Deduction not permitted

(7) Notwithstanding subsections (2) to (2.2), no amount may be deducted under this section in computing an individual's taxable income for a taxation year in respect of a capital gain of the individual for the taxation year if the capital gain is from a disposition of property which disposition is part of a series of transactions or events

(b) in which any property is acquired by a corporation or partnership for consideration that is significantly less than the fair market value of the property at the time of acquisition (other than an acquisition as the result of an amalgamation or merger of corporations or the winding-up of a corporation or partnership or a distribution of property of a trust in satisfaction of all or part of a corporation's capital interest in the trust).

Déduction non permise

(7) Malgré les paragraphes (2) à (2.2), aucune somme n'est déductible en vertu du présent article, dans le calcul du revenu imposable d'un particulier pour une année d'imposition, au titre d'un gain en capital du particulier pour l'année si le gain provient d'une disposition de bien qui fait partie d'une série d'opérations ou d'événements :

a) soit qui comprend un dividende reçu par une société et auquel le paragraphe 55(2) ne s'applique pas, mais auquel il s'appliquerait en l'absence de l'alinéa 55(3)b);

Deduction not permitted

(8) Notwithstanding subsections (2) to (2.2), if an individual has a capital gain for a taxation year from the disposition of a property and it can reasonably be concluded, having regard to all the circumstances, that a significant part of the capital gain is attributable to the fact that dividends were not paid on a share (other than a prescribed share) or that dividends paid on such a share in the taxation year or in any preceding taxation year were less than 90% of the average annual rate of return on that share for that year, no amount in respect of that capital gain shall be deducted under this section in computing the individual's taxable income for the year.

Déduction non permise

(8) Malgré les paragraphes (2) à (2.2), aucune somme n'est déductible en vertu du présent article, dans le calcul du revenu imposable d'un particulier pour une année d'imposition, au titre d'un gain en capital du particulier pour l'année provenant de la disposition d'un bien s'il est raisonnable de conclure, compte tenu des circonstances, qu'une partie importante du gain en capital est attribuable au fait que les dividendes n'ont pas été versés sur une action (sauf une action visée par règlement) ou que des dividendes versés sur une telle action au cours de l'année ou d'une année d'imposition antérieure étaient inférieurs au montant correspondant à 90 % du taux de rendement annuel moyen sur l'action pour cette année.

Average annual rate of return

(9) For the purpose of subsection 110.6(8), the average annual rate of return on a share (other than a prescribed share) of a corporation for a taxation year is the annual rate of return by way of dividends that a knowledgeable and prudent investor who purchased the share on the day it was issued would expect to receive in that year, other than the first year after the issue, in respect of the share if

Signification de taux de rendement annuel moyen

(9) Pour l'application du paragraphe (8), le taux de rendement annuel moyen sur une action d'une société — à l'exclusion d'une action visée par règlement — pour une année d'imposition est égal au taux de rendement annuel sous forme de dividendes qu'un investisseur avisé et prudent qui a acheté l'action le jour où elle a été émise s'attendrait à recevoir sur cette action au cours de l'année — à l'exclusion de la première année suivant l'émission — si les conditions suivantes étaient réunies :

(a) there was no delay or postponement of the payment of dividends and no failure to pay dividends in respect of the share;

(b) there was no variation from year to year in the amount of dividends payable in respect of the share (other than where the amount of dividends payable is expressed as an invariant percentage of or by reference to an invariant difference between the dividend expressed as a rate of interest and a generally quoted market interest rate); and

(c) the proceeds to be received by the investor on the disposition of the share are the same amount the corporation received as consideration on the issue of the share.

a) il n'y a eu ni retard ou report dans le versement des dividendes, ni défaut de versement des dividendes, sur l'action;

b) le montant des dividendes payables sur l'action n'a pas varié d'une année sur l'autre (sauf si le montant des dividendes payables est exprimé en pourcentage invariable ou est fonction d'une différence invariable entre le dividende exprimé en taux d'intérêt et le taux d'intérêt généralement affiché du marché);

c) le produit à recevoir par l'investisseur à la disposition de l'action est le même montant que la société a reçu en contrepartie de l'émission de l'action.

