Attribution sans effet

(5) S'il est raisonnable de considérer qu'un montant qu'une fiducie de fonds commun de placement détermine — soit en application de l'alinéa (1)a) ou b) pour son année d'imposition au titre d'une unité dont est propriétaire à un moment de l'année un contribuable exonéré de l'impôt prévu à la présente partie par application du paragraphe 149(1), soit en application de l'alinéa (1)d) pour l'année, en ce qui concerne le montant attribué pour l'année en application du paragraphe (1) au titre de l'unité, — diffère du montant que la fiducie déterminerait ainsi pour l'année si le contribuable n'était pas exonéré, le montant attribué par la fiducie pour l'année en application du paragraphe (1) au titre de l'unité est sans effet pour l'application de l'alinéa (1)c).

(a) the particular amount shall be added in computing its income for the particular year; and

(b) for the purposes of subsections 104(6) and (13), each portion of the particular amount that is allocated under this paragraph to a beneficiary under the trust in the trust's return of income for the particular year in respect of an amount paid or payable to the beneficiary in the particular year shall be considered to be additional income of the trust for the particular year (determined without reference to subsection 104(6)) that was paid or payable, as the case may be, to the beneficiary at the end of the particular year.

(c) [Repealed, 2001, c. 17, s. 130(4)]

b) pour l'application des paragraphes 104(6) et (13), chaque partie du montant donné qui est attribuée en application du présent alinéa à un bénéficiaire de la fiducie dans la déclaration de revenu de celle-ci pour l'année donnée au titre d'un montant payé ou payable au bénéficiaire au cours de cette année est considéré comme un revenu supplémentaire de la fiducie pour l'année donnée (déterminé compte non tenu du paragraphe 104(6)) qui a été payé ou était payable, selon le cas, au bénéficiaire à la fin de l'année donnée;

Anti-avoidance

(8) Subsection (7) does not apply in computing the income of a trust for a taxation year where it is reasonable to consider that the designation under subsection (6) for the preceding taxation year was part of a series of transactions or events that includes a change in the composition of beneficiaries under the trust.

Anti-évitement

(8) Le paragraphe (7) ne s'applique pas au calcul du revenu d'une fiducie pour une année d'imposition s'il est raisonnable de considérer que l'attribution effectuée en application du paragraphe (6) pour l'année d'imposition précédente fait partie d'une série d'opérations ou d'événements qui comporte un changement dans la composition des bénéficiaires de la fiducie.

(b) the amount, if any, paid to obtain the right to reduce the particular amount.

Anti-avoidance

(6) If a taxpayer, or another taxpayer that does not deal at arm's length with the taxpayer, has a right to reduce an amount in respect of an expenditure of the taxpayer in a taxation year that is after the taxation year in which the expenditure otherwise occurred, determined without reference to subsection (3), the taxpayer is deemed to have the right to reduce in the taxation year in which that expenditure otherwise occurred if it is reasonable to conclude having regard to all the circumstances that one of the purposes for having the right to reduce after the end of the year in which the expenditure otherwise occurred was to avoid the application of subsection (2) to the amount of the expenditure.

produite, le contribuable, ou un autre contribuable avec lequel il a un lien de dépendance, a le droit de réduire une somme relative à la dépense (appelée « dépense antérieure » au présent paragraphe et au paragraphe (5)) qui, si le contribuable ou l'autre contribuable avait eu ce droit au cours d'une année d'imposition donnée ayant pris fin avant ce moment, aurait fait en sorte que le paragraphe (2) s'applique au cours de cette année de façon à réduire ou à éliminer le montant de la dépense antérieure, le montant éventuel subséquent du contribuable relativement à cette dépense, déterminé selon le paragraphe (5), est réputé, dans la mesure où le paragraphe (2) et le présent paragraphe ne se sont pas déjà appliqués relativement à la dépense :

a) d'une part, être une somme qu'il a reçue à ce moment pendant qu'il tirait un revenu d'une entreprise ou d'un bien d'une personne visée au sous-alinéa 12(1)x)(i);

b) d'autre part, être une somme visée au sous-alinéa 12(1)x)(iv).

Montant éventuel subséquent

(5) Pour l'application du paragraphe (4), le montant éventuel subséquent d'un contribuable relativement à une dépense antérieure de celui-ci correspond à l'excédent du montant visé à l'alinéa a) sur la somme visée à l'alinéa b) :

a) le montant maximal qui, en raison d'un droit de réduire une somme relative à la dépense antérieure, peut être appliqué en réduction de cette somme;

b) la somme payée en vue d'obtenir le droit de réduire la somme relative à la dépense antérieure.

Anti-évitement

(6) Si un contribuable, ou un autre contribuable avec lequel il a un lien de dépendance, a le droit de réduire une somme relative à une dépense du contribuable au cours d'une année d'imposition qui est postérieure à celle au cours de laquelle la dépense s'est produite par ailleurs, déterminée compte non tenu du paragraphe (3), le contribuable est réputé avoir le droit de réduire la somme au cours de l'année d'imposition dans laquelle cette dépense s'est produite par ailleurs s'il est raisonnable de conclure, compte tenu des circonstances, que l'une des raisons pour lesquelles il avait le droit de réduire la somme après la fin de l'année dans laquelle la dépense s'est produite par ailleurs était de soustraire le montant de la dépense à l'application du paragraphe (2).

Assessments

(7) Notwithstanding subsections 152(4) to (5), such assessments, determinations and redeterminations may be made as are necessary to give effect to this section.

Déductibilité des cotisations patronales

(4) Les règles ci-après s'appliquent au calcul du revenu d'un employeur :

a) l'employeur peut déduire pour une année d'imposition la partie de ses cotisations versées à une fiducie de soins de santé au bénéfice d'employés au cours de l'année qu'il est raisonnable de considérer comme ayant été versée afin de permettre à la fiducie :

(i) soit de verser des primes, à une compagnie d'assurance autorisée à offrir de l'assurance par la législation fédérale ou provinciale, pour de l'assurance pour l'année ou pour une année antérieure relativement à des prestations désignées pour des bénéficiaires visés aux sous-alinéas (2)d)(i) ou (ii),

Calcul actuariel

(5) Pour l'application du paragraphe (4), si un rapport relatif aux obligations d'un employeur en matière de financement d'une fiducie de soins de santé au bénéfice d'employés a été établi par un actuaire indépendant, selon des principes et normes actuariels reconnus, avant le versement d'une cotisation par l'employeur, la partie de la cotisation qui, selon le rapport, représente la somme que la fiducie devra vraisemblablement payer ou engager au cours d'une année d'imposition afin d'assurer des prestations désignées aux bénéficiaires visés aux sous-alinéas (2)d)(i) ou (ii) pour une année d'imposition est présumée, sauf preuve contraire, avoir été versée afin que la fiducie soit en mesure d'assurer ces prestations pour l'année.

