83 (1) Lorsqu'un dividende admissible a été versé par une société publique aux actionnaires d'une série d'actions privilégiées à impôt différé d'une catégorie du capital-actions de la société qui étaient en circulation le 31 mars 1977, les règles suivantes s'appliquent :

a) aucune partie du dividende admissible n'est incluse dans le calcul du revenu d'un actionnaire de la société en vertu de la présente sous-section;

b) dans le calcul du prix de base rajusté, pour tout actionnaire de la société, d'une action privilégiée à impôt différé du capital-actions de cette société dont il est propriétaire, il faut déduire, au titre du dividende admissible, la somme prévue par le sous-alinéa 53(2)a)(i).

Dividende en capital

(2) Lorsque, à un moment donné après 1971, un dividende devient payable par une société privée aux actionnaires d'une catégorie quelconque d'actions de son capital-actions et que la société fait un choix relativement au montant total du dividende, selon les modalités et le formulaire réglementaires, au plus tard au premier en date du moment donné et du premier jour où une partie du dividende a été payée, les règles suivantes s'appliquent :

a) le dividende est réputé être un dividende en capital jusqu'à concurrence du montant du compte de dividendes en capital de la société immédiatement avant le moment donné;

b) aucune partie du dividende n'est incluse dans le calcul du revenu des actionnaires de la société.

Restriction

(2.1) Malgré le paragraphe (2), le dividende versé par une société sur une action de son capital-actions qui serait, sans le présent paragraphe, un dividende en capital est réputé, pour l'application de la présente loi — à l'exception de la partie III et sauf pour le calcul du compte de dividendes en capital de la société — reçu par l'actionnaire et versé par la société comme dividende imposable, et non comme dividende en capital, et l'alinéa (2)b) ne s'applique pas à ce dividende si l'actionnaire a acquis l'action — ou une action qui lui est substituée — par une opération, ou dans le cadre d'une série d'opérations, dont un des principaux objets consistait à recevoir ce dividende.

(b) where the terms as at March 31, 1977 of the shares of that series required the corporation to offer to purchase at a time not later than a particular date all of the shares of that series from all of the holders of those shares, that particular date, and

(c) in any other case, October 1, 1991,

whichever is applicable in respect of that series of shares, except that a dividend on shares of such a series that would otherwise be a qualifying dividend shall be deemed not to be a qualifying dividend if

Définition de dividende admissible

(6) Pour l'application du paragraphe (1), dividende admissible s'entend d'un dividende sur des actions d'une série d'une catégorie du capital-actions d'une société publique qui est considérée, aux termes du règlement, comme une série privilégiée à impôt différé, lequel dividende devient payable après 1978 et au plus tard :

a) lorsque les modalités, au 31 mars 1977, relatives aux actions de cette série donnaient le droit au détenteur de toute action de ce genre de l'échanger, après une date donnée, contre une ou des actions d'une autre série ou catégorie d'actions privilégiées du capital-actions de la société, à cette date donnée;

b) lorsque, au 31 mars 1977, les modalités relatives aux actions de cette série obligeaient la société à offrir d'acheter, au plus tard à une date donnée, toutes les actions de cette série à chacun des détenteurs, à cette date donnée;

c) dans tous les autres cas, le 1er octobre 1991, selon le cas qui s'applique à cette série d'actions, sauf qu'un dividende sur des actions d'une telle série qui serait par ailleurs un dividende admissible, est réputé ne pas l'être si :

d) soit, au moment où il devient payable, les modalités relatives aux actions de cette série diffèrent des modalités qui, le 31 mars 1977, régissaient les actions de cette série;

e) soit, après le 31 mars 1977, la société a émis d'autres actions de cette série.

Fusion lorsqu'il y a des actions privilégiées à impôt différé

(7) Pour l'application du présent article, lorsque, après le 31 mars 1977, il y a eu fusion au sens de l'article 87 et qu'une ou plusieurs des sociétés remplacées avaient une série d'actions en circulation le 31 mars 1977 qui était considérée, aux termes du règlement, comme une série d'actions privilégiées à impôt différé, les règles suivantes s'appliquent :

(a) the series of shares of the capital stock of the predecessor corporation that was prescribed to be a tax-deferred preferred series shall be deemed to have been continued in existence in the form of the new shares; and

(b) the new corporation shall be deemed to be the same corporation as, and a continuation of, each such predecessor corporation.