Where deduction not permitted

(11) Where it is reasonable to consider that one of the main reasons for an individual acquiring, holding or having an interest in a partnership or trust (other than an interest in a personal trust) or a share of an investment corporation, mortgage investment corporation or mutual fund corporation, or for the existence of any terms, conditions, rights or other attributes of the interest or share, is to enable the individual to receive or have allocated to the individual a percentage of any capital gain or taxable capital gain of the partnership, trust or corporation that is larger than the individual's percentage of the income of the partnership, trust or corporation, as the case may be, notwithstanding any other provision of this Act,

(a) no amount may be deducted under this section by the individual in respect of any such gain allocated or distributed to the individual after November 21, 1985; and

(b) where the individual is a trust, any such gain allocated or distributed to it after November 21, 1985 shall not be included in computing its eligible taxable capital gain (within the meaning assigned by subsection 108(1)).

Déduction non admise

(11) Malgré les autres dispositions de la présente loi, lorsqu'il est raisonnable de considérer que l'un des principaux motifs pour lesquels un particulier acquiert, détient ou a une participation dans une société de personnes ou une fiducie — à l'exclusion d'une participation dans une fiducie personnelle — ou une action d'une société de placement, d'une société de placement hypothécaire ou d'une société de placement à capital variable, ou que l'un des principaux motifs de l'existence de certaines conditions, de certains droits ou d'autres caractéristiques de la participation ou de l'action, consiste à permettre au particulier de recevoir ou de se voir attribuer une quote-part d'un gain en capital ou d'un gain en capital imposable de la société de personnes, de la fiducie ou de la société, supérieure à sa quote-part du revenu de la société de personnes, de la fiducie ou de la société, selon le cas :

a) le particulier ne peut déduire aucun montant en vertu du présent article au titre d'un tel gain qu'il reçoit ou qui lui est attribué après le 21 novembre 1985;

b) si le particulier est une fiducie, un tel gain que celle-ci reçoit ou qui lui est attribué après le 21 novembre 1985 ne peut être inclus dans le calcul de ses gains en capital imposables admissibles au sens du paragraphe 108(1).

Interpretation

(2.34) For greater certainty, each reference in subsection (2.32) to a "counterparty", a "specified counterparty", an "affiliated counterparty" or an "affiliated specified counterparty" is to be read as referring only to a person or partnership that obtains all or any portion of the risk of loss or opportunity for gain or profit in respect of the share.

Where no deduction permitted

(2.4) No deduction may be made under subsection 112(1) or 112(2) or subsection 138(6) in computing the taxable income of a particular corporation in respect of a dividend received on a share (in this subsection referred to as the "subject share"), other than an exempt share, of the capital stock of another corporation where

(a) any person or partnership was obligated, either absolutely or contingently, to effect an undertaking, including any guarantee, covenant or agreement to purchase or repurchase the subject share, under which an investor is entitled, either immediately or in the future, to receive or obtain any amount or benefit for the purpose of reducing the impact, in whole or in part, of any loss that an investor may sustain by virtue of the ownership, holding or disposition of the subject share, and any property is used, in whole or in part, either directly or indirectly in any manner whatever, to secure the undertaking; or contrepartie déterminée, une contrepartie affiliée ou une contrepartie déterminée affiliée s'attend raisonnablement soit à devenir un investisseur indifférent relativement à l'impôt soit, si elle a fourni une représentation visée au sous-alinéa (2.32)a)(ii) ou aux divisions (2.32)b)(iii)(B) ou c)(iii)(B) relativement à une action, à éliminer, en totalité ou en presque totalité, les possibilités pour elle de subir des pertes et de réaliser des gains ou des bénéfices relativement à l'action, la période donnée pour laquelle elle a fourni une représentation relative à l'action est réputée prendre fin à ce moment.

Interprétation

(2.34) Il est entendu que chaque mention de « contrepartie », « contrepartie déterminée », « contrepartie affiliée » ou « contrepartie déterminée affiliée » au paragraphe (2.32) vaut mention seulement d'une personne ou société de personnes qui obtient tout ou partie des possibilités de subir des pertes ou de réaliser des gains ou des bénéfices relativement à l'action visée à ce paragraphe.