Multi-employer plans

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (4) and paragraph 18(9)(a), an employer may deduct in computing its income for a taxation year the amount that it is required to contribute for the year to an employee life and health trust if the following conditions are met at the time that the contribution is made:

(i) at no time in the year will more than 95% of the employees who are beneficiaries of the trust be employed by a single employer or by a related group of employers, and

(ii) at least 15 employers will contribute to the trust in respect of the year or at least 10% of the employees who are beneficiaries of the trust will be employed in the year by more than one participating employer and, for the purpose of this condition, all employers who are related to each other are deemed to be a single employer;

(b) employers contribute to the trust under a collective bargaining agreement and in accordance with a negotiated contribution formula that does not provide for any variation in contributions determined by reference to the financial experience of the trust; and

(c) contributions that are to be made by each employer are determined, in whole or in part, by reference to the number of hours worked by individual employees of the employer or some other measure that is specific to each employee with respect to whom contributions are made to the trust.

Maximum deductible

(7) The amount deducted in a taxation year by an employer in computing its income in respect of contributions made to an employee life and health trust shall not exceed the amount determined by the formula

A is the total of all amounts contributed by the employer to the trust in the year or in a preceding taxation year; and

B is the total of all amounts deducted by the employer in a preceding taxation year in respect of amounts contributed by the employer to the trust.

Régimes interentreprises

(6) Malgré le paragraphe (4) et l'alinéa 18(9)a), un employeur peut déduire dans le calcul de son revenu pour une année d'imposition la somme qu'il est tenu de verser pour l'année à une fiducie de soins de santé au bénéfice d'employés si les conditions ci-après sont réunies au moment du versement de la cotisation :

a) il est raisonnable de s'attendre à ce que :

(i) d'une part, le pourcentage des employés bénéficiaires de la fiducie qui sont employés par un seul employeur ou par un groupe lié d'employeurs ne dépasse 95 % à aucun moment de l'année,

(ii) d'autre part, au moins quinze employeurs cotisent à la fiducie pour l'année ou au moins 10 % des employés bénéficiaires de la fiducie soient employés au cours de l'année par plus d'un employeur participant et, pour l'application de la présente condition, les employeurs liés les uns aux autres sont réputés être un seul et même employeur;

b) les employeurs cotisent à la fiducie aux termes d'une convention collective et conformément à une formule déterminée par négociation qui ne prévoit pas de variation des cotisations en fonction des résultats financiers de la fiducie;

c) les cotisations à verser par chaque employeur sont déterminées en tout ou en partie en fonction du nombre d'heures travaillées par chacun de ses employés ou d'une autre mesure propre à chaque employé à l'égard duquel des cotisations sont versées à la fiducie.

Déduction maximale

(7) La somme qu'un employeur déduit au cours d'une année d'imposition dans le calcul de son revenu au titre de cotisations versées à une fiducie de soins de santé au bénéfice d'employés ne peut excéder la somme obtenue par la formule suivante :

A – B

où :

A représente le total des sommes qu'il a versées à la fiducie au cours de l'année ou d'une année d'imposition antérieure;

B le total des sommes qu'il a déduites au cours d'une année d'imposition antérieure au titre de sommes qu'il a versées à la fiducie.

Employer promissory note

(8) If an employer issues a promissory note or provides other evidence of its indebtedness to an employee life and health trust in respect of its obligation to the trust,

(a) the issuance of the note or the provision of the evidence of indebtedness to the trust is not a contribution to the trust; and

(b) a payment by the employer to the trust in full or partial satisfaction of its liability under the note or the evidence of indebtedness, whether stated to be of principal or interest or any other amount, is deemed to be an employer contribution to the trust that is subject to this section and not a payment of principal or interest on the note or indebtedness.

Billet à ordre d'employeur

(8) Si un employeur émet un billet à ordre en faveur d'une fiducie de soins de santé au bénéfice d'employés, ou fournit une autre preuve de son endettement envers elle, au titre de son obligation envers elle, les règles suivantes s'appliquent :

a) l'émission du billet ou la fourniture de la preuve d'endettement ne constitue pas une cotisation à la fiducie;

b) tout paiement effectué par l'employeur à la fiducie en règlement total ou partiel de son obligation constatée par le billet ou la preuve d'endettement, qu'il s'agisse d'un paiement de principal, d'intérêts ou d'une autre somme, est réputé être une cotisation patronale à la fiducie qui est assujettie au présent article et non un paiement de principal ou d'intérêts sur le billet ou la dette.

Trust status — subsequent times

(9) For the purposes of determining whether an amount is deductible by an employer under subsection (4), if a trust was an employee life and health trust at the time that a promissory note or other evidence of indebtedness referred to in subsection (8) was issued or provided, the trust is deemed to be an employee life and health trust at each time that an employer contribution is deemed to have been made under paragraph (8)(b) in respect of the note or other indebtedness.

Statut de la fiducie — moments subséquents

(9) Lorsqu'il s'agit d'établir si une somme est déductible par un employeur en application du paragraphe (4), la fiducie qui était une fiducie de soins de santé au bénéfice d'employés au moment où un billet à ordre ou une autre preuve d'endettement visé au paragraphe (8) a été émis ou fourni est réputée être une telle fiducie à tout moment où une cotisation patronale est réputée avoir été versée aux termes de l'alinéa (8)b) relativement au billet ou à l'autre preuve d'endettement.

Employee contributions

(10) For the purposes of paragraph 6(1)(f), subsection 6(4) and paragraph 118.2(2)(q), employee contributions to an employee life and health trust, to the extent that they are, and are identified by the trust at the time of contribution as, contributions in respect of a particular designated employee benefit, are deemed to be payments by the employee in respect of the particular designated employee benefit.

Cotisations salariales

(10) Pour l'application de l'alinéa 6(1)f), du paragraphe 6(4) et de l'alinéa 118.2(2)q), les cotisations qu'un employé verse à une fiducie de soins de santé au bénéfice d'employés, dans la mesure où elles se rapportent à une prestation désignée en particulier et sont reconnues comme telles par la fiducie au moment où elles sont versées, sont réputées être des paiements effectués par l'employé relativement à cette prestation.

