiduciary responsibility or the legislation of the other jurisdiction required it, interest to be paid on the balance in a special purpose account, must have an order in council made under subsection 7(2) of the FAA. Details must be provided to FAB supporting the need to pay interest and specifying at what rate, times and manner the interest is to be paid.
5. A business case should be submitted. The level of detail required is predicated on the evaluated dollar amount of the assets to be provided to the Government, the impact on the government’s and ministry’s plans and resources, and the risks involved. Generally the following areas should be covered: (see Developing a Business Case Guideline for details).

a. Background
b. Policy Issues
c. Program Delivery/Service
d. Inter-Jurisdiction Analysis
e. Performance Measures (where appropriate)
f. Accountability/Governance
g. Human Resources
h. Information Technology
i. Accommodation
j. Cost/Benefit
k. Impact Analysis
l. Risk Analysis
m. Communications
n. Intra/Inter Government Impacts

6. FAB will review the documentation submitted by the Ministry and provide feedback and advice where necessary. This could result in amended documents.
7. When FAB is satisfied with the documentation a recommendation will be made to the Minister of Finance for approval.
8. Where interest is to be paid FAB will request to Cabinet for approval of an OIC. In order to determine the applicable interest rate and timing of interest payments, FAB will consult with OFA Corporate Finance Division.
9. FAB will maintain a database of SPAs and trusts to allow for monitoring and accounting purposes.

Internally Restricted Assets and Revenues

Internal Ontario Government

The use of internal SPAs should be limited to those situations where there is a real need to segregate external funds from general government revenues that are to be received from or go to a third party. Where the contribution from an appropriation to a proposed SPA will be greater than 50% (is this an appropriate level) then contributions from external parties should be treated as general revenues, deposited to the CRF and a transfer payment account be set up to pay the third party.

A SPA submission to Management Board of Cabinet requesting approval is required before proceeding with a submission to the Ministry of Finance. Ministries should provide a copy of their MBC Submission to the Ministry of Finance, FAB at the time it is submitted to MBS.

After approval of the proposal and any necessary resources by MBC, a submission to the Financial Analysis Branch FAB of the Ministry of Finance for recommendation to the Minister of Finance for approval of a Special Purpose Account should cover the following areas:

1. A description of the nature and special purpose of the item for which the SPA is requested, detailing the plans for legislation and attaching a draft.
2. Describe the cash flows into the account (amounts and timing) that will be made to the CRF by the payer(s) and where applicable contributions from an appropriation (amounts and timing). Contributions from the appropriation should only be made when needed (see Cash Management Directive).
3. Describe the cash outflows from the accounts (amount and timing) and identify to whom the payment(s) will be made and when.
4. Attach to the submission any draft agreements, OICs or regulations that the Ministry deems necessary to support the special purpose account.
5. If interest is to be paid on the balance of funds in a special purpose account, an order in council must be made under subsection 7(2) of the FAA. Details must be provided supporting the need to pay interest and specifying at what rate, times and manner the interest is to be paid. Interest will not be paid on Government contributions.
6. A business case should be submitted. The level of detail required is predicated on the evaluated dollar amount of the assets to be provided to the Government, the impact on the government's and ministry's plans and resources, and the risks involved. Most of the material in the business case will come from the Management Board Submission. Generally the following areas should be covered: (see Developing a Business Case Guideline for details).
    a. Background
    b. Policy Issues
    c. Program Delivery/Service
    d. Performance Measures
    e. Accountability/Governance
    f. Human Resources
    g. Information Technology
    h. Accommodation
    i. Cost/Benefit
    j. Impact Analysis
    k. Risk Analysis
    l. Communications
    m. Intra/Inter Government Impacts
7. FAB will review the documentation submitted by the Ministry and provide feedback and advice where necessary. This could result in amended documents.
8. When FAB is satisfied with the documentation a recommendation will be made to the Minister of Finance for approval.
9. When interest is to be paid FAB will make a request to Cabinet for approval of an OIC. In order to determine the applicable interest rate and timing of interest payments, FAB will consult with OFA Corporate Finance Division.
10. FAB will maintain a database of SPAs and trusts to allow for monitoring and accounting purposes.

Program Service Delivery Using Revenue

This is primarily a form of alternate service delivery and must be in full compliance with the Government's Alternative Service Delivery Framework, and a Guide for Preparing a Business Case for Alternative Service Delivery.

A submission to Management Board for approval is required before proceeding with a submission to the Ministry of Finance. Ministries should provide a copy of their MBC Submission to the Ministry of Finance, FAB at the time it is submitted to MBS.

After approval of the proposal and any necessary resources by MBC, a submission to the Financial Analysis Branch (FAB) of the Ministry of Finance to recommend to the Minister of Finance for approval of a Special Purpose Account should cover the following areas:

1. A description of the nature and special purpose of the item for which the SPA is requested, detailing the plans for legislation and attaching a draft.
2. Program Delivery SPAs are set up as appropriations with recovery lines for external contributions.
3. Describe the cash flows into the account/appropriation (amounts and timing) that will be made to the CRF by external contributors and from internally appropriated funding (amounts and timing).
4. Describe the cash outflows from the accounts/appropriation (amount and timing) and identify to whom the payment(s) will be made and when.
5. Attach to the submission the final approved Submission to MBC, any draft agreements, OICs or regulations that the Ministry deems necessary to support the special purpose account.
6. If interest is to be paid on the balance of funds in a special purpose account, an order in council must be made under subsection 7(2) of the FAA. Details must be provided supporting the need to pay interest and specifying at what rate, times and manner the interest is to be paid. Interest will not be paid on Government contributions.
7. FAB will review the documentation submitted by the Ministry and provide feedback and advice where necessary. This could result in amended documents.
8. When FAB is satisfied with the documentation a recommendation will be made to the Minister of Finance for approval.
9. Where interest is to be paid FAB will request to Cabinet for approval of an OIC. In order to determine the applicable interest rate and timing of interest payments, FAB will consult with OFA Corporate Finance Division.
10. FAB will maintain a database of SPAs and trusts to allow for monitoring and accounting purposes.

MAINTAINING A SPECIAL PURPOSE ACCOUNT

Externally Restricted Assets and Revenues

Private Voluntary and External Public Sector

The maintenance of the private voluntary and external public sector special purpose accounts should involve the following:

1. Where feasible an SPA should be set up in the book of record of the Ontario Government. OPC will assign the appropriate Chart of Accounts coding.
2. Ministries must deposit SPA funds to the Consolidated Revenue fund through their usual bank account.
3. Payments must be made from the CRF through IFIS.
4. If interest is to be paid on the outstanding fund balances the ministry must provide a copy of the OIC to OFA Capital Markets Treasury Division, Accounting and Financial Reporting Section. Following the end of each interest period (monthly, quarterly etc) the ministry must submit to OFA for review the interest claim computation for the period. Following OFA verification of interest claim, the ministry must submit a journal to OFA for processing.
5. Discrepancies will be reviewed between OFA and ministry involved.
6. Monitoring and reporting as required by legislation, OIC, regulation, agreement or the original approved submission to FAB of MOF.
7. For accounts under $5 million (by assets at year end or by cashflow) annual financial reporting in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) with a schedule of amounts received and amounts disbursed identifying individual or organizations where not prohibited by the Provincial The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act or The Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act or the Federal Privacy Act and the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act or restrictions in the enabling documents or legislation establishing the SPA. The reports should be submitted to the Deputy Minister, FAB, MOF, where required by the original approval, MBS and, where feasible and appropriate, to external contributors.
8. For External Public Sector SPAs, reports should also be provided to the organization(s) in the Public Sector who are making contributions to the SPA at the same time it is provided to the Government of Ontario.
9. Where cash inflows are from multiple sources these should, where feasible, be reported on all financial and management reports.
10. For accounts over $5 million, (by assets at year end or by cashflow) in addition to an annual report described in paragraph 2:
    a. Quarterly interim financial statements in accordance with GAAP provided to FAB of MOF and external contributors if applicable, matched against budget with explanation of variances within 30 days of month end.
    b. Reports on performance indicators where they have been developed yearly by June 30th that explain significant variances (greater than10%).

c. Every four years the special purpose account will be evaluated in accordance with the MBS's Program Evaluation Guideline

Internally Restricted Assets and Revenues

Internal Ontario Government and Program Service Delivery Using Revenue

1. SPA's that receive contributions from the Consolidated Revenue Fund must reside in the vote item structure of a Ministry.
2. SPAs must be set up in the books of record of the Ontario Government.
3. Ministries must deposit SPA funds to the Consolidated Revenue fund through their usual bank account.
4. Payments must be made from the CRF through IFIS.
5. Monitoring and reporting as required by legislation, OIC, regulation, agreement, Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) or the original approved submission to MBC and FAB of MOF.
6. SPAs must meet all applicable monitoring, reporting, and evaluation requirements in directives, policies and practices that apply to government ministries.

WINDING DOWN A SPECIAL PURPOSE ACCOUNT

If a SPA has been dormant for more than three years (no financial transactions, other than interest credited, have occurred during the period), or if there is reason to believe that the purpose for which the account was established is no longer applicable, the account will be reviewed by the Ministry of Finance and the originating ministry. If the purpose of any special purpose account changes from the original approval and/or statute, the Ministry must request MBC and MOF to approve the wind down of the old account and the establishment of a new special purpose account following the steps outlined below depending on the type of account. This request must also detail what is to happen to monies in the old account e.g. return to contributors or transferred to new account.

Externally Restricted Assets and Revenues

Private Voluntary

If the review mentioned above concludes that the account will no longer be used for the purpose it was intended then the originating ministry, with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance, will draft amending legislation to wind up the account (where legislation was passed to specifically enable the SPA). If a SPA was not established by legislation but by OIC or regulation, then an OIC and/or revised regulation winding down the SPA is required. Where an agreement was the enabling vehicle then the specifics for wind down contained in the agreement for the SPA should be followed.

Any balance in the account will be returned, where appropriate and feasible, to the entity(s) or individual(s) who originally provided, otherwise the funds should be transferred to Miscellaneous Revenue in the originating ministry. Where monies have been transferred to revenue any subsequent expenditures will need an appropriation and approval of Management Board of Cabinet

External Public Sector

Usually the organization in the public sector that initiated the SPA would request the wind down. However the Province could also initiate a wind down where it is determined that it is no longer advisable to participate in the program. If it is at the instigation of the contributing organization(s) or a review concludes that the account will no longer be used for the purpose it was intended, then the originating ministry, with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance, will wind down the SPA either by drafting amending legislation, OIC, Regulation and/or agreement (whatever is appropriate). Any balance in the account will be transferred back to the contributing organizations.

Internally Restricted Assets and Revenues

Internal Ontario Government and Program Service Delivery Using Revenue

If it is desirable to terminate the program or the SPA has been dormant for more than three years (no financial transactions have occurred during the period), or if there is reason to believe that the purpose for which the account was established is no longer applicable, the account will be reviewed by the Ministry of Finance, Management Board Secretariat and the originating ministry. With Management Board approval the account will be wound down with the appropriate legislative, OIC, regulation and/or agreement changes.

Any balance in the account that was contributed by the Government of Ontario will be returned to the appropriation from which it originated. If there were other contributors, their contribution, where appropriate and feasible, is returned to the entity(s) or individual(s) who originally provided the funds or where this is not appropriate or feasible it will be transferred to Miscellaneous Revenue. Where monies have been returned to an appropriation or transferred to revenue any subsequent expenditure pertinent to the SPA's original purpose will need an appropriation and where an appropriation does not exist approval of Management Board of Cabinet.

Subject: Status Update

Hi Mike,

I thought it would be helpful to provide you with a status update:

1) $ 6B Loan Act OIC was approved October 16. Total Authority for Province now $24.4 billion.
2) $ 15B FAA Refinancing OIC – package now with DMO. LRC target date is November 20th. On Friday afternoon, DMO asked if was possible to move to the next LRC in early December. I've pushed back due to the extensive prep and review process that it takes Documentation, LSB and Accounting that would need to be repeated for a revised schedule that would be needed if the date is changed. I'll let you know if the November 20th date changes.
3) IESO –I've provided the e-mail update on Friday and will keep you informed of any developments.
4) LIBOR – I've attached a note prepared by Dean and Kelly on the impact of the LIBOR on the Province and OEFC
5) Metrolinx – CIBC's credit department came back with two 'asks' (I've attached the-mail with more detail, for your reference):
   1- CIBC wants to simplify the Additional Termination Event whereby if Metrolinx ceases to be a Crown Agent, the counterparty can Terminate. On initial analysis (Dean and I), this appears workable, but Malle has to review, especially with regard to any impact on the section 28 for the ISDA.
   2 Due to the uncollateralized nature of the ISDA Transactions to be entered into, and CIBC's requirement is that their derivative transactions cannot be subordinated to Metrolinx's senior debt, CIBC is requesting that Metrolinx provide a pari passu representation in the ISDA Schedule. The Province does include this in its swap agreements, and on the face would seem problematic for Metrolinx. We'll need to consult with LSB and Metrolinx on this.
6) Ontario Climate Change Solutions Deployment Corporation (OCCSDC) IMA – I expect Parvez updated you, that we have provided comments on the SIPP and IMA to MOECC. We understand that OCCSDC has at least a skeletal Board who is able to approve items (such as the SIPP). Through Mark Froud, we are requesting more information on whether and when OCCSDC will have Board approved Investment By-Law and signing authorities. While the OCCSDC regulation doesn't require a by-law per se, we are not clear on what internal approvals OCCSDC must pass in order to execute the IMA, and our contact is checking with her legal counsel to confirm.

7) OCGC IMA – George Loo contacted us on Friday 13th indicating progressing in launching its 1st cleantech fund with Yaletown. They are finalizing the limited partnership agreement and other documents for OCGC Board approval (OCGC Board approval and sign-off at their quarterly meeting scheduled for Monday December 11, 2017), and are now creating the S28 approval package for Yaletown. Andrea will have a call to discuss certain signing authority matters with George.
8) US Counsel RFP – with Malle to be reviewed by MAG.
9) HR – Have begun process for recruitment for Lenin's vacant analyst position. Will see if I can restrict applicants to within OFA.
10) General Question: Have there been any developments regarding any discussions with the dealers on zero/zero CSA thresholds?

Thanks,
Sarah

Attachment 1: #6275155-v6-Metrolinx - CIBC ISDA Schedule - SE Comments.docx

---

Hi Malle and Dimitri,

I would like to update you on the current status of Metrolinx ISDA Schedules.

TD, BMO and BNS agreed to the current form of the ISDA Schedules. As I stated before, NBC ISDA may not work due to the Two Affected Parties issue on ATE.

Now, what matters is CIBC ISDA Schedule. There are two remaining issues with CIBC. Initially, it was thought that CIBC would agree to our suggested languages as the feedback was such that they were fine, but they would need the final words from their credit area. Now, the response we get is that CIBC's credit area insists on their suggested languages. Following are the two issues:

1. Additional Termination Event for Metrolinx: Following is the wording we have in the draft

   "The following shall constitute an Additional Termination Event in respect of which Party A will be the sole Affected Party:

   (1) A change is made to the Metrolinx Act, 2006, that has the effect that Party A ceases to be a Crown agency within the meaning of the Crown Agency Act for the purposes of this Agreement and the Minister of Finance ceases to be required to pay from the Consolidated Revenue Fund the amount of any judgment against Party A that remains unpaid after it has made reasonable efforts, including liquidating its assets, to pay the amount of the judgment."

   - ⇨ CIBC remains partial to having an ATE in the ISDA should Metrolinx cease to be a Crown corporation. They understand our previous comment regarding the circumstances under which the Minister of Finance can pay judgments against Metrolinx out of the Province's Consolidated Revenue Fund. However, they do not believe that the ATE needs to necessarily align with the wording in the Act as an ATE merely grants the non-Affected Party the option (not the requirement) to unwind. Our preference is at least to have the option to review the facts / circumstances surrounding such a re-characterization of our counterparty and determine whether this event has any bearing on our earlier risk assumptions. As such, they prefer that the relevant ATE in Part 1(h) read: "Any change to Metrolinx Act such that Party A ceases to be a Crown Corp".
   - ⇨ I feel that this does not pose much risk to the Province. When Metrolinx does not act as a Crown Agency, Minister will not pay from the CRF. My suggestion is to keep the first part of the ATE.
     - o (1) A change is made to the Metrolinx Act, 2006, that has the effect that Party A ceases to be a Crown agency within the meaning of the Crown Agency Act for the purposes of this Agreement. ~~and the Minister of Finance ceases to be required to pay from the Consolidated Revenue Fund the amount of any judgment against Party~~

~~A that remains unpaid after it has made reasonable efforts, including liquidating its assets, to pay the amount of the judgment."~~

2. Due to the uncollateralized nature of the ISDA Transactions to be entered into, and CIBC's requirement is that their derivative transactions cannot be subordinated to Metrolinx's senior debt. CIBC is requesting that Metrolinx provide a pari passu representation in the ISDA Schedule.
   - ⇨ " Party A represents and warrants on a continuing basis to Party B that its obligations hereunder shall at all times rank at least pari passu with its most senior Specified Indebtedness. In the event that Party A provides or agrees to provide security regarding any Specified Indebtedness in the future, it covenants to secure, at the same time, its obligations to Party B on an equal and rateable basis."
   - ⇨ This may be quite problematic. The Province will never accept such a language due to its debt issuance portfolio. However, we also understand that Metrolinx is quite different from the Province, and with their current debt structure, this may be just a true statement (Stikeman insists so, at least.) Since We are not very familiar with Metorlinx's "borrowed money", we wonder if accepting such pari passu language for Metrolinx would be reasonable. Specifically, we wonder if this may affect the s.28 we received from the Minister.

Just for your information, Jason from Stikeman, Metrolinx' counsel is quite adamant about this file. We already said no to NBC ISDA Schedule due to the Two Affected party issue. So we are down to 3 confirmed parties, and CIBC is on the stake. Jason wants us to agree on this and move on but we need to make sure that if these languages may pose any unwanted potential issues as now Metrolinx wants to close the file as soon as possible and they rely on Stikeman's legal advice.

Would you please review, and let us know of your thoughts? Sooner would be better if possible.

Best regards,
Dean

or passage of time or both would constitute an Event of Default with respect to the party, to cause such event or condition to cease to exist before becoming an Event of Default)."

5. EVENTS OF DEFAULT AND TERMINATION EVENTS (Section 5)

(1) Illegality. (Section 5(b)(i))

For the purpose of Section 5(b)(i), the obligation of a party to comply with any directive issued or given by any government agency or authority with competent jurisdiction which has the result referred to in Section 5(b)(i) will be deemed to be an "Illegality."

(2) Credit Event Upon Merger. (Section 5(b)(iv))

For the purposes of Section 5(b)(iv) of the Agreement, but without limiting the generality of the language thereof, the parties agree that the creditworthiness of any "surviving or transferee entity" shall be considered "materially weaker than that of X, such Credit Support Provider or such Specified Entity, as the case may be, immediately prior to such action" if:

(a) any of the long term senior unsecured debt securities of such "surviving or transferee entity" is rated by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's") or by Standard & Poor's, a division of McGraw-Hill, Inc. ("S&P") (or by their respective successors) below the rating such agency gave to similar debt securities of "X, such Credit Support Provider or such Specified Entity, as the case may be", immediately prior to such action; or

(b) any of the long term senior unsecured debt securities of such "surviving or transferee entity" ceases to be rated by at least one of Moody's or S&P or their respective successors; or

(d) where "X, such Credit Support Provider or Specified Entity, as the case may be" was given an issuer rating or a rating equivalent to an issuer rating by either Moody's (or its successor) or by S&P (or its successor), or both, and, in any such case, the "surviving or transferee entity" fails to maintain at least one of such ratings.

(3) Termination Events. (Section 5(b))

For the purposes of Section 5(b) of the Agreement, the parties agree that a credit rating given by any rating agency shall be considered below another credit rating given by that agency if the former has a lower relative standing within a major rating category than the latter. For example:

(a) a rating by Moody's of Aa3 shall be considered below a rating of Aa2, which in turn shall be considered below a rating of Aa1; and

(b) a rating by S&P of AA- shall be considered below a rating of AA, which in turn shall be considered below a rating of AA+.

6. EARLY TERMINATION (Section 6)

(1) Payments on Early Termination. (Section 6(e)(i))

For the purposes of Section 6(e)(i), Second Method will apply and, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6(e)(i)(3) and (4), as applicable, if the amount referred to therein is a positive number, the Defaulting Party will pay such amount to the Non-defaulting Party, and if the amount referred to therein is a negative number then, to the extent permitted by law, the Non-defaulting Party shall have no obligation to pay any amount thereunder to the Defaulting Party unless and until the conditions set forth in (A) and (B) below have been satisfied at which time there shall arise an obligation of the Non-defaulting Party to pay to the Defaulting Party an amount equal to the absolute value of such negative number less any and all amounts which the Defaulting Party may be obligated to pay under Section 11:

(a) the Non-defaulting Party shall have received confirmation satisfactory to it in its sole discretion (which may include an unqualified opinion of its counsel) that (x) no further payments or deliveries under Section 2(a)(i) or 2(e) in respect of Terminated Transactions will be required to be made in accordance with Section 6(c)(ii), and (y) each Specified Transaction shall have terminated pursuant to its specified termination date or through the exercise by a party of a right to terminate and all obligations owing under each Specified Transaction shall have been fully and finally performed; and

(b) all obligations (contingent or absolute, matured or unmatured) of the Defaulting Party and any Specified Entity of the Defaulting Party to make any payment or delivery to the Non-Defaulting Party shall have been fully and finally performed.

For the purpose of the condition set forth in (B) above, "Specified Entity" means:

in relation to Party A: None in relation to Party B: None

(2) Set-off. (Section 6)

The following clause is added to Section 6:

"(f) Set-off. Any amount (the `Early Termination Amount') payable to one party (the `Payee') by the other party (the `Payer') under Section 6(e), in circumstances where there is a Defaulting Party or one Affected Party in the case where a Termination Event under Section 5(b)(iv) or (v) has occurred, will, subject to applicable law and at the option of the party (`X') other than the Defaulting Party or the Affected Party (and without prior notice to the Defaulting Party or the Affected Party), be reduced by its set-off against any amount(s) (the `Other Agreement Amount') payable (whether at such time or in the future or upon the occurrence of a contingency) by the Payee to the Payer (irrespective of the currency, place of payment or booking office of the obligation) under any other agreement(s) between the Payee and the Payer or instrument(s) or undertaking(s) issued or executed by one party to, or in favour of, the other party (and the Other Agreement Amount will be discharged promptly and in all respects to the extent it is so set-off). X will give notice to the other party of any set-off effected under this Section 6(f).

For this purpose, either the Early Termination Amount or the Other Agreement Amount (or the relevant portion of such amounts) may be converted by X into the currency in which the other is denominated at the rate of exchange at which such party would be able, acting in a reasonable manner and in good faith, to purchase the relevant amount of such currency.

If an obligation is unascertained, X may in good faith estimate that obligation and set-off in respect of the estimate, subject to the relevant party accounting to the other when the obligation is ascertained.

Nothing in this Section 6(f) shall be effective to create a charge or other security interest. This Section 6(f) shall be without prejudice and in addition to any right of set-off, combination of accounts, lien or other right to which any party is at any time otherwise entitled (whether by operation of law, contract or otherwise)."

7. COUNTERPARTS AND CONFIRMATIONS (Section 9(e)(ii))

Section 9(e)(ii) is hereby deleted and restated as follows:

"(ii) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement,

(1) The parties hereto agree that each Transaction will be entered into by the agreement of the parties on the terms and conditions of the particular Transaction. The parties expect that such agreement will occur by means of telephone communication between the officers and employees of Party B and the designated officers and employees of the OFA for and on behalf of Party A. The terms and conditions to be agreed upon are those terms and conditions required to complete the form of Confirmation, which is expected to be substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit I or II, as applicable, or such other form of Confirmation as the parties may subsequently agree upon. The parties hereto agree that with respect to each Transaction hereunder, a legally binding agreement shall exist from the moment Party B and the designated officers and employees of the OFA on behalf of Party A hereto agree on the essential terms of such Transaction, which the parties anticipate will occur by telephone communication.

(2) Immediately following the agreement by means of telephone communication of the terms and conditions of a particular Transaction, Party B will send by facsimile, e-mail or by an exchange of electronic messages on an electronic messaging system to Party A and the OFA on Party A's behalf a Confirmation substantially in the form of the Confirmation attached hereto as Exhibit I or II, as applicable, or in such other form of Confirmation as the parties may subsequently agree upon, setting forth the terms and conditions of the particular Transaction and signed by an authorized official of Party B. Party A will, not later than the close of business on the second Toronto Banking Day following the day of its receipt of the Confirmation, send to Party B, by facsimile, e-mail or electronic message on an electronic messaging system; the Confirmation signed by an authorized official of Party A confirming the terms and conditions or adjusting them as set out in clause (3) hereof. Each of the parties agrees that upon execution of the Confirmation by both parties, the Confirmation, whether transmitted by facsimile, e-mail or electronic message on an electronic messaging system, shall be a legal, valid and binding agreement between the parties the terms and conditions of which shall supersede and replace the telephone agreement and such telephone agreement shall thereafter cease to be of any legal force or effect.

(3) If the Confirmation sent by Party B to Party A pursuant to clause (2) above does not, in the opinion of Party A, accurately reflect the terms and conditions of the particular Transaction as agreed to in the telephone communication, then the OFA on behalf of Party A will provide notice of its disagreement to Party B. If the parties cannot agree upon the terms, the parties will then review the electronic recording of the telephone communication between the designated officers and employees of the OFA and of Party B and the Confirmation will be adjusted by Party B, if required, to reflect the telephone communication, and the process in clause (2) above will be re-initiated. If the review of the tape recording indicates that the terms and conditions of the particular Transaction were not agreed upon by the officials of the parties, then the particular Transaction will be null and void and of no legal effect.

(4) Each party (x) consents to the recording of the telephone conversations of trading and marketing personnel of the parties in connection with this Agreement or any potential Transaction and (y) agrees to obtain any necessary consent of or to give notice of such recording to, such personnel of it or its agent.

(5) Electronic Signatures. Party B confirms and Party A acknowledges, that Party B uses a computer-based system to execute certain Confirmations and that each such Confirmation executed by Party B by means of an electronically-produced signature shall have the same legal effect as if such signature had been manually written on such Confirmation and that each such Confirmation shall be deemed to have been signed for the purposes of any statute or rule of law that requires such Confirmation to be signed. The parties acknowledge that in any legal proceedings between them respecting or in any way relating to this Agreement, each party expressly waives any right to raise any defense or waiver of liability based upon the execution of a Confirmation by Party B by means of an electronically-produced signature. This provision shall apply to all Confirmations in respect of Transactions entered into between Party A and Party B after the date hereof."