Déduction non admise

(2.4) Aucune déduction ne peut être faite en application des paragraphes (1) ou (2) ou 138(6) dans le calcul du revenu imposable d'une société investisseuse à l'égard d'un dividende reçu sur une action d'une autre société qui est la société émettrice — sauf s'il s'agit d'une action exclue — dans les cas suivants :

a) une personne ou société de personnes a l'obligation, absolue ou conditionnelle, d'exécuter un engagement — notamment une garantie, un accord ou une convention d'achat ou de rachat de l'action — par lequel un investisseur a un droit, immédiat ou futur, de recevoir un montant ou d'obtenir un avantage afin de réduire ou supprimer l'effet d'une perte qu'un investisseur peut subir du fait qu'il est propriétaire ou détenteur de l'action ou qu'il en dispose, et un bien sert, en totalité ou en partie, directement ou indirectement, de quelque manière que ce soit, à garantir l'exécution de cet engagement;

b) la contrepartie pour laquelle l'action est émise ou un autre bien reçu, directement ou indirectement, d'un investisseur par un émetteur ou encore un bien substitué à la contrepartie ou à l'autre bien, comprend une obligation ou un droit visés aux sous-alinéas (i) et (ii) si cette obligation est contractée, ou ce droit acquis, par l'émetteur dans le cadre d'une opération, d'un événement ou d'une série d'opérations ou d'événements qui comprennent l'émission ou l'acquisition de l'action ou d'une action y substituée :

(i) l'obligation d'un investisseur de faire des versements à inclure, en totalité ou en partie, dans le where that obligation or right was acquired by the issuer as part of a transaction or event or a series of transactions or events that included the issuance or acquisition of the subject share, or a share for which the subject share was substituted.

calcul du revenu de l'émetteur — à l'exception de l'obligation d'une société qui, juste avant l'émission de l'action, serait liée à la société émettrice compte non tenu l'alinéa 251(1)b) —,

(ii) un droit de recevoir des versements à inclure, en totalité ou en partie, dans le calcul du revenu de l'émetteur, si ce droit est détenu sous condition qu'il — ou un bien y substitué — puisse revenir ou passer à un investisseur ou à une personne ou société de personnes qu'un investisseur indique.

Application of s. (2.4)

(2.5) Subsection 112(2.4) applies only in respect of a dividend on a share where, having regard to all the circumstances, it may reasonably be considered that the share was issued or acquired as part of a transaction or event or a series of transactions or events that enabled any corporation to earn investment income, or any income substituted therefor, and, as a result, the amount of its taxes payable under this Act for a taxation year is less than the amount that its taxes payable under this Act would be for the year if that investment income were the only income of the corporation for the year and all other taxation years and no amount were deductible under subsections 127(5) and 127.2(1) in computing its taxes payable under this Act.

Application du par. (2.4)

(2.5) Le paragraphe (2.4) ne s'applique à un dividende reçu sur une action que dans le cas où il est raisonnable de considérer en contexte que l'action a été émise ou acquise dans le cadre d'une opération, d'un événement ou d'une série d'opérations ou d'événements qui ont permis à une société de gagner un revenu de placement ou un revenu y substitué et où, en conséquence, les impôts payables par celle-ci en vertu de la présente loi pour une année d'imposition sont inférieurs à ce qu'ils seraient si ce revenu de placement était le seul revenu de la société pour cette année et pour toutes les autres années d'imposition et si aucun montant n'était déductible en application des paragraphes 127(5) et 127.2(1) dans le calcul de ses impôts payables en vertu de la présente loi.

(c) if the security is disposed of by the donee within 60 months after the particular time and paragraph (b) does not apply to the security, the individual is deemed to have made a gift to the donee of property at the time of the disposition and the fair market value of that property is deemed to be the lesser of the fair market value of any consideration (other than a non-qualifying security of any person) received by the donee for the disposition and the fair market value of the security at the particular time that would, if this Act were read without reference to this subsection, have been included in calculating the individual's total charitable gifts for a taxation year; and

(d) a designation under subsection 118.1(6) or 110.1(3) in respect of the gift made at the particular time may be made in the individual's return of income for the year that includes the subsequent time referred to in paragraph 118.1(13)(b) or the time of the disposition referred to in paragraph 118.1(13)(c).