Income inclusion

(11) If a trust that is, or was, at any time, an employee life and health trust pays an amount as a distribution from the trust to any person in a taxation year, the amount of the distribution shall be included in computing the person's income for the year, except to the extent that the amount is

(a) a payment of a designated employee benefit that is not included in the person's income because of section 6; or

Somme à inclure dans le revenu

(11) Si une fiducie qui est ou était une fiducie de soins de santé au bénéfice d'employés à un moment donné verse une somme à titre de distribution à une personne au cours d'une année d'imposition, le montant de la distribution est inclus dans le calcul du revenu de la personne pour l'année, sauf dans la mesure où il représente, selon le cas :

a) une prestation désignée qui n'est pas incluse dans le revenu de la personne par l'effet de l'article 6;

(b) a distribution to another employee life and health trust that is a beneficiary of the employee life and health trust.

Deemed separate trusts

(a) the trustee designates the property to be held in a separate trust for the benefit of those beneficiaries in an election made on or before the filing-due date of the first taxation year of the separate trust described in this subsection; and

(b) under the terms of the trust, contributions from the employer and the income derived from those contributions accrues solely for the benefit of those beneficiaries.

Fiducies réputées distinctes

Amount of spousal RRSP premiums deductible

(5.1) There may be deducted in computing a taxpayer's income for a taxation year such amount as the taxpayer claims not exceeding the lesser of

(a) the total of all amounts each of which is a premium paid by the taxpayer after 1990 and on or before the day that is 60 days after the end of the year under a registered retirement savings plan under which the taxpayer's spouse or common-law partner (or, where the taxpayer died in the year or within 60 days after the end of the year, an individual who was the taxpayer's spouse or common-law partner immediately before the death) was the annuitant at the time the premium was paid, other than the portion, if any, of the premium

(i) that was deducted in computing the taxpayer's income for a preceding taxation year,

(ii) that was designated for any taxation year for the purposes of paragraph 60(j.2),

(iii) in respect of which the taxpayer or the taxpayer's spouse or common-law partner has received a payment that has been deducted under subsection 146(8.2) in computing the taxpayer's income for a preceding taxation year, or

(iv) that would be considered to be withdrawn by the taxpayer's spouse or common-law partner as an eligible amount (as defined in subsection 146.01(1) or 146.02(1)) less than 90 days after it was paid, if earnings in respect of a registered retirement savings plan were considered to be withdrawn before premiums paid under that plan and premiums were considered to be withdrawn in the order in which they were paid, and

(b) the amount, if any, by which the taxpayer's RRSP deduction limit for the year exceeds the total of all amounts each of which is

(i) the amount deducted under subsection (5) in computing the taxpayer's income for the year, or

(ii) a contribution made by an employer in the year to a pooled registered pension plan in respect of the taxpayer.

Déduction des primes versées au REER du conjoint

(5.1) Un contribuable peut déduire dans le calcul de son revenu pour une année d'imposition le montant qu'il demande, à concurrence du moins élevé des montants suivants :

a) le total des montants représentant chacun une prime qu'il a versée après 1990 et au plus tard le soixantième jour suivant la fin de l'année à un régime enregistré d'épargne-retraite dont son époux ou conjoint de fait (ou, si le contribuable est décédé au cours de l'année ou dans les 60 jours suivant la fin de l'année, le particulier qui était son époux ou conjoint de fait immédiatement avant le décès) était rentier au moment du versement de la prime, à l'exception :

(i) de la fraction de la prime déduite dans le calcul de son revenu pour une année d'imposition antérieure,

(ii) de la fraction de la prime indiquée dans sa déclaration de revenu produite pour une année d'imposition donnée en application de l'alinéa 60j.2),

(iii) de la fraction de la prime au titre de laquelle le contribuable ou son époux ou conjoint de fait a reçu un paiement que le contribuable a déduit en application du paragraphe (8.2) dans le calcul de son revenu pour une année d'imposition antérieure;

(iv) de la fraction de la prime qui serait considérée comme retirée par son époux ou conjoint de fait à titre de montant admissible, au sens du paragraphe 146.01(1), moins de 90 jours après son versement si les gains relatifs à un régime enregistré d'épargne-retraite étaient considérés comme retirés avant les primes versées dans le cadre de ce régime et si les primes étaient considérées comme retirées suivant l'ordre dans lequel elles ont été versées;

b) l'excédent de son maximum déductible au titre des REER pour l'année sur le total des sommes représentant chacune :

(i) la somme déduite en application du paragraphe (5) pour l'année dans le calcul de son revenu,

(ii) une cotisation versée par un employeur au cours de l'année dans un régime de pension agréé collectif relativement au contribuable.

RRSP premium

(5.2) If a taxpayer's entitlement to benefits under a defined benefit provision of a registered pension plan is transferred in accordance with subsection 147.3(4) after February 2009 and before 2011, there may be deducted in computing the taxpayer's income for a taxation year that ends on or after the day on which the transfer was made, the amount claimed by the taxpayer in respect of premiums paid by the taxpayer in the year to a registered retirement savings plan under which the taxpayer is the annuitant, not exceeding the amount, if any, determined by the formula

where

A is the amount, if any, that is the lesser of

(a) the prescribed amount that would have been determined for the purpose of paragraph 147.3(4)(c) if subsection 8517(3.01) of the Regulations had applied in respect of the transfer, and

(b) the amount of the taxpayer's entitlement to benefits under the provision commuted in connection with the transfer;

B is the prescribed amount for the purpose of paragraph 147.3(4)(c) that applied in respect of the transfer; and

C is the total of all amounts deducted by the taxpayer under this subsection for a preceding taxation year.

Transitional rule

(5.201) For the purpose of subsection (5.2), a premium paid by a taxpayer before 2013 is deemed to have been paid in the taxation year in which the transfer referred to in that subsection was made and not in the year in which it was actually paid, if the taxpayer so elects in prescribed form.