8. NOTICES (Section 12)

Effectiveness. (Section 12(a))

Section 12(a) is hereby amended by (x) moving "or" from the end of subparagraph (iv) to the end of subparagraph (v); (y) adding subparagraph (vi) "if sent by e-mail or an electronic message on an electronic messaging system, on the date it is delivered,"; and (z) deleting the words within the parentheses in the second and third lines thereof and replacing them with the following:

"except that notice or communication under Section 5 or 6 may not be given by e-mail or an electronic message on an electronic messaging system and may only be given by facsimile transmission if an original copy of such notice or communication is actually delivered in person or by courier to the recipient before the close of business on the second Local Business Day immediately following the date that the notice or communication is deemed effective under this section"

9. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION (Section 13)

(1) Jurisdiction. (Section 13(b)(i))

Section 13(b)(i) is hereby deleted and restated as follows:

"(i) submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Ontario; and"

(2) Waiver of Immunities. (Section 13(d))

Section 13(d) of this Agreement is hereby amended by deleting the words "Each party" and inserting in their place the words "Party B".

10. REPRESENTATION REGARDING RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN PARTIES (Section 15)

The following provision is added as Section 15 to this Agreement:

It is not relying on any communication (written or oral) of the other party as investment advice or as a recommendation to enter into that Transaction; it being understood that information and explanations related to the terms and conditions of a Transaction shall not be considered investment advice or a recommendation to enter into that Transaction. No communication (written or oral) received from the other party shall be deemed to be an assurance or guarantee as to the expected results of that Transaction.

(b) Assessment and Understanding. It is capable of assessing the merits of and understanding (on its own behalf or through independent professional advice), and understands and accepts, the terms, conditions and risks of that Transaction. It is also capable of assuming, and assumes, the risks of that Transaction.

Any such Transaction shall constitute a "Transaction" for the purposes of this Agreement and this Schedule.

(c) Limitation on Cross Default

(iii) the remainder of the Schedule;
(iv) the printed form of the Agreement;
(v) the FX Definitions; and
(vi) the 2006 Definitions, as may be amended from time to time.

provided that, in the event that the FX Definitions or the 2006 Definitions are incorporated by reference into a Confirmation, any amendments to the FX Definitions or the 2006 Definitions made herein will prevail unless further amended in the Confirmation, and further provided that in the event that a Confirmation contains any additional terms and conditions which have not been negotiated and expressly agreed to by the parties, including as to indemnity, the provisions of the Agreement and the Schedule shall prevail over and supersede any such terms and conditions in a Confirmation and such provisions shall be of no effect.

2. Scope and Entry into FX Transactions.

Any FX Transaction which the parties may have entered into prior to the date of this Agreement or which the parties hereto may hereafter enter into, where the relevant Confirmation on its face does not expressly exclude the application of this Agreement, shall (to the extent not otherwise provided for in this Agreement) be subject to, governed by and construed in accordance with this Agreement (in substitution for any existing terms, if any, whether express or implied). Each such FX Transaction shall be a Transaction, and the documents and other confirming evidence (including e-mails or electronic messages on an electronic messaging system) exchanged between the parties confirming such FX Transaction shall each be a Confirmation (even where not so specified therein), for the purposes of this Agreement.

The parties hereto agree that each FX Transaction will be entered into by agreement of the parties on the terms and conditions of the particular Transaction. The parties expect that, for most Transactions, such agreement will occur by means of telephone communication between the employees and officers of Party B and the designated employees and officers of the OFA for and on behalf of Party A. The parties agree that with respect to each FX Transaction hereunder, a legally binding agreement shall exist from the moment Party B and the designated employees and officers of OFA on behalf of Party A agree on the essential terms of such Transaction, which the parties anticipate will occur by telephone communication. Each party (x) consents to the recording of the telephone conversations of trading and marketing personnel of the parties in connection with this Agreement or any potential Transaction and (y) agrees to obtain any necessary consent of or to give any necessary notice of such recording to, such personnel of it, or its agents.

Immediately following the agreement by means of telephone communication of the terms and conditions of a particular FX Transaction, Party B will send by facsimile, e-mail or electronic message on an electronic messaging system to Party A and to the OFA on Party A's behalf a Confirmation in the form agreed to by the parties, setting out the terms and conditions of the particular Transaction. Except in the case of spot FX Transactions, Party A will, not later than the close of business on the Toronto Banking Day next following the date of receipt of the Confirmation, send to Party B, by facsimile, e-mail or electronic message on an electronic messaging system, the Confirmation signed by an authorized officer of Party A. The parties agree that, upon execution of the Confirmation by Party A, the faxed or electronically delivered Confirmation shall be a legal, valid and binding agreement between the parties of the terms and conditions of the FX Transaction and absent manifest error in the Confirmation, shall supersede and replace the telephone agreement and such telephone agreement shall thereafter cease to be of any legal force or effect, except in the case of spot FX Transactions where Party A shall not sign back the Confirmation sent by facsimile, e-mail or electronic message on an electronic messaging system and where the telephone agreement between Party B and the designated officer or employee of the OFA on behalf of Party A and the facsimile, e-mail or electronic message on an electronic messaging system by Party B to Party A shall be a legal, valid and binding agreement between the parties with respect to such a spot FX Transaction governed by the Agreement. With respect to spot FX Transactions, Party B and Party A agree that such Confirmation shall be a legal, valid and binding agreement of Party B and Party A in accordance with the preceding sentence without the necessity for execution by an authorized officer of either party and waive any right to raise any defense based upon the absence of a signature on behalf of the other party.

If the Confirmation sent by Party B to Party A does not, in the opinion of Party A, accurately reflect the terms and conditions of the particular Transaction as agreed to in the telephone communication, then the designated officers or employees of the OFA will in the case of all FX Transactions provide notice of its disagreement to Party B no later than the close of business on the Toronto Business Banking Day next following the date of receipt of the Confirmation. If the parties cannot agree upon the terms, the parties will then review the electronic recording of the telephone communication between the designated officers and employees of the OFA and of Party B and the Confirmation will be adjusted by Party B, if required, to reflect the telephone communication. If the review of the tape recording indicates that the terms and conditions of the particular Transaction were not agreed upon by the employees or officers of the parties, then the particular Transaction will be null and void and of no legal effect.

3. Novation Netting of Deliverable FX Transactions

Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties hereto, if the parties enter into a Deliverable FX Transaction giving rise to Currency Obligations for the same Settlement Date and in the same currency as then existing Currency Obligations between the parties, then immediately upon entering into such Deliverable FX Transaction, each such Currency Obligation shall automatically and without further action be individually cancelled and simultaneously replaced through novation by a new Currency Obligation for such Settlement Date determined as follows: the amounts in such currency that would otherwise have been deliverable by each party hereto on such Settlement Date shall be aggregated and the party with the larger aggregate amount shall have a new Currency Obligation to deliver to the other party the amount by which its aggregate amount exceeds the other party's aggregate amount, provided that if the aggregate amounts are equal, no new Currency Obligation shall arise.

"Currency Obligation" means the obligation of a party hereto pursuant to an FX Transaction to deliver an amount of currency, including any obligation to deliver an amount of currency arising from the netting of two or more Currency Obligations.

4. Settlement Netting of FX Transactions.

Section 2(c)(ii) of this Agreement shall not apply to FX Transactions and, instead, if on any Settlement Date, more than one delivery of a particular currency is to be made between the parties in respect of Currency Obligations arising pursuant to FX Transactions then, on such date, each party shall aggregate the amounts of such currency deliverable by it and only the difference between these aggregate amounts shall be delivered by the party owing the larger aggregate amount to the other party and, if the aggregate amounts are equal, no delivery of the currency shall be made.

5. Records.

The provisions of Section 3 of this Part 7 shall apply notwithstanding that either party may (a) fail to send out a Confirmation documenting the novation netting contemplated by Section 3; (b) not treat on its books the Currency Obligation, as the case may be, as cancelled and simultaneously replaced by a new Currency Obligation, as applicable, as provided in Section 3; or (c) send out a Confirmation that incorrectly states any term of a Currency Obligation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the date specified on the first page of this Agreement.

THE TRANSITION AWAY FROM LIBOR
AND ITS IMPACT ON THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO AND OEFC

ISSUE

In July 2017, the Financial Conduct Authority (the "FCA") announced that it would no longer require panel banks to make LIBOR submissions by the end of 2021, phasing out the reference rate. The OFA needs to monitor the emergence of the replacement rates and the potential impact of such changes on the Province of Ontario (the "Province") and OEFC in terms of its debt and derivatives portfolios.

CURRENT STATUS

Debt and Derivatives Portfolios

- It has been determined that there are no LIBOR floating rate bonds maturing post 2021.[1] However, there are 30 swap transactions for the Province maturing post-2021, the last one maturing in 2026. Thus, while no immediate changes are required for the Province's debt portfolio, a thorough and continuous review/monitoring of the industry-wide discussion on systemic/protocol type fallback provisions for swap transactions is required.

Replacement Reference Rates

1. USD

- SOFR (Secured Overnight Funding Rate): In the United States, the Alternative Reference Rates Committee ("ARRC"), convened by the Federal Reserve, is working to establish a new rate as an alternative to USD LIBOR. A new and currently unpublished broad Treasuries repo financing rate (being referred to now as SOFR) has been selected by ARRC as the preferred benchmark rate to replace USD LIBOR in new financial products.
- The timeline for replacing LIBOR with SOFR is still uncertain.

2. EUR

- EONIA (Euro OverNight Index Average): This is a reference rate based on transactions involving 28 banks, which has existed since the Euro was created. As of September 21, 2017, ECB is intending to enhance the rate, and use it to replace both EUR LIBOR, and Euribor.[2] Unlike LIBOR and Euribor, the ECB will base its unsecured overnight interest rate on actual borrowing activity in the money market.
- ECB is intending to replace LIBOR with EONIA before 2020.

[1] There are 2 outstanding LIBOR floating rate issuances as at October 17, 2017:
1. USMTN2 (USD250M, USD_LIBOR, maturing November 23, 2017)
2. EMTN113 (GBP500M, GBP-LIBOR, maturing November 10, 2020)

[2] There is 1 outstanding EURIBOR floating rate issuance as at October 17, 2017:
G39 (EUR120M, EUR_EURIBOR, maturing January 9, 2018)

3. GBP

- SONIA (Sterling OverNight Index Average): This is the effective reference overnight rate for unsecured transactions in the Sterling market. In May 2017, Working Group on Sterling Risk-Free Reference Rates of the Bank of England announced SONIA as its preferred near risk-free interest rate benchmark (RFR) for use in sterling derivatives and relevant financial contracts to replace GBP LIBOR.
- No timeline is given, yet, for SONIA.

ANALYSIS

Debt Issuances

1. Australian Debt Issuance Program

- Currency is AUD, which is not a LIBOR currency (USD, GBP, EUR, Yen and CHF). No changes are needed to documentation.

2. EMTN Programme

- LIBOR is referenced as a base rate option in the Offering Circular/pro forma Pricing Supplement. In due course, references to LIBOR in the Offering Circular / pro-forma pricing supplement will be deleted and replaced with the comparable market standard reference rate recommended by ICMA.
- For LIBOR-referenced debt issued between now and end 2021, use of the Fall Back provisions could be included in the Pricing Supplement to provide for other options if/when LIBOR is replaced.

3. Global Bonds

- LIBOR is a rate option, but there are no specific references to LIBOR in the base prospectus. At the time of a deal, any reference rate is included in prospectus supplement/deal documents.
- For LIBOR-referenced debt issued between now and end of 2021, wording could be inserted into the prospectus supplement/deal documents to provide for comparable reference rates if/ when LIBOR is replaced.

4. DMTN Program

- There are no LIBOR references in the program documentation. Term Agreement is flexible. No changes needed.

5. US MTN Program

- The Prospectus Supplement states the following:

  "Floating Rate Notes
  We will determine interest on floating rate Notes by reference to an "interest rate basis", which shall be one or more of the following:
    - "CD Rate" ("CD Rate Notes");
    - "Commercial Paper Rate" ("Commercial Paper Rate Notes");

- "Federal Funds Rate" ("Federal Funds Rate Notes");
- "LIBOR" ("LIBOR Notes");
- "Prime Rate" ("Prime Rate Notes");
- "Treasury Rate" ("Treasury Rate Notes"); or
- any other interest rate basis or formula as specified in the applicable pricing supplement."

- The actual deal determines what is stated in the applicable Final Terms.
- It would be required to delete the definition of LIBOR and any references to LIBOR as an option in the Prospectus Supplement, Final Terms and any relevant pro-forma documents.

Derivatives

- Under the current ISDA Master Agreements and CSAs, interest rates for USD do not refer to USD LIBOR. Thus, no amendment is needed.
- Fallback language can be included in swap confirmations when making reference to LIBOR. Currently, parties may designate specific replacement reference rates or even "To Be Determined" as fallback rates. The current form of our LIBOR swap confirmations do not have this provision in place.
- ISDA is preparing guidelines and recommendations in replacing LIBOR. The ISDA working groups are expected to address the following:
    - Suggestion of fallback rates and/or other fallback mechanism applicable in the event that LIBOR or any other IBOR is permanently discontinued.
    - Development of a proposal to amend legacy trades/ to introduce a protocol.
    - Amendment to the 2006 ISDA Definitions (the "Definitions") to provide for a specific fallback rate (or procedure) agreed to by market consensus, which could be adopted in legacy contracts using a multilateral industry protocol. However, absent such a broad market conversion (or in the case of transactions for which both parties do not agree to amend their contracts to use the new alternative rate or fallback), upon the discontinuance of LIBOR, the existing transaction documentation would dictate the process to be implemented to arrive at a fallback rate.

Uncertainties

- The potential replacement rates mentioned above are all based on overnight rates. Since LIBOR rates have more than overnight rates, uncertainty still exists as to what other rates would be available to use. It is expected that ISDA, ICMA and the respective authorities will publish more guidance as industry consultation/consensus evolve.
- The replacement for LIBOR is very uncertain at this time, and further it is uncertain as to whether any such replacement would actually function any better than has LIBOR.

CONCLUSION

- Due to the uncertainty regarding the selection of replacement rates and their timelines, the OFA needs to keep monitoring the developments on this issue.

- When the replacements rates are selected by the respective authorities, certain program documents will need to be amended.

- If it is necessary to enter into new LIBOR deals, it would be the best to include fallback provisions in the relevant documents.

- In terms of legacy swap transactions, the OFA must monitor the industry-wide initiative for a protocol/remedy before making any amendments.

Good morning Opal,

1. IESO

FHP Credit facility agreement - Lisa is making inputting small changes. Hopefully this goes out today as a final to IESO.

AA10 - Wording is finalized. IESO's outstanding balance they sent us last week was confusing. We will clarify this to align with the amended grid note in the coming days.

2. OLMS report/OILC Loan confirmation improvement.
3. Update T-bill procedure manual – pending test of new procedures before I document them.
4. Bond exchange procedures – drafts submitted.

Update to my update.

FHP Credit Facility - Received comments from OFA Legal at noon. I have inputted the RRRP and RPP placeholder terms. I have to circulated to Electricity Finance for a couple small items and then reply to OFA Legal's comments. Once OFA legal signs-off. I can send to IESO. This is another business day away.

Amending Agreement 10 - OFA Legal raised at point to us. If a particular provision is accepted in FHP Credit Facility, it will have to be the same in AA10. This should be a quick fix.

Anthony (IESO) provided to me this current outstanding balance which did not match our current grid note. I will have to check with Risa and Carlos on grid note balance before I reply back to Anthony. Our balances have to match because the grid note is part of the Amending Agreement 10.

Hello Opal,

The original directive is in place. There was a possibility of getting a new directive if IESO management did not agree with the suggested wording in the Amending Agreement. IESO has agreed to the wording so new directive is no longer needed.

In terms of hard deadlines we are using mid-August because IESO projects we will require additional funds at that time. Attached is IESO's projection. If the $2 Billion Credit Facility is not set-up in time, IESO would likely continue to use the $975 million Credit Facility and delay the reduction in the existing facility.

Let me know if this doesn't answer your questions.

Hi Will,

Sorry to keep coming back to this, but as you know its topical right now. Could you please let me know the status of the Minister's directive and more importantly whether there is a drop dead date by which time the new facility needs to be in place. I realize you are hoping to wrap up the agreement in early August, but it would be helpful to know. Also, please let me know once you hear back from IESO regarding the resolution.

Thanks,

Sarah,

Four points.

a) Thank you very much for accommodating the 5 day request, …it will be more efficient for cash flows and better alignment.
b) We examined our TD credit facility and it specifically does not permit IESO to use for Fair Hydro programs purposes.
c) The good news is that the Fair Hydro amounts for May and June (a draw to be made in mid-July on the $475 million facility) is a total of $260 million. Therefore, the next draw for Fair Hydro's month of July will be in mid-Aug of which I expect at least another $200-$250 million will be added. I hope the $2B facility will be signed before mid-August, so there should be no concerns. The first FH sale to the Financing Entity is expected to be made in August so I (hope) expect the May, June, July's FH amounts will be sold by mid-end of August and then I can repay the OFA.
d) Victor will address Bruno's comments directly on the amendment #10 shortly.

Regards.

Hello Anthony,

Will is currently away today, and I just wanted to follow up on the e-mail below.

We are fine reducing the minimum draw period from 7 to 5 days for the new $2B FHP facility.

Further, to clarify Will's e-mail below, from our conference call the week before last, you had mentioned that in the event that IESO's funding needs were to exceed the $475M before the current $975M facility is reduced, IESO had another line of credit with TD that it would be able to draw on to fund any potential gap before the $2B facility is up and running. I think some confusion may have been created in referencing IESO's agreement to reduce to the size of the $2B OFHP credit facility if IESO's funding needs exceed $475M before the new FHP facility is executed. This is not something we proposed to you on the call, but was part of OFA internal discussions on contingency options that might be available in the event that there were delays getting both the amending agreement and FHP facility in place. My apologies should there have been any misunderstanding.

We expect to have comments to you on the amending agreement tomorrow.

Best regards,

Sarah

Subject: FW: IESO : OFA new FH credit facility

Hello Anthony,

Thank you for your email and sorry for the delay in replying. We look forward to getting these agreements up and running. As discussed, IESO has a supplemental credit facility with TD bank. In the unlikely event, IESO exceeds $475 million under its existing credit facility, it agrees to reduce the $2 billion OFHP Credit Facility by the amount that it exceeds $475 million.

Best regards,

Will

Subject: RE: IESO : OFA new FH credit facility

Will,

As discussed, the IESO will work on completing amendment #10 followed then by the new FH $2B line. The amendment #10 may take a few weeks to complete (mid-July), and then the new FH $2B line may need a few more additional weeks – likely end of July.

I am using the $975MM line today for FH (RPP) draws, and expect this will continue until the FH$2B line is up and running.

I would prefer to do both docs at the same time (i.e. signing on the same day both docs), but I understand that the OFA has been given direction to lower the $975MM to $475MM first.

Over the next few weeks in July I will be drawing on the $975MM again for the FH (RPP) amounts and I expect (but not 100% sure) that I should be under a total of $475MM.

Regards

Hello Opal,

The original directive is in place. There was a possibility of getting a new directive if IESO management did not agree with the suggested wording in the Amending Agreement. IESO has agreed to the wording so new directive is no longer needed.

In terms of hard deadlines we are using mid-August because IESO projects we will require additional funds at that time. Attached is IESO's projection. If the $2 Billion Credit Facility is not set-up in time, IESO would likely continue to use the $975 million Credit Facility and delay the reduction in the existing facility.

Let me know if this doesn't answer your questions.

Will

Hi Will,

Sorry to keep coming back to this, but as you know its topical right now. Could you please let me know the status of the Minister's directive and more importantly whether there is a drop dead date by which time the new facility needs to be in place. I realize you are hoping to wrap up the agreement in early August, but it would be helpful to know. Also, please let me know once you hear back from IESO regarding the resolution.

Thanks,
Opal.

Hi Opal,

This is the time table I provided to IESO to get their buy-in and have them feel more obligated to the timelines a little more. I expect some time slippage, but hopefully it doesn't happen.
I'm hoping that IESO will accept my changes to the Amending Agreement 10. After that I will need to provide them with a new grid note, then they can provide physical signatures in the coming weeks.
I hope to get the their comments on my first draft of the $2B Credit Facility today. I will be sending them a reminder at noon.

DIRECTIVE

INDEPENDENT ELECTRICITY SYSTEM OPERATOR CREDIT FACILITY

To: Ontario Financing Authority ("OFA")

Whereas:

Under the Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993 ("CIPA"), the OFA provides financing to public bodies as directed by the Minister of Finance.

The Independent Electricity System Operator ("IESO"), a public body for the purposes of CIPA, has requested funding from the OFA to support the IESO's role in the implementation and administration of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "OFHP").

In order to fulfil the Province's commitments under the OFHP, it is desirable for the Minister of Finance to provide direction to the OFA to provide a revolving credit facility for the purposes of providing short to medium term financing related to the OFHP.

Therefore:

Pursuant to sub-section 16(2) of CIPA, the OFA is directed to lend to the IESO under a revolving credit facility (the "Line of Credit") for the purpose of short to medium term financing related to the IESO's implementation of the OFHP, an aggregate principal amount of up to CAD $2 billion.

The Line of Credit shall be subject to the following terms:

- The Line of Credit shall be evidenced by an agreement between the IESO and the OFA containing terms and conditions consistent with this Directive (the "Credit Agreement").

- Interest on the Line of Credit shall be payable at a rate equal to the Province's cost of funds based on the terms of the Credit Agreement, and as determined by the Chief Executive Officer of the OFA or the Assistant Deputy Minister, Corporate and Electricity Finance Division, OFA, or a person designated by either of them, plus a twenty-five (25) basis point spread.

- All amounts outstanding under the Line of Credit shall be repaid in full on or before the date no later than September 30, 2022.

- The Line of Credit shall be subject to such other terms as the OFA deems appropriate from time to time.

Obligor:	The Province of Ontario, by the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance acting together.
Indenture Trustee:	An indenture trustee, acting for itself and on behalf of other persons entitled under an applicable Trust Indenture.
Beneficiaries:	The Indenture Trustee, acting for itself and on behalf of other persons entitled under Specified Claims.
Specified Claims:	Payment obligations of the Financing Entity that are secured under the Trust Indenture and that are approved as contemplated below under Obligor Approval.
Protection Events:	Any of the following would constitute a Protection Event: (A) (1) the Legislature repeals (and does not replace on an equivalent basis) or amends the Act or any portion thereof; (2) the Legislature enacts or amends any other statute; (3) the Lieutenant Governor in Council repeals (and does not replace on an equivalent basis) or amends the Regulation made under the Act or any portion thereof; or (4) the Lieutenant Governor in Council, a minister of the Crown, an official of the government or a board or commission all the members of which are appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council makes or amends any "regulation" (as defined in Part III of the Legislation Act, 2006); (5) there is a change in the organization or structure of the IESO or Ontario's electricity market undertaken at the initiative of the Province or an entity controlled by the Province, in each case, that [materially][1] and adversely affects (a) the ability of the Financing Entity to receive amounts on its investment interest so that it can pay Specified Claims, or (b) the Change of Law Protection Agreement or any of the agreements under which Specified Claims arise, other than if the Indenture Trustee has confirmed in writing that the affect under such agreements is otherwise acceptable; or (B) a court of competent jurisdiction [in a final and non-appealable judgement][2] determines that all or a portion of the Act or the Regulation is ultra vires or invalid in a way that [materially][3] and adversely affects the ability of the Financing Entity to receive amounts on its investment interest so that it can pay Specified Claims.

Obligation to Pay Specified Claims:	Upon the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Indenture Trustee will have the right to require the Obligor to pay the Specified Claims owing by the Financing Entity when they become due and payable (without acceleration). The exercise of such right by the Indenture Trustee in accordance with the Trust Indenture shall constitute the only remedy available under the Change of Law Protection Agreement. Under no circumstances shall the Obligor be obligated to pay or indemnify a Beneficiary for consequential, special or punitive damages, or for economic loss or loss of profits.
Subrogation:	Upon paying a Specified Claim to a Beneficiary, the Obligor as guarantor shall have rights of subrogation, including becoming entitled to all of the applicable Beneficiary's rights and interests under and in respect of the Specified Claim, including the security interest in each related investment interest and related property of the Financing Entity.

[2] Under consideration to assess the marketability implications of this phrase.

[3] See footnote 1, above.

Optional Assumption:	At any time following the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Obligor shall be entitled (but not obligated) to assume the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of Specified Claims as obligor and debtor. The Financing Entity (including through the Financial Services Manager) will ensure that Specified Claims permit such an assumption by the Obligor without any penalty or make-whole payment (or, in the case of any contract for the provision of on-going services to the Financing Entity, the satisfaction and termination of the Specified Claims without any acceleration of future fees, profits or other like amounts), or any requirement for further consent, approval or agreement.
Term:	The Change of Law Protection Agreement will continue for as long as any Specified Claim remains outstanding.
Obligor Approval:	The process by which a Specified Claim will become subject to the Change of Law Protection Agreement will be determined by the Minister of Finance and Minister of Energy in negotiation with the Financing Entity.

BORROWING PROGRAM

CURRENT STATUS

The Province completed its annual borrowing program of $33.9 billion in 2017–18, including $11.5 billion pre-borrowed for 2018–19. Ontario's borrowing program remains the largest of the Canadian provinces, and was approximately 42% of the total borrowing programs for all provinces combined in 2017–18.

As outlined in the 2018 Budget, the Province's total long-term public borrowing requirement for fiscal 2018–19 is currently forecast to be $31.7 billion. As of April 25, 2018, the Province has completed $7.5 billion of its 2018–19 borrowing requirement. The total long term borrowing for 2019–20 and 2020–21 is forecast at $36.7 billion and $41.3 billion, respectively (Chart 1). The projected increase in borrowing requirements is due to planned deficits, refinancing of maturing debt and continued large investments in capital assets.

The Province has sufficient borrowing authority available to complete this fiscal year's borrowing program and begin funding for 2019–20.

BACKGROUND

Historically, the OFA has demonstrated a preference for domestic funding over international funding due to its greater cost-effectiveness, normally longer duration, relative ease of execution, and reduced swap counterparty credit exposure and accounting risk.

The Province however, regularly accesses borrowing opportunities in currencies other than Canadian dollars to relieve pressure on the domestic bond market and diversify its investor base. This helps reduce Ontario's overall borrowing costs and ensures that the Province will continue to have access to capital if domestic market conditions become more challenging.

In 2017–18, the proportion of domestic funding was about 62% and reflected very favourable borrowing opportunities in international markets. This was roughly in line with the target announced in the 2017 Ontario Economic Outlook and Fiscal Review to complete approximately two-thirds of total borrowing in the Canadian dollar market. Given the continued strong demand expected in the domestic market, the Province will maintain its Canadian dollar borrowing target of at least two-thirds of total borrowing in 2018–19.

Diversification of borrowing will be required to complete the program, and the Province will strive to stay ahead of pace to provide flexibility for times when access will be curtailed.

Borrowing Authority

The Province has three sources of borrowing authority: the Financial Administration Act ("FAA"), the Ontario Loan Act ("Loan Act") and the Electricity Act, 1998 ("Electricity Act").

The FAA authority is primarily used for the purpose of refinancing maturing debt. The Loan Act authority is used to finance new debt, including anticipated deficit, if any, and investments in capital assets and cash requirements.