Application of subsection (13.2)

(13.1) Subsection (13.2) applies if, as part of a series of transactions,

(a) an individual makes, at a particular time, a gift of a particular property to a qualified donee;

Titres non admissibles

(13) Pour l'application du présent article (sauf le présent paragraphe), si un particulier fait don de son titre non admissible à un moment donné (y compris un don qui, en l'absence du présent paragraphe, serait réputé, en vertu du paragraphe (5), être fait à ce moment) et que le don n'est pas un don exclu, les règles ci-après s'appliquent :

a) sauf pour l'application du paragraphe (6) aux fins du calcul du produit de disposition du titre pour le particulier, le don est réputé ne pas avoir été fait;

b) si le titre cesse d'être un titre non admissible du particulier à un moment ultérieur au cours des 60 mois suivant le moment donné et que le donataire ne dispose pas du titre au plus tard au moment ultérieur, le particulier est réputé avoir fait un don de bien au donataire au moment ultérieur, et la juste valeur marchande de ce bien est réputée être égale à la juste valeur marchande du titre au moment ultérieur ou, si elle est moins élevée, à la juste valeur marchande du titre au moment donné qui, en l'absence du présent paragraphe, aurait été incluse dans le calcul du total des dons de bienfaisance du particulier pour une année d'imposition;

c) si le donataire dispose du titre dans les 60 mois suivant le moment donné et que l'alinéa b) ne s'applique pas au titre, le particulier est réputé avoir fait un don de bien au donataire au moment de la disposition, et la juste valeur marchande de ce bien est réputée être égale à la juste valeur marchande de toute contrepartie (sauf un titre non admissible d'une personne) reçue par le donataire pour la disposition ou, si elle est moins élevée, à la juste valeur marchande du titre au moment donné qui, en l'absence du présent paragraphe, aurait été incluse dans le calcul du total des dons de bienfaisance du particulier pour une année d'imposition;

d) le don fait au moment donné peut être indiqué, aux termes des paragraphes (6) ou 110.1(3), dans la déclaration de revenu du particulier pour l'année qui comprend le moment ultérieur visé à l'alinéa b) ou le moment de la disposition visé à l'alinéa c).

Application du paragraphe (13.2)

(13.1) Le paragraphe (13.2) s'applique si, dans le cadre d'une série d'opérations, à la fois :

a) un particulier, à un moment donné, fait don d'un bien donné à un donataire reconnu;

(b) a particular person holds a non-qualifying security of the individual; and

(c) the qualified donee acquires, directly or indirectly, a non-qualifying security of the individual or of the particular person.

Non-qualifying securities — third-party accommodation

(13.2) If this subsection applies,

(a) for the purposes of this section, the fair market value of the particular property is deemed to be reduced by an amount equal to the fair market value of the non-qualifying security acquired by the qualified donee; and

(b) for the purposes of subsection (13),

(i) if the non-qualifying security acquired by the qualified donee is a non-qualifying security of the particular person, it is deemed to be a non-qualifying security of the individual,

(ii) the individual is deemed to have made, at the particular time referred to in subsection (13.1), a gift of the non-qualifying security acquired by the qualified donee, the fair market value of which does not exceed the amount, if any, by which

(A) the fair market value of the particular property determined without reference to paragraph (a) exceeds

(B) the fair market value of the particular property determined under paragraph (a), and

(iii) paragraph (13)(b) does not apply in respect of the gift.

Non-qualifying securities — anti-avoidance

(13.3) For the purposes of subsections (13.1) and (13.2), if, as part of a series of transactions, an individual makes a gift to a qualified donee and the qualified donee acquires a non-qualifying security of a person (other than the individual or particular person referred to in subsection (13.1)) and it may reasonably be considered, having regard to all the circumstances, that one of the purposes or results of the acquisition of the non-qualifying security by the qualified donee was to facilitate, directly or indirectly, the making of the gift by the individual, then the non-qualifying security acquired by the qualified donee is deemed to be a non-qualifying security of the individual.

b) une personne donnée détient un titre non admissible du particulier;

c) le donataire reconnu acquiert, directement ou indirectement, un titre non admissible du particulier ou de la personne donnée.