Anti-avoidance

(5.21) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, where

(a) a registered pension plan is amended or administered in such a manner as to terminate, suspend or delay

(i) the membership of an individual in the plan for the individual's 1990 taxation year,

(ii) contributions under the plan by or for the benefit of the individual in respect of the year, or

Prime de REER

(5.2) Dans le cas où le droit d'un contribuable aux prestations prévues par une disposition à prestations déterminées d'un régime de pension agréé est transféré conformément au paragraphe 147.3(4) après février 2009 et avant 2011, est déductible dans le calcul du revenu du contribuable pour une année d'imposition se terminant à la date du transfert ou par la suite la somme qu'il demande au titre des primes qu'il a versées au cours de l'année à un régime enregistré d'épargne-retraite dont il est le rentier, jusqu'à concurrence de la somme obtenue par la formule suivante :

A – B – C

où :

A représente la moins élevée des sommes suivantes :

a) le montant prescrit qui aurait été déterminé pour l'application de l'alinéa 147.3(4)c) si le paragraphe 8517(3.01) du Règlement de l'impôt sur le revenu s'était appliqué relativement au transfert,

b) le montant correspondant au droit du contribuable aux prestations prévues par la disposition qui sont rachetées en vue du transfert;

B le montant prescrit pour l'application de l'alinéa 147.3(4)c) qui s'est appliqué relativement au transfert;

C le total des sommes déduites par le contribuable en application du présent paragraphe pour une année d'imposition antérieure.

Règle transitoire

(5.201) Pour l'application du paragraphe (5.2), toute prime versée par un contribuable avant 2013 est réputée avoir été versée au cours de l'année d'imposition où le transfert mentionné à ce paragraphe a été effectué et non au cours de l'année où elle a effectivement été versée, si le contribuable en fait le choix sur le formulaire prescrit.

Anti-évitement

(5.21) Malgré les autres dispositions du présent article, si, selon le cas :

a) un régime de pension agréé est modifié ou géré de façon à faire cesser, suspendre ou retarder :

(i) soit la participation d'un particulier au régime pour son année d'imposition 1990,

(ii) soit les cotisations versées aux termes du régime par le particulier ou à son profit pour l'année,

(iii) the accrual of retirement benefits under the plan for the individual in respect of the year, or

(b) a deferred profit sharing plan is amended or administered in such a manner as to terminate, suspend or delay contributions under the plan for the year in respect of an individual, and one of the main reasons for the termination, suspension or delay may reasonably be considered to be to reduce the pension adjustment of the individual for the year in respect of an employer, the only amount that may be deducted in computing the income for the year of the individual, in respect of premiums paid to registered retirement savings plans, is the amount that would have been deductible had that termination, suspension or delay not occurred.

(6) [Repealed, 2011, c. 24, s. 45]

Recontribution of certain withdrawals

(6.1) There may be deducted in computing a taxpayer's income for a particular taxation year the total of all amounts each of which is such portion of a prescribed premium for the particular year as was not designated for any taxation year for the purposes of paragraph 60(j), 60(j.1) or 60(l).

Recovery of property used as security

(7) Where in a taxation year a loan, for which a trust governed by a registered retirement savings plan has used or permitted to be used trust property as security, ceases to be extant, and the fair market value of the property so used was included by virtue of subsection 146(10) in computing the income of the taxpayer who is the annuitant under the plan, there may be deducted, in computing the income of the taxpayer for the taxation year, an amount equal to the amount, if any, remaining when

(a) the net loss (exclusive of payments by the trust as or on account of interest) sustained by the trust in consequence of its using the property, or permitting it to be used, as security for the loan and not as a result of a change in the fair market value of the property is deducted from

(b) the amount so included in computing the income of the taxpayer in consequence of the trust's using the property, or permitting it to be used, as security for the loan.

(iii) soit l'accumulation des prestations de retraite pour le compte du particulier aux termes du régime pour l'année;

b) un régime de participation différée aux bénéfices est modifié ou géré après le 8 octobre 1986 de façon à faire cesser, suspendre ou retarder les cotisations versées au titre d'un particulier pour l'année aux termes du régime, et s'il est raisonnable de considérer que l'un des principaux motifs de la cessation, de la suspension ou du retard consiste à réduire le facteur d'équivalence du particulier pour l'année quant à un employeur, seules les primes versées aux régimes enregistrés d'épargne-retraite pour l'année — qui auraient été déductibles sans la cessation, la suspension ou le retard — sont déductibles dans le calcul du revenu du particulier pour l'année.

(6) [Abrogé, 2011, ch. 24, art. 45]

Déduction de certains retraits

(6.1) Est déductible dans le calcul du revenu d'un contribuable pour une année d'imposition donnée le total des montants dont chacun représente la fraction d'une prime visée par règlement pour cette année qui n'a pas été indiquée par le contribuable, en application de l'alinéa 60j), j.1) ou l), dans sa déclaration de revenu produite pour une année d'imposition.

Recouvrement de biens utilisés comme garantie

(7) Lorsque, au cours d'une année d'imposition, un prêt pour lequel une fiducie régie par un régime enregistré d'épargne-retraite a utilisé ou a permis que soient utilisés des biens de la fiducie comme garantie cesse d'exister, et que la juste valeur marchande des biens ainsi utilisés a été incluse, en vertu du paragraphe (10), dans le calcul du revenu du contribuable qui est le rentier en vertu du régime, peut être déduite, dans le calcul du revenu du contribuable pour l'année d'imposition, la somme qui resterait après que :

a) la perte nette (à l'exclusion des paiements faits par la fiducie au titre des intérêts) subie par la fiducie par suite du fait qu'elle a utilisé ou a permis que soient utilisés ces biens comme garantie du prêt et non par suite du changement de la juste valeur marchande des biens, serait déduite :

b) du montant ainsi inclus dans le calcul du revenu du contribuable par suite du fait que la fiducie a utilisé ou a permis que soient utilisés les biens comme garantie du prêt.

Benefits taxable

(8) There shall be included in computing a taxpayer's income for a taxation year the total of all amounts received by the taxpayer in the year as benefits out of or under registered retirement savings plans, other than excluded withdrawals (as defined in subsection 146.01(1) or 146.02(1)) of the taxpayer and amounts that are included under paragraph (12)(b) in computing the taxpayer's income.

Subsequent re-calculation

(8.01) If a designated withdrawal (as defined in subsection 146.01(1)) or an amount referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition eligible amount in subsection 146.02(1) is received by a taxpayer in a taxation year and, at any time after that year, it is determined that the amount is not an excluded withdrawal (as defined in subsection 146.01(1) or 146.02(1)), notwithstanding subsections 152(4) to (5), such assessments of tax, interest and penalties shall be made as are necessary to give effect to the determination.

Deemed receipt of refund of premiums

(8.1) If a payment out of or under a registered retirement savings plan of a deceased annuitant to the annuitant's legal representative would have been a refund of premiums if it had been paid under the plan to an individual who is a beneficiary (as defined in subsection 108(1)) under the deceased's estate, the payment is, to the extent it is so designated jointly by the legal representative and the individual in prescribed form filed with the Minister, deemed to be received by the individual (and not by the legal representative) at the time it was so paid as a benefit that is a refund of premiums.