An Order-in-Council ("OIC") is an order, recommended by the Minister of Finance, concurred by the Chair of Cabinet, and approved and ordered by the Lieutenant Governor in Council that authorizes the Province to borrow up to a specific amount authorized under the OIC.

- An FAA refinancing OIC totaling approximately $17.5 billion was approved on March 27, 2018.

- The Loan Act, 2017 for $6 billion received Royal Assent on May 17, 2017. Approval of one OIC under the Loan Act for long-term borrowing was received on October 18, 2017.

- Long-term borrowing is comprised of debt issuances with a maturity date usually greater than three years. Short-term borrowing includes debt issuance with a term of three years or less and is used to help manage the Province's liquid reserves.

Pursuant to section 68 of the Electricity Act and section 20 of the FAA, the Province borrows on behalf of OEFC and on-lends the proceeds to OEFC. The Province is able to provide an all-in lower cost of financing than if OEFC borrowed in its own name with a provincial guarantee.

OICs under the FAA, Loan Act and Electricity Act are routine business and are required to obtain the borrowing authority pursuant to these Acts. Without these OICs, the Province cannot issue any debt in the capital markets and would not be able to fulfill its borrowing requirements. Any significant delays in obtaining the requested OICs could result in insufficient borrowing authority and could jeopardize the Province's ability to fund health care, education, social programs and infrastructure projects and affect its ability to service existing debt and fund operating deficits.

Note: As of April 25, 2018.

PROVINCIAL DEBT

CURRENT STATUS

Total debt, which represents all borrowing without offsetting financial assets, is projected to be $348.8 billion as at March 31, 2018, compared to $333.1 billion as at March 31, 2017. Ontario's net debt is the difference between total liabilities and total financial assets. Ontario's net debt is projected to be $308.2 billion as at March 31, 2018. Net debt is the most commonly used measure by the debt market, as it includes both financial liabilities and assets.

Debt Portfolio and Long-Term Average of Debt Portfolio

The global decline in interest rates over the past 25 years is already showing signs of modestly reversing. Maintaining a long average term of the Province's debt portfolio ensures low interest rates remain locked in for a longer period. This reduces refinancing risks and helps offset the impact of expected higher interest rates on the Province's future interest on debt costs.

Since the beginning of fiscal year 2010–11, Ontario has issued $71.3 billion of bonds with terms of longer than 30 years to lock in low interest rates. As a result, the average term of Ontario's debt portfolio has been extended, from 9.7 years in 2009–10 to 10.9 years, as of December 31, 2017 (Chart 1).

Net Debt-to-GDP

The Province's net debt-to-GDP ratio is forecast to be 37.6 per cent at the end of fiscal 2018–19, compared to the 37.3 per cent forecast in the 2017 Budget (restated) and the 38.5 per cent forecast in the 2016 Budget. Ontario's net debt-to-GDP ratio peaked in 2014–15 at 39.3 per cent and is forecast to remain below the 2014–15 peak and resume its downward trend in 2022–23 (Chart 2).

Investments in capital infrastructure have contributed over $99 billion to the increase of tangible capital assets, and thus net debt over the last 13 years. The government commenced recording of tangible capital assets in 2002–03. Over the budget outlook, net investments in capital assets will contribute over $32 billion to the total increase in net debt of $51.9 billion.

Interest on Debt

Interest on debt (IOD) is Ontario's fourth largest budgeted expenditure, after Health, Education and Children's and Social Services. Ontario's IOD for the year 2018–19 is projected to be $12,543 million, $578 million higher than interim IOD of $11,965 million in 2017–18.

The Province's exposure to interest rate fluctuations, both positive and negative, is significant. In 2018–19, a one percentage point change in interest rates would result in a change of $300 million in IOD costs for the Province.

BACKGROUND

The three commonly used indicators of a government's financial and debt position are net debt, total debt, and accumulated deficit. Credit rating agencies and investors place the greatest emphasis on net debt.

Net debt is the difference between the Province's total liabilities and financial assets. Ontario's net debt has been forecast to increase from $301.6 billion as at March 31, 2017 to $308.2 billion as at March 31, 2018. It is projected to increase to $325.0 billion as at March 31, 2019 and to $342.8 billion as at March 31, 2020. The increase in net debt primarily reflects the increase in net tangible capital assets of the Province in 2017–18, partially offset by the projected surplus and, thereafter, increases in projected deficits and net tangible capital assets. Financial markets use net debt as their primary measure as it represents the Province's future revenue requirements to pay for past transactions and events.

Total debt is the sum of the Province's total borrowings including Ontario Electricity Financial Corporation and agencies. Ontario's total debt increased from $333.1 billion as at March 31, 2017 to $348.8 billion projected as at March 31, 2018. This increase was mainly due to deficits and the government's capital investments. Canadian dollar denominated debt represents 83 per cent of the Province's total debt as at March 31, 2018.

Accumulated deficit represents the sum of all deficits and surpluses. Accumulated deficit is projected to be $192.4 billion as of March 31, 2018, compared to a projection of $193.5 billion in the 2017 Budget. The projected difference of $115.8 billion between net debt and accumulated deficit is mainly due to the Province's high level of investment in infrastructure.

CREDIT RATINGS

CURRENT STATUS

The OFA maintains close relationships and ongoing dialogue with credit rating agencies throughout the year to keep them apprised of the government's financial status, policies and initiatives, and to ensure these are accurately reflected in the agencies' ratings and reports. Ontario currently maintains a double-A rating with three of its four credit rating agencies.

Table 1: Ontario's Current Long-term and Short-term Ratings

Agency	Long-Term Rating	Short-Term Rating	Most Recent Review
Moody's	Aa2 (N)	P-1	Negative Outlook April 17, 2018
DBRS	AA (low)	R-1 (mid)	Confirmed April 24, 2018
Fitch	AA-	F1+	Confirmed June 20, 2017
S&P	A+	A-1	Long-term rating confirmed; short-term rating lowered June 15, 2017

Credit rating agencies will be monitoring the fiscal plans of the government very closely. If deficits persist, the Province is likely at risk of being downgraded by credit rating agencies. The last downgrade from S&P was on July 6, 2015, after the 2015 Budget was released on April 23, 2015. S&P had cited high deficits and a high debt burden versus domestic and international peers.

A downgrade to the Province's credit ratings would result in higher interest rates on Ontario debt. For 2018–19, the impact of a one percentage point change in interest rates on interest on debt is approximately $300 million.

BACKGROUND

Moody's notes that spending pressure will challenge the province's ability to achieve and maintain a balanced budgets. Financing to fund deficits and capital spending will continue to push the debt burden higher. Interest expense as a share of revenues is already the highest among the provinces and is expected to increase as interest rates rise.

Fitch noted that a return to deficit borrowing during a period of economic growth would be inconsistent with Fitch's current rating expectations. According to Fitch, the Stable Outlook at the current rating level assumes a continued focus on tabling balanced budgets and gradually lowering the burden of debt.

S&P notes that the province's very strong and diversified economy, strong financial management, very predictable and well-balanced institutional framework, and low contingent liabilities support the province's current rating. The ratings also reflect S&P's view of the province's weak budgetary performances and very high debt burden.

DBRS expects the ratings to remain stable in the near term, however, the outlook for the medium to longer term appear less certain. A downgrade could occur if debt were to rise sharply because of a downturn in the economy or a change in the government's fiscal policies.

Both S&P and Moody's have indicated that the maintenance of liquid reserves in proportion to financing needs, including both short-term and long-term debt maturities, is an important factor in maintaining Ontario's credit rating.

VALUE FOR MONEY AUDIT

CURRENT STATUS

From January to late March 2018, the OFA and the Office of the Auditor General of Ontario (OAGO) have been working together to prepare the groundwork for the Value-For-Money (VFM) audit on Borrowing and Debt Management to begin in May and likely end in September 2018.

The auditors have met with both senior management and individual staff, and have been briefed on the strategy and planning that goes into the borrowing and debt management activities and execution. A manager has been appointed to act as the audit coordinator to ensure that all information requests by the OAGA have been met in a timely manner.

In late March, the auditors concluded their preliminary field work. In early May they will return to the OFA to brief and obtain consensus with OFA senior management on what the actual audit scope and objectives will entail. From May to August, the field work will be done in earnest. In August and September, the OAG will inform the OFA of its findings and recommendations that will be published in the AG's Annual Report in 2018.The process also includes an opportunity for the OFA to respond to the findings and its responses will included in the published report.

BACKGROUND

On December 11, 2017, the Auditor General informed the Ministry of Finance Deputy Minister that the OFA's Borrowing and Debt Management Program would be subject to a VFM audit for the 2017–18 Fiscal year.

A VFM audit is part of the AG's mandate where government programs, agencies, and certain public-sector organizations are audited to see if their administrators have spent money with due regard for economy and efficiency and have satisfactory procedures for measuring and reporting on effectiveness. VFM audits are conducted along the assurance standards of CPA Canada.

The AG's VFM findings are published annually in the AG's Annual Report, typically in Chapter 3 of her report. VFM findings are high profile and in many cases generate larger media coverage than financial statement audits performed by the AG.

FINANCIAL ADMINISTRATION ACT – SECTION 28

BACKGROUND

Section 28 (s.28) of the FAA has been in force since 1991, and states that despite any other Act, a ministry or public entity shall not enter into any financial arrangement, financial commitment, guarantee, indemnity, or similar transaction that would increase, directly or indirectly, the indebtedness or contingent liabilities of Ontario, or seek the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council to enter into any such transaction, without the prior written approval of the Minister of Finance.

Currently the powers of the Minister under FAA section 28 are shared by the Minister of Finance and the President of Treasury Board as a result of OIC 216/2015 as amended by OIC 223/2016. These shared powers include the following:

- The approval of individual transactions s.28(1.1).
- The approval of a class of transactions s.28(1.2).
- The exemption of an individual transaction s.28(1.3).
- The exemption by regulation of a class of transactions s.28(1.4).
- The declaration that s.28 (2) does not apply; i.e., despite failure to comply with s.28 the transaction remains enforceable.

The Minister of Finance deals with requests from ministries and provincial agencies respecting financing, investing, and financial risk management activities, including borrowing by Crown agencies, guaranteeing of such borrowing, banking and financial services, Alternative Financing Projects (AFPs), custodial services and hedging contracts.

In addition, the Minister of Finance is responsible for responding to requests for section 28 approvals of contingent liabilities and financings contained in all agreements and transactions entered into by Ministry of Finance divisions and agencies.

The President of Treasury Board deals with section 28 approval requests from ministries and provincial agencies (other than the Ministry of Finance and its agencies) of all other contingent liabilities contained in non-financing related agreements and transactions, including contractual indemnities, government contribution agreements, real estate leases, and contracts for services required to meet day-to-day operations.

It is a ministry's or public entity's responsibility to identify which of their proposed transactions require s.28 approval under the FAA and submit the request to the appropriate Minister prior to entering into the transaction or seeking Cabinet approval for the transaction.

Submissions supporting requests for Section 28 approval should include a signed Minister's request letter as well as a business case for the transaction that would include:

- The description, business and legal rationale for assuming each specific contingent liability or increase in indebtedness;
- A quantification of the maximum dollar amount of the contingent liability or indebtedness, and if it is not possible to quantify, an explanation as to why that is the case;

- Any financial models developed in support of the project;
- An estimate of the duration of the contingent liability or indebtedness, the risk exposure and the likelihood of it materializing;
- A description of the measures taken to manage risk and minimize losses;
- A description of alternatives considered to the contingent liabilities or indebtedness;
- An explanation of how the responsible ministry proposes to pay for any contingent liabilities that may arise; and
- A description of the benefit to Ontario of taking on the contingent liability.

RISK MANAGEMENT

CURRENT STATUS

Coming out of the financial crisis in 2008–09, the Province began a strategy of creating large, liquid 10 and 30-year benchmark domestic bond issues in 2009–10 in response to investor demand. This strategy has been very successful and continues to lower Ontario's borrowing costs and enhance the Province's access to capital.

However, as a result of these large bond issues, the Province will have large cash outflows on single days commencing in 2019–20, rather than having maturities spread more evenly through the year. In anticipation of the need for cash reserves to meet these requirements for large outflows on a single day, the Province began building larger cash reserves in 2017–18. As of March 31, 2018, the Province's average unrestricted liquid reserve was $30.1 billion (Chart 1). Debt maturities are estimated at $21.5 billion for 2018–19.

Today, the OFA maintains a high level of liquid reserves and short term borrowing capacity.

BACKGROUND

Market risk is the risk of loss due to changes in interest and foreign exchange rates. The OFA monitors and manages the debt maturity profile to limit refinancing risk. Term selection for new borrowing will be aimed for a smooth maturity schedule to diversify the interest resetting risk of refinancing debt maturities (Table 1).

Liquidity Risk is the risk that liquid reserves will not be sufficient to meet the Province's cash requirements. This risk is controlled through the management of operational cash flows, liquid reserve levels and the short-term borrowing program. The Province's Treasury bill and U.S. Commercial Paper programs have authorized limits of $33.0 billion and $15.0 billion, respectively.

Operational Risk is risk of loss due to failed models, systems, processes, people or external events.

Credit Risk is the risk of loss due to default of bond issuers or counterparties of derivatives or other financial transactions. Strict credit limits are enforced for financial and investment counterparties. The Province also has collateralized swap agreements in place for most swap counterparties.

ONTARIO'S GREEN BOND PROGRAM

CURRENT STATUS

Ontario is currently the largest issuer of Canadian dollar Green Bonds, with four outstanding green issues totaling $3.05 billion (Table 1).

On January 25, the Province successfully launched its fourth Green Bond issue of $1.0 billion. This is not only the largest Green Bond offering from the Province of Ontario, but also the largest issue to be priced in the Canadian dollar Green Bond market. With this transaction, Ontario added eight new investors (that had never purchased Ontario bonds) and expanded its Canadian dollar investor base by eleven names (investors that had never purchased Ontario bonds in Canadian dollars).

BACKGROUND

The Province's Green Bond program commenced in 2014. As the first Canadian province to issue Green Bonds, Ontario is leading the way to establish and develop a Canadian dollar Green Bond market with investor participation from around the world. Ontario's Green Bonds capitalize on the Province's ability to raise funds at low interest rates and serve as an important tool to help Ontario finance transit and other environmentally friendly projects across the Province.

Ontario has a mature Green Bond program and expects Green Bonds to continue having an important role in the Province's annual borrowing.

Ontario strives to be a leader in its transparency and impact reporting efforts with the publication of its annual newsletter.

Use and Management of Proceeds

Green Bond proceeds are paid into the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Ontario. An amount equal to the net proceeds of each Green Bond issue is recorded in a designated account in the Province of Ontario's financial records. These designated accounts are used to track the use and allocation of funds to eligible projects.

Green Bond projects are expected to be funded within one year from the date of issue.

Green Bond Projects

Ontario's Green Bond Framework specifies five categories of eligible projects:

- Clean Transportation (e.g. public transportation)
- Energy Efficiency and Conservation (e.g. building efficiency improvement)
- Clean Energy and Technology (e.g. smart grid infrastructure and energy storage)
- Forestry, Agriculture and Land Management (e.g. sustainable forest management)
- Climate Adaptation and Resilience (e.g. flood protection and storm water management)

A total of 16 different projects have received or will receive funding from Ontario's four Green Bond issues. The projects selected as eligible to receive funding from the Green Bonds have an emphasis on clean transportation and energy efficiency and conservation (Table 2).

ONTARIO SAVINGS BONDS (OSB)

CURRENT STATUS

A new campaign is taking place from June 1–21, 2018 with the following range of products: 3-year variable, 5-year step-up, 3-year fixed, and 10-year fixed. The interest rates for the new series of OSBs are generally announced on the first day of sales.

The 2017 campaign raised approximately $64 million. It is difficult to predict the size of this year's campaign. Increased competition by banks for retail money may be offset by the safety provided by government bonds.

The Federal government, British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba have discontinued their savings bond program (Table 1). The Province may review the Ontario Savings Bond Program next year.

BACKGROUND

OSBs were introduced in 1995 and are 100 per cent backed by the Province of Ontario. Since then, approximately $44 billion in OSBs have been sold with about $1.1 billion currently outstanding (amount as of February 28, 2018). The bonds are usually on sale during the first three weeks of June.

The bonds are available for purchase through dealers, banks and credit unions. The 2017 distribution of sales across the various agents was consistent with prior years with dealers accounting for 85 per cent of total sales and banks for 15 per cent of total sales.

Total sales per campaign for the OSBs are as follows:

ONTARIO NUCLEAR FUNDS AGREEMENT

CURRENT STATUS

The Province and Ontario Power Generation (OPG) signed the Ontario Nuclear Funds Agreement (ONFA) in March 2002, effective as of April 1, 1999. The Ontario Financing Authority (OFA) manages the implementation of ONFA on behalf of the Province.

The main objective of ONFA is to ensure sufficient funds are available to pay for the future costs of nuclear waste management and nuclear station decommissioning for OPG's current nuclear stations, including the Bruce stations leased to Bruce Power.

ONFA came into force in July 2003 with the creation of two segregated funds, which are jointly managed by OPG and OFA, on behalf of the Province:

- The Decommissioning Segregated Fund (DSF) is to pay for the permanent shut down of nuclear stations, including security and monitoring, used fuel storage during decommissioning, dismantling of stations and site restoration, and storage of low and intermediate level waste.
- The Used Fuel Segregated Fund (UFSF) is to cover costs of dry storage and used fuel after station decommissioning, as well as long-term disposal costs. The UFSF includes the federally mandated "Ontario NFWA Trust" amounts (under the federal Nuclear Fuel Waste Act).

The combined market value of the funds was $4.9 billion when they were formally established in 2003. As of December 31, 2017, the combined market value of the segregated funds was about $21.2 billion, consisting of about $9.1 billion in the DSF (including a "due to the Province" of about $1.9 billion) and about $12.1 billion in the UFSF (including a "due to the Province" of about $2.5 billion). Net of the "due (to) from Province" amounts, OPG recognises a net value for the ONFA funds of about $16.7 billion on its balance sheet (Table 1).

Role of the Minister of Finance:

ONFA was signed by the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Finance has responsibility for ONFA, including the following:

- Approving Reference Plans submitted by OPG for cost and liability estimates for plant decommissioning and waste management at least once every five years. The current Reference Plan is effective January 1, 2017.
- Entering into agreements to satisfy the Canadian Nuclear Safety Commission (CNSC) financial guarantee requirements related to OPG's nuclear facilities. This includes providing the CNSC with access (in certain circumstances) to the ONFA segregated funds, or if required, providing a direct provincial guarantee.
- Approving any amendments to ONFA.

BACKGROUND

As part of the April 1, 1999, financial restructuring of the old Ontario Hydro, OPG began to set aside cash in segregated funds and recognize on its financial statements the present value of the incurred nuclear waste management and decommissioning obligations.

In light of the recognition of these obligations, the Province and OPG entered into the ONFA in March 2002. The agreement came into force on July 24, 2003, with an effective date of April 1, 1999.

ONFA has three main goals:

- To ensure sufficient funds are available to pay for costs of nuclear station decommissioning and long-term nuclear waste management (including used fuel and low and intermediate level waste after station shut down),
- To limit OPG's financial exposure to unforeseen increases in the cost of managing used fuel, and
- To permit OPG to satisfy the CNSC's financial guarantee requirements.

Notes: "Due (to) from Province" amounts reflect the funds position at a certain point in time only and have fluctuated over time as presented in the table. The "Due to Province" amounts are reflected in this way on OPG's financial statements under accounting standards, primarily because of ONFA.

Under ONFA, if there are amounts left in the funds after all the liabilities have been dealt with (projected to be many decades away, up to the 22nd century), then those amounts go to the Province. Under ONFA, the Province provides a rate of return guarantee on a portion of the UFSF. If the actual rate of return on that portion of the UFSF, then OPG records that amount as "Due to Province".

ABORIGINAL LOAN GUARANTEE PROGRAM (ALGP)

CURRENT STATUS

The ALGP is a discretionary, non-entitlement, application-based program that provides loan guarantees to eligible applicants to support Aboriginal equity participation in the renewable energy sector and regulated transmission projects.

The program, as approved by Treasury Board, can provide a loan guarantee of up to 75 per cent of an Aboriginal community's investment in a renewable energy generation or transmission project, to a maximum of $50 million per project. Treasury Board approval of these parameters also allows the OFA to come forward for approvals above $50 million on a case-by-case basis. The total approved program envelope is $650 million.

Nine loan guarantees have been approved to-date, for a total of approximately $250 million. There are active applications for requested loan guarantees totalling over $300 million.

In conjunction with its third party due diligence service providers, the OFA administers the program, performs due diligence on the applications, seeks the necessary approvals from Cabinet (Order in Council) and the Minister of Finance (approval of the conditional offer of the guarantee and execution of the guarantee agreement), and negotiates the final legal agreements.

BACKGROUND

The ALGP was launched in 2009 to facilitate Aboriginal participation in renewable energy infrastructure projects. Eligible investments under the ALGP include key investments in transmission, wind, solar and hydroelectric projects across the province.

Loan guarantee offers are made on a case-by-case basis at the discretion of the Minister of Finance and Cabinet under the authority of section 22 of the Financial Administration Act and are disclosed as Contingent Liabilities in Volume 1 of the Public Accounts.

To be eligible for a loan guarantee under the program, projects are required to have:

- Agreements in place to purchase energy in the case of generation projects and regulatory approvals in the case of transmission projects
- Experienced proponents and project partners with track records in construction and operation
- Completion of the OFA's due diligence process
- A corporation that is wholly-owned by the Aboriginal Community which will be the applicant to the program and will take on all aspects of the project, such as signing contracts and entering into partnership agreements

If eligible, applicants could receive ALGP guarantees for up to 75 per cent of the Aboriginal community's equity in a project, to a maximum of $50 million, no earlier than at the point of financial close for the project, after regulatory approvals are in place and at the same time, or after, all other financing is put in place.

FINANCING PUBLIC BODIES

CURRENT STATUS

The OFA provides loans to public bodies such as colleges, school boards and hospitals, as well as provincial corporations, boards and commissions that are consolidated on the Province's financial statements.

Under this framework, the OFA provided new loans to a number of public bodies in 2017–18, including Ontario colleges and crown corporations totalling $2.4 billion. As at March 31, 2018, the OFA had a total outstanding loan portfolio worth $5.7 billion, for a conservatively estimated saving of nearly $30 million in annual interest costs. Cumulative interest savings since inception of the program in 2007 are in excess of $260 million.

It is estimated that the OFA may provide a further $500 million in long-term loans to public bodies in 2018–19.

BACKGROUND

Higher financing costs of consolidated public bodies, increased demand for financing and the lack of expertise within public bodies led to the establishment of a provincial loan program for public bodies.

Under this framework, the Province, through the OFA, provides short and long-term financing to provincial public bodies. Most of the OFA loans are long-term. The cost of long-term debt of consolidated public bodies is conservatively estimated to be 25 to 75 basis points higher than the Province's cost of funds.

Through this program, the Interest on Debt cost associated with capital projects is transferred to some of the responsible organizations.

Key Framework Components

The key decisions in establishing the framework revolved around what type of financing to provide, which consolidated sectors to lend to and what interest rate to charge.

1. Long-Term Financing: The framework focuses on long-term financing and generally leaves administratively intensive short-term financing to financial institutions, except where the Minister of Finance determines there is a significant benefit to the public body or to the Province.

2. Consolidated Sectors: The OFA provides financing to sectors where their financial results are consolidated on the Province's balance sheet, including school boards, colleges, hospitals and other public bodies that borrow as crown agents. However, the OFA will generally not lend directly to the electricity sector (except for certain purposes of the Independent Electricity System Operator formerly under the mandate of the Ontario Power Authority prior to their merger), unless otherwise directed by Cabinet, Treasury Board or the Minister of Finance.

3. Province's Total Cost of Funds or a Proxy Commercial Rate: The OFA provides financing at either the Province's total cost of funds or a proxy commercial rate, depending on the nature of the activity and debt repayment capacity of the public body. In some cases the rate charged to the borrower will be similar to the rate that would be charged on the loan by a commercial lender which would reflect the relative risk associated with the loan. The OFA will generally retain the spread, which includes the administrative costs of managing these loans.

GOVERNMENT ASSETS AND INVESTMENTS

The Ontario Financing Authority (OFA) provides financial analysis and advice to the government, ministries and agencies on government assets and investments.

Contributions from Provincially-owned assets can help meet fiscal plan targets or generate additional cash for reinvestment.

As the owner of these assets, the government has a responsibility to ensure that governance of these assets is sound and that optimal contribution to the fiscal plan is pursued.

Three main categories of options are available for potentially increasing the value that an asset delivers to the Province:

- Hold;
- Retain and Improve; and
- Divest.

The Province has a number of significant assets that do or can provide fiscal contributions, such as the following:

- Ownership interests in Government Business Enterprises (GBEs):
    - Ontario Power Generation Inc. (OPG),
    - Liquor Control Board of Ontario (LCBO) (with the Ontario Cannabis Retail Corporation (OCRC) as an LCBO subsidiary),
    - Ontario Lottery and Gaming Corporation (OLG), and
    - Hydro One Limited (Hydro One).
- In 2016–17, the Province reported net income from GBEs of about $5.6 billion, per 2016–17 Public Accounts of Ontario.
- The Province is the sole owner of OPG, LCBO (including OCRC), and OLG, and holds about 47 per cent ownership in Hydro One which is publicly traded on the Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX).

There are a number of other smaller organizations owned by the Province, which provide smaller amounts of revenue, or none in some cases, but which may still hold fiscal opportunities to improve performance or have opportunities to realise value.

The OFA also provides financial analysis and advice on government investments, such as venture capital investments and business supports, including loans and loan guarantees.

BACKGROUND

Options to Optimise Value:

1. Hold: For assets delivering core public services, where performance is excellent and/or non-organic improvement or divesting is not feasible today.

2. Retain and Improve: For assets delivering core public services, where transformation and/or growth would unlock fiscal or policy value. This could include
    - Improving governance and oversight,
    - Modernizing the operating model, through restructuring or outsourcing, and
    - Improving performance by pursuing opportunities for efficiency.

3. Divest: For non-core assets where divesting would allow for the capture of full value or where the government cannot improve performance without significant risk or where changes in society do not justify or require the existence or operation of the asset.

Mandate

The Ontario Financing Authority (OFA) was established by the Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993, and performs the following activities:

- Conducts borrowing, investment and financial risk management for the Province of Ontario;
- Manages the Provincial debt;
- Provides financial and centralized cash management services for the Province;
- Advises ministries, Crown agencies and other public bodies on financial policies and projects;
- Assists Crown agencies and other public bodies to borrow and invest money;
- Lends to certain public bodies at the direction of the Province;
- Invests on behalf of some public bodies;
- With Ontario Power Generation Inc. (OPG), manages the investment activities of OPG's Used Fuel Segregated Fund and Decommissioning Segregated Fund; and
- Carries out the day-to-day operations of Ontario Electricity Financial Corporation (OEFC) and provides a broad range of financial services to Ontario Infrastructure and Lands Corporation (Infrastructure Ontario).