Titres non admissibles — tiers

(13.2) En cas d'application du présent paragraphe :

a) pour l'application du présent article, la juste valeur marchande du bien donné est réputée être réduite d'une somme égale à la juste valeur marchande du titre non admissible acquis par le donataire reconnu;

b) pour l'application du paragraphe (13) :

(i) si le titre non admissible acquis par le donataire reconnu est un titre non admissible de la personne donnée, il est réputé être un titre non admissible du particulier,

(ii) le particulier est réputé avoir fait don, au moment donné visé au paragraphe (13.1), du titre non admissible acquis par le donataire reconnu, dont la juste valeur marchande ne dépasse pas l'excédent de la somme visée à la division (A) sur celle visée à la division (B) :

(A) la juste valeur marchande du bien donné, déterminée compte non tenu de l'alinéa a),

(B) la juste valeur marchande du bien donné, déterminée selon l'alinéa a),

(iii) l'alinéa (13)b) ne s'applique pas relativement au don.

Titres non admissibles — anti-évitement

(13.3) Pour l'application des paragraphes (13.1) et (13.2), si, dans le cadre d'une série d'opérations, un particulier fait un don à un donataire reconnu, que ce dernier acquiert un titre non admissible d'une personne (sauf le particulier ou la personne donnée visée au paragraphe (13.1)) et qu'il est raisonnable de considérer, compte tenu des circonstances, que l'un des objets ou des résultats de l'acquisition de ce titre par le donataire reconnu a été de faciliter, directement ou indirectement, le don par le particulier, le titre non admissible acquis par le donataire reconnu est réputé être un titre non admissible du particulier.

Exchanged security

(14) Where a share (in this subsection referred to as the "new share") that is a non-qualifying security of an individual has been acquired by a donee referred to in subsection 118.1(13) in exchange for another share (in this subsection referred to as the "original share") that is a non-qualifying security of the individual by means of a transaction to which section 51, subparagraphs 85.1(1)(a)(i) and 85.1(1)(a)(ii) or section 86 or 87 applies, the new share is deemed for the purposes of this subsection and subsection 118.1(13) to be the same share as the original share.

Exchange of beneficial interest in trust

(14.1) Where a donee disposes of a beneficial interest in a trust that is a non-qualifying security of an individual in circumstances where paragraph (13)(c) would, but for this subsection, apply in respect of the disposition, and in respect of which the donee receives no consideration other than other non-qualifying securities of the individual, for the purpose of subsection (13) the gift referred to in that subsection is to be read as a reference to a gift of those other non-qualifying securities.

Death of donor

(15) If, but for this subsection, an individual would be deemed by subsection 118.1(13) to have made a gift after the individual's death, for the purpose of this section the individual is deemed to have made the gift in the taxation year in which the individual died, except that the amount of interest payable under any provision of this Act is the amount that it would be if this subsection did not apply to the gift.

Loanbacks

(16) For the purpose of this section, where

(a) at any particular time an individual makes a gift of property,

(b) if the property is a non-qualifying security of the individual, the gift is an excepted gift, and

Échange d'un droit de bénéficiaire dans une fiducie

(14.1) Dans le cas où un donataire dispose d'un droit de bénéficiaire dans une fiducie qui est un titre non admissible d'un particulier, dans des circonstances où l'alinéa (13)c) s'appliquerait à la disposition en l'absence du présent paragraphe, et ne reçoit en contrepartie que d'autres titres non admissibles du particulier, le don visé au paragraphe (13) est réputé, pour l'application de ce paragraphe, être un don de ces autres titres.

Décès du donateur

(15) Le particulier qui, si ce n'était le présent paragraphe, serait réputé par le paragraphe (13) avoir fait un don après son décès est réputé, pour l'application du présent article, avoir fait le don au cours de l'année d'imposition de son décès. Toutefois, les intérêts payables en vertu d'une disposition de la présent loi sont ceux qui seraient payables si le présent paragraphe ne s'appliquait pas au don.