Amount deductible

(8.2) Where

(a) all or any portion of the premiums paid in a taxation year by a taxpayer to one or more registered retirement savings plans under which the taxpayer or the taxpayer's spouse or common-law partner was the annuitant was not deducted in computing the taxpayer's income for any taxation year,

(b) the taxpayer or the taxpayer's spouse or common-law partner can reasonably be regarded as having received a payment from a registered retirement savings plan or a registered retirement income fund in respect of such portion of the undeducted premiums as

Prestations imposables

(8) Est inclus dans le calcul du revenu d'un contribuable pour une année d'imposition le total des montants qu'il a reçus au cours de l'année à titre de prestations dans le cadre de régimes enregistrés d'épargne-retraite, à l'exception des retraits exclus au sens des paragraphes 146.01(1) ou 146.02(1), et des montants qui sont inclus, en application de l'alinéa (12)b), dans le calcul de son revenu.

Redressement

(8.01) Malgré les paragraphes 152(4) à (5), le ministre établit les cotisations voulues concernant l'impôt, les intérêts et les pénalités pour tenir compte du cas où un contribuable reçoit au cours d'une année d'imposition un retrait déterminé, au sens du paragraphe 146.01(1), ou un montant visé à l'alinéa a) de la définition de montant admissible au paragraphe 146.02(1), qui, après cette année, s'avère ne pas être un retrait exclu, au sens des paragraphes 146.01(1) ou 146.02(1).

Avantage reçu sous forme de remboursement de primes

(8.1) La somme versée dans le cadre d'un régime enregistré d'épargne-retraite d'un rentier décédé au représentant légal de ce dernier qui aurait été un remboursement de primes si elle avait été versée en vertu du régime à un particulier qui est bénéficiaire (au sens du paragraphe 108(1)) de la succession du rentier est réputée, dans la mesure où elle est désignée conjointement par le représentant légal et le particulier dans le formulaire prescrit présenté au ministre, être reçue par le particulier (et non par le représentant légal), au moment où elle a été ainsi versée, à titre de prestation qui est un remboursement de primes.

Montant déductible

(8.2) Dans le cas où, à la fois :

a) un contribuable n'a pas déduit dans le calcul de son revenu pour une année d'imposition tout ou partie des primes qu'il a versées au cours d'une année d'imposition à un ou plusieurs régimes enregistrés d'épargne-retraite dont lui-même ou son époux ou conjoint de fait sont rentiers;

b) il est raisonnable de considérer que le contribuable ou son époux ou conjoint de fait ont reçu un paiement d'un régime enregistré d'épargne-retraite ou d'un fonds enregistré de revenu de retraite au titre de la partie de ces primes non déduites dont le versement ne découle :

(i) was not paid by way of a transfer of an amount from a registered pension plan to a registered retirement savings plan,

(ii) was not paid by way of a transfer of an amount from a deferred profit sharing plan to a registered retirement savings plan in accordance with subsection 147(19), and

(iii) was not paid by way of a transfer of an amount to a registered retirement savings plan from

(A) a pooled registered pension plan in circumstances to which subsection 147.5(21) applied, or

(B) a specified pension plan in circumstances to which subsection (21) applied,

(c) the payment is received by the taxpayer or the taxpayer's spouse or common-law partner in a particular taxation year that is

(i) the year in which the premiums were paid by the taxpayer,

(ii) the year in which a notice of assessment for the taxation year referred to in subparagraph 146(8.2)(c)(i) was sent to the taxpayer, or

(iii) the year immediately following the year referred to in subparagraph 146(8.2)(c)(i) or 146(8.2)(c)(ii), and

(d) the payment is included in computing the taxpayer's income for the particular year, the payment (except to the extent that it is a prescribed withdrawal) may be deducted in computing the taxpayer's income for the particular year unless it is reasonable to consider that

(e) the taxpayer did not reasonably expect that the full amount of the premiums would be deductible in the taxation year in which the premiums were paid or in the immediately preceding taxation year, and

(f) the taxpayer paid all or any portion of the premiums with the intent of receiving a payment that, but for this paragraph and paragraph 146(8.2)(e), would be deductible under this subsection.

(i) ni du transfert d'un montant d'un régime de pension agréé à un régime enregistré d'épargne-retraite,

(ii) ni du transfert d'un montant d'un régime de participation différée aux bénéfices à un régime enregistré d'épargne-retraite en conformité avec le paragraphe 147(19),

(iii) ni du transfert d'un montant à un régime enregistré d'épargne-retraite à partir :

(A) soit d'un régime de pension agréé collectif, dans les circonstances visées au paragraphe 147.5(21),

(B) soit d'un régime de pension déterminé, dans les circonstances visées au paragraphe (21);

c) le contribuable ou son époux ou conjoint de fait reçoit le paiement au cours d'une année d'imposition donnée qui correspond :

(i) soit à l'année où le contribuable a versé les primes,

(ii) soit à l'année où un avis de cotisation est envoyé au contribuable pour l'année d'imposition visée au sous-alinéa (i),

(iii) soit à l'année suivant celle visée au sous-alinéa (i) ou (ii);

d) le paiement est inclus dans le calcul du revenu du contribuable pour l'année donnée, le contribuable peut déduire ce paiement — qui n'est pas un retrait visé par règlement — dans le calcul de son revenu pour l'année donnée, sauf s'il est raisonnable de considérer que :

e) d'une part, le contribuable ne s'attendait vraisemblablement pas à ce que le plein montant des primes soit déductible au cours de l'année d'imposition de leur versement ou de l'année d'imposition précédente;

f) d'autre part, le contribuable a versé tout ou partie des primes dans l'intention de recevoir un paiement qui, compte non tenu du présent alinéa et de l'alinéa e), serait déductible en application du présent paragraphe.

Premium deemed not paid

titre de tout ou partie d'une prime que le contribuable a versée à un régime enregistré d'épargne-retraite et que le contribuable déduit le paiement en application du paragraphe (8.2) dans le calcul de son revenu pour l'année, cette prime ou partie de prime, selon le cas, est réputée — pour le calcul, après ce moment, du montant déductible en application du paragraphe (5) ou (5.1) dans le calcul du revenu du contribuable pour l'année ou pour une année d'imposition antérieure et pour l'application des paragraphes (8.3) et 146.3(5.1), après ce moment, s'il s'agit d'un paiement reçu par le contribuable — ne pas être une prime versée par le contribuable à un tel régime.