OEFC

Since April 1, 1999, pursuant to a directive from the Minister of Finance, the OFA has conducted borrowing and related debt and risk management activities, cash management, banking, accounting, financial reporting, forecasting and other related activities on a cost-recovery basis for the OEFC.

The OFA is also responsible for the corporate governance of OEFC.

Corporate Governance & Organizational Structure

- The OFA is an agent of the Crown and is classified by Management Board of Cabinet as an operational enterprise agency.
- Corporate governance at the OFA involves processes that permit the effective supervision and management of the OFA's activities by the Minister of Finance, Board of Directors and Senior Management.

2017–18 Borrowing Completed: $33.9 Billion

- The Province completed its annual borrowing program of $33.9 billion in 2017–18, including $11.5 billion pre-borrowed for 2018–19.
- The Province regularly accesses borrowing opportunities in currencies other than Canadian dollars to relieve pressure on the domestic bond market. This helps reduce Ontario's overall borrowing costs and ensures that the Province will continue to have access to capital if domestic market conditions become more challenging.

Credit Ratings

- The OFA maintains close relationships and ongoing dialogue with credit rating agencies throughout the year to keep them apprised of the government's financial status, policies and initiatives, and to ensure these are accurately reflected in the agencies' ratings and reports.
- Rating Agencies typically release their reports on the Province following the release of the Ontario Budget.
- A downgrade to the Province's credit ratings would result in higher interest rates on Ontario debt. Lower ratings could also lessen the number of investors able to buy Ontario bonds, or lower the amount of Ontario debt that each investor is allowed, by their internal limits, to hold.
- Ontario currently maintains a double A rating with three of the four agencies:

Rating Agencies	Long-term Rating	Short-term Rating	Outlook
Moody's	Aa2 (N)	P-1	negative
FitchRatings	AA-	F1+	stable
DBRS	AA (low)	R-1 (mid)	stable
Standard & Poor's	A+	A-1	stable

Key Debt Ratios

Rating agencies use a number of key debt ratios when assessing Ontario's rating:

- Deficit-to-Revenue
- After-Capital Deficit-to-Revenue
- Net Debt-to-GDP
- Net Debt-to-Revenue
- Interest on Debt-to-Revenue

Measuring Debt

- Definitions of debt:
  - Net Debt is the Accumulated Deficit plus Net Investments in Capital Assets
  - Accumulated Deficit is the sum of all deficits and surpluses since Confederation
  - Total Debt is the full amount of outstanding debt the government has on its books
- Financial markets use Net Debt as their primary measure because it represents the Province's future revenue requirements to pay for past transactions and events.
- Accumulated Deficit and Net Debt were equal until 2001–02 when the accounting treatment changed to allow amortization of capital assets.
- Borrowing creates an obligation that has to be repaid in the future, which allows for lower taxes and sustained services today at the expense of lower services and/or higher taxes in the future.

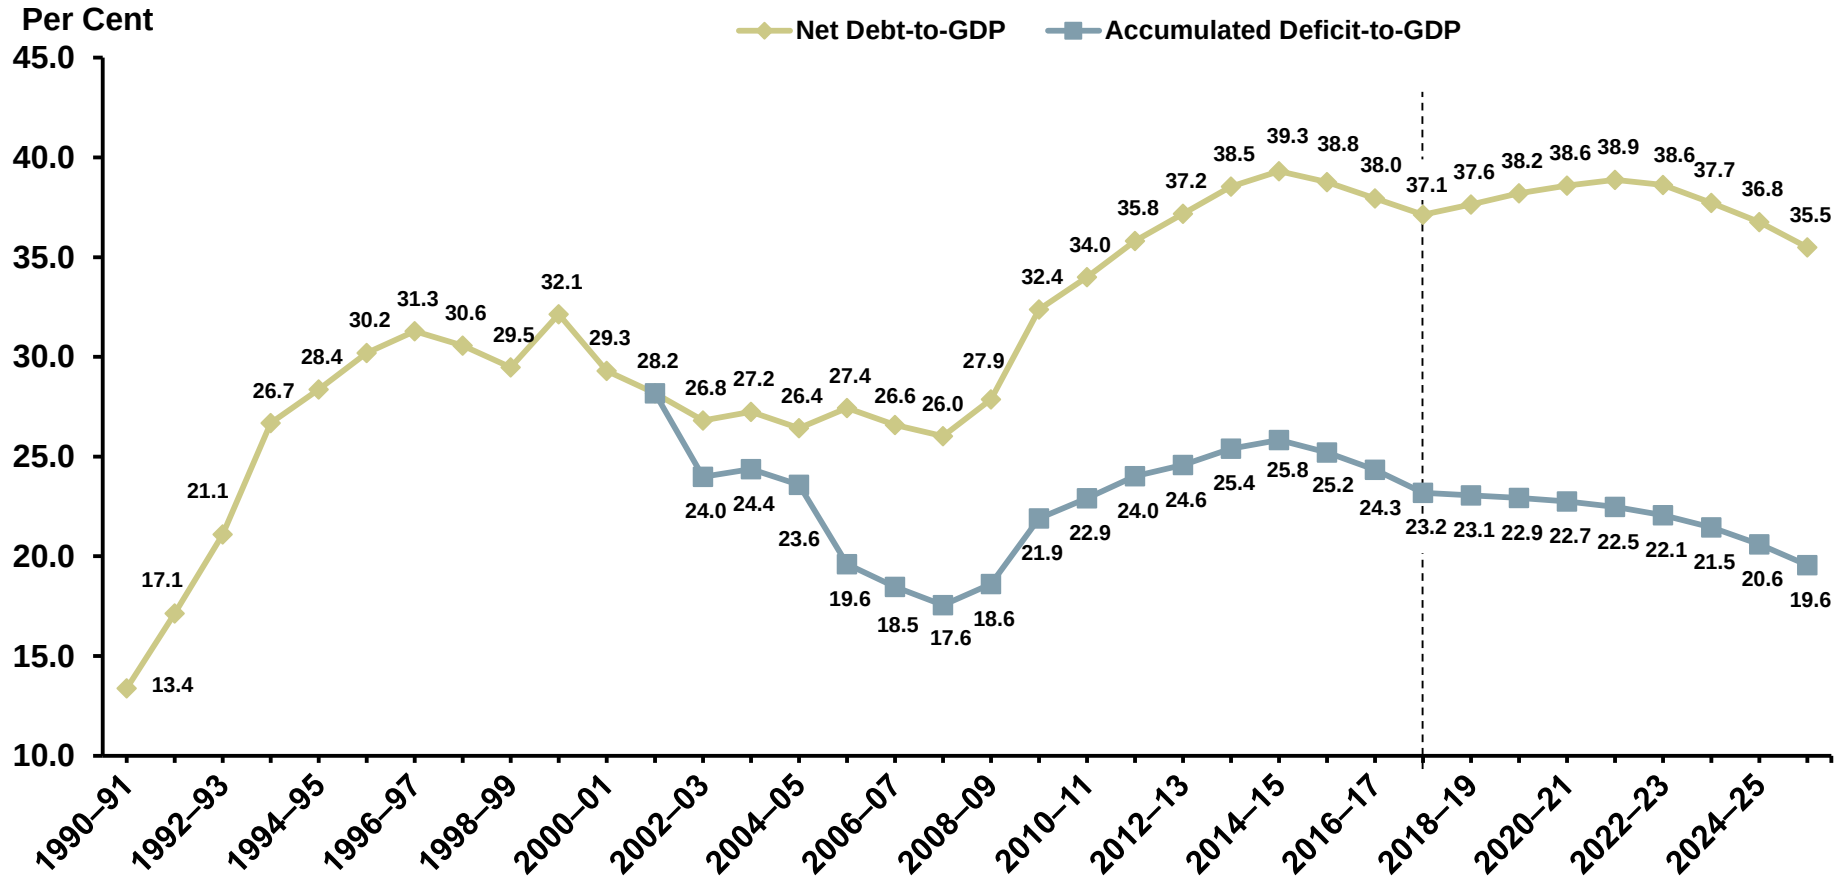
Net Debt-to-GDP and Accumulated Deficit-to-GDP

- Ontario's net debt-to-GDP ratio peaked in 2014–15 at 39.3 per cent and is now forecast at 37.1 per cent in 2017–18, below the forecast of 37.5 per cent for 2017–18 contained in the 2017 Budget.
- The net debt-to-GDP ratio is forecast to remain below the 2014–15 peak and resume a downward trend in 2022–23.



Note: Net Debt has been restated to include broader public sector net debt, starting in 2005–06.

Weighted-Average Term of Borrowing

- Maintaining a long average term of the Province's debt portfolio ensures low interest rates remain locked in for a longer period. This reduces refinancing risks and helps offset the impact of expected higher interest rates on the Province's future interest on debt costs.
- Going back to the beginning of fiscal 2010–11, Ontario has issued $71.3 billion of bonds with terms longer than 30 years to lock in low interest rates.

Risk Exposure and Management

Risk Exposures

- Market Risk: risk of loss due to changes in interest and foreign exchange rates
- Credit Risk: risk of loss due to default of issuers, dealers, or derivatives counterparties
- Operational Risk: risk of loss due to failed models, systems, processes, people, etc.

Risk Management

- Monitor and manage debt maturity profile to limit refinancing risk
- Maintain a high level of liquid reserves and short term borrowing capacity
- Enforce strict credit limits for financial and investment counterparties
- Have collateralized swap agreements in place for most swap counterparties

	Exposure*	Policy Limit*
Foreign Exchange	0.2%	5.0%
Net Interest Rate Resetting	10.9%	35.0%

*Of outstanding debt, as of March 31, 2018.

Note: Excludes Ontario Electricity Financial Corporation debt.

Liquidity and Short-Term Borrowing Capacity

- The OFA manages the Province's liquid reserve portfolio (cash and short-term investments) to optimize investment returns and to ensure that sufficient funds are available to meet cash requirements.
- Starting in 2019–20, the Province will have large cash outflows on single days, rather than having debt maturities spread more evenly through the year. In anticipation of the need for cash reserves to meet these requirements for large outflows on a single day, the Province began building larger cash reserves in 2017–18.

- OEFC is an agent of the Crown and is classified by Management Board of Cabinet as a board-governed provincial agency.
- OEFC has no staff of its own and retains the services of the OFA to carry out its daily operations on a cost-recovery basis. In addition, the Office of Tax, Benefits and Local Finance of the Ministry of Finance collects certain payments on behalf of OEFC (e.g., PILs, GRC, and DRC revenues).

OEFC Mandate:

- Managing its debt, financial risks and liabilities, including the debt and certain other liabilities of the former Ontario Hydro;
- Managing the former Ontario Hydro's non-utility generator (NUG) contracts;
- Receiving all payments and administering other assets, liabilities, rights and obligations of the Corporation that were not transferred to another of the former Ontario Hydro successor corporations and disposing of any of these items as it deems appropriate or as directed by the Minister of Finance;
- Providing financial assistance to the successor corporations of Ontario Hydro;
- Entering into financial and other agreements relating to the supply and demand management of electricity in Ontario; and
- Performing any additional objects specified by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

Ontario Nuclear Funds Agreement

- In March 2002, the Province and OPG signed the Ontario Nuclear Funds Agreement (ONFA).
- ONFA's objective is to ensure sufficient funds are available to pay for the future costs of decommissioning nuclear stations and disposing of nuclear waste and used fuel.
- ONFA came into force in July 2003 with the creation of two segregated funds, the Decommissioning Segregated Fund and the Used Fuel Segregated Fund, which are jointly managed by OPG and OFA, on behalf of the Province. The combined market value of the funds was $4.9 billion when they were formally established in 2003.

As of December 31, 2017	Market Value ($ Millions)	Combined Market Value ($ Millions)
Used Fuel Segregated Fund	$12,087	$21,186
Decommissioning Segregated Fund	$9,099

- The OFA has responsibility for implementing certain portions of the Province's role under ONFA. This involves:
  - Due diligence on ONFA Reference Plan (which is subject to Provincial approval by the Minister of Finance) on cost and liability estimates and related submissions from OPG.
  - Due diligence and approval on ONFA Annual Budgets, and subsequent review of disbursement requests from OPG, that require approval by the Province under ONFA.
  - Due diligence on OPG's financial guarantee to the Canadian Nuclear Safety Commission (CNSC), as well as on any direct provincial guarantee to the CNSC when required to support of OPG's financial guarantee to the CNSC.
  - Determining and implementing investment management strategies and monitoring investment performance together with OPG.
  - Policy analysis and advice on and monitoring of regulatory and technological changes that may affect OPG's and the Province's liabilities with respect to the of nuclear decommissioning and waste management.

Loans and Investments for Public Bodies

Loans

- The OFA provides loans to Ontario public bodies such as colleges, school boards and hospitals, as well as provincial corporations, boards and commissions that are consolidated on the Province's financial statements.
- The OFA provided new loans to a number of public bodies in 2017–18, totalling $2,427 million.
- The outstanding balance of the loans to public bodies at March 31, 2018 was $5,742.6 million, a net decrease of $260 million from $6,002.8 million at March 31, 2017.

Investments

- The OFA also invests on behalf of certain public bodies to help increase their returns by streamlining investment processes and reducing investment costs.
- In 2017–18, the OFA continued to provide investment services to a number of public bodies, including Infrastructure Ontario, the Pension Benefits Guarantee Fund, Ontario Trillium Foundation, Ontario Capital Growth Corporation and the Deposit Insurance Corporation of Ontario. As of March 31, 2018, total funds managed were approximately $2.2 billion.

IESO_OFA FEP 2017 Credit Letter v3 draft.docx

Hi Opal,

The current $975 OFA-IESO credit facility provides for advances to be repaid no earlier than 28 days and no later than 95 days. Amendment number 9 (attached) contains the form of borrowing notice as Schedule 1 (which is page 5 of the .pdf); please let me know if you would like Will to print out the borrowing notice for you.

Per IESO's attached requests, they are requesting minimum borrowing period on the existing credit facility to be reduced from 28 days to 7 days.

That means that for the new $2 billion credit facility, as well as the existing facility (which will also be reduced from $975 million to $475 million), the time period for advances to be repaid will be no earlier than 7 days and no later than 95 days.

Thanks,
Sarah

Hi Sarah,

Mike had 2 questions.

1. What is the min and max time for borrowing notices in r the new IESO FHP agreement, as well as under the amending agreement? I believe there are also election notices under the agreement as well, so out of an abundance of caution, lets provide that as well.

2. What's the status of being able to charge Metrolinx for work already done so far re: fuel hedging. I think this is something that was being worked on – I thought by Siva- but asking in case you know.

Thanks,
Opal

Re: IESO Credit Requirements for the 2017 Fair Hydro Program

Dear Mr. Mayman,

As you are aware the Ontario government has announced its intension to implement the Fair Hydro program (FHP) to reduce electricity prices for consumers in the province. Legislation is expected to be introduced this month for the program. The Independent Electricity System Operator (IESO) is preparing to implement the FHP and has determined that to support the IESO's role in implementation it will need greater credit liquidity than currently exists.

The existing credit facility between the IESO and the Ontario Financing Authority's (OFA) is $975 million. The IESO proposes that an additional facility/commitment be provided in the amount of $1,500 million. This would enable the IESO to provide interim financing for the FHP's global adjustment smoothing for a period of several months if needed.

We suggest the OFA's current $975 million agreement and the new separate (or co-mingled) FHP agreement consider the following key provisions:

- FHP: 5 year term to align with the FHP's deferral of electricity prices period plus a few months of contingency (i.e. September 30, 2022);
- FHP: interest charge to be Province's cost of funds for borrowing with a similar term as determined by OFA plus 0.25 percent per annum;
- FHP: drawings to be based on minimum of 7 days to a maximum of 95 days, to minimize interest costs and permit efficient FHP asset transfers;
- $975 million: draws to permit for FHP purposes; and
- $975 million: a reduction in the 28 days minimum draw for the existing facility to a minimum of 7 days to a maximum of 95 days;

Should the IESO find that there is consistent usage of these facilities we will contact the OFA for further arrangements.

Upon your reply to this letter, the IESO will seek any necessary IESO Board of Directors' approval for the above credit facility(ies) and we will provide such evidence for the OFA's records.

We appreciate the OFA's continue support and look forward to working with you. Please contact me should you need anything further.

Sincerely,

DRAFT

OEFC -- IESO CREDIT FACILITY AGREEMENT & THE PERMITTED LIENS

The Independent Electricity System Operator ("IESO") has requested that OEFC amend the existing credit facility agreements between OEFC and IESO (for $160M and $120M) to address the additional obligations IESO is taking on under Ontario's Fair Hydro Plan. IESO has indicated that OEFC credit facilities will not be used for Ontario Fair Hydro Plan (FHP) purposes.

- On November 28, 2017, IESO staff wrote to staff that without the terms of the OEFC facilities being amended, it would need to ask for an interim waiver from the OEFC to avoid being in default.

CONTEXT

- Under the FHP, the IESO and Ontario Power Generation (OPG) are interacting to refinance a portion of the Global Adjustment over a longer period of time.

- IESO and OPG are in a discussion to grant a security/priority interest on IESO's assets to OPG Trust for the period of the first 4 years of the GA deferral.

- The IESO sought and received its Board's approval on Nov 22, 2017 to enter into a security agreement with OPG Trust. The security agreement is currently in draft form. Without amending the existing OEFC $160M and $120M credit facility agreements (the "OEFC Agreements"), IESO could potentially be considered to be in default of the terms of the various agreements. IESO staff wrote:

  > "…it likely is best to add to the definition of "Permitted Liens" in the two OEFC facilities to address a) IESO granting security to the OPG Trust during the first 4 years of fair hydro program and b) the possibility that the Clean Energy Adjustment funds collected by IESO might be considered to be subject to a lien. The IESO does not want to be inadvertently in default."

- The IESO provided a draft Security Agreement, dated November 7th, 2017, between them and the OPG Trust to OFA. According to the draft Security Agreement, in the unlikely event that the IESO runs into financial difficulty, the IESO would give OPG Trust a priority in the IESO's assets, including all accounts of the IESO and all cash and proceeds from LDCs, that would put OPG Trust ahead of unsecured creditors, including the OFA and the OEFC.
  - The security agreement is not limited to the Clean Energy Adjustment funds collected by the IESO only.

- In order to address this issue, the IESO has requested to amend the definition of the "permitted liens" in both existing OEFC Agreements to include any liens related to the FHP. Specifically, adding a clause in the existing OEFC Agreements that any lien related to OFHP will not be viewed as negative pledge by OEFC, so those liens can be used to secure the performance of IESO's obligations to OPG under the FHP. This would allow IESO to grant security to the OPG Trust during the first 4 years of implementing the GA deferral and also avoid breaching the terms of the existing agreements with OEFC.

- To support IESO's role in the implementation and participation under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 ("OFHP Act"), in July 2017 the IESO had requested that the OFA make similar changes to the credit facility agreements with OFA in October.
  - On November 6, 2017, the OFA amended the $475M facility to amend the definition of "permitted liens" and also included same for the new $2B credit facility agreement between OFA and the IESO , as requested by the IESO.

CONSIDERATIONS

- With the proposed new security agreement between OPG Trust and the IESO, OPG Trust would have a priority claim against the IESO's assets, the OEFC could find itself unable to collect payments due from the IESO. The likelihood of this scenario could be assessed as low.
  - The extent of this risk is subject to uncertainty at this time, given that the regulations that govern the payments related to the Fair Allocation Amount in each period, and how that relates to the obligations to the Financing Entity, are still under development.

- IESO is an agency of the government consolidated line-by-line in the Province's accounts.

- The OFA agreed to IESO's requested changes to the OFA credit facilities.

- OFA'S Capital Markets Operations staff have commented that the legislation governing OEFC, the Electricity Act, 1998, may provide differing context from the OFA's objects and mandate under the Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993 and any changes to the OEFC agreements should take this into account.

- According to the Minister's Directives associated with the OEFC Agreements, the loan and the credit facilities are "subject to such other terms as OEFC deems appropriate." Therefore, an amendment for permitted liens can be done under the existing directives, and new or revised directives from the Minister of Finance are not deemed necessary. This would be consistent with the approach when the pre-existing OFA-IESO credit facility agreement was amended for permited liens on November 6, 2017.

RECOMMENDATIONS

- In order to support IESO's request in relation to its obligation with respect to FHP, OFA staff are of the view that the exisiting OEFC Agreements can be amended to include liens related to FHP under the definition of the "permitted liens".

BACKGROUND

- In order to support IESO's role with the implementation of the OFHP Act, OFA staff made similar changes to the definition of 'permitted liens" in existing OFA-IESO credit facility agreements on November 6, 2017.

- Currently, under the existing credit facility agreements between OEFC and the IESO, the definition of "permitted liens" does not include any lien arising from the IESO's role and obligations under the OFHP, including with respect to any amount received or receivable by the IESO (such as, without limitation, amounts received or receivable in respect of the Clean Energy Adjustment), or any other lien, whether arising from the action or inaction of IESO, that is created in connection with the OFHP.

FITCH AFFIRMS PROVINCE OF ONTARIO, CANADA'S IDR AT 'AA-'; OUTLOOK STABLE

Fitch Ratings-New York-20 June 2017: Fitch Ratings has affirmed the following ratings for the Province of Ontario, Canada (the province):

--Long-Term Issuer Default Rating (IDR) at 'AA-';
--Long-Term Local Currency IDR at 'AA-';
--Senior unsecured bonds at 'AA-';
--Short-Term IDR at 'F1+'.

The Rating Outlook is Stable.

SECURITY
Bonds are senior unsecured obligations of the province to which the province's full faith and credit is pledged. Commercial paper notes are promissory notes ranking equally with Ontario's other unsubordinated and unsecured indebtedness.

KEY RATING DRIVERS
FISCAL CONSOLIDATION CONCLUDES: The tabled budget for fiscal 2018 completes the province's plan to eliminate its annual budget deficits by fiscal 2018. Despite some variations to the plan announced in the 2010 budget, the province has remained committed to this fiscal goal.

STRONG FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT: The province has demonstrated the ability to exert considerable expenditure restraint while instituting revenue changes to achieve its deficit reduction objectives. Maintaining restraint in future fiscal years will remain a key challenge for the province, in Fitch's view, as an elevated debt burden and limited contingency lines otherwise limit its flexibility to absorb a future economic slowdown without added borrowing.

SIGNIFICANT ACCUMULATED DEFICIT: The province estimates an accumulated deficit equal to 145% of operating revenues in fiscal 2017 (24% of gross domestic product [GDP]) fueled by the past misalignment between annual revenues and expenditures. The province forecasts continued, gradual declines in the accumulated deficit as a proportion of GDP based on economic growth assumptions.

SIZABLE, DIVERSE ECONOMY: The province's diverse economy includes Canada's largest business and financial hub and accounts for 39% of the country's population. Growth in trade, financial services, and education and health care services has expanded the economic base, with manufacturing now a much smaller share. The provincial economy remains heavily linked to that of the U.S.

LARGE AND GROWING DEBT BURDEN: The province's debt burden measured by net direct debt to GDP is high, although debt service consumes a manageable 8% of annual revenues. Net debt is likely to grow in fiscals 2018 through 2020 in support of the province's robust infrastructure program, with the forecast decline in debt burden relying on continued economic growth.

RATING SENSITIVITIES
FISCAL PRUDENCE: The Stable Outlook at the current rating level assumes the province retains its focus on tabling balanced budgets and gradually lowering the burden of debt. The resumption of significant borrowing to support operating deficits would result in negative pressure on the rating.

CREDIT PROFILE

Ontario's 'AA-' rating is supported by its wealthy, diversified economy and generally sound financial management. The province has concluded its fiscal consolidation program first articulated in its 2010 budget, with a balanced budget tabled for fiscal 2018. Budget balance has been achieved through steady economic and revenue growth, expenditure restraint, introduction of new revenue measures, as well as the sale of provincial assets to fund components of the capital program.

The most significant asset sales have occurred over the past year and a half, with approximately 50% of provincial ownership in Hydro One, the province's electricity transmission and distribution utility, sold through public offerings. The province has agreed to sell up to approximately 15 million shares in Hydro One to First Nations which, depending on their participation would reduce provincial ownership to 47.4%. The share sales have provided approximately C$5 billion toward payment of outstanding electricity sector debt and other payables and about C$4 billion toward the province's capital program. The province's asset strategy plan, which includes the sale of shares in Hydro One, is currently on track to net the province C$5.7 billion over time, with funds dedicated to its Trillium Trust.

LARGE, DIVERSE ECONOMIC BASE

The province is Canada's largest by population, and its diverse economy generates 39% of Canada's GDP. Provincial GDP gains have been steady since the recession. Improved U.S. demand and lower crude oil prices have helped support economic growth in Ontario, with GDP now exceeding national averages; in 2015 GDP rose 2.5% compared to Canada's 0.9%, while 2016 GDP increased by 2.7% compared to national 1.5% growth. In 2016 provincial employment rose 1.1% compared to Canada at 0.7%.

Manufacturing, which was severely affected in the last recession, has become a much less significant driver of the province's economy. Other sectors have seen robust growth, including in trade and transportation, financial activities, and education and health services.

The province continues to forecast steady economic growth in the medium term, with forecast real GDP rising 2.3% in 2017 and 2.1% in 2018. The forecast is currently supported by a favorable export position and federal government stimulus while incorporating the province's recently adopted Fair Housing Plan; a multi-pronged approach to address escalating housing values and housing affordability in the Greater Golden Horseshoe. Although some cooling from the plan is evident in recent real estate market data, the risk of a more severe housing market decline remains possible.

Downside risks to the forecast remain; these include slower economic growth in the U.S., rising interest rates, pressured housing markets beyond that included in the current forecast, increases in crude oil prices, and financial sector exposure to the resource provinces.

FINANCIAL BALANCE OBTAINED BUT SLIM CUSHIONS ARE FORECAST

Ontario's fiscal 2010 ended with a C$19.3 billion operating deficit (20% of revenues) and an accumulated financial deficit of almost C$131 billion (136% of revenues). The province adopted a multiyear fiscal consolidation plan with the goal of reaching a balanced budget by fiscal 2018. Despite a setback in fiscal 2014, through fiscal 2017 the province has exceeded its targets.

At the close of fiscal 2017, the annual operating deficit is estimated at C$1.5 billion while the accumulated deficit peaks at C$193.5 billion. Fiscal 2017 benefits from the sale of shares in Hydro One, strong performance in the housing market and government enterprises, and above-budget economic growth in 2016, slightly offset by slower economic growth in the first quarter of 2017. Fiscal 2017 expenditures increased modestly over those planned in the 2016 budget.

The tabled budget for fiscal 2018 concludes the province's fiscal consolidation with a balanced budget forecast at year-end. Continued economic strength is expected to support core personal income and consumption taxes, with additional receipts from the province's new cap-and-trade program and from federal government infrastructure support. Overall 6.3% growth in operating revenues, inclusive of tax measures and adjustments, exceeds the 4.7% growth in expenditures, including expansive 10.4% growth in other programs that incorporates capital expenditures, programs under the province's new Fair Hydro Plan and climate change initiatives.