(c) in the case of a source entity that is a subject entity described in paragraph (b) of the definition qualified REIT property in subsection (1) in respect of the parent entity at each time during the taxation year at which the parent entity holds securities of the source entity, the specified amount cannot reasonably be considered to be derived from the source entity's gross REIT revenue from maintaining, improving, leasing or managing real or immovable properties that are capital properties of the parent entity or of an entity of which the parent entity holds a share or an interest, including real or immovable properties that the parent entity, or an entity of which the parent entity holds a share or an interest, holds together with one or more other persons or partnerships.

Application du paragraphe (1.2)

(1.1) Le paragraphe (1.2) s'applique à une entité pour une année d'imposition relativement à une somme et à une autre entité (appelées respectivement « entité mère », « somme déterminée » et « entité d'origine » au présent paragraphe et au paragraphe (1.2)) si les conditions ci-après sont réunies :

Character preservation rule

(1.2) If this subsection applies to a parent entity for a taxation year in respect of a specified amount and a source entity, then for the purposes of the definition real estate investment trust in subsection (1), to the extent that the specified amount can reasonably be considered to be derived from gross REIT revenue of the source entity having a particular character, the specified amount is deemed to be gross REIT revenue of the parent entity having the same character and not having any other character.

Character of revenue — hedging arrangements

(1.3) For the purposes of the definition real estate investment trust in subsection (1),

(a) if an amount is included in gross REIT revenue of a trust for a taxation year and it results from an agreement that can reasonably be considered to have been made by the trust to reduce its risk from fluctuations in interest rates in respect of debt incurred by the trust to acquire or refinance real or immovable property, the amount is deemed to have the same character as gross REIT revenue in respect of the real or immovable property and not any other character; and

(b) if a real or immovable property is situated in a country other than Canada and an amount included in gross REIT revenue of a trust for a taxation year

(i) is a gain from fluctuations in the value of the currency of that country relative to Canadian currency recognized on

(A) revenue in respect of the real or immovable property, or

(B) debt incurred by the trust for the purpose of earning revenue in respect of the real or immovable property, or

(ii) results from an agreement that

(A) provides for the purchase, sale or exchange of currency, and

(B) can reasonably be considered to have been made by the trust to reduce its risk from currency fluctuations described in subparagraph (i), the amount is deemed to have the same character as gross REIT revenue in respect of the real or immovable property and not any other character.

avec une ou plusieurs autres sociétés ou sociétés de personnes.

Revenu de même nature

(1.2) Si le présent paragraphe s'applique à une entité mère pour une année d'imposition relativement à une somme déterminée et à une entité d'origine, pour l'application de la définition de fiducie de placement immobilier au paragraphe (1) et dans la mesure où il est raisonnable de considérer que la somme déterminée provient du revenu brut de FPI de l'entité d'origine, la somme déterminée est réputée être un revenu brut de FPI de l'entité mère de même nature que celui de l'entité d'origine et ne pas être un revenu d'une autre nature.

Nature du revenu — arrangements de couverture

(1.3) Les règles ci-après s'appliquent à la définition de fiducie de placement immobilier au paragraphe (1) :

a) toute somme qui est incluse dans le revenu brut de FPI d'une fiducie pour une année d'imposition et qui découle d'une convention qu'il est raisonnable de considérer comme ayant été conclue par la fiducie dans le but de réduire le risque que présentent pour elle les fluctuations des taux d'intérêt relatifs aux dettes qu'elle contracte en vue d'acquérir ou de refinancer des biens immeubles ou réels est réputée être de même nature que le revenu brut de FPI relatif aux biens immeubles ou réels et ne pas être d'une autre nature;

b) si un bien immeuble ou réel est situé dans un pays étranger et que l'un des faits ci-après se vérifie à l'égard d'une somme incluse dans le revenu brut de FPI d'une fiducie pour une année d'imposition, la somme est réputée être de même nature que le revenu brut de FPI relativement au bien immeuble ou réel et ne pas être d'une autre nature :

(i) la somme représente un gain provenant des fluctuations de la valeur de la monnaie de ce pays par rapport au dollar canadien, constaté :

(A) soit sur un revenu relatif au bien immeuble ou réel,

(B) soit sur une dette contractée par la fiducie dans le but de tirer un revenu relatif à ce bien,

(ii) la somme découle d'une convention qui, à la fois :

(A) prévoit l'achat, la vente ou l'échange de monnaie,

(B) selon ce qu'il est raisonnable de considérer, a été conclue par la fiducie dans le but de réduire le risque que représentent pour elle les fluctuations visées au sous-alinéa (i).