Spousal or common-law partner payments

(8.3) Where at any time in a taxation year a particular amount in respect of a registered retirement savings plan that is a spousal or common-law partner plan in relation to a taxpayer is required by reason of subsection (8) or paragraph (12)(b) to be included in computing the income of the taxpayer's spouse or common-law partner before the plan matures or as a payment in full or partial commutation of a retirement income under the plan and the taxpayer is not living separate and apart from the taxpayer's spouse or common-law partner at that time by reason of the breakdown of their marriage or common-law partnership, there shall be included at that time in computing the taxpayer's income for the year an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the total of all amounts each of which is a premium paid by the taxpayer in the year or in one of the two immediately preceding taxation years to a registered retirement savings plan under which the taxpayer's spouse or common-law partner was the annuitant at the time the premium was paid, and

(b) the particular amount.

Montants à inclure dans le revenu du rentier

(8.3) Lorsque, à un moment donné d'une année d'imposition, une somme donnée provenant d'un régime enregistré d'épargne-retraite qui est un régime au profit de l'époux ou conjoint de fait quant à un contribuable doit être incluse en application du paragraphe (8) ou de l'alinéa (12)b) dans le calcul du revenu de l'époux ou conjoint de fait avant échéance du régime ou comme versement découlant de la conversion totale ou partielle d'un revenu de retraite prévu au régime et que le contribuable et son époux ou conjoint de fait ne vivaient pas séparément à ce moment pour cause d'échec du mariage ou union de fait, le contribuable doit inclure, à ce moment, dans le calcul de son revenu pour l'année le moins élevé des montants suivants :

a) le total des montants dont chacun représente une prime qu'il a versée au cours de l'année ou de l'une des deux années d'imposition précédentes à un régime enregistré d'épargne-retraite dont son époux ou conjoint de fait est rentier au moment du versement de la prime;

b) la somme donnée.

Ordre des primes versées

(8.5) Dans le cas où un contribuable a versé plus d'une prime visée au paragraphe (8.3), les primes ou parties de prime sont réputées ajoutées en vertu de ce paragraphe dans le calcul de son revenu dans l'ordre chronologique des moments où il les a versées.

Non-application of subsection (11)

(12) Where a registered disability savings plan would otherwise be non-compliant at a particular time because of a failure described in paragraph (11)(a) or (b),

(a) the Minister may waive the application of the relevant paragraph with respect to the failure, if it is just and equitable to do so;

(b) the Minister may deem the failure to have occurred at a later time;

Non-application du par. (11)

(i) la cotisation est réputée ne jamais avoir été versée,

(ii) le retrait est réputé ne pas être un paiement d'aide à l'invalidité et ne pas contrevenir à la condition énoncée à l'alinéa (4)i);

d) si le manquement consiste à ne pas mettre fin au régime dans le délai fixé à l'alinéa (4)p) et s'est produit soit du fait que l'émetteur n'était pas au courant de l'existence de circonstances exigeant qu'il soit mis fin au régime, soit en raison de quelque incertitude quant à l'existence de telles circonstances :

(i) le ministre peut fixer un autre délai dans lequel il doit être mis fin au régime, lequel délai ne peut s'étendre au-delà de ce qui est raisonnablement nécessaire pour mettre fin au régime de façon ordonnée,

Issuer's liability

(14) If, after reasonable inquiry, an issuer of a disability savings plan is of the opinion that an individual's contractual competence to enter into a disability savings plan is in doubt, no action lies against the issuer for entering into a plan, under which the individual is the beneficiary, with a qualifying family member who was a qualifying person in relation to the beneficiary at the time the plan (or another registered disability savings plan of the beneficiary) was entered into solely because of paragraph (c) of the definition qualifying person in subsection (1).

the amount was paid in accordance with the terms of the plan and was not deducted in computing the employer's income for a preceding taxation year.

Limitation on deduction

(9) Where the requirements of subsection 147(5.1) in respect of a deferred profit sharing plan are not satisfied for a calendar year by reason that the pension credits of a beneficiary under the plan in respect of a particular employer do not comply with paragraph 147(5.1)(a) or the beneficiary's pension credits or pension adjustments in respect of a particular employer and other employers who do not deal at arm's length with the particular employer do not comply with paragraph 147(5.1)(b) or 147(5.1)(c), the particular employer is not entitled to a deduction under subsection 147(8) in computing the particular employer's income for any taxation year in respect of an amount paid to a trustee under the plan in the calendar year except to the extent expressly permitted in writing by the Minister, and, for the purposes of this subsection, an amount paid to a trustee of a deferred profit sharing plan in the first two months of a calendar year shall be deemed to have been paid in the immediately preceding year and not to have been paid in the year to the extent that the amount can reasonably be considered to be in respect of the immediately preceding year.

où ce montant est versé conformément aux modalités du régime et n'est pas déduit dans le calcul de son revenu pour une année d'imposition antérieure.

Limite de la déduction

(9) Dans le cas où les exigences du paragraphe (5.1) visant un régime de participation différée aux bénéfices ne sont pas remplies pour une année civile du fait que les crédits de pension d'un bénéficiaire dans le cadre du régime quant à un employeur donné ne sont pas conformes à l'alinéa (5.1)a) ou que les crédits de pension ou les facteurs d'équivalence du bénéficiaire quant à un employeur donné et d'autres employeurs qui ont un lien de dépendance avec celui-ci ne sont pas conformes à l'alinéa (5.1)b) ou c), l'employeur donné n'a droit à la déduction prévue au paragraphe (8) dans le calcul de son revenu pour une année d'imposition au titre d'un montant versé au fiduciaire du régime au cours de l'année civile que dans la mesure que le ministre permet expressément par écrit. (9.1) Malgré le paragraphe (8), aucune déduction n'est faite dans le calcul du revenu d'un employeur pour une année d'imposition à l'égard d'une somme qu'il a versée pour l'année à un fiduciaire en vertu d'un régime de participation différée aux bénéfices à l'égard d'un bénéficiaire qui est visé à l'alinéa (2)k.2) à l'égard du régime.