(a) the affiliate is deemed to make a loan to the taxpayer immediately before the end of the particular year equal to the amount determined by the following formula, where all amounts referred to in the formula are to be determined using Canadian currency:

A – B – C

A is 90% of the average of all amounts each of which is, in respect of a calendar month that ends in the particular year, the greatest total amount at any time in the month of the upstream deposits owing to the affiliate,

B is the lesser of

(i) the amount, if any, by which the affiliate's excess liquidity for the particular year exceeds the average of all amounts each of which is, in respect of a calendar month that ends in the particular year, the greatest total amount at any time in the month of eligible Canadian indebtedness owing to the affiliate, and

(ii) the amount determined for A, and

C is the amount, if any, by which the amount determined for A for the immediately preceding year exceeds the amount determined for B for the immediately preceding year; and

(b) if the formula in paragraph (a) would, in the absence of section 257, result in a negative amount for the particular year,

(i) the taxpayer is deemed to repay immediately before the end of the particular year — in an amount equal to the absolute value of the negative amount and in the order in which they arose — loans made by the affiliate under paragraph (a) in a prior taxation year and not previously repaid, and

(ii) the repayment is deemed to not be part of a series of loans or other transactions and repayments.

A représente 90 % de la moyenne des sommes dont chacune représente, pour un mois civil se terminant dans l'année donnée, le montant le plus élevé, au cours du mois, des dépôts en amont détenus par la filiale,

B la moins élevée des sommes suivantes :

(i) l'excédent des liquidités excédentaires de la filiale pour l'année donnée sur la moyenne des sommes dont chacune représente, pour un mois civil se terminant dans l'année donnée, le montant le plus élevé, au cours du mois, des dettes canadiennes admissibles détenues par la filiale,

(ii) la valeur de l'élément A,

C l'excédent de la valeur de l'élément A pour l'année précédente sur la valeur de l'élément B pour cette année;

(2.3) Pour l'application du paragraphe (2.2), le prix de base rajusté d'une participation dans une société de personnes pour le contribuable qui, à un moment donné, acquiert cette participation auprès d'un autre cédant que la société de personnes est calculé à supposer que le coût de cette participation soit pour le contribuable le moindre :

a) de son coût déterminé par ailleurs pour le contribuable;

b) du plus élevé de son prix de base rajusté pour le cédant immédiatement avant ce moment et de zéro.

Le prix de base rajusté pour le cédant, s'il ne peut être déterminé, est réputé égal au total des montants visés aux alinéas (2.2)c) et d) déterminé pour le contribuable immédiatement après ce moment.

Limited partner

(2.4) For the purposes of this section and sections 111 and 127, a taxpayer who is a member of a partnership at a particular time is a limited partner of the partnership at that time if the member's partnership interest is not an exempt interest (within the meaning assigned by subsection (2.5)) at that time and if, at that time or within 3 years after that time,

(a) by operation of any law governing the partnership arrangement, the liability of the member as a member of the partnership is limited (except by operation of a provision of a statute of Canada or a province that limits the member's liability only for debts, obligations and liabilities of the partnership, or any member of the partnership, arising from negligent acts or omissions, from misconduct or from fault of another member of the partnership or an employee, an agent or a representative of the partnership in the course of the partnership business while the partnership is a limited liability partnership);

Commanditaire

(2.4) Pour l'application du présent article et des articles 111 et 127, le contribuable qui est, à un moment donné, un associé d'une société de personnes est commanditaire de cette société de personnes si sa participation dans celle-ci n'est pas, à ce moment, une participation exonérée au sens du paragraphe (2.5) et si, à ce moment ou dans les trois ans suivants :

a) soit sa responsabilité comme associé est limitée par la loi qui régit le contrat de société (sauf s'il s'agit d'une disposition législative fédérale ou provinciale qui limite sa responsabilité en ce qui a trait aux dettes, obligations et engagements de la société de personnes, ou d'un de ses associés, découlant d'actes ou d'omissions négligents ou de fautes commis par un autre associé de la société de personnes, ou par un employé, mandataire ou représentant de celle-ci, dans le cours des activités de l'entreprise de la société de personnes pendant qu'elle est une société de personnes à responsabilité limitée);