Application of definition SIFT trust

(2) The definition SIFT trust applies to a trust for a taxation year of the trust that ends after 2006, except that if the trust would have been a SIFT trust on October 31, 2006 had that definition been in force and applied to the trust as of that date, that definition does not apply to the trust for a taxation year of the trust that ends before the earlier of

(a) 2011, and

(b) the first day after December 15, 2006 on which the trust exceeds normal growth as determined by reference to the normal growth guidelines issued by the Department of Finance on December 15, 2006, as amended from time to time, unless that excess arose as a result of a prescribed transaction.

Application de la définition de fiducie intermédiaire de placement déterminée

(2) La définition de fiducie intermédiaire de placement déterminée s'applique à une fiducie pour ses années d'imposition se terminant après 2006. Toutefois, dans le cas où la fiducie aurait été une fiducie intermédiaire de placement déterminée le 31 octobre 2006 si cette définition avait été en vigueur et s'était appliquée à la fiducie à compter de cette date, la définition ne s'applique pas à la fiducie pour ses années d'imposition qui se terminent avant 2011 ou, s'il est antérieur, avant le premier jour après le 15 décembre 2006 où sa croissance excède ce qui constitue une croissance normale d'après les précisions publiées par le ministère des Finances le 15 décembre 2006, et leurs modifications successives, sauf si l'excédent découle d'une opération visée par règlement.

(a) may, on sending the notice of assessment for the year, refund an amount (in this subsection referred to as its "capital gains refund" for the year) equal to the lesser of

(i) the total of

(A) 16.5% of the total of the trust's capital gains redemptions for the year, and

(B) the positive or negative amount, if any, that the Minister determines to be reasonable in the circumstances, after giving consideration to the percentages applicable in determining the trust's capital gains refunds for the year or any previous taxation year and the percentages applicable in determining the trust's refundable capital gains tax on hand at the end of the year, and

(ii) the trust's refundable capital gains tax on hand at the end of the year; and

Fiducies de fonds commun de placement

Remboursement au titre des gains en capital à une fiducie de fonds commun de placement

132 (1) Lorsqu'une fiducie a été, tout au long d'une année d'imposition, une fiducie de fonds commun de placement et que la déclaration de son revenu pour l'année a été faite dans les 3 ans suivant la fin de l'année, le ministre :

a) peut, lors de l'envoi de l'avis de cotisation pour l'année, rembourser une somme (appelée « remboursement au titre des gains en capital » au présent paragraphe) égale au moins élevé des montants suivants :

(i) la somme des montants suivants :

(A) 16,5 % des rachats au titre des gains en capital de la fiducie pour l'année,

(B) le montant positif ou négatif que le ministre estime raisonnable dans les circonstances, après avoir pris en considération les pourcentages applicables au calcul des remboursements au titre des gains en capital de la fiducie pour l'année ou pour toute année d'imposition antérieure et les pourcentages applicables au calcul de son impôt en main remboursable au titre des gains en capital à la fin de l'année,

(ii) l'impôt en main remboursable au titre des gains en capital de la fiducie, à la fin de l'année;

(b) shall, with all due dispatch, make that capital gains refund after sending the notice of assessment if an application for it has been made in writing by the trust within the period within which the Minister would be allowed under subsection 152(4) to assess tax payable under this Part by the trust for the year if that subsection were read without reference to paragraph 152(4)(a).

b) effectue le remboursement au titre des gains en capital avec diligence après avoir envoyé l'avis de cotisation, si la fiducie en fait la demande par écrit au cours de la période pendant laquelle le ministre pourrait établir, aux termes du paragraphe 152(4), une cotisation concernant l'impôt payable en vertu de la présente partie par la fiducie pour l'année si ce paragraphe s'appliquait compte non tenu de son alinéa a).