Imposition des sommes reçues

where

A is the balance in respect of the individual under the arrangement immediately before the particular time (determined without regard to the value of property in a cemetery care trust);

B is the total of all payments made from the arrangement before the particular time for the provision of funeral or cemetery services with respect to the individual (other than cemetery services funded by property in a cemetery care trust); and

C is the amount determined by the formula

D is the total of all relevant contributions made before the particular time in respect of the individual under the arrangement (other than contributions in respect of the individual that were in a cemetery care trust), and

A représente le solde applicable au particulier dans le cadre de l'arrangement immédiatement avant le remboursement, déterminé compte non tenu de la valeur des biens d'une fiducie pour l'entretien d'un cimetière;

B le total des paiements effectués sur l'arrangement avant le remboursement pour la fourniture de services de funérailles ou de cimetière relatifs au particulier, à l'exception de services de cimetière réglés au moyen des biens d'une fiducie pour l'entretien d'un cimetière;

C le montant obtenu par la formule suivante :

où :

D représente le total des versements admissibles effectués dans le cadre de l'arrangement pour le particulier avant le remboursement, à l'exception des versements relatifs au particulier affectés à une fiducie pour l'entretien d'un cimetière,

E le total des montants représentant chacun l'excédent du montant visé à l'alinéa a) sur celui visé à l'alinéa b) :

a) un montant lié au solde applicable au particulier dans le cadre de l'arrangement qui est réputé par le paragraphe (4) avoir été remboursé sur l'arrangement avant le remboursement,

(a) the amount is deemed to be distributed to the transferor (or, if the transferor is deceased at the particular time, to the recipient) at the particular time from the transferor arrangement and to be paid from the balance in respect of the transferor under the transferor arrangement; and

(b) the amount is deemed to be a contribution made (other than by way of a transfer from an eligible funeral arrangement) at the particular time under the recipient arrangement for the purpose of funding funeral or cemetery services with respect to the recipient.

Non-application of subsection (4)

(5) Subsection (4) does not apply if

(a) the transferor and the recipient are the same individual;

(b) the amount that is transferred, credited or added to the balance in respect of the individual under the recipient arrangement is equal to the balance in respect of the individual under the transferor arrangement immediately before the particular time; and

(4) Si, à un moment donné, un montant lié au solde applicable à un particulier (appelé « cédant » au présent paragraphe et au paragraphe (5)) dans le cadre d'un arrangement de services funéraires (appelé « arrangement du cédant » au présent paragraphe et au paragraphe (5)) est transféré au même particulier ou à un autre particulier (appelés « bénéficiaire » au présent paragraphe et au paragraphe (5)), est porté à son crédit ou est ajouté au solde qui lui est applicable, dans le cadre du même arrangement ou d'un autre arrangement semblable (appelés « arrangement du bénéficiaire » au présent paragraphe et au paragraphe (5)), les règles ci-après s'appliquent :

a) le montant est réputé, d'une part, être remboursé au cédant ou, si celui-ci est décédé au moment donné, au bénéficiaire sur l'arrangement du cédant au moment donné et, d'autre part, être payé sur le solde applicable au cédant dans le cadre de ce même arrangement;

b) le montant est réputé être un versement effectué (autrement qu'au moyen d'un transfert d'un arrangement de services funéraires) au moment donné dans le cadre de l'arrangement du bénéficiaire en vue de financer les services funéraires ou les services de cimetière relatifs au bénéficiaire.

Non-application du paragraphe (4)

(5) Le paragraphe (4) ne s'applique pas si, à la fois :

a) le cédant et le bénéficiaire sont le même particulier;

b) le montant qui est transféré au particulier, porté à son crédit ou ajouté au solde qui lui est applicable, dans le cadre de l'arrangement du bénéficiaire, est égal au solde qui lui est applicable dans le cadre de l'arrangement du cédant immédiatement avant le moment donné;

c) il est mis fin à l'arrangement du cédant immédiatement après le transfert.

Allocation of net increase in excess corporate holdings percentage

(5) For the purpose of the description of B in the definition divestment obligation percent-age in subsection 149.1(1), the net increase in the excess corporate holdings percentage of a private foundation in respect of a class of shares of the capital stock of a corporation, for a taxation year (in this subsection referred to as the "current year") is to be allocated in the following order:

Attribution de l'augmentation nette du pourcentage de participation excédentaire

(5) Pour l'application de l'élément B de la formule figurant à la définition de pourcentage de dessaisissement au paragraphe 149.1(1), l'augmentation nette du pourcentage de participation excédentaire d'une fondation privée relativement à une catégorie d'actions du capital-actions d'une société pour une année d'imposition (appelée « année courante » au présent paragraphe) est attribuée :

Notice of determination

(1.5) Where a determination is made under subsection 152(1.4) in respect of a partnership for a fiscal period, the Minister shall send a notice of the determination to the partnership and to each person who was a member of the partnership during the fiscal period.

(1.6) No determination made under subsection 152(1.4) in respect of a partnership for a fiscal period is invalid solely because one or more persons who were members of the partnership during the period did not receive a notice of the determination.

Binding effect of determination

(1.7) Where the Minister makes a determination under subsection 152(1.4) or a redetermination in respect of a partnership,

(a) subject to the rights of objection and appeal of the member of the partnership referred to in subsection 165(1.15) in respect of the determination or redetermination, the determination or redetermination is binding on the Minister and each member of the partnership for the purposes of calculating the income, taxable income or taxable income earned in Canada of, tax or other amount payable by, or any amount refundable to or deemed to have been paid or to have been an overpayment by, the members for any taxation year under this Part; and

(1.5) Le ministre envoie un avis de la détermination effectuée en application du paragraphe (1.4) à la société de personnes concernée et à chaque personne qui en était un associé au cours de l'exercice.

Absence d'avis

(1.6) La détermination effectuée en application du paragraphe (1.4) pour un exercice n'est pas invalidée du seul fait qu'une ou plusieurs personnes qui étaient des associés de la société de personnes concernée au cours de l'exercice n'ont pas reçu d'avis de détermination.

Ministre et associés liés

(1.7) Les règles suivantes s'appliquent lorsque le ministre détermine un montant en application du paragraphe (1.4) ou détermine un montant de nouveau relativement à une société de personnes :

a) sous réserve des droits d'opposition et d'appel de l'associé de la société de personnes visé au paragraphe 165(1.15) relativement au montant déterminé ou déterminé de nouveau, la détermination ou nouvelle détermination lie le ministre ainsi que les associés de la société de personnes pour ce qui est du calcul, pour une année d'imposition, du revenu, du revenu imposable ou du revenu imposable gagné au Canada des associés, de l'impôt ou d'un autre montant payable par ceux-ci, d'un montant qui leur est remboursable ou d'un montant réputé avoir été payé, ou payé en trop, par eux, en vertu de la présente partie;

(6.1) If

(a) a taxpayer has filed for a particular taxation year the return of income required by section 150,

(b) the amount included in computing the taxpayer's income for the particular year under subsection 91(1) is subsequently reduced because of a reduction in the foreign accrual property income of a foreign affiliate of the taxpayer for a taxation year (referred to in this paragraph as the "claim year") of the affiliate that ends in the particular year, if