(b) the member or a person not dealing at arm's length with the member is entitled, either immediately or in the future and either absolutely or contingently, to receive an amount or to obtain a benefit that would be described in paragraph (2.2)(d) if that paragraph were read without reference to subparagraphs (ii) and (vi);

(c) one of the reasons for the existence of the member who owns the interest

(i) can reasonably be considered to be to limit the liability of any person with respect to that interest, and

(ii) cannot reasonably be considered to be to permit any person who has an interest in the member to carry on that person's business (other than an investment business) in the most effective manner; or

(d) there is an agreement or other arrangement for the disposition of an interest in the partnership and one of the main reasons for the agreement or arrangement can reasonably be considered to be to attempt to avoid the application of this subsection to the member.

b) soit l'associé ou une personne avec qui il a un lien de dépendance a le droit, immédiat ou futur et absolu ou conditionnel, de recevoir un montant ou un avantage qui serait visé à l'alinéa (2.2)d), compte non tenu des sous-alinéas (2.2)d)(ii) et (vi);

c) soit il est raisonnable de considérer que l'associé propriétaire de la participation en question existe, entre autres :

(i) d'une part, pour limiter la responsabilité d'une personne, liée à cette participation,

(ii) d'autre part, non pour permettre à une personne qui a une participation dans l'associé d'exploiter son entreprise — à l'exclusion d'une entreprise de placements — de la manière la plus efficace;

d) soit il existe une convention ou un autre mécanisme prévoyant la disposition d'une participation dans la société de personnes et dont il est raisonnable de considérer qu'un des principaux objets consiste à tenter de soustraire l'associé à l'application du présent paragraphe.

De minimis

(1.2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a taxpayer's disposition of a partnership interest to a partnership or trust described in paragraph (1.1)(c) or (d) — other than a trust under which the amount of the income or capital to be distributed at any time in respect of any interest as a beneficiary under the trust depends on the exercise by any person or partnership of, or the failure by any person or partnership to exercise, any discretionary power — if the extent to which subsection (1) would, but for this subsection, apply to the taxpayer's disposition of the interest because of subsection (1.1) does not exceed 10% of the taxpayer's interest.

Exception — non-resident person

(1.3) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of a disposition of an interest in a partnership by a taxpayer to a person referred to in paragraph (1.1)(b) if

Anti-avoidance — dilution

(1.4) Subsection (1.5) applies in respect of a taxpayer's interest in a partnership if

(a) it is reasonable to conclude that one of the purposes of a dilution, reduction or alteration of the interest was to avoid the application of subsection (1) in respect of the interest; and

(i) an acquisition of an interest in the partnership by a person or partnership described in any of paragraphs (1.1)(a) to (d), or

(ii) an increase in, or alteration of, an interest in the partnership held by a person or partnership described in any of paragraphs (1.1)(a) to (d).

Seuil minimum

(1.2) Le paragraphe (1) ne s'applique pas à la disposition d'une participation dans une société de personnes effectuée par un contribuable en faveur d'une société de personnes ou d'une fiducie visée aux alinéas (1.1)c) ou d) — sauf une fiducie dans le cadre de laquelle le montant de revenu ou de capital à distribuer à un moment donné relativement à une participation à titre de bénéficiaire de la fiducie est fonction de l'exercice ou de l'absence d'exercice, par une personne ou une société de personnes, d'un pouvoir discrétionnaire — si la mesure dans laquelle le paragraphe (1) s'appliquerait, en l'absence du présent paragraphe, à la disposition de la participation par le contribuable par l'effet du paragraphe (1.1) n'excède pas 10 % de la participation du contribuable.

Exception — personne non-résidente

(1.3) Le paragraphe (1) ne s'applique pas relativement à la disposition d'une participation dans une société de personnes effectuée par un contribuable en faveur d'une personne visée à l'alinéa (1.1)b) si, à la fois :

b) la juste valeur marchande totale des biens visés à l'alinéa a) correspond à au moins 90 % de la juste valeur marchande de l'ensemble des biens de la société de personnes.