Application to other liability

(2) Instead of making a refund that might otherwise be made under subsection 132(1) the Minister may, where the trust is liable or about to become liable to make any payment under this Act, apply the amount that would otherwise be refunded to that other liability and notify the trust of that action.

Imputation sur une autre obligation

(2) Au lieu d'effectuer le remboursement qui pourrait autrement être fait en vertu du paragraphe (1), le ministre peut, lorsque la fiducie est tenue de faire un paiement en vertu de la présente loi, ou est sur le point de l'être, imputer sur cette autre obligation la somme qui serait par ailleurs remboursable et en aviser la fiducie.

Interest on capital gains refund

(2.1) If a capital gains refund for a taxation year is paid to, or applied to a liability of, a mutual fund trust, the Minister shall pay or apply interest on the refund at the prescribed rate for the period beginning on the day that is 30 days after the later of

(a) the day that is 90 days after the end of the year, and

(b) the day on which the trust's return of income under this Part for the year was filed under section 150 and ending on the day on which the refund is paid or applied.

Intérêts sur les remboursements au titre de gains en capital

(2.1) Lorsque le montant d'un remboursement au titre de gains en capital pour une année d'imposition est versé à une fiducie de fonds commun de placement, ou imputé sur toute somme dont elle est redevable, le ministre paie ou impute sur ce montant des intérêts, au taux prescrit, calculés pour la période allant du trentième jour suivant le dernier en date des jours ci-après jusqu'au jour où le montant est payé ou imputé :

a) le quatre-vingt-dixième jour suivant la fin de l'année;

b) le jour où la déclaration de revenu de la fiducie pour l'année en vertu de la présente partie est produite en conformité avec l'article 150.

Excess interest on capital gains refund

(2.2) Where at any particular time interest has been paid to, or applied to a liability of, a trust under subsection 132(2.1) in respect of a capital gains refund and it is determined at a subsequent time that the capital gains refund was less than that in respect of which interest was so paid or applied,

(a) the amount by which the interest that was so paid or applied exceeds the interest, if any, computed in respect of the amount that is determined at the subsequent time to be the capital gains refund shall be deemed to be an amount (in this subsection referred to as the "amount payable") that became payable under this Part by the trust at the particular time;

(b) the trust shall pay to the Receiver General interest at the prescribed rate on the amount payable, computed from the particular time to the day of payment; and

Intérêts excédentaires sur les remboursements au titre de gains en capital

(2.2) Lorsque, à un moment donné, des intérêts ont été, en application du paragraphe (2.1), payés à une fiducie, ou imputés sur une somme dont elle est redevable, relativement à un remboursement au titre de gains en capital et qu'il est établi ultérieurement que le montant du remboursement était inférieur au montant à l'égard duquel les intérêts ont été ainsi payés ou imputés, les règles suivantes s'appliquent :

a) l'excédent des intérêts payés ou imputés sur les intérêts calculés sur le montant ultérieurement établi comme étant le montant du remboursement au titre de gains en capital est réputé être un montant (appelé « montant payable » au présent paragraphe) devenu payable par la fiducie au moment donné en vertu de la présente partie;

(c) the Minister may at any time assess the trust in respect of the amount payable and, where the Minister makes such an assessment, the provisions of Divisions I and J apply, with such modifications as the circumstances require, in respect of the assessment as though it had been made under section 152.

b) la fiducie paie au receveur général des intérêts sur le montant payable, calculés au taux prescrit pour la période allant du moment donné jusqu'au jour du paiement;

c) le ministre peut, à tout moment, établir une cotisation à l'égard de la fiducie pour le montant payable; le cas échéant, les dispositions des sections I et J s'appliquent à la cotisation, avec les adaptations nécessaires, comme si elle avait été établie en application de l'article 152.

Application of s. 104(20)

(3) In its application in respect of a mutual fund trust, subsection 104(20) shall be read as if the reference therein to "a dividend (other than a taxable dividend)" were read as a reference to "a capital dividend".

Application du par. 104(20)

(3) Pour son application à une fiducie de fonds commun de placement, la mention de « dividende autre qu'un dividende imposable », au paragraphe 104(20), est remplacée par la mention de « dividende en capital ».