Expenditures have been expanded to incorporate the Fair Hydro Plan, a multi-year program to reduce household electricity bills through two means: a rebate to residential customers equivalent to the 8% provincial portion of the harmonized sales tax on electricity bills and the refinancing of existing electricity infrastructure. Measures with a fiscal impact are estimated by the province to add $2.5 billion in annual expense over the next three fiscal years. Other program expansions include targeted increases in health care and education, including capital investments.

Provincial reserves are expected to remain slim over the near term, with a modest C$600 million set aside in both fiscal years 2018 and 2019. While the province has exemplified significant expenditure controls to resolve budgetary shortfalls and the willingness to raise additional revenue, the slimness of the financial cushion is a credit weakness particularly when confronted by a future economic slowdown.

SIGNIFICANT DEBT BURDEN AND ACCUMULATED DEFICIT

Achieving its fiscal balance goal of fiscal 2018 has left the province with a sizable accumulated deficit, equal to C$193.5 billion in fiscal 2017, and a debt burden that has reached a substantial 37.8% of GDP. While the province's need to finance fiscal imbalances has dropped off with the fiscal 2018 budget, planned capital continues and outstanding debt is forecast to increase over the medium term.

The fiscal 2018 budget provides target dates for achieving the province's long-stated goal of bringing debt-to-GDP to 27%; the budget sets an interim target at 35% in fiscal 2024 and 27% in fiscal 2030. This very slow decline relies almost completely on continued economic growth as total long-term borrowing for infrastructure is expected to escalate over the next few years. Total borrowing in fiscal 2018 is forecast at approximately C$26.4 billion, of which C$13.1 billion is for capital purposes, C$6 billion is to bolster the province's cash position and the remainder largely for repaying debt maturities. Interest on outstanding debt remains manageable, at 8% of expenditures in fiscal 2018.

Fair Hydro Plan – Subordinated Debt Loan Arrangement Term Sheet

- Parties: OPG, Fair Hydro Trust, OFA

- In accordance with the Master Subscription Agreement among OPG, OFA and Ministry of Energy, the Province agrees to inject 44% of total funding of GA asset by way of equity subscriptions in OPG, and OPG agrees to use the equity subscription amounts solely for funding the Fair Hydro Trust's subordinated debt (Equity Injection Plan) requirements as part of the Fair Hydro Plan

- OPG will lend the equity injection from the Province to Fair Hydro Trust by way of subordinated debt (one or more mezzanine level)

- Initial credit rating will be assigned to the subordinated debt of Fair Hydro Trust

- Based on monthly funding requirement of GA asset, the Trust will use short term financing, such as bank facilities, and take out bonds once accumulative short term funding reaches certain levels.

- The mechanism to implement Equity Injection Plan will be based on monthly equity injections reflecting funding requirements of GA asset

- Interest rates on the subordinated debt will be established as follows:

    - During the Trust short term financing period when bank facilities are used as funding vehicles, the interest rate on subordinated debt will be the sum of (1) funding rate on senior debt, and (2) additional spread margin of [xx], reflecting the credit rating difference between the senior and subordinated debt

    - At the time when senior bonds are being issued to take out (term out) the short term financing, OPG will seek indicative coupon rates on the subordinated debt from dealers, reflecting the sum of underlying Government of Government of Canada yield of equivalent term and the appropriate credit spread. The average indicative coupon rate from dealers will be calculated and set as the subordinated debt rate. The process will be similar to the one established for pricing of OPG debt drawn from OEFC facilities.

Hi John,

We've received no internal direction on the nature of changes IESO is looking for in relation to existing OEFC credit facility with the IESO and the FHP. I surmise it may have to do with adjusting the agreement to allow FHP permitted liens (which we would need internal approval to do) or similar changes, but do you know if IESO communicated requirements to Gadi or Ron?

Thanks,
Sarah

Interesting that they were making this request in the documentation prior to having IESO Board approval - also I would be curious to know if and how this may affect the intercept letter for OFA.

Hi Patrick,

As the OIC package was going through our OFA approvals, we have now been directed that the OIC amount should be $2.0 billion, with an expiry date of June 30, 2047, to line up with the IESO request and the term of the FHP.

I'll recirculate the updated LRC package once I get a finalized version in place. Could we update the OIC to reflect this as I know it may take some time.

Let us know.

Subject: FW: Policy questions re OFHP Credit Facility Agreement

Hello Bruno and John,

In advance of our internal call this afternoon, Lisa and Toby have prepared the following e-mail below to consider whether the OFA should consider taking a security interest in the Regulatory Asset as security for $2B credit facility, as well as the inclusion of the intercept provision. Ken Kandeepan expressed the following view yesterday:

> "…[the $2B Facility] is unsecured but so is every loan issued by the OFA to a public body so not sure why the risk associated with this loan is greater or for that matter lower than the loans currently in the OFA's loan book.
> As such, this should be treated exactly like all the other loans. Note that the IESO is fully consolidated with that of the Province so loans issued by the OFA to IESO will be a wash upon consolidation."

In light of this, could you please advise if there are there any additional considerations regarding the FHP structure that would could necessitate the inclusion of an intercept provision in the $2B facility and/or the OFA taking a security interest in the Regulatory Asset?

I am including Ken and Mike Manning in this e-mail, should they have any additional input or insight on this matter.

Thank you,
Sarah

Subject: Policy questions re OFHP Credit Facility Agreement
Importance: High

Hi Sarah H. and Will,

Based on the e-mails to date, I understand that OFA staff held a conference call yesterday and based the OFA Lending Policy and past practices, may have concluded that it is appropriate for the loan to the IESO in relation to the OFHP to be unsecured, as per other OFA loans to public bodies. However, as neither Toby (from MOF Legal) nor I were part of the aforementioned call, we wanted to clarify that this loan is NOT necessarily the same as other OFA unsecured loans to public bodies, and as such, the protection provided by the "intercept" provisions of the standard OFA loan agreements have limited application in this particular case (which is likely the reason why these provisions were not included in the original drafts). Our understanding is that, although the intercept provisions are intended to allow the Minister of Finance to deduct from money appropriated by the Legislature for payment to the Borrower amounts equal to any amounts that a Borrower fails to pay to the OFA on account of indebtedness under the loan agreement, in the case of the IESO as Borrower, these amounts are likely to be minimal.

Before proceeding, we would like to ensure that the nature of the loan, the impact of intercept provisions, and the insolvency and operational risks, have all been considered. Toby has succinctly summarized the questions which still need to be addressed during our call this afternoon in the e-mail which I have forwarded below.

Subject: RE: Policy question re OFHP Credit Facility Agreement

Lisa,

I have attempted to summarize my questions/issues in the below. Let me know if you have anything to add or have any edits.

The concerns I have with the IESO loan, and that should be considered are related to what could happen to the Regulatory Asset (the "Asset") if there are any credit or liquidity issues at the IESO. Because the Asset is something that it is possible to take security in, and that is an intangible that may be subject to a floating charge (ie, as a result of a GSA or from a financing agreement) I thought it would be prudent to consider whether the OFA should take a security interest in the Asset as security for the loan.

I am not familiar with the types of financial arrangements or other obligations that the IESO may be a party to, either as a result of its market operations or otherwise, but it may be possible that the IESO has entered into such arrangements, such as swaps or other derivatives agreements, loans or other financing arrangements for which security could be given.

I am not aware of what financial guarantees or other arrangements may be in place such that the Province may have guaranteed the IESO's obligations, but I don't believe that there are any. My understanding is that the IESO is consolidated with the Province's books, but that the IESO is not a crown agent, and the Province is not liable for the IESO's obligations to third parties. However, I am not sure about the underlying facts without more input from ENERGY and the IESO.

In light of these questions it may be worthwhile to consider some related issues:

- How does the proposed IESO loan compare to other OFA loans made to public bodies, such that it is appropriate to use the same requirements?
    - Size of loan – it is my understanding that there are not many loans that approach the size of the $2 billion loan that is proposed to the IESO.
    - Are the obligations of the IESO the obligations of the Province, and how does this compare to other public body loans?
    - What other financial obligations could the IESO have (such as swap agreements, other financial obligations) that could become due or create credit risk?
    - If in many public body loans, there is an intercept and an MOU with the appropriate ministry to create some security, does that make sense in this context? Are there significant transfers to the IESO?
    - Note that the OFA loan to the ROM was secured by pledges and an intercept, and that other Provincial loans to public bodies or other groups may be secured.
- Does the Province/OFA understand the financial obligations of the IESO such that it is confident that no other security interest could attach to the Asset?
- Given that the debt is specifically for the purpose of creating the Asset which will be "warehoused" at the IESO, once the Asset is sold to the financing entity, how will the Province ensure that the proceeds can only be used to repay the loan?

Hi Risa,

Just a quick heads up that the IESO Credit Facility amendment has not yet be signed and, as such, currently no advances may be made until it is executed.

The agreement is currently with IESO for them to execute. Per IESO, "We do not need to draw until mid-December 2016… so we can execute this amendment doc up until next Fri in time for the new draw."

Thanks,
Sarah

IESO authorizes OEFC to open and maintain records evidencing IESO's obligations under this Agreement and to record therein all advances, interest rates, accrued interest, payments of principal and interest and the aggregate principal and accrued interest outstanding from time to time under this Agreement. IESO agrees that the records kept by the OEFC in the absence of manifest error, shall be prima facie evidence of the indebtedness of IESO and the matters recorded provided that the failure of the OEFC to record or correctly record any amount or date shall not affect the obligation of IESO to repay the aggregate principal amounts and accrued interest thereon owing under this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3
ADVANCES AND INTEREST

Section 3.1 Advances.

OEFC agrees, on the terms and conditions of this Agreement, to make Advances to IESO under the Credit Facility on the first Business Day of each month from and including May 3, 2010 to and including April 1, 2013.

Section 3.2 Procedure for Advances.

(1) Each Advance shall be made subject to four Business Day's prior notice given not later than 10:00 a.m. (Toronto time) by IESO to OEFC. Each notice of an Advance (a "Borrowing Notice") shall be substantially in the form of Schedule 1, shall be irrevocable and binding on IESO and shall specify (a) the requested date of the Advance (the "Advance Date"), and (b) the principal amount of the Advance which shall be in a minimum amount of $1,000,000.00 (unless otherwise agreed to by OEFC), and in increments of $1,000,000.00 (or such other increments as may be agreed to by OEFC). OEFC will make the principal amount of each Advance available to IESO in accordance with Article 2.

(2) On or before the date of the first Advance hereunder, IESO shall execute and deliver to OEFC a grid promissory note (the "Note") in respect of Advances substantially in the form of Schedule 2. IESO authorizes OEFC to record on the grid promissory note (a) the date and amount of each Advance; (b) the applicable rate of interest for each Advance; (c) the date and amount of each payment of interest and each payment of principal in respect of each Advance; and (d) the outstanding principal amount of the grid promissory note. Such notations, in the absence of manifest error, shall be prima facie evidence of the such advances and repayments; provided that the failure of OEFC to record any amount, rate or date shall not affect the obligation of IESO to pay the Advances Outstanding and all interest accrued thereon and any other amounts due under this Agreement.

(3) In the event that funds are not received by IESO on the Advance Date, IESO and OEFC agree to take all steps necessary to amend the date of the Advance, without amending the Interest Rate that was agreed to with respect to such Advance.

(4) The Note shall at all times rank pari passu with all other unsubordinated Indebtedness of IESO, subject to the existence of any Permitted Liens of IESO.

(5) All amounts owing in respect of the Advances shall be paid without exercising any right or set off or counterclaim by IESO.

Section 3.3 Interest on Advances.

(1) IESO shall pay interest on the principal amount of each Advance then outstanding in accordance with this Section 3.3 from and including the date of such Advance until the principal amount of such Advance is repaid in full.

(2) Interest shall accrue on the principal amount of each Advance from and including the date of the Advance to but excluding the first Interest Payment Date following the date of the Advance, at the rate equal to the Interest Rate, and shall be payable on the Interest Payment Date for such Advance. The amount of interest payable on an Advance will be calculated by OEFC by dividing the Interest Rate applicable to the Advance by 365 or 366, as the case may be, and multiplying the result by the principal amount of the Advance then outstanding and further multiplying the result by the number of days in the period from the date of the Advance to the Interest Payment Date.

(i) If an Advance is outstanding on an Interest Payment Date, the interest rate applicable to such Advance shall be reset automatically by OEFC on that date (the "Interest Reset Date"), at the Interest Rate determined as of the Interest Reset Date.

(ii) For each Advance, OEFC shall notify IESO via email of the Interest Rate on the Advance Date and on each Interest Reset Date.

(3) Upon four Business Days prior notice by IESO, OEFC may at its discretion agree to capitalize the interest on any Advance on an Interest Payment Date, which shall be determined in the following manner: each such interest payment due on the Interest Payment Date shall be deemed to form part of the principal amount of the outstanding Advance and interest shall accrue and be payable thereon in accordance with Section 3.3(2). OEFC shall record on the grid forming part of the note: (a) the date and amount of the new Advance; (b) the applicable rate of interest for the Advance; and (c) the outstanding principal amount of the grid promissory note.

(4) Interest shall accrue on the principal amount of each Advance at the Interest Rate as determined from time to time, before as well as after the date such principal amount or interest thereon becomes due hereunder and both before and after default.

Section 3.4 Computations of Interest.

(1) All computations of interest shall be made by OEFC taking into account the actual number of days (including the first day but excluding the last day) occurring in the period for which such interest is payable on the basis of a year of 365 days or 366 days, as the case may be.

(2) For the purposes of disclosure pursuant to the Interest Act (Canada), the yearly rate of interest which is equivalent to a rate of interest payable under this Agreement for any period of less than a year may be determined by multiplying the rate of interest for such period by a fraction, the numerator of which is the actual number of days in a year commencing on and including the first day in such period and ending on but excluding the corresponding day in the next calendar year and the denominator of which is the actual number of days in such period.

Section 3.5 Limit on Rate of Interest.

(1) Notwithstanding any provision contained in this Agreement, IESO shall not be obliged to make any payments of interest or other amounts payable to OEFC hereunder in excess of the amount or rate which would be prohibited by applicable law or would result in the receipt by OEFC of interest at a criminal rate (as such terms are construed under the Criminal Code (Canada), as amended from time to time).

(2) In the event that any such payments are limited or prohibited as provided in Section 3.5(1), OEFC shall have no further obligation to make any Advances available hereunder and the Advances Outstanding, together with all accrued interest and all other amounts owing hereunder, shall become immediately due and payable.

Section 3.6 Conditions Precedent

The obligation of OEFC to make the Advances pursuant to Section 2.1 is subject to the following conditions being met to OEFC's satisfaction at the time of making each Advance:

(a) that the representations and warranties of IESO contained in this Agreement are true and correct as at the date of making the Advance;

(b) that no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and no event or condition has occurred, which, with the lapse of time or the giving of notice or both would constitute an Event of Default;

(c) that there shall, in the reasonable opinion of OEFC, have been no material adverse change in the financial condition of IESO; and

(d) that OEFC has received such other documentation which it has reasonably requested to ensure that IESO is in compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including certified true copies of any necessary resolutions including resolutions authorizing the borrowing and authorized signatories.

Hi Sarah,

I discussed the sharing of the agreement with Opal last week and noted that it is a business decision. There are no contractual or legislative provisions which prohibit the sharing of the agreement. If there are concerns from a business perspective, we can discuss an NDA or other options if necessary.

Hi Opal,

I took a look and asked Carlos as well. There is nothing from a market perspective that is controversial, and I don't see anything in the provisions that concern me. I thought about the intercept provision, but I think it is fine since the legislation 'publicly' allows for that carve out.

Lisa, do you have any objections about IESO sharing any of the contents of the $2B facility with TD?

I forgot to ask. I haven't reviewed the agreement with the intention to have it shared, so should any information be redacted from the agreement before we agree to it being shared?

Opal.

Hi Sarah,

I was just in the midst of an email to you regarding this matter. John Kim has let IESO know they can move forward with working with CMO on the agreements, but also communicated that the inclusion of the requested language is pending approval. Its fine to work on amending the agreements, as from all sides the indication is that final signoff will occur.

Regarding IESO's request to share the OFA-IESO agreement with TD, since there's nothing in the agreement prohibiting it and neither Gadi nor OFA legal is concerned about it being shared, it seems unreasonable to withhold it. As there is no obligation for us to provide/deny permission, perhaps we can just point that out to IESO (in an email) and tell them we are leaving the decision as to whether or not to share the agreement to their discretion. Not sure if a more formal response needs to be provided to IESO, but I can discuss with John the best way to convey that info to IESO.

Thanks,
Opal.

Ryan,

As discussed with Will today, I understand you will be co-ordinating the proposed 2 amendments to the existing IESO-OEFC credit facilities.

For starters, there are no expected changes being asked to the existing agreement's key business content (e.g. amounts, dates, interest, notices etc.), rather given that IESO-OFA have just finished two new agreements pertaining to the new fair hydro program, ….I suggest we just copy and paste the salient sections from these agreements that would now be relevant to the OEFC agreements for fair hydro namely;

1.DRAFT

The definition of "Permitted Liens" is amended by deleting the word "and" at the end of subsection (xx); replacing the "." at the end of subsection (xx) and replacing it with "; and" ; and adding the following subsection (xx):

"(xx) any Lien arising from the IESO's role and obligations under the OFHP, including with respect to any amount received or receivable by the IESO (such as, without limitation, amounts received or receivable in respect of the Clean Energy Adjustment), or any other lien, whether arising from the action or inaction of IESO, that is created in connection with the OFHP."

2.DRAFT

The OFA agreements had required an intercept provision, …..not sure if the same applies to OEFC if yes:

"Section 5.7 Intercept

(a) The IESO hereby acknowledges that, in accordance with the terms of the letter agreement of November 6th , 2017 herewith entered between the Ministry of Energy, the IESO and the OFA made pursuant to Section 23 of the Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993 (the "Intercept Letter"), the Minister of Finance is entitled to deduct only from those monies appropriated by the Legislature for payment through the Ministry of Energy to the IESO ("Appropriated Funds"), amounts equal to any amounts that the IESO fails to pay to the OFA on account of indebtedness under this Agreement. On the occurrence of an Event of Default relating to a failure by IESO to pay when due any amounts owing hereunder, subject to the OFA's compliance with any relevant provisions hereof and as set out in the Intercept Letter, the Minister of Finance is irrevocably authorized to deduct from the Appropriated Funds amounts equal to any amounts that the IESO has failed to pay to the OFA in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and to pay such amounts directly to the OFA ("Intercept").

(b) If, after following the process specified in the Intercept Letter (including, without limitation, allowing for a reasonable cure period on the terms specified therein), the OFA determines that it is necessary to request the Minister of Finance to exercise the Intercept, the OFA will give written notice to the Minister of Finance, with a copy to the Ministry of Energy, detailing the IESO's failure to pay when due any amounts owing hereunder and requesting the deduction from the Appropriated Funds of amounts equal to the amounts that the IESO has failed to pay to the OFA under this Agreement.

(c) The IESO agrees that any notice from the OFA to the Minister of Finance in relation to this section 5.7 (Intercept) may be relied upon by the Minister of Finance without further inquiry or verification by the Minister of Finance and, upon receipt of such notice, an amount equal to the amount that the IESO has failed to pay when due to the OFA on account of indebtedness under this Agreement shall be deducted from the Appropriated Funds and paid to the OFA.

(d) For further certainty, the OFA acknowledges and agrees that the Intercept as provided for herein and in the Intercept Letter shall not apply with respect to any funds appropriated by the Legislature for payment to the IESO through ministries other than the Ministry of Energy or through Ontario Climate Change Solutions Deployment Corporation.

The parties agree that, with respect to the exercise of the Intercept generally, the terms of this section 5.7 shall be applied consistently with the terms set out in the Intercept Letter which shall apply in full. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the Intercept Letter and the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement, the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement shall prevail."

3.
If any… other relevant updates that make sense to do now……I do not anticipate any material ones.

We need your support to expedite the above in order to avoid delays in the Fair Hydro implementation.
Regards.

(c) Non-Conflict – Neither the execution nor the performance of this Agreement requires the approval of any regulatory agency having jurisdiction over the Grantor nor is this Agreement in contravention of or in conflict with the by-laws or resolutions of the directors or shareholders of the Grantor or of the provisions of any agreement to which the Grantor is a party or by which any of its property may be bound or of any statute, regulation, by-law, ordinance or other law, or to the best of its knowledge of any judgement, decree, award, ruling or order to which the Grantor or any of its property may be subject, other than approvals that have been obtained.

(d) Ownership of Collateral Free of Liens – The Grantor is the owner of or has rights in the existing Collateral free and clear of any liens other than Permitted Liens.

(e) Grantor Information – Schedule A sets forth (a) the Grantor's jurisdiction of incorporation, (b) the location of the Grantor's registered office and business operations and records, and (c) the Grantor's exact legal name (in English and French).

(f) Enforceability – This Agreement constitutes a valid and legally binding obligation of the Grantor enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, subject to general equitable principles, including the fact that the availability of equitable remedies, such as injunctive relief and specific performance, is in the discretion of the court.

5.2 Reliance and Survival

All representations and warranties of the Grantor made in this Agreement shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement and shall continue in full force and effect without time limit. The Secured Party shall be deemed to have relied upon each such representation and warranty notwithstanding any investigation made by or on behalf of the Secured Party at any time.

6. ENFORCEMENT

6.1 Enforceability of Security

The security hereby constituted shall become enforceable only upon the failure of the Grantor to pay the Statutory Obligations when due, and then only to the extent of the Statutory Obligations not then paid when due. The Grantor acknowledges that it has no right in any circumstance to accelerate payment of the Statutory Obligations, to apply proceeds of Collateral on account of Statutory Obligations not yet due, or to reserve or hold proceeds of Collateral on account of Statutory Obligations not yet due.

6.2 Remedies

At any time that the security hereby constituted shall have become enforceable, the Secured Party may give notice of its intention to its exercise rights and remedies hereunder. At any time ten Business Days following the giving of such notice, and unless the amounts due and owing on account of the carrying Costs at the time of the Notice have been paid, the Secured Party shall have the following rights, powers and remedies:

(a) to appoint any person to be an agent or any person to be a receiver, manager or receiver and manager (herein called the "Receiver") of the Collateral and to remove any Receiver so appointed and to appoint another if the Secured Party so desires; it being agreed that any Receiver appointed pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement shall have all of the powers of the Secured Party hereunder;

(f) to enjoy and exercise in respect of the Collateral all of the rights and remedies of a secured party under the PPSA;

(g) to notify the account debtors or obligors under any Accounts which constitute part of the Collateral of the assignment of such Accounts to the Secured Party and to direct such account debtors or obligors to make payment of all amounts due or to become due to the Grantor thereunder directly to the Secured Party and to give valid and binding receipts and discharges therefor and in respect thereof and, upon such notification and at the expense of the Grantor, to enforce collection of any such Accounts, and to adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment thereof, in the same manner and to the same extent as the Grantor might have done; and

(h) to commence, continue or defend proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction in the name of the Secured Party, the Receiver or the Grantor for the purpose of exercising any of the rights, powers and remedies set out in this Section, including the institution of proceedings for the appointment of a receiver, manager or receiver and manager of the Collateral.

6.3 Special Rules re Accounts

(a) all Money or other form of payment received by the Grantor in respect of the Collateral shall be received in trust for the benefit of the Secured Party hereunder, shall be segregated from other funds of the Grantor and shall be forthwith paid over to the Secured Party in the same form as so received (with any necessary endorsement) to be held as cash collateral and applied as provided by Section 6.8; and

(b) the Grantor shall not adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment of any Collateral.

6.4 Receiver as Agent

The Receiver shall be deemed to be the agent of the Grantor for the purpose of establishing liability for the acts or omissions of the Receiver and the Secured Party shall not be liable for such acts or omissions and, without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Grantor hereby irrevocably authorizes the Secured Party to give instructions to the Receiver relating to the performance of its duties as set out herein.

6.5 Expenses of Enforcement

6.6 Indulgences and Releases

Either the Secured Party or the Receiver may grant extensions of time and other indulgences, take and give up securities, accept compositions, grant releases and discharges, release any part of the Collateral to third parties and otherwise deal with the Grantor, debtors of the Grantor, sureties and others and with the Collateral and other security as the Secured Party or the Receiver may see fit without prejudice to the right of the Secured Party and the Receiver to repossess, hold, collect and realize the Collateral.

6.7 No Liability for Failure to Exercise Remedies

The Secured Party and the Receiver shall not be liable or accountable to the Grantor or to any other person for any failure to exercise any of the rights, powers and remedies set out in this Agreement, and shall not be bound to commence, continue or defend proceedings for the purpose of preserving or protecting any rights of the Secured Party, the Receiver, the Grantor or any other party in respect of the same.

6.8 Proceeds of Disposition

(c) third, in payment of the Statutory Obligation, provided that if there are not sufficient Moneys to fully pay and perform the Statutory Obligation, the Secured Party may apply the Moneys available to such part or parts thereof as the Secured Party, in its sole discretion, may determine; and

(d) fourth, in payment of any surplus in accordance with applicable law.

6.9 Grantor Liable for Deficiency

If the Moneys received by the Secured Party or the Receiver pursuant to Section 6.2 are not sufficient to pay the claims set out in Section 6.8, the Grantor shall immediately pay the Secured Party the amount of such deficiency.

6.10 Restriction on Grantor

Upon notification of the account debtors or obligors under any Accounts which constitute part of the Collateral of the assignment of such Accounts to the Secured Party or the appointment of a Receiver in respect of the Collateral, all the powers, functions, rights and privileges of the Grantor or any officer, director, servant or agent of the Grantor with respect to the Collateral shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be suspended unless specifically continued by the written consent of the Secured Party; however, all other powers, functions, rights and privileges of the Grantor or any officer, director, servant or agent of the Grantor shall be unaffected by such events.

6.11 Rights Cumulative

All rights and remedies of the Secured Party set out in this Agreement shall be cumulative and no right or remedy contained herein is intended to be exclusive but each shall be in addition to every other right or remedy contained herein or in any existing or future security document or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute.

7. GENERAL

7.1 Waiver

Any default by the Grantor in the observance or performance of any covenant or condition required to be observed or performed by the Grantor hereunder, may only be waived by the Secured Party in writing, provided that no such waiver by the Secured Party shall extend to or be taken in any manner to affect any subsequent breach or default or the rights resulting therefrom.