Anti-évitement — dilution

(1.4) Le paragraphe (1.5) s'applique relativement à la participation d'un contribuable dans une société de personnes si, à la fois :

a) il est raisonnable de conclure que toute dilution, réduction ou modification de la participation a notamment pour objet de soustraire la participation à l'application du paragraphe (1);

b) une opération, un événement ou une série d'opérations ou d'événements qui comprend la dilution, la réduction ou la modification comporte :

(i) soit l'acquisition d'une participation dans la société de personnes par une personne ou une société de personnes visée à l'un des alinéas (1.1)a) à d),

(ii) soit l'augmentation ou la modification d'une participation dans la société de personnes détenue par une personne ou une société de personnes visée à l'un de ces alinéas.

Deemed gain — dilution

(1.5) If this subsection applies in respect of a particular interest in a partnership of a taxpayer, then for the purposes of subsection (1),

(a) the taxpayer is deemed to have disposed of an interest in the partnership at the time of the dilution, reduction or alteration;

(b) the taxpayer is deemed to have a capital gain from the disposition equal to the amount by which the fair market value of the particular interest immediately before the dilution, reduction or alteration exceeds its fair market value immediately thereafter; and

(c) the person or partnership referred to in paragraph (1.4)(b) is deemed to have acquired an interest in the partnership as part of the transaction or event or series of transactions or events that includes the disposition referred to in paragraph (a).

Gain réputé — dilution

(1.5) En cas d'application du présent paragraphe relativement à une participation donnée d'un contribuable dans une société de personnes, les règles ci-après s'appliquent au paragraphe (1) :

a) le contribuable est réputé avoir disposé d'une participation dans la société de personnes au moment de la dilution, de la réduction ou de la modification;

b) le contribuable est réputé tirer de la disposition un gain en capital égal à l'excédent de la juste valeur marchande de la participation donnée immédiatement avant la dilution, la réduction ou la modification sur sa juste valeur marchande immédiatement après celles-ci;

c) la personne ou la société de personnes visée à l'alinéa (1.4)b) est réputée avoir acquis une participation dans la société de personnes dans le cadre de l'opération, de l'événement ou de la série d'opérations ou d'événements qui comprend la disposition visée à l'alinéa a).

Gain from disposition of interest in partnership

(2) In computing a taxpayer's gain for a taxation year from the disposition of an interest in a partnership, there shall be included, in addition to the amount thereof determined under subsection 40(1), the amount, if any, by which

(a) the total of all amounts required by subsection 53(2) to be deducted in computing the adjusted cost base to the taxpayer, immediately before the disposition, of the interest in the partnership,

(b) the total of

(i) the cost to the taxpayer of the interest in the partnership determined for the purpose of computing the adjusted cost base to the taxpayer of that interest at that time, and

(ii) all amounts required by subsection 53(1) to be added to the cost to the taxpayer of that interest in computing the adjusted cost base to the taxpayer of that interest at that time.

Gain tiré de la disposition d'une participation dans une société de personnes

Disposition d'une participation dans une société de personnes suite à une fusion doit être ajouté, dans le calcul du revenu du contribuable pour l'année d'imposition au cours de laquelle celui-ci dispose du droit (sans l'exercer), de la participation ou du bien, l'excédent éventuel du produit de disposition du droit, de la participation ou du bien, selon le cas, sur son coût indiqué pour le contribuable.

A × [(B - C)/B] - D

où :

A représente le coût indiqué, pour le contribuable, de sa participation au capital du cédant immédiatement avant le moment donné,

B la juste valeur marchande, immédiatement avant le moment donné, de la participation du contribuable au capital du cédant,

C la juste valeur marchande, au moment donné, de la participation du contribuable au capital du cédant (déterminée comme si le seul bien dont il a été disposé à ce moment était le bien donné),

D le moins élevé des montants suivants :

(i) l'excédent éventuel du coût indiqué, pour le contribuable, de sa participation au capital du cédant immédiatement avant le moment donné, sur la juste valeur marchande de cette participation immédiatement avant ce moment,

m) lorsque les alinéas j) et k) ne s'appliquent pas à la disposition admissible, le cédant est réputé acquérir la participation au capital de la fiducie cessionnaire, ou la partie de cette participation, qui est acquise par suite de la disposition admissible, au coût applicable suivant :