(i) the reduction is

(A) attributable to a foreign accrual property loss (within the meaning assigned by subsection 5903(3) of the Income Tax Regulations) of the affiliate for a taxation year of the affiliate that ends in a subsequent taxation year of the taxpayer, and

Nouvelle cotisation en cas de réduction d'une somme incluse en application du paragraphe 91(1)

(6.1) Le ministre établit une nouvelle cotisation dans le cas où les conditions ci-après sont réunies :

a) un contribuable a produit, pour une année d'imposition donnée, la déclaration de revenu exigée par l'article 150;

b) la somme incluse, en application du paragraphe 91(1), dans le calcul de son revenu pour l'année donnée est ultérieurement réduite en raison d'une réduction du revenu étranger accumulé, tiré de biens d'une de ses sociétés étrangères affiliées pour une année d'imposition de celle-ci (appelée « année de la demande » au présent alinéa) se terminant dans l'année donnée, si, selon le cas :

(i) la réduction est, à la fois :

(A) attribuable à une perte étrangère accumulée, relative à des biens, au sens du paragraphe 5903(3) du Règlement de l'impôt sur le revenu, de la société affiliée pour une année d'imposition

(B) included in the description of F in the definition foreign accrual property income in subsection 95(1) in respect of the affiliate for the claim year, or

(ii) the reduction is

(A) attributable to a foreign accrual capital loss (within the meaning assigned by subsection 5903.1(3) of the Income Tax Regulations) of the affiliate for a taxation year of the affiliate that ends in a subsequent taxation year of the taxpayer, and

(B) included in the description of F.1 in the definition foreign accrual property income in subsection 95(1) in respect of the affiliate for the claim year, and

(c) the taxpayer has filed with the Minister, on or before the filing-due date for that subsequent taxation year, a prescribed form amending the return, the Minister shall reassess the taxpayer's tax for any relevant taxation year (other than a taxation year preceding the particular year) in order to take into account the reduction in the amount included under subsection 91(1) in computing the income of the taxpayer for the particular year.

Extended reassessment period

(6.2) The Minister shall reassess a taxpayer's tax for a particular taxation year, in order to take into account the application of paragraph (d) of the definition excluded property in subsection 142.2(1), or the application of subsection 142.6(1.6), in respect of property held by the taxpayer, if

(a) the taxpayer has filed for the particular taxation year the return of income required by section 150; and

(b) the taxpayer files with the Minister a prescribed form amending the return, on or before the filing-due date for the taxpayer's taxation year that de celle-ci se terminant dans une année d'imposition ultérieure du contribuable,

(B) comprise dans la valeur de l'élément F de la formule figurant à la définition de revenu étranger accumulé, tiré de biens, au paragraphe 95(1), relativement à la société affiliée pour l'année de la demande,

(ii) la réduction est, à la fois :

(A) attribuable à une perte en capital étrangère accumulée, au sens du paragraphe 5903.1(3) du Règlement de l'impôt sur le revenu, de la société affiliée pour une année d'imposition de celle-ci se terminant dans une année d'imposition ultérieure du contribuable,

(B) comprise dans la valeur de l'élément F.1 de la formule figurant à la définition de revenu étranger accumulé, tiré de biens, au paragraphe 95(1), relativement à la société affiliée pour l'année de la demande;

La nouvelle cotisation porte sur l'impôt du contribuable pour toute année d'imposition pertinente (sauf les années d'imposition antérieures à l'année donnée) et a pour objet de tenir compte de la réduction de la somme incluse, en application du paragraphe 91(1), dans le calcul du revenu du contribuable pour l'année donnée.

Période de nouvelle cotisation prolongée

(6.2) Le ministre établit une nouvelle cotisation concernant l'impôt d'un contribuable pour une année d'imposition donnée pour tenir compte de l'application de l'alinéa d) de la définition de bien exclu au paragraphe 142.2(1), ou de l'application du paragraphe 142.6(1.6), relativement aux biens détenus par le contribuable si les conditions suivantes sont réunies :

a) le contribuable a produit pour l'année donnée la déclaration de revenu qu'il est tenu de produire en application de l'article 150;

Reassessment for section 119 credit

(6.3) If a taxpayer has filed for a particular taxation year the return of income required by section 150 and an amount is subsequently claimed by the taxpayer, or on the taxpayer's behalf, for the particular year as a deduction under section 119 in respect of a disposition in a subsequent taxation year, and the taxpayer files with the Minister a prescribed form amending the return on or before the filing-due date of the taxpayer for the subsequent taxation year, the Minister shall reassess the taxpayer's tax for any relevant taxation year (other than a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year) in order to take into account the deduction claimed.

Nouvelle cotisation — crédit prévu à l'article 119

(6.3) Lorsqu'un contribuable a produit, pour une année d'imposition donnée, la déclaration de revenu exigée par l'article 150, que, par la suite, une somme est demandée pour cette année par lui ou pour son compte à titre de déduction, en application de l'article 119, relativement à une disposition effectuée au cours d'une année d'imposition ultérieure et que le contribuable présente au ministre un formulaire prescrit modifiant la déclaration au plus tard à la date d'échéance de production qui lui est applicable pour l'année ultérieure, le ministre établit une nouvelle cotisation concernant l'impôt du contribuable pour toute année d'imposition pertinente, sauf celles antérieures à l'année donnée, pour tenir compte de la déduction demandée.

Présomption de validité de la cotisation

(8) Sous réserve des modifications qui peuvent y être apportées ou de son annulation lors d'une opposition ou d'un appel fait en vertu de la présente partie et sous réserve d'une nouvelle cotisation, une cotisation est réputée être valide et exécutoire malgré toute erreur, tout vice de forme ou toute omission dans cette cotisation ou dans toute procédure s'y rattachant en vertu de la présente loi.

Alternative basis for assessment

(9) At any time after the normal reassessment period, the Minister may advance an alternative basis or argument — including that all or any portion of the income to which an amount relates was from a different source — in support of all or any portion of the total amount determined on assessment to be payable or remittable by a taxpayer under this Act unless, on an appeal under this Act

(a) there is relevant evidence that the taxpayer is no longer able to adduce without the leave of the court; and

(b) it is not appropriate in the circumstances for the court to order that the evidence be adduced.

a) d'une part, il existe des éléments de preuve que le contribuable n'est plus en mesure de produire sans l'autorisation du tribunal;

(a) the end of the period during which the security is accepted by the Minister, if adequate security for the tax is accepted by the Minister under subsection 220(4.5) or (4.6); or