7.2 The Secured Party as Attorney

At any time that the Secured Party is entitled to exercise its rights and remedies under Section 6.2, the Grantor hereby irrevocably appoints the Secured Party and any person further designated by the Secured Party to be the attorney of the Grantor for and in the name of the Grantor to execute and do any deeds, documents, transfers, demands, assignments, assurances, consents and things which the Grantor is obliged to sign, execute or do hereunder and, to commence, continue and defend any proceedings authorized to be taken hereunder and generally to use the name of the Grantor in the exercise of all or any of the powers hereby conferred on the Secured Party. These powers are coupled with an interest, have been given for valuable consideration (the receipt and adequacy of which is acknowledged), survive, and do not terminate upon, the bankruptcy, dissolution, winding up or insolvency of the Grantor, and are irrevocable until the Statutory Obligation has been satisfied in full and this Agreement is terminated and the security interest created herein has been released. This power of attorney extends to and is binding upon the Grantor's successors and permitted assigns. The Grantor authorizes the Secured Party to delegate in writing to another person any power and authority of the Secured Party under this power of attorney as may be necessary or desirable in the opinion of the Secured Party, and to revoke or suspend such delegation.

7.3 Further Assurances

The Grantor shall do, execute, acknowledge and deliver or cause to be done, executed, acknowledged and delivered, such further acts, deeds, mortgages, transfers and assurances as the Secured Party shall reasonably require for the better assuring, charging, assigning and conferring unto the Secured Party a security interest in the Collateral, or which the Grantor may hereafter become bound to charge in favour of the Secured Party, for the purpose of accomplishing and effecting the intention of this Agreement.

7.5 Continuing Security

The security interest constituted hereby shall be deemed to be a continuing security for the Statutory Obligation until the Statutory Obligation is paid and performed in full.

Subject: IESO Security Agreement
Date: Monday, November 20, 2017 4:57:48 PM

John and Opal,

We have reviewed the Nov. 7 draft of the Security Agreement, and I have discussed the issues with our outside counsel.

The Nov. 7 draft updated the terms of the Security Agreement such that they have a broader application than the earlier draft that we had based our previous discussions on. The earlier draft had carved out appropriations from the collateral.

However, in both instances the collateral includes all accounts of the IESO (other than the Appropriations amounts in the earlier draft), all cash and proceeds from LDCs.

To the extent that the amounts owed by the IESO to the Financing Entity are matched by actual proceeds to the IESO from ratepayers that flow through the LDCs on account of a Clean Energy Adjustment, the security interest would only give the Financing Entity an ability to attach to an amount of collateral that would be equal to that cash that is available from the amounts that the LDCs have charged to ratepayers.

However, there is a risk that the Clean Energy Adjustments would not be sufficient to pay the amount owing by the IESO to the Financing Entity in general or in any one period. In such an instance, the security interest would give the Financing Entity a priority in the IESO's assets that would put them ahead of unsecured creditors, including the OFA and the OEFC. We are not sure what the extent of this risk is because we have not seen the final draft of the regulations that determine how much is payable in each period, and how that relates to the obligations to the Financing Entity.

I have not spoken to Energy Legal on this point, but have asked for their input. They may not have been involved with these discussions, though, so I am not sure if they will have anything to add.

Please let me know if you would like to discuss further.

Hi Opal,

Let me know if you're OK with this version. I put CMD – Operations in square bracket pending your review.

OEFC -- IESO CREDIT FACILITY AGREEMENT & THE PERMITTED LIENS

ISSUE

The Independent Electricity System Operator ("IESO") has requested that OEFC amend the existing credit facility agreements between OEFC and IESO (for $160M and $120M) to address the additional obligations IESO is taking on under Ontario's Fair Hydro Plan. IESO has indicated that OEFC credit facilities will not be used for Ontario Fair Hydro Plan (FHP) purposes.

CONTEXT - IESO'S REQUEST

- The FHP requires the IESO and Ontario Power Generation (OPG) to work together to refinance Ontario's clean energy investments over a longer period of time. IESO and OPG are in a discussion to grant a security/priority interest on IESO's assets to OPG Trust for the period of the first 4 years of the GA deferral.

- The IESO is planning to seek its Board's approval on Nov 22, 2017 for the security agreement. Without amending the existing OEFC $160M and $120M credit facility agreements (the "OEFC Agreements"), IESO could potentially be considered to be in default of the terms of the agreements. IESO staff wrote:

  > "…it likely is best to add to the definition of "Permitted Liens" in the two OEFC facilities to address a) IESO granting security to the OPG Trust during the first 4 years of fair hydro program and b) the possibility that the Clean Energy Adjustment funds collected by IESO might be considered to be subject to a lien. The IESO does not want to be inadvertently in default."

- In order to address this issue, the IESO has requested to amend the definition of the "permitted liens" in both existing OEFC Agreements to include any liens related to the FHP. Specifically, adding a clause in the existing OEFC Agreements that any lien related to OFHP will not be viewed as negative pledge by OEFC, so those liens can be used to secure the performance of IESO's obligations to OPG under the FHP. This would allow IESO to grant security to the OPG Trust during the first 4 years of implementing the GA deferral and also avoid of breaching the terms of existing agreements.

- To support IESO's role in the implementation and participation under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 ("OFHP Act") in July 2017, the IESO had requested the OFA to make the same request to the credit facility agreements with OFA in October.
  - On November 6, 2017, the OFA amended the $475M facility to amend the definition of the "permitted liens" and also included same for the new $2B credit facility agreement between OFA and the IESO , as requested by the IESO.

CONSIDERATIONS

- OFA'S Capital Markets – Operations staff have commented that the legislation governing OEFC, the Electricity Act, 1998, may provide differing context from the OFA's objects and mandate under the Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993. [This was a bullet suggested by CMD – Operations.]

Commented [JK1]: Unless Documentation can provide specific differences that are significant, I suggest we delete.

- With the new security agreement between OPG Trust and IESO, OPG Trust would have a priority claim against potentially the Clean Energy Adjustment funds collected by or flown-through the IESO, the OEFC could find itself unable to collect payments due from the IESO. The likelihood of this scenario could be assessed as low and IESO is an agency of the government consolidated line-by-line in the Province's accounts. [This was a bullet inserted by CMD – Operations.]

- The OFA included the requested changes in the OFA credit facilities, providing a precedent of having considered the changes/inclusion of the same request. Treating the current request differently by seeking either a Minister's directive or not granting the IESO its request would mean having to take steps on the OFA credit facilities which were either signed recently or amended recently.

RECOMMENDATIONS

- In order to remain consistent with the language recently incorporated in existing IESO-OFA agreements, OFA staff are of the view that the exisiting OEFC Agreements can be amended to include liens related to FHP under the definition of the "permitted liens". [TBD]

BACKGROUND

- In order to support IESO's role with the implementation of the OFHP Act, OFA staff made similar changes to the definition of 'permitted liens" in existing OFA-IESO credit facility agreements on November 6, 2017.

- Currently, under the existing credit facility agreements between OEFC and the IESO, the definition of "permitted liens" does not include any lien arising from the IESO's role and obligations under the OFHP, including with respect to any amount received or receivable by the IESO (such as, without limitation, amounts received or receivable in respect of the Clean Energy Adjustment), or any other lien, whether arising from the action or inaction of IESO, that is created in connection with the OFHP.

Commented [OK3R2]: The fact that OFA's objects/mandate are detailed under CIPA is a distinct differentiation from OEFC. This is relevant as it goes to the reach of OFA, which OEFC does not share.

Commented [OK7]: The OFA and OEFC are different corporate entities, so treatment of each may be different depending on the circumstances, even when dealing with the same borrower.

Commented [OK8]: The OFA credit facility was provided pursuant to the minister's directive, so seeking a minister's directive wrt OEFC would be consistent with how OFA was treated. Not suggesting this is necessary.

Hi Salman and Patrick,

I was sick yesterday and did not have the opportunity to comment on the drafts. Please see my comments, attached.

Patrick – my understanding (through Dimitri working on the other OFA OIC for name changes) is that the materials for the June 27th LRC are due to be delivered to the DMO office by EOD tomorrow. Is this your understanding? Salman – if this is the case, this OIC package will need to be signed by Gadi tomorrow and delivered to Patrick tomorrow for LSB's sign-off as well (Patrick I'm assuming you would be delivering the package).

LRC Ministry Approval Form – version 10.02

s. 1 Proposal and Context

- Approval is being sought for an OIC under section 22 of Capital Investment Plan Act, 1993 ("CIPA")~~CIPA~~, which will authorize the Minister of Finance to provide ~~a~~ loan(s) to the OFA in an amount of up to $3.5 billion. This authorization will be valid between the date of ~~this approval~~the OIC is approved and ~~March 31~~June 30, 2053.

- Subsection 22(1) of CIPA authorizes the Minister of Finance to make loans to the OFA authorized by the Lieutenant Governor in Council ("LGIC"). Subsection 22(2) provides a statutory appropriation for loans made by the Minister to the OFA under subsection 22(1).

- This proposed OIC is required to fulfil the commitments under the proposed Fair Hydro Act. The timing of this OIC is critical to ensure borrowing authority for the OFA is available as it will be required to provide financing arrangements upon the enactment of the proposed Fair Hydro Plan Act.

s. 2 Approach and Intended Outcomes

- The OFA provides financing to government entities as directed by the Minister of Finance. For the OFA to on-lend, the OFA borrows from the Province. This OIC would authorize the Minister of Finance under section 22 of CIPA to provide loans to the OFA.

- As per subsection 3(1) of CIPA, the Minister of Finance is responsible for the administration of CIPA with respect to the OFA.

- This proposed OIC is required to fulfil the commitments under the proposed Fair Hydro Act.

- The OFA will be required to provide a revolving credit facility for market liquidity purposes related to the on-going Fair Hydro Plan Act. In particular, the OFA will be lending to the Independent Electricity System Operator ("IESO").

- A key element of the proposed Fair Hydro Plan Act results in the IESO ~~to~~ incurring a funding shortfall and unilaterally selling that shortfall as an asset to Commented [SH2]: For consistency, "the" in front of "IESO" needs to be included throughout the document or excluded throughout (see paragraphs below, where "the" is missing)

OPG Trust. The proposed legislation does not compel OPG Trust to purchase any portion of the regulatory asset. As a result, IESO requires short-term financing in place in the event ~~if for some reason~~ the OPG Trust, at any time, chooses not to purchase a portion of the deferred Global Adjustment amounts under the proposed Fair Hydro Plan Act.

- IESO has currently requested that the OFA provide a revolving credit facility of up to $2 billion to support its role in the Fair Hydro Plan implementation. The $2 billion request from IESO is based on current data; it is possible that the data (?) may ~~which could~~ change and ~~in order to maintain the Fair Hydro Plan Act and the OIC authorization is~~ an amount of $3.5 billion is required for the OIC to ensure there is sufficient contingency in order to maintain the Fair Hydro Plan Act once ~~in place once~~ the implementation begins~~.~~.

- For the OFA to accommodate this request, an OIC must be approved to permit the OFA to ~~can only~~ on-lend funds borrowed from the Minister of Finance.
  ~~, which are authorized under an OIC, hence this request.~~

- The Minister of Finance will be required to provide a Directive to the OFA for any loans made as a result of this OIC and will subject to the of $3.5 billion set by this OIC.

s. 3 Direction and Urgency

Note appendices here, or ERASE, e.g.
See Appendix X, Variance Memo

- As announced on March 2, 2017 and highlighted as a commitment in the 2017 Ontario Budget ~~2017~~, the Province intends to implement the Fair Hydro Plan which would reduce electricity bills by 25 per cent on average for eligible households.

Formatted: Indent: Left: 0.25", No bullets or numbering

- The ability for the OFA to have the borrowing and on-lending capacity is instrumental in implementing the proposed Fair Hydro Plan.

- The Fair Hydro Plan ~~and its related proposed Fair Hydro~~ Act ~~are~~ is expected to track for Cabinet approval by end of June 2017. It is expected that this OIC will also be approved concurrently, as it is a crucial component of the successfull~~y~~ implement~~ing~~ation of the Fair Hydro Plan.

Formatted: Indent: Left: 0.25", No bullets or numbering

- The related Cabinet Minute XXXXX is tracking for June 27, 2017 date.

s. 4 Impact Assessment and Costs

- With this OIC, the Minister of Finance will be authorized to lend to the OFA. Subject to the terms and conditions of a Directive from the Minister of Finance, loans from the Minister of Finance to the OFA are expected to be at the Province's Cost of Funds.
- Loans advanced will result in increased borrowing in the debt markets by the Province.
- Loans are expected to be repaid and therefore, no fiscal impact is expected.

Commented [SH3]: Not sure if this is required, but if so, it may be better use plain language, as cost of funds may be an unfamiliar term to non-finance folks.

s. 5 Implementation

- If the OIC is approved and signed, the Minister of Finance will have authorization to provide a loan to the OFA. ~~The~~A D~~d~~irective from the Minister will be required that will provide direction on~~provides details on~~ how the OFA can use the proceeds of the loan.

s. 6 Delivery and Results Tracking

- As described in section 2 above, the requirement for this OIC is a result of the Province's proposed Fair Hydro Plan and is required to ensure the timely implementation and support for the success of the Fair Hydro Plan.

s.7 Stakeholder Consultations

- As described in section 2 above, the requirement for this OIC is a result of the Province's proposed Fair Hydro Plan. The related Cabinet note for the initiative should be referred to.

MEMORANDUM TO: Scott Thompson
Deputy Minister of Finance

FROM: Gadi Mayman
Chief Executive Officer

SUBJECT: Approval of an Order in Council related to the proposed Fair Hydro Act

Attached for the Minister's approval and signature is an Order in Council ("OIC") under section 22 of the Capital Investment Plan Act ("CIPA") for the purpose of authorizing the Minister of Finance to make loan~~(s)~~ to the Ontario Financing Authority ("OFA"). The proceeds from these loans will allow the OFA to on-lend to the Independent Electricity Systems Operator ("IESO") as required under the Province's proposed Fair Hydro Plan Act.

Under the mechanism in the proposed Fair Hydro Plan Act, the IESO requires a revolving credit facility to cover clean energy costs if for some reason the Trust, at any time, chooses not to purchase a portion of the deferred Global Adjustment amounts. For the OFA to lend to the IESO, the OFA must be able to borrow from the Minister of Finance to on-lend. This proposed OIC authorizes the Minister of Finance to lend up to Canadian $3.5 billion to the OFA.

Commented [SH1]: Not sure if this level of description is required? Is it possible to delete and to combine the 1st and 2nd paragraphs ?

Attached for your signature is a memorandum from you to the Minister requesting that the Minister approve the OIC. This OIC is on track to be approved on June 27, 2017 together with proposed submission related to the proposed Fair Hydro Plan Act.

Staff are available to address any questions you may have regarding this matter.

I think the DMO would need to get the ok from CO, so I would ask DMO specifically what the latest acceptable cut off would be. I doubt Monday would be a problem, though.

Since we have a tracking number, can this wait a few days? I note that Gadi is away this week anyways (Ron is acting) and DMO is aware of this. I assume if its okay with DMO, we can wait?

Thanks,

A fairly elegant little summary

http://www.ieso.ca/en/sector-participants/settlements/global-adjustment-for-class-b

Administering the Variance Account under Ontario's Fair Hydro Plan

In accordance with the Fair Hydro Plan, the IESO will continue to invoice affected customers – but not collect – the full amount of Global Adjustment (GA) every month. The deferred portion of the GA not paid by these customers under the Fair Hydro Plan will be recorded in a variance account, constituting a regulatory asset. This regulatory asset may from time to time be transferred to a financing entity. The Ontario Energy Board will determine the rates, at later date, for recovery of the Fair Hydro Plan amounts through the Clean Energy Adjustment.

The IESO reports the monthly amount of deferred GA under the Fair Hydro Plan here.

Please find attached a draft of a Non-Disclosure Agreement respecting obtaining advice from a financial adviser with respect to the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan.

Please note that this draft is preliminary, and we have a number of questions and concerns that are set out in the draft. We would like to point out that there is no agreement setting out the scope or nature of the services and the basis on which those services would be provided including the standard that is required from the adviser as well as conflict of interest requirements and other issues, and that the NDA does not replace such an agreement.

We have also attached a scan of an agreement that the OFA negotiated in 2004 to hire an adviser for a project relating to electricity finance as an example of such an agreement and the types of provisions that could be considered for inclusion in such an agreement.

Confidential and Privileged Legal Advice – April 1, 2017 – MOF LSB
Note regarding this NDA and the retention of an adviser:

We have a number of questions relating to this NDA, and issues that should be considered in retaining an adviser:

- We have not been able to confirm what the scope of the advice being sought is. If the advice is restricted to advising on market timing and potential demand for certain securities, this is more limited than broader advice relating to structuring the transaction;
- We think it should be clear who the adviser is working for, and how the advice will be presented to the Province. If the advice is going to be to the Ministry of Energy or the Minister of Finance, will be given through the OFA?;
- Are there potential conflicts of interest between the adviser's role as an adviser and as a potential underwriter or other business of the adviser?

In addition, it should be considered whether it is appropriate to have an adviser without an agreement for the services that the adviser would be providing. The NDA protects the Province with respect to the disclosure of the information to third parties, but it does not set out the role, responsibilities or other matters relating to conflicts or other duties of the adviser. Terms of such an agreement that may be considered in such a context include:

- Scope of engagement;
- Performance Warranty – setting out the standard to which the adviser is to carry out the work and provide advice;
- Copyright and IP provisions;
- Conflict of interest provisions – setting out the primary duties of the adviser and how they must conduct themselves with respect to any potential conflicts;
- Indemnities – setting out the adviser's indemnities to the OFA for certain risks.

3.04 Condonation Not a Waiver

Any failure by OFA to insist in one or more instances upon strict performance by the Supplier of any of the terms or conditions of the Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver by OFA of its right to require strict performance of any such terms or conditions, and the obligations of the Supplier with respect to such performance shall continue in full force and effect.

3.05 Changes By Written Amendment Only

Any changes to the Agreement shall be by written amendment executed by the parties. No changes shall be effective or shall be carried out in the absence of such an amendment.

3.09 Performance by Specified Individuals Only

The Supplier agrees that to the extent that specific individuals are named in Schedule 1 (Proposal) as being responsible for the provision of the Deliverables, only those individuals shall provide the Deliverables under the Agreement. The Supplier shall not replace or substitute any of the individuals named in Schedule 1 (Proposal) without the prior written approval of OFA, which may not arbitrarily or unreasonably be withheld. Should the Supplier require the substitution or replacement of any of the individuals named in Schedule 1 (Proposal), it is understood and agreed that any proposed replacement must possess similar or greater qualifications than the individual named in Schedule 1 (Proposal). The Supplier shall not claim fees for any replacement individual greater than the Rates established under Schedule 1 (Proposal). The Supplier shall replace any of its personnel if they are unacceptable to OFA because of security risk, incompetence, conflict of interest, breach of confidentiality or improper conduct upon receiving written notice from OFA.

During the Term, and for seven (7) years after the end of the Term, the Supplier shall permit and assist OFA in conducting audits of the operations of the Supplier to verify (a) and (b) above. OFA shall provide the Supplier with at least ten (10) Business Days prior notice of its requirement for such audit.

The provisions of this Article shall survive any termination or expiry of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 5 - CONFIDENTIALITY AND FIPPA

5.01 Confidentiality and Promotion Restrictions
Any publicity or publications related to the Agreement shall be at the sole discretion of the OFA. 5.04 Injunctive and Other Relief

The Supplier acknowledges that breach of any provisions of this Article may cause irreparable harm to OFA, the Province or to any third-party to whom OFA owes a duty of confidence, and that the injury to OFA, the Province or to any third-party may be difficult to calculate and inadequately compensable in damages. The Supplier agrees that each of OFA and the Province is entitled to obtain injunctive relief (without proving any damage sustained by it or by any third-party) or any other remedy against any actual or potential breach of the provisions of this Article.

5.05 Notice and Protective Order

5.06 Notification of Confidentiality Provisions

The Supplier shall notify each of its partners, employees, directors, and officers and subcontractors who have access to any of the Confidential Information ("the Notified Parties") of the obligations contained in the Agreement with respect to the confidentiality of the Confidential Information and the restrictions on disclosure and use of the Confidential Information. The Supplier has advised or will advise, as the case may be, the Notified Parties of their obligations concerning the confidentiality of the Confidential Information and shall obtain the agreement of each of the Notified Parties to abide by the terms and conditions of the Agreement. The Supplier agrees to enforce such obligations to the extent required to prevent unauthorised disclosure of Confidential Information and to prevent any partner, employee, director, or officer (the "Representatives") from making unauthorised use of Confidential Information. The Supplier agrees to be responsible for any breach of confidentiality by any of the Representatives and agrees to indemnify OFA and the Province and OPG for all damages, costs, expenses, losses, claims or actions arising from any failure by the Supplier or any of the Representatives to comply with the confidentiality obligations in the Agreement. (g) to implement other specific security measures that in the reasonable opinion of OFA would improve the adequacy and effectiveness of the Supplier's measures to ensure the security and integrity of Personal Information and Records generally; and

(h) that any confidential information supplied to OFA or the Province may be disclosed by OFA or the Province where it is obligated to do so under FIPPA, by an order of a court or tribunal or pursuant to a legal proceeding.

6.04 Presumption Governing Ownership

If the Supplier's Intellectual Property forms any part of the Deliverables, the Supplier shall notify OFA of such prior to the delivery of the particular Deliverable containing any such Supplier Intellectual Property. However, to the extent that any of the Deliverables constitutes any professional opinion, judgement or financial advice of the Supplier, the preceding sentence will not restrict or prevent the Supplier from addressing such opinions, judgements and financial advice solely to the OFA and the Province or from including customary assumptions, qualifications and limitations respecting reliance by parties other than the Indemnified Parties in such Deliverables.

6.07 Supplier Representation and Warranty Regarding Third-Party Intellectual Property

The Supplier represents and warrants that the provision of the Deliverables shall not infringe or induce the infringement of any Third-Party Intellectual Property rights. At the request of OFA, at any time or from time to time, the Supplier shall execute and agrees to cause anyone in the position to assert rights of integrity or any other moral right (including its employees, volunteers, agents and subcontractors) to execute a written assignment of copyright and waiver of moral rights in the applicable Deliverable to the OFA in the forms set out in Schedule 2. The Supplier shall assist OFA in preparing any Canadian copyright registration that OFA considers appropriate. The Supplier will obtain or execute any other document reasonably required by OFA to protect the Intellectual Property of OFA.

6.11 OFA May Prescribe Further Compliance
OFA reserves the right to prescribe the specific manner in which the Supplier shall perform its obligations relating to this Article.

6.12 The provisions of this Article shall survive any termination or expiry of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 7 – CONFLICT OF INTEREST

7.01 The Supplier acknowledges it owes the OFA and the Province of Ontario a duty to promote the interests of OFA and the Province of Ontario in carrying out the Services. The overriding obligation the Supplier is to avoid actual or perceived conflicts between its private interests and those of OFA and the Province (including OFA and OEFC).

7.02 The Supplier shall not, in its provision of the Deliverables, engage in any activity, business or undertaking, whether as Supplier or otherwise, that could create a conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest. Included in the prohibitions on the Supplier are the following:

(a) engaging in any activity, business or undertaking that may conflict or be perceived as conflicting with the performance by the Supplier of the duties and obligations under this Agreement;

(b) directly or indirectly benefiting from any activity related to this Agreement otherwise than as specifically contemplated by this Agreement;

(c) circumstances where the supplier's other commitments, relationships or financial interests (i) could or could be seen to exercise an improper influence over the objective, unbiased and impartial exercise of its independent judgement; or (ii) could or could be seen to compromise, impair or be incompatible with the effective performance of its contractual obligations;

7.03 If required by the OFA for the purpose of complying with section 7.02 , the Supplier agrees to:

(a) file with the OFA a Plan to Prevent Conflict of Interest in respect of any particular actual or potential conflict of interest;

(b) file and cause its partners, directors, officers or employees who are providing the Services under this Agreement to file with the OFA declarations disclosing their interests in a manner equivalent to that set out in Section 13 of O.Reg 435/97 and their personal relationships (if any) with the firms and named individuals employed by or affiliated with OPG or any OEB licensed wholesale or retail electricity market participant in Ontario; and

(c) cause its partners, directors, officers or employees who are providing the Deliverables under this Agreement to execute confidentiality undertakings and provide copies to the OFA.

Upon the occurrence of any change in circumstance that renders any certificate or information filed or provided by the Supplier either incorrect or incomplete, the Supplier shall forthwith notify the OFA as set out in this Article of the change in circumstance in detail.

7.04 If any activities or prior activities of the Supplier could constitute an actual or potential conflict of interest in respect of this Agreement, the Supplier shall without delay make full, true and plain disclosure to the OFA of all relevant information about the particular activity, business or undertaking in question to the satisfaction of the OFA or its agent and abide by the decision of the OFA.

7.05 Upon any disclosure made by a Supplier or any other person in relation to the activities of the Supplier, of any activity, business or undertaking that could create a conflict of interest in respect of this Agreement, the OFA may, in its sole discretion:

(a) require that the Supplier:
  (i) deliver further and detailed particulars of the activity, business or undertaking;
  (ii) elect between the continuation of the Agreement and the continuation of the activity, business or undertaking concerned; and/or

(iii) institute measures which in the opinion of the OFA eliminate, resolve, isolate, diminish or nullify any perceived conflict of interest;

(b) terminate the Agreement effective upon written notice to such effect, and/or

(c) take such other steps as may be necessary to address the conflict including the institution of proceedings.

Where the OFA recommends that the Supplier take certain action, or refrain from taking certain action, the Supplier shall abide by the recommendation. The Supplier's failure to do so may result in the termination of the Supplier's Agreement in the sole discretion of the OFA.

7.06 Information disclosed by the Supplier to the OFA as contemplated under section 7.05 is confidential and shall not be disclosed to any person, except:

(a) on the consent of all parties;
(b) as required by law or by the order of a tribunal or court;
(c) such persons, if any, as the Supplier or the OFA may consult in respect of the conflict of interest; or
(d) in any proceedings between the OFA and the Supplier for breach of obligations under Article 7.

ARTICLE 8 – INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

8.01 Supplier Indemnity
The Supplier hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Indemnified Parties from and against any and all liability, loss, costs, damages and expenses (including legal, expert and consultant fees), causes of action, actions, claims, demands, lawsuits or other proceedings, (collectively, "Claims"), by whomever made, sustained, brought or prosecuted, including for third party bodily injury (including death), personal injury and property damage arising from the negligence, errors, omissions or wilful misconduct of the Supplier, its subcontractors or their respective directors, partners, officers, agents, employees or independent contractors in the course of performance of the Supplier's obligations under, or otherwise in connection with, the Agreement. The Supplier acknowledges that OFA holds the benefit of the indemnity in trust for itself and the Province and that OFA can enforce such indemnity on behalf of the Province. The Supplier also acknowledges and agrees that the Province can enforce such indemnity directly against the Supplier.

8.02 Supplier's Insurance
The Supplier shall maintain errors & omissions liability insurance (external coverage and/or self-insured coverage), insuring liability for errors and omissions in the performance or failure to perform the services contemplated in this agreement, in the amount not less than $5,000,000 per claim and in the annual aggregate.

8.03 Supplier Participation in Proceedings
The Supplier shall, at its expense, to the extent requested by OFA or the Province participate in or conduct the defence of any Claim against any Indemnified Parties referred to in this Article and any negotiations for their settlement. OFA or the Province may elect to participate in or conduct the defence of any such Claim by notifying the Supplier in writing of such election without prejudice to any other rights or remedies of OFA or the Province under the Agreement, at law or in equity. Each party participating in the defence shall do so by actively participating with the other's counsel. No settlement shall be entered into by the Supplier unless it has obtained the prior written approval of OFA or the Province, as the case may be. If the Supplier is requested by OFA or the Province to participate in or conduct the defence of any such Claim, OFA or the Province agrees to co-operate with and assist the Supplier to the fullest extent possible in the Claim and any related settlement negotiations. If OFA or the Province conducts the defence of any such Claim, the Supplier agrees to co-operate with and assist OFA or the Province to the fullest extent possible in the Claim and any related settlement negotiations; provided that no settlement of such Claim shall be entered into by any Indemnified Party unless it has obtained the prior written consent of the Supplier, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld.

8.04 The provisions of this Article survive the termination or expiry of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 9 – TERMINATION, EXPIRY AND EXTENSION

9.01 Immediate Termination of Agreement
OFA may immediately terminate the Agreement upon giving notice to the Supplier where:

(a) the Supplier is adjudged bankrupt, is insolvent, makes a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors or a receiver, liquidator or similar official is appointed on account of the Supplier's insolvency;

(b) the Supplier breaches any provision in Article 5 (Confidentiality and FIPPA) of the Agreement;

(c) the Supplier breaches any provision in Article 7 (Conflict of Interest) of the Agreement;

(d) the Supplier, prior to or after executing the Agreement, makes a material misrepresentation or omission or provides materially inaccurate information to OFA;

(e) the Supplier undergoes a change in control which, in the sole opinion of OFA, adversely affects the Supplier's ability to satisfy some or all of its obligations under the Agreement;

(f) the Supplier subcontracts for the provision of part or all of the Deliverables or assigns the Agreement without first obtaining the written approval of OFA; or

(g) the Supplier's acts or omissions constitute a substantial failure of performance;

and the above rights of termination are in addition to all other rights of termination available at law, or events of termination by operation of law.

9.02 Dispute Resolution by Rectification Notice
Subject to section 9.01, where the Supplier fails to comply with any of its obligations under the Agreement, OFA may issue a rectification notice to the Supplier setting out the manner and timeframe for rectification. Within seven (7) Business Days of receipt of that notice the Supplier shall either (a) comply with that rectification notice; or (b) provide a rectification plan satisfactory to OFA. If the Supplier fails to either comply with that rectification notice or provide a satisfactory rectification plan, OFA may immediately terminate the Agreement. Where the Supplier has been given a prior rectification notice, the same subsequent type of non-compliance by the Supplier shall allow OFA to immediately terminate the Agreement.

9.03 Termination on Notice
OFA reserves the right to terminate the Agreement, without cause, upon five (5) days written notice with or without cause.

9.04 Termination for Non-Appropriation
If this Agreement extends into a Fiscal Year subsequent to its execution, continuation of the Agreement is conditional upon an appropriation of moneys by the Legislature of Ontario (the "Legislature") sufficient to satisfy payments due under the Agreement. In the event that such moneys are not available as a result of: (i) non-appropriation by the Legislature for the Fiscal Year in which payment becomes due; and (ii) the payment being neither charged nor chargeable to an appropriation of the Legislature for a previous Fiscal Year, the OFA may terminate the Agreement upon giving notice to the Supplier and such termination shall be effective on the date of the beginning of the first Fiscal Year for which funds have not been appropriated.

9.05 Supplier's Obligations on Termination
The Supplier shall, in addition to its other obligations under the Agreement and at law:

(a) provide OFA with a report detailing (i) the current state of the provision of Deliverables by the Supplier at the date of termination; and (ii) any other information requested by OFA pertaining to the provision of the Deliverables and performance of the Agreement;

(b) execute such documentation as may be required by OFA to give effect to the termination of the Agreement;

(c) comply with any other instructions provided by OFA, including but not limited to instructions for facilitating the transfer of its obligations to another Person; and

(d) return or destroy Confidential Information under secure conditions, as requested by the OFA and provide a certificate of an officer of the Supplier confirming that all Confidential Information has been returned or destroyed, subject to the right to retain one copy as set out in Section 5.02.

9.06 Supplier's Payment Upon Termination
OFA shall only be responsible for the payment of the Deliverables provided under the Agreement up to and including the effective date of any termination. Termination shall not relieve the Supplier of its warranties and other responsibilities relating to the Deliverables performed or money paid. In addition to its other rights of hold back or set off, OFA may hold back payment or set off against any payments owed if the Supplier fails to comply with its obligations on termination.

9.07 Termination in Addition to Other Rights
The express rights of termination in the Agreement are in addition to and shall in no way limit any rights or remedies of OFA under the Agreement, at law or in equity

9.08 Expiry of Agreement
The Agreement shall expire at the end of the Term.

9.09 The provisions of this Article survive the termination or expiry of the Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have executed the Agreement effective as of the date first above written.

ONTARIO ELECTRICITY FINANCIAL CORPORATION

2016

Annual Report

Mandate

Ontario Electricity Financial Corporation (OEFC or the Corporation) is one of five entities established by the Electricity Act, 1998 (the Act) as part of the restructuring of the former Ontario Hydro.

Under the Act, the former Ontario Hydro was restructured into Ontario Power Generation Inc. (OPG), Hydro One Inc. (now a subsidiary of Hydro One Ltd., or Hydro One), the Independent Electricity System Operator (IESO), the Electrical Safety Authority (ESA) and OEFC.

In accordance with the Act, OEFC has the following mandate:

- managing its debt, financial risks and liabilities, including the debt of the former Ontario Hydro;
- managing the former Ontario Hydro's contracts with non-utility generators (NUGs);
- receiving all payments and administering other assets, liabilities, rights and obligations of the Corporation that were not transferred to another of the former Ontario Hydro successor corporations and disposing of any of these items as it deems appropriate or as directed by the Minister of Finance;
- providing financial assistance to the successor corporations of Ontario Hydro;
- entering into financial and other agreements relating to the supply and demand management of electricity in Ontario; and
- performing any additional objects specified by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

OEFC retains the services of the Ontario Financing Authority (OFA) and the Ministry of Finance to carry out its daily operations on a cost-recovery basis. The OFA is the agency of the Province of Ontario (the Province) responsible for Provincial borrowing and debt management.

Statement from the Chair and Chief Executive Officer

We are pleased to present OEFC's 2016 Annual Report, which describes the Corporation's operational highlights and financial results for the year ended March 31, 2016.

Revenue exceeded expense by $3.7 billion in 2015–16, primarily reflecting the impact of the Hydro One initial public offering (IPO), including a significant, one-time payment-in-lieu (PIL) of tax to OEFC from Hydro One in advance of ~~its initial public offering (~~the IPO~~)~~. The Corporation's unfunded liability was reduced from $8.1 billion to $4.4 billion as at March 31, 2016.

The unfunded liability has declined for twelve consecutive years. It is $15 billion less than the initial unfunded liability on April 1, 1999, when the former Ontario Hydro was restructured. Total debt and liabilities are $25.1 billion, down from the $38.1 billion inherited by the Corporation from the restructuring.

Cost savings of $11.7 million were achieved through the management of the power purchase agreements with non-utility generators (NUGs).

Looking ahead to 2016–17, the Corporation will continue to manage its debt and liabilities in a cost-effective manner and support the implementation of the government's electricity policies and initiatives.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

2015–16 HIGHLIGHTS

- Largest annual excess of revenue over expense for OEFC of $3.7 billion, decreasing its unfunded liability by that amount
- Twelfth consecutive annual decline in OEFC's unfunded liability
- Achieved cost-savings of $11.7 million by managing power purchase agreements

Financial Results

Revenue and Expense

Total revenue for 2015–16 was $6.0 billion, an increase of $1,952 million from 2014–15. The increase in revenue was primarily due to $3,228 million in payments-in-lieu (PIL) of taxes in 2015–16, up from $192 million in 2014–15, due to a significant one-time PIL of tax from Hydro One as a result of its initial public offering (IPO) in November 2015. This includes a $2.6 billion departure tax from Hydro One. Other revenue included $859 million from the Debt Retirement Charge (DRC); $875 million in power supply contract recoveries; $723 million in interest income from the Province, OPG and the IESO; $3 million in Electricity Sector Dedicated Income (ESDI) from the Province in respect of OPG and Hydro One net incomes; and $172 million in financial benefit from the Province.

Total expense was $2.3 billion, a decrease of $145 million from 2014–15. Expenses included interest payments on debt of $1,319 million and power supply contract costs of $875 million.

Overall, revenue exceeded expense by $3.7 billion. In 2014–15, revenue exceeded expense by $1.6 billion.

In comparison to OEFC's budget, which was established prior to the government's announcement on the planned Hydro One IPO, revenues came in at about $2.5 billion above projections, primarily due to higher than projected PIL of taxes, with smaller variances from power supply contract recoveries, and a financial benefit from the Province, partially offset by lower than projected ESDI; while expenses were $58 million above budget, due to higher power supply contract costs partially offset by a decrease in debt interest costs.

Borrowing Program

In 2015–16, the OFA undertook $1.1 billion in long-term public borrowing for the Corporation, most of which was to refinance long-term debt maturities.

Long-term public borrowing was completed in the Canadian dollar market.

Debt and Liabilities

The Corporation inherited $38.1 billion in total debt and other liabilities from the former Ontario Hydro when the Ontario electricity sector was restructured in 1999. This amount included $30.5 billion in total debt.

A portion of the $38.1 billion was supported by the value of the assets of Ontario Hydro successor companies, leaving $20.9 billion of stranded debt not supported by those assets. The initial unfunded liability of $19.4 billion was the stranded debt adjusted for $1.5 billion of additional assets.

As at March 31, 2016, total debt and liabilities were $25.1 billion, with total debt of $24.3 billion. These figures compare to total debt and liabilities of $26.3 billion, with total debt of $25.3 billion, as at March 31, 2015.

The unfunded liability was $4.4 billion as at March 31, 2016, a decrease of $3.7 billion from March 31, 2015. This is the twelfth consecutive annual decline in the unfunded liability and $15 billion below the $19.4 billion level as at April 1, 1999.

Debt Repayment Plan

OEFC services and retires the debt and other liabilities of the former Ontario Hydro from the following revenue and cash flow sources in the electricity sector:

- Outstanding notes receivable from the Province, OPG and IESO
- PIL of corporate income and property taxes, and Gross Revenue Charges made by OPG, Hydro One and municipal electric utilities
- Subsequent to ~~it~~the Hydro One ~~s~~ IPO, Hydro One no longer pays PIL of corporate income tax to OEFC. Under the Electricity Act, 1998, provincial corporate taxes payable by Hydro One Inc. are due and payable by the Province to OEFC
- DRC paid by electricity consumers
- Electricity sector dedicated income - the Province's combined cumulative net income from OPG and Hydro One in excess of the Province's interest cost of its investment in these subsidiaries

The Debt Retirement Charge, Stranded Debt and Residual Stranded Debt

As originally enacted, the Electricity Act, 1998, allowed for the DRC to be paid by consumers until the retirement of the residual stranded debt.

The estimated retirement of residual stranded debt was subject to uncertainty in forecasting future OEFC results and dedicated revenues to OEFC, which depended on the financial performance of OPG, Hydro One, and municipal electric utilities, as well as other factors such as interest rates and electricity consumption.

As included in the 2014 Budget, the government has removed the DRC cost from residential electricity users' electricity bills as of January 1, 2016. The residential rate class accounts for about a third of electricity load subject to the DRC. The government introduced legislation, passed on December 10, 2015, the Budget Measures Act, 2015 to legislate a fixed end-date for the DRC of April 1, 2018, for commercial, industrial and all other users.

With a fixed legislative end-date to the DRC, the Electricity Act, 1998 was also amended by the Budget Measures Act, 2015, to repeal all reference to the "stranded debt" and "residual stranded debt." This included the removal of the requirement to determine the residual stranded debt from time-to-time and the regulation-making authority for O. Reg. 89/12 – rendering the regulation obsolete. On February 11, 2016, the government filed Ontario Regulation 20/16 revoking Ontario Regulation 89/12.

Following the end of the DRC, OEFC will continue to receive other dedicated revenues, such as PILs, the amount equal to Hydro One Inc.'s provincial corporate income taxes, and the gross revenue charge paid to the OEFC to help service and pay down its unfunded liability.

Impact of Broadening Hydro One Ownership

In November 2015, the Province moved forward with the Hydro One Initial Public Offering (IPO), as well as certain other share sales. This initiative had a number of significant impacts on OEFC's financial results for the year ended March 31, 2016.

- In November 2015, Hydro One Inc. and certain subsidiaries paid a departure tax of $2.6 billion to OEFC as a consequence of leaving the PIL of corporate income tax regime. Hydro One also paid a one-time additional PIL of tax payment of $191 million associated with the transaction. These cash PILs payments did not have a direct net impact on OEFC's unfunded liability, as the departure tax and incremental PILs amount, as expenses to Hydro One, reduce Hydro One net income, and in consequence, reduce the Province's Electricity Sector Dedicated Income transfer to OEFC in respect of Hydro One net income.
- Subsequent to the IPO, Hydro One is no longer subject to PIL of corporate income tax payments to OEFC, but as per an amendment to the Electricity Act, 1998, passed as part of the Budget Measures Act, 2015, Provincial corporate income taxes payable by Hydro One Inc. will be due and payable by the Province to OEFC.
- The Province used the cash it received from a pre-IPO special dividend payment from Hydro One of $800 million to pay down the Province's payables to OEFC. This did not affect OEFC's unfunded liability.
- As per section 50.3 of the Electricity Act, 1998, OEFC recognized a financial benefit from the Province of $172 million in connection with the disposition of Hydro One shares in the year ended March 31, 2016.

With broadened Hydro One ownership, the Province has a reduced ownership interest in Hydro One. This reduced ownership interest results in a reduced share of Hydro One net income. The 2015–16 ESDI has reflected the Province's share of Hydro One net income, including the impacts on the Province of a deferred tax benefit recorded by Hydro One, as well as the departure tax and additional PILs paid by Hydro One Inc.

The Province has also stated that proceeds related to the book value of the shares sold will be used to pay down the Province's electricity sector debt and other payables to OEFC.

Risk Management

OEFC's risk management policies and procedures are designed to manage risk exposures associated with the Corporation's debt, derivatives and related capital market transactions.

Foreign exchange and net interest rate resetting exposures remained within policy limits in 2015–16.

- Foreign exchange exposure remained effectively at 0.0 per cent of outstanding debt as at March 31, 2016. The foreign exchange exposure limit for OEFC is 5.0 per cent.

- Net interest rate resetting exposure was 7.6 per cent of outstanding debt as at March 31, 2016, within the limit of 35.0 per cent.

Other Responsibilities

Management of Power Supply Contracts

Efficiencies were achieved in managing the existing power purchase agreements with the NUGs in 2015–16. Purchase costs were lower by $11.7 million, compared to being lower by $7.4 million in 2014–15, through curtailments.

Previously, the Corporation purchased power from the NUGs under contractual terms, and sold the power at market prices lower than cost. However, as at January 1, 2005, the Corporation began to receive actual contract prices for power from ratepayers, eliminating losses on power purchase contracts. At that time, the Ministry of Finance estimated most of the liability would be eliminated over 12 years as existing contracts expire. The liability for power purchase agreements was valued at $0.3 billion as at March 31, 2016, compared to $0.5 billion as at March 31, 2015.

Supporting New Electricity Supply Projects

Beginning in 2005, the Corporation began to provide financing on commercial terms to OPG for new electricity supply projects.

For instance, OEFC provided financing under a loan agreement with OPG for the Niagara Tunnel Project, which came into service in March 2013, increasing the water available for electricity generation at the Sir Adam Beck hydro complex in Niagara Falls.

Other completed OPG supply projects financed by OEFC are the Portlands Energy Centre and Lac Seul hydroelectric project.

Supporting the Implementation of the Government's Electricity Policies

OEFC is also supporting the Independent Electricity System Operator's (IESO) electricity demand management program and the Industrial Electricity Incentive (IEI) program. OEFC will support the IEI by providing payments to the IESO that will serve to offset the cost of the DRC portion of the electricity bill paid to OEFC on IEI-eligible incremental consumption by IEI participants. This program is designed to be cost-neutral for OEFC. Note that the contract was originally between the former Ontario Power Authority (OPA) and the OEFC, and, subsequent, to the January 1, 2015, merger of the IESO and the OPA into a new entity, also called the IESO, the contract is now between the IESO and OEFC.

2016–17 Outlook

OEFC will focus on the following:

Managing debt and other liabilities cost-effectively

The OFA will continue to manage OEFC's debt and other liabilities in a cost-effective manner.

Managing financial risk within approved policy limits

The debt portfolio will be managed within exposure limits approved by OEFC's Board of Directors (the Board) for 2016–17.

Administering NUG contracts

The Corporation will continue to minimize costs to ratepayers through effective administration of the NUG contracts.

Providing financing as required to the Ontario Hydro successor corporations

The Corporation will facilitate the cash flow requirements of the Ontario Hydro successor corporations as required.

Supporting the implementation of the government's electricity industry policies and analyzing and monitoring the impact on the Corporation

The Corporation will continue to support the government's electricity initiatives as requested, and will monitor and analyze their impact on the Corporation.

Financial Statements

Responsibility for Financial Reporting

The accompanying financial statements of OEFC have been prepared in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards and are management's responsibility. The preparation of financial statements necessarily involves the use of estimates based on management's judgment, particularly when transactions affecting the current accounting period cannot be finalized with certainty until future periods. The financial statements have been properly prepared within reasonable limits of materiality and in light of information available up to September 14, 2016.

Management maintains a system of internal controls designed to provide reasonable assurance that the assets are safeguarded and that reliable financial information is available on a timely basis. The system includes formal policies and procedures and an organizational structure that provides for appropriate delegation of authority and segregation of responsibilities. The Ontario Internal Audit Division of the Treasury Board Secretariat independently evaluates the effectiveness of these internal controls on an ongoing basis and reports its findings to management and the Audit Committee of the Board.

The Board is responsible for ensuring management fulfills its responsibilities for financial reporting and internal controls. The Audit Committee assists the Board in carrying out these responsibilities. The Audit Committee periodically meets with management, the internal auditors and the external auditors to deal with issues raised by them, and to review the financial statements before recommending Board approval.

The financial statements have been audited by the Auditor General of Ontario (the Auditor). The Auditor's responsibility is to express an opinion on whether OEFC's financial statements fairly present OEFC's financial position in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards. The Auditor's Report, which appears on the following page, outlines the scope of the Auditor's examination and ~~his~~ opinion.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Ontario Electricity Financial Corporation and the Minister of Finance

I have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Ontario Electricity Financial Corporation, which comprise the statement of financial position as at March 31, 2015~~5~~6, and the statements of operations and cash flow for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit. I conducted my audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that I comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion.

Opinion

In my opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Ontario Electricity Financial Corporation as at March 31, 2015~~5~~6, and the results of its operations, and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards.

Notes to Financial Statements

1) Nature of Operations

Effective April 1, 1999, pursuant to the Electricity Act, 1998 (the Act), Ontario Hydro was continued as a corporation without share capital under the name "Ontario Electricity Financial Corporation" (OEFC or Corporation). The Corporation is one of five entities established by the Act as part of the restructuring of the former Ontario Hydro. It is exempt from federal and provincial income taxes under paragraph 149(1)(d) of the Income Tax Act (Canada).

OEFC is a Crown agency whose ~~objectives~~ mandate includes:

- managing the debt and administering the assets, liabilities, rights and obligations of Ontario Hydro not transferred to other successor entities and managing the former Ontario Hydro's non-utility generator (NUG) contracts;
- providing financial assistance to the successor corporations of Ontario Hydro; and
- entering into financial and other agreements relating to the supply and demand management of electricity in Ontario~~;~~.

These other successor entities are:

- Ontario Power Generation (OPG), an electricity generation company;
- Hydro One, a regulated electricity transmission and distribution company;
- Independent Electricity System Operator (IESO), the regulated, independent system operator responsible for directing system operations, operating the electricity market, planning for and securing resources to meet medium and long-term energy needs, and coordinating conservation efforts; and
- Electrical Safety Authority (ESA), which performs a regulatory function related to electrical inspections.

On April 1, 1999, the Ministry of Finance determined that the estimated value of the assets being transferred to the new entities was $17.2 billion, which was exceeded by the former Ontario Hydro's total debt and other liabilities of~~stood at~~ $38.1 billion~~, which exceeded the estimated $17.2 billion market value of the assets being transferred to the new entities~~. ~~–~~OPG, Hydro One (and their subsidiaries) and the IESO were transferred assets valued at $8.5 billion, $8.6 billion and $78 million respectively in exchange for debt payable to OEFC. ~~–~~The resulting shortfall of $20.9 billion was determined by the Ministry of Finance to be "stranded debt." After adjusting for $1.5 billion in loans and other assets retained by OEFC, ~~–~~$19.4 billion was ~~(after adjusting for $1.5 billion in loans and other assets) was determined to be~~ the unfunded liability ~~or "stranded debt" and was~~ reflected on the OEFC opening balance sheet.

To allow OEFC to service and retire $38.1 billion in total debt including the $20.9~~19.4~~ billion in stranded debt, the Province established a long-term plan where debt service and repayment would be through dedicated revenues from electricity-sector companies. This would be broken down for the electricity sector as follows:

- Notes receivable from the Province, OPG, Hydro One and IESO;

- Payments ~~o~~in lieu of ta~~k~~xes (PILs), which are equivalent to the corporate income, property and capital taxes paid by private corporations;
- Debt retirement charge (DRC) paid by electricity consumers; and
- The cumulative combined profits of OPG and Hydro One in excess of the government's $520 million annual interest cost of its investments in the two companies.

As of April 1, 1999, the present value of ~~-~~the PIL~~'~~s and the cumulative combined profits of OPG and Hydro One in excess of the government's $520 million annual interest cost of its investments in the two companies was estimated at $13.1 billion. As a result, subtracting the $13.1 billion from the stranded debt of $20.9 billion resulted in an initial estimate of $7.8 billion, for the residual stranded debt.

The Act provided for the~~a new Debt Retirement Charge (~~DRC~~)~~ to be paid by electricity consumers until the residual stranded debt was retired. The 2014 Budget announced that the government would remove the DRC from residential users' electricity bills as of January 1, 2016. At March 31, 2014, the r~~R~~esidual ~~S~~stranded d~~D~~ebt was $2.6 billion. In addition, the 2015 Fall Economic Statement announced the proposed removal of the DRC for all commercial, industrial and all other electricity consumers as of April 1, 2018. Pursuant to this~~ese~~ announcement~~s~~, the Electricity Act, 1998 was ~~also~~ amended by the Budget Measures Act, 2015 and all reference to the "stranded debt" and "residual stranded debt" were removed. This also included the removal of the requirement to determine the residual stranded debt from time-to-time and the regulation-making authority for O. Reg. 89/12 – rendering the regulation obsolete.

2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

As OEFC is a government organization, these financial statements are prepared in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards.

Net Debt Presentation

A statement of changes in net debt is not presented since this information is readily apparent. Due to the unique nature of the corporation, no budget figures have been provided.

Measurement Uncertainty

Uncertainty in the determination of the amount at which an item is recognized in the financial statements is known as measurement uncertainty. Such uncertainty exists when it is reasonably possible there could be a material variance between the recognized amount and another reasonably possible amount, as there is whenever estimates are used. Measurement uncertainty in these financial statements exists in the valuation of the power purchase contracts and payments-in-lieu of tax revenue, payments-in-lieu of tax receivable and tax refundable. Estimates are based on the best information available at the time of preparation of the financial statements.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on deposit and highly liquid investments recorded at cost and mature within one year.

Revenue Recognition

The main sources of revenue are:

- Debt retirement charge (DRC) from ratepayers is recognized based on the consumption of electricity.
- Payments-in-lieu of taxes (PILs) are recognized in the period that they are earned from OPG, Hydro One (pre-IPO) and municipal electric utilities.
- Power supply contract recoveries are recovered at the same amount as the costs incurred on the Power supply contracts.
- Electricity sector dedicated income is ~~recognized,~~ allocated at the discretion of the Province of Ontario, using the cumulative combined net income of OPG and Hydro One (related to the Province's ownership) in excess of the Province's interest costs of its investment.
- Provincial allocation related to the sale of Hydro One is recognized in accordance with section 50.3 of the Electricity Act, 1998 where OEFC receives a benefit as a result of the sales of Hydro One shares ~~through the IPO and subsequent share sales~~.

Financial Instruments

The corporation's financial assets and liabilities are accounted for as follows:

- Cash and cash equivalents is subject to an insignificant risk of change in value so carrying value approximates fair value.

- Accounts Receivable, Due from Province and Notes and Loans Receivable are recorded at cost.

- Debt is composed of short, medium and long-term bonds, notes and debentures. Debt denominated in foreign currencies that has been hedged is recorded at the Canadian dollar equivalent using the rates of exchange established by the terms of the hedge agreements. Other foreign currency debt, liabilities and assets are translated to Canadian dollars at year-end rates of exchange and, in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards, any exchange gains or losses are deferred and amortized over the remaining term to maturity.

- Discounts, premiums and commissions arising from the issuance of debt or the acquisition of debt prior to maturity are deferred and amortized to operations over the life of the underlying debt. Unamortized debt issue costs are included in total debt.

- Derivatives are financial contracts the value of which is derived from underlying instruments. OEFC uses derivatives for the purpose of hedging and to minimize interest costs. Hedges are created primarily through swaps, which are legal arrangements under which OEFC agrees with another party to exchange cash flows based upon one or more notional amounts during a specified period. Other derivative instruments used by OEFC include forward foreign exchange contracts, forward rate agreements, futures and options. Derivatives are recognized at cost on the date on which derivatives are entered and are not subsequently re-measured at fair value at each reporting date.

Deferred Costs on Hedging
Fees and other costs from debt related derivatives are deferred and amortized to operations over the life of the underlying debt. Unamortized amounts are classified under non-financial assets.

Accounts payable and accrued Liabilities
Accounts payable relate to normal business transactions with third-party suppliers and are subject to standard commercial terms.

Power Purchase Contracts
The liability for power purchase contracts was originally calculated by discounting estimated losses over the life of the contracts. Under the Electricity Restructuring Act, 2004, OEFC began receiving actual contract prices for power from electricity consumers, effective January 1, 2005, and no longer incurs losses on these power purchase contracts. At that time, the Ministry of Finance estimated that the bulk of the liability would be eliminated over 12 years as existing electricity contracts expire. As a result, the bulk of the liability is being amortized to revenue over that period.

3) Going Concern

OEFC is dependent on the Province to borrow funds to finance maturing debt and to cover any cash shortfalls in the Corporation, and on OPG repaying its outstanding notes receivable. It is also dependent on the government's long-term plan to defease the unfunded liability as described in Note 12.

~~4)~~ Accounts Receivable

~~5)~~4) ~~Accounts receivable at March 31, 2016 is comprised of the following ($ millions):~~

As at March 31 ($ millions)	2016	2015
Debt retirement charge	$ 91	$ 137
Payments-in-lieu of tax	284	294
Power supply contract recoveries	83	89
Other receivables	8	7
Total	$ 466	$ 527

~~6)~~5) Due from the Province

In 1999, the Province put in place a policy commitment to allocate annually ~~allocate~~ the combined net income of OPG and Hydro One in excess of the Province's interest cost of its investment in its electricity subsidiaries to OEFC. Under these arrangements, the Province recoups all costs associated with its investments in electricity subsidiaries on a cumulative basis before any of the combined net income is allocated to and recognized by OEFC.

For the year ended March 31, 2016, for the purposes of Electricity Sector Dedicated Income, the Province's combined net income of OPG and Hydro One was $523 million which includes adjustments as a result of the Initial Public Offering (IPO) (2015 – $ 1,558 million). After deducting the Province's $520 million interest cost of its investment in these subsidiaries, the Province at its discretion allocated to OEFC electricity sector dedicated income of $3 million (2015 – $1,038 million).

Section 50.3 of the Electricity Act, 1998 governs the payments to be made to the Corporation in respect of the disposition of any securities of Hydro One. For fiscal 2015-16, OEFC recognized $172 million from the Province under section 50.3 in connection with the Hydro One share sales in November 2015IPO.

In addition, a new section of the Electricity Act, section 91.2, requiresauthorizes the Province to pay to the Corporation an amount equal to the amount of tax payable under the Taxation Act, 2007 by Hydro One Inc. (or subsidiaries). For fiscal 2015-16, OEFC has recognized $2.9 million under section 91.2 arising from the Hydro One IPO.

On February 19, 2016, the Province paid $800 million to OEFC which was applied to reduce OEFC's receivable related to cumulative electricity sector dedicated earnings.

7)6) Notes and Loans Receivable

($ millions)
	Maturity Date	Interest Rate	Interest Payable	March 31, 2016	March 31, 2015
The Province	2039–2041	5.85	Monthly	$ 8,885	$ 8,885

				12,440	12,670
Add: Loans receivable from NUGs				84	85
Total				$ 12,524	$ 12,755

OEFC has agreed with OPG and the IESO not to sell notes owing from these successor entities without their prior approval.

The Province

As previously noted above, at the time of restructuring the former Ontario Hydro, the Province received exchanged equity of $8.9 billion in OPG and Hydro One in exchange for assuming debt payable to OEFC. There has been no additional borrowing by the Province.

OPG

OEFC has agreed to provide OPG financing for new generation project development in the form of 10-year and 30-year notes on commercial terms and conditions.

Under the Niagara tunnel project agreement, the OEFC has ~~has~~ agreed to provide for up to $1.6 billion loan whereby $1.1 billion has been advanced with borrowing under the facility now complete.

~~Under the Lower Mattagami project~~T~~,~~ ~~t~~he OEFC has agreed to provide up to $700 million in support of OPG's investment for the Lower Mattagami project.~~,~~ A~~a~~s at March 31, 2016, there has been no borrowing under this credit facility agreement. The facility agreement is set to expire~~d~~ June 30, 2016. ~~with no drawdowns having taken place~~

~~Under the Darlington refurbishment project, t~~The OEFC has agreed to provide up to $800 million for general corporate purposes, including the Darlington refurbishment project, expiring on December 31, 2016. As at March 31, 2016, there has been no borrowing under this credit facility agreement.

Set out below is a summary by year of maturity of OPG's debt to OEFC ($ millions):

Fiscal Year	Amount
2016–17	$ 320
2017–18	1,125
2018–19	260
2019–20	505

2023–24	20
2040–41	150
2041–42	350
Total	$ 3,465

IESO

In April 2014, OEFC refinanced a note receivable with the IESO, originally maturing on April 30, 2014 for an additional 3 years. The refinancing increased the principal outstanding from $78.2 million as at March 31, 2014 to $90 million as at April 30, 2014.

In April 2014, OEFC also extended the expiry date of its revolving credit facility to the IESO to April 30, 2017, and decreased the credit facility from $110 million to $95 million. The credit facility bears interest at a floating rate equal to the Province's cost of borrowing for a 30 day term plus 50 basis points. The facility will be used for liquidity purposes and to temporarily fund working capital requirements. At March 31, 2016, IESO had no balance drawn on the credit facility.

NUGs

Loans receivable from NUGs at March 31, 2016 totalled $84 million (2015 – $85 million).

OEFC's interest income for 2016 of $723 million (2015 – $727 million) included interest from notes receivable of $701 million (2015 – $715 million) and $22 million (2015 – $12 million) from other sources including temporary investments.

~~8)~~7) Accounts Payable and Accrued Liabilities

~~Accounts Payable and accrued liabilities at March 31, 2016 is comprised of the following ($ millions):~~

The effective rate of interest on the debt portfolio was 5.14 per cent after considering the effect of derivative instruments used to manage interest rate risk (2015 – 5.17 per cent). The longest term to maturity is to December 2, 2046. Total foreign currency denominated debt at March 31, 2016 was $1.2 billion, 100 per cent of which was fully hedged to Canadian funds (2015 – $1.3 billion or 100 per cent). Bonds and notes payable are either held, or guaranteed as to principal and interest, by the Province as set out below:

	March 31, 2016			March 31, 2015
($ millions)	Held by the Province	Guaranteed by the Province	Total	Held by the Province	Guaranteed by the Province	Total

Total	$ 18,035	$ 6,310	$ 24,345	$ 19,010	$ 6,310	$ 25,320

Fair value of debt issued approximates amounts at which debt instruments could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties. In valuing OEFC's debt, fair value is estimated using discounted cash flows and other valuation techniques and is compared to public market quotations where available. These estimates are affected by the assumptions made concerning discount rates and the amount and timing of future cash flows.

The estimated fair value of OEFC debt at March 31, 2016, was $29.3 billion (2015 – $31.1 billion). This is higher than the book value of $24.3 billion (2015 – $25.3 billion) because current interest rates are generally lower than the interest rates at which the debt was issued and because of exchange rate movements. The fair value of debt does not reflect the effect of related derivative contracts.

~~10)~~9) Risk Management and Derivative Financial Instruments

OEFC operates within strict risk exposure limits to ensure exposure to risk is managed in a prudent and cost-effective manner. A variety of strategies are used including the use of derivative financial instruments ("derivatives"). Derivatives are financial contracts, the value of which is derived from underlying instruments. OEFC uses derivatives for the purpose of hedging and to minimize interest costs. Hedges are created primarily through swaps, which are legal arrangements under which OEFC agrees with another party to exchange cash flows based upon one or more notional amounts during a specified period. This allows OEFC to offset its existing obligations and thereby effectively convert them into obligations with more desirable characteristics. Other derivative instruments used by OEFC include forward foreign exchange contracts, forward rate agreements, futures and options.

Foreign exchange / currency risk

Foreign exchange or currency risk is the risk foreign currency debt principal and interest payments and foreign currency transactions will vary in Canadian dollar terms due to fluctuations in foreign exchange rates. To manage currency risk, derivative contracts are used to convert foreign currency cash flows into Canadian dollar denominated cash flows. The current policy allows unhedged foreign currency debt principal, net of foreign currency holding, to reach a maximum of 5.0 per cent of total debt. At March 31, 2016, the actual unhedged level was 0.0 per cent of total debt (2015 – 0.0 per cent).

Net Interest Rate Resetting Risk

Net interest rate resetting risk is the exposure to changes in interest rates. Exposure to rate changes is reduced by entering into derivative contracts that convert floating interest payments to fixed interest payments. The current policy allows unhedged floating rate debt and fixed rate debt maturing within the next 12 months, net of liquid reserves, to reach a maximum of 35.0 per cent of total debt.

At March 31, 2016, net interest rate resetting risk as a percentage of total debt was 7.6 per cent (2015 – 19.6 per cent).

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk OEFC will not be able to meet its current short-term financial obligations. As explained in Note 3, OEFC is dependent on the Province to borrow funds to finance maturing debt and to cover any cash shortfalls in the Corporation, and on OPG repaying its outstanding notes receivable.

The table below presents a maturity schedule of OEFC's derivatives, by type, outstanding at March 31, 2016, based on the notional amounts of the contracts. Notional amounts represent the volume of outstanding derivative contracts and are not indicative of credit risk, market risk or actual cash flows.

Derivative Portfolio Notional Value

As at March 31, 2016 ($ millions)

Maturity in years						6–10	Over 10
Fiscal year	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	Years	Years	Total	March 2015
Cross-currency swaps	$ 763	$ 665	$ 203	$ –	$ –	$ –	$ –	$ 1,631	$ 1,701

Interest rate swaps	1,123	623	706	–	–	100	653	3,205	3,421
Forward foreign exchange contracts	498	–	–	–	–	–	–	498	530
Total	$ 2,384	$ 1,288	$ 909	$ –	$ –	$ 100	$ 653	$ 5,334	$ 5,652

Credit Risk

The use of derivatives introduces credit risk, which is the risk of a counterparty defaulting on contractual derivative obligations in which OEFC has an unrealized gain. The table below presents the credit risk associated with the derivative financial instrument portfolio, measured through the replacement value of derivative contracts, at March 31, 2016.

Credit Risk Exposure ($ millions)	March 31, 2016	March 31, 2015
Gross credit risk exposure	$ 263	$ 248
Less: Netting	(218)	(202)
Net credit risk exposure	$ 45	$ 46

OEFC manages its credit risk exposure from derivatives by, among other ways, dealing only with high credit quality counterparties and regularly monitoring compliance to credit limits. In addition, OEFC enters into contractual agreements ("master agreements") that provide for termination netting and, if applicable, payment netting with most of its counterparties. Gross credit risk exposure represents the loss OEFC would incur if every counterparty to which OEFC had credit risk exposure were to default at the same time, and the contracted netting provisions were not exercised or could not be enforced. Net credit risk exposure is the loss including the mitigating impact of these netting provisions.

~~11)~~10) Power Supply Contracts

Power supply contracts include both power purchase contracts and power supply support agreements. Power purchase contracts and related loan agreements were entered into by the former Ontario Hydro with NUGs located in Ontario. As the legal continuation of the former Ontario Hydro, OEFC is the counterparty to these contracts. The contracts, expiring on various dates to 2048, provide for the purchase of power at prices in excess of future market price.

Accordingly, a liability was recorded at $4,286 million on a discounted cash-flow (DCF) basis when the former Ontario Hydro was continued as OEFC on April 1, 1999.

Under legislated reforms to the electricity market, OEFC began receiving actual contract prices for power from ratepayers effective January 1, 2005, and no longer incurs losses on these contracts going forward. At that time, the Ministry of Finance estimated the bulk of the liability to be eliminated over 12 years as existing electricity contracts expire. As a result, the Corporation is amortizing the bulk of the liability to revenue over that period. The table below presents the unamortized liability.

Statement of Liability for Power Purchase Contracts
As at March 31, 2016 ($ millions)

	2016	2015
Liability, beginning of year	$ 479	$ 696
Amortization	(172)	(217)
Liability, end of year	$ 307	$ 479

In addition, effective January 1, 2009, OEFC entered into a support contract, the Contingency Support Agreement (CSA), with OPG whereby OPG agreed to maintain the reliability and availability of Lambton and Nanticoke coal-fired stations following implementation of a greenhouse gas emissions-reduction strategy. Under the contract, OEFC agreed to ensure OPG would recover the actual costs of operating the stations after implementing this strategy. Any costs to OEFC under this agreement are fully recovered from ratepayers. As at December 31, 2013, OEFC triggered an early termination clause in the CSA to reflect the advanced closure of these plants by one year to the end of 2013. OPG is allowed to recover actual costs that cannot reasonably be avoided or mitigated, during the period from the early shut down date until December 31, 2014, consistent with the original end date of the CSA.

During the year ended March 31, 2016, OEFC's costs under power supply contracts totalled $875 million, including purchases of power from NUGs of $865 million (2015 – $902 million) and OPG support contract costs of $10 million (2015 – $48 million).

~~12)~~11) Industrial Electricity Incentive Program Costs

Consistent with its objects, OEFC is supporting the IESO's electricity demand management program, the Industrial Electricity Incentive (IEI) program. The IEI program assists with the management of electricity demand by encouraging increased industrial production through electricity-based price adjustments. Offered in three streams, qualified participants can receive reduced electricity rates for eligible incremental consumption over a specified term.

On March 31, 2014, OEFC entered into a legal agreement with the former OPA to support Stream 1 and Stream 2 of the IEI program, and amended on May 13, 2015, to accommodate the new Stream 3. Subsequent to the January 1, 2015 merger of the IESO and the OPA into a new entity, also called the IESO, the contract is now between the IESO and the OEFC. OEFC is providing payments to the IESO to offset the cost of the DRC portion of the electricity bill paid to OEFC on IEI-eligible incremental consumption by IEI participants. The agreement is currently set to be effective until December 31, 2024, when Stream 3 is set to end, with contracts subject to various termination clauses. The IESO has not executed any Stream 1 contracts.

The Budget Measure Act, 2015, passed on December 10, 2015 will remove the DRC as of April 1, 2018 for all commercial, industrial and all other electricity consumers. OEFC will no longer provide offsetting payments to the IESO on IEI-eligible incremental electricity consumed beginning April 1, 2018.

~~13)~~12) Unfunded Liability

Pursuant to the Act and consistent with the principles of electricity restructuring, the government has a long-term plan to defease the unfunded liability from the electricity sector.

The plan includes ~~allocation of~~ funds from the following sources:

Prior to the Hydro One IPO (see note 15), these funds included Notes Receivable, PILs, Gross Revenue Charges (GRC), DRC and ESDI.

Following the Hydro One IPO, these funds ~~will be allocated from~~include Notes Receivable, PILs, GRC, Provincial Corporate Income Taxes allocated to OEFC from taxes payable by Hydro One Inc. in accordance with The Budget Measures Act, 2015, DRC, ESDI and a financial benefit from the proceeds of the IPO and any future share sales in accordance with section 50.3 of the Electricity Act, 1998.

~~14)~~13) Contingencies and Guarantees

OEFC is involved in various legal actions arising out of the ordinary course and conduct of business. For some claims which relate to the former Ontario Hydro prior to the establishment of OEFC on April 1, 1999, OPG or Hydro One is required to indemnify OEFC for any liability arising from the claim. There are currently no such claims. For claims on which OEFC is provided no indemnification and where the outcome and ultimate disposition of these legal actions is not determinable at this time, the settlements, if any, will be reflected in the period in which settlement occurs.

Prior to October 31, 2015, subject to a $10 million deductible, OEFC agreed to indemnify Hydro One in respect of any adverse claim to title to any asset, right or thing transferred or intended to be transferred to the company at April 1, 1999, and any failure of the transfer order to transfer such assets, rights or things and with respect to payment to or from or other dealing with any equity account of Ontario Hydro, including certain related litigation. Effective October 31, 2015~~6~~, OEFC and Hydro One, with the consent of the Minister of Finance, terminated this indemnity. A similar indemnity provided to OPG was terminated as of May 31, 2006.

OEFC was contingently liable under guarantees given to third parties that had provided long-term financing to certain independent power producers in connection with the power purchase agreements described in Note 10. The final loan payments were made in February 2016 and therefore there were no guarantees outstanding at March 31, 2016 (2015 – $4 million).

Under a decision dated March 12, 2015 the Ontario Superior Court of Justice found that following the enactment of Ontario Regulation 398/10 under which the allocation of the Global Adjustment among electricity consumers was changed effective as of January 1, 2011, the Corporation had incorrectly calculated the price indices under certain power purchase agreements between the Corporation and the applicant non-utility generators (NUGs). OEFC appealed this decision to the Ontario Court of Appeal. On April 19, 2016, OEFC's appeal was dismissed. On June 20, 2016 OEFC applied to the Supreme Court of Canada for leave to appeal the decision of the Court of Appeal. The application is expected to be determined before the end of 2016. ~~In the event that the application for stay or the application for leave to appeal is not successful, pursuant to the March 12, 2015 decision of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice, the retroactive amounts that would be paid by the Corporation with respect to the applicant NUGs is estimated to be $170 million, fully charged to the Global Adjustment.~~ On September 13, 2016, the application for stay was denied by the Ontario Court of Appeal. As a result, the Corporation will pay $179 million in retroactive payments including interest to the applicant NUGs which is fully recoverable from IESO via the Global Adjustment and accordingly there is no financial impact on the financial statements. ~~Therefore, no amount has been provided in these financial statements.~~

~~15)~~14) Related Party Transactions

In the normal course of operations, OEFC has transactions with the following related parties:

a) Province of Ontario
b) Ontario Power Generation Inc.
c) Hydro One Inc. (for the period up to October 2015) and Hydro One Ltd. (post IPO)
d) Independent Electricity System Operator

The Corporation has entered into several~~-~~ agreements with the following entities:

Ontario Financing Authority

The Ontario Financing Authority (OFA), an agency of the Province responsible for borrowing and investing monies for the Province and other public bodies, provides day-to-day management services to OEFC on a cost-recovery basis of $3.7 million (2015 – $3.6 million).

Ministry of Finance (MOF)

MOF provides revenue collection and reporting services to OEFC on a cost-recovery basis amounted to $1.7 million (2015 – $1.9 million).

~~16)~~15) Broadening Hydro One Ownership

On April 16, 2015, the Province announced that it would proceed with an IPO of about 15 per cent of Hydro One in 2015–16, with subsequent share sales over time, totalling up~~equalling~~ to 60 per cent of its voting securities in Hydro One. Legislation was passed that restricts the Province from selling more than 60 per cent of the voting securities in Hydro One. The 2015 Budget bill, Building Ontario Up Act, 2015 included an amendment to the Electricity Act, 1998 to ensure that OEFC benefits from broadening ownership of Hydro One, thus contributing to the continuing reduction of its unfunded liability.

On November 5, 2015, the Province completed the first phase of its plan to broaden Hydro One ownership. It sold about 16 per cent of the Province's outstanding Hydro One common shares at a price of $20.50 per share, through an IPO and through related share sales to electricity sector union trusts.

On November 4, 2015, Hydro One paid a departure tax of $2.6 billion to OEFC as a consequence of leaving the PILs regime. Hydro One also paid a one-time additional PIL of tax payment of $191 million associated with the transaction.

As a result of the Hydro One IPO, Hydro One and all its subsidiaries are subject to corporate income taxes (CIT). Under the amendments made to the Electricity Act, 1998 in the fall Budget Measures Act, 2015, the Minister of Finance must pay the OEFC an amount equal to provincial tax payable under the Taxation Act, 2007 by Hydro One Inc., to continue to help service and pay down the electricity sector stranded debt.

Proceeds related to the book value of the shares sold and the special dividend payment of $800 million paid by Hydro One to the Province will be used to pay down the Province's electricity sector debt and other payables. On February 19, 2016, the Province paid OEFC the $800 million which it had received as a special dividend~~to OEFC which was~~ applied to reduce OEFC's receivable related to cumulative electricity sector dedicated earnings (Due from the Province of Ontario).

In accordance with section 50.3 of the Electricity Act, 1998, OEFC recognized a financial benefit from the Province of $172 million in connection with the Province's disposition of Hydro One common shares in the year ended March 31, 2016.

The Province also initiated a secondary share offering of Hydro One shares on April 5, 2016 which upon completion reduced the Province's holdings of Hydro One to approximately 70 per cent.

~~17)~~16) Restatement of Comparative Figures

The Ministry of Finance has determined certain hydro-electric generating stations have incorrectly remitted Gross Revenue Charge payments to the Minister of Finance instead of OEFC. The error was attributable to the enactment of the Provincial Land Tax Act, 2006 by Bill 151 Budget Measures Act 2006 which repealed ss. 92.1(2.1) of the Electricity Act, 1998 effective January 1, 2009.

Misallocated payments from January 1, 2009 to March 31, 2016 total $99 million including $87 million relating to periods prior to fiscal 2016, thereby increasing OEFC's payments-in-lieu of tax and accounts receivable for fiscal 2015 as set out below:

	2015
($ millions)	Previously Stated	Change	Restated

Financial Position:
Accounts Receivable	$ 440	$ 87	$ 527
Opening Unfunded Liability	$ (9,781)	$ 75	$ (9,706)
Closing Unfunded Liability	$ (8,185)	$ 87	$ (8,098)
Statement of Operations:
Payments-in-lieu of tax revenue	$ 180	$ 12	$ 192
Excess of revenue over expense	$ 1,596	$ 12	$ 1,608

Corporate Governance

Overview

OEFC is an agent of the Crown and is classified by Management Board of Cabinet as a~~n operational enterprise~~ board-governed provincial agency.

Corporate governance at OEFC involves processes that permit the effective supervision and management of OEFC's activities by senior management, the Board, its Audit Committee, and the Minister of Finance. It includes identifying individuals and groups responsible for the Corporation's activities and specifying their roles.

Accountability and Responsibilities

OEFC's accountability structure flows from its governing statute, the Act. The Act together with policies issued by Management Board of Cabinet and the Minister of Finance form a framework under which OEFC is governed.

Each year, the Minister of Finance is required to submit OEFC's Annual Report to the Lieutenant Governor in Council and then table the Annual Report in the Legislature. In addition, the Minister of Finance reviews and approves OEFC's annual business plan. The Minister also maintains communications with OEFC, through its Chair, regarding government policies and issues relevant to OEFC.

The Chair is accountable to the Minister of Finance for the performance of OEFC in fulfilling its mandate. The current Chair is also the Deputy Minister of Finance. The Chair is responsible for providing advice and information to the Minister of Finance with regard to the operation and affairs of OEFC. In addition, the Chair provides leadership to OEFC. As Deputy Minister of Finance, the Chair ensures organizational capacity in the Ministry to monitor OEFC and ensures that it manages its risks appropriately.

The Board is appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council on the recommendation of the Minister of Finance and is accountable to the Minister through the Chair. The Board performs a supervisory role, overseeing the management of the business and affairs of OEFC to ensure OEFC's mandate, as determined by the Province, is fulfilled. The Board is largely comprised of public servants employed by the Crown. The Board meets at least quarterly and receives regular reports from the CEO and OFA staff concerning the operations of OEFC and its compliance with applicable laws and policies. Standards of conduct for Board members are set out in a Board-approved Code of Conduct.

The Audit Committee of the Board approves an annual internal audit plan and liaises with OEFC's internal auditors and the Auditor General of Ontario regarding financial reporting and internal controls. It also reviews financial policies and financial statements and recommends them to the Board. Another function of the Audit Committee is the review of the Corporation's major risks and mitigation strategies.

The CEO is appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council on the recommendation of the Minister of Finance. The CEO works under the direction of the Chair and the Board to implement policies and operational decisions, and reports the agency's performance to the Board through the Chair. The CEO is responsible for managing the day-to-day operations and ongoing activities of OEFC in accordance with government policies.

The Corporation does not have employees, although some OFA employees are designated as officers for executing agreements and other instruments on the Corporation's behalf. The OFA carries out the Corporation's day-to-day operations under the supervision of the Board and pursuant to a Services Agreement between the OFA and OEFC. In addition, the Ministry of Finance collects certain payments on behalf of OEFC.

Financial Reporting

OEFC prepares annual financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards. The financial statements are reviewed and recommended by the Audit Committee and approved by the Board. The annual financial statements are audited by the Auditor General who expresses an opinion on whether they present the financial results fairly in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards. The financial statements and the audit report are reviewed by the Audit Committee and the Board. These audited financial statements are tabled in the Ontario Legislature as part of the Annual Report and are included as a schedule to the Public Accounts of the Province. Unaudited financial statements are prepared quarterly and presented to the Audit Committee and the Board.

Internal Controls

Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal controls to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and to safeguard OEFC's assets and manage its liabilities.

In meeting its responsibility for the reliability and timeliness of financial information, OEFC, directly and through the OFA, uses a comprehensive system of internal controls, including organizational and procedural controls. The system of internal controls includes:

- comprehensive business planning
- written communication of policies and procedures governing corporate conduct and risk management
- segregation of duties
- maintenance and retention of detailed records
- responsible delegation of authority and personal accountability
- careful selection and training of personnel
- regularly updated accounting and financial risk policies.

As part of its annual business plan, OEFC conducts a risk assessment of corporate-wide risks and develops appropriate mitigation strategies.

The Ontario Internal Audit Division of the Ministry of Finance develops an annual internal audit plan based on input from the OEFC Audit Committee and OFA Management. The internal audit plan is approved by the OEFC Audit Committee. The Internal Audit Division reports to the OEFC Audit Committee on the results of their audit work in OEFC.

Risk Management Policies and Procedures

Overview

The Corporation's risk management policies and procedures provide for the management of risk exposures created by capital market activities. Current policies and procedures address market, credit and operational risk exposures as they pertain to debt and derivatives portfolios and capital markets transactions.

These policies were developed following the guidelines and directives of regulatory bodies, such as the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions of Canada and the Bank for International Settlements and by consulting with Canadian bank representatives on their risk management practices.

The Board and Management committees establish and approve risk management policies and monitor the performance of the OFA's capital market activities related to OEFC.

Market Risk Policy

Market risk is the risk of financial loss attributable to changes in interest rates and foreign exchange rates. This policy provides a framework for borrowing activities and integrates several aspects dealing with the management of market risk. The policy includes several limits:

- Foreign Exchange Limit – unhedged foreign currency exposure is limited to 5.0 per cent of outstanding debt. Unhedged foreign exchange exposures are limited to Group of Seven currencies and the Swiss franc.
- Net Interest Rate Resetting Limit – the interest rate resetting exposure, net of liquid reserves, is limited to a maximum of 35.0 per cent of outstanding debt.
- Management Trigger Level – this is an aggregate loss trigger level covering both the Province and OEFC to prevent a potentially large loss resulting from capital market transactions.

Credit Risk Policy

Credit risk is the risk that a counterparty defaults on its financially contracted obligations. Credit risk arises when the OFA undertakes financial and derivative transactions on behalf of OEFC. The minimum credit rating of a new counterparty for swap transactions without collateral is AA- and R1-mid, A-1 or P-1 for money market investments. The resulting exposure to a financial counterparty is capped at mark-to-market limits depending on the counterparty's credit rating and capital base.

Policy on the Use of Derivatives and Financial Instruments

Use of derivatives and other financial instruments is restricted to those that the OFA can price and whose risk exposures can be measured by the OFA. Derivatives are used to manage exposures arising from the borrowing and debt management programs in a sound and efficient manner. Risks arising from the use of derivatives are monitored and managed prudently.

Operational Risk

Operational risk is the risk of loss resulting from inadequate or failed internal processes, people or systems, or external events. The OFA manages operational risk relating to OEFC through reviews and improvements of work processes, documented policies and procedures, data processing systems, contingency plans and staff training.

The OFA maintains a Business Continuity Plan (which covers OEFC's operations), which is regularly updated to facilitate the continuation of essential operational functions with minimal disruption in the event of an emergency.

Policy on Risk Management Reporting

At its regular quarterly meetings, the Board is kept informed of the Corporation's activities:

- The CEO of OEFC provides the Board with a progress report on its borrowing activities and other operational matters. The CEO also reports on compliance with applicable government directives.
